TROLLEY WILL GO ON EAST FRONT STREET.

Railroad Capitalists Outwit Residential Apponents.

BOUGHT PROPERTY TO DO IT.

SAMUEL MILLIKEN SOLD A LOT TO A RAILROAD ADVOCATE.

The Land is at the Corner of East Front Street and Richmond Street, Opposite the Home of James T. Clawson, Who is One of the Bitterest Opponents to the Introduction of the Trolley on East Front Street—This Purchase Gives the Railway Over 51 Per Cent of Consents For Right of Way.

A silent but none the less vigorous warfare has been waged between the property owners on East Front street and the capitalists of the Plainfield Street Railway Company for many weeks. The trolley advocates were anxious to connect their present lines with the proposed road from Scotch Plains. The Scotch Plains road came down East Second street as far as Richmond street, but beyond that the roadway was too narrow to accommodate the trolley. East Front street was then selected. After months of labor among the property owners to secure the necessary consents, the trolley kings have now outwitted their residental opponents and bought their way through.

According to the State law, a trolley company cannot lay its track on a street until the consent of the owners of over fifty per cent of the land fronting on the street has been secured. Since the Plainfield company started to get the permits on East Front street it has met with decided opposition on the art of some of the wealthy land owners. Consents have been secured but not enough to allow the company to run their tracks down that street.

The fight has been a hard one, many interests have been brought to bear by both sides. Everything that might influence the property owners was brought up. The contest was a quiet one, little was known of it outside of the circle of those interested. The newspapers have had but little to say about it. Both sides were reticent about talking for fear that the other side might learn their plans.

After trying every other plan available, the trolley magnates decided on a new plan of operations. If they could not win their way through any other way, they would buy it through. They only lacked but a small amount to make up the necessary amount of consents.

Samuel Milliken, of Central avenue, owns, or rather did own a lot at the corner of East Front and Richmond streets, directly opposite the large residence of James T. Closson, one of the leaders in the fight against the trolley. Sometime ago negotiations were begun by Adrain Riker, of Newark, a brother of Chandler W. Riker, President of the Plainfield Street Railway, looking toward the purchase of that property. The lot is 157 feet long and 175 feet deep. Mr. Milliken placed a good price on the property and instructed his real estate agent, J. T. Vail, to sell it for no less. Riker at last agreed to the terms and the deed has now been signed.

While the trolley magnates make no announcement that they have completed their work of securing consents, it is understood on good authority that such is the case and that this purchase ends the fight for the possession of East Front street, between Watchung avenue and Richmond street.

BURGLARS WORKED DURING STORM.

Entered a Partially Built House and Stole $75 Worth of Carpenter Tools.

While the storm of Tuesday evening was at its height some unknown men broke into the handsome new residence of Judge Steele, at Avon Park, which has now almost reached completion. They gained entrance through a door, which was broken down with some heavy tool.

In the house were the tools belonging to William Brokaw, the builder, of this city, and his men. The thief or thieves went through the tools and helped themselves to the best of them. The articles stolen were valued at $75.

The loss was not discovered until morning when the workmen returned. They found the door battered in and what remained of their tools scattered about the rooms. There was no clue to the thieves.

Band of Salvationists.

The national staff band of the headquarters of the Salvation Army will conduct a special meeting in the hall at North and Park avenues tomorrow night.

THEY MET SOCIALLY.

WARREN CHAPEL SOCIETY ENTERTAINED BEREAN BIBLE CLASS.

Rev. and Mrs. J. O. McKelvey Acted as Hosts, and a Clever Programme of Musical Numbers Was Given After the Supper.

The rooms of Warren chapel presented an attractive sight last evening when the members of the Ladies' Aid Society gave a supper to the members of Berean Bible class. The affair was arranged by the women solely for sociability and for the purpose of giving the members and their wives an opportunity of becoming better acquainted. The members were allowed to bring their wives only, and in case they had none they were to come alone.

In the primary department room the tables were arranged by those in charge. Several banquet lamps were used and with good effect. The table decorations were very pretty and great admiration was expressed.

Rev. J. O. McKelvey, pastor at the chapel and teacher of the Berean Class, together with his wife, acted as host and hostess, and everyone present received from them a warm and cordial reception.

The supper was in every particular a great success and the various dishes were served in a manner pleasing to all.

After the supper all adjourned to the main part of the chapel where a choice entertainment was presented for the amusement of the guests. There were selections on the mandolin by Erwin Cooley, of Cornwell University. His playing was a decided feature and received hearty applause. He was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. McKelvey. Another feature was the singing by Miss Delphine Bowers, whose sweet voice was greatly enjoyed. Edson C. Martin, of Putnam avenue, also appeared on the programme and his tenor solos proved to be exceedingly enjoyable. Mrs. McKelvey was the accompanist, and those who furnished the entertainment received the cordial thanks of all for their efforts. During the evening there was an intermingling among those present and the sociability was one of the best features.

Those who deserve credit for the arrangement of the affair include Mrs. A. V. D. Honeyman, Mrs. J. W. Gavette, Miss Adelle Kirby, Miss Swain, Miss Finck, Miss Maude Honeyman, Mrs. Sutton, Miss Hattie Taynor, Mrs. Manning, Miss Bowers, Mrs. Francis Whiteley and J. W. Gavett.

DR. MACK NAMED FOR MAYOR.

Republicans in Elizabeth Agree Upon a City Ticket.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, April 1.—The Republican convention of Elizabeth nominated for Mayor last night Dr. William A. M. Mack; for Alderman at large, George T. Parrot; for freeholders, William H. Hulskamper, Frederick Miller, Jos. Benedict and James C. Ogden. James White and Frank Smeader were also placed in nomination, but they were defeated.

The nomination of Dr. Mack was made by Mayor John C. Rankin in a eulogistic speech, which met with great applause. He also made the nominating speech for Surrogate and former Assemblyman Geo. T. Parrot, and said that Mr. Parrot did not want the nomination, but his party called upon him and he complied with its demands that he should make the fight.

The convention was presided over by Charles C. McBride, editor of the Elizabeth Journal: City Attorney C. Addison Swift was secretary.

A Cyclist Thrown and Hurt.

Edward Baker, of East Third and Washington streets, met with an accident while returning from Westfield on his wheel Wednesday afternoon. He was riding down a hill just outside of Plainfield when his tire became loose on the rim and he was thrown heavily to the ground. He was badly cut about the face and hands. His wheel was wrecked. Some passersby carried him back to the Westfield station, where he took a train for Plainfield.

Changed His Office.

Harry C. Runyon has given up his old offices at rooms 306 and 307 in the Babcock building, and moved to rooms 212 and 213 on the second floor of the same building. His new rooms are those formerly occupied by the Board of Trade. The new Board of Trade, of which Mr. Runyon is secretary, will use the back room for its meeting place. The billiard and pool tables now there are to be sold at auction.

LUMPSUM FOR LAWYER, ONE CASE FOR A TEST.

How The Martin Act Will Be Fought in This City

AFFECTED ONES WILL UNITE.

THE COMMISSIONERS' REPORT WILL GET TO SUPREME COURT.

First, the Property Owners Who Are Affected by the Report Will Go Before the County Judge and Then Carry the Contest to A Higher Tribune—Date for a Public Meeting in Board of Trade Rooms Has Not Been Fixed, But a Lively Meeting and Hot Arguments Will Ensue.

There is evident determination in the effort to fight the report of the Martin Act Commissioners. Then, too, the effort promises to be a united one. When the question of the collecting of back taxes under the provisions of the Martin Act was first agitated, a great storm of indignation went up from the citizens who were innocently affected by it. Then came the appointment of the Commissioners and the excitement died down to some extent. Now, however, that the text of the report of the Commissioners has been learned, the storm bursts forth with renewed violence.

Fred C. Lounsbury, president of the Board of Trade, is one of the most energetic of those who worked against the movement when it first appeared and who now plans to fight the rulings of the Commissioners in the courts. Mr. Lounsbury has always paid his taxes, but he purchased property from the Smillie estate which was supposed to be free from all encumbrances. It was not, however, according to the decisions of the Martin Act Commissioners. There are scores of others who are placed in virtually the same position as Mr. Lounsbury. These are the principal opponents of the law and its results, which they denounce as "infamous."

While no date has yet been set for the public indignation meeting at the Board of Trade rooms, it promises to be a lively one. It is the intention of some of those who are largely affected by the report, to organize a movement against it. They will secure counsel and probably carry one test case to the highest court in the State to try its legality.

Before any action of that kind is taken, the county court will hold a public hearing to all who have anything to say for or against the report. It is the wish of some of the leading opponents of the report to take a small army of Plainfield citizens to the hearing and demonstrate that there is a manifest sense of the injustice of the whole matter in the minds of the people in Plainfield.

Aside from the general plan of the objectors, nothing has now been decided. Action will necessitate the combination of the opponents and that will not be made until the night of the public meeting which is called for that express purpose.

PERMANENT RESCUE MISSION.

Young Christian Workers Organize for Effective Work.

For over a month a number of Christian workers have been conducting a rescue mission in this city at 129 East Front street, and feeling that the time had come for a permanent orgnization of the work and that results warranted such a course, a meeting was held last night and an organization effected. F. H. Martin was selected as superintendent for the first year and committees were appointed to care for the different branches of the work. The mission will be strictly inter-denominational and Mr. Martin desires the assistance of all Christian workers especially the active members of the Christian Endeavor societies of the city. He will explain the objects of the mission tonight at 8 o'clock at the rooms, and invites all that are interested in the mission to be present and express their views upon the subject.

Comfort Bags for Sailors.

The members of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Park Avenue Baptist Church held their regular monthly business meeting last evening at the home of Miss Giles, East Sixth street, and the attendance was large. The missionary committee decided to call a meeting at an early date for the purpose of making comfort-bags for sailors, and a committee will be appointed to arrange for the tenth anniversary of the society, which will take place next November. The meeting closed after the serving of refreshments and a general time of sociability

SPAIN EVADES.

Looks Unfavorable for Peace.

CABINET IS IN SESSION

The Reply of Spain to President's Ultimatum Shows a Defiant Attitude.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Washington, April 1—President McKinley says that no more time will be given to Spain.

Spain must, he says, reply immediately, yes or no to his offer.

The Senate has adjourned until next Monday.

Washington, April 1.—The full reply of Spain to McKinley's demand for Cuban independence will be laid before the Cabinet today and the draft of an answer agreed to. Spain has not given her final decision to the President's "ultimatum" that Cuba must be free. Instead she sent a message so long, that its translation was not completed until after the close of the White House conference shortly after midnight.

The question is, Will the President send an answer to Spain's despatch or simply send it to Congress with a message such as he has prepared in outline, reviewing the diplomatic history of the case, making it clear why diplomacy has failed, and recommending that Congress end the whole trouble by an act of intervention?

This question must be decided at the Cabinet meeting today. Congress will not wait. Both Houses long ago reached the limit of tolerance. They have yielded patriotically and loyally to the appeal for time in which to show the world that the resources of diplomacy have failed, and now they are eager to dispose of the question themselves in their own way.

Minister Woodford will probably be instructed today what to say to the Spanish Government with regard to its note now on the President's table, and his instructions can hardly contain less than a demand for a final reply within a stated period of time, probaly twenty-four hours.

Then the President, whether the answer is "Yes" or "No," will proceed to make up the case to be submitted to the two Houses of Congress, possibly on Monday, perhaps not until Tuesday.

Washington April 1, 1 p. m.—The Europeam diplomats have all notified their respective governments that war seems inevitable.

Commodore Schley has been telegraphed to be ready to sail for Cuba at a moment's notice.

Washington, April 1.—Minister Benate, of Spain, did not retire until daybreak. He was in constant receipt of cablegrams requiring his deepest attention all night.

Madrid, April 1, 1 p. m.—According to the best information obtainable at the present moment, Spain has definitely resolved not to make any further concessions.

London, April 1. 2 p. m.—A steamer has arrived from the Canaries and reports that they met the Spanish torpedo flotilla going south and understood to be bound for Cuba. The fleet was moving slowly and displayed no bunting.

IN A NAMELESS GRAVE NEW-BORN BABE LIES

The Ghastly Discovery Made By Three Youths.

FOUND IN A POOL OF WATER

A CRIME IN WHICH THE GUILTY HANDS ARE UNKNOWN.

The Boys Were Wandering Along Cedar Brook When the Wee Body, Without Clothes or Covering of any Kind, was Discovered—A Pitchfork Used to Take the Remains Out of the Water—County Physician Examined the Corpse and Granted a Burial Permit—The Babe was of Negro Parentage

Exposed to the full fury of the elements lay the body of a new-born babe floating about in the shallow water of Cedar brook just below the bridge where Scott place crosses the brook. How long it lay there no one but the one who left it there knows. Yesterday afternoon it was discovered by three small boys playing in the neighborhood. Then the police were notified. Now the little one lays in a nameless grave. The discovery of the tiny corpse was exclusively stated in an extra edition of yesterday's Press.

The three boys who played the important part in this ghastly discovery were Albert Zabriskie, of LaGrande avenue, Fred E VanLiew, of East Sixth street, and George Aller, of LaGrande avenue. They are all lads of about fourteen years. Yesterday afternoon they happened to be playing right along the brook. Now right in the rear of Patrick Keely & Son's stables there is a small dam in the brook. As a result, there is a small shallow pond of still water.

The boys were wandering along the bank when one of them noticed a little form bobbing up and down in the water close to the bank. It looked like a small animal, but on closer inspection, the boys were horrified to discover that it was a baby. Considerably frightened at what they had found, the boys departed without stopping to investigate. One of their number rode his wheel to town and notified Patrolman McCue, who reported the find to Roundsman Flynn.

Flynn went at once to investigate. Meeting Chief Grant at Scott's Press Works, the two went at once to the place where the body lay. With a pitchfork from the stables the little body was lifted out of the water, wrapped in some clothes and placed in a box.

The corpse was that of a colored boy, perfectly nude, and evidently only a few hours old. It was evident that the corpse had been in the water for some time, three or four days at least and possibly a week. The baby while perfectly formed, was very small and was evidently still born.

There was absolutely no clue as to the parents of the babe or as to who it was that left the child there. The theory of the police, which seems very plausible, is that the body was thrown under the bridge at Scott place and drifted down to the little pond formed by the dam in the rear of Keeley's place on LaGrande avenue. The spot is a short distance above Richmond street.

The body was taken to Casey's morgue on West Third street. County Physician Westcott examined it late yesterday afternoon and granted a burial permit. It was interred this morning.

The New Order.

Supreme Commander and Organizer Mrs. Eva Wyckoff, of the Order of Shepherds of Bethlehem, of Trenton, held a preliminary meeting in Red Men's Hall last evening for the purpose of organizing a lodge in this city. There was a goodly number of people present, but not a sufficient number to organize. It was decided to name the new lodge Plainfield Star of Bethlehem, Order of Shepherds of Bethlehem. Another meeting for organization will be held next week Thursday evening.

Stands Between Love and Study.

Dr. Simpson, of West Fifth street, has received a telegram from his mother who lives at Dayton, O., which states that she has been flooded out of her home by the very heavy floods that have visited that section of the country. Mrs. Simpson is desirous that her son shall come home, but as the doctor is now under orders from the State authorities not to leave the State at present, as he may be summoned at once to enlist with the New Jersey Naval Reserves.

A YOUTHFUL HARPIST.

HE PLAYED WITH WONDERFUL ACCURACY AND FEELING.

A Fine Musical Programme Given in Vincent Chapel Last Night—Tableaux of Bible Incidents Were Beautiful.

A youthful harpist of much ability and a series of Biblical tableaux were the principal attractions at the entertainment given in Vincent chapel last evening by the Ladies' Aid Society of the First M. E. church.

The programme opened with a piano solo, "Valse Caprice," by Miss Maud French. It was well rendered. Then came a harp solo by Master Fanelli, the 'Boy Harpist." Although only a youth in years, he played with a skill and touch of an artist. His touch was sure and yet light, while he played with an accuracy and feeling that has made him a wonder in the musical world.

Three short recitations, embodying pathos, feeling and humor, were given by Miss Bertha Whitney. The recitations were "Loraine Lorie," "One, Two, Three," and "Supposing." Another harp solo by Master Fanelli closed the first part.

Part second consisted of a series of Biblical tableaux interspersed by selections on the harp by the youthful artist. The titles of the tableaux were as follows: "The March from Israel," "The People Rejoiced in That They Offered Willingly," "The King's Daghter," "The Morning Prayer," "And Bind Them on Thee as a Brine Doeth," "Rise up, ye Women," "We Have Heard What Works Thou Did'st in the Times of Old" and "Presenting the Golden Sceptre to Queen Esther."

The costumes and groupings in the tableaux were all taken from the new Illustrated Bible. The calcium lights of various colors were turned on the groups with very pretty effect. The tableaux were all very pretty. The costumes were principally in white or light blue, with here and there a red sash to lend color to the effect.

There were no particular characters taken by the different participants except that Clifford A. McGee took the part of "King Solomon" in the tableaux in which the latter appeared, while Miss Sadie Blimm portrayed "The Queen of Sheba." The others who took part in the tableaux were the Misses Maud French, Bertha Jenkins, Etta Raybert, Edna Harris, Lizzie Stafford, and Lucie Palmer Davis and Harlan G. Snodgrass, Frank McDonald and James A. Stafford.

The commitee in charge of the entertainment consisted of Mrs. George H. Whitney, Mrs. L. M. French, Mrs. Charles H. Lyman and Miss Bertha Whitney.

KEAN'S TROLLEY PLANS.

Wants to Build a Line From Staten Island Ferry to Plainfield.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, April 1.—John Kean, of this city, who controls the Elizabeth Street Railway and who has offered $100,000 for the right to build a trolley line in Westfield avenue, between this city and Plainfield, and who also owns the franchise for a trolley line in Morris avenue to the city line, says his interests have not been taken in by the consolidation of the trolley systems of New Jersey. He says his offer for the Westfield avenue line still holds good and can be accepted by the Freeholders at any time. If he obtains this franchise he says he will build a line running from the Staten Island ferry through the city to Plainfield.

In Honor of Her Birthday.

In honor of the celebration of the anniversary of her birthday Mrs Anestor Corwin, of Park avenue, entertained a few of her friends at her home last evening. The affair was one of congratulation and the hostess was wished many happy returns of the day. Sociability was the feature and at a late hour supper was served.

Remembered in Her Old Age.

Mrs. Moses D. Brown, of East Fourth street, is celebrating the anniversary of her sixty-ninth birthday today and she received a substantial present from her children, grandchildren and great grand-children. It consisted of a very handsome box containing sixty-nine useful articles.

Entertained at Whist.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. VanWinkle, of Elm place, entertained about twenty five guests at whist at their home last evening. A very delightful evening was passed and those who were awarded prizes were Mr. and Mrs. Cadwell, Mrs. E. H. Bird and Mr. Lowe.

—Don't forget that tomorrow, Saturday, is your last chance for a sample of Red Ribbon, Mocha and Java coffee at J. F. MacDonald's.

J. Howard Leggett has removed from West Front street to 425 Kensington avenue.

NO LAG IN CRUSADE FOR STRICT SUNDAY.

Mayor Fisk Issues His Orders to the Police.

TO ENFORCE LETTER OF LAW

SEVENTH-DAY BAPTISTS AND HEBREWS WILL NOT BE MOLESTED.

But Those Who Do Not Observe the Seventh Day in a Religious Sense Will Be Proceeded Against By the Police—A Hebrew Woman Arrested in Recent Sunday Raid Was Discharged in City Court This Morning at Request of Corporation Counsel—Margentino's Second Case Adjourned.

The question of Sabbath observance is not to be allowed to drop. The city officials have started on a crusade against those whom they claim have no right to keep their stores open Sunday, and they are determined to carry it to the end. So Mayor Charles J. Fisk has planned an active campaign for next Sunday. Meanwhile the City Judge has been asked to look into the case of some of the alleged offenders who were brought in on the raid of two weeks ago.

This morning was the time set for the trial of Fortunio Margentino, who runs a little fruit store at 128 Park avenue. He was charged with selling goods on Sunday. A consultation between Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh and Councilman Walter L. Hetfield, lawyer for the alleged offenders, was held and it was agreed to adjourn the case until April 7th. When Margentino came before City Judge DeMeza this morning the case was adjourned to the date mentioned.

Mrs. J. Augusta Gold, who runs a little store on West Third street, opposite Muhlenberg place, also appeared before the Judge. The Corporation Counsel asked that the case against her be discontinued, and the Judge granted the request. The request was made as a result of an investigation which showed that she was a member of the Hebrew congregation and a regular attendant at its services.

Mayor Fisk has already formulated his orders for the police regarding their work for the coming Sunday. They are instructed to watch all the places that are open that day. No one under any circumstances will be allowed to expose goods for sale outside of their premises. This means on the sidewalk and has nothing to do with the window exhibition. The Seventh day Baptists, the Hebrews and those who observe the Sabbath religiously on Saturday will not be interfered with nor be asked to draw their curtains or close their doors.

Those who do not come in the limits of this description will be compelled to close their stores on Sundays, says the Mayor, or else complaints will be made out and arrests will follow. The Mayor has decided to take a firm stand in the matter.

SPAIN OUT FOR WAR!

She Rejects the Demands of the United States.

HER DIGNITY OUTRAGED

What We Ask Is Inconsitent with Spain's Honor.

THE POWERS NOTIFIED

Gen. Woodford Is Summoned to the Council Chamber and the Decision of the Cabinet Is Read to Him—It Is Translated Into English and Minister Moret Affirms the Accuracy of the Translation—Woodford Cables It to Washington and Expects an Answer This Morning—Intense Excitement in Madrid.

London, April 1.—The Daily Mail has issued a special edition containing the following despatch from its Madrid correspondent:

"Madrid, March 31.—11 P. M.—At today's conference Prime Minister Sagasta read to United States Minister Woodford a written note of the resolutions adopted by the Government in reply to President McKinley's demands. The chief demands are rejected, the feeling being, as I learn, that they are inconsistent with the dignity and honor of any nation.

"Minister Woodford declared that he could not make an immediate answer, as he must consult his Government. He asked permission to translate the note into English there and then, so that Senor Moret, Minister of the Colonies, who knows English, could revise and approve the translation. This was done. The only thing Gen. Woodford said was to express his personal wishes for conciliation and peace.

"Immediately after the conference Gullon, Minister of Foreign Affairs, visited the Queen Regent and reported to her the result of the meeting. Referring to the confernec Senor Moret said: 'We are still Spaniards.'

"The Spanish note answering the demands was telegraphed to the powers, together with a copy of the American demands.

"Gen. Woodford expects an answer from Washington early in the morning.

"I am assured that France and Russia have asked Spain to formulate the utmost limits of the concessions that she could make, the intention now of the powers being evidently to mediate the dispute.

"Admiral Bermejo, Minister of Marine, has received hundreds of petitions from Spanish and foreign shipowners asking for letters patent to fit out privateers to set against the Americans.

"There is intense popular excitement. The Correspondencia De Espana says that peace or war is hanging on a thread. The utterances of American opinion leave little room for hopes of peace, but the problem will have an immediate solution. All the papers tonight express similar opinions. The situation generally is considered most grave."

SPAIN'S POSITION HOPELESS.

London Times Urges Her to Accept Terms of the United States.

London, April 1.—The Times says editorially this morning:

"It is evident peace and war hang in the balance and that the world has not long to wait for definite information. It cannot be supposed that America's terms have yet been published in their completeness, but they may be guessed to include complete freedom for Cuba.

"The Spanish Government will make a fatal mistake if it fails to understand the terms now offered, which are the best it is ever likely to obtain; and if they are not promptly accepted it is to be feared that the next presentation of American demands will be ina harsher shape. With every sympathy for Spain, her Government, and dynasty, it must be said that the Government of Cuba has been a scandal which would have been resented even by other nations if they had been in as close proximity as the United States.

"It behooves Spain to consider whether Cuba is worth fighting for in such an unequal conflict that ite is even doubtful if Spain would gain a temporary success, while her ultimate defeat would be certain. A moderate naval force could reduce the island by starvation, and privateering could not, in practice, be carried to any extent worth mentioning by Spain without calling for the intervention of neutral nations."

The Vatican Desires Peace.

London, April 1.—The Rome correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says:

"The Government has sent orders to the Italian consuls in the United States to see that the Italian emigrants observe the strictest neutrality in the event of war.

"The Vatican earnestly desires peace. The Pope greatly esteems Spain, but also manifests his warm sympathy for the United States. The Vatican regards the American Catholics as the hope of the Catholic Church and desires to do nothing that will offend the Washington government.

Four Girls at a Birth.

Knoxville, Tenn., April 1.—Mrs. Robert Ford of Conkling, Washington County, gave birth yesterday to four girls, each weighing about four pounds. All are well.

SPAIN DODGES REPLY

After Four Hours Discussion the Cabinet Reaches No Decision.

WAR SEEMS TO BE AT HAND

Premier Sagasta Declares That He Will Not Submit to Any Attack Upon the Honor or the Integrity of His Country—Using Every Device of Diplomacy to Gain Time for the Menacing Torpedo Flotilla to Reach Porto Rico.

Madrid, April 1.—At the Cabinet Council yesterday Senor Sagasta, the Premier, explained with extreme precision all the details of the conferences and negotiations with the United States, which he regarded as necessary to the formation of a proper judgment. Another Minister then spoke, Senor Sagasta listening attentively. After four hours' discussion the Ministers were still without a solution, probably because Senor Sagasta judged it inopportune to take a decision at the present stage of affairs.

A conference with General Woodford was held after the Cabinet meeting and lasted an hour. The Ministers submitted fresh proposals, which General Woodford telegraphed to Washington. Their nature was not disclosed.

After the Cabinet meeting, which was presided over by the Queen Regent, the following semi-official note was issued:

"Captain-General Blanco telegraphs an account of a glorious combat of General Luque against the insurgents commanded by Calixto Garcia, and also makes excellent reports of the progress of the operations, setting forth that the pacifications are so advanced in the western provinces that the concentration of the peasants has been revoked. Public works are also being commenced to give employment to all applicants. In voiw of this, new and important submissions are expected."

Senor Sagasta, in an interview, declared he would "do everything possible to maintain peace, but," he added, "we cannot submit to any attack on the honor or integrity of the country."

WAR CLOUD GROWING.

Spain's Reply Received Last Night in Washington—Friends for Delay.

Washington, April 1.—At 11 o'rlock last night Spain's reply in cipher arrived at the White House. The tedious work of translating it was begun at once. The announcement is made that it cannot be given out until some time to-day. President McKinley's declaration that the war in Cuba must come to an end at once, and that the Spanish troops shall be withdrawn from the island, is assumed to have been answered with a protest and counter proposition.

If Spain's reply were an acceptance of the proposition of the President a dispatch of one word announcing the decision would have come at once. A dispatch of such length and character as to demand reservation for hours after its reception must, it is believed, be a message of such purport as to constrain the President and the Cabinet to agree today, perhaps, upon an ultimatum in due form.

From a trustworthy source it is ascertained that the purpost of the advance dispatch was a request on the part of Spain for delay. The Spanish Ministry, thedipatch said, will not accept the responsibility of acting upon the request of the United States for the termination of the war in Cuba. The Cortes, which will meet in the latter part of April must decide for Spain.

With that request for delay came also a suggestion that Spain will submit some counter-propositions for the settlement of the controversy in which the two Governments are involved.

The refusal of the President to entertain any suggestion looking toward autonomy, or to agree in the arrangement of an extended armistice, was deliberate in its purpose of forcing an issue. Spain's unfavorable response makes an ultimatum unavoidable. War seems to be at hand.

In this great international game every minute that Spain can gain will be to her advantage when the shock of battle comes. It is argued by experienced statesmen that if Spain did not contmplate war this Government would have been advised of her desire to be accommodating. Instead of such a hint there has been nothing but ominous preparation for a struggle on sea and land.

Already preparations have been made to meet Spain's first coup. Cuba and Porto Rico will be invested. Extensive occupation of Cuba is not to be undertaken. In recognizing the insurgents the United States will become possessed immediately of a native ally and an acclimated army.

In the absence of Spain's final decision to accept peace or war, two extremely significant incidents have happened—the North Atlantic Squadron at Key West and the flying squadron at Hampton Roads have been ordered for the first time to keep steam up ready to move in an hour's notice. This order has not been given before. Battle watchs were kept on board ship in both fleets last night, the men practically sleeping at their guns. None of the officers has had shore leave.

The other significant incident last night is that the Spanish Legation began making quiet preparations for departure from Washington. The papers and valuables of the Legation were prepared for packing.

Lover's Murderous Act.

Pittsburg, April 1.—Because Bertha Spiegle would not become his wife William Hillman, a farmer near here, shot and killed her and cut his own throat with a razor. The girl was 15 years old and refused Hillman on account of her youth. Hillman will die.

German Warship Ordered to Cuba.

Berlin, April 1.—Germany has commenced diplomatic representations to Spain relative to the Canamaba case, and the German cruiser Geier, on her way to Bahia, has been ordered to get ready to proceed to Cuba if satisfaction is not quickly forthcoming.

SPAIN'S NEW SQUADRON

Mobilizing Another Fleet of Warships at Cadiz.

SIX VESSELS NOW THERE

Destructor on Her Way, but Detained by Rough Weather—No Information as to the Intentions of This Squadron Received at Washington.

Washington, April 1.—The State and Navy Departments received warning yesterday from Minister Woodford that a formidable Spanish squadron was forming at Cadiz, where the armored cruisers Infanta Maria Teresa and Critobal Colon, whose sailing from Carthagena Wednesday caused so much concern in Government circles, had arrived.

The torpedo gunboat Destructor, which sailed with the two armored cruisers, did not reach Cadiz with the others. She was delayed by rough weather. At Cadiz are the battleship Victoria and the protected criuser Alfonso XIII. They a.e being rapidly prepared for sea servcie.

No information as to the intentions of the Spanish Government concerning this squadron has been received here. The Victoria is an old battleship, built originally in 1865 and reconstructed in 1897-98. Her biggest guns are of 6.3-inch calibre, of which type she has six. She has been used as a training ship for seamen.

She can make 12.7 knots an hour. The Alfonso XIII. is a protected cruiser built in 1891. She has an iron hull. Her speed varies from 16.9 to 17.5 knots, according to draught. With her are the Reina Cristina and Reina Mercedes, types of the Alfonso. The latter ships has been used as a transport.

NOT TO STOP THE FLOTILLA YET.

No Orders Issued for the Sailing of the Flying Squadron.

Washington April 1.—Officers of the Navigation Bureau of the Navy Department deny that orders have been issued for the sailing of the flying squadron from Hampton Roads to meet the Spanish torpedo flotilla.

It is generally believed that Commodor Schley has had in his possesssion from the first formation of the squadron general orders which leave the date of sailing to his discredon in case of certain emergencies. So important a step, however, as sailing to meet the Spanish torpedo boats would not be left to him to decide upon without specific authority.

No doubt exists that the Government is anxious to bring matters connected with the present situation to a definite conclusion within as short a time as possible, in order that, if hostilities must come the navy may be able to strike the first blow at the dangerous torpedo fleet of the Spaniards.

It is regarded as unlikely that orders for the sailing of Commodore Schley's squadron will be issued until the diplomatic situation or the situation in Congress takes a more defintie turn.

THE PRESIDENT'S FLAG.

To Have a Standard of Scarlet, With White Stars and the Nation's Arms.

Washington, April 1.—The President is to have a field flag. He has always had a naval flag of blue silk, but never one for use as the head of the army. Now, by order of the Secretary of War, a flag of scarlet bunting will be made.

It will be thirteen feet long and eight feet hoist. In each of the corners will be a five-pointed white star and in the centre a large white star. Inside of this is another white star. Inside of this is another separated by a hand of white three inches wide. This inner star is a blue field, on which the coat of arms of the United States is inscribed. There are other stars scattered over the flag, one for every State in the Union.

Presidential colors have also been provided of scarlet silk, six feet and a half fly, and four feet on the pike, which will be ten feet long. This will be surmounted by a globe and an American eagle four inches high.

Comedian Billy Barry Very Low.

New York, April 1.—Comedian Billy Barry is reported to be very low, and no encouragement is given to his family for his recovery. In fact, it is stated that his death is a question of only a few days. Mr. Barry is at present at the home of his daughter, Miss Lydia Barry, at 501 Second street. Mr. Barry became ill in Buffalo about six weeks ago, where he was playing in "The Rising Generation." Cancer of the stomach is said to be the cause of his illness.

Projectiles for Spain.

London, April 1.—The Kynochs of Birmingham, who have been filling orders for the Spanish Government for projectiles have undertaken to deliver a large quantity of huge projectiles to Spain at the rate of 200 a week. Other Midland firms are working at high pressure upon foreign orders for arms and munitions, including orders from Austria and, secretly, commissions from the South African Republic.

Better Times in Nebraska.

Lincoln, Neb., April 1.—The State Bank record for the first quarter of 1898 was made public yesterday. It shows a most extraordinary improvement in business. The deposits are increasing daily, and so are the loans. Much money is being advanced to farmers and investors. Eastern money is reported plentiful in Nebraska at 4 per cent.

Gen. Lee Will Return Home.

Key West, Fla., April 1.—A private dispatch from Consul-General Lee to a naval officer here denies the persistent rumors that he has sent his resignation to Washington. Gen. Lee admits to advising all Americans to leave Havana and says he is likely to come away himself in a few days.

Sentenced to Death.

Athens April 1.—Karditza and Tzortzis, who attempted to assassinate King George and his daughter, Princess Marie, on Feb. 26, were both found guilty of the crime last evening and sentenced to death.

The American people shall have no need of the CHINAMAN in the future if every American Laundryman will supply the proper kind of work. Try us and be convinced that we are up-to-date, and that you would rather have AMERICANS by all odds to serve you. Think of the terrible odor that comes from a Chinese Laundry, and yet one half of the people don't know what causes it. Here it is in a Nut Shell. Could you for instance turn out first-class laundry in a room 12x20 where there is three or four living. Think of your laundry in a place of this kind, where they do cooking, smoke their opium and also sleep in same apartment. And still what is more horrible is that all your clothes are sprinkled from the mouth. Think twice before you speak and have an American citizen to do your laundry by all odds.

THE PROBLEM SOLVED.

THE NEW MEDICAL DISCOVERY TESTED.

Results of the Test in Various Forms of Dyspepsia.

Chronic indigestion or dyspepsia, while a very common trouble, has for some time been looked upon by able physicians as a serious thing, and that no time should be lost in treating it properly at the start, because recent researches have shown that the most serious, fatal and incurable diseases have their origin in simple dyspepsia of indigestion.

Diabetes is simply one form of indigestion, the sugar and starchy food not being assimilated by the digestive organs. In Bright's disease the albumen is not properly assimilated.

While consumption and dyspepsia are twin diseases, and it is beyond question that dyspepsia makes a fertile soil for the seeds of consumption.

But the trouble has been to find a remedy that could be depended upon to cure dyspepsia, as it is notoriously obstinate and difficult to cure.

This has been the question which has puzzled physicians and dyspeptics alike, until the question was solved three years ago by the appearance of a new dyspepsia cure in the medical world known as Staurt's Dyspepsia Tablets, which it was claimed was as a certain, reliable cure for every form of stomach trouble.

Physicians, however, would not accept such statements without first giving the new remedy many tests and careful observing results.

For three years the remedy has been thoroughly tested in every section of the country and with surprising and satisfactory results.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be honestly claimed to be a specific, a radical lasting cure for indigestion in the various forms of acid dyspepsia or sour stomach, gas or wind on stomach, too much bile, undue fullness or pressure after eating and similar symptoms resulting from disordered digestion. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets were not placed before the public until this three years' trial left no doubt as to their value and they have recently been placed in the trade and can be found on sale at all druggists at the nominal price of 50 cents per package.

No extravagant claims are made for the remedy. It will not cure rheumatism, pneumonia, typhoid fever nor anything but just what it is claimed to cure and that is every form of stomach trouble.

No dieting is necessary, good wholesome food and plenty of it and you may rest assured that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest it.

Druggists claim for it that it is a pleasure to recommend it to dyspeptics, because it gives such universal satisfaction.

OWED $800,000 TO THE BANKS.

The Late President Singerly Borrowed Without Consulting Directors.

Philadelphia, April 1.—William Steele, ex-cashier of the collapsed Chestnut Street National Bank, charged by Bank Examiner Hardt with making false reports of the bank's condition to the Comptroller of the Currency, had a hearing yesterday before United States Commissioner Edmunds. George M. Coffin, Deputy Controller of the Currency. Bank Examiner Hardt, George H. Earle, receiver of the bank, and all of the directors of the institution gave testimony.

According to the evidence, William M. Singerly, president of the bank, received large loans from the institution. The Controller admonished him to cease borrowing. At that time he owed $579,000, and when the bank failed his indebtedness was $800,000, while the collateral security was estimated at $75,000. Bank Examiner Hardt said eight reports made by Steele in 1896 and 1897 to the Controller were all false with respect to the loans, and in some there was a suppression of facts regarding overdrafts. He testified to each in detail.

Mr. Earle, the receiver, told of a conversation he had with Mr. Steele in which the cashier said Mr. Singerly would come to the bank and get the money from the cash drawer without the knowledge of any of the directors and would place a collateral in a private drawer. This collateral was placed in the books as such items. Steele told the receiver that in doing this he merely was obeying orders.

The testimony of the directors showed they did not know the extent of Mr. Singerly's indebtedness. In October, 1896, the Controller informed them that Mr. Singerly owed $578,000. A meeting was held and Mr. Singerly promised to reduce the amount. Instead it was increased.

The hearing was then continued until next Wednesday, Mr. Steele renewing his bail bond of $10,000.

SAYS HE WILL ACT MONDAY.

Republican Members Warn the President That Congress Won't Wait.

Washington, April 1.—The Committee of Eleven appointed by the conference of Republicans of the House, who are insisting upon prompt and aggressive action for the complete independence of Cuba, called upon the President yesterday afternoon and placed before him their views.

The committee stated to the President that unless he took decisive action by Monday the Republican members would feel at liberty to take action without regard to his wishes in the matter.

Representative Adams, of Pennsylvania, the ranking Republican member of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, pledged himself in caucus Wednesday night to report a resolution from the committee on next Monday, providing the President had not taken action granting the Cubans everything asked for.

President McKinley informed the committe that he fully expected that his suggestions to Spain would receive a reply of some sort within at least twenty-four hours, and he urged the committee to delay any contemplated action until Monday.

The caucusing Republican Representatives met again last night and heard the report from the Committee of Eleven that waited on McKinley. It was decided to take no action in the House until Monday.

Dixon-White Fight a Draw.

Syracuse, April 1.—Tommy White and George Dixon fought a twenty-round draw in the Empire Athletic Club of this city last night. Two thousand persons saw the bout, which was a scientific one. White had the advantage of reach and made the most of, it keeping his left going into Dixon's face with the effect of effectualy preventing the rushes of his opponent doing any damage. Dixon's blows had much greater force, but he failed to land as often as his antagonist, and although the crowd yelled for a decision in favor of White, they were satisfied with the judgment of Referee Hughes. There was little betting at the ringside, what money there was going on the colored boy at odds of 2 to 1 and 4 to 3.

Dynamite Fleet for the Cubans.

Chicago, April 1.—Eleven hundred lake sailors, many of them veterans of the navies of Great Britain, Sweden and Germany, and most of them experienced on salt water, enthusiastically declared themselves ready for service in the event of war with Spain, when a motion to that effect was put at the meeting of the Seamen's Union last night. At the close of the meeting a committee of five was named to raise money to arm a number of small boats with dynamite guns. It is expected that the first of the craft, which will fly the Cuban flag, will be in commission within a fortnight, and that a Cuban navy will be a tangible entity before the end of April.

To Purchase Danish Islands.

Washington, April 1.—Senator Lodge has reported from the Committee on Foreign Relations a bill directing the President to purchase the Danish West India Islands of St. Croix, St. Thomas and St. John, or any one of them, for a naval and coaling station. The purchase is to be made upon such terms as he may in his discretion deem advisable. Five million dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropraited for the purchase.

New York Legislature Adjourns.

Albany, April 1.—After placing $1,000,000 in the hands of the Governor for establishing the National Guard of the State upon a war footing, should the occasion arise, and after fixing the tax rate at $2.08, the lowest figure reached since 1856, with but two exceptions, the shortest session of the Legislature since 1846 came to a close yesterday afternoon.

Spanish Consul Gets Ready to Leave.

Key West, Fla., April 1.—Rafael Seco, the Spanish Concul at this port, has received instructions to pack up his effects preparatory to leaving the United States. Mr. Seco moved his office yesterday from the United States building. This is accepted by all here as an indication that Spain intends to fight.

WEEK FOR DIPLOMACY

President Will Have That Much Time Before Congress Acts.

SUPPORTS THE PRESIDENT

If the Nation Is to Go to War, It Will Be with a Perfect Understanding Between the Legislative and Executive ments—Both Will Wait.

Washington, April 1.—For a week diplomacy still holds the right of way on the road to a settlement of the troubles with Spain. We may resort to bullets later on, but just now, and for a week to come, the cable, and not the cannons' mouth, will flash across seas the sentiments of the two nations. Such is now the present understanding between the administration and Congress, subject, of course, to the possibility, perhaps probability, that diplomacy will exhaust itself at any moment and confess that a mightier power must determine which nation shall prevail.

In that event, President McKinley will lead with the firmness and patriotic purpose with which he has endeavored by other means to end the barbarous war of extermination in Cuba. He will be the first to know when that crisis has been reached, and there need not be the slightest doubt that he will act with a full sense of his responsibilities to the nation and of his duty to humanity.

Will Be in the Right.

In every step by which he approaches the final issue, however, he is determined to be right not merely according to sentiment in this country, but throughout the entire world. A war waged by this nation of seventy million people, and unlimited resources, against a bankrupt and tottering monarchy like Spain, must be one of last resort, and for other purposes than mere revenge in order to be sustained in the eyes of mankind as just and proper. From such a conflict President McKinley does not, and will not, shrink, but he has yet to exhaust other means of agreement, honorable and adequate to all proper demands, and until he does so the country should stand with him shoulder to shoulder, as Congress has again determined to do, in the negotaitions for Cuban independence and the assertion of the rights of humanity.

The unexpected happens when events follow on each other's heels so rapidly as in these history making days, but so far as present plans go, President and Congress are again in entire accord as to the course to be pursued, the objects sought to be attained, and the time that should elapse under reasonable circumstances for a conclusion to be reached between the two nations.

A Great Triumph.

This is a great triumph for the administration, for it means that the next step to be taken by this nation will be as impressive upon the world as was the placing of the fifty million defense fund in the hands of the President without a word of dissent. That act aroused the admiration of all nations for the patriotism and determination of the American people, and diplomats here say that it has done more than all else to give our cause against Spain the high standing it now has in the eyes of the world. It was a determination which no other nation could equal, as unprecendented abroad as it is here, and its influence in guiding the friendly course of European governments has been more potent than people have realized.

Had Congress pursued the hurry-up programme mapped out for it on Monday and Tuesday by some of its leaders the dignified attitude that this country now occupies would have been lost and we would have entered upon war a weaker power without the prestige of proper and deliberate action. This would have been a misfortune, the consequences of which might be far-reaching. Again, though we have the impressive spectacle of a Congress and a President pursuing the one policy with one firm and patriotic purpose.

There is little doubt that they will now remain together to the end, whatever that may be, for no man knows, not even the President. He hopes for peace, and believes that it will come. There is what might be called a fighting chance that his belief is right—not more. So two of his Cabinet officers allow you to infer, at any rate. It is a guess at best. Some say war, some peace. If Sagasta has the courage of his convictions Cuba will be free, peace will reign and diplomacy will have accomplished as much for American patriotism as could war. Otherwise not. A few days will tell the story.

Will Respect President's Request.

Representative Hopkins of Illinois, who was one of the foremost leaders in the independent movement among the representatives for quick action on the Cuban matter, called at the White House yesterday. He had a long talk with the President, and after leaving the executive mansion stated that the agreement reached by the fifty-eight Republican Congressmen to force the Cuban issue in the House is practically off. "You may state for me," said Congressman Hopkins, "that the Republicans of the House will not go astray on this Cuban question. We will support the President and will wait for his instructions. How long we will have to wait I am not able to say, but I believe that the administration will soon make clear its position. The President has asked that Congress should leave this difficulty in his hands for a short time further. There will be no revolt among any considerable number of Republicans in the House."

Relief Message Abandoned.

It is stated at the White House that the President has abandoned for the time being the idea of sending to Congress a special message asking for money for the relief of the starving Cubans. This matter is to be kept in the background until the present situation clears up somewhat.

One of the members of the House who saw the President says that if a favorable reply is received from Spain Congress will at once be informed. Should it be unfavorable, the President will send a message reveiwing the Spanish-American controversy and make certain recommendations. The message he said would justify the recommendations and these recommendations would be satisfactory to Congress.

THE DEMANDS ON SPAIN.

The Ultimatum Is Independence for Cuba—No Change in the Proposals.

Washington, April 1.—The propositions submitted by the President to Spain, which were so fully and correctly outlined in these dispatches yesterday, have not been changed and embrace the ultimatum that peace must be restored on the island and Spain's recognition of the independence of the Cubans.

The President's proposition, as stated, was to secure an armistice for a short period of a cessation of hostilities, during which Spain is to concentrate her troops at Havana preparatory to withdrawal; the United States to feed and care for the reconcentrados and allow them to go back to their homes; the payment by the Cubans of two hundred million dollars indemnity, or approximately that, the exact amount, to be settled hereafter, and the recognition of Cuba's independence by the Spaniards, with the withdrawal of the Spanish troops from the island.

Although the dispatches from Madrid do not conform to these proposals, it is explained by an official that the Spanish version was circulated by the government for home consumption, and because it was not politic for the Sagasta Ministry to make known the exact propositions submitted until the negotiations were completed.

When the correspondence is made public it will be seen that the plan given in yesterday's dispatches is entirely correct.

GEN. HARRISON'S POLICY.

Ex-President Has Nothing to Say of the Cuban Question Now.

New York, April 1.—General Benjamin Harrison, ex-President of the United States, arrived in this city last night and he will spend several days here in private legal work. He denied the rumors that had come from Washington that he had been retained by the State Department, and that he was likely to succeed John Sherman in President McKinley's Cabinet. He also denied recent alleged statements credited to him concerning the Cuban trouble.

"No one has been authorized to express my views," he said. "I can alway do that myself when I think it is necessary."

Speaking further of the Cuban question, the ex-President made this significant statement:

"I feel a grave and solicitious interest in our relations with Spain concerning Cuba, but I am not now charged with the responsibility of conducting them, and would not say or do anything that might embarrass those who are in authority. The President and Congress, I hope, will continue in the relations of confidence and harmony that are essential in such a crisis. It would be grievous and injurious if they should fall apart.

"I am sure," he continued, "that I can serve my country best by keeping silent just now. Perhaps others might help in the same way."

STEVE BRODIE DEAD.

Dies of Pleurisy on a Train at Adrian, Mich.—His Career on the Bowery.

New York, April 1.—Steve Brodie died yesterday morning on the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern train at Adrain, Mich. Brodie had been slightly ill for some time, and was on his way to this city. He had lately been traveling through the West, playing in a theatrical company.

Brodie was taken ill with pleurisy in Chicago on last Sunday. His illness did not seem to be serious, but on Tuesday night he became worse and at once started for this city.

Steve Brodie's rise into prominence came with his alleged jump from the Brooklyn Bridge on July 23, 1888. Up to that time he was an unknown wharf rat. After that he was a prize for dime museum managers on the East side.

He went into the saloon business and then arranged other bridge jumping scenes. He got credit for jumping from the Poughkeepsie Bridge on Nov. 9, 1888, but was caught in the deception shortly afterward in his proposal to jump the Niagara Falls. Industrious adherents circulated stories of his going over the falls, but the trick did not work that time, for a watch had been kept.

Brodie achieved further notoriety by going on the stage. He took the leading parts in several plays, the scenes of which were laid on the Bowery. For several years past he had been on the road with his company.

His chief aim and success in life was keeping himself before the public eye. He never lost an opportunity to advertise himself. By supplying shop girls on rainy days, giving big dinners to the Bowery tramps, paying the expenses of burying bodies lying unidentified at the Morgue, he kept himself notorious.

On one occasion he led Booth Tucker, Commanded of the Salvation Army, on a slumming tour. He disguised the commander in a red wig and a false black beard, and then put a detective on his trail and had him arrested as a suspicious person.

Though a young man—he was only forty—Brodie was one of New York's characters—a typical product of the Bowery. His saloon is one the landmarks of the Bowery, and the Mecca of every sport that visits town. Recently he said he was worth $90,000.

For a Cowboy Regiment.

Washington, April 1.—A bill authorizing the President to organize a regiment of cowboy rangers whenever it shall be in the interest of the public service has been introduced in the Senate by Senator Warren. The regiment is to be enlisted for 90 days or more, to be organized as cavalry, and to have the privilege of electing its own commissioned officers. The bill specifies that the members of the regiment shall be good riders.

Henry George in Vancouver.

Vancouver, B. C., April 1.—Henry George, son of the noted single taxer, is in Vancouver, with his wife. His mission in the West is to find material for a biography of his father. In 1859 Henry George caught the Frazer River gold fever and the son is now tracing his footsteps.

THE NAVAL RESERVES.

A few months ago the Naval Reserve was threatened with becoming a mere adjunct and detail of the National Guard, instead of a separate and distinct organization, owing to the ideas of a number of high State officials, whose efforts to retrench in public expenditures fathered the thought that the Reserve was a mere piece of showiness rather than of practical service to the State, and could be easily affiliated with the militia without much loss in anything but its pomposity. But by the irony of the complications which have grown up between this country and a foreign power, the Naval Reserve has become recognized as of a good deal more importance than the land forces. Any proposition now to lessen its distinction as a force of its own peculiar kind would be hooted down in derision. Perhaps the experience of the present time will teach the State to be more generous in the future to the Naval Reserve, which, to the shame of New Jersey, has never been treated with even the liberality which its actual service justified. Though the service of the Reserve is demanded by the National Government now, it is somewhat handicapped through a Legislative blunder made at the session ended two weeks ago. An appropriation of $3,600 was made for the immediate necessities of the Reserve, but unfortunately the item got into the general instead of the supplementary appropriation bill, and as a result the funds are not available until next November.

SENATOR REED AND THE FARMERS.

Senator Reed's name will go rolling down in the future ages of legislative history of New Jersey as not only bearing the subriquet of the "Tall Sycamore from Somerset," but as well the more meaning one "The Farmers' Friend." No measure was ever considered in the Legislature during the term of Mr. Reed which benefitted the agricultural interests of the State that did not have the active and aggressive support of the Somerset representative in the upper House, and public recognition of his services for the ruralities was shown a few days ago by the Mercer County Board of Agriculture. That organization passed a set of resolutions in which it was stated that "the interests of the of the agriculturalists of our State are too often menaced by adverse legislation," and "we deem it our duty to give official recognition of the eminent services of the Honorable Charles A. Reed, Senator from Somerset county in advocating and voting for all important measures that came before the Senate in the interest of the farmers of our State." It was further resolved that they "do hereby tender him our grateful acknowledgment for his eloquent appeal for and sturdy support of all the important measures secured by legislation through his untiring efforts, and we further tender our congratulations to his constituents in Somerset county, in sending to our legislature such an intelligent and faithful servant."

OUR NEW NAVAL PURCHASES.

The two vessels which the Brazilian government has kindly sold to the United States are of the type known as protected cruisers. They are made of steel, this being covered first with wood and then with copper. The wood and copper covering is called sheathing and is an effective protection against rust and barnacles. The cruisers are called protected because they are covered on deck with a steel armor plate from 1.2 to 3.5 inches thick. This armor plate also extends down below the water line over the machinery and boilers.

In general the new cruisers are of the type of our own Cincinnati and Raleigh, but they are superior in respect to fuel carrying capacity. They will hold each 850 tons of coal, which would enable them to cross the Atlantic and back without stopping anywhere for fuel. Besides that they are armed fore and aft with six inch guns, three at each end, which can be fired simultaneously in both directions. They are likewise faster than our cruisers. The price paid for them the naval department will not tell, but it is about $1,500,000 for each.

One of the two Brazilian cruisers, the Amazonas, now on her way to the United States in charge of part of the San Francisco's crew, passed into possession of this country at Gravesend, where she was about to depart for South America. The other, the Admiral Breu, at Newcastle-on-Tyne, will not be completed for two months, but she has already had the American flag hoisted over her in the shipyard and an American crew assigned to her. This was to prevent international complications. In case war should be declared between the United States and Spain it would be against the law of nations for England to permit a vessel to be fitted out in one of her ports to make war on a country with which she was at peace—namely, Spain. But our buying the vessel before war is declared avoids that difficuty.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST GUN.

Uncle Sam will soon have completed the first of thirty-two 126-ton guns for coast defense. These guns are 16-inch guns and are the most powerful ever designed. They shoot a 2,300 pound projectile nearly fifteen miles and are six tons heavier than the great Krupp gun at the World's Fair.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

We do not know of a Jingo newspaper in the State. They are all in favor of standing by the President and holding up his hands.—New Brunswick Fredonian.

Capt. Sigsbee, who is a conspicuous figure in Washington now, would doubtless have remained as obscure as a Vice-President of the United States if the Maine had not been blown up. Chance sometimes brings out the quality of a man.—Rochester Union.

Governor Voorhees probably wishes now that he had exercised his right as a Senator and settled the fate of the anti-Trading Stamp law by either voting for or against it. This action would have staved off the present log-rolling over the measure, which he must patiently endure now as the Governor, by men who probably know more about trading votes than trading stamps. The Governor probably will sign the bill as the will of the Legislature and throw the test of its constitutionality into the courts.—New York Press.

PASSING COMMENT.

It was just about twenty-five years ago that the progresive citizens of Plainfield commenced to agitate the question of elevating the tracks of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, which passed through the central part of the city. It took nearly two years of hard work to overcome the misdirected strength of opposition to the plan, but every man who then protested against the tracks being raised now concedes that he was entirely in the wrong and that the benefits Plainfield received as a result of the sanction for the work finally granted by the Common Council are immeasurable. Men who had been identified in a social and business way for years became estranged over the subject and in some cases did not speak to each other for years. Finally, however, the matter was carried through various stages in the Common Council and an ordinance authorizing the tracks to be elevated was passed. The work was started under the apprehensive eyes of the opposing ones, but when it was finished and the results seen there was scarcely a man in town but who was glad that it had been done.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

The Waite Company added to the strong impression alreaday made by a highly artistic performance of "The Wife," another of the Belasco De-Mille society plays. A great feature of these productions is the strict attention to detail, and the entire absence of the cheap melodramatic claptrap effect so common in repertoire productions. Not an item is neglected to present the plays in as complete a fashion as though the regular prices were charged. "A Social Highwayman," Richard Mansfield's peculiar play, will be presented this evening. It is a dramatization of the novel of the same name, and follows the story with fidelity. It is a play for thinking people, the usual "comedy" element being entirely absent. It belongs to the same modern school of the drama as "Tess of the D'Urbervilles." "The Burglar" is the offering for Saturday matinee, and "The Veteran," a naval comedy drama from the pen of the late Lester Wallack, closes the engagement on Saturday night. As this company plays throughout the south and west next season, these will be the farewell appearances in this city for a term of years.

BUT 3 DAYS REMAIN

IN WHICH TO BE CURED AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES BY THE FAMOUS BOY PHENOMENON

Whose Remarkable Record of Phenomenal Cures Has Never Been Equalled by Medical Science.

The large crowds which have besieged the office of the Boy Phenomenon, at the Revere House, the past 2 weeks, has again made it necessary for him to prolong his stay, and while he will remain here 2 weeks longer, no more new cases will be taken after Monday, April 4, as the following weeks will be entirely devoted to treating those who go under treatment between now and Monday night.

The great crowds of our very best citizens who have been compelled to give up their prejudices after witnessing some of his cures, have taken treatment, been cured and are now giving him their names to use in testimonials, shows the positive demand that is made on his time in Plainfield If ever a great and good gift of nature was called to the fullest exercise, then surely he has performed enough cures among those who had been called incurable to fully justify those citizens for their efforts in inducing him to come here.

A new way to heal the sick without drugging the patient with medicine is what the invalid public is anxiously looking for, and it has been left to comparatively a young man to prove there is a much better way.

The Boy Phenomenon is the youngest living Magnetist who publicly demonstrates the great power that Vital Magnetism has over disease, when properly developed and scientifically applied.

Magnetism is one of nature's wonderful forces, governed by natural laws. There is nothing miraculous or supernatural about it, although people unacquainted with its power, after witnessing some of his wonderful cures, declare it must be so, but he himself claims no such power.

Nature simply bestowed a superabundance of the vital magnetic fluid in his veins, by the aid of which he has been enabled to effect the most startling cures in an incredibly short space of time in nearly every large city in this country.

Being compelled to remain in Plainfield some weeks longer, and having discharged so many as permanently cured, he therefore is enabled to reduce the price of treatment to within the reach of all. Those who have previously called are especially invited to return and take advantage of the reduced prices before April 4.

THE SUNDAY LESSON.

INTERNATIONAL SERIES, WTH COMMENTARY BY DR. STEARNS.

Golden Text.—Then Came she and Worshipped him, Saying Lord Help me.—Matt. xv, 25. April 2, 1898.

First Step.—Our Lord was not a great traveler. As a child he was taken to Egypt, and now we find him, in this lesson, outside of the limits of Palestine. But these are the only times when he left his little native land. The events narrated in this lesson took place in the middle of the third year of his ministry, and his death was only about six months off. One reason why he went so far north seems to have been that part of the people wanted to take him and make him king by force, while the rulers wanted to kill him. So for a little he withdrew from his native land.

While in this "foreign" region, as he was in a house, there came to him this woman of Canaan, whose daughter was possessed of an unclean spirit, for she had hard of his power to heal. Jesus had not wished it to be known where he was, but the anxiety of this woman to find him had triumphed over all efforts at concealment, and she came to the house and preferred her petition. The conversation between Jesus and the woman is not easy to interpret, for it seems as if the Master was repellant in his words. But of one thing we may be sure, and that is, that however strange the words of Jesus may seem to us, his heart was ever tender, and he meant nothing harsh and unjust in what he said to her. Indeed, she was not at all offended by what he said, for I apprehend that she saw underneath it all a readiness to help her in her distress. So she, with true mother shrewdness, turned the proverb that he used so that it bore on her own side of the question. At this Jesus exclaimed, "O woman, great is thy faith; be it unto thee even as thou wilt." At this, perfectly satisfied that her daughter was healed, she went off, and when she got home she found that all was well with the poor little girl.

Second Step.—If I had a mothers' class, I would begin the practical application of this lesson by calling attention to the anxiety of this woman for the welfare of her daughter. One desire filled her mind, and that was that the girl should be healed. To accomplish this she was willing to take time and trouble, and was not willing to be put off. Of course, this was "natural," as we say. All true mothers would do the same thing. I never knew of a mother, who had a son or daughter sick, who would not take almost any trouble to have them healed. But while this is true in matters physical, it is not so true in things spiritual. Oh, how many mothers there are who care but little whether their children are converted or not!

Third Step.—Jesus once spoke of parable to this end, that men ought always to pray and not to faint. It is called the Parable of the Unjust Judge. This woman's spirit carries out the spirit of that parable. She simply would not be put off, and because of her importunity she got what she wanted. This teaches us a great lesson in prayer. If God delays his answers let us not be weary in our petitions. It has some good reason for delaying his reply. Every believer knows how this is, and thought he cannot explain God's ways, he knows from experience that they are ways of love. She acted. We have something to do besides pray. Whether the case be that of parent for child, or child for parent, or friend for friend, there should be action as well as petition. Neither alone will be of any avail, but the two together are almost omnipotent.

Fourth Step.—Now look for a moment at the scene on the mount. There is Jesus, and there are multitudes of sick people. How did they get there? Their friends brought them, and laid them at his feet. And what was the result? The result was that while they had, many of them, to be carried there, they all went home on their own feet, as well as ever. What joyful companies those must have been that returned to their homes, and how the sick must have thanked the well for bringing them to the great healer! Now this was something that appeals to our outward eyes. But just imagine for a moment a spiritual scene like this to take place in your own school. Imagine all the Christians in your school bringing their unconverted friends to the Saviour in prayer. What a gathering that would be! Imagine them all praying as fervently for their dear ones as this woman did. Do you suppose that there would not be a rich blessing as the result? Do you suppose that the Master would be any less ready now to answer prayer than he was then? Surely not. If in any school this were to be the case, in that school before very long there would be such a rejoicing as there never had been before, for the power of the Master would there be apparent as it was in the days when he was in Galilee, for Jesus is the same yesterday, to-day and forevermore.

Blackboard Exercise.—In the review, first call out the lesson story, not in every detail, but in its main outlines. Then call attention to what the Canaanitish woman really did. She prayed (put down the word PRAY), and she worked (put down the word WORK). This she did for whom? For her daughter. And what does all this teach us? It teaches us that we must do the same for our families (put down FAMILY) and for all our FRIENDS (put that word down). What a Sunday-school this would be if only each member would do this! Now have some who has been spoken to beforehand pray for the families and friends of scholars and teachers of this school.

"Did anybody hear about the egg in the coffee?"

"No," said an obliging somebody.

"That settles it," remarked the funny man, blandly.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Lesson For the Week Beginning April 3. Comment by Rev. W. J. Yates, A. M. Topic, The Preciousness of Salvation.

SCRIPTURE READING.—I Pet. i, 18-21.

Whatever may be the mystery which surrounds the doctrine of the atonement, the fact is certain that the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ are the only hope of the world. There is no other one which in these closing years of the nineteenth century can stand the light of scientific investigation, the stress of the world's needs and clearly, reasonably and certainly give spiritual rest.

However men may seek to escape it, the conviction still forces itself home with irresistible force upon the individual conscience and again and again reappears in forms of worship, the consciousness of moral ill desert, the sense of sin. Seek to escape it in every way we can, we can never long evade it. The wrongdoing of the past, the wrong being of the present are sure to rise to view in every hour of sober thinking and honest heart searching. Peace with ourselves, our fellow men and God we seek as above all other treasure. These are the soul's demands, more insistent than hunger or thirst.

Sacrifice, expiation, satisfaction in some form, seems a necessity. This feeling of the race has led in all ages and every clime to the dedication of all precious things to God, the performance of all rites of worship, the endurance of all hardships and sufferings. From some cause or other the thought has possessed men in all ages that blood alone can atone for sin and bring the favor of God to the sinful soul. Under this belief human sacrifices have been offered in nearly every land under the sun. But it is not possible to find an instance where any one has by these means come to a consciousness of favor with God, of pardon of transgression and peace of soul. Nowhere have they given hope of a future life and assurance of happiness and satisfaction of nature.

Jesus Christ only has shown in His life the pattern of a perfect man of spotless character. His power over death clearly shows that His own death was not a necessity of His nature, but was voluntarily endured for the sake of men. His resurrection demonstrates that He possesses the power of endless life. He was the most precious and worthy one of all mankind, of all creaturehood. Spotless and unblemished, His presentation of Himself to God, perfectly fulfilling in life, death and character all the requirements of the divine law for the ideal man, accomplishes a reconciliation of the race to its original intention. It displays what man was intended to be. It actualizes the divine ideal. It satisfies all needs. It awakens hope in the hopeless race. Desire to be like Him springs up in human hearts. He imparts power to men to become, like Him, sons of God.

However men may differ about theories of the atonement, faith in Jesus Christ brings the soul believer into fellowship with God and saves it from despair, transforms it in righteousness and brings peace beyond all understanding, peace full of love and joy.

Easter In Art.

It is worthy of note that painters have dealt less with the glories of Easter than with almost any other event in the history of the Lord Jesus. This is probably because of its intrinsic difficulty and transcendent meaning. Art has not as yet climbed to the height of its revelation. The Bethlehem story is a favorite theme, and the babe and mother have from earliest times been pictured in almost infinite variety of circumstance and surrounding. The trial scenes and crucifixion have taxed the genius of the greatest masters. The descent from the cross and entombment have engaged the most skillful pencils. But who could find colors of heavenly brilliancy and luminous enough to portray the glorified Christ before whom the keepers became as dead men? A few have tried the task, but no masterpiece has yet been presented. The best Easter emblem is still the cross and dove. The descent of the Spirit at the baptism, the yielding up of the Spirit at the crucifixion—these are not Easter, but are the preliminaries for its understanding. Art must still sit with rapt gaze at the empty tomb.

Sometimes perhaps the artist will come who can paint the sunshine, but until then the best picture of the resurrection of Jesus must be found in a glorified human face conscious of salvation through Him.

Church Lotteries.

These are rapidly becoming things of the past. It is hard to realize, but it is fact, that in the five years ending 1775 no less than 13 religious societies of Rhode Island of every denomination, including Methodist Episcopal, were granted lotteries to assist them in building or repairing their houses of worship. Who would think of such a thing now? Truly intelligent piety is gaining ground.

The Will of God.

I worship thee, sweet will of God,
And all thy ways adore,
And every day I live I seem
To love thee more and more.

When obstacles and trials seem Like prison walls to be,
I do the little I can do
And leave the rest to thee.

And when it seems no chance or change
From grief can set me free
Hope finds its strength in helplessness
And gayly waits on thee.

Ride on, ride on triumphantly,
Thou glorious will, ride on!
Faith's pilgrim sons behind thee take
The road that thou hast gone.

He always wins who sides with God,
To him no chance is lost.
God's will is sweetest to him when
It triumphs at his cost.

Ill that He blesses is our good,
And unblest good is ill,
And all is right that seems most wrong
If it be His sweet will.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

TOPIC.—The grace of hospitality. — Gen. xviii, 1-10: Heb. xiii, 2.

The word "hospitality" means love to strangers. The kindness of Christianity is not to be limited to the followers of Christ, but extended to all men with whom we come in contact. In a sense this grace of hospitality needed to be emphasized in ancient times more than today, and particularly in oriental countries, where methods of travel were and are slow and tedious and where places of public entertainment were few and far between. Strangers in traveling from place to place had to be entertained in the homes of the people, and the cordiality of their reception and the bountifulness of their entertainment fill us with admiration. Though not having to entertain travelers who are strangers in our homes today, we do often come in contact with those whom we do not know in the church, in places of business, in society, and should always exercise this grace of hospitality. We should treat kindly and considerately all men everywhere.

In the references we see:

1. Hospitality illustrated (Gen. xviii, 1-10). In this passage we see oriental hospitality beautifully illustrated. Abraham is seated in his tent door at noonday and sees, as he supposes, three strange men approaching. He runs to meet them, presses them to accept his invitation to sojourn with him, that he may give them a morsel of bread to comfort their hearts before they pass on. Then he goes to Sarah, his wife, and between them a sumptuous feast is spread before the strangers. What a beautiful picture of simple, cordial, bounteous hospitality! And this is only one of many similar incidents that might be referred to. The reading of such a story should not only fill us with admiration, but a desire to imitate the spirit that was manifested.

2. Hospitality commanded (Heb. xiii, 2). "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers," says the apostle, and adds, referring to the experiences of Abraham and Lot, "for thereby some have entertained angels unawares." The first verse of the chapter says, "Let brotherly love continue," but while we love the brethren we are not to forget also to love strangers and to treat them kindly. The stranger as well as the brother must have a place in our consideration. Even the strangers who come to our doors as tramps and vagabonds, though in many cases unworthy, should not be treated unkindly. If we treat them kindly in Christ's name, it will be done unto Him rather than unto them, and He is worthy.

3. Hospitality rewarded. Abraham was amply rewarded. Though little dreaming of such a thing he was entertaining Jehovah and two of His servants and received gracious promises from them. The two disciples in entertaining a stranger entertained their risen Saviour. It pays to be kind. A cup of cold water in Christ's name brings its reward. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, My brethren, ye have done it unto Me."

Bible Readings.—Gen. xix, 1-3; xxiv, 29-33; I Sam. ix, 22-24; II Sam. xvii, 27-29; II Kings iv, 8-11; Neh. v, 17-19; Math. xxv, 31-46; Luke v, 27-29; xix, 1-9; xxiv, 28-48; Acts xvi, 15; Rom. xii, 13; Gal. vi, 9, 10; Titus i, 8, 9; I Pet. iv, 9.

Broken Lives.

God even seems to break them sometimes, that they may become truly useful. At least he can use broken lives in his service just as well as the whole; indeed, it appears as if men can never do much for God until they are "broken vessels." He chooses the weak things of this world, that no flesh may glory.

We ought, therefore, never to be afraid of God's providences when they seem to break up our lives and crush our hopes and even to turn us away from our chosen paths of usefulness and service. When he shuts one door, it is because he had another standing open for our feet. When he breaks our lives to pieces, it is because they will do more for his glory and the world's good broken and shattered than whole.—Presbyterian.

Those Who Suffer.

If we suffer wrongly, why should we add to our suffering by giving heed to the suggestions of satan or allow ourselves to lose confidence in our fellow men. All are not base. The psalmist said, "In my haste I said all men are liars," but for us to harbor such a thought is to cut us off from the fellowship of our brethren, to look with distrust upon all their actions and interpret their every act as an intention to do us harm when really no harm is meant. Trust not to your own understanding. A good man's steps are ordered by the Lord. If we suffer with Him, we shall also reign with Him.—Philadelphia Methodist.

Sowing and Reaping.

We are not done with life as we live it. We shall meet our acts and words and influences again. A man will reap the same that he sows, and he himself shall be the reaper. We go on sowing carelessly, never dreaming that we shall see our seeds again. Then some day we come to an ugly plant growing somewhere, and when we ask, "What is this?" comes the answer: "I am one of your plants. You dropped the seed which grew into me." We shall have to eat the seed that grows from our sowing.—Dr. J. R. Miller.

Gratitude and Generosity.

Whenever I find a great deal of gratitude in a poor man, I take it for granted there would be as much generosity if he were a rich man.—Pope.

A Good Address.

Ofttimes a good address carries with it infinitely greater weight than the soundest logic or the loftiest eloquence. —Universalist.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Provinz Westfalen.

Münster. Der Provinziallandtag bewilligte 100,000 Mark zur Kultivirung von Oedländereien in Westfalen und zur Bildung und späteren Veräußerung von Rentengütern aus kultivirten Flächen.

Werl. Beim Abbruch eines alten Wohnhauses beschäftigte Maurer legten eine eingemauerte Urne frei, die mit Geldstücken gefüllt war. Es handelt sich um 600 Silber- und Goldstücke aus dem 16. und 17. Jahrhundert. Der Fund wurde an die Inhaber des Hauses abgeliefert, doch erhoben die Arbeiter Anspruch auf Finderlohn. Nachdem von Münzensammlern Gutachten über den Werth des Fundes eingeholt waren, erhielt jeder Arbeiter 450 Mark ausbezahlt. Der Werth der Münzen wird auf 20,000 bis 30,000 Mark angegeben.

Sachsen.

Dresden. Der Umbau der hiesigen Bahnhöfe und des Hafens kostet insgesammt 77,274,000 Mark. Der Staat trägt von dieser Summe 65,274,000 Mark, die Stadt Dresden das Uebrige.

Annaberg. Hier verschied nach schweren Leiden Stadtrath a. D. Gustav Julius Römer im fast vollendeten 88. Lebensjahre. Einige 40 Jahre hindurch hat der Verblichene in selbstloser, pflichtgetreuer Weise im Stadtrath die Geschicke unserer Stadt wahrgenommen.

Chemnitz. Direktor Zimmermann von der Aktiengesellschaft vormals May u. Kühling, welcher Chemnitz unter Zurücklassung eines Briefes verlassen hat, in dem er mittheilt, daß er sich das Leben nehmen werde, ist in Bodenbach als Leiche aufgefunden worden.

Freiberg. Seit Jahren ist man bestrebt, den Betrieb der dem sächsischen Staat gehörigen Silbergruben dahier einzuschränken, um die zu seiner Aufrechterhaltung nothwendigen hohen Staatszuschüsse zu vermindern. Die Belegmannschaft ist aus diesem Grunde bereits von 5000 auf 3000 verringert; jetzt sollen abermals 300 Bergleute entlohnt werden. Man entläßt namentlich jüngere Leute, die leicht anderen Verdienst finden.

Sohland a. d. Spree. In den Webesälen der Reitze'schen Fabrik (mechanische Weberei) brach ein größeres Feuer aus. Obwohl die freiwillige Ortsfeuerwehr im Verein mit den übrigen zahlreich herbeigekommenen Feuerwehrleuten und Löschmannschaften den Brand erfolgreich bekämpfte, ist doch der Schaden ein bedeutender; 100 Arbeiter sind in Folge des Brandes zunächst beschäftigungslos.

Thüringische Staaten.

Neustadt. Von den hiesigen Stadtverordneten ist ein für unsere Stadt äußerst wichtiger Beschluß des Magistrats einstimmig angenommen worden, nämlich eine Bierschankſteuer zu erheben. Auf das Liter Bier soll eine Steuer von 4 Pfennig kommen, wovon den Wirthen ein Theil für die Bemühung zufällt. Schon seit Jahren geht man, wie das „Koburger Tageblatt" mittheilt, damit um, eine noch höhere direkte Kommunalsteuer zu vermeiden, und glaubt auf diesem Wege eine gerechtere, allgemeinere Besteuerung zu erreichen.

Sondershausen. Behufs Erbauung einer eigenen Kirche und Schule haben die Katholiken unserer Stadt und Umgegend ein Grundstück an sehr günstig gelegener Stelle angekauft und werden bald mit dem Bau beginnen. Bis jetzt war denselben die Mitbenutzung einer Kirche der evangelischen Kirchengemeinde gestattet worden.

Weimar. Die deutsch-soziale Reformpartei hat endgiltig beschlossen, im ersten und dritten Reichstagswahlkreise (Weimar-Apolda-Ilmenau und Jena-Neustadt a. O.) für die Reichstagswahlen keine eigenen Kandidaten aufzustellen, sondern für denjenigen des „Bundes der Landwirthe" einzutreten. Im zweiten Wahlkreise (Eisenach-Dermbach) wollen die Bündler, die antisemitische Kandidatur unterstützen.

Freie Städte.

Hamburg. Schulrath Dr. Julius Bärens, früher bekannter Welfenführer, Mitbegründer und Ehrenmitglied der sogenannten Hamburgischen Rechtspartei, ist hier, 82 Jahre alt, gestorben.—Ein großes Feuer richtete in Herwigs Spritfabrik auf dem kleinen Grasbrook einen Schaden von 250,000 Mark an. Durch Flugfeuer gerieth auch die Farbenfabrik von Brückmann, sowie die chemische Fabrik von J. D. Biber in Brand, doch gelang es den heroischen Anstrengungen der Feuerwehr, größeren Schaden zu verhüten.

Bremen. Der durch den Spielteufel verführte, in Nizza verhaftete und von den französischen Behörden ausgelieferte 27jährige Handlungsgehilfe Hermann Andreas Jacobi wurde vom hiesigen Landgericht zu 4½ Jahren Gefängniß und 5 Jahren Ehrverlust verurtheilt. Jacobi, der aus guter hiesiger Familie stammt, hatte der Tabakfirma Reinhold Bädecker hierselbst 93,000 Mark veruntreut. Er war als Kassirer mit 3000 Mark Gehalt angestellt. Jacobi setzte hohe Summen auf Rennpferde und verlor mehr, als er gewann, und spielte auch sonst. Einer seiner Mitspieler schuldet dem Jacobi 45,000 Mark, welche die Verwandten in Raten zu 5000 Mark der Firma Bädecker auszahlen wollen. Letztere kommt überhaupt wieder zu ihrem ganzen Gelde.

Lübeck. Von der hiesigen Bürgerschaft wurde der Antrag des Rechtsanwalts Dr. Görtz, betreffend die Erbauung einer direkten Eisenbahn von Lübeck nach Schlutup, nach längerer Debatte angenommen. Schlutup besitzt große industrielle Anlagen, es befinden sich an 30 Häringsräuchereien und Fischmariniranstalten dort, so daß schon durch die reichen Erträge an Fracht die Bahn sich als völlig rentabel erweisen dürfte.

NEW YORK FASHIONS.

With the advance of warm weather every body feels a desire to throw off the heavy winter wraps and furs and don some garment of lighter weight. The styles in capes and jackets for early spring wear are very fetching. The Russian blouse has been relegated to the background although the jacket with slightly pouched front and tight fitting back and sides is still with us and is especially becoming to the slender woman. The coat-bodies which may be worn without an extra wrap is simply invaluable in warm weather, and can be supplemented when necessary by a fur tie or feather boa. An exceedingly dressy coat is of green velvet, and when worn with a skirt of green cloth or serge, makes a smart afternoon toilette, and admits of variation if made with a separate vest.

A striking coat for Spring wear which may be worn open or closed, or practically open, is of dark green cloth. When quite open the fronts are turned back, and the facing of green velvet, edged with guipure insertion, forms revers all down, while the square revers fall over the sleeves. A full jabot of lace is worn, with cascade running down in a point to the waist. The hat to accompany this coat is of rough straw, with full crown, and trimmed on the left side with three standing tips. A bunch of violets rest on the hair.

A handsome tailor made gown of grey faced cloth is stitched and trimmed with pipings of velvet of a darker shade. The old-fashioned pipings have been revived and are particularly effective used on pale cloth gowns. The skirt of this gown fits perfectly close over the hips, but flares slightly at the back, being devoid however of the dust-gathering train which promises to be in vogue so much the coming season. The natty jacket is made quite plain, with the exception of the piping of velvet on the small revers. The slashed Medici collar is simply stitched. Coat sleeves are tight fitting with a little fulness at the top.

Capes are less fussy and cosy looking, suggesting warmer days.

A new model is in black brocaded silk, the back full, in cape form showing a yoke above; the front short and drawn into the figure like a bolero and fastening down over a vest of soft silk. The whole is trimmed with fine cream insertion, and lined throughout with rose colored silk.

This is the most difficult time of the year to predict the fashions in millinery, although many striking styles are shown. As the pompadour style of wearing the hair is still so fashionable many modifications of the Napoleon models will be seen. The large hat with flaring brim will not be seen, but tulle and net promises to be very popular and flowers in many cases will constitute the sole trimming of the fashionable hat.

The shape of a first hat should not be so strange that it is remembered when once seen. So we are face to face with the fact that a first hat must be much like those we are accustomed to seeing. Not turned or twisted fantastically at intervals, that is.

Of medium brim, not too high or aggressive as to crown and trimming. An allowable departure from the current in favor of the fashionable is this year's brim on some hats, which turns up at the back and then over for an inch. The cachepeigne, thus, is less conspicuous.

I saw one first hat which was of black Yeddo (soft, coarse, pliable) straw, with two black wings, put on V-shape in front, a cut-steel ornament between and narrow upstanding loops of black velvet. Half a dozen bunches of black violets buried the crown. At the back, for a cachepeigne—that is, a depth of trimming so that there was no break between hat and hair line—there were two rosettes of stout net, the fulling wired.

Another first hat was of black Yeddo straw, rather broad brim, crown obscured with great pompons of white taffeta silk, wired and placed one at either side of the crown. A few black wings gave the modish contour, which involves considerable breadth and height.

Other first hats have facings of some bright color and the hat top all black.

That of the drawing is black liberty silk, shirred over white. The flowers—notice that they are compact—are violets, with green leaves. The hat is faced with white straw and the body of it is black.

Dress high shoes, as usual, are of patent leather with cloth top. But the shape is as nearly perfect as the shoemaker's art has become. The heel not exactly military? "No, nor yet French. In other times," with a knowing look, "we should call it Spanish."

"What do you name it now?"

"Cuban."

PREACHERS PLEAD PEACE WITH HONOR

Conference Pass Resolutions Upholding President's Course.

DR. SNODGRASS HONORED.

MADE ONE OF THE COMMITTEE TO ACT ON THE MATTER.

At This Time of Excitement and Peril the Conference Expresses its Hearty Appreciation of the President's Patient and Patriotic Efforts to Maintain Peace—Presiding Elder Smith Makes an Encouraging Report of the Work in the Elizabeth District—Conference in Session at East Orange.

East Orange, April 1.—The Methodist clergy of Plainfield was highly honored at the Newark conference yesterday. Rev. W. C. Snodgrass, pastor of the First Methodist church, of that city, was named as one of the Committee on the State of Union, which drew up the resolutions concerning the present National crisis.

The Cuban question and the possible chances of war have overshadowed the Conference from the very start, and in nearly every prayer that has been offered there has been a supplication for the guidance of the President in this great crisis, while the expression, "peace with honor," has been repeatedly heard. The feeling reached its height yesterday morning when, soon after the organization of the Conference and its calling to order, Bishop Goodsell announced that he would appoint the Committee on the State of the Union. The following members of the committee were named: Rev. Dr. Henry A. Butz, Rev. Dr. Lewis P. Dunn, Rev. Dr. John I Boswell, Rev. A. H. Tuttle, Rev. G. C. Moulsdale, Rev. Alexander Craig, Rev. David R. Lowrie, Rev. W. C. Snodgrass, Rev. R. B. Lockwood and Rev. Dr. S. L. Baldwin.

The committee was instructed and then retired to prepare a minute or memorial for presentation to the Conference.

About 11:30 o'clock the committee came in and it was a significant fact that at once the pending business was suspended and the committee was allowed to report. Dr. Baldwin then read the following brief report:

"The Newark Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church in session at this time of excitement and peril expresses to the President of the United States its hearty appreciation of his patient and patriotic course in seeking to avert war without sacrificing the honor of the country or the claims of humanity; assures him of our earnest prayers for Divine support and guidance in the great responsibility now upon him, and while praying that war may be averted, in case it is found to be necessary pledges the Government the same loyal support which our peachers and people have always given whenever the Nation was in danger."

A buzz of satisfaction ran through the vast audience when the report was read, and when Bishop Goodsell said, "As many as are in favor of the adoption of the resoluion will stand," every one rose; not only the members of the Confeference, but those of the congregation.

After Rev. George W. Smith, of Plainfield, presiding elder of the Elizabeth district, had stated that there was nothing against the character of any of the elders in his district, the preachers in that district presented their reports of missionary collections. Mr. Smith then reported that none of the pastors in his district had been oblized to give up work because of death or ill health. He reported an increase in the collections for the various funds of the church, and said that several churches were succeeding in attempts to cancel their church debts. Among those churches which have reduced their debts are St. James's, Elizabeth; Flemington, Raritan, Somerville; Grace church, Staten Island; Park church, Elizabeth, where a parsonage has been erected, as also at Trinity church, Rahway; Gladstone, Trinity church, Staten Island; Asbury, Staten Island; Roselle. Quakertown was reported to be one of the best country charges in the district. Westfield is the only church where the pastor has served five years. Great revivals were held at Grace church Plainfield; Kingsley, White House, and Mt. Horeb, where an all day meeting was held, those attending bringing their lunches; Califon, Flanders, Park church, Elizabeth. There were over 600 conversions in the district during the year.

—Chief Marshal Wilson and family, of Somerset street, will move soon to Grove street near Linden avenue.

—Tomorrow is the last day of the demonstration of Red Ribbon Java and Mocha coffee at J. F. MacDonald's.

—The Christian Endeavor Society meeting at the Park Avenue Baptist church this evening will be in charge of Miss Anna Wyckoff.

SPAIN EVADES.

the Spanish authorities. It is expected late today and it is thought that the reply must settle affairs between the United States and Spain growing out of Cuban affairs and the destruction of the Maine in a positive manner immediately.

Washington, April 1.—The Cuban government, meaning thereby the present autonomous authorities in Cuba, and not the insurgents, has appealed to the President of the United States to respect the will of the majority of the people in Cuba. The appeal declares that the majority represents those in favor of home rule under Spanish sovereignty; that the insurgents are in the minority; that the majority has a right to rule its own destinies; that it would be an injustice for a foreign will (meaning the United States) to impose upon this majority a political regime contrary to its will; and that it would be a great wickedness to dispose of its lot without its own consent.

Philadelphia, April 1.—The United States cruiser Minneapolis, newly scraped and painted, and her bunkers filled with coal, left League Island Navy Yard this morning for Hampton Roads to join the other vessels of the Flying Squadron.

DR. SIMPSON READY.

Dr. M. S. Simpson, surgeon of the New Jersey Naval Reserves, who resides in this city, momentarily expects an order telling him to report for duty on board the monitor Montauk. Dr. Simpson was one of the men detailed for the crew on the above-named boat.

Frank Vermeule Wants to Organize a Cavalry Company.

Frank W. Vermeule called at The Press office this morning and stated that he was about to organize a cavalry company in this city to become part of the regular army. He stated that he was sworn in at Governor's Island yesterday by General Merritt as a first lieutenant in the regular army. He wished to insert an advertisement asking for a hundred recruits, but could not show any credentials to prove that he was authorized by the Government to take any such step. The advertisement was therefore refused. Vermeule was formerly a private in the Third U. S. Cavalry.

CYCLING COMMENT.

A shipment of Crescent wheels were received yesterday by the F. L. C. Martin Cycle Company.

The F. L. C. Martin Cycle Company are giving away little pocket calendars as souvenirs of the Crescent wheels.

The running qualities of the Spalding wheel have always been famous. This year, the Spalding is better than ever. W. H. Rogers, the North avenue bicycle dealer, still represents the wheel in this city and is actively pushing it among his customers.

THE SOLONS BIVOUAC IN A NEW CHAMBER.

And They Like Their New Home Very Much.

MET THERE FOR FIRST TIME.

SIGNALIZE THE IMPROVEMENT BY TALKING IMPORTANT BUSINESS.

The Matter of Street Work Discussed and the Plans of the Committee Disclosed—New Sidewalks to be Built on Somerset Street—Permanent Pavement Also Discussed—Probable Cost Would Be $20,000—General Budget of Appropriation Probably $20,000—Assessment and Collection of Taxes Considered.

The new Borough Council rooms, corner of Somerset street and Craig place, in the Thorn building, were occupied last evening by the Council for the first time. It was the unanimous opinion of all that the new quarters could not be improved upon. Everything had the appearence of being new and there was a cleanliness that is gratifying. In the lobby there was a few spectators who admired the change very much.

The Mayor, Councilmen, Counsel and Clerk felt perfectly at home and the business of the evening was promptly taken up at 8 o'clock.

Clerk Arnold presented his monthly financial report as follows: Borough balance, $1,757.82; lights, $1,559.44; roads, $1,790.21; fire. $247.93; poor account, deficit, $391.62; paid county and State, $3,567.75; total balance, $1,396.03. The Clerk also reported the collection of $43 as fines.

The report of the finances of the borough to January 1st, shows that at the above date there was a balance of $16,061 75. The receipts were $22,193.75; disbursements, 36,509.88; balance in bank present date, $1,746.62.

Collector Brown reported his receipts to date to be $1,818.06 and thus far there has been no expenditure. Former Collector Spencer reported back taxes as follows: 1895, $73.56; 1896, $176.96; 1897, $211.98.

A communication was received from the Plainfield Board of Trade asking the Council to appoint a committee to confer with a similar committee, from the above organization looking toward the purchase of a water supply for the city and borough.

Borough Counsel Reed asked the Council to furnish the borough recorder with the necessary legal books, costing about $18. The matter was referred.

Residents of Rockview avenue asked the Council to macadamize the above avenue from Rockview Terrace to West End avenue, and they agreed to pay the proportionate share of the expense. After a great deal of discussion the matter was referred.

Mr. Woolston, of the street committee, stated that the total amount of money expended on the streets during the past month was $307.37.

Mr. MacLoughlin, of the tax and assessment committee, introduced an ordinance relative to the assessment and collection of taxes, and setting forth the duties of those who have the matter in charge. Violations of the ordinance shall be punishable by a fine of $100 and any other acts as stated in the State laws.

The ordinance was laid on the table until the next meeting for adoption. Mayor Wilson appointed Frank E. Winn as special marshal, and the appointment was confirmed by the Council.

The committee on license and marshals was authorized to secure new uniforms for the marshals at a cost not to exceed $100.

On a resolution offered by Mr. MacLaughlin a warrant for $151.15, special school tax, was ordered drawn in favor of Collector Brown.

Resolutions were offered by Mr. Burtis to the effect that a loan of $1,500 be made, the same to be charged to the road account, and that the license fee for each dog be $2. Another resolution provided that the Clerk collect all fees and deposit the same to the credit of the borough.

Mr. Valiant offered a resolution that all bills against the borough must be presented three days prior to each regular meeting, to insure payment. Mr. Rogers presented a resolution asking that a loan of $1,500 be negotiated, the same to be charged to the fire department account.

Mr. Woolston presented three bids received for furnishing crushed stone for the present year. The bid of John H. Wilson & Co., for stone, all sizes, delivered, was 90 cents, and this bid was accepted. Mr. Chamberlain, of Scotch Plains, bid $1.08 and A. I. &

MAYOR'S DECIDED STAND

HIS ORDERS FOR SABBATH OBSERVANCE TOMORROW.

Unless Today is Observed in a Religious Sense by Merchants Who Close They Will Probably be Arrested Tomorrow.

The crusade against the Sunday sellers is to be continued by the police tomorrow. Such is the edict of Mayor Charles J. Fisk. The crusade is to be limited, however. Seventh-Day Baptists, Hebrews and those who religiously observe the Sabbath on Saturday, are not to be interfered with. That is according to the Mayor's directions. As far as the members of those two religious denominations are concerned, the movement against them was all a mistake, the Mayor has explained. He had no wish to deprive them of their rights, nor no intention to do anything of that kind from the first, he says.

This apparent understanding between the city government and the Seventh-day Baptists is evidently the result of a conference that was held between the Mayor and Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis. According to the statements of the Mayor, he had no intention of stirring up such an excitement. He considered the Seventh-day Baptists good citizens and would do all he could to protect their rights. The trouble was really caused, it seems, when the Seventh-day Baptist dealers were notified last week that they must transact their business on Sunday behind drawn curtains and closed doors. This week the Mayor makes no such demand. The question of the power to compel any dealer to do so has been variously discussed all over the city. Several eminent lawyers have given their opinion in private that the city cannot compel a Seventh-day Baptist to close his doors or draw his curtains.

It is against the keepers of small stores who close Saturday and keep open Sunday for revenue only that that the Mayor has declared war. It is the intention of the city officials to do everything in their power to bring this traffic to an end.

A public official, who did not care to have his name used, stated that if the stores already raided attempted to keep open tomorrow, active measures would be taken against them. It is understood, however, that their legal counsel has advised them to keep open as usual.

LEADERS ARE IN ACCORD.

President Opposes Haste, as He Wants to be Prepared.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Washington, April 2.—Congress has recovered somewhat from the excitement which almost carried that body off of its feet when the report of the Naval Court was made public, showing that the maine had been blown up by a submarine mine. Neither house is in session today.

The diplomatic issue has been made up and the President will now submit the whole Cuban case to Congress.

It seems improbable that an ultimatum will go to Spain, although the President has not entirely given up hope of avoiding war.

No definite conclusion was reached at yesterday's Cabinet meeting, and this morning the President was early at his desk consulting with his advisers in the Cabinet and in Congress.

CONTRIBUTION TO GOOD CAUSES.

Endeavorers of Crescent Avenue Church Do Much in Missions.

The annual business meeting and election of officers of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church was held last night. The treasurer's report showed the finances of the society to be in excellent condition, despite the fact that the subscriptions from outsiders had been less than formerly. The missionary committee reported the gifts to missionary work to have been as follows: Support of a missionary in Japan, $25; to Miss Rachel Mair for her work in Africa, $5; to the Industrial school at Hope Chapel, $14; to the work of the Westfield Fresh Air Camp, $5. The sewing school at Hope Chapel is carried on by workers from this society, which is the only one in the Local Union which has an industrial committee.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Miss Louise H. Burnett; vice-president, Fred G. Smith; recording secretary, Miss Lucie Brown; corresponding secretary, Irving Stewart; treasurer, Henry Brower. The chairmen of committees are not elected by the society, but will be appointed later.

—George L. VanEmburgh will lead the East Third Street mission meeting tomorrow evening.

STATE MILITARY MEN READY TO MOBILIZE.

National Guard Getting Ready to Move to Sea Girt.

TO ARM AND FEED 5,000.

GREAT ACTIVITY AT THE STATE ARSENAL JUST NOW.

Contractors Ordered to Hurry and Deliver Clothing—Big Force Engaged at Sea Girt Preparing the Camp for Occupation—Gen. Donnelly Says That He Can Pitch Tents for the Entire Guard of the State by Tomorrow—Intimation That the Work is Being Done at Suggestion of War Department.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, April 2.—The State military authorities frankly admit that they are preparing for war, and that they now have arrangements completed for mobilizing the State troops at Sea Girt at a moment's notice. Orders to move the troops are momentarily expected. As a consequence, everything about the quartermaster's department and at the State Arsenal is activity. Should war be declared, Gen. Donnelly says the entire force will be called out at once.

Gen. Donnelly has doubled his force at Sea Girt. He is preparing to supply and feed 5,000 troops. He says he is ready to arm and feed this number on six hours' notice.

While the members of the Military Board controlling the guard claim they are arranging to mobilize only the 4,200 Jersey troops at Sea Girt, in case of a declaration of war, there are reasons for the belief that the Federal Government has intimated that a couple of regiments of the regulars will forthwith patrol the Jersey Coast. It is to accommodate these regulars and the State troops that the water system at the camp grounds is being extended.

There is at Sea Girt a force of men putting the old mortars there in shape for business. The Seguins heretofore have been regarded as merely for drill guns, upon which the men were to practice. The department at Washington, however, now says that while the battery is obsolete, it is nevertheless serviceable. Projectiles have been manufactured for the guns, and these are now in the State's magazine.

There will be a new order of things at Sea Girt when the troops are mobilized. Instead of messing as when in camp, only Government war rations will be issued to the regimental quartermasters, and these will be apportioned among the men.

The State military authorities have suggested to the War Department that the six Jersey batteries be stationed along the coast at Atlantic City and Little Egg Harbor. The batteries man howitzers, which carry three miles. Commander Whitehead, who would command these companies, has been ordered to hold himself and men in readiness to move at a moment's notice. All National guardsmen have been ordered not to leave the city.

General Stryker received from Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt a letter suggesting that the Naval Reserve of New Jersey be recruitted to the full quota. Each of the battalions has three divisions and the maximum number of members of each division is eighty-one. The total enrolment of the Battalion or the East is 218, and the Battalion of the West 185. To bring the battalions up to their full quota twenty five men will be added to the First and fifty-eight will be added to the Second. Orders are being issued to commanders Irving and Dahlgren to recruit their battalions up to the limit at once.

RED MEN FOR CUBA

GOVERNOR VOORHEES ACCEPTED THEIR OFFER TO FIGHT.

The Committee on Resolutions Reported at the Meeting of Miantonomoh Tribe, Last Night—Other Business.

It will be a sorrowful day for the Spaniards when war is declared, for Governor Voorhees has received the resolutions of the braves of Miantonomoh Tribe of Red Men and has assured them that they wil be called out at the first demand for outside aid and sent to the wilds of Cuba as scouts. The braves of the tribe heard about their possible expedition to Cuba at a meeting last evening, and they gave vent to their satisfaction with long and lingering war-hoops of the most approved rapid-firing smokeless variety.

The committee on resolutions made its report at the meeting last evening. The substance of their report, as made by the chairman, William Newcorn, has already been given.

Altogether it was an eventful meeting. There were chieftains and braves present from Indianola Tribe, of Bound Brook, Raritan Tribe, of Raritan, Osago Tribe, of Paterson and Paughcaughnaughsinque Tribe of this city. Four trembling pale faces were adopted into the tribe. Six candidates were advanced to the chief's and warrior's degree. The initiatory work was done by the home team in the amplified form according to the new ritual and was highly praised by the visitors for its excellence.

A banquet followed the meeting at which the proverbial "corn and venison" of the red men was partaken of. Great Junior Sagamore William Newcorn then took charge of the gathering and an informal entertainment was given.

DR. SNODGRASS ACTIVE.

TAKING AN ACTIVE PART IN CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS.

Book of Discipline was Amended so as to Admit Laymen to the Conference.—Dr. Snodgrass' Convincing Remarks.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

East Orange, April 2.—Rev. W. C. Snodgrass, of Plainfield, is taking a prominent part in the proceedings of the Newark Conference being held in Calvary church in this place.

The question of amending the Book of Discipline so as to admit laymen to equal representation was taken up yesterday, and the laymen won. When the matter was called up a motion was made to omit all debate. This was opposed and was lost by a tie vote, 81 to 81.

Rev. Dr. S. P. Jones opposed the amendment. He claimed the question had been voted upon four times, and always adversely. Justice was on the side of the preacher. He characterized the government of the church as a "close corporation, and cannot be made a republic without revolution." The ministers had been warned not to engage in secular work. It was but right the ministers should control. He thought they could trust themselves to govern the church.

Rev. Dr. Hurlburt urged the change. He said it would allow the strong Conferences to demonstrate their strength in the General Conference.

Rev. Dr. Snodgrass said the Methodist church began as a hierarchy but gradually laymen had been admitted. There was no just reason why laymen should not be admitted, and on equal terms. It would benefit the church, because it would arouse interest in the laymen.

Others spoke briefly and the vote was taken. It was carried, 156 voting in favor and 29 against.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL OFFICERS.

Crescent Avenue Church Society Organized for a New Year.

The annual meeting of the Sunday-school of the Crescent Avenue church was held in the Sunday-school rooms Wednesday evening. The reports of the officers showed the Sunday-school to be in a flourishing condition with an increase in membership over the past year. The election of officers was held and resulted as follows; Superintendent, Henry B Newhall; assistant superintendent, Samuel F. Kimball; treasurer, R. A. Beebe; secretary, William H. Sebring; librarian, J. B. Coward. The following committees were appointed for the year: Finance committee, Stephen Cahoone, Mrs. John Grey Foster, Miss Margaret Tracy; missionary committee, Mrs. William B. Ostrum and Miss Carrie Dewey; library committee, Mrs. I. C Pierson, Mrs. Henry R. Halloway and Mrs. Hariot Burton Ford.

—William Carey, a converted engineer of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, will speak at the Wilson Memorial Chapel Sunday evening.

RAISED THOUSANDS FOR GOOD PURPOSES.

Creditable Work Accomplished By Presbyterian Women.

REPORTS HEARD FRIDAY.

BRIEFLY RECEIVED AT THE MEETING OF LADIES' AID SOCIETY.

Home Missionary Society Donations Have Just Reached the $1,000 Mark While the Foreign Mission Workers Have Passed That Sum by $73—Young Lads Have Done Good Work—Four Hundred Dollars of the McAll Auxiliary Funds Were Raised by Crescent Avenue Church—The Officers.

The good works of the women of the Crescent Avenue church were briefly reviewed at the annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society held in the church parlors yesterday afternoon. Mrs. William Scribner, the president, was in charge of the meeting. Mrs. Arthur Baynon, the secretary, first read the minutes of the last meeting. The report of the treasurer, Mr. C. B. Corwin, was read. It showed a good balance on hand. The funds of this society are devoted to the floral work of the church.

Then followed a series of reports from the different women's organizations of the church telling of the work that they had accomplished during the year. Miss Mary Ketcham gave the report of the Women's Home Missionary Society. It consisted of an account of the year's work and gave the information that the donations had just reached the $1,000 mark.

Mrs. Hariot Burton Ford gave the report of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society. The work in Brazil is still being carried on. The amount given through the Board amounted to $1,073.65.

The report of the boys' mission band, the Ernest Workers, was made by Mrs. Arthur Baynon. They had contributed $50 to the support of a teacher in India.

A very successful year was reported by Miss Ethel Holmes for the Young Ladies' Mission Band. Miss Elsie Goddard gave the summary of the work of the Sunshine Mission Band. An encouraging and successful report was given for the Junior Endeavor Society by Miss Carrie Dewey.

The flourishing condition at Hope chapel was the basis of the report of Mrs. S. R. Struthers. She told of the good work of the Ladies' Aid Society and the Women's Missionary Society there. An equally interesting report of the progress at Warren chapel was given by Mrs. J. W. Gavett.

The work in this city of the women of the church was touched upon. Mrs. Horace Kimball gave a short statement of what had been done at the Children's Home. Mrs. Frederic G. Meade reported that of the $700 raised by the McAll Auxiliary over $400 came from the Crescent Avenue church.

The election of officers was next held. Mrs. Horace Kimball, as chairman of the nominating committee, presented the following ticket which was unanimously elected: President, Mrs. William Scribner; vice-presidents, Mrs. W. R. Richards and Mrs. Oliver King; secretary, Mrs. Arthur Baynon, treasurer, Mrs. Charles B. Corwin; chairman of floral committee, Mrs. C. B. Corwin.

As this was the first public meeting since the death of their late treasurer, Miss A. Kate Martine, resolutions of sympathy and condolence were presented by Mrs. Horace Kimball and unanimously passed.

Mrs. William Scribner gave a very interesting and witty sketch of an old table that has been used in the church for all variety of things since 1872. Several weeks ago, it finally collapsed.

Enjoyed a Drive, Then Dinner.

Miss Katheryn Reinhart, of Belvidere avenue, gave a dinner party to a few friends at the Baltusrol Golf Club house, near Summit, last evening. The party drove over from this city by moonlight. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. VanBuren, Miss Katheryn Reinhart, Miss Marjorie Coe, William N. Runyon, L. H. VanBuren and Mr. Kernigan.

Decision Long Time Off.

At the meeting of the Borough Council last evening Counsel Reed informed the Mayor and members that if there were no obstacles in the way and everything worked as it should there would be a decision in the Watchung avenue case by next November. The Council seemed to be well pleased with the prospects.

MR. HEGEMAN RETIRES.

RESIGNS AS GENERAL TAAFFIC MANAGER OF THE LACKAWANNA.

His Recent Severe Illness Impelled Him to Take the Step—Engaged for Nearly Thirty Years With Company

New York, April 2.—After nearly thirty years service in positions of great responsibility with one of the greatest railroad systems in the country, B. A. Hegeman, of Plainfield, has severed his connection with the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company, announcement of which was made this morning at the office of Samuel Sloan, president of the company, 26 Exchange place.

Mr. Hegeman's position was that of General Traffic Manager of the freight department of the system, of which he had entire supervision. He also represented the Lackawanna system as a member of the Board of Managers in the Joint Traffic Association.

A year ago Mr. Hegeman evidenced a desire to retire from the activity and great responsibilities that he held in the railway world, and consequently handed his resignation to President Sloan to be accepted when he gave the word. The recent severe illness of Mr. Hegeman has prompted him to the long delayed action.

Mr. Hegeman became identified with the Lackawanna system in 1869 as general freight agent. He was then a resident of Brooklyn, where he had been managing the Union stores, a great enterprise. He showed great ability in the executive needs of his position and through his services the department of which he had charge attained such efficiency that the company recognized in him one of their best managers. In 1884 he was advanced to the position of General Traffic Manager, in which place he succeeded in putting the traffic service of the railroad, including thousands of miles of tracks, on a footing that is the admiration of all railway men.

A WORTHY CITIZEN GONE.

All That Was Mortal of Thomas Stine Put in a Grave.

The funeral of the late Thomas Stead Stine was held Thursday afternoon at the old homestead on Green Brook road where 64 years ago he was born. As remembered in his early days of manhood and of strength he was a friend to the weak and the strong alike, and in return was liked by all whom he came in contact with. His great physical strength, mental determination and kind attention explain his wonderful struggle for the past five years against the all powerful foe who at last "lay him low." Few there are who could have stood what he passed through in that time, one disease following another in almost continuous course, toward the last a complication of diseases added to the suffering, so when cold after cold developed into quick pneumonia human nature could stand no more but gave up the battle early Tuesday morning. the family, brothers and sisters near at hand to ease his moments. As a young man Mr. Stine was always deeply interested in his town affairs. For some years he was at Berry's hardware store, later going to New York where for many years he was engaged in the leather belting business until his sickness. Those who knew him will miss a friend.

Dr. Yerkes, who officiated, spoke highly of him in his kindly manner if anything more lovingly than usual Mr. Stine brings the fourth whom he had seen buried from the homestead, three brothers and three sisters still survive him. Many old friends and relatives were present from here and from New York and followed the body to the Baptist cemetery on Plainfield avenue where in the family plot, the interment took place.

As he lay in the casket Mr. Stine looked very life like and outwardly showed little sign of the terrible sufferings through which he had passed. The simple floral decorations were Easter lilies, symbolic of our rising Saviour, while his hands so strong in life clasped a bunch of white carnations. The bearers were Messrs. Cadmus, McCollough, Potter, Wm. Debelee, Howard Randolph and Wm. Swartz. The age of deceased was 64 years, 6 months, 17 days. He leaves a widow and two children.

GOLF ALL THE GO IN PLAINFIELD SOCIETY.

Two Clubs in Existence and a Third in Prospect.

HILLSIDE LINKS NOW OPEN.

THEIR NEW CLUBHOUSE WILL SOON BE UNDER WAY.

Park Club Talking of Establishing Links for the Use of Their Members—Wealthy Men Putting the Game on a Substantial Footing in This City By Furnishing $4,000 to the Hillside Club—At the Last Meeting Nine Active Members Were Elected And a Number of Associate Ones.

The prospects for an active golfing season in Plainfield this year are very bright. With two clubs in existence, the golf players of the city will have able opportunity to show their ability in the game. Then there is some talk of the Park Club building golf links of its own for the use of its members.

The old links of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club will be opened today for the members who wish to start practice at once. A gang of men under the charge of an expert have put the greens in good order again and they will be ready for all who care to play there.

Meanwhile the work on the new links of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club, located on Woodland avenue, is progressing rapidly. A gang of twenty men are now at work putting the course in order, laying out the greens and making such artificial hazards as are necessary. A surveyor has been establishing the holes and greens and laying out the course.

The clubhouse is soon to be started. The plans are drawn by A. L. C. Marsh, of this city, and the building contracts will soon be awarded. It is understood that the house will cost $4,000, while as much more money will be expended on the links in putting them in first-class shape. The money was raised among the wealthy members of the club who were glad to advance the necessary funds to put the sport on a firm basis and give Plainfield one of the best golf links in the State.

The trustees of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club Thursday evening elected the following active members: Charles D. Freeman, Stephen Cahoone, Sherman Evarts, Henry W. Lowe, Robert Rushmore, David J. Scott, Percy H. Stewart, A. F.H. Streuli and C. B. Tyler; also the following associate members: Miss Mary A. E. Wood, Jr., Miss Katharine M. Wood, Mrs. E. M. IN AN ANAMOLOUS POSITION.

Samuel Milliken's Unwitting Sale Nullified Effect of His Protest.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—Allow me the privilege of a few lines to correct a misapprehension on your part, in your issue of yesterday, in regard to the sale of my property on Front and Richmond streets, and my responsibility therefor.

Mr. Vail has had charge of this for several years and anxious to get a purchaser, and when he informed me that he had such a one I had no idea that it had anything to do with the trolley company. Ten days previously I had signed a protest to the Common Council against carrying it through Front street, and presumed my responsibility was entirely at an end, as I had been informed that my protest settled the matter as far as that block was concerned.

WAR NEAR!

Members of the Cabinet Give Up All Hope for Peace.

NEGOTIATIONS DECLARED OFF

McKinley Will Delay No Longer With His Message.

CONGRESS WILL TAKE HOLD

A Cabinet Council at Which the State of the Preparations of the Message Were Examined—The Situation of the Gravest Possible Character—Spanish Torpedo Fleet at Porto Rico—Our Ultimatum.

Washington, April 2.—The statement given out after the Cabinet meeting gives a synopsis of the answer from Spain. It starts with a statement that Spain has revoked the order of concentration, and urges more time.

The statement ends with the announcement that "the President will communicate with Congress as soon as he can."

The situation is grave, so grave that it means war unless Spain immediately backs down.

It is learned that the unanimous opinion of the members of the Cabinet was that war between Spain and the United States was certain.

The tone of Spain's reply to the President's demand was entirely unsatisfactory, and portions of it were regarded as almost flippant.

All negotiations have been declared off and Congress will hereafter deal directly with Spain.

The statement made public by the President contains the substance of the mesage sent by General Woodford and was properly couched in temperate language.

Woodford's message, contrary to general opinion, was brief, scarcely more than 500 words after being translated.

The summoning of Navy Department officers to the Cabinet meeting was decidedly ominous and could be explained on no other ground than that war was imminent.

The naval officers were called to the Cabinet meeting to give information with regard to the movement of the Spanish flotilla and to advise as to the wisest method of putting the flying squadron into condition for service against it at a moment's notice.

The naval men gave information to the Cabinet as to the progress of the Spanish flotilla westward, and stated fully the plan devised for sending the flying squadron to intercept them.

The sailing of Commodore Schley's fleet will probably be the first act of the war.

A Cabinet officer stated after the Cabinet meeting: "We are making preparations for war. That is really what the Cabinet meeting meant."

The Cabinet adjourned at 1:45 and met again at 5 o'clock, at which the outline of the recommendations to be made to Congress were submitted.

SPECIAL CABINET MEETING.

Members Said the Situation Had Not Improved in the Least—Orders to the Flying Squadron.

Washington, April 2.—The special meeting of the Cabinet adjourned at 6.30 last evening. All the members were present but Secretary Sherman. The war situation was discussed, as were the recommendations of the Naval Board of Strategy.

The Cabinet was informed of the time which the Spanish Torpedo fleet would require to make Porto Rico, and also of the time which it would require our fleet to intercept it.

Orders have been issued to all of the war fleet in ports along the coast to co-operate with Schley, of the flying squadron, and also to the mosquito fleet and the auxiliary craft upon which much of the preliminary work of scouting and defense will be imposed, to be ready to repel any advance of the Spanish shius.

When the Cabinet meeting was over the officers said that the situation had not changed. The President had decided to let the whoe subject go to Congress. The subject under discussion had been the message that the President should send—what line he should take, what course he should recommend.

Secretaries Alger and Bliss both said that they thought possibly the message might be deferred longer than Monday.

Every member who was seen said the situation had not improved. Their faces showed that they felt that way.

The situation is grave. War may be declared at any hour. At all events it cannot be but a few days off.

Both Houses have adjourned until Monday and no message, therefore, can be sent to Congress until that date.

CONGRESS TO ACT.

The President Will Send in a Message on Monday.

Washington, April 2.—All attempts to secure a definite and satisfactory reply from Spain failing, the President has commenced work on a message which, it is understood, he will send to Congress on Monday.

The President in his message will not only review the diplomatic history of the controversy with Spain over the Cuban question, but he will make certain recommendations with reference to the legislative action which he is very desirous of having adopted.

It cannot be learned yet what plans he has in view or whether the details have been worked out in his own mind. It is known, however, that he is especially solicitous that Congress shall not determine upon a policy until his message is made public.

Before sending it he will talk with the leaders and press his views upon them.

Now that war seems certain to be the issue of the long struggle for Cuban freedom, Congressmen generally will uphold the President and follow his lead without regard to the question of party politics.

It is probable that the Committee on Foreign Affairs will, as soon as possible after hearing the tenor of the President's proposed recommendations, proceed to prepare legislation in accordance with them.

They may begin the work before the message is sent to Congress, but formal action will not, of course, be taken in either House, until after the message has been received. Congress is eager to declare Cuba free and it will not be long in doing it.

OUR ULTIMATUM.

Washington, April 2.—The conclusion having been reached that further negotiations with Spain are useless, the President has decided to communicate that decision formally to Spain. It will be his ultimatum.

Appreciating the gravity of this action, the President informed several members of his Cabinet who called upon him last night that he would sleep upon the ultimatum before delivering it.

Spain's Flotilla at Porto Rico.

Madrid, April 2.—The Spanish torpedo flotilla has arrived at Porto Rico.

The Spanish torpedo boat flotilla in steaming from the Canary Islands to Porto Rico, about 2,700 miles, in nine and a half days, has traveled steadily at an average speed of not more than twelve knots, an economic speed, which the transport with them could easily no doubt maintain.

It is possible that the report from Madrid is sent out as a blind to avert action by our ships, but this is hardly probable.

WAR DECLARED INEVITABLE.

London Papers Say Spain Has Lost Her Opportunity to Settle the Dispute.

London, April 2.—The Times says, editorially, this morning:

"There is much to sympathize with in the attitude of both Spain and America. It is easy to see how two proud nations, without many bonds of traditional or social sympathy, may find themselves involved before they fully realize the peril in the grim realities of war.

"It is not unnaturally suspected that Spain's reply to the United States is a device to gain time and to defer the war to the malarious season in Cuba. If Cuba could attain any form of respectable government under the Spanish flag it would be the best thing that could happen, both for herself and her neighbors; but there is scarcely a gleam of hope that this solution is now possible."

The Daily News says:

"Every lover of liberty will wish the war as short as it is sure to be decisive. The United States can gain nothing for themselves by fighting Spain unless it be an addition to their honorable record as the apostles of freedom. It is a mere commonplace to say how great is England's anxiety for American success."

Big Coal Miners Strike.

Wheeling, W. Va., April 2.—The indications point to a general strike of the coal miners of West Virginia on account of the refusal of the coal operators to agree to the Chicago scale of wages and hours. In the Wheeling district no mines are at work to-day, though the strike has not been decided upon yet. At Montgomery yesterday there was an immense gathering of the miners of the Kanawha and New River valleys, and of the 5,000 men employed in these valleys less than six hundred were at work. The men were urged to be moderate in their methods, but not to rescind the Chicago demand.

Big Order for Canned Meats.

Chicago, April 2.—The G. H. Hammond Packing Company received a rush order to-night from Washington for 900,000 pounds of canned meats to be delivered in New York. The order will fill forty cars and the train, in two sections, will be sent over the Baltimore & Ohio road.

Orders have been issued to start the trains as soon as the cars are loaded and they will be sent East on express time, with a right of way over all other trains.

Pope Said to Pray for Peace.

Madrid, April 2.—The latest phase of the situation is a report that the Pope is urging Spain to offer an armistice, and also that His Holiness urges the insurgents to accept it.

Washington, April 2.—Concerning the Madrid bulletin that the Pope is exercising pacific influences, the Papal Delegate, Monsignor Martinelli, has received no instructions and has taken no action in this line.

Declare They Will Kill the Priest.

Bridgeport, Conn., April 2.—The police are on the lookout for the senders of a letter to the Rev. Father Joseph Pribyl, in which they threaten him with death if he persists in holding his pastorate until Good Friday. The communication bears the signatures of those who have been prominent in the disturbances that have wrecked St. John's Roman Catholic Church of this city.

Quay Is for a Free Cuba.

Washington, April 2.—Senator Quay yesterday offered this resolution:

"That the Committee on Foreign Relations be and is hereby instructed to report on or before the 5th inst., a bill for the recognition of the Republic of Cuba."

It went over under the rules.

An Explosion Kills Four,

Louisville, Ky., April 2.—A special from Campbellsville, Ky., says: A boiler explosion four miles north of this town yesterday killed four men outright and fatally hurt another. The boiler, engine and shingle mill were demolished. Low water in the boiler caused the accident.

Trust Freezes Out 3,000 Men.

Cleveland, O., April 2.—Threethousand men are out of work here as a result of the control by the Wire Trust of three of Cleveland's largest plants. At Salem the wire and nail departments of the Salem Wire Nail Company are closed down and all employees have been paid in full.

40,000 Cubans Ready.

New York, April 2.—Cubans now in this country propose to play an important part in any war into which we may get through our sympathy for their native land. For a month past a quiet but energetic canvass has been made, and the result has been communicated to Secretary of War Alger. The men in charge of the movement say that within a week after the declaration of war a force of at least 40,000 Cubans will be ready to step on board the transports which will carry them to any point on the island that may be chosen for invasion.

Demands All of the Maine Evidence.

Washington, April 2.—Representative Fleming of Georgia yesterday introduced a resolution of inquiry directing the Secretary of the Navy to inform the House if the document printed by the Senate as the President's message and evidence on the Maine incident contains all evidence embraced in the report of the Naval Court of Inquiry now on file in the Navy Department, and if not to transmit to the House a copy of the omitted evidence.

Woodruff to Quit Madrid.

London, April 2.—A special dispatch from Madrid says United States Minister Woodford is making the necessary preparations to leave Madrid immediately in the event of a diplomatic rupture.

HOPE OF PEACE GONE SPAIN NOT TO YIELD

President McKinley Makes an Official Statement.

No Further Concessions Will Be Made to the United States.

OUR OFFICES REJECTED

Sagasta Says Spain Will Allow Us to Feed the Reconcentrados and Intimates That the Other Matters Are Not Our Affairs—President at Work on a Message—It Will Not Be Sent to Congress Until Monday, However.

Washington, April 2.—The end has come. Diplimacy is exhausted. The President has done his utmost, and peace is no longer in sight, even to the most hopeful.

Spain declines all propostions, except that to revoke the concentration order, and there is nothing left the President but to communicate the situation to Congress. That means war.

The Spanish Government has been formally notified of the President's purpose to communicate with Congress, which leave no further room for diplomatic correspondence.

President McKinley has begun work on his message to Congress. There is no exception at present, however, that the message can be completed to-day. It is authoritatively announced that it will not be sent to Congress until Monday. The message will be a review of the entire diplomatic correspondence from the beginning to the end.

Nothing will be held back from the people. The President's advisers believe that the facts thus presented will deonstrate that the President has acted with a clear comprehension of his duty to the nation.

Spain's reply is regarded by the Cabinet as characteristically shrewd, in that on the one point upon which the administration has appealed to European nations—that of the starving Cubans—Spain professes a purpose to comply.

THE SPANISH REPLY.

Official Statement Given Out at White House.

Washington, April 2.—This official statement was given out by the President at the close of the Cabinet meeting yesterday noon:

"The following is an abstract from the telegram received from Gen. Woodford on the evening of March 31, 1898, on the general situation in Cuba. He informs the Government of the United States that Gen. Blanco has revoked the 'bando' relating to the reconcentrados in the western provinces of Cuba, which are understood to be the provinces of Matanzas, Santa Clara, Havana and Pinar del Rio; that the Spanish Government has placed at the disposal of the Governor-General the credit of 3,000,000 pesetas ($300,000) to the end that the country people may return at once and with success to their labors.

"The Spanish Government will accept whatever assistance to feed and succor the necessitous that may be sent from the United States in accordance with the plan now in operation. It proposes to confide the preparation for an honorable and stable peace in the incular parliament, without whose concurrence the Spanish Government would not be able to arrive at the final result, it being understood that the powers reserved by the constitution to the central Government are not lessened or diminished.

"As the Cuban Chambers will not meet until May 4th, the Spanish Government will not, on its part, object to a suspension of hostilities if asked for by the insurgents from the general-in-chief, to whom it will belong to determine, the duration and the condition of the suspension.

"The President will communicate with Congress as soon as he can prepare a message."

The President's statement throws little light upon the situation. It is not officially indicated whether he will grant the delay until May 4th asked for, whether he will recommend to the insurgents to ask the sesation of hostilities proposed or whether he will report to Congress at once. The general opinion is that the statement is given out to quiet public clamor temporarily and that the President's next step will be to submit the whole matter for Congress, announcing that diplmatic negotiations are at an end.

POINTS IN THE REPLY.

Necessary to Consult Cortes About Cuban Independence.

Washington, April 2.—The reply of Spain is said, in effect, to be:

The independence of Cuba means the parting or cession of Spanish territory, which cannot be done without the consent of the Spanish Cortes, which is not in session, and will not be in session until April 24th, and consequently no definite answer can be returned to the demand of the United States until the Cortes assembles.

Then a counter proposition is submitted, that the Cuban matter shal be settled upon a basis equitable among nations.

The United States is asked to give Spain time to treat with the insurgents and ascertain what can be done in the nature of a peaceful settlement.

It is said the reply is unsatisfactory to the President, and that he does not believe it will be satisfactory to Congress.

Senators who know the nature of the reply say it is a very shrewd piece of diplomacy, and made for its effect upon the world at large.

No one about the Capitol has undertaken to speak for the President, although those who have seen him say that his hopes of a peaceful solution of the difficulty have been disappointed by the reply of Spain.

Spain Sparring for Time.

Washington, April 2.—The idea prevails here that Spain is playing the diplomatic game and that the decree of General Blanco, by which the reconcentrados were liberated, was a crafty move toward gaining time. The treatment of the reconcentrados has been made the prime issue by the United States. It is believed that the Sagasta Ministry hopes by the Blanco proclamation, which they will contend has been a virtual granting of everything America has a right to demand, to prevent the immediate recognition of the independence of Cuba.

WILL FIGHT US FOR HONOR

Spain's Proposals Is That Insurgents Should Ask for an Armistice and Not the United States, That Such a Request Should Be Dealt With by Autonomist Cabinet of Cuba and Without the Intervention or Good Offices of United States

Madrid, April 2.—According to the best information obtainable, Spain has definitely resolved not to make any further concessions to the United States.

The most important comment on the situation is that of the Ministerial El Liberal which may be looked upon as undoubtedly reflecting the position of the Spanish Government. The paper says:

"We have done all we can to remove a pretext for a rupture. If President McKinley refuses our concessions, we, with a quiet conscience, will await any trials which may come and defend our honor and our rights.

"The entire nation supports the Government. This was the meaning of yesterday evenings enthusiasm. Rich and poor are working together. No one asks whether the sum collected goes for warships.

"It suffices to know that it will be employed to rebut any of the pressure. Spain must no longer live under the continual menace and unrest of the past three years. There must be no more debating or haggling. Even a rupture is preferable. Intervention is de facto even now. We desire and appeal for peace. But the limit of our long sufferance is at an end. We will not be the aggressors, but we will defend our rights with our traditional tenacity and bravery."

The substance of the proposals of the Spanish Government, the Associated Press correspondent learns, is:

1. That the insurgents should ask for an armistice, and not the United States.

2. That the request for an armistice should be dealt with by the Autonomist Cabinet of Cuba, and without the intervention or good offices of the United States.

SPAIN IS DEFIANT.

Will Fight Us for Honor—Active Preparations for War in Havana.

Havana, April 2.—Dispatches from Madrid indicate that Spain will neither accept an indemnity to abandon Cuba, nor will she consider a proposition for the withdrawal of her flag from the colony.

General Blanco announced after a conference at the palace last night that Spain is determined to uphold her honor at all hazards.

Preparations for war are going on actively in Havana. The Volunteers are enthusiastic and General Blanco is being swamped by proffers of help.

La Lucha says editorially that Spanish honor must be sustained at all cost. Spain in event of defeat could lose only either Cuba or Puerto Rico, while the United States if defeated would receive a blow to her national credit from which she would take years to recover.

FLYING SQUADRON GETS READY.

Preparing to Attack Spanish Squadron in Case of Hostilities.

Washington, April 2.—The cruiser Minneapolis has left the League Island Navy Yard for Hampton Roads. With her arrival there the flying squadron will be complete, with the exception of the Texas, which is having some repairs made in New York. She will probably sail for Hampton Roads by Monday.

The flying squadron is rapidly preparing for a cruise. No definite programme has been mapped out, but it is the intention of the Navy Department to utilize the vessels composing it against the Spanish torpedo boat flotilla should hostilities occur.

The revenue cutter Windom has arrived at Norfolk, where she will be converted into a naval gunboat. The Vicksburg, also arrived at Norfolk. The Annapolis has sailed from Key West for Tompkinsville; the Newport from Tampa for Key West, and the Helena from Bermuda for Key West.

President Was Not to Arbitrate.

Washington, April 2.—There is no authority for the statement that in the preliminary correspondence leading to the demand upon Spain for an immediate answer it was suggested that if Spain could not arrange with Cuba the terms upon which independence was to be granted, McKinley might act as arbitrator. The Spanish Government, however, was assured in advance that the President would insist on Cuban independence as the necessary outcome of negotiations through arbitration or otherwise.

Beet Sugar Experiments.

Washington, April 2.—The President sent to Congress a report of Secretary Wilson on the beet sugar experiments of the Government. The Secretary concludes that the facts and figures presented in the voluminous document justifies devotion of time, money and talents to the development of the industry, inasmuch as the total amount of sugar now imported into the United States can be produced upon 1,000,000 acres devoted to sugar crops.

Alger Orders Eighty Big Guns.

Washington, April 2.—Secretary Alger has ordered the purchase of eighty additional large guns for coast defense batteries. Arrangements have been made for the immediate graduation of the West Point class of cadets.

Bridge Over the Niagara River.

Washington, April 2.—The House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce has favorably reported the bill authorizing the construction of a bridge over the Niagara River at Grand Island.

Senate Adjourns Until Monday.

Washington, April 2.—The Senate late yesterday afternoon adjourned until Monday. This makes it certain that the President will not send a message to Congress until that date.

Ask your doctor how many preparations of cod-liver oil there are.

He will answer, "Hundreds of them." Ask him which is the best. He will reply, "Scott's Emulsion."

Then see that this is the one you obtain. It contains the purest cod-liver oil, free from unpleasant odor and taste. You also get the hypophosphites and glycerine. All three are blended into one grand healing and nourishing remedy.

DUN'S WEEKLY REVIEW.

With the Exception of Wall Street the Country Seems to Take the situation Philosophically.

New York, April 2.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade, issued this morning, says: In spite of foreign conditions since the destruction of the Maine, February 15th, failures in three months are smaler than in the first quarter of any year since 1886.

The war cloud, which many have inferred must have greatly increased commercial disasters does not appear to have any such effect as yet and while there is some decline in the new orders for industries nearly all live works are covered so far ahead that the difference is not felt. Rates for money have advanced, and the 6 per cent. which used to be the ruling rate in active times again prevails.

The outgo of breadstuffs continues, Atlantic exports beng 2,516,220 bushells, flour included, for the week, against 2,-185,378 last year, and Pacific exports 542,147 bushels against 138,207 last year, and for the past five weeks from both coasts the exports have been 16,592,917 bushels against 8,226,256 last year. Meanwhile corn exports have been for the week 3,767,029 bushels against 4,-291,621 last year.

The iron and steel market shows no decrease, for with works fully employed, and some additional works put into operation for Government purposes, pig is not lower anywhere, and at Pittsburg a shade higher for Bessemer, because of agreement by Valley producers, while without agreement of Mesabi mines the purchases of ore at Cleveland were over a million tons for the week.

The stock market has been beyond reason foolish, frantic coverings of shorts raising the average price for railways $2.15 per share on Monday, and after selling on Tuesday again raising it $1.22 per share Wednesday, but the market closed only $1.37 higher than last Saturday. There is nothing in the market except bets on the supposed war or peace, and the increase in earnings for March, 17.5 per cent. over last year and 7.9 per cent. compared with 1892, have no influence. Eastbound tonnage for the quarter was more than double that of 1892, but had no practical influence. Failures for the week have been 220 in the United States, against 260 last year, and 27 in Canada against 42 last year.

WATCHING SPAIN'S SHIPS.

Navy Department Develops a Policy of Greater Secrecy—Torpedo Flotilla's Time of Arrival.

Washington, April 2.—The State, War and Navy Department building was alive from end to end to-day. There is an increasing tendency of the officials not to impart news of the prospective movements of ships and other details of an important character, as too much publicity might interfere seriously with the arrangements and intentions of the department.

Some news of the sighting of the Spanish torpedo flotilla, on its way from the Canary Islands to Porto Rico, is anxiously awaited. Strong trade winds prevail, which, if met by the fleet, will seriously impede its passage. But if the conditions are favorable it is believed that the arrival of the fleet at Porto Rico may be expected next Monday or Tuesday.

Their light draught and rapid speed makes these boats especially dangerous, and they might be able, after leaving Porto Rico to run unnoticed into Havana harbor, where they would be a material addition to Spain's naval strength.

Naval officials are watching with much interest the Spanish fleet now at Cadiz. This is composed of five vessels, two of which, the Cristobal Colon and Maria Teresa, left Carthagena the other day.

Met Spain's Flotilla.

London, April 2.—A steamer which has arrived from Las Palmas, Canary Islands, reports having met four Spanish torpedo boats and three torpedo boat destroyers, with an escort ship, on March 23, a few miles distant from Las Palmas. They were going south and were understood to be bound for Cuba. The flotilla was steaming slowly, looked most imposing and had no bunting showing.

OHIO PREPARES FOR WAR.

Bills Introduced in Legislature Appropriating $1,300,000 for Defence.

Columbus, O., April 2.—Two war measures were yesterday introduced in the Ohio Legislature, and it is hinted that they were inspired by Governor Bushnell and Adjutant-General Axline as the result of secret advices from Washington.

Senator Riley introduced a bill appropriating $1,000,000 for the defense of the State of Ohio and the ports of the Federal Government in the event of war with Spain.

Representative Taylor introduced a bill carrying an appropriation of $300,-000, and directing the Governor to place the State militia on a war footing in anticipation of a call to arms by the President.

Both these bills passed to second reading under suspension of the rules, and were referred to the Finance Committee.

IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The annual report of the Board of Education and of the Superintendent of Public Instruction of New Jersey has just been received. It is an elaborate document, and of especially significance and interest to Plainfielders. First because it is compiled and shows the work accomplished by that representative citizen, Charles J. Baxter, the State Superintendent, and further because it furnishes a concise and instructive review of the work of the Plainfield public schools for the school year ending June 30th, 1897, from the pen of Henry W. Maxson, superintendent of the local public educational institutions. Mr. Maxson's report opens with the statement that the year has been one of growth and accomplishments in the Plainfield schools. A tabular form shows the number of children of school age to be 3,296, and the enrollment 2,354. Mr. Maxson refers to the high standard of work which the public schools maintain in fitting students for collegiate courses, but supplements the observation with the statement that the principal aim is to give a good mental training and literary groundwork to those pupils who finish their education in the High School. The Superintendent refers in a general way to the improvements made in the various school building, and the great advances secured through them, and closes with a worthy tribute to the ability of the teachers and their earnest efforts to improve the educational standard of the community.

STATESMEN OF THE STREET.

It is remarkable how many people think they could settle the troubles of this nation if they were only in President McKinley's shoes. At every street corner nowadays you hear some advocate of peace or war dilating to his friends just how the nation's affairs should be run. Not only are they absolutely certain that their plan is the only solution of the great national controversy, hut they laugh at the idea that the President or any of the lawmakers have looked deeper into the question than they have, and are therefore entitled to some consideration. It grows exciting, however, when two of these "national benefactors" have to meet and exchange opinions. After a long and spirited argument they part, each firmly convinced that his friend is absolutely lacking in common sense and has not the slightest idea what he is talking about. To those people the idea that every man is entitled to his own opinion is not within the bounds of their belief.

New York has the most men enrolled in the national guard—13,891. Next comes Pennsylvania with 8,521. It seems rather odd that Indiana should have more than either Ohio or Illinois. Indiana shows up 7,875, Ohio 6,004. Ohio's patriotism seems to run to politics more than to war. Illinois has 6,260 national guardsmen.

It requires six days for passengers to travel from New York to Seattle ordinarily and freight two weeks or more. But the roads that had the contract for transporting the reindeer and Laplanders put them through from coast to coast in six days, a journey unprecedented in quickness for freight.

The passage of the $50,000,000 national defense bill through the senate was one of the quickest on record, requiring only 12 minutes. The senators deserve great credit for restraining their eloquence.

President Paul Kruger was present as a boy of 15 when the Transvaal republic was founded in South Africa. He was a soldier in its service then and he has been in its service ever since.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

The ladies of the Audubon Society of Philadelphia recently gave a display of spring millinery in which hundreds of the most beautiful creations of the art were exhibited, with not a bird nor part of a bird in the whole collection. It was an object lesson to every lover of the beautiful in personal adornment, that could not fail to impress the fair with the sense of wantonness in bird murder.—Newark News.

If Union county wishes to link Elizabeth with Plainfield and Plainfield with Elizabethport, something besides talk will be necessary now. Offers of $100,000 for trolley franchises had better be snapped up when they are hot. And right here it is pat to say that Elizabeth's Council might have touched the Standard Oil Company for at least half that sum before granting it privileges that are five times more injurious to public and private property than a trolley road.—New York Press.

PASSING COMMENT.

The postal authorities are constantly meeting with puzzles in the way of remarkable addresses that keep them guessing as regards their meaning. Only the other day a letter came addressed to a Plainfielder care of the "Pontule Works." After considerable discussion it was decided that the letter was intended to go to the Pond Machine Tool Works.

The owners of frisky horses have been steering very clear of LaGrande avenue for the past week. The steam roller seems to inspire fear in the hearts of equines to a remarkable degree. Even the sedate horses who rarely show any signs of agitation for trains, trolley cars and the like, plunge and rear like colts at the sight of the steam roller. When the steam roller was at work last year signs reading "Danger, the Steam Roller is at Work" were placed at the street corners where the roller was working. This year that precaution has been seemingly neglected.

There now hangs in the North Avenue station a directory of the Plainfield and North Plainfield churches that was prepared several years ago by the Local Union of the Christian Endeavor Societies. At the time it was placed there, the directory was a useful thing. At the present day, however, it should be removed and so revised as to be up-to-date. Nine of the ministers who then presided in Plainfield pulpits have departed and new faces have taken their places. A directory of the churches is a good thing but the present one is very misleading to strangers and should either be taken down or revised.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

"A Social Highwayman," as presented by the Waite Comedy Company last night, was one of the finest dramatic treats of the season. As had been announced, it is a play for thinking people, and it is safe to say that as the days go by the impression made by this most peculiar dramatic masterpiece will grow stronger and stronger in the minds of those who witnessed the performance. It is such a radical departure from all established precedents and usages in dramatic construction that it stands alone, a lasting monument to dramatic progress. The engagement will close with the performance of Lester Wallack's naval comedy-drama, "The Veteran," in which Manager Woods, of the Waite Company, assumes the leading role. Owing to the existing war clouds now hanging over the Nation, it should be a particularly appropriate offering.

N. B. Smalley's bid was 95 cents.

At this time a general discussion of street work was introduced by Mr. Woolston, chairman of the street committee. He stated that the committee met last Thursday evening and talked over several important matters concerning the work for the present year. One thing decided upon was the extension of the sidewalks on Somerset street as far as the Miles property. Greenbrook road also received the attention of the committee as well as many other streets. Regarding a permanent pavement on Somerset street from the bridge to Greenbrook road it was stated in a letter that the work could be done by using vitrified brick for about $20,000. The information was given by Borough Engineer Frank Hubbard. The figure for the work as given by F. A. Dunham was $2.30 per square yard, while Mr. Hubbard's figure was $2. The sum of $20,000 would make the interest each year about $1,000 at the rate considered. Mayor Wilson expressed himself as being in favor of the plan, but the committee thought that inasmuch as there were no sewers on the street it would not be wise to make such a move at present.

Mr. Woolston thought it would be well to lay a block of the vitrified brick in front of the public school building, and this suggestion will probably be carried out. It is quite likely that the budget this year will be about the same as last year, $20,000, but this will be decided at a future meeting.

The committee also considered the purchase of a water wagon and a roller for the streets. The roller will probably not be purchased, but it is likely that the water wagon will.

Another subject that was discussed exhaustively was the opening of Duer street into the city. Mr. Woolston stated that the property on Craig place owned by Mr. Dyer, which now stands in the way, could be purchased for about $4,000. The Council thought the price pretty high, and the Mayor stated that he had offered Mr. Dyer at one time $5,000 for his house and property, and in return he received an impudent letter. Mr. Valiant said he had a similar experience with the owner. Mr. Woolston said that thus far about $1,600 had been subscribed toward opening the street. After a lengthy discussion the matter was dropped indefinitely, as it was not thought wise to take the matter up until the Watchung avenue matter was settled.

Considerable discussion followed regarding the macadamizing of Rockview avenue from Rockview terrace to West End avenue, and Mr. Rogers in strong words favored the plan. He felt proud to think that the borough had such a resident as Mr. Buttfield, who had built so many handsome houses and thereby improved property in the borough. It is Mr. Buttfield who heads the list of those who want the avenue macadamized. This matter as stated above was referred to the street committee, after which the Council adjourned.

Mr. Huff, the owner, is anxiously waiting to hear from the Plainfield officials concerning the matter. He claims that he is a Seventh Day Baptist and should be allowed to keep open Sunday. OPPOSITE DEPOT.

HE NOW WALKS

WITHOUT HIS CRUTCHES, AND SAYS A MIRACLE WAS PERFORMED UPON HIM.

Alonzo G. Brokaw, a Hospital Patient, and on Crutches for Months, Completely Cured by the Boy Phenomenon now at the Revere House.

Positively no New Cases Will be Taken for Treatment After Tuesday, April 5.

The past two months our citizens have been electrified, dumbfounded, bewildered and finally convinced by a most wonderful occurence. Almost daily during that time reports have reached the public press and been the chief topic of conversation upon our streets relative to the surprising and unparalleled cures of many prominent citizens accomplished by a mere youth, known as the Boy Phenomenon. The healing of so many well known persons of ailments supposed to be incurable, attracted the most wide-spread atttention, and were a source of wonder and astonishment everywhere. In fact, so remarkable were the results achieved, and cures accomplished, that they were almost beyond human belief, and not until incontrovertible facts, supported by overwhelming evidence of authenticated and indisputable proofs were obtained, would they be given credence.

But thanks to a discriminating public, truth, honesty, merit and skill have triumphed, and today animal magnetism and the Boy Phenomenon stands without a peer, pre-eminently at the head of all healing agencies.

The unparalleled success attending his work in Plainfield the past two months, and the miraculous cures effected of many prominent citizens, whose maladies were considered hopeless, have gained for this mere youth not only an enviable reputation as the greatest of all magnetic healers, not only the plaudits of the public and the indorsement of the press and pulpit, but the personal knowledge, which is more gratifying than all, that he has been able to restore sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, strength to the weak, caused paralytics to recover use of their limbs and rheumatic pains to disappear.

As the time is rapidly approaching when no new cases will be taken for treatment, and as he is daily discharging ten to twenty patients as permanently cured, testimonials are being received in such large numbers that it would require many columns of space to publish them. Therefore, no more will be published after today, but may be seen on application to his office.

This is a sample of 23 letters received this week. Comment is unnecessary, as the writer is too well known in Plainfield to need any introduction. "Boy Phenomenon. Now that you are soon going away, I wish to express my gratitude and heartfelt thanks for the wonderful benefits I received at your hands. I was a great sufferer from inflammatory and muscular rheumatism for a year. The pain was so intense I had to go to the hospital, but medicine did not seem to reach my case. It was with great pain and difficulty that I managed to hobble to your office six weeks ago with the aid of two canes. I took treatment, and have not had a pain or used my crutches since the first treatment. I have refrained from boasting of my recovery, as some told me it would not be permanent, but I am glad to say I am getting better every day. Alonzo G. Brokaw."

While he will remain in Plainfield at the Revere House some weeks longer, no new cases will be taken after Tuesday, April 5, therefore an oppointment must be made before that date if treatment is desired.

A Useful Coat.

A light weight jacket is indispensable for early spring and summer, and one should be included in the wardrobe of every well dressed woman. A smart little coat is in cadet blue cloth, with the collar and revers braided all over with black. The front is double breasted and fastens invisibly with hooks, the left front being trimmed with large oblong buttons, while the edges are several times machine stitched. On either hip a slit is cut for the insertion of a pocket.

The neck is finished with a roll-over collar which forms small revers in front. The small coat sleeve is finished with three rows of machine stitching at the wrist.

Handsome Princesse Gowns.

The graceful lines of some of the new princesse dresses are certainly most exquisite. Drap d'etes, Henriettes, and some of the finer grades of cloth, are now the most used for these gowns, and one model of fawn gray drap d'ete is cut to cling rather closely to the figure on the front and sides, the front of the bodice so slashed that very often more of the handsome guimpe beneath shows than the drap d'ete, the guimpe being made of Persian brocade in a medley of soft, beautiful colors. On each side of the skirt front, the seam is opened and turned back, showing a V-shaped insertion of the Persian brocade. On a black drap d'ete, with guimpe of black moire, these inserted paniers in the skirt are omitted, but an old feature of the gown is a long scarf-like length of black net, heavily jetted, which goes over the shoulders and falls to the very hem of the skirt. The close-fitting coat sleeves have a tiny moire puff at the top overlaid with jetted lace straps, and at the wrist they are finished with a falling frill of pleated chiffon, with a ruffle of the lace above.

A Queer Fish.

In the Pacific Ocean among the islands of Santa Barbara and in the lakes of California there is a queer fish which spends a lazy life, floating on the surface for the most part of the time and basking in the sunshine, with part of his body out of the water. It is called the molamola by the natives, and the "mole" or "moon" fish by the whites. Unlike other fishes, it has no tail in the proper sense of the word, only a kind of fringe acting as a kind of rudder. It is sometimes over ten feet across the fins, and round as a bladder. Strange to say, it serves as a floating island for large numbers of sea birds, especially gulls and cormorants, to rest upon and preen their plumage. When chased, the indolent moon fish dives like a duck, to re-appear further off. Nevertheless, it would be easily caught if the flesh were good to eat, but it is so exceedingly tough that it is really only fit to dry in the sun to form a substitute for india rubber balls.

For Afternoon Wear.

A dainty bodice is made up of a combination of pale green flowered silk and plain silk. It is arranged with a tight fitting lining, the neck of which, back and front, is covered with a yoke of plain material, set in plaits; back and front yokes being cut without a seam down centre, and each of the folds or tucks run along previous to being laid on the foundation. The lining bodice hooks down the center, but the yoke is brought across and fastens down the left side.

The material is gathered to the yoke front and back, and over the shoulders is a piece of passamenterie, terminating at either end in a trefoil design, across the front being sewn to the yoke edge. The basque is worn inside the skirt and finished with a silk belt. Tight fitting sleeves, with three chiffon epaulets over the shoulder.

Ginger Pudding.

Cook two ounces of butter and three ounces of flour together for six minutes (taking care the flour does not acquire any color), then stir in by degrees half a pint of hot milk, and continue stirring until the mixture is thick and perfectly smooth; sweeten slightly with castor sugar and put aside until cool. Then add four ounces of preserved ginger cut into small pieces, two tablespoonfuls of the syrup (or more if not sufficiently sweet), the yolks of two well beaten eggs, and lastly the whites whisked to a stiff froth. Pour at once into a pie-dish lined with pastry and bake in a quick oven for from twenty-five to thirty minutes.

Pure Candy Good for Children.

The weight of opinion is in favor of a moderate amount of good pure candy eaten by children with or soon after their food, and that it is not only not in the least detrimental, but is positively beneficial. It is the cheap sweets manufactured out of injurious compounds that have drawn upon the practice the odium of medical men. Pure sweets contribute valuable force to the human system, and need not be feared. A Chicago physician claims that one can scarcely eat too much pure chocolate. Now, if this authority would only go a little further and tell us how we are to know the pure from the impure, a great burden would be lifted from many mothers who are anxious to do right and yet are equally anxious to contribute to their children's happiness.

Handsome Theatre Corsage.

The styles in theatre waists are even more varied than in shirt waists, and are as richly trimmed as ever. They have not taken the severe shape which was promised, so that the blouse and surplice effect still remain. Revers are also much seen, and enjoy the height of favor.

A novel treatment of bodice trimming is shown in the illustration. The corsage is made of silk, trimmed with lace. The simulated guimpe is of the silk, tucked on either side lengthwise, the center panel being of fine lace insertion and tucks. The epaulettes and revers are of the lace, stiffly interlined, and faced with silk. Sleeves of lace and silk, with silk puff at shoulder.

Airing Spare Rooms.

Rooms which are not contantly used often get too little fresh air, and they have, therefore, a somewhat unpleasant, close odor. When possible, the windows should be opened every day in fine weather, or at least twice a week; and occasionally the beds should be turned out, the mattresses being thrown back so as to allow of a free current of air through the bedding, and the blankets and pillows should be placed on chairs near the windows. The drawers and wardrobe in a spare room should be left a little open. This will prevent their getting a slightly musty smell, which is peculiar to furniture of this description when shut up for any length of time.

Old Gothoof (savagely): "What's that? You mean to tell me that you love my daughter for herself alone?"

Young Hardupp (tremulously): "Yes, sir; but I think I could l-learn to l-love you t-too, sir—in t-t-ime, sir."

Golf can positively be traced in Scottish history back to 1457, and it is believed to have been played much earlier even than that date.

Darmstadt. Seit etwa einem Jahre hat die Militärverwaltung die Fleischlieferungen in den Garnisonen an einzelne Metzger vergeben, während früher jede Truppenabtheilung ihre eigenen Lieferanten hatte. Für das laufende Halbjahr stellen sich die Preise für Ochsenfleisch in Darmstadt auf 1.24 Mark per Kilo, in Worms auf 1.05 Mark und in Mainz nur 1 Mark. Während früher stets prima Qualität Fleisch geliefert werden mußte, ist in den Verträgen jetzt, beispielsweise in Mainz, eine Qualität des Fleisches nicht vorgeschrieben, womit dem Lieferanten ein weiter Spielraum eingeräumt ist, den auch die Metzger wohl auszubeuten wissen.

Bingen. Im Anschluß an die Errichtung eines Elektrizitätswerkes wird nicht nur die elektrische Bahn Bingen-Kreuznach ausgeführt, sondern auch eine elektrische Bahn nach dem Rochusberg angelegt.

Worms. Das hiesige Schöffengericht verurtheilte einen Landwirth aus Gimbsheim wegen Zusatz von Wasser zur Milch zu einer Strafe von sechs Wochen Gefängniß. Der Bestrafte war wegen Milchfälschung schon mehrmals verurtheilt worden.

November 1897 den Baumeister Klinger und den Polier Henke zu je drei Jahren Gefängniß. Zwei mitangeklagte Maurer wurden freigesprochen.—Vom Asylverein für Obdachlose wurden im Monat Februar im Ganzen 2948 Personen unentgeltlich beherbergt und verpflegt. Nach Staatsangehörigkeit ausgeschieden, entfallen auf: Bayern 1919, Preußen 236, Württemberg 180, Sachsen 77, Baden 89, Thüringen 22, Hessen 15, Elsaß-Lothringen 11, Oesterreich 353, Schweiz 32, Dänemark 3, Rußland 1, Frankreich 1, Italien 8 und Amerika 1.

Augsburg. Das zur Errichtung eines Volksbades disponible Kapital, von den Forster'schen Relikten gestiftet, ist jetzt auf 320,000 Mark angewachsen.—Die Jahresberichte der hiesigen Ortskrankenkassen weisen so günstige Resultate aus, daß, falls nicht besonders ungünstige Verhältnisse eintreten, in absehbarer Zeit wohl an eine Herabsetzung der Beiträge gedacht werden kann.

Hof. Neulich Nachmittags suchte der Arbeiter Hohlbach, nachdem er seine Frau entfernt hatte, seinen 3½jährigen Knaben mit dem Revolver zu erschießen. Der Schuß ging fehl und das Kind entfloh. Der Vater richtete darauf die Waffe gegen sich selbst, brachte sich aber nur eine unbedeutende Verletzung am Kopfe bei. Er wurde verhaftet.

Münchberg. Den im Vorjahre durch verschiedene Unbille gänzlich verarmten Gemeinden des Ahornthales hilft die Kreisregierung auf alle mögliche Weise. Sie gibt Arbeitsgelegenheit durch Straßenbau, schafft aus verfügbaren Mitteln Saatgetreide, Kartoffeln u. s. w. Gewiß ein nachahmenswerthes Beispiel edler Fürsorge.

Tölz. Hier hat sich ein Komite gebildet, um dem Schmied von Kuchel, der in der Weihnachtsnacht 1705 die Oberländer Bauern zur Entsetzung Münchens herbeiführte, und der von den Oesterreichern auf dem Kirchhof zu Sendling sammt seinen Schaaren zusammengehauen wurde, ein Denkmal zu errichten.

Traunstein. Der wegen Haberfeldtreibens bereits zu acht Jahren Gefängniß verurtheilte Bauerssohn Balthasar Killi von Altmünster leistete dem Sicherheitsaufseher Friedrich Hendlmaier in Laufen heftigen Widerstand und wurde deshalb vom königlichen Landgerichte zu drei Wochen Gefängniß verurtheilt.

You can't do as well anywhere else in buying a Piano, as you can here, for you can get one from us for less money, quality considered, than you could anywhere else in America. That is because our prices are not made by competition; it has not been our object to keep in line with others, but to sell Pianos at the lowest possible profit, regardless of competitors' charges.

Our immense business and low profit methods have matured side by side—the more Pianos we sell the smaller we can make the price on each instrument handled—so that to-day we have no real competitors.

You save $75 to $150 in buying your Piano from us.

NEW YORK LETTER.

Some one has said that foreigners were loosing their love for American politics. Such is not the case in New York if we may judge of Mayor Van Wyck's official family. We find among the most important members the names of Whalen, York, Holahan, Clausen, McCartney, Feitner, Straus, Nagle, and in minor positions the O's, the Macs and the Vans almost without number. Croker's plans for playing an active and important part in national politics during the next three years are developing rapidly. He has gone to work with all of his old-time energy and cunning to make the renomination of W. J. Bryan by the next Democratic National Convention an impossibility. Croker believes that the Democratic party can elect the next President on a platform less radical than the Chicago production if a strong and conservative candidate is nominated. He regards Bryan as a weak man and weaker candidate.

Mr. Croker was in Europe all through the campaign of 1896. He returned a few weeks after the election. A number of his political friends and several reporters met him down the bay, and had a long talk with him while the ship was coming up to the city. He asked many questions about the campaign, and seemed especially interested in Mark Hanna and Bryan. When told that the Boy Orator had turned lecturer Mr. Croker smiled, and said, quietly but firmly: "That will be the end of him in politics. He has talked too much already."

The Forty-Second Street Reservoir.

The water has been let out from its enclosures, the night guard has been withdrawn from its parapet, by other channels the floods of the aqueduct seek the down-town district, and the old Bryant Park Reservoir at 42nd street, its occupation gone and its glory soon to depart, has been surrendered to the Park Board for demolition. The twelvemonth that saw the grim Egyptian front of the Tombs taken down, stone by stone, will see the even sterner majesty of this other Egyptian landmark of the old New York banished by the unreverencing hand of change.

The reservoir was completed in 1842, at a cost of about $500,000, and the ceremony of letting the water into it was celebrated on Independence Day of that year. A salute of forty-one guns was fired at sunrise, one gun for every mile between Croton River and the reservoir. In the civic and military parade 15,000 persons marched.

When the reservoir was first constructed complaint was made that it was too far away from the main population of the town. But in the half century the town has pushed far beyond it, and it is now near the center of the district which includes the clubs, the churches, the great hotels, the noted restaurants and some of the most ornate private residences. The library which will succeed it will be more advantageously located than the Astor or the Lenox, and will fill that place in the wants of the immediate neighborhood which the removal of the Columbia Library to Morningside Heights has made.

Starving in New York.

A man and woman of refinement and genius came close to starvation in the great city of New York last week. Both are educated, both talented, both are energetic. The tragedy developed in six weeks.

"I came here from Montreal," said Mr. Barry. "My wife had been here two weeks and confidently expected a theatrical engagement. I am an expert accountant and have never found it difficult to get employment hitherto.

"We have walked these streets of New York all day on our different errands to save car fare. I have walked across and up and down and back home again. My wife has walked too. And then we came home at night to look to each other for comfort, but we wouldn't give way. Neither wanted to break the other's courage.

"But our money gave out and we had to let our position be known."

The newspaper stories brought the Barrys no end of sympathy. Mr. Barry has gained a good position, and Mrs Barry is likely to do the same, as she has had several offers. Letters poured in on them from people who wanted to help. One man, a street-car conductor, came with a basket his wife had prepared with home goodies—two stuffed chickens, home-made bread, fresh butter and jelly. The conductor said he had "been there himself."

"People have been awfully kind," said Mrs. Barry with tears in her eyes. "And it is not so much what they did as the kind way they did it. This experience has taught us both that the world is full of kind hearts if one can only reach them." CYRUS THORP.

Fell Off the Tree.

Isaac Titus, of Randolph road, was riding on the top of a large section from a tree, fastened on a truck, yesterday afternoon, when a pole slipped and Titus was thrown backward off the load. He struck on the back of his head and was stunned for some time as a result of the shock. Dr. Browning, of East Fifth street, in front of whose house the accident occurred, went to the help of the injured man. Titus finally recovered suffi ciently to go on with his load.

Church Finances Discussed.

A church meeting was held at the Church of the Disciples of Christ last evening, at which time the finances of the church were discussed. It was reported that an advantageous arrangement could be made to extend the time of payments on the church debt. The matter was considered at length and it was finally decided to hold another meeting next Tuesday evening to definitely decide whether to accept the proposition.

STREET RAILWAY ORDINANCE.

An ordinance locating the tracks of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company on North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue within the Borough of Fanwood, County of Union, and authorizing and empowering the construction and operation and maintenance of the same and granting permission for said Company to use electricity as the propelling power of its cars, and prescribing the terms and conditions upon which such location of the tracks and permission are granted. Whereas, The Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway, a corporation organized under the provisions of an act entitled, "An act to authorize the formation of traction companies for the construction and operation of street railways, or railroads operated as street railways, and to regulate the same," approved March fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, having first filed in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of New Jersey a description of the routes, together with maps exhibiting the same, did present their petition or application to the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, praying the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood for its consent to the construction, operation and maintenance of a street railway in the Borough of Fanwood, and the right to locate its tracks conformably to the route filed in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of New Jersey, which route in the Borough of Fanwood is upon and along North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, and was set out in the said petition; and

Whereas, Public notice has been duly given of such application and of the intention of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood to consider the same, by publication, also by posting a copy of the said notice in five or more of the most public places in said Borough of Fanwood at least fourteen days prior to the date of the meeting of the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood; and

Whereas, Upon the day fixed by said notice and upon such days as the said hearing was adjourned to, public hearing was given to all persons desiring to be heard in favor of, or opposed to, or in any wise interested in the said application for the location of its tracks, and the said matter having been duly considered by the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, and the said Company having filed with the Clerk of said Borough the consent in writing of the owners or their duly authorized legal representatives of at least one-half in amount of the lineal feet of property on said North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, within the Borough of Fanwood and upon which permission to locate, operate and maintain said street railway is asked.

Now, therefore, be it ordained by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, as follows:

Section 1. That the tracks of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company be, and they are hereby located in the following avenues, in the said Borough of Fanwood, in the County of Union, to wit, as set out in the following description:

Beginning at a point in the centre line of Forrest Avenue where it is intersected by the line of the Township of Fanwood; thence along the centre line of Forest Avenue southeasterly fifteen hundred and eighty (1580) feet to the centre line of Midway Avenue; thence along the centre line of Midway Avenue easterly twenty-five hundred and ninety-eight (2598) feet to centre line of North Avenue; thence along centre line of North Avenue easterly sixteen hundred and ninety (1690) feet to the line of the Township of Fanwood, conformable to the amended route of the new line of street railway and the map exhibiting the same, filed in the office of the Secretary of State of this State; and said Company is hereby given the right, power and authority to maintain and operate cars upon the said railway by electricity as the motive power. The said Company shall complete the construction of its whole line of railway within the Borough of Fanwood in the manner herein provided, and all fixtures and appurtenances, and commence the operation of the same and the running of its cars for the transportation of passengers on or before December first, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, or this franchise shall be and become null and void and of no effect, unless the time for the completion of the same shall be extended by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood. If the said Company after the commencement of the operation of its said line of railway by the collection of fares thereon shall fail or neglect to operate the whole or any portion of the line hereby authorized daily and every day for the space of thirty consecutive days, or shall fail to operate the same for a total number of days exceeding thirty in any one year; all the rights, powers, privileges and every one of them of the said Company, its successors and assigns, under and by virtue of this ordinance, shall thereby cease and be determined and in either of such cases the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood expressly reserves the right to sell the said line at auction to the highest bidder who will operate it, or may cause the said railway, or any part or parts thereof, to be removed from the said avenues, and to sell and dispose of the materials thereof at public auction, and after paying all the expenses of such removal and auction sale, and repairs to the said avenues and the cost of restoring the same to its original condition, to pay the balance of such sale to the said company, its successors and assigns.

Section 2. The said Company shall construct, maintain and operate a double track street railway as aforesaid with the cross-overs, switches and sidings shown by the map hereinafter specifically referred to. The rails to be laid by said Company shall be of steel of the girder pattern of a weight not less than seventy pounds to the yard. And the said Company shall so construct and maintain the said railway that the top of the rails shall at all times be flush with the grade of the street or highway. The ties, spikes, and all other materials shall be of the best quality. The railway tracks of the said railway shall be laid as follows: One track on each side of the centre line of said avenue so that the inner rail thereof shall be distant two feet and three inches from said centre line, and the gauge of said tracks shall be four feet eight and one-half inches. The said Company at its own cost and expense in all streets or avenues through which it shall lay tracks hereunder, shall pave between said tracks and between the rails thereof in a good, substantial and workmanlike manner with a telford or macadam pavement to a depth of four inches and shall maintain the same flush with the rail of said tracks. The railway tracks and macadam or Telford pavement shall be laid and constructed in the best workmanlike manner and to the satisfaction of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood or other committee thereof having charge of the streets.

Section 3. During the construction of the said railway, lighted lanterns shall be kept and maintained by said Company from sunset to sunrise at each and every night, not less than fifty feet and not more than one hundred feet apart along every part of said avenues, where the work of construction shall have been begun and not completed. The work in all other respects shall be thoroughly protected so as to prevent accident. In case any accident shall happen to any person or damage to property is caused, because or by reason of any work connected with such construction of said railway, or afterwards because or by reason of the operation thereof, or through carelessness or negligence of any of the Company's officers, servants, agents or employees, the said Company shall indemnify and save the said Borough of Fanwood and the said Mayor and Council from all costs, loss or damage by reason thereof.

Section 4. The Company shall at all times keep in good condition and repair to the satisfaction of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, (repaving, if necessary) the paving between the tracks, between the rails and one foot six inches outside the same to the depth of four inches.

Section 5. That said Company shall lay its rails to conform to the grade of said North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, at the time of laying of said rails, and in case of any change of the grade or of the surfaces of said North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, or any part thereof, at any time, then the said Company at its own cost and expense shall immediately on request made in writing by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, so change the location of its tracks and the surface or grade of such part of said avenues as to conform to such change of surface of said avenues or change of grade, or any newly-established grade.

Section 6. That no change, addition, alteration of gauge or the location of the tracks, sidings, cross-overs, switches, poles or overhead structures of said railway company shall be made therein or thereabouts at any time by said Company after the same has been first erected and approved by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, without official action granting permission for such change, alteration or addition being previously taken by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood.

Section 7. The said Company and its officers, agents, servants or employees, shall not, nor shall any or either of them be allowed to shovel, throw or place snow, ice, slush or any other material along the side of said track or tracks, in such manner as to obstruct or hinder other public travel thereon or on the said avenues, but when removing the snow, ice, slush, or other material from its said tracks, the said Company and its officers, agents, servants, and employees shall without unnecessary delay and with a sufficient force of men, cause the same to be levelled between the said tracks and the gutter line on each side thereof.

Section 8. No salt shall be used by said Company on any part of its tracks, except on the grades, curves and crossovers without the consent of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, or the proper Borough officers, nor shall any car be allowed to stand in or to obstruct any cross street, or to stand upon any cross-walk for any purpose whatever, or to stand to remain in any one position for more than five minutes at any one time, except when such car shall be unavoidably obstructed or detained by accident or breakdown, without fault or negligence of said Company, under a penalty of ten dollars to be paid by said Company to the Borough Collector with costs of collection for each and every violation of this section.

Section 9. That where said railway tracks shall pass over culverts or gutters, the bottom of which shall be below the grade line of such railroad, iron girders or proper supports of the most approved pattern shall be provided by the Company and such necessary iron bridges or drains shall be constructed across the tracks and shall be so constructed as not to hinder or obstruct the flow of surface water underneath the tracks of said railroad.

Section 10. The Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood on behalf of said Borough, reserves the right to dig or excavate in or upon any of the said avenues for the purpose of laying, examining, replacing or repairing any sewer, water, or gas pipes, or for the purpose of making any other public improvements, or for doing any other public work whatsoever, and the said railway company shall have no redress or claim for damages because of any detention or obstruction to travel on the said railway arising therefrom. Provided, that such work shall be done as quickly as possible without causing unnecessary delay in the operation of said railroad; and provided further, that if any such improvement, or repairing, replacing, laying or re-laying or examining can be made or done in any feasible or practical way, without obstructing the operation of said railroad, then and in such case it shall be the duty of the party doing such work to do the same in such manner as last aforesaid.

Section 11. That the said Company shall remove any dirt, gravel or any material or obstruction placed by the said Company or its agents or servants on any of the avenues within three days after the service on an officer or servant of said Company of written notice so to do by the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood or its duly authorized agent. In case the said Company shall fail to remove such material or obstruction and to put the said avenues in as good order as before such material or obstruction was placed thereon by said Company, the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood may order and cause the said material or obstruction to be removed and the said avenues to be put in complete order and repair at the expense of said Company.

Section 12. That all persons driving vehicles upon the railroad tracks of the said Company in any of the said avenues when met or overtaken by a car of the Company shall on being warned by a ringing of a bell or gong or on request of the conductor or motorman of such car, as soon as possible, turn and drive his vehicle entirely off of such track, so as to allow such car to pass; it being understood that the cars of said Company shall have the right of way over the tracks of the Company, (except at crossings where the public shall have the first right of way over and across the road and tracks of said Company.) And the driver of any vehicle for the violation of any of the provisions of this section shall forfeit and pay to the Borough Collector for the use of the Borough a penalty of ten dollars to be recovered before any justice of the peace of the said Borough.

Section 13. The cars to be used on said railway shall be well lighted and properly heated; they shall be kept clean and have proper bells or gongs, which shall be rung or sounded before such car reaches the crossings of any street intersecting any of the said avenues and whenever necessary to give warning of the approach of such car; the said cars shall be run at a speed not greater than ten miles an hour, and each car shall be provided with the necessary fenders of the most approved pattern, and such cars shall be run at an average headway of not longer than fifteen minutes, between the hours of six o'clock A. M. and ten o'clock P. M., and from ten o'clock P. M. to midnight, such cars shall be run as the travel may demand or warrant, but in any case the average headway shall not be longer than one-half hour; all cars on the said railroad shall run the entire length of the line of railroad tracks hereby authorized to be constructed. The Company shall from time to time diminish the headway of its cars as the increase of travel shall demand. All cars placed upon the line of said Company shall be of the most approved pattern; and said Company shall maintain gates upon the sides of the platforms of the cars wherever there shall be a double track so that the ingress and egress to and from said cars can only be had from the side of the car nearest the curb.

That for the purpose of supplying light, heat and power for propelling cars on said railway, permission is hereby given to the said Traction Company and the right is hereby granted to said Company to erect poles and string the necessary wires thereon upon the following terms and conditions:

The poles to be used for the equipping of said railway for operation by electricity shall be of iron, similar to those used by the Plainfield Street Railway Company for that purpose upon its Netherwood line in the city of Plainfield; said poles shall be at least twenty feet in height above the surface of the ground and shall be set and located opposite each other as near as may be on both sides of said avenues and within the line of said avenues and at the points designated and shown upon a certain map entitled, Map showing proposed location of tracks or rails of a double track street railway, also showing proposed location of poles for support of overhead construction for trolley wires of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company, in the Borough of Fanwood, County of Union and State of New Jersey," which map is on file with the Borough Clerk and is hereby made a part of this ordinance for the purpose of showing the true location of the tracks hereby authorized to belaid upon the said avenues by said Company and for the purpose of specifically designating and prescribing the several places within the line of said avenues where such poles shall be located and the location of said tracks and poles therein shown is hereby approved and adopted by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood.

The said poles shall be set in the ground to a depth of not less than six feet and the hole in which said poles shall be set shall be not less than one foot in diameter and the excavation or space around said poles shall be filled with broken stone and concrete to the surface of the ground and the same shall be thoroughly packed and rammed.

The wires strung upon said poles shall be properly graded with other wires when required by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood. Section 16. That for every mile of road owned or operated, or that may hereafter be owned or operated by said Company within the limits of the Borough of Fanwood (whether said road be single or double track) said Company shall pay or cause to be paid to the Collector of Taxes of said Borough, for the use of said Borough, the following sums as license fees; to wit: For the year beginning January 1st, 1899, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the year beginning January first, 1900, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the year beginning January first, 1901, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the year beginning January first, 1902, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the year beginning January first 1903, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the five years succeeding January first, 1904, three per cent. annually of the gross earnings of said Company, with a minimum payment, however, during said period of five years at the rate of two hundred and fifty dollars a mile per year; and for each and every succeeding year thereafter, five per cent. of the gross earnings of said Company, with a minimum payment, however, at the rate of two hundred and fifty dollars a mile per year. That to enable the Borough to ascertain from time to time the gross earnings of the said Company the books of the Company shall be open for inspection by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood or by such other person or persons as the said Mayor and Council for that purpose shall designate at the expense of the said Company. The payments provided for in this section shall be in lieu of all license fees for cars whether provided for in prior ordinances or not.

Section 18. If the said railway company shall fail to build or construct the whole of said railway as in this ordinance described, with its turnouts, switches, &c., in the manner aforesaid, and put the same in operation for the transportation of passengers within nine months from the first day of March, 1898, or shall thereafter fail or neglect to operate the same aforesaid, and as in this ordinance specified (except for reasons beyond the control of said Company) over the whole of said road as herein described, all the right, powers and privileges and every of them of the said railway company, its successors and assigns and by virtue of this ordinance shall become at the option of Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood null and void and the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood in that event expressly reserves the right to cause the said railway and every part thereto to be removed from the streets, avenues and highways on which the same has been placed within the Borough of Fanwood (first giving notice of at least ten days to said Company to remove the same and all structures connected therewith), and in case the said Company should fail or neglect to comply with the requirements of said notice and put the streets and roads in as good condition as before the said road was constructed, the said Mayor and Council may at a public auction sell so much of said material belonging to the said railway company as may be necessary to pay the costs of removal and the replacing of said road or highway in their former condition.

Section 19. Should the said Company violate this ordinance in any section or provision thereof for which a penalty has not been already prescribed, and specified herein, the said railway company shall be subject to a penalty of ten dollars ($10) for each and every violation, on conviction thereof, to be recovered before any justice of the peace of said Borough. The provisions of this section, however, in no way to effect the rights or claims of any person or persons against said Company.

Section 20. That said Company upon final adoption of this ordinance and before the exercising of any of the rights and privileges granted, shall as a condition precedent file with the Borough Clerk of the Borough of Fanwood a contract to be executed by said Company and duly approved by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood wherein said Company shall covenant and agree with the inhabitants of the Borough of Fanwood, to abide by and perform all the matters and things herein on part of said Company to be observed, kept and performed; that it will at any and all times hereafter fully indemnify and protect the Borough of Fanwood from any and all suits, actions and proceedings that may be brought and maintained, or sought to be brought and maintained by any person or corporation on account of or by reason of the adoption or maintenance by said Company, its successors or assigns of said electric system aforesaid, or the construction or maintenance of said electric system, or anything connected therewith, or any act or omission or commission by said Company, its successors or assigns, or any of its agents or servants, at any time or times, and shall whenever requested by said Borough, fully defend any and every action, suit or proceeding.

Section 21. That this ordinance shall take effect immediately, and said Company shall file its written acceptance thereof in the manner and time required by law and shall fully pay and satisfy bills approved and ordered paid by said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood within ten days after such date of approval for advertisements, publications, notices, printing and other work done in or about or connected with the consideration of the application of said Company for said location of tracks connected with the consideration of the passage of this ordinance or any ordinance or ordinances supplementary thereto.

A Great Manufacturer's Sale of Fine

for Men, Boys and Children, to be sold at 50c on the dollar.

Sale commencing Saturday, April 2d, at 8:30 a. m., and to last for three weeks only.

It is early in the season to sell at a discount, but manufacturers are often pinched for cash even early in the season and are compelled to unload. The cash reputation of our store makes it a ready target, and the financially distressed manufacturers hearing that we were in a position to buy for spot cash, and knowing that we had five stores to supply, asked us to make an offer, which we did, and it was accepted. A great opportunity for money-saving clothing buyers. The very finest Spring and Summer clothing in the world will be sold at retail for less than one-third the price that other stores ask for the same goods.

SIX YEARS OF FIRE INSURANCE AND LOSS.

Showing the Efficiency of the Local Fire Department.

GOOD WORK HAS BEEN DONE

DEMONSTRATES THAT LOCAL RISKS ARE TAXED HIGH.

The Bearing Which the Efficiency of the Fire Department Should Have in Determining the Amount of Premium to Be Charged—Local Agents are Trying to Secure a Lower Uniform Rate, and it Has Been Practically Promised—Large Sums Represent Insurance and Small Figures the Losses

Among the many great advantages that Plainfield enjoys is a strictly up to-date fire department. The firemen have always been quick to respond to an alarm and they have been able to save thousands of dollars worth of property.

With these facts in mind the people of Plainfield have for some time past felt as though they were paying a very high rate of insurance on their property. They argue that there are other places much smaller and with less efficient fire protection that are enjoying a much lower rate, while Plainfield with an acknowledged up-to-date department is paying considerably more than if her fire-protecting service was not so good.

The fire insurance companies have without a doubt realized that Plainfield people are paying well for their insurance and the local agents have admitted the fact. Of late some of the agents have cut the rate, and it is said that insurance will be written in the city for a rate as low as 35 cents a hundred. The regular rate will average between 50 and 60 cents a hundred. This rate is considered very high by most everyone. The local agents are now endeavoring to secure a lower uniform rate, and it has practically been promised them by the companies.

In connection with this it might be interesting for Plainfielders who are paying large insurance to know something about the insurance on both real and personal property and the loss on the same for a few years back. The figures run back to 1892, and as it takes in six years it will give a fair example of losses and gains.

In 1892 there were 27 fire alarms from boxes, three out-of-town calls and two telephone calls. The insurance on the real estate property involved that year was $72,300, while the loss was $8,205. The insurance on personal property amounted to $31,600 and the loss $1,851 50. There were thirty-two box and three telephone calls in 1893. The insurance was $111,900 on real estate and the loss was $12,233 6C. The insurance on personal property amounted to $53,000 and the loss $11,450.49. In the year 1894 there were forty seven box and thirteen telephone calls. The insurance amounted to $79,915 on real estate and the loss was $3,015.20. On the personal property there was an insurance of $42,900 and a loss of $6,674. In the year 1895 the department had twenty-six box and eleven telephone calls. The insurance on real estate was $49,300 and the loss $1,768.80. On the personal property there was insurance to the amount of $33,350, while the loss was $1,426.55. In the year of 1896 the box calls were forty-six and there were fifteen telephone calls. There was insurance to the amount of $144,000 on real estate and the loss was $8,792 86. The insurance on personal property was $92,875 and the loss $12,236 39. Last year the department had thirty box and thirteen telephone calls. The insurance on the real estate was $70,800 and the loss $10,671.42. On the personal property there was an insurance of $85,000 and a loss of $10,423.70. These figures speak volumes to those who are interested.

The total loss on real estate involved for the last six years amounts to $44,586.87, while the total insurance on the property was $528,615. On the personal side there was a loss of $30,762.63, while the insurance on the same was $338,825.

These figures are authentic and are taken from official records. Another interesting feature are the figures showing the amount of property endangered by fire during the years of 1896 7. In 1896 the property value of real estate endangered amounted to $188,725, while there was $149,025 worth of personal property at stake. For 1897 the amount for real estate property involved was $96 775, and $109,513 worth of personal property.

The above figures show conclusively that Plainfield people pay well for their insurance, and considering the protection given it should be much lower. It is understood that in June there will be a meeting of the representatives of the insurance companies in this city and that rates will be put down very much.

WORDS, BLOWS, BULLETS

ENRAGED NEGRO SHOT TWO MEN AFTER A QUARREL.

The Affair Occurred at Whitehouse Saturday Night—One Victim May Die—The Assailant Made His Escape.

Bound Brook, April 4.—John Mitchell, a negro employed by James M. Pidcock, Superintendent of the Rockaway Valley Railroad, shot and wounded Edward Kane and John Dilly, telegraph linemen, in Crossley's barber shop at Whitehouse Saturday night. Kane was shot in the groin and his condition is critical. Dilly will recover. Mitchell fled, and up till a late hour last night had not been arrested.

Kane and Dilly were members of a gang of linemen recently sent to Whitehouse by a telegraph company. The linemen have had several rows with Mitchel, and, according to the story told today, Mitchell was always the aggressor. About 10 o'clock Saturday night Mitchell went to Crossley's barber shop. Several of the linemen were there, and one of them quarrelled with Mitchell. Kane, it is said, threw Mitchell out of the shop. Accompanied by his employer, Mr. Pidcock, Mitchell returned to the barber shop, and the linemen say that both Pidcock and Mitchell resented the ejectment of the negro. Mitchell finally backed out of the door and opened fire with a six-chambered revolver. The crowd scattered. Kane received a bullet in his groin and Dilly was shot across the chest.

Mitchell, after emptying his revolver, walked down the street and escaped. Kane was removed to St. Michael's Hospital in Newark. The surgeons were unable to find the bullet, and they fear that Kane's recovery is impossible.

Superintendent Pidcock is a son of former Congressman Pidcock, the chief owner of the Rockaway Valley Railroad.

BLOOD CLOT ON THE BRAIN.

Attendant at Central Station in Somerville Found Dead.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, April 4.—Wit Brokaw, the Negro attendant at the New Jersey Central Railroad station here, was found dead in the coalshed of Sargeant Brothers at an early hour yesterday morning. The suspicion that he had been murdered created much excitement in the town.

County Physician Wagoner made an investigation. There were no marks of violence on Brokaw's person. An autopsy showed a large clot of blood on the brain, caused by the bursting of a blood vessel in the right temple. The physicians concluded that the blood clot on the brain would have caused Brokaw to act as a demented man, and believe that in this condition he strayed to the coalsheds and lay down to die.

Medical Supplies for Missionaries.

The box which the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Crescent Avenue church is now preparing for Rev. E. L. Walz at Brittin's Cove, N. C., is about completed. A valuable contribution to it has just been received from the Drs. Hedges. It is a large supply of drugs and medical supplies, all neatly labeled with their use marked on them.

Truth and Justice.

"Truth is the summit of being." Justice is the application of it to affairs. If, then, it be the truth that your eyes are failing, in justice to yourself you should at once have them attended to, and that attention is always available at Collier's, where scientific tests and the best optical goods are assured.

Club Car Contract.

The committee from the members of the club car in this city met last Saturday evening and considered the advisability of renewing the contract for the cars "Howard" and "Evona" for another year. Nothing definite was decided, but it is safe to say the contract will be renewed.

GROWING DISREGARD FOR STRICT SUNDAY.

Dr. Lewis Again Discusses the Sabbath Observance.

WHY SUNDAY TRADE EXISTS.

THE CORE OF THE PRESENT ISSUE CAUSED BY INTEMPERANCE.

The Seventh-Day Baptists, He Says, Have Neither Sympathy or Complicity With the Pretenders in Sabbath Observance—This Was Shown Once When a Man Who Was Thought to be Insincere in His Professions Was Refused Membership in the Church—Several Other Very Interesting Points

Rev. A. H. Lewis, D. D., editor of The Sabbath Recorder, contributes the following communication to The Daily Press today:

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—Permit me to ask the attention of thoughtful people, further, to the question of "Sunday selling" in Plainfield. I begin with what is well-known that all Seventh-Day Baptists, now, as always, desire to aid in all efforts to secure the highest morality and good order in this city. They have neither sympathy nor complicity with pretended Sabbath observance, nor with cider joints. Once, during my pastorate in this city, a man sought membership in the Seventh-Day Baptist church, with the evident purpose of securing the privilege of running a business Sunday. He was promptly "turned down." Sunday selling does not exist in Plainfield because of the exemption in favor of Sabbath-keepers. There are but few States where men cannot hide behind that exemption if they desire. But the growing disregard for Sunday makes it unnecessary for them to do so. The emmissaries of the "Churchman's League" report more than forty places of business open Sunday in Washington the National capitol, so close together that the observers passed them in forty-five minutes. What is seen here is part of an universal decline of regard for Sunday law, and an indirect part of the liquor traffic. Analyze the situation:

1. The core of the present issue is not selling chewing gum. It is cider. Primarily, it is not Sunday observance, but drunkenness.

2. The cider issue is part of the larger issue of the legalized liquor traffic. They cannot be separated.

3. Plainfield legalizes and fosters the liquor traffic, abundantly, on all days except Sunday. That legalized business produces definte results. Great activity characterizes it during the twelve hours next preceding Sunday. Churches promote prayer as a preparation for Sunday. The liquor traffic manufactures "bums" for Sunday. That is a pitiful word. God's image is terribly marred in the men who stagger to bed in unhappy homes or in the station house on "Saturday night." Christ died for those men. Plainfield owes those men something. They rise on Sunday broken in body and in soul. The ordinance of the city compels them to a day of idleness. They want rum. They do not have a wine cellar nor an ice chest with cool beer for dinner. "Cider joints" supply their demands until the legalized traffic begins. Their existence is promoted by the activity of the saloons on the previous evening, and the leisure for temptation which the Sunday law compels. These are cold, hard, cutting facts that cannot be eliminated from the problem which the city of Plainfield has in hand.

4. As we have already shown in these columns, and as is also shown in the new order of the Mayor, yesterday, that the effort to close the "joints" under the Sunday law, lies wholly along religious lines. The Carbone case has already made the reader familiar with the first of the religious tests involved. Of the second, we will try to speak tomorrow.

County Road Assessments.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, April 4.—Messrs. Andrew Lane, George W. Anderson and George S. Corle, the commissioners appointed by Chief Justice Magie to estimate and assess the benefits accruing to property owners by reason of the improvement by Somerset county of Mountain avenue, in North Plainfield, and Union avenue in Bound Brook and Bridgewater township, have filed their reports in the clerk's office.

Spring Vacation Over.

The spring term at the Plainfield public schools opened this morning after a week's vacation. The attendance was good. The work was resumed as usual.

COULD NOT KEEP AWAKE

EXHAUSTIVE CONDITION OF MAN AND HORSES ON A MOVING VAN.

One of the Horses Fell by the Wayside and the Driver Went in to Sleep, and Was Aroused by Massage Treatment.

One of the effects of moving time was witnessed on the road leading from this city to Bound Brook yesterday afternoon. Frank Woodruff, of Westfield, sends his large moving vans all over the country, and four of them finished moving a family from Westfield to Weston yesterday morning about 3 o'clock. The horses and men had not been able to get more than an hour's sleep at a time during the past week, and consequently were completely exhausted. They got a few hours' sleep at Weston and started to return to Westfield.

At Somerville all of the men except one stopped for something to eat and let the horses rest. The other man was anxious to get home and he continued his journey alone. When opposite Fred Dunn's farm, about two miles from Dunellen, one of the team fell down from exhaustion. The affair attracted the attention of the members of the Dunn household who came out and helped to get the horse on his feet. They found that the driver was fast asleep.

A number of passing cyclists stopped, and together with the Dunns unhitched the team and got the fallen horse on his feet. After waiting two hours the other three vans came along, and after a great deal of work the drivers managed to awaken the sleeping driver. They found that he was exhausted and almost frozen. They adopted massage treatment to arouse him. He was placed in the van and another driver was put in charge of the team, after which the men continued their journey homeward.

A WARM DARKEY NON EST

"CACK" CARTER LEAVES HIS TROUBLES IN PLAINFIELD.

The Colored Roustabout is Nowhere to Be Found, Though the Police Would Be Very Glad to Interview Him.

"Cack" Carter is no longer a frequent sight on the streets of Plainfield. He no longer "shoots crap" with the dusky sports on the corner The police want "Cack" and "Cack" is aware of the fact. Where he has gone no one knows.

The cause of all this trouble for Plainfield's "warmest" darkey occurred down at Mrs. Catherine Peterson's house at 525 West Third street, two weeks ago. Mrs. Peterson is an aged colored woman who has several daughters. They have frequent callers and the place has been made famous by several "pink teas." It has an unsavory reputation in police circles.

A week ago "Cack" Carter was arrested. After spending a day in the jail he was released on parole and has never shown his face since. Yesterday Patrolman Cash arrested William Marsh, a young colored man who has heretofore borne a good reputation. Cash said that he saw Marsh fighting at Peterson's on that eventful day.

When Marsh and the principal witness, Mrs. Peterson, told their stories, some new and exciting testimony came out. To quote Mrs. Peterson, "it was all 'Cack's' fault." "Cack" was happy that night and he suddenly evidenced a determination to show disregard for all superstitions by smashing Mrs. Peterson's looking glass. She called on Marsh to protect her property. He attempted to. Then "Cack," it is said, made a dash at little Willie Boroughs and threw him through the glass. "Cack" "drawed" a knife while Willie whipped out his razor.

At this exciting point, hostilities were avoided by the sudden action of the women. They seized upon "Cack" Carter and ejected him out the front door. Marsh was hustled out of the side door. New Patrolman Cash was coming down the street and saw the men leave in a hurry. Marsh had blood on his clothes, the officer declares. At any rate they hurried away and Marsh didn't fall into the hands of the police until yesterday.

The City Judge laid the matter over until Saturday morning when he promised to investigate the little affair with razor and the knife. He also expressed a hope that he might interview the alleged cause of all the trouble at the same time.

Court of Inquiry Report.

Through the courtesy of Congressman Fowler the Public Library has received the important report of the Naval Court of Inquiry upon the destruction of the battle ship Maine, together with the testimony taken before the court. This makes a pamphlet of 307 pages, and contains many illustrations of the wreck. The pamphlet may be seen upon application at the desk.

WATCHUNG WATER GUSHES AT LINCOLN.

The Occasion Made a Joyous One at Lincoln.

THE MAYOR HELD THE HOSE

THE WATER THROWN OVER THE FLAG POLE.

A Number of Prominent People Were Present to Witness the Turning on of the Water—Visitors Shown Through the Factories, and Afterward Taken to the Home of Charles Sebring Where They Saw the Pumping Station—Mr. Sebring, in the Capacity of a Host, Tendered Them a Banquet.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Lincoln, April 4.—This enterprising town is now in the possession of a complete and efficient water supply, and the heart of Mayor Drake has been made glad. The residents also join with the Mayor in feelings of pride. It required just 366 days to establish the water plant and when the water was turned on last Saturday afternoon there was rejoicing on all sides. The steam whistles at the various factories gave vent to their utmost capacity and joined in the celebration. There were many prominent people from the surrounding towns and cities present and all expressed admiration for the wonderful success of the exhibition.

It was just 4 o'clock when the water was turned on. The exhibition took place in front of Mayor Drake's office and His Honor, together with Chief T. O. Doane, of Plainfield, held the nozzle. The stream shot forth from the pent up pipes and ascended to a considerable heighth. A flag pole in front of the Mayor's office 55 feet high was cleared nicely by the stream. The force of the stream was a surprise to all. There was about a 50 pound pressure on and the difference in the elevation between Lincoln and where the water comes from makes the test a wonder. There are now fourteen hydrants at Lincoln and the town is well supplied with good water.

Manager Sebring, of the Watchung Water Company and his assistants were present and they were congratulated by everyone. Among the prominent people present were the following: W. W. Smalley, L. S. Cook, J. E. Hillpott, R. H. Brokaw, David Hastings, Sylvanius Ayers, Jr., J. G. Smith, Jr., O. P. Hazard and R. P. Bache, of Bound Brook; Councilman Neuman, Chief T. O. Doane, T. O. Doane, Jr., L. M. Dunavan, Thomas Doud, Surrogate Spencer, of Plainfield; J. C. Morris, New Market; J. Sebring, Greenbrook; Gideon W. Smalley, Joseph Maier, Fred Wilcox, W. Wyhuskey, Walter Runyon, of Dunellen; Manager Sebring, of the Watchung Water Company; Mayor Drake and A. G. Drake, of Lincoln; Daniel Whittaker, New Brunswick.

After the test the guests were shown about Lincoln and through the various factories, and about 5:30 all were taken to the home of Charles Sebring, of Greenbrook, where "mine host" served a tempting repast for his guests. Everyone drank to the health of genial "Charley" and voted him to be one of the most progressive citizens to be found.

While the banquet was in progress the guests were called on for speeches and some excellent remarks were made. Thomas Doud, of North Plainfield, who constructed the water plant, was also highly complimented for the excellent work he performed. Another test was made at Greenbrook with a pressure of 70 pounds, and the work was highly satisfactory.

Manager Sebring was justly proud of the display of his fire hat, belt and membership certificate, which he used when assistant foreman of Gazelle Engine Company of Plainfield.

The Park's Old-Fashioned Time

The old-fashioned good time that the Park Club are planning for will be held tomorrow night and not Thursday night as was stated by one of the local newspapers. It will combine a candy pull, corn-popping bee and a bean bag party. The affair will be one of the informal entertainments that are usually provided for members' night which comes Tuesday of every week. Dignity and conventionality are to be thrown aside for the occasion and everybody is going to have a genuine good time. The house committee is making careful preparations for the time.

Mrs. Emily Dobbins and daughter, Miss Jesse Dobbins, of Newark, have returned home after spending Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Dobbins, of Elmwood place.

GIBSON GONE FOR GOOD.

THE COLORED PARSON LOOKING FOR WORK IN ANOTHER STATE.

Unable to Secure a Living in Plainfield—Church Which He Organized Seems to be Thriving and Prosperous.

Rev. P. S. Gibson will preach no more in the Calvary Baptist church of Plainfield. The gathering of his friends, who rallied by his side when he was dismissed from his old charge and made him pastor of their church, are now busy trying to settle on his successor. Rev. P. H. Thomas seems the most likely candidate.

For the last four weeks Rev. Mr. Thomas has been occupying the pulpit at the Calvary Colored Baptist church. Meanwhile little has been heard from Pastor Gibson. His family are still living here on a small pittance, the gift of the leading members of the church. Yesterday Mrs. Gibson informed one of the leading members of that church that her husband would not return here to preach. He is now in Pennsylvania looking for work that is more profitable than preaching. He hopes, she said, to find some profitable position and be able to settle up his debts in Plainfield.

Meanwhile, the Calvary church seems to be thriving. The Sunday school was first put on a regular footing yesterday afternoon. There were five teachers, among whom was the prospective pastor. The thirty-five regular scholars were divided among them. Then there were a score of visitors who are considering the advisability of joining the school. Mr. Hayward, a well-known local colored man, is the superintendent.

Rev. Mr. Thomas seems to meet with general satisfaction. He has been secured for trial for three more Sundays. Tonight a business meeting of the church will be held and the question of a permanent change in pastors will be discussed and settled. It will then be decided whether a call shall be regularly extended to Rev. Mr. Thomas.

At the Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

A very large and enthusiastic audience gathered at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon at 4:15 and listened with profit and pleasure to the musical selections rendered by the National Staff Band of the Salvation Army from New York. There were nineteen pieces in the band and the music was of a superior rendition. The speaker for the afternoon was William Carey, a converted engineer employed on the Central Railroad. His remarks were practical and were much enjoyed by all.

A Bicycle Sociable.

A bicycle social will be held next Thursday evening at the home of Dr. W. Kempton Browning, 224 East Fifth street, under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Baptist church. All members of the society and young people of the church and congregation not members are cordially invited to attend.

HORSEMEN UNITE TO HAVE RACING MEETS.

The Meeting Held in This City Last Saturday.

4 COUNTIES INTERESTED.

TWO DAYS OF GOOD RACING PROPOSED IN JUNE AND SEPTEMBER.

The Meeting Held in the Board of Trade Rooms, and Presided Over by Judge W. A. Codington, Who Explained the Purposes—National Association Rules Will Govern the Contests—No Gambling or Betting of Any Kind Will Be Allowed on the Grounds—Competitions for Horses Owned Only in Four Counties.

A movement, looking toward the advancement of the fair speeding of fast horses in this section of New Jersey, has been formulated among the horsemen of the counties of Union, Middlesex, Somerset and Hunterdon. Saturday afternoon an informal meeting was held in this city for the purpose of taking the initiatory steps toward the organization of the leading horse owners of the four counties. The representative men who gathered from the counties in question were unanimous in their support of the proposed organization. The meeting was held at the Board of Trade rooms in the Babcock building. Some forty of the representative horsemen of the four counties were gathered at the meeting.

The meeting was called to order by H. E. Rider, of this city. Former Judge W. A. Coddington, of Plainfield, was made chairman and Robert A. Fairburn, of Westfield, secretary. The chairman stated the object of the meeting to be to unite the horsemen of the four counties under some proper name as an association and arrange a series of race meets for the coming season. It was thought that there should be a two days' racemeet in each county during the month of June and another in the fall in September or October. It was planned to unite with the Breeders' Association and hold the meets under the management of both. At the meets the National Association rules were to govern. The race meets were to be for the encouragement of the raising of pacers and trotters and to keep up an interest in them.

At the conclusion of the chairman's remarks, most of those present expressed themselves as being in favor of the proposed association.

A resolution was passed that the chairman should appoint a committee from each county to ascertain how many in their county would pledge themselves to help and support such an organization. After deciding to hold another meeting at New Brunswick Thursday evening, when the committees will report, the meeting adjourned

As planned by the leaders in the movement, the meets will be free from all troublesome elements. No gambling or betting of any kind will be allowed on the grounds. The prizes which will be awarded to the winners in the events will be put up the association. Prizes will be put up for each class on the same principle as competitive prizes are awarded to the members of college classes. The competitive races will be between horses owned only in the four counties, but special events will be arranged to furnish great entertainment and interest.

The committee of Plainfield horsemen has not lost any time since the meeting, and already $1,500 has been pledged to guarantee the support of the Plainfielders interested.

At present Mr. Williams is out of town. The last heard from him was that he was in Omaha. Mr. Williams is represented by Lawyer Swackhamer, while the plaintiff is represented by Lawyer Winfield Angleman.

Death of Mrs. Albertson.

The funeral services will be held from the Union church, Hope, Warren county, Wednesday, April 6th, at 1 p. m.

M'KINLEY IS FOR PEACE

His Message Will Urge Congress to Be Patient.

WILL PLEAD AGAINST WAR

Dr. Klopsch Has Told Him That Senator Proctor Was Wrong in Describing the Military and Political Situation in Cuba, That Autonomy Is a Success, and That War Would Only Increase the Sufferings of the Reconcentrados—The President Sees No Cause for War, Not Even in the Destruction of the Maine, and Will Ask for an Appropriation to Feed the People Spain Has Starved.

Washington, April 4.—President McKinley will not be able to complete his message in time to send it to Congress to-day and it is now evident that Congress will not receive it before to-morrow and perhaps not until Wednesday.

The situation has not changed since Minister Woodford's message containing Spain's reply to the representations of this Government was made public after the Cabinet meeting Saturday. That is, it has not changed to the extent of necessitating further correspondence between Washington and Madrid. No ultimatum has been sent, and no communication has been had with Minister Woodford since his important message of Thursday night.

Sentiment has crystalized in Congress, however, and is now more than ever favorable to the prompt passage of a measure which will amount virtually to a declaration of war. This sentiment is based very largely upon the feeling that Spain has added insult to injury in not offering regret, apology or reparation for the blowing up of the Maine, and in the general indignation at this characteristic conduct of the Spanish Government the real point of the long-disputed controversy has been temporarily lost sight of.

But to the mind of President McKinley, it is still clear that the incident of the destruction of the Maine should be dealt with as a separate matter, in no wise connected with or dependent upon the diplomatic contention of the United States for the freedom of the Cuban people. Moreover, President McKinley is to-day more than ever convinced that the only possible justification for the intervention of the United States in Cuban affairs at the present time is the paramount necessity of relieving the wants of the starving Cubans, 200,000 of whom are now being fed and clothed and sustained upon public and private charity.

The President, in fact, has practically decided to make his message one of peace. He still thinks that there is at least one chance of avoiding war, and he will endeavor, in the communicatiin that he will send to Congress, to draw such a picture of the condition of affairs in Cuba, political and material, and to set forth such a state of facts connected with the diplomatic negotiations between Spain and the United States, as to convince Congress that he is right.

At present it appears to be a hopeless task that the President has undertaken, but some of those who have talked with him, including even men who are inclined to think that war is inevitable, are prepared to believe that the President will be able to make such a strong argument for peace, that his message will receive the approval of Congress, at least to the extent of giving him more time to test the merits of his recommendations.

Upon the statements made to him by Dr. Louis Klopsch, editor of the Christian Herald, who has just returned from Cuba, where he went to superintend the distribution of relief supplies to the starving reconcentrados, the President will draw heavily for the facts to sustain his argument in behalf of a policy of peace. Dr. Klopsch surprised the President and his Cabinet somewhat by representing the military situation in Cuba to be just the opposite of what it was described to be by Senator Proctor, in the speech with which he startled the Senate and the country a few weeks ago. That speech of Senator Proctor's did more than anything else to crystalize the sentiment of the people in the United States, and to force a demand for the immediate settlement of the controversy with Spain.

The President is now told that the present plan of autonomy is a success, that the condition of the Cuban people would not be improved, but made more insufferable by a declaration of independence, and that all the intervention that is needed is in the way of furnishing them with food and clothes and medicine to keep them from starvation and death.

The President is as firmly convinced now as ever that the only ground upon which the United States can properly interfere in Cuba is the broad one of humanity. The 200,000 starving people must be fed, but he will in his message ask Congress the question who will feed them if war shall be declared. They are being sustained now by public and private charity and the United States can continue to feed them, but the President will represent to Congress that if war occurs these people must surely die, and as their condition was the basis of the movement looking to immediate intervention a resort to war would defeat its own purpose.

The above is a brief outline of that portion of the President's message as he has it in mind at present in which he will plead for peace. It is possible, but not probable, that he will yet be dissuaded from writing it. He has been told that Congress is in no mood to listen to a plan for an avoidance of war, and that both Houses are determined to settle with Spain now not only the question of Cuban independence, but the question of retaliation for the loss of the Maine. The President knows that the desire for action is so strong in Congress that a plea for peace, if unaccompanied by a recommendation for legislation in case there should be a real justification for war, would be denounced and successfully assailed by both Houses. He is prepared to meet that sentiment by making recommendations for prompt and vigorous action in case a proper casus belli should be presented.

The President does not think this is found in the report of the Naval Court of Inquiry, because he will tell Congress that he has other plans for making Spain reply in fitting maner to that report. Many plans of procedure have been urged upon the President by those who are as anxious as he to to avoid war.

The President has long been urged to recognize the sailing of the Spanish torpedo flotilla fleet westward as an act of war on the part of Spain, and he has given some thought to the wisdom of saying to Congress that should that fleet cast anchor at Porto Rico, or should another like actual demonstration of hostility come from any Spanish quarter, he should meet it with a prompt declaration, but it is known that he will accompany his plea for peace with the assurance to Congress that the Administration is prepared to act promptly at the first moment when a proper cause for war is found, and in this way he hopes to be able to restrain Congress.

The effect upon Congress of such a message as the President has outlined in his mind is problematical. At first blush it would seem that he would, by making a plea for peace, absolutely lose all control of the Senate and House and divide Congress into two factions, the larger of which would be in favor of a prompt declaration of war against Spain. The action of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Senate in deciding informally to report one of the several warlike resolutions pending before it as soon as the President's message is received indicates the general sentiment of the Senate. The like committee in the House has taken no action as yet, but it is very evident that a majority of its members find sufficient cause for war in the report of the Naval Court of Inquiry, and that they are waiting very patiently for the Presidents' message, in order that they may enact war legislation immediately without being discourteous to the President of the United States.

There is apparently a concerted movement on foot throughout the country, whether voluntary or otherwise, to convince the President that there is yet a desire for peace, notwithstanding the prospect of war. His mail is burdened with appeals for peace from business organizations, and telegrams to the same effect were showered upon his office table from morning until night. Those who agree with the President that peace should be maintained at almost any cost have urged their constituents in every State to let the President hear from them, and the result is plainly manifest.

Congressmen, as a rule, tell him that the time for talking peace has gone by. They do not agree with him that a sufficent cause for war has not yet been found, but they have not yet told him that they will desert his leadership should he continue to recommend peace. They may do this, however, when his message is read to them.

HIGH HOPES FOR PEACE.

Minister Woodford Says His Labors to Avoid War Will Go On "Until the Guns Actually Open Fire."

Madrid, April 4.—General Stewart L. Woodford, the United States Minister, last night made the following statement:

"The obligations of my diplomatic position absolutely forbid my granting an interview or giving the slightest intimation as to the present condition of the diplomatic negotations intrusted to my care. I came to Spain under instructions from President McKinley to secure peace in Cuba, with a permanent peace between the United States and Spain—a peace that should be built upon bedrock conditions; conditions of justice to Cuba, with assured protection to the great American interests in that island.

"I have labored steadily to obtain this result. I have never lost my faith; and, doubtful as conditions may seem to-day, I still believe these great and good purposes of my President may yet be secured. I shall not desist from my labors for a just and honorable peace until the guns actualy open fire, and my faith is still strong that war, with all its horrors, can be averted.

"Enough blood has been shed in Cuba already; and I cannot believe that the closing hours of the nineteenth century wil be reddened by a conflict between Spain and the United States. My country asks for peace based upon conditions that shall make peace permanent and beneficent; and I have faith that Spain will yet do what is necessary to assure justice for Cuba. And with justice peace is certain."

AWAITING THE FIRST MOVE.

Sherman Says the Two Governments Are Facing Each Other in an Attitude of Expectancy.

Washington, April 4.—Secretary of State John Sherman dictated the following to a correspondent last night:

"The situation to-night is one of expectancy. Negotiations between the United States and Spain having been suspended for the time being, the two governments stand facing each other, and each is waiting for the other to make the first advance.

"As Secretary of State, it would not be politic or becoming for me to outline at this time what the next move will be on the part of this Government, nor to forestall executive action.

"President McKinley has a thorough grasp of the situation. Possessing it he may be safely trusted by the country to lad it in the right direction and to act when the supreme hour comes for action with discretion and wisdom.

"In this crisis patience is more than ever a cardinal virtue. Nothing of vital importance will be lost by withholding action until the President is ready to present his views to Congress. His patriotism and love of justice no man can dispute, and his courage has been tested on more than a score of bloody battle fields."

Yousouf Will Tour the Big Cities.

New York, April 4.—Yousouf, "the Terrible Turk," has gone to Philadelphia and will wrestle John McCormick, the former amateur wrestler of America, before the Arena Athltic Club there to-night. He expects to throw his man in short order, and, after disposing of McCormick, will meet any and all comers. If possible, he will dispose of the entire Quaker City in one evening. From Philadelphia Yousouf will go to Baltimore, where he will meet all comers to-morrow night.

NEW MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

A Positive Cure for Dyspepsia.

This may read as though we were putting it a little strong because it is generally thought by the majority of people that Dyspepsia in its chronic form is incurable or practically so. But we have long since shown that Dyspepsia is curable, nor is it such a difficult matter as it first appears.

The trouble with Dyspeptics is that they are continually dieting, starving themselves, or going to opposite extremes or else deluging the already over burdened stomach with "bitters," "after dinner pills," etc., which invariably increase the difficulty even if in some cases they do give a slight temporary relief. Such treatment of the stomach simply make matters worse. What the stomach wants is a rest. Now how can the stomach become rested, recuperated and at the same time the body nourished and sustained.

This is the great secret and this is also the secret of the uniform success of Stuart's dyspepsia tablets. This is a comparatively new remedy, but its success and popularity leaves no doubt as to its merits.

The tablets will digest the food anyway, regardless of condition of stomach.

The sufferer from dyspepsia according to directions, is to eat an abundance of good, wholesome food and use the tablets before and after each meal, and the result will be that the food will be digested no matter how bad your dyspepsia may be, because as before stated, the tablets will digest the food, even if the stomach is wholly inactive. To illustrate our meaning plainly, if you take 1,800 grains of meat, eggs or ordinary food and place it in a temperature of 98 degrees, and put with it one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, it will digest the meat or eggs almost as perfectly as if the meat was enclosed within the stomach.

The stomach may be ever so weak, yet these tablets will perform the work of digestion and the body and the brain will be properly nourished and at the same time a radical, lasting cure of dyspepsia will be made because the much abused stomach will be given, to some extent, a much needed rest. Your druggist will tell you that of the many remedies advertised to cure dyspepsia, none of them has given so complete and general satisfaction as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and not least in importance in these hard times is the fact that they are also the cheapest and give the most good for the least money.

you naturally want to get the very best possible for the money you are going to pay. That is what we propose to give you. There is no Piano concern in America that sells Pianos as cheaply as we do. An ordinary Piano man will say "I must make a big profit for I only sell a Piano occasionally." We have always said "We make the profit small and thereby stimulate business." It has paid us to do so, for it stands to reason that quarter the profit when you sell ten is better than the whole profit when you only sell one.
Pay us TEN DOLLARS and you can have a Piano at once.

THE SPANISH FLOTILLA.

Will Be Reinforced by Cruisers and Join Torpedo Boats at Porto Rico.

Madrid, April 4.—The Spanish Cabinet decided that the torpedo flotilla is to remain at the Cepe Verde Islands until further orders. The flotilla will be joined later by a squadron composed of the armored cruiser Carlos V., of 9,235 tons; the cruiser Alfonso XIII., of 5,000 tons; the armored cruiser Infanta Maria Tresa, of 7,000 tons, and the armored cruiser Cristobal Colon, of 6,480 tons, which will accompany the torpedo flotilla to Cuba.

It has also been decided by the Government to send the armored cruisers Viscaya and Almirante Oquendo, both of 7,000 tons, back to Havana. They will receive orders to this effect as soon as they sight Porto Rico.

A national subscription to strengthen the Spanish fleet will be organized by a royal decree, but the decree will not be published before a declaration of war.

Looks Upon War as a Certainty.

Madrid, April 4.—The Cabinet, which met at eight o'clock Saturday night, discussed the situation until midnight. At the close of the conference it was declared that no official news had been received at that time from Washington. But it was admitted that the Ministers were filled with gloomy impressions.

One Cabinet Minister declared that he had received private information confirming the extreme gravity of the situation.

The Minister of War, Lieutenant General Correa, submitted for the approval of the Cabinet elaborate plans for the organization of the military forces of the kingdom.

The Minister for the Home Department, Don Ruiz y Capdepon, in an interview, declared that everything pointed to war.

The Cabinet has examined propositions for the arming of merchant vessels as privateers, but it has been decided to await events before coming to any decision on this subject.

Finally, a telegram from the Spanish Minister at Washington, Senor Polo y Barnabe, was read at the Cabinet meeting, in which Senor Bernabe said President McKinley will be overruled by Congress.

Officials here now frankly admit that the situation is delicate in the extreme. They consider war as being imminent, and it is popularly believed President McKinley will address an ultimatum to Spain next week.

All parties are offering aid to the Government. Even the Carlist chiefs are presenting themselves to Premier Sagasta, proffering their services in the emergency.

The newspapers are denouncing the Bishop of Barcelona on account of the letter which he wrote proposing the abondonment of Cuba, provided Spain's commercial and religious interests are guaranteed. Other bishops are calling on the Government to resist the United States, and are offering money to aid the military and naval preparations.

Fitting Out Another Torpedo Flotilla.

Madrid, April 4.—A flotilla of torpedo boats and torpedo-boat destroyers is being prepared for active service at Cadiz.

PREPARING TO SEIZE HAWAII.

Japan Will Take Advantage of a War With Spain to Acquire the Island.

Washington, April 4.—Even at this critical juncture, when all our energies toward girding up our loins for the expected bout with Spain, the irrepressible advocates of the annexation of Hawaii are endeavoring to play a telling card in favor of the immediate absorption of the Island Kingdom.

The ambition of Japan is the shibboleth. Reports of a secret treaty between Japan and Russia are exploited to scare Congress into the belief that in the event of war between Spain and the United States the Hawaiian islands would be seized by Japan. Upon this ground certain advocates of annexation declare that the only proper course for the United States to pursue is to annex the islands as soon as possible and hoist the Stars and Stripes at Honolulu which would effectually stop Japan.

A friend of an attache of the Japanese Legation says that the attache stated to him confidentially that a Russo-Japanese treaty really exists and the seizure of Hawaii by Japan is contemplated.

A prominent naval official, speaking about the alleged secret treaty between Japan and Russia, stated that he had grave doubts of such a treaty being in existence. He said that if there was such a treaty it had been negotiated very recently, and that this Government had no knowledge of such an alliance.

Enormous Contracts for Meats.

Chicago, April 4.—Libby, McNeil & Libby have received an order from the United States Government for 750,000 pounds of provisions, including mess pork and canned meats, to be shipped at once to the Navy Yard at Brooklyn. The Schwarzchild & Sulzberger Company of Kansas City have also received a government order for 780,000 pounds of provisions for immediate shipment to the Brooklyn Navy Yard. To fill this order the plant of the company has been put at work both night and day. Other huge orders have been prepared by the Government and will be placed under contract within the next forty-eight hours. All railroads are now giving preferences in movement and time to government supplies over all other traffic except mails.

Arranging for War Taxes.

Washington, April 4.—The Treasury Department has a force of clerks hard at work preparing statistical matter in connection with the war tariffs of the early 60's and the years subsequent to the close of the Civil War. The matter in preparation will be used in a letter to be transmitted to Congress by Secretary Gage to-morrow, provided war becomes inevitable. The letter will recommend the radical amendment of the tariff law to impose taxes on tea, beer and other articles of domestic production on a basis similar to that which existed during the period of the late war.

WAITING FIRST SHOT

All Government Departments Preparing for Impending Conflict.

FEW MORE DAYS OF PEACE

Plans All Made to Rush Troops to Cuba, and Soldiers on Their Arms Are Waiting Only for Telegraphic Orders From Washington to Strike from the Gulf Coast—Diplomatic Bonds Are Ready to Sever, and Minister Woodford Notified to Be Prepared to Leave Madrid.

Washington, April 4.—Talk of peace has practically ceased in Washington, and every move made by the President, his Cabinet, army and navy officials and members of Congress shows that they believe war not only to be inevitable, but that the firing of the first shot is a matter of only a few days.

Every department that will figure in the conflict is being brought to a point of high efficiency, and everything necessary to protect United States citizens in Spanish dominions is being done.

Diplomatic negotiations between Spain and the United States have ceased. All our Consuls in Spain and Cuba have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness to come home at a moments notice. All United States consular offices in Cuba, except that of the Consul General, have been ordered closed by the State Department, and those in charge of them have been directed to go to Havana at once, so that their departure may be made speedily and easily when hostilities bezin.

Woodford Ready to Leave Madrid.

General Stewart L. Woodford, Minister to Spain, has been notified to be ready for a hurry call to return, and advices have been sent to American citizens in Spanish territory to put themselves in positions where they can be protected by representatives of other nations, preferably those of Great Britain.

From Rome comes the information that Pope Leo has determined to make an effort for peace and that he has sent to Archbishop Ireland, through Archbishop Keane, an expression of his earnest desire that Monsignor Ireland use his influence on President McKinley in favor of a pacific settlement of our difficulty with Spain.

Army Resting on Its Arms.

General Miles asked Saturday that he be allowed to put the troops in motion at once, but Secretary Alger, still clinging to the President in his hope for peace, begged for twenty-four hours more. General Miles determined to be ready for rapid work, and troops in the interior department of the East, on the lakes, in Dakota, Missouri, Colorado and the neighborhood of the Gulf are waiting orders with all their effects packed up.

One hundred thousand men can be landed on the Gulf coast within twenty-four hours, General Miles declares, and thousands of others could follow within ten hours.

Secretary Alger has alloted another million dollars for coast defenses, and much of that sum will be spent for mines, New York city receiving particular attention from experts who have hurried there from Schenectady to work with the army officials in placing mines in the harbor.

Commodore Schley's flying squadron is kept at anchor in the James River, but steam is up, and the ships can be off at short notice. The cruiser Columbia has been added to the strength of the fleet, and other vessels will soon reinforce it.

Spain Was Not Strategic.

Naval officials who were angry because they believed that Spain had stolen a march by getting her torpedo flotilla to Porto Rico breathed more freely when they learned that those war ships had advanced only as far as the Cape Verde Islands.

Now they consider the flotilla easy prey for Commodore Schley's flying squadron in case of war. Spain's overcaution, they say, has lost to her a valuable position for offensive and defensive operations against the United States. The flotilla is now 2,000 miles from Porto Rico, and it cannot reach the harbor of San Juan in less than ten days, before which time the flying squadron could destroy it. Once in the harbor of San Juan, Spain would have a splendid strategic point for her torpedo boats, for they could dodge in and out among the islands and get to Havana with ease.

Spain's royal family, according to advices from Berlin, fears for itself, as well as for its country in case of war with the United States. The German Ambassador at Madrid reports to his Government that the Carlists are taking advantage of the situation to become active, and that everything is prepared in the royal castle for flight. King Alfonso will be taken to a port where a yacht is in readiness. The Queen Regent asked the intervention of the European powers, but the replies were unsatisfactory.

Secretary Gage and Chairman Dingley, of the House Committee on Ways and Means, are planning for the filling of the national war chest and are considering how money could be raised in the internal revenue department. Congress probably will be asked to put a tax of four cents a pound on coffee, which would yield about $29,000,000 a year, and a tax of ten cents a pound on tea, which would bring $11,000,000. Another request that will be made will be that beer be taxed from $1 to $2 a barrel, which would make a revenue of $36,000,000 a year.

Another Cruiser Purchased.

London, April 4.—Lieutenant Commander Colwell, the United States naval attaches here, has purchased from the Thames Iron Works for his government a cruiser of 1,800 tons displacement and capable of making 16 knots. The vessel carried six 4.7-inch guns and ten smaller ones. She is fitted with twin screws and has a protected deck. The vessel will go to sea within three days. Lieutenant Commander Colwell says the price paid was very reasonable.

MUD AND STREETS.

A casual item gathered by an alert reporter of The Daily Press and printed without special significance other than as a mere incident of the day's news, has been turned into an effective and opportune argument for good streets by an observing citizen. The comment and item follow:

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—The article below clipped from your issue of yesterday speaks volumes for the excellence of our main thoroughfare:

"A load of hay owned by Mr. Beekman, of Greenbrook, got stuck in the mud on West Front street yesterday afternoon while Mr. Beekman was trying to turn around. The trolley cars, as a result, were only able to run as far as DeKalb avenue until almost dark."

A FLYING SQUADRON.

The naval vessels that constitute a flying squadron are among the most valuable a country can have in time of actual war. Such a squadron is composed of a number of swift cruisers and vessels that can be used as such.

Among the naval preparations now engaging the attention of our government is the formation of a flying squadron. The object of it would be to cross the ocean, fly about from place to place and harass the enemy's ports, preventing the shipping of military supplies and merchandise from such ports. The vessels of such a fleet are not expected to do heavy sea fighting with warships. Their work is rather with merchant vessels and transports. They take the place in a measure of the old time privateer that once did such damage to commerce in the West Indies and elsewhere.

Our regular naval vessels that would be used in the fleet of a flying squadron are the armored cruiser Brooklyn and the sister triple screw cruisers Minneapolis and Columbia. The armored cruiser Brooklyn is the largest of the three and would be the flagship of the fleet. One of the still smaller cruisers might be added. These would be the base of the fleet. In addition there would be put with them one or both of the great American passenger liners St. Paul and St. Louis. In case of need the New York and the Paris could be pressed into this service too. When a government subsidizes a steamship line, as our government indirectly did the American line, the understanding is that it shall have the services of the steamers if it needs them.

AS TO PROTOPLASM.

The word protoplasm means first material. The name is given to what is believed to be the original formative material of the animal body. All cells are formed of protoplasm. It is the substance in which the principle of life works. When animal life first manifested itself on this globe, it did so in the form of a single, simple cell made of protoplasm. Professor Tyndall has left this on record as his opinion.

Protoplasm being living matter or the original life substance, if you have plenty of it in your body and it is of good quality, then you will have vigorous health. Waste of muscle or of brain occasioned by hard work can be quickly repaired.

Coarse people have loose, coarse protoplasm; fine people have a fine quality of it.

In a paper in The Journal of Hygiene Dr. M. L. Holbrook says that children and young people have plenty of this matter, but that the old and the sickly have comparatively little. If old people could keep up their protoplasm, they would be apt to "live on and on." Dr. Holbrook observes that Nansen, the explorer, has a very large amount of living matter in his body. "He has a deep chest, a broad back, powerful muscular system, little fat, a well integrated brain."

How is your protoplasm?

It is odd and not what we might have expected at first thought, the undoubted sympathy of France with Spain instead ex with us. In the present crisis France, the only large republic except ourselves in the world, is all on the side of Spain, the rottenest and cruelest old monarchy of Europe, and against her sister republic. The reason is the inherent vanity and jealousy of the French character. France sees in us a nation whose power, wealth and commercial supremacy exceed her own and sees us likewise growing greater every year, and she cannot endure it without irritation. However, her pro-Spanish sympathies do not go to the extent of lending money to Spain. The French are too canny for that. Sympathy in words does not cost anything, therefore the French pour it out upon Spain.

THE MONTGOMERY AND COMMANDER CONVERSE.

Princess Kaiulani's guardian says he will cease fighting for the monarchy and accept a republic if the Hawaiians will agree to give up annexation to the United States. This artful dodge means only that he would turn over the islands to some European power. European nations are only restrained now from grabbing Hawaii by fear of the United States.

Spain had no right to object to the conveying of supplies in warships from the United States to her starving subjects in Cuba. The warships belong to the United States, to be sent by this government on any sort of errand. If we sent the supplies in merchant vessels, steamers would have to be hired for the purpose and would cost a large sum.

Better than erecting monuments just now to the memory of the Maine's dead will be the offering of the money these would cost to the United States government for defenses or even to the Cuban junta in New York to help free Cuba. If Havana had been a city of the republic of Cuba, the Maine would never have been blown up there.

"My duty is to guard American interests," says General Lee. That he has done and continues to do under most trying circumstances, and this is why Spain does not like him. Spain's dislike and distrust are the highest compliment that could be paid to General Lee.

Do your own thinking and be bossed intellectually by nobody.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

The salary of the Governor of New Jersey remains at $10,000. The attempt to reduce it was picayune business. New Jersey can afford to pay its Chief Executive just a little more than the County Clerk of Essex county will receive under the new salary bill.—Orange Journal.

A wealthy citizen of Plainfield, William Pittis by name, is being sued to the tune of $10,000 by Christian Hansen. Hansen alleges that while scorching on a bicycle Pittis ran down his little son, breaking the lad's leg. The outcome of this suit is awaited with great interest. Scorching is warm work, put paying for it is simply torrid.—New Brunswick Home News.

Health officers of North Plainfield believe in the theory that a preventive is better than a cure, and in making a house-to-house inspection for the correction of health law abuses, are setting an example which other officials would do well to emulate before the advent of warm weather. Plainfield and its environments are rated as healthy, and it would seem as if the local officers had determined to keep them so.—New York Press.

The life of a newspaper reporter is a hard one. In making his daily rounds he meets with all sorts of people, and generally has to take considerable abuse without retaliating. He becomes hardened to this life, and very seldom does he show his disregard for those who dislike him. Occasionally, when an opportunity presents itself he will "roast" some one of this class of people. There are many people who appreciate the newspaper man, and who always greet him with a smile and a friendly salutation. These people have a way of showing their appreciation of anything done for them by the newspaper.—Hudson (N. Y.) Register.

Judge McCormick retired from the bench Tuesday after nearly twenty years service as Law Judge of Union county. It would be well nigh impossible for any man occupying a position so prominent, so full of responsibilities and requiring the exercises of discretionary power in an almost limitless range of cases to fulfill the expectations of every citizen; but in his nearly twenty years as Presiding Judge of the County Court Judge McCormick has acquitted himself, in the great majority of cases, to his own credit and to the satisfaction of the citizens. Judge McCormick retires from the bench with the good wishes of the public, whose interests he has guarded, and with a record which, taken as a whole, is a worthy part of the judicial history of this county.—Elizabeth Journal.

PASSING COMMENT.

What might have resulted in a broken neck or a serious accident of some sort was luckily averted yesterday afternoon on Watchung avenue, and should act as an object lesson to hack drivers to be sure to have the doors of their carriages closed—especially when the occupants are children. A hack was driving along that thoroughfare yesterday afternoon at a rapid pace with the door swinging ajar. Inside a little boy was standing by the side of the seat. A sudden jar of the vehicle as it passed over a crosswalk unbalanced the youngster and he pitched headforemost out of the door into the roadway. An eye-witness expected to see his life crushed out beneath the carriage wheels, but his body cleared them and fell prostrate in the dirt. The little fellow jumped up uninjured and screamed with all his might for the driver to stop. The latter halted and the hero of the accident jumped in and went on his way.

ARBITRATE ON MAINE.

Sagasta Tells Spain's Answer to the Two Contentions of the United States.

London, April 4.—The Madrid correspondent of the Standard telegraphing late last night says:

"I have been able to obtain an interview with Senor Sagasta, the Premier, and to elicit from him a brief statement with reference to the present critical situation. In the course of the conversation Senor Sagasta said:

"'In our recent negotiations with the United States we have used friendly and conciliatory language in explaining our views. Respecting the matters in dispute with regard to the Maine disaster, we said we considered the question to be one for diplomatic negotiations, and that, if we and the United States found it impossible to come to an understanding on the conflicting opinions of the American and Spanish commissions as to the cause of the disaster, the matter then ought to be submitted to technical experts and to the arbitration of a naval or other power, who might be selected by mutual agreement between the two governments.

"'On the second point we are able to inform United States Minister Woodford that Governor General Blanco had issued a proclamation authorizing the return of the reconcentrados to their homes, and that the Spanish Government had sent $600,000 to the relief of the distressed Cubans and would devote to the same object all the proceeds of relief in kind any money amounting to $1,000,000, which had been sent by Spanish residents in Mexico.

"'These measures are supplemented by the assistance already given by the Cuban Autonomist Government. We have never objected to relief being sent also by the United States, on condition that it did not have an official character or bear the appearance of intervention.'"

"'We did not object in principle to an armistice for the Cuban insurgents. We are, however, of the opinion that it does not behoove Spain to take the initiative, and that a suspension of hostilities ought to be asked for by the insurgents. We suggested that the United States Government might, if so inclined, exercise its influence with the insurgents to induce them to apply for an armistice, with a view to further the ends of peace, on the understanding, however, that the armistice would be destined to lead to the submission of the insurgents to the new autonomous regime.'

"Senor Sagasta assured me that the question of the independence of Cuba, or the sale of that colony, or of any invasion of Spanish rights was not mooted in the recent negotiations.

"Senor Sagasta considers that since he took office in October last he has done everything possible to satisfy the Cubans and to preserve good relations with the United States, and that consequently no responsibility for the present crisis, should it lead to a rupture, will rest with Spain. He, however, does not believe that the last Spanish memorandum closes the door to further negotiations. Those who had conducted them, he said, had on both sides shown a disposition to promote cordial relations; and he only apprehended trouble from the pressure of the jingoes on the Executive in Washington."

Luck.

To pick up a horseshoe is said to be lucky, more especially if the front is towards you.

To find a stone with a hole through it is also considered good luck.

Black cats are said to bring luck to the house they stray into.

A mole on the side of the throat is good luck.

The tingling of the right ear is lucky, while the right eye itching is a lucky omen.

If the right hand itches it is said to mean money.

When the front teeth are set wide apart it is a sign of luck and that you will travel.

It is a very prevalent idea that those having much hair on their arms are "born to be rich."

If the right cheek burns some one is speaking well of you.

Long joints denote generosity.

To sit cross-legged is said to bring luck.

When the big toe is joined or partly joined to the next one, as it sometimes is, it is said to denote luck.

To turn your apron before the new moon is to ensure good luck for the ensuing month.

An emerald ring is said to ensure purity of thought.

The Romans used to say that if lightning shot from the East and returned to the same quarter, after making a circuit of the sky, it was a favorable sign.

Swallows bring good luck when they built in the corner of your house.

To wear your boots at the heel is good luck, as it indicates that you will save a great deal of money.

Dainty Pincushion.

This is a good shape for an emery cushion, which is useful to keep needles free from rust, if their owners have damp hands. A square of about five inches must be lined with strong and closely-made calico, into which the emery powder is tied. The corners must be cut off, and the top lined with silk of a contrasting color, and arranged to look like the petals of a flower. A little piece of silk worked with black silk to look like the interior of a poppy, finishes the cushion.

The Ideal Hostess.

She must make you feel individually that you are the favored guest.

She must make you feel perfectly at home.

She must see everything, and yet possess the art of seeming to see nothing.

She must never look bored.

She must know how to get congenial people together.

She must know how to keep conversation always going.

She must never let anyone be slighted or overlooked.

She must know when to ask the amateur musician to display his or her talents.

She must be perfectly unselfish about her own pleasures.

She must remember that nothing is so tiresome, so surely death to all enjoyment, as the feeling that one is being entertained.

Stockings.

Stockings should always be taken into consideration. It is a great temptation for evening use. During the day pocket your vanity, and submit to protecting the feet from the cold by wearing them to wear thin ones at all times, especially if they are embroidered, for they look so much nattier and prettier; but, my dear friends, keep these warm woolen stockings or thick ones of some description. In the evening the rooms are so much warmer than in the daytime that there is not the same likelihood of cold being taken then, and to wear thick stockings in the evening might make one feel uncomfortably warm. If unable to drive to evening entertainments, and necessity compels going on foot, something warm, such as gaiters should be worn, which will prevent any chilliness from the night air being felt.

New Spring Coats.

The new spring coats are very jaunty and varied enough in style to suit every figure. They are close fitting in the back with loose box fronts or open with revers turning back, which are of satin covered closely with braid in straight rows. There are strapped seams and plain seams and coats with belts, and the prettiest linings are of liberty satin.

Plaid Popular in All Materials.

Plaids now appear in ginghams and claim a share of the popularity given to the same designs shown in wool and silk goods. Some pretty patterns are seen also in organdies and lawns, and in delicate tints of the same color as well as in the real tartan.

"I see the critics, almost to a man, are praising Pensmith's latest book."

"Then they must regard him as being too weak to be in any danger of getting to the top by their help."—Cleveland Leader.

Of the 20,000 Washington Government clerks nearly one-third are women.

Daintiness.

Daintiness is that undefinable quality in a girl which causes her to appear more charming in her young, sweet freshness and tidiness than those around her; it is an attribute which is not inborn in any maiden, but the result of culture. She is certain to make a good impression where others ignominiously fail to do so, a fact which causes jealousy, and makes those who are not dainty look on with envious admiration and wish that they, too, possessed the subtle charm. Daintiness, however, though not inherited, is the outcome of habit. A girl is dainty and charming on important occasions, simply because she has been accustomed to give thought and time to being agreeable to others. Thus it comes natural to her, just as the rough ways and manners of the girl tomboy, which result from carelessness, seem part and parcel of herself.

The dainty maiden is dainty in appearance, also from habit. Her wealth of hair, always so glossy and carefully trained, owes its satiny appearance to the fact that she brushes it regularly and frequently, and not solely when she feels in a mood to do so or when she desires to look extra nice.

Her pretty, soft hands, with their shelly pink nails, are always in an immaculate condition, for it is her habit and pride to keep them spotlessly clean. Her person appears to shed around her a fragrant perfume, delicate, yet quite perceptible. This faint fragrance comes from her dainty way of putting her dresses away in drawers which contain sachets of sweetly smelling powder, the dainty fragrance from which seems to be a part of herself.

Sleep.

There is a decided tendency in these days—owing to the endeavour to get as much as possible into our lives—to do with less than a reasonable amount of sleep. There are unquestionably some temperaments which do not require as much sleep as others, but the average woman of between twenty and fifty needs, and should give up, eight hours out of the twenty-four to slumber. Too much sleep is not advisable, but it is better than too little. It is a bad plan to go to sleep again after being called in the morning at the usual hour; the snatches of sleep obtained in this way are not refreshing, and often result in headache. It is impossible to wake up feeling thoroughly refreshed and rested if the bedroom is not properly ventilated. We require fresh air, even more, if possible at night, than we do in the day, and yet how many of us are content to sleep in an atmosphere, which is actually poisonous, for if the air in our rooms is not kept fresh it soon becomes poisoned from the carbonic acid gas given out from our lungs. Bad air will certainly prevent our deriving the full benefit from a good night's rest, and if we usually wake with a headache or a sensation of lassitude after spending seven or eight hours in unbroken sleep, we may be quite sure that our room needs ventilating. Sleeping in vitiated air, besides seriously affecting the general health, is extremely bad for the skin.

The Sunday Dinner.

The Sunday breakfast is later by half an hour to an hour, and is from several ounces to a pound of food heartier; then the one or two o'clock elaborate dinner is substituted for the light midday luncheon of the rest of the week. Supper becomes a meal of highly seasoned salads—scallops and the like—with usually a preponderance of sweets in the way of cakes and preserved fruits that is also quite at variance with the food eaten the rest of the week at that hour. At bedtime there is often a desire for a little more nibbling, which is really a form of indigestion, brought about by the surfeit of the day. A three months' trial of duplicating the weekly meal service, both in kind and hour of partaking, on Sunday would convince the most sceptical of its hygienic value. Any presentation of this subject has to consider the prominent element of the domestic arrangement, but, it is perfectly possible, even in a one-servant establishment, to plan a Sunday menu with regard to the maid's rest on that day as well as to the convenience of the mistress.

How to Bone a Turkey.

Begin by cutting through the skin down the centre of the back, and raise the flesh very carefully on either side with a sharp knife until the sockets of the thighs and wings are reached; then with the point of the knife detach one joint at a point where the legs join the back; hold the end of the bone firmly, and proceed to loosen the flesh on it, still using the point of the knife, and keeping it close to the centre bone until the bones of the leg can be drawn out. Remove the bones from the other leg in the same way, and then turn your attention to the wings, which must be dealt with as were the legs. The merrythought and neck-bones should then be removed, and the back and side bones, without their being divided. After the flesh has been carefully separated from the breast-bone, the latter can be removed without much difficulty, and the bird must then be restored to its proper shape by filling the legs, wings and body with forcemeat, after which it should be sewn up and trussed in the usual way.

The Use of Honey.

Honey is simply invaluable for throat troubles, and where there is any bronchial trouble or the lungs have been exposed to a cold, damp atmosphere the free use of pure honey is the best medicine you can take.

It is also more wholesome and economical than butter, and children should partake of it freely.

Honey, too, is especially valuable for cooking purposes. Use it instead of sugar, for in rice puddings it is delicious.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Aus der Rheinpfalz.

Speyer. Die Frage, warum seit den letzten Wochen so abscheuliches Wetter herrscht, löst ein Juristenkalauer in der „Pfälzischen Presse." Der Grund ist, weil unser Herrgott keine Zeit mehr hat, sich um's Wetter zu bekümmern; denn nach dem Erlaß des bayerischen Justizministers muß sich Alles, vom höchsten Richter bis zum Amtsrichter, vor Allem dem Studium des Bürgerlichen Gesetzbuches widmen.

Germersheim. Eine unsinnige Wette machte dieser Tage ein hier in Garnison liegender Zahlmeisteraspirant. Er wettete nämlich in einem hiesigen Wirthshause mit seinen Kollegen, daß er innerhalb einer Viertelstunde einen Schoppen Schnaps trinke. „Gesagt, gethan." Aber die Folgen blieben nicht aus; denn der allseits beliebte junge Mann mußte in das Militärlazareth verbracht werden, wo er alsbald unter den schrecklichsten Schmerzen verschied.

Württemberg.

Stuttgart. Anläßlich eines Antrages, bei der kommenden Frühjahrsmesse alle Marktstände thunlichst auf den Marktplatz allein zu verlegen, wurde in der Gewerbeabtheilung der Beschluß gefaßt, beim Gemeinderath auf's Neue die Aufhebung dieser Messe überhaupt zu beantragen. Oberbürgermeister v. Rümelin befürwortete diesen Antrag, weil die Frühjahrsmesse von Jahr zu Jahr zurückgehe. Indeß in namentlicher Abstimmung sprach sich der Gemeinderath mit 15 gegen 9 Stimmen für die Beibehaltung der Messe aus.

Cannstatt. Dieser Tage gelang es hier einem Schutzmann, einen 13jährigen Knaben noch rechtzeitig aus dem Neckar zu ziehen. Der Bursche, der mehrere Tage die Schule geschwänzt hatte, war freiwillig in's Wasser gegangen. Furcht vor Strafe soll ihn dazu veranlaßt haben.

Ehingen. Der vermögliche, etwa 66jährige Bauer und Kirchenpfleger A. Bader von Nasgenstadt entleibte sich durch Erhängen. Er hatte in einem Streitfalle einen anonymen Brief geschrieben, und um den unangenehmen Folgen dieses Schrittes zu entgehen, scheint er die That vollbracht zu haben.

Heidenheim, Der verstorbene Cigarrenfabrikant Theodor Schäfer hat in seinem Testament Stiftungen im Betrage von 380,000 Mark für verschiedene gemeinnützige Zwecke gemacht; 50,000 Mark sollen zur Errichtung eines Volksbades, die Zinsen von 200,000 Mark zur Unterstützung braver Arbeiter dienen, die sich ein Heim gründen wollen.

Heilbronn. Das Druckereigeschäft der Firma „Schell'sche Buchdruckerei, Krämer u. Schell in Heilbronn," wurde in einer auf Veranlassung des Herrn Viktor Krämer zwischen den beiden Theilhabern abgehaltenen Versteigerung von Herrn Viktor Krämer um die Summe von 959,000 Mark erstanden. Zur Buchdruckerei gehört auch der Verlag der „Neckar-Zeitung."

Speckheim. In das Schlafzimmer des Gutsbesitzers Wirth wurde Nachts durch das Fenster ein Schrotschuß abgefeuert. Glücklicher Weise hatte sich die Frau des Wirth kurz zuvor zu Bette gelegt, sonst wäre dieselbe jedenfalls getroffen worden.

Tübingen. Neulich früh hat sich ein Fräulein aus der Nähe von Frankfurt a. M., die Nichte eines Professors, im Bette mit einem Revolver durch die Schläfe geschossen; sie war sofort todt. Die Selbstmörderin stand im Alter von 23 Jahren.

Baden.

Karlsruhe. Der Stadtrath hat eines seiner eifrigsten und arbeitsfreudigsten Mitglieder verloren in dem an den Folgen eines Schlaganfalles verschiedenen Privatmann Ludwig Waltz; der Verstorbene war früher Apothekenbesitzer in Heidelberg.

Heidelberg. In der Meinung, in einen Garten zu gelangen, sprang der Student Alfred Grabley aus Posen, der mit mehreren Kommilitonen nach der Kneipe einen nächtlichen Bummel auf den Schloßberg machte, etwa 15 Meter tief in den Tunnel der Bergbahn hinab und zog sich einen doppelten Beinbruch und eine schwere Gehirnerschütterung zu.

Konstanz. Ein bekannter Bierbrauer unweit von hier wurde von einem entlassenen Brauburschen wegen Brausteuer-Defraudation denunzirt. Die in Frage kommende Summe für Steuer und Strafe—es werden 120,000 Mark genannt—würde den Mann ruiniren. Der Brauer ist noch dazu Hoflieferant.

Mannheim. Kommerzienrath Heinrich Lanz machte zu seinem 60. Geburtstage eine Stiftung von 1,000,000 Mark zur Unterstützung bedürftiger Arbeiter seiner landwirthschaftlichen Maschinenfabrik.—Der hiesige Tenorist Abel wurde wegen Angriffs auf eine Rezensentin zu 300 Mark Geldstrafe verurtheilt.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

The long standing occupation of one of the White House clerks is gone. Back through several Administrations it has been the duty of one man to read the newspapers for the President. This man read and clipped and pasted. He filled scrap books with such articles on the Administration as he thought the President might want to see at some future time. But, besides this, he read with reference to what might be of immediate concern to the President. When he found anything he thought the President would like to see at once, he clipped it and pasted it on a sheet with the date and the name of the paper. These sheets were laid before the President as regularly as the mail requiring his attention. The reader for the President had a place on the White House staff as far back as Grant's time if not earlier. He went through all of the principal papers of the country. It was in this way that Mrs. Grant saw the beautiful tribute to her daughter at the time of the Sartoris wedding, written by the late John N. Edwards of Missouri, which she acknowledged gracefully as the expression which touched her most deeply. The reader for the President is a newspaper man, and believes he has a better way to accomplish the same purpose. Furthermore, the President has a select number of newspapers which he prefers to go through himself.

Mrs. Secretary Gage.

Mrs. Lyman J. Gage is fond of home life and simplicity. The erstwhile Gage house in Chicago was essentially an old-fashioned homestead. Not that it lost anything by not being modern and smart. Nothing yet has been discovered finer than a suite of apartments with southern exposure, wide verandas and broad lawn. Inside all was quiet in color and appointments, and most refreshing, even to the admirers of rococo.

MRS. GAGE.

Mrs. Gage's hospitality was generous, simple and dignified. Her surroundings in Washington show her taste to be the best, and she has already demonstrated her ability to keep the set pace in that city of large, lavish and continuous entertainments.

The Cabinet set is, of course, the centre of the social world of Washington, and among all the hostesses in the group there is none more popular than Mrs. Gage whose reputation as a hostess has followed her to the national capital.

Gun Foundries and Peace.

When Benjamin Harrison was President he was asked to address the ecumenical conference of the Methodist Church. Delegates were present from all parts of the world. What he said was peculiarly applicable to this immediate occasion, and is worth recalling in connection with the voting by Congress of $50,000,000 for national defense. President Harrison said:

"It is a curious incident that some days ago, and before I was aware of the theme or the occasion we have here this morning I had appointed this afternoon to visit the great gun foundry of the United States at the navy yard. These things have come in their regular sequence. I am here at this arbitration meeting before I go to the gun factory. This subject is one that has long attracted the attention and I think I may say has, perhaps, as greatly attracted the attention, interest and adherence of the United States as that of any other Christian power in the world. Let me say simply this: That for myself—temporarily in a place of influence in this country—and much more for he great body of its citizenship, I express the desire of America for peace with the whole world. It would have been vain to suggest the pulling down of block houses or family disarmament to the settlers on a hostile Indian frontier. They would have told you rightly that the conditions were not ripe. And so it may be, and probably is true, that a full application of the principle is not presently possible, the devil still being unchained. We will have our gun foundries, and possibly will best promote the settlement of international disputes by arbitration, by having it understood that if the appeal to a fiercer tribunal we shall not be out of the debate. It is for a Christian sentiment, manifesting itself in a nation, to remove forever such causes of dispute; and then what remains will be the easy subject of adjustment by fair international arbitration. But I had not intended to enter into a discussion of this great theme, for by the setting forth of which you have appointed those who have given it special attention."

SENATOR.

Had Done Her Share.

"What have you ever done for the betterment of mankind?" asked the scornful female person.

"Me?" answered the plump and widowly looking one. "I have been a better half to no less than three of 'em."—Indianapolis Journal.

PREPARING HIS MESSAGE.

President at Work on His Communication to Congress on the Cuban Question.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Washington, April 4.—The President today spent some time in preparing his message to send to Congress. He was interrupted by few callers during the morning. Senator Gray, the leading member of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations next to Senator Morgan and Representatives Cannon and Hull, met the President before 11 o'clock.

Senator Gray said after he had talked with the President that under the circumstances it was improbable that the Senate Foreign Relations Committee would report any of the pending resolutions to the Senate today.

A member of the Cabinet said this morning that a meeting of the Cabinet would be held today only in case the President should decide to send his message to Congress tomorrow.

TRADED HIS FATHER'S WHEEL.

Then Sold the Gun Which He Received and He is Now Under Arrest.

Harrison Randolph, a colored man of this city, is now involved in rather serious complications. Sometime ago he took his father's wheel and rode over to New Market. There, it is alleged, he swapped it off for a $20 shot gun with Thomas H. Cavalier, of New Market.

Then Randolph visited Bound Brook. At Bound Brook, it is claimed, Randolph drunk heavily until he lost all control of himself. In a moment of generosity he sold the gun to a Bound Brook man by the name of Taylor for $2.

Then Randolph's father paid a visit to Cavalier and pictured all sorts of prospective horrors of the law if Cavalier did not give back the wheel. Cavalier returned it to the real owner. He wanted the gun back, however, but Harrison had it not.

Cavalier appeared before Justice Storms, of New Market, and swore out a warrant for Harrison's arrest. The warrant was served in Plainfield this morning. Randolph was brought before Justice Nash this morning. He waived examination and was held in $100 bonds for his appearance before the Grand Jury.

No Sunday Merchants Arrested.

Yesterday proved a very uneventful Sunday for Plainfield. All of the stores that remained open were very quiet and most of them had curtains up in their windows. There were no crowds hanging about the stores. No arrests were made and the police claim that no complaints were made either. The question of Sabbath observance remained unchanged. Neither side made any move and the day passed off quietly and peacefully.

Took the Wrong Train.

Andrew Kalanski took the wrong train in Elizabeth Saturday night and landed in Plainfield instead of Perth Amboy, where he lives. The police found him wandering about in a drunken state and locked him up. His little three-yerr-old daughter was with him. On account of the child, the Mayor granted a hearing to Kalanki early yesterday morning and released the man. He returned to Perth Amboy at once.

POPE AS MEDIATOR.

One of the Spanish Ministers Gravely Announces That We Asked Him to Act.

Madrid, April 4.—Senor Capdepon, Minister of the Interior, states officially that the Pope has accepted the task of mediating between Spain and the United States at the suggestion of the American Government, both nations accepting his mediation.

Members of the diplomatic corps are joining in taking steps calculated to avert war. They are under the leadership of the Papal Nuncio, Monsignor Francica Nava, the Archbishop of Catania and the Austrian Ambassador here, Count Dubsky.

Secretary Day Denies It.

Washington, April 4.—Assistant Secretary Day has authorized an official denial of the statement that the Pope is to mediate between this country and Spain.

The prospect of European mediation has aroused the keenest interest throughout diplomatic circles. It has been expected that France would be the first to act by a tender of her good offices. Up to last night, however, the French Ambassador, M. Cambon, had received no instructions in this line. There is the same anticipation, but lack of definite action, in British, German and other diplomatic quarters.

London, April 4.—The Madrid correspondent of the Daily Mail, telegraphing Saturday, says:

"Information has been received here to the effect that an alliance has been concluded by England and America for mutual action in the Far East alone. As a matter of fact, such alliance, if concluded, would influence considerably any possible conflict between America and Spain."

The Madrid correspondent of the Times says that outside the office of El Heraldo is posted a notice that the Pope will mediate between the United States and Spain.

People's Bank Securities.

Philadelphia, April 4.—So far as the investigation of Receiver Thomas W. Barlow has extended into the accounts of the People's Bank, it has disclosed the whereabouts of securities which were supposed to have been taken from the bank by Richard F. Loper, according to the statement left by the dead cashier. These securities, bonds of the New Jersey Consolidated Traction Company, were found pledged as collateral, but in whose name they stand for loans is not yet revealed. Other securities reported to have been removed from the private box of James McManes, the bank's president, were found pledged in a stock broker's office as margin for stock operations. It is said that these securities will be restored by the bank through amicable settlements without the necessity of suits.

STREET RAILWAY ORDINANCE.

An ordinance locating the tracks of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company on North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue within the Borough of Fanwood, County of Union, and authorizing and empowering the construction and operation and maintenance of the same and granting permission for said Company to use electricity as the propelling power of its cars, and prescribing the terms and conditions upon which such location of the tracks and permission are granted. Whereas, The Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway, a corporation organized under the provisions of an act entitled, "An act to authorize the formation of traction companies for the construction and operation of street railways, or railroads operated as street railways, and to regulate the same," approved March fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, having first filed in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of New Jersey, a description of the routes, together with maps exhibiting the same, did present their petition or application to the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, praying the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood for its consent to the construction, operation and maintenance of a street railway in the Borough of Fanwood, and the right to locate its tracks conformably to the route filed in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of New Jersey, which route in the Borough of Fanwood is upon and along North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, and was set out in the said petition; and

Whereas, Public notice has been duly given of such application and of the intention of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood to consider the same, by publication, also by posting a copy of the said notice in five or more of the most public places in said Borough of Fanwood at least four-teen days prior to the date of the meeting of the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood; and

Whereas, Upon the day fixed by said notice and upon such days as the said hearing was adjourned to, public hearing was given to all persons desiring to be heard in favor of, or opposed to, or in any wise interested in the said application for the location of its tracks, and the said matter having been duly considered by the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, and the said Company having filed with the Clerk of said Borough the consent in writing of the owners or their duly authorized legal representatives of at least one-half in amount of the lineal feet of property on said North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, within the Borough of Fanwood and upon which permission to locate, operate and maintain said street railway is asked.

Now, therefore, be it ordained by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, as follows:

Section 1. That the tracks of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company be, and they are hereby located in the following avenues, in the said Borough of Fanwood, in the County of Union, to wit, as set out in the following description:

Beginning at a point in the centre line of Forrest Avenue where it is intersected by the line of the Township of Fanwood; thence along the centre line of Forrest Avenue southeasterly fifteen hundred and eighty (1580) feet to the centre line of Midway Avenue; thence along the centre line of Midway Avenue easterly twenty-five hundred and ninety-eight (2598) feet to centre line of North Avenue; thence along centre line of North Avenue easterly sixteen hundred and ninety (1690) feet to the line of the Township of Fanwood, conformable to the amended route of the new line of street railway and the map exhibiting the same, filed in the office of the Secretary of State of this State; and said Company is hereby given the right, power and authority to maintain and operate cars upon the said railway by electricity as the motive power. The said Company shall complete the construction of its whole line of railway within the Borough of Fanwood in the manner herein provided, and all its fixtures and appurtenances, and commence the operation of the same and the running of its cars for the transportation of passengers on or before December first, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, or this franchise shall be and become null and void and of no effect, unless the time for the completion of the same shall be extended by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood. If the said Company after the commencement of the operation of its said line of railway by the collection of fares thereon shall fail or neglect to operate the whole or any portion of the line hereby authorized daily and every day for the space of thirty consecutive days, or shall fail to operate the same for a total number of days exceeding thirty in any one year; all the rights, powers, privileges and every one of them of the said Company, its successors and assigns, under and by virtue of this ordinance, shall thereby cease and be determined and in either of such cases the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood expressly reserves the right to sell the said line at auction to the highest bidder who will operate it, or may cause the said railway, or any part or parts thereof, to be removed from the said avenues, and to sell and dispose of the materials thereof at public auction, and after paying all the expenses of such removal and auction sale, and repairs to the said avenues and the cost of restoring the same to its original condition, to pay the balance of such sale to the said company, its successors and assigns.

Section 2. The said Company shall construct, maintain and operate a double track street railway as aforesaid with the cross-overs, switches and sidings shown by the map hereinafter specifically referred to. The rails to be laid by said Company shall be of steel of the girder pattern of a weight not less than seventy pounds to the yard. And the said Company shall so construct and maintain the said railway that the top of the rails shall at all times be flush with the grade of the street or highway. The ties, spikes, and all other materials shall be of the best quality. The railway tracks of the said railway shall be laid as follows: One track on each side of the centre line of said avenue so that the inner rail thereof shall be distant two feet and three inches from said centre line, and the gauge of said tracks shall be four feet, eight and one-half inches. The said Company at its own cost and expense in all streets or avenues through which it shall lay tracks hereunder, shall pave between said tracks and between the rails thereof in a good, substantial and workmanlike manner with a telford or macadam pavement to a depth of four inches and shall maintain the same flush with the rail of said tracks. The railway tracks and macadam or Telford pavement shall be laid and constructed in the best workmanlike manner and to the satisfaction of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood or other committee thereof having charge of the streets.

Section 3. During the construction of the said railway, lighted lanterns shall be kept and maintained by said Company from sunset to sunrise at each and every night, not less than fifty feet and not more than one hundred feet apart along every part of said avenues, where the work of construction shall have been begun and not completed. The work in all other respects shall be thoroughly protected so as to prevent accident. In case any accident shall happen to any person or damage to property is caused, because or by reason of any work connected with such construction of said railway, or afterwards because or by reason of the operation thereof, or through carelessness or negligence of any of the Company's officers, servants, agents or employees, the said Company shall indemnify and save the said Borough of Fanwood and the said Mayor and Council from all costs, loss or damage by reason thereof.

Section 4. The Company shall at all times keep in good condition and repair to the satisfaction of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, (repaving, if necessary) the paving between the tracks, between the rails and one foot six inches outside the same to the depth of four inches.

Section 5. That said Company shall lay its rails to conform to the grade of said North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, at the time of laying of said rails, and in case of any change of the grade or of the surfaces of said North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, or any part thereof, at any time, then the said Company at its own cost and expense shall immediately on request made in writing by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, so change the location of its tracks and the surface or grade of such part of said avenues as to conform to such change of surface of said avenues or change of grade, or any newly-established grade.

Section 6. That no change, addition, alteration of gauge or the location of the tracks, sidings, switches, cross-overs, poles or overhead structures of said railway company shall be made therein or thereabouts at any time by said Company after the same has been first erected and approved by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, without official action granting permission for such change, alteration or addition being previously taken by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood.

Section 7. The said Company and its officers, agents, servants or employees, shall not, nor shall any or either of them be allowed to shovel, throw or place snow, ice, slush or any other material along the side of said track or tracks, in such manner as to obstruct or hinder other public travel thereon or on the said avenues, but when removing the snow, ice, slush, or other material from its said tracks, the said Company and its officers, agents, servants, and employees shall without unnecessary delay and with a sufficient force of men, cause the same to be levelled between the said tracks and the gutter line on each side thereof.

Section 8. No salt shall be used by said Company on any part of its tracks, except on the grades, curves and cross-overs without the consent of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, or the proper Borough officers, nor shall any car be allowed to stand in or to obstruct any cross street, or to stand upon any cross-walk for any purpose whatever, or to stand to remain in any one position for more than five minutes at any one time, except when such car shall be unavoidably obstructed or detained by accident or breakdown, without fault or negligence of said Company, under a penalty of ten dollars to be paid by said Company to the Borough Collector with costs of collection for each and every violation of this section.

Section 9. That where said railway tracks shall pass over culverts or gutters, the bottom of which shall be below the grade line of such railroad, iron girders or proper supports of the most approved pattern shall be provided by the Company and such necessary iron bridges or iron drains shall be constructed across the tracks and shall be so constructed as not to hinder or obstruct the flow of surface water underneath the tracks of said railroad.

Section 10. The Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood on behalf of said Borough, reserves the right to dig or excavate in or upon any of the said avenues for the purpose of laying, examining, replacing or repairing any sewer, water, or gas pipes, or for the purpose of making any other public improvements, or for doing any other public work whatsoever, and the said railway company shall have no redress or claim for damages because of any detention or obstruction to travel on the said railway arising therefrom. Provided, that such work shall be done as quickly as possible without causing unnecessary delay in the operation of said railroad; and provided further, that if any such improvement, or repairing, replacing, laying or re-laying or examining can be made or done in any feasible or practical way, without obstructing the operation of said railroad, then and in such case it shall be the duty of the party doing such work to do the same in such manner as last aforesaid.

Section 11. That the said Company shall remove any dirt, gravel or any material or obstruction placed by the said Company or its agents or servants on any of the avenues within three days after the service on an officer or servant of said Company of written notice so to do by the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood or its duly authorized agent. In case the said Company shall fail to remove such material or obstruction and to put the said avenues in as good order as before such material or obstruction was placed thereon by said Company, the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood may order and cause the said material or obstruction to be removed and the said avenues to be put in complete order and repair at the expense of said Company.

Section 12. That all persons driving vehicles upon the railroad tracks of the said Company in any of the said avenues when met or overtaken by a car of the Company shall on being warned by a ringing of a bell or gong or on request of the conductor or motorman of such car, as soon as possible, turn and drive his vehicle entirely off of such track, so as to allow such car to pass; it being understood that the cars of said Company shall have the right of way over the tracks of the Company, (except at crossings where the public shall have the first right of way over and across the road and tracks of said Company.) And the driver of any vehicle for the violation of any of the provisions of this section shall forfeit and pay to the Borough Collector for the use of the Borough a penalty of ten dollars to be recovered before any justice of the peace of the said Borough.

Section 13. The cars to be used on said railway shall be well lighted and properly heated; they shall be kept clean and have proper bells or gongs, which shall be rung or sounded before such car reaches the crossings of any street intersecting any of the said avenues and whenever necessary to give warning of the approach of such car; the said cars shall be run at a speed not greater than ten miles an hour, and each car shall be provided with the necessary fenders of the most approved pattern, and such cars shall be run at an average headway of not longer than fifteen minutes, between the hours of six o'clock A. M. and ten o'clock P. M., and from ten o'clock P. M. to midnight, such cars shall be run as the travel may demand or warrant, but in any case the average headway shall not be longer than one-half hour; all cars on the said railroad shall run the entire length of the line of railroad tracks hereby authorized to be constructed. The Company shall from time to time diminish the headway of its cars as the increase of travel shall demand. All cars placed upon the line of said Company shall be of the most approved pattern; and said Company shall maintain gates upon the sides of the platforms of the cars wherever there shall be a double track, so that the ingress and egress to and from said cars can only be had from the side of the car nearest the curb.

Section 14. That for the purpose of supplying light, heat and power for propelling cars on said railway, permission is hereby given to the said Traction Company, and the right is hereby granted to said Company to erect poles and string the necessary wires thereon upon the following terms and conditions:

The poles to be used for the equipping of said railway for operation by electricity shall be of iron, similar to those used by the Plainfield Street Railway Company for that purpose upon its Netherwood line in the city of Plainfield; said poles shall be at least twenty feet in height above the surface of the ground and shall be set and located opposite each other as near as may be on both sides of said avenues and within the line of said avenues and at the points designated and shown upon a certain map entitled, "Map showing proposed location of tracks or rails of a double track street railway, also showing proposed location of poles for support of overhead construction for trolley wires of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company, in the Borough of Fanwood, County of Union and State of New Jersey," which map is on file with the Borough Clerk and is hereby made a part of this ordinance for the purpose of showing the true location of the tracks hereby authorized to be laid upon the said avenues by said Company and for the purpose of specifically designating and prescribing the several places within the line of said avenues where such poles shall be located and set and the location of said tracks and poles therein shown is hereby approved and adopted by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood.

The said poles shall be set in the ground to a depth of not less than six feet and the hole in which said poles shall be set shall be not less than one foot in diameter and the excavation or space around said poles shall be filled with broken stone and concrete to the surface of the ground and the same shall be thoroughly packed and rammed.

The wires and overhead construction attached to the said poles for the purpose of furnishing power for the propulsion of the cars of said Company, shall be not less than eighteen feet above the grade of said avenues and said overhead construction and wires shall be similar in character and size to the overhead construction now used by the Plainfield Street Railway Company upon its Netherwood line within the City of Plainfield and the manner of stringing all of said wires, shall be similar to that now used by the said Plainfield Street Railway Company upon its Netherwood line within the City of Plainfield, which overhead construction of poles and wires is hereby approved and designated as a pattern or model construction to be observed and followed by the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company in its overhead construction of poles and wires, prescribed in this ordinance. The wires strung upon said poles shall be properly guarded with other wires when required by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood. The poles, when erected, shall be properly painted and shall together with all parts of said overhead construction, be maintained in a safe condition at all times, and shall be kept in thorough repair, and said poles shall be kept well painted.

Section 15. The period or term granted to the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company by virtue of this ordinance for the purposes herein set forth shall be for the term of ninety-nine years commencing July first, 1898, and ending July first, 1997.

Section 16. That for every mile of road owned or operated, or that may hereafter be owned or operated by said Company within the limits of the Borough of Fanwood (whether said road be single or double track) said Company shall pay or cause to be paid to the Collector of Taxes of said Borough, for the use of said Borough, the following sums as license fees; to wit: For the year beginning January 1st, 1899, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the year beginning January first, 1900, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the year beginning January first, 1901, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the year beginning January first, 1902, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the year beginning January first 1903, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the five years succeeding January first, 1904, three per cent. annually of the gross earnings of said Company, with a minimum payment, however, during said period of five years at the rate of two hundred and fifty dollars a mile per year; and for each and every succeeding year thereafter, five per cent. of the gross earnings of said Company, with a minimum payment, however, at the rate of two hundred and fifty dollars a mile per year. The gross earnings in this section referred to shall be construed to include all earnings of said Company and full proportion of all earnings on full traffic to be calculated according to the proportion between the entire length of the journey and the number of miles travelled within the limits of the Borough of Fanwood, all of said payments to be made each and every year on or before the last day of each year.

That to enable the Borough to ascertain from time to time the gross earnings of the said Company the books of the Company shall be open for inspection by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood or by such other person or persons as the said Mayor and Council for that purpose shall designate at the expense of the said Company. The payments provided for in this section shall be in lieu of all license fees for cars whether provided for in prior ordinances or not.

That in case the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company or its agents, lessees, successors or assigns, shall fail to make payment of the amounts and at the periods herein provided, then and in that case all rights, powers, privileges, and grants by this ordinance conveyed to the said Railway Company, its agents, lessees, successors or assigns shall cease and determine in sixty days thereafter.

Section 17. That the fares to be charged by said Company for every passenger riding on its railroad in the Borough of Fanwood, shall be as follows:

1. The Company shall sell thirty-three school tickets in one strip for one dollar, said tickets to be void if detached, and to be good only between the hours of eight A. M. and five P. Section 19. Should the said Company violate this ordinance in any section or provision thereof for which a penalty has not been already prescribed, and specified herein, the said railway company shall be subject to a penalty of ten dollars ($10) for each and every violation, on conviction thereof, to be recovered before any justice of the peace of said Borough. Spring and Summer CLOTHING for Men, Boys and Children, to be sold at 50c on the dollar.

Sale commencing Saturday, April 2d, at 8:30 a. m., and to last for three weeks only.

It is early in the season to sell at a discount, but manufacturers are often pinched for cash even early in the season and are compelled to unload. The cash reputation of our store makes it a ready target, and the financially distressed manufacturers hearing that we were in a position to buy for spot cash, and knowing that we had five stores to supply, asked us to make an offer, which we did, and it was accepted. A great opportunity for money-saving clothing buyers. The very finest Spring and Summer clothing in the world will be sold at retail for less than one-third the price that other stores ask for the same goods.

Special Meeting Preceded the Regular Session, at Which the Ordinance to Construct Sewers for Drainage Water Was Progressed—Request for Help for Cuban Cause Was Not Heeded—Objections Made to Report of the Westervelt Avenue Commissioners—City Judge DeMeza Made a Report—Money for Sewer Work in Netherwood

A special meeting preceded the regular April meeting of the City Council held last evening, for the purpose of considering an ordinance which provides for the construction of sewers to carry off drainage water. After the reading of the ordinance an opportunity was given for remarks against the adoption of the same. There was no opposition and the ordinance was adopted on its second reading, after which it was ordered engrossed and advertised according to law.

After the transaction of the above business the regular meeting was held.

A communication was received from Stephen E. Barker, chairman of the New York Cuban Relief Ship, asking for sympathy and assistance in helping the starving Cubans. The communication was filed.

Residents of LaGrande avenue asked for an electric light on the avenue between Richmond street and Scott place. A bill due the Plainfield Water Supply Company, on account of M. Honan & Sons, was ordered paid.

Residents of Spooner avenue asked the Council to lower the grade of their avenue.

A communication was received from J. Manning and others, asking that Washington avenue, from Front street to the brook, be properly graded and repaired, that a crosswalk be laid across Front street at the head of Washington avenue, and that an electric light be located on the avenue between Front street and the brook. The matter was referred to the proper committee.

T. J. Carey and others asked that a crosswalk be laid across West Front street just south west of Madison avenue. Friends of Lawrence Green asked the Council to appoint him as a special policeman. W. H. Morrison asked the Council for a license for Hotel Hunterston.

The report of the Westervelt avenue commissoners was presented and read by the clerk. There were several objections to the assessments, including one from F. W. Bird and another from T. N. Dyer. The whole matter was referred to the Street Committee, they to report at an adjourned meeting two weeks hence.

Street Commissioner Gavett reported twenty sewer permits granted and suggested that a competent assistant be appointed to inspect sewer connections, he to receive one-half of the fee charged. The matter was referred and later reported back with the recommendation that the suggestion offered by Mr. Gavett be adopted. It was so ordered. Building Inspector T. O. Doane reported that twenty permits had been granted during the month.

City Judge DeMeza submitted his report from December 25th to April 1st. It stated that 112 prisoners had come before him. Of that number 30 were fined, 12 committed, 14 discharged, 44 sentence suspended, 4 under bonds and 8 cases were untried. From fines $193 was received, and Patrolman McCarthy received $11, half the fine imposed on Champion, who was arrested for keeping a gambling house. The sum of $133.79 was turned over to the city treasurer by the city judge.

The reports of the city treasurer and collector were received and filed. The bids of A. I. and N. B. Smalley to furnish crushed stone, and A. Kane to furnish crosswalks, were the lowest and they were accepted by the Council.

Mr. Buckle moved that the petition of the liquor dealers of the city asking for changes in the ordinance affecting them be referred to the committee on laws and ordinances. Mr. Buckle also offered a resolution that three bicycles be purchased for the police at a cost not to exceed $50 each. Messrs. Hetfield and Moffet voted against the resolution.

On a motion offered by Mr. Newman a light was granted for the corner of

STAY IN CARBONE CASE.

HALT IN THE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST THE SUNDAY MERCHANTS.

Until a Proper Plea Can be Made for a Writ of Certiorari Judge VanSickle Orders all Action to Cease for Time Being.

A sudden halt has been called in the proceedings against Jose Carbone, the first of the victims of the Sabbath observance crusade to be tried. It will be remembered that at the conclusion of the second trial of Carbone, last week, in which he was found guilty, the court released the prisoner on parole for five days in the custody of his counsel, Councilman Walter L. Hetfield, until the latter should have a chance to bring the matter to the attention of the Supreme court.

Since the trial Councilman Hetfield has been trying to secure a copy of the testimony to present to Judge VanSickle, of the Supreme Court, to ask for a writ of certiorari. As he could not get the testimony, he went before the Judge yesterday morning and explained matters. The Judge then issued a stay in all proceedings relating to the case until May 7th.

FOR WAR IF IT IS NECESSARY.

Gov. Voorhees Says the People of New Jersey Are With the President.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Jersey City, April 5—Gov. Voorhees was entertained last evening at a dinner given by the Union League Club. Gov. Voorhees responded to the toast, "New Jersey. Is it a Republican State? If So, Why?"

He said in part: "New Jersey is a Republican State and has been for at least three years. The people of this State are today with that magnificent statesman who controls our national destinies. They are for war if war is necessary. In this hour of supreme trial, when the eyes of the world are upon us to see if we are of all things just, we are assured that out of this ordeal we will come with honor."

AN EARLY C. E. SOCIETY.

PRESIDENT OF FIRST ONE IN NEW JERSEY LIVES IN PLAINFIELD.

He is W. D. Williams, of Duer Street—Spoke in Trinity Church Last Night and Told of the Effort in Hackettstown.

It is not generally known by the Christian Endeavorers of Plainfield that W. D. Williams, formerly of Hackettstown, now of Duer street, in the borough, was the first president of the first Endeavor Society organized in New Jersey. The fact was lately discovered by Horace J. Martin, president of the Y. P. S. C. E. of Trinity Reformed church, and he requested M. Williams to tell the story of that first society before the Trinity society, on the evening of their April business meeting.

The invitation was accepted and the business meeting was held last evening in the lecture room of the church.

Mr. Martin introduced Mr. Williams, who spoke informally and pleasantly of the organization of the first New Jersey Endeavor Society.

This Hackettstown society was originally a society for young men only, and when the question of admitting the young women was brought up many obstacles were in the way. It seemed impossible for the young women to speak in the meetings, until special meetings were held to pray that they might receive strength to overcome their timidity. The organization of this society, which was formed in 1882, was much less perfect than that of the present day societies, and the members found plenty of uphill work, at first, but the society grew in numbers and in spiritual power, developed beautiful Christian character in many members, and became the chief support of the pastor of the church. Miss Ida B. Stephens, the present secretary of the New Jersey State C. E. Union, was one of the early members of this society.

INDIVIDUAL COMMUNION CUPS.

Seventh-Day Baptists the First in Plainfield to Adopt Them.

The annual meeting of the members of the Seventh-Day Baptist church was held Sunday, at which time an important step was taken in the decision to adopt the individual communion cups, the change to take effect immediately. The matter of individual communion cups has long been discussed in local church circles, but the Seventh-Day Baptists are the first to adopt them.

At this meeting, Rev. A. E. Main was engaged as pastor for another year and William Stillman was re-elected trustee for five years.

Others officials were appointed as follows:

Auditing Committee, A. L. Titsworth and Charles H. Dunham; Subscription Committee, William R. Mosher and Arthur J. Spicer; chorister; D. E. Titsworth; organist, Miss Jessie M. Utter; ushers, Asa F. Randolph, Clarence Rogers, Nathan E. Lewis, Frank Maxson and Stanley Mosher.

SIX MAILS A DAY.

Uptodate Postal Service Which Lincoln Will Have Advantage of.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Lincoln, April 5—Commencing with tomorrow this town will have six mails every day. Mayor Drake has been working very hard to secure this improvement for Lincoln and the residents are much pleased. Among the letters to go in the first mail tomorrow morning will be one to The Daily Press, one to Robert T. Lincoln and another to the Bound Brook Chronicle.

With the opening of the water works, the granting of six mails a day and the assurance that the boulevard to Bound Brook will be opened, Lincoln is justly proud and highly favored with improvements that are up-to-date.

Trinity Commandery Elect.

The annual election of officers in Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., occurred last evening when the following persons were selected: Eminent Commander, Nelson Y. Dungan; generalissimo, W. A. Freeman; captain general, H. W. Marshall; prelate, B. F. Coriell; senior warden, C. C. Howard; junior warden, S. Bingham; treasurer, C. H. Rugg; recorder, F. K. VanAuken; trustees, D. C. Adams, Asa Collier and Henry Woodland; representative to Masonic Hall Association, Jacob Kirkner.

It was a Woman who Objected.

It was Mrs. Hester Winans, living near Cedar Lane, that objected to the opening of the boulevard from Lincoln to Bound Brook, and not Conrad Egel, as previously reported. Mr. Egle has always been in favor of the scheme and for sometime past has been endeavoring to secure the consent of Mrs. Winans. This consent was obtained and the boulevard will now be opened very soon.

COAL COMBINE BROKE, VARYING BIDS NOW.

Competition to Supply Fuel for the Public Schools.

LOW FIGURES OFFERED.

BOICE RUNYON & CO. AND E. H. HOLMES LOWEST BIDDERS.

Anticipated Excitement Over Reception of Bids Did Not Occur—Board of Education Appoint School Census Takers—Report of Medical Examiners Show a Large Percentage of Unvaccinated Children in the Public Schools—Plans For Commencement—Editor of the Outlook to Address.

The anticipated excitement over the reception of the bids for the coal supply of the Plainfield High School did not reach the heights expected. In fact, there was no excitement at all. The bids were opened and read and then referred to the committee on coal for consideration.

The opening of the bids was the principal business of the evening. There were four. The estimates were all for short tons. George O. Stevens & Co. offered Lehigh coal, egg, stove and nut, for $5.99. His price for pea coal was $2.99. The bid of Boice, Runyon & Co. placed Lehigh and Honeybrook coals at $3.90 a short ton, Wilkesbarre coal at $3.80, and pea coal at $2.90. E. H. Holmes offered Lehigh coal, egg, stove and nut, at $3 90 a ton. His price for pea coal was $2.90. McDonough Brothers rated Lehigh coal, chestnut, egg and nut, at $4.25 a short ton, and pea coal $3 25.

The bids were referred to the committee on coal, composed of Messrs. Jenkins, Lovell and Abbott, for consideration.

The report of the city tax collector showed that school taxes to the amount of $778.31 had been collected, together with $47.83 interest, making a total of $826.14 which had been deposited in the City National Bank.

There was a letter from the state supervisor of the school census-takers in Plainfield. After some discussion, the following were appointed: First ward, E. J. Olsen; Second ward, W. H. Drayton; Third ward, N. Y. Hull; Fourth ward, Abram Angleman.

The report of the medical inspectors showed a remarkable percentage of unvaccinated children in the schools. They have so far examined 1,114 children, of whom 430 have not been vaccinated, nearly forty per cent; 462 children were examined last month. Among them 27 cases of defective eyesight, heretofore undetected, were found, together with 27 cases of defective hearing.

A discussion of plans for the Commencement was held. Superintendent Maxson reported that Dr. Hamilton W. Mabie, editor of The Outlook, would make the address. President Probasco then appointed the following Commencement committees: Committee on music, Messrs. Lovell and Probasco; committee on police, Mr. Abbott; committee on ushers and programme, Messrs. Lounsbury and Clark. The Board then went into executive session.

WORDS FROM THE CROSS.

Ministers Who Will Speak at the Union Good Friday Services.

Next Friday evening in Grace P. E. church will be evidenced the good will and harmony that exists among all church denominations in this city. The Good Friday services will be then held and those who speak on "the words from the Cross" will be as follows: "Father forgive them, for they know not what they do," Rev. D J. Yerkes, D. D.; Second word, "Verily I say unto thee, today shalt thou be with me in paradise," Rev. W. C. Snodgrass; Third word, "Behold thy son, behold thy mother,," Rev. W. R. Richards, D. D.; Fourth word, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me," Rev. Floyd Appleton; Fifth word, "I thirst," Rev. C. L. Goodrich; Sixth word, "It is finished." Rev. C. E. Herring; Seventh word, "Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit," Rev. G. K. Newell.

For the Exempts Benefit.

For Police Drill.

The Police Board has decided to use Washington Hall in the future for drilling members of the department. The place can be secured at a cheaper rate than Crescent Rink.

COMBINE OF INTERESTS.

HYGIEA ICE COMPANY ABSORB THE BUSINESS OF JOHN H. TIER, JR.

Mr. Tier Will Become Business Manager for the New Concern—Artificial Ice Plant Will Soon be Started.

A very important deal in the ice business has just been consumated between the Plainfield Hygiea Ice Company and John H. Tier, Jr. Mr. Tier has disposed of his entire business to the artificial ice company and has been engaged to act as manager. The ice now housed at Mr. Tier's place will be used by John H. Tier, Sr., to carry on the ice cream business.

Mr. Tier, Jr., will commence his new duties next week and he will have a general oversight over the new ice plant to be erected. It is expected that the work of building the new plant will be started very soon. Mr. Tier's experience for a number of years in the ice business makes him an exceedingly valuable man for the new company. His own trade will be held, no doubt, for the concern of which he is to be manager.

About the success of the new plant there seems to be no doubt, for all of the stock has been subscribed for and the capital for conducting the business is now assured.

LEAVES ALL TO CONGRESS.

President Believes That We Must Intervene for Cuba's Sake.

Washington, April 5.—President McKinley's message on Cuba will be sent to Congress at noon tomorrow. The document has been completed and was read through twice at the Cabinet meeting last night. It is described by those who heard it as a vigorous document which will make it absolutely clear to Congress and the country that Spanish rule in Cuba cannot be longer tolerated, and that intervention on the part of the United States is a necessity unless Spain shall yield at once and make Cuba free.

M'KINLEY TO THE POPE.

President Refuses the Pontiff's Offer to Mediate.

Rome, April 5.—The Pope received this morning a telegram from President McKinley, which, while declining the offer of His Holiness to mediate between the United States and Spain, also contained what was virtually a declaration of the President's policy. Mr. McKinley said that he was extremely sensible of the initiative taken by the Pontiff, but that it was impossible for him to overcome the prejudice, even though unjust, which was entertained by a majority of the American people against the Vatican's intervention in political affairs.

FLEEING FROM HAVANA.

Great Rush of Americans and Cubans to Leave the Island.

Key West, Fla., April 5.—Orders were received from Washington late last night ta despatch the survey steamships Blake and Bache to Havana to bring Americans to this city. As the Bache had left for Tortugas early yesterday morning, Capt. Sampson telegraphed to Tortugas to have her proceed to Havana at once. The lighthouse tender Maugrove received orders last night from Washington to start at once for Havana to bring back some of the wreckage from the Maine, and also any Americans who wanted to come.

No Orders Yet for Montauk Men.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Hoboken, April 5.—No orders have yet been issued to the ninety-five members of the Battalion of the East, Naval Reserve, who are to man the monitor Montauk and take her from League Island to Portland, Me. It is expected that the services of the men will not be needed for several days yet. All the divisions of the Battalion of the East met on the ship Portsmouth last night for the regular battalion drill.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Clarence Titsworth, of West Fifth street, is very ill at his home.

Miss Charlotte Connett, of Watchung avenue, is detained at home by illness.

Mrs. Damon, of Philadelphia, who has been visiting Mrs. John Clapp, of Mercer avenue, returned to her home yesterday.

Miss Sarah Schuyler, of LaGrande avenue, was one of the cast in the farce, "A Barnard Tea," given to a large audience by the Freshmen of Barnard College the latter part of last week.

Miss Mattie Merrill, of Westervelt avenue, who has been on the sick list during the past six months, has fully recovered and is now back at her former position at the dry goods store of VanEmburgh & Son.

THE PRESIDING ELDERSHIP.

DR. SMITH MAY NOT BE TRANSFERRED

A Patterson Divine May Be Dr. Faulks' Successor—Plainfield Musicians Were Heard.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

East Orange, April 5.—Though it was thought that Rev. George W. Smith, presiding elder of the Elizabeth district, who resides in Plainfield, would be transferred to the Jersey City district in the place of Rev. Mr. Faulks, it is probable that this change will not be made. Instead Rev. D. B. Lowrie, D. D., of Paterson, is mentioned as a successor of Dr. Faulks, but the former's parishoners are opposed to the removal of Dr. Lowrie from their midst.

A committee from Market street M. E. church in Paterson, consisting of John R. Curran and A. A. VanHouten, came to the conference yesterday, having been appointed by the officials of that church to protest against the removal of Dr. Lowrie. A rumor had roached the members Saturday that Bishop Goodsell thought strongly of appointing Dr. Lowrie presiding elder of the Jersey City district. The preachers of that district had presented his name along with those of Revs. Drs. Boswell and Halleron. It is thought that Rev J. M. Meeker, Ph.D., who has supplied St. Paul's church, Newark, the past year, might be appointed to Market street in case of Dr. Lowrie's removal. The name of Rev. G. C. Wilding, D. D., of Hedding church, Jersey City, is also mentioned. Dr. Meeker is a former pastor of Paterson.

The anniversary of the Epworth League was celebrated last evening. Rev. J. A. Hensey presided, and an address was made by Rev. Dr. Thos. I. Coultas. The music for the occasion was furnished by the Plainfield Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar Club, which was enthusiastically received. The pianist was Bert Harrold; the banjos, Frederick G. Smith and Frederick F. VanEps; mandolis, William C. O'Donnell. J. C. Kirkner, A. I Littell and R. Carroll, and guitars, D. W. Littell, Jr., and Clifford Crane.

CHANGES IN JERSEY ELECTION LAWS.

Governor Voorhees Signs the Codified Statutes.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, March 5.—Governor Voorhees yesterday signed Senate bill No. 213, which embodies the report of the commission appointed to codify and revise the Election laws of the State, consisting of Senator W. M. Johnson, Joseph Cross and Judge Robert S. Woodruff. The commission's bill consists of 234 sections, which is a reduction of about one-half in the volume of the present Election laws. No material changes are made in the substance of existing legislation, except in these respects: The term of office of the County Boards of Election is made two years, instead of one; registration before the County Boards can be made only by personal appearance, and County Boards are to sit before election day, and not on election day.

Dr. Lewis' Article.

The article which Rev. A. H. Lewis was to have contributed to The Press today has been crowded out owing to the pressure of important news. It will appear tomorrow, and will be very interesting as a part of the public discussion of the Sabbath observance question.

SURE, WINTER LINGERS IN THE LAP OF SPRING

April Snow Drops Come Instead of Pattering Rain.

WHITE COAT FOR THE EARTH

A SMALL SIZED BLIZZARD IN VOGUE IN THE WEATHER LINE.

The Storm Produced a Wonderful Phenomenon Last Night When a Mock Moon was Visible, and Attracted Great Attention From Those Who Were Out to Witness the Display in the Heavens—Three Inches of Snow Now Covers the Earth, but Is Not Expected to Last Long—Will Do Damage to Budding Nature.

"Did you ever see the like of this?" moaned the steam roller this morning from his temporary quarters near the corner of Watchung avenue and East Front street. "A snow storm in April." The chilling east wind blew the curtains that tried to cover his iron sides and entered his very steam pipes.

"My poor buds," wept the solitary maple tree near by, as she swayed to and fro in the wintry blast. "They were doing so nicely and now, alas, they are blasted. Ah well, such is life."

Still the snow that had started to fall at an early hour this morning continued while the wind carried it along in white waves that pelted the poor pedestrian as he tried to face them.

The steam roller, that had been puffing so cheerily for the last week, had assumed a mantle of white, for nearly three inches of the white flakes have fallen since the storm began. The engineer never came to pilot the roller over the Watchung avenue extension. The storm put a sudden stop to all outdoor improvements in city and borough. The wheelmen and wheelwomen sorrowfully laid aside their cycling garb, carried their wheels into the attic again, and roused out their winter wraps to meet the decidedly unseasonable storm that brought such expressions of woe from even the steam roller.

Those who happened to be on the street, last evening, saw a remarkable sight in the heavens where two "circles," a "rain bow" and three moons. One "circle," or half ellipse, to be exact, had the moon for its centre and arched above it at a distance of about 22 degrees. It shone in rainbow colors, red on its inner edge and blue without. Clear around the horizon and rising as the moon rose, was the seond "circle." It kept the moon on its circumference.

Where the horizontal and vertical "circles" cut were two brilliant spots, "Mock moons" most persons called them, but a learned man termed them "paraselenae."

"'Tis a sign of war," declared some of the Plainfielders who stopped on the street to witness the remarkable phenemonon. The superstitious ones were sure that it pretended some great event in the history of the world. Others were not satisfied with this belief, and there was a searching of precedents and authorities. It was found that the portent is usually one of a severe storm. And now the severe storm has come.

"Mock moons" and halos, the meteorologists say, are caused by the reflection of moonlight from the particles floating in the air. The halo at 22 degrees from the moon originated from the moon itself. The horizontal "circle," the geometrical explanation of which is somewhat complex, is caused by the other halo.

This display was not visible in either Baltimore or Philadelphia. Earlier in the day phenomena, but not so vivid, were observed about the sun. These were "sun dogs."

After such promise of an early spring, this storm is a great surprise to everybody. It remains to be seen seen whether it will do any serious damage to vegetable life. Some of the tree buds are blasted but it is hoped by the farmers that the peach orchards have escaped. Most of the early vegetation will not be seriously injured by the storm.

The storm affected the running of the trolley cars during the morning. The cars were then run on fifteen minute headway instead of twelve minutes as usual.

A Missionary Entertainment.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society of Trinity Reformed church will hold a missionary entertainment this evening in the lecture room of the church at 8 o'clock. No admission fee will be charged.

Miss Homer, of Chicago, is visiting at the home of her uncle, E. B. Clark, of Crescent avenue.

Children should always increase in weight. Not to grow, not to increase in flesh, belongs to old age.

Present and future health demands that this increase in weight should be steady and never failing.

To delicate children, Scott's Emulsion brings richer blood and firmer flesh. Better color comes to the cheeks and stronger muscles to the limbs. The gain in weight is substantial; it comes to stay.

AT LEAST 100 DROWNED

The Disaster from Flood at Shawneetown, Ill.

ENTIRE TOWN INUNDATED

Special Trains Dispatched with Food and Clothing for the Survivors—Inhabitants for Miles Around Sought Refuge in the Hills—The Town Was Under Twenty Feet of Water—Fire Added Its Terrors to the Scene of Devastation.

Cypress Junction, Ill., April 5.—Latest reports at 9.30 last night say it is feared the entire levee in front of Shawneetown will be destroyed by morning and every frame house in Shawneetown will be dashed to pieces. The wind is blowing thirty-five miles an hour, accompanied by rain. Fear is felt for the rescue force now in Shawneetown, as nothing can stand the waves, which are rolling ten feet high. These reports come from a temporary telephone station on the hill, just this side of Shawneetown. If the gale continues the entire town is doomed.

Evansville, Ind., April 5.—Later advices from the scene of the disaster at Shawneetown, Ill., add to the horrors of the situation.

The levee, a mile above the town, broke at 6 o'clock Sunday night, and from all accounts now at hand, the released flood inundated the place, destroying many buildings and causing the death of many of the inhabitants. It is estimated by the Mayor that 100 people have perished in the flood.

Shawneetown is seventy-five miles below here on the Ohio River. It is situated in a valley of very low land with hills skirting it in the rear and with a 25-foot levee in front running from hill to hill.

The position is similar to that of a fortified city, and when the levee gave way under the pressure of the very high river the water shot through a twenty-foot opening and struck the place like a hurricane, sweeping everything before it.

Death Came Without Warning.

Houses were turned and tossed about like boxes. The people were not warned of the break and for that reason many were caught before seeking flight. Those at home sought refuge in second stories and on house tops. Those in the streets were carried before the avalanche of water and drowned.

Citizens came from the place by skiffs to a telephone several miles away and asked for aid from here.

The water stood from twenty to thirty feet all over the town. Fires and lights were put out and darkness added to the horror of the scene.

All telephone and telegraph wires were down and outside communication was next to impossible.

Mayor Carney of Shawneetown has appealed to the Governor for aid for the destitute people of his stricken city. He says the town is absolutely destroyed, and there is not enough food in town for one meal. All goods in the city are lost and the situation is distressing in the extreme.

THE STRUGGLE TO ESCAPE.

Tragedies in the Flood-Swept Town Told by One Who Went for Help.

Carmi, Ill., April 5.—The disaster at Shawneetown, Ill., came when the great majority of the people were in their homes eating supper.

The break in the levee occurred a mile above the town, and was within ten minutes more than half a mile wide. A stream of water twelve to twenty feet deep, carrying half of the current of the flood-raised Ohio, descended on the unsuspecting people. It came down in a great rush, like a tidal wave. There was no slow rising of the waters to give warning. The houses on the outskirts were lifted up and rolled over and over. Almost all of them were torn into splinters. Their inhabitants were drowned in them.

Nearer the centre of the town some brick structures stopped the onrush of the water for a few minutes, but about two-thirds of the dwellings were lifted from their foundations and floated careeningly out into the current of the river.

After a few minutes the horror of the situation was added to by the catching fire of a large house that had started down stream with the others.

Fire Adds Horror.

The people on the roofs were already in danger of being thrown off by collisions with other floating houses, but the appearance of this floating firebrand added horrors. As it struck one house after another in its zigzag course some caught fire, and their unfortunate people were compelled to trust themselves to the mercy of the swerving water on pieces of wood to avoid more terrible death by fire.

The break in the levee flooded four miles of the valley land and cut off communication on two railroads, the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern and the Louisville and Nashville.

The first rush of the current did not do all the damage. When the water had slackened somewhat many houses were still standing, but it was quickly seen that the frame ones would not last in the steady crush of the flood.

By means of rafts and swimming in the cold water seventy or eighty people were transferred from their garret windows and roofs to the flat tops of the Gallatin County Bank, a brick and stone building, and the Court House, which is of brick.

On Unstable Buildings.

It was hoped that these would withstand the pressure and the undermining, but when the single courier who rode for help to Cypress Junction left Shawneetown only those two buildings showed above the broad sheet of the flood in the lower part of the town, and its full force was being thrown against them. It was doubtful if they would not collapse and throw the refugees into the river.

Beside the hundred or more who were, on the roofs of the two sound buildings, it is known that nearly one thousand of the inhabitants managed in one way or another to make their way to the high hills back of the town or to houses in the high section of the village itself. A few of these survived the sudden burst of the waters, but their first, and sometimes their second floors, were under water. Those who made their way to them went only in the clothes they were wearing when the water came. None had time to secure either treasure or clothing. The property loss is very heavy.

The scene in the streets at the upper end of the town, where men and women were struggling against the mud and water to higher grounds, some carrying babies on their heads, where water was up to their necks; others half swimming, half floating, on odds and ends of lumber from houses that had gone floating down the river; many struggling in vain and sinking in the roaring waters, was one that will live in the memory of every beholder.

A Mother's Despair.

At one place a mother had reached a safe spot and turned to help her husband, who had followed wth their child. As she reached down from a window for his hand he was thrown from his footing and he and the child were swept away in the zigzag current. The woman saw him sink the second time, and then threw herself into the water.

Another family paddled half way to safety on a broad plank that but half held them out of the water. A side current caught them and sent them out toward the middle of the stream, where in the rougher water they were seen to capsize and sink.

An old man named Griffin, living on the high ground, stopped in the upper story of his trembling house to secure a hoard of money hidden under the bed. His son, a young man of twenty-one, had to climb up the porch to rescue him, so quick was the rise of the water, and when the two attempted to swim to safety the younger man supporting the older, a floating house that came rolling and tumbling on the current overwhelmed them.

Two Tragedies.

A school teacher, whose name is supposed to be Josephson, was warned of the danger in time to get to the high ground, but in turning back to help her mother, was caught with the elder woman in an eddy, and both were drowned. One woman made an effort to save her lover by throwing a clothes line to him from the roof of her house. His house was swept away at the moment, and he was thrown into the water. He swam to aid the girl, but she was standing on the side of the gable roof and was pulled from her insecure footing. Both were drowned.

These incidents of the disaster are told by John Graham, who reached Cypress Junction, from which place he telephoned here for help. He said he himself pulled twelve persons out of the water.

The Levee Was Known to Be Weak.

Evansville, Ind., April 5.—The man who ventured out in a skiff at great peril to his life to call on Evansville for help says that the dam had shown weakness for several days. However, the people lulled into security by the fact that a guard was put on the levee to give warning in case of danger.

This man, who did not give his name and who was so much excited that he could not be prevailed on to stay long at the telephone, said that when he came he floated through streets ringing with the frightened cries of drowning women and children and with brave words of exhortation by their rescuers.

He said the whole neighboring country was flooded for miles, and that telegraphic and telephone communication would not be likely to be restored before to-day.

Death List Will Not Exceed 100.

Ridgeway, Ill., April 5.—The latest news from Shawneetown shows that the first reports of the flood were exaggerated. It is believed that the death list will not exceed 100, and may not run over 50.

POLO PREPARING TO LEAVE.

French Ambassador Not Instructed to Act for Spain.

Washington, April 5.—It is authoritatively stated that the French Ambassador at Washington, M. Cambon, has received no instruction to act for Spain in the event of the withdrawal of the Spanish Minister. The Spanish Minister, it is learned, is making all arrangements to leave the United States should his position become untenable, and has notified a local music company to call for his piano and organ.

Action, To-day, Perhaps.

Madrid, April 5.—The Imparcial said yesterday it was expected in official circles that Senor Polo y Barnabe, the Spanish Minister to the United States, would receive his passports from the Washington Government on Tuesday. The Government is satisfied with the proposal of the Pope to mediate between Spain and the United States, and Premier Sagasta hopes that a sentiment in favor of peace will induce the American Administration to accept his Holiness's intervention. Otherwise, he believes, there will be war.

CONGRESS IS FULL OF FIGHT.

Senator Perkins Charges Spain with Being Directly Responsible for the Maine Disaster.

Washington, April 5.—It was frankly and openly charged in the Senate yesterday by Mr. Perkins of California, in a set speech, that Spain was responsible for the Maine disaster, as it had been brought about by Spanish machinations and Spanish treachery. The speech of Mr. Perkins was only one of four prepared addresses upon the Cuban question delivered in the Senate yesterday. Mr. Clay of Georgia, while hoping for a peaceful solution of the problem which the country is now facing, declared strongly in favor of independence of the Cubans, and pledged to the Administration the loyal support of the South, which, in the event of war, would have to bear the brunt of the conflict.

Mr. Perkins took substantially the same ground, and his vigorous treatment of the Maine disaster aroused the crowded galleries to enthusiastic applause. Mr. Mantle of Montana, while expressing confidence in the Administration, maintained that the time for action had now arrived, and that action must be to the end that Cuba should be free.

Mr. Rawlins of Utah entirely eliminated the President from consideration in his speech, holding that the case against Spain was already made up, and that with Congress rested the responsibility of declaring war. For Congress to wait longer was only to invite criticism. He declared for the most vigorous action immediately.

In the House the same spirit reigned which reigned in the Senate. After a hot struggle with Speaker Reed, Mr. Bailey got the floor with a ringing war speech, which set the galleries wild. The enthusiasm among the spectators, in fact, was so great at one time that Speaker Reed threatened to clear the galleries.

Among the members the confusion for a time was of the wildest. A dozen men were on the floor at once trying to speak.

Mr. Bailey said that if the President wanted one day, or two days, or three days, to prepare a message that would meet the approval of the American people, the minority would be silent until he had spoken; "but if he wanted two hours for further negotiation with Spain for the purchase of Cuba, I say not a minute will we give him."

By Balloon to Rescue Andree.

New York, April 5.—M. Antony Varicle, the distinguished French scientist, who is at the head of an Andree relief expedition by balloon, is in the city. He said that he desired it understood that his expedition went under the auspices of the French Government, while at the same time he went to the rescue of a personal friend.

The balloon, the Alaska, is so constructed that its course can be as accurate directed as that of a ship. M. Varicle expects to find Andree, the Arctic explorer, in Siberia. He and his party will embark in their airship from either Juneau or Glenmora, in British America, and go via the Klondike.

This is the backing that stands behind every box of Doan's Kidney Pills; here is a case of it:

Mrs. M. A. Hall, of 219 Prescott place, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills without exception are the best medicine I ever used. My kidneys troubled me for several years with dull, aching pain across my back and at times extending to my hips. I was compelled to lie in just one position at night, stooping, lifting or bending foward aggravated the pains. I was also subject to severe headaches and was more or less nervous. A kidney weakness which was very distressing and inconvenient also existed and though I used different remedies that were recommended to me I obtained little if any benefit. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills highly endorsed in our daily papers and procured a box at L. W. Randolph's drug store. It was not long before I felt great relief and I was surprised how quickly the pain in my back disappeared. I am entirely free from it now and my other troubles were benefited greatly. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills a reliable medicine and in my case they accomplised all that is claimed for them."

FREE CUBA OR FIGHT

That Will Be the Substance of the President's Message.

FORECAST OF DOCUMENT

Will Advocate Independence of Cuba, Declare Spain's Reply Unsatisfactory, and a Show of Force Against Havana May Come—The Disaster to the Maine to Figure Strongly—Message to Be Sent to Congress To-morrow.

Washington, April 5.—The Associated Press has sent out the following forecast of President McKinley's coming message to Congress on Cuba. The Associated Press gets its news semi-officially from the Government:

It is altogether probable that the President's message to Congress on the Cuban situation will not be sent in before to-morrow.

What specific recommendations the President will make in this message cannot be stated at this time, but the general features of the message have been decided upon.

The President, it is learned, will favor a recognition of independence and forcible intervention, if necessary, to prevent further hostilities in Cuba. Spain's answer in effect will be declared to be unsatisfactory and to leave little or no reasonable ground for hope that a satisfactory settlement of the Cuban question is at all likely to be reached through diplomatic agencies.

The President will favor intervention, and his message will make no recommendations or suggestions in conflict with that idea. The disaster to the Maine will be prominently brought to the fore and will be treated in a vigorous manner.

The whole subject, it is believed, will be discussed in a spirit of patriotism that must commend itself to the entire American people. This policy, however, it is said, does not necessarily involve war, but leaves the determination of the question to Spain herself.

Without something, now unexpected, happens within a comparatively short time, the indications point to at least a show of force against Havana.

SPECIAL CABINET MEETING.

The President's Forthcoming Message Thoroughly Discussed.

Washington, April 5.—A special Cabinet session which met at 8 o'clock last night adjourned at 11.15 o'clock, after thoroughly considering the President's forthcoming message. Secretary Long authorized the announcement that the message would be sent to Congress to-morrow.

Secretary Long said: "The message, which in itself is long, will not be accompanied by the consular reports dealing with the state of affairs in Cuba. There will go to the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate for their private information and will not be made public just now. The diplomatic correspondence between the United States and Spain will not be submitted at present."

The Cabinet meeting lasted from 8 o'clock until after 11, and was devoted entirely to the careful reading and discussion of the President's draft of his message.

Every member of the Cabinet was present. The document was gone over point by point, and met with the approval of the Cabinet in every material respect. The only changes made were in a few points of verbiage.

When the meeting was over and the members dispersed there was a general air of relief and satisfaction on all faces, as though the air had been cleared of doubt, and the members, firmly resolved on what they deemed the proper course of action, had set out to follow the course to its logical conclusion. The suspense evidently was ended.

Secretary Long apparently had been deputed as spokesman for the meeting and gave the above brief statement. As to the character of the message he refused to speak.

WILL BE NO COMPROMISE.

Spain Must Back Down or Take the Consequences—A Clear Issue Defined.

Washington, April 5.—Senators who have seen the President say that unless Spain backs down and yields to the demands of this government the forthcoming message of the chief executive on the Cuban question will be much more vigorous than the friends of Cuba expect.

Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, when asked whether the message would be a peace document, as has been reported, replied:

"I do not know what the President will recommend, but it will not be anything of this sort, unless the situation changes materially. It appears to me as if Spain was getting ready to back down. Her last offer of an armistice to the insurgents seems to indicte that she is preparing to yield."

Senator Chandler, of New Hampshire, said:

"There was a decided peace sentimen prevailing on Saturday, but this has materially changed, and the opposite opinion is now generally held. From what I learn of the President's intentions his message will be substantially a war message."

From another source it is learned that the recommendations of the President will make in his message will practically be on the line of the resolution agreed to by the Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate, namely, the Foraker resolutions. The disaster to the Maine will be prominently brought to the fore and will be treated in a vigorous manner.

"Make no mistake about it," said a prominent Republican, "President McKinley will lead his party in this matter and his message will prove him to be even in advance of his party. He will lead them and those Republicans and Democrats who do not agree with him will have to trail on behind, for he will have a great majority of the Senate and House practically behind him.

"It is my belief that the forthcoming message will be one of the ablest documents that has ever emanated from the White House. It will cover in detail the entire Cuban question from the beginning of the negotiations between Spain and this country. It will show just how far this Government has gone to preserve peace between the two nations, how much it has stood from Spain and how Spain has violated her promise and failed to keep her pledges to us."

It is announced at the White House that all statements to the effect that the Pope or any other European influence has been asked by the United States to mediate the differences between this country and Spain are untrue. The United States has not asked any power to mediate our affairs with Spain and will not accept any such mediation. If any overtures have been made for a settlement by this means of the existing difficulties, they have come from Spain herself and have not emanated from this country.

The United States will, of course, be glad to see the European powers successful in their efforts to persuade Spain to yield to our demands, but this is as far as our Government goes.

It is hoped at the White House that France and England will have influence enough with Spain to compel the latter country to recede from her position in regard to Cuba and the United States. In connection with this the following statement was made by one of the leading Cubans here. He said: "It is my opinion that this whole matter will finally be settled in Paris and London, and not in Washington."

NOT FOR MEDIATION.

Will Be Rejected Unless It Makes the Cubans Free.

Washington, April 5.—Speaking on the subject of mediation a Cabinet officer, as he left the White House authorized the following statement as explanatory of the position of the United States:

"You can say for me that all the powers of Europe and the heads of all the churches may propose mediation to Spain if they desire, but the United States will positively not listen to mediation of any kind that does not lead to the acceptance of our conditions, which are the independence of Cuba."

Several persons who have conferred with the President received the response that if the Pope contemplates mediation this Government knows nothing of it.

The chairman of one of the most important committees in Congress, just after emerging from the executive chamber, promptly stamped the Spanish statement of mediation between Spain and the United States as a Madrid roorback.

"Why should the Pope mediate?" he asked. "There is nothing to mediate. I don't believe the step is contemplated. Why, the Deity is the only one who should be recognized to step in between the two. I regarded the statement in such light that it never occurred to me to even mention it."

This member, like others, referred to mediation between the United States and not between Spain and the insurgents, the latter being a matter with which this country has no concern.

What the Pope Really Did.

Rome, April 5.—It is said in Vatican circles that the Pope has not formally offered to mediate between Spain and the United States, because he has not been requested to do so by the two governments. It is true, however, that the Pontiff has conveyed to Madrid his ardent wish for the avoidance of a conflict, and has asked Spain to arrange for a suspension of warlike measures or decisions.

Last Chance of Peace.

London, April 5.—A dispatch from Madrid yesterday afternoon says Premier Sagasta expressed the hope that "peaceful considerations would influence the American politicians," declaring that the Pope's mediation is "practically the last chance of averting war."

MOVEMENT OF SPAIN'S FLOTILLA.

Consul at Cape Verde Islands Officially Confirms Story of Its Arrival There.

Washington, April 5.—The Navy Department has received official assurances which put at rest the reports that the story of the arrival of the Spanish torpedo boat flotilla at Cape Verde Island was sent out by Spanish authority to deceive the United States while the flotilla was proceeding to Porto Rico. A telegram was sent by the State Department to the United States Consul at St. Vincent, Cape Verde Islands, and he has reported that the flotilla is there. The Navy Department has every reason to believe that the second torpedo boat flotilla has not yet started from Spain.

The dispatch from the Consul at St. Vincent, while not definite on that point, indicates that there is no truth in the report that the destroyers Terror, Azor and Furor went on to Porto Rico, while the torpedo boats proper put in at the Cape Verde port.

Spain's Fleet to Leave Cadiz.

Washington, April 5.—A telegram was received late last night by President McKinley from Minister Woodford stating that the Spanish fleet was about to sail from Cadiz.

For some time Spain has been engaged in forming at Cadiz a flying squadron and torpedo flotilla to consist of the torpedo cruisers Donna Maria de Molena and Destructor, of the type of our Cushing; the torpedo destroyers Osado, Proserpina and Audaz, and the torpedo boats Orion, Barcela and Havana. The last named three are known to have been at Cadiz for some time.

No "Reply" Sent to Spain.

Washington, April 5.—President McKinley's attention was directed last night to a cablegram from Madrid announcing that the "reply" of the United States Government had been communicated to the Spanish Government, but that its contents had not been made public and no action had been taken upon it.

An official announcement was authorized that negotiations with Spain have not been resumed.

More Gold From Australia.

San Francisco, April 5.—The steamship Alameda, which is due here tomorrow, has $2,000,000 in English sovereigns in her strong box. This is the eighth shipment of gold received from the same source since last Fall, bringing the total amount received up to the enormous sum of $18,000,000.

READY TO MOVE TROOPS

Cars Held to Transport Regulars and Naval Militia.

PREPARING FOR ACTION

National Guard of New York and Pennsylvania Would Be the First Called Out in Event of War—Work Cut Out for Them—Many Offers to Furnish Soldiers.

Washington, April 5.—That the military and naval authorites of the country consider war at least imminent is shown by the character of the preparations they are making. The Thirteenth Infantry, at Fort Porter, on the Niagara River, and the Twenty-first Infantry, at Plattsburg, have received telegraphic orders to be ready to move instantly. The Thirteenth is destined for the South, and part of the Twenty-first has already been transferred to the Seventh Artillery at Fort Slocum. Two trains have been sent to Plattsburg from Troy for the 21st. They consist of fifteen baggage and ten passenger coaches. They will be held at Plattsburg until the commander receives the telegraphic order to move.

The entire cavalry and infantry of the United States east of Denver have been making preparations for mobilization in the Eastern and Southern States. Arrangements have also been made for an early call upon the National Guard of New York State.

It is learned from a high military authority that if war breaks out soon President McKinley will call upon the Governors of New York and Pennsylvana for troops before making similar requisitions upon other States. The work of handling the guns in the fortifications, it is said, will be assigned to the regulars who have had experience in such duty, and the militia will do picket and guard duty at first.

The ships of Commodore Schley's flying squadron have been stripped for action. Every rail and rope that can be taken down has been removed, and every piece of woodwork that can be spared has been sent ashore.

The cruiser Diogenes, which has been bought for the Government in England, now flies the Stars and Stripes, and will be brought across the Atlantic as soon as possible.

The naval reserves of several States are making preparations for active service. One division of the Pennsylvania Naval Militia at Pittsburg has received orders to be ready to move within twenty-four hours, and the Pennsylvania Railroad has a number of cars on a side track waiting to take the division East.

The prevalence of the war spirit throughout the country is shown by various States to equip their militia, and by private offers of financial or personal service to the Government. The Ohio Legislature proposes to establish a war fund of $1,000,000, and to spend $300,000 besides in putting its militia on a war footing. A similar step is contemplated in Deleware.

At a public meeting held in Galveston, Texas, a naval reserve was organized to help the State Volunteer Guard in home defense. The cadets of the Iowa Wesleyan University have tendered to Governor Shaw a full company of infantry, armed and officered, and ready for active service. Similar offers have been made by students of other universities, among them Syracuse and Pennsylvania.

YOUSOUF AN EASY WINNER.

The Turk Had Fun With McCormick Last Night in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, April 5.—A fair-sized crowd witnessed the wrestling bout last night at the Arena between Yousouf, the "Terrible Turk," and John F. McCormick, which was won by the Oriental in less than seven minutes. McCormick acted on the defensive during the entire time. Not once did he attempt a hold on the Turk.

According to the agreement Yousouf was to throw his man three times within an hour or lose the match. The actual time occupied by Yousouf in throwing his man three times was 6 minutes 21 2-5 seconds.

Yousouf had the advantage of seventy-two pounds in weight. His brute strength was marvelous, but he did not appear to have a remarkable amount of knowledge of the science of Graeco-Roman wrestling. Two or three times he secured various holds on his opponent, but lacked the ability to take advantage of them, and McCormick managed to squirm out of them.

Precautions were taken to prevent a repetition of the Madison Square fiasco. Extra ropes were used around the ring, but the lesson the turk learned in New York evidently had a beneficial effect on him, for he was remarkably cool to-night.

London Learns Why Spain Delays.

London, April 5.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "I learn, on excellent authority, that the Spanish reply to President McKinley is regarded as a move to gain time and to avoid replying directly to the American ultimatum. Spain will now find the means of yielding, while saving her face."

Jordan Beats Eddie Curry.

London, April 5.—At the National Sporting Club in this city last night in a twenty-round contest for $1,000 and the bantam championship of the world Ben Jordan, of England, beat Eddie Curry, of New York City, winning in the seventeenth round. Curry proved game, but was much punished.

A Move to Gain Time.

London, April 5.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "I learn on excellent authority that the Spanish reply to President McKinley is regarded as a move to gain time and to avoid replying directly to the American ultimatum. Spain will now find the means of yielding, while saving her face."

THE POSTMASTERSHIP.

The appointment of a successor to Postmaster Hetfield is expected to be made by President McKinley about May 1st, inasmuch as Mr. Hetfield's commission expires May 11th. Republicans are becoming actively interested in the contest for this plum. The two principal candidates are J. Fred MacDonald and Elias H. Bird, both workers in the First ward, and with the latter now holding a city office in the Tax Collectorship. Both have strong support for the appointment and are bringing their best influences to bear on Congressman Fowler, whose wishes the President will follow in making the appointment. Mr. Fowler has not yet evidenced which one of the gentlemen is his favorite. It is politically understood that Mr. Fowler will probably favor the man in whom he sees the greatest assistance for a renomination as Congressman in the Eighth district. Mr. MacDonald has the support of a number of influential Republicans as well as a large number of business men with whom he is in favor as a merchant himself. Mr. Bird's principal sponsor is City Clerk MacMurray, who, when he withdrew from the contest for the appointment, threw his support to the former, and is understood to be urging his friends to advocate the candidacy of the Collector.

INSURANCE RATES.

It does not require much practical reasoning for any sensible person, after reading the article in yesterday's Press reviewing the work of the local fire department for the past six years, to see that the rates charged on fire insurance risks in Plainfield are exorbitant. For a city the size of Plainfield a large sum is spent every year to maintain a fire department that is probably not equalled in another Jersey town of proportionate size, or even in places with several thousand more population, and one of the benefits which a practical application should bring is insurance premiums that are as reasonable as the service of the fire department is good. But unfortunately for local property owners this is not so. If the assurances of insurance company officials are to be depended upon, however, a lower schedule of rates may be expected in the near future. That time cannot come too quick to satisfy the people of Plainfield.

WHAT SILAS THINKS.

Well, the Plainfield Press has gone and done it! It could not stand the "press" any longer and was compelled to broaden its waist band. It has always been a clean, live newspaper, and its enlargement and greater press facilities will enable The Press to press on to greater usefulness and prosperity. We suppose more "force" will be used to keep up with its pressing demands. We attribute some of the Press' good luck to some of the booming operations of the Real Estate News and its editor.—Real Estate News.

SEACOAST ARTILLERY REGIMENTS.

Peculiarly adapted to the present situation is the paper on the "National Guard and Our Seacoast Defenses" written for The Forum by Captain J. C. Ayres of the United States ordnance department, although it was published last December.

Captain Ayres calls attention to the fact that congress appropriated last year a greater sum than it had ever done before for permanent fortifications along our coasts. Then he asks a question very much to the point—Who is to man these fortifications when they are finished? To man them will require 50,000 artillerymen, including electricians and mechanical engineers. At the time the article was written the bill had not yet been passed adding two artillery regiments to the five constituting that arm of the United States regular army service. But even with seven regiments of artillery there would not be a sprinkling of men for the grim lines of forts around our ocean and lake shores, neither is it within the bounds of possibility that congress will ever authorize an army of 50,000 soldiers as permanent coast defenders.

TWELVE INCH COAST DEFENSE MORTAR.

If war comes, modern mortars will play a prominent part in coast defense. Scores of them are already mounted and many more could soon be placed on mortar boats. They fire high in the air and the 1,000 pound shells descend upon a hostile ship's deck.

Captain Ayres looks to a far different branch of the United States military service to supply the need of men. He would take them from the national guard. In time of peace only a few regular army artillerymen will be needed at each fort. But Captain Ayres recommends that plans be perfected whereby every summer regiments of the national guard in shore states be brought to the fortifications and drilled in the art of coast defending warfare. The instructions should pursue such fine points as finding the range of guns, the distance of vessels and following with the gun the track of a passing steamer or sailer. In such coast defending drill there will be work alike for soldiers, for machinists, draftsmen, engineers and electricians.

Many new and intricate problems in gunnery that even so late as our civil war we knew nothing of must be faced now. The high explosives, the tremendous guns and the fearful projectiles of today have come upon the scene since that war. Captain Ayres' recommendation that the militia of the coast states be taught how to man fortifications perfectly should be acted on.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

Chancellor McGill has decided that the New York and Philadelphia Traction Company's seizure of the public road in Somerset county was illegal. The steal occurred on a Sunday in September of last year. The Bridgewater township committee refused to grant a franchise, an old one formerly granted having lapsed, and many hundred workingmen were sent from Philadelphia early one Sunday morning, and the road was built in spite of a Supreme Court injunction. It is well that the courts have condemned such work by their decision, but the facts are that the Philadelphia company has sold out to its rival, the New Brunswick company, and the road stands practically as it was laid.—Elizabeth Journal.

The new president of the New York Central Railroad, S. R. Callaway, began his business career at twelve years of age as an office boy, and W. H Canniff, who it is expected will succeed Mr. Callaway as president of the Lake Shore, started railroading as a switchman. The success achieved by these two men is not extraordinary in this country, where the highest positions may be within the reach of the most humble individual, provided he has the ability and the determination to attain them. Probably nine-tenths of the men now eminent in every trade and profession in this country commenced life under conditions eqally obscure. The prizes in any pursuit, in the United States, are for those who can win them. Poverty and lowly conditions may be spurs rather than handicaps in the race.—Newark News.

PASSING COMMENT.

Last Sunday evening a delegation of women from the American Volunteers was passing through one of the principal streets in this city, and each one carried a small baby. A passer by, who happened to note the fact, remarked that there were not only Volunteers in the party, but "infantry" as well.

There is probably no person in Plainfield who is a more persistent temperance advocate than Mrs. DeForest, of West Second street. In that guise, she writes to The Press as follows:

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—The Plainfield liquor dealers emboldened by the license vote at the last election now ask for an increase of privileges. They want to keep men in their places and away from their families an hour longer or until midnight—not from any love for the company of their customers, but because they want to get more of the money these men might otherwise take home to their families. Or is it because the saloonkeepers are getting "kind-hearted" and want their customers and their employes to go to bed early? No wonder the rumsellers are getting tired of asking people to help them make druukards respectable men, who have long since been ashamed to put their names to a liquor license application. It remains to be seen whether their friends in the Council will continue to ignore the wishes of thousands of our best citizens and make it still easier for these men to do their deadly work.

Mrs. DeForest.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

"Pecks Bad Boy" is looked at today as one of our sterling farce comedies. The company which will present it at Music Hall next Monday night is composed of exceptionally strong comedians and specialty artists, and the result is an entertainment of surpassing excellence

"My Friend from India," with the original New York company, will also be presented next week.

"'Way Down East" continues to reap full measure of success at the Manhattan Theatre, and even the waning days of the Lenten penitential period do not lessen crowds that are limited only by the capacity of the house. Virile and vigorous is this charming comedy of life among plain people down on the New England farm. The pathos is tear compelling, its humor quaint, rippling and infectious. The flutter of moistened pocket handkerchiefs is quickly followed by roars of merriment over genuinely comic episodes. Its pictures of country life, with its harness-mending and butter-making, its berry-pickings and sugar-camps and sleighing parties are at once realistic and fascinating. Under their spell one forgets the clash and clatter of city existence and the imagination supplies a hundred details that are rustic and restful. Every part is admirably acted, and while the chief honors fall to Phoebe Davies, there are many fine character studies, notably that of Burr McIntosh as Squire Bartlett, a jovial old chap when his purposes are not crossed. All New York and its environs flock to see this play.

Berckman and East Second streets. At the request of James Burke, his application for a liquor license was turned to him.

Mr. Van Herwerden offered a resolution securing $498 for the purpose of carrying on sewer work ordered last year.

The West Fourth street grade ordinance and the ordinance changing the name of Cemetery avenue to Belvidere avenue, were called up by Mr. Barrows and adopted on third reading. Mr. Barrows also offered a resolution which provides for the re-setting of curbs to the proper grades on certain streets in the city.

On a motion offered by Mr. Van Herwerden the amounts of $681 45 and $318 55 were appropriated for the use of the Board of Health.

Mr. Barrows moved that when Council adjourn it be to meet two weeks from last evening.

R G. Wood, counsel for the Ophelia G. Reilly property on Watchung avenue, upon which there is a tax, asked the Council to accept the face value of the bill without interest, and the Council granted the request. After the auditing committee reported all bills correct, Council adjourned.

MR. MILLIKEN EXPLAINS AGAIN.

Up Until Now He Doesn't Know Whether Trolley People Got His Land.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—Your comment upon my last note certainly leaves one in an "anomalous position." The fault is all my own, and I beg the favor of a few lines in explanation.

I omitted to state in my previous note that Mr. Vail could not give me the name of his principal when closing the transaction, and finally bought the property in his own name. This is a common occurrence in transactions of real estate and I passed it by. The name of the trolley company was not then nor has it been mentioned up to the present time, and consequently never occurred to me that the property was for them. Whether bought in their interests or not I do not know up to this present time.

The largest real estate holder and the owner of the most valuable property on the ronte is thoroughly satisfied that my transaction was straightforward, honorable, and without any cause of complaint.

Making Over Dresses.

The home dressmaker is just now employing a considerable part of her time in making over dresses from those which have done fair duty for two seasons past, and arranging new draperies of net, mull, fancy grenadine, or other semi-transparent textiles over bodies and skirts or princesse dresses of silk or satin, that have been worn in other forms. To add to these gowns when thus partly finished, are now sold quantities of extremely pretty made-up laces—berthas, plastrons, collarettes, frilled fichus, girdles, enriched with handsome slides and jewelled buckles, and also knife, box, and accordion-pleated frillings by the yard, that form short sleeves and corsage, and skirt-trimmings that save much time for the dressmaker, and prove very effective additions. Another use that is made of partly worn silk or satin skirts in green, blue, black, etc., is to convert them into petticoats. These skirts must be ripped apart, brushed, sponged and pressed, a breadth or so removed, and then the skirt faced and bound at the hem, so that it will wear well—a great fault with nine-tenths of the silk skirts sold ready made being the propensity to fray very quickly at the lower edges. Rustle percaline, or some of the other substitutes for taffeta, is a good choice for the facing. When completed, add new ruffles to the skirt, which need not necessarily match the foundation. Hundreds of very handsome remnants are offered for sale in two and three-yard lengths, that will make the prettiest sort of frills for the petticoat. These may be carried to the stores, where side-pleating is done at so many cents a yard, or be corded at home on the sewing machine, with the simple little cording attachment. They can be pinked with a tiny pinking-iron at the edge, or merely piped or hemmed and machine-stitched. The ruffles may be of fancy-striped satin in tri-colors of plain or shot taffetas, of pleated surah, faille, Liberty silk or satin, or any of the very gay tartans in glowing cian colors.

Natural Cosmetics.

Let orange or lemon peel soak in your water jugs; it forms an excellent tonic and cleanser for the complexion.

Cucumber rind is also beneficial, as also is cucumber juice. Cut it in slices, and let the juice run from it, or press the juice out with a pestle and mortar; then use the juice to bathe the face twice daily; it is so cooling and nice.

Vichy Water is another excellent and natural cosmetic, as it contains such cleansing properties and preserves the natural beauty of the skin.

First wash the face in the usual way, always remembering to use pure soap, rinse well, then with a soft sponge dipped in Vichy Water wipe the face well over, and finally dry thoroughly, with a fine, soft towel.

If you use Vichy Water you can easily dispense with the use of soap, as it is so cleansing.

For the complexion, too, ladies would find elder-flower or rose-water far preferable to ordinary water, and either is most refreshing and nice, more especially in summer time.

Some Facts About Meat.

Although mutton is more easily digested than beef, the latter contains a larger quantity of nourishing juices and less fat, and ranks first in nutritive value among animal food. Lamb and veal contain but a small proportion of nutriment as compared with beef or mutton, and pork still less. The most advantageous methods of cooking meat are grilling and roasting. Meat which is cooked before a clear fire shrinks less, and is better both in flavor and appearance than if baked in an oven. It is a common error to suppose that boiled meat is more easily digested than roasted; provided it is scientifically cooked so that the goodness is retained, meat roasted is both nourishing and digestible, but if boiled in cold water the juices of the meat are drawn out and the fibre alone remains. Stewing is a very economical way of cooking, for by this means meat which might otherwise be tough and unpalatable is rendered tender and very nutritious.

In Spring Attire.

Of gowns suitable for early spring wear nothing is more effective than smooth faced cloths or light woolen materials. Fur trimmings are much used on early spring gowns, and many have the narrowest border of dark fur, while the dress is extremely light in tone.

A chic little walking costume, made in a light woolen material, has the skirt trimmed round the base with three narrow bands of fur. The bodice material is folded back on either side of a vest of figured silk, which is trimmed at the top with a small yoke of figured material. Collar and waistband of velvet. The bodice is ornamented with a large collar of silk edged with trimming and forming revers in the front. The sleeve material is pleated crosswise at the top. Small toque of velvet with black aigrette.

Cloth Cape for Spring Wear.

A dainty cape suitable for cool days is of fawn colored cloth, trimmed with bands of material machine stitched on. The front and lower edge is turned in and machine stitched, and the lining of rose colored flowered silk is cut just like the material, made up separately and slip-stitched in. The collar is of double material, interlined with canvas.

A pretty little toque to go with this cape is of golden brown velvet, trimmed on the left side with 3 feathers and an aigrette. The styles in capes will vary largely, many being made in unique patterns, one recently seen being of three overlapping capes, curving right from the neck all round.

A CONCISE MEMORANDUM.

S. P. G., However, Had a Different Meaning to the Mother Than to the Son.

Part of the boyhood of Bishop Barry was spent at boarding-school, where, during his first term, he was allowed $10 as spending money. His mother, on giving it to him, requested an exact account of his daily expenditures. He tried to keep his word, but sometimes, forgetting to post the items for days together, it was difficult to recall them, and he invented an abbreviation corresponding very nearly to sundries, which appeared pretty regularly throughout his account.

When Mrs. Barry first looked over her boy's account-book on his return, she was much pleased at the most frequently recurring item of expense, and inquired how he had been led to take so strong an interest in the cause of missions. Astonished in his turn, he declared he had not given a penny to missions.

"But, surely," exclaimed Mrs. Barry, "the society for the propagation of the Gospel is missionary work, and I find that more than half your money has been given in small sums to S. P. G."

"S. P. G., mother," confessed the future dignitary of the Church, "does not mean Society for the Propagation of the Gospel. When I could not remember what I spent my money for, I put down S. P. G.—Something, Probably Grub.'"—Christian Commonwealth.

SHE TAMES WILD HORSES.

Strength, Patience and an Indomitable Will All that is Necessary.

Miss Vaughan-Lewis is the hyphenated name of the woman who can boast that she is the first of her sex to adopt the profession of horse breaking.

She is the daughter of a Welsh clergyman. At sixteen she had a reputation among his parishioners for her power over vicious and unmanageable animals. Then her father died and she was obliged to earn her own living. She went to Canada and soon had a number of clients, who kept her busy breaking their half-wild horses for them.

Now she has a farm near San Francisco. She can board twelve horses at a time. Three men servants and two women form her retinue. She breaks all the horses herself. By 6 o'clock every morning she is in the stables. She tames the most vicious brute and entirely without whip or spur. Her wrists are very strong, her patience inexhaustible and her will indomitable. These three qualifications, she says, are all that are needed to make a woman a success as a horse breaker.—New York Journal.

Foolish Excess of Discipline.

The practice in some public schools of requiring the children, when moving in a body, to observe more than the military rigidity of line, with penalties for looking in other than a prescribed direction, or for lifting the hand to allay a facial irritation, reaches a climax in the San Francisco schools. There, the boys, when lined up in front of the school, awaiting the tap of the bell, are required to stand with their arms folded across their chests, exactly in the prison attitude. When they move it is with the prison lockstep, and between rows of nails driven into the sidewalk, and woe be to the unlucky youth who steps over the line. The criticism of the method comes from a detective. The boys, he claims, are acquiring a habit which in later years will be a source of annoyance and a cause of suspicion. Discharged convicts, the detective asserts, frequently resume the prison habit of the lockstep and the folded arms when their minds are preoccupied, and to the veteran police officer the motion and the attitude are as distinctive as the striped suit. —New York Post.

Scalp Hunting for Pay.

It is not generally known in latter-day Minnesota history that the state treasury once paid out cash as bounties for Sioux Indian scalps, just as this and many other states are now paying for wolf scalps. State Treasurer Koerner, in looking over the 1836 report of State Treasurer Charles Schaff, discovered the following item among the disbursements of that year: "J. C. Davis, Sioux scalp, $25." This item occurs in the list of disbursements amounting to $7,870.06, under the head "Suppressing Indian War." The $25 paid to J. C. Davis for the Indian scalp in question, therefore, had its niche in the cause of suppressing, or spreading the Sioux outbreak. It doubtless strikes the general reader that $25 is rather small inducement for securing Sioux scalps. Few hunters to-day would care to contract for pelts of that kind for that figure. —Minneapolis Times.

The Oldest Lock in Existence.

"The oldest lock in existence is the one which formerly secured one of the doors of Nineveh," says the St. Louis Republic. "It is a gigantic affair, and the key to it, which is as large as one man can conveniently carry, reminds one of the Scriptural reference to such instruments being carried on the shoulder. The exact words are, 'And the key to the house of David I will lay upon his shoulder.' The key to the lock from Nineveh is nearly three and a half feet in length, and of the thickness of a four-inch drain tile."

Being Certain!

We know that many people who have bought Pianos from us have come here with the idea that, knowing nothing about Pianos themselves, they could put their trust in our judgment and feel safe.

Good reputation is a first requisite in business—especially a Piano business—and our reputation is so good that we have yet to hear of a buyer of one of our Pianos who wasn't perfectly satisfied.

Good Pianos only, and straight liberal methods of doing business, have built our immense trade.

Notice to the Public in General.

The American people shall have no need of the CHINAMAN in the future if every American Laundryman will supply the proper kind of work. Try us and be convinced that we are up-to-date, and that you would rather have AMERICANS by all odds to serve you. Think of the terrible odor that comes from a Chinese Laundry, and yet one half of the people don't know what causes it. Here it is in a Nut Shell. Could you for instance turn out first-class laundry in a room 12x20 where there is three or four living. Think of your laundry in a place of this kind, where they do cooking, smoke their opium and also sleep in same apartment. And stil what is more horrible is that all your clothes are sprinkled from the mouth. Think twice before you speak and have an American citizen to do your laundry by all odds.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

The District of Columbia is pleased with the election of McComas as Senator. If it must lose Mr. Gorman, who has been popular here because he has always looked carefully after the interests of the District, it desired to have a man not less friendly. Although legally a resident of Maryland, Mr. Gorman is to all intents and purposes a District man, his home being but a short distance away from Washington. Long residence and constant service in Congress for years have made him familiar with all projects coming before Congress, and experience has taught him how to overcome all obstacles that to a newcomer would appear to be insuperable. Mr. McComas served many years in Congress, most of the time on the District Committee, and, being a man of much tact, he won the favor of the people who live here by intelligent and alert labor in their behalf. Mr. McComas is not so mysterious as Senator Gorman. He is not a compromiser or a "conniver" among politicians. One of the comments made upon him here, when he was elected, was that in his service as Judge of the Supreme Court he has not quarreled with the lawyers practicing under him. The talk that used to be heard about him as a "Gorman Republican" loses its force now, since the Republicans have learned to win victories without the consent or advice of Mr. Gorman. If it is not improper to make a comparison of honorable Senators, it might be asserted that McComas is an improvement upon the average that has recently prevailed in the body that Mr. Hoar thinks has not deteriorated.

The Negro Poet Dunbar.

One of the most conspicuous figures about the Library of Congress is Paul Laurence Dunbar, who has made so creditable reputation as a poet. Mr. Dunbar is employed as one of the assistant librarians and has charge of the division of medicine, mathematics and the natural sciences. He enjoys the duties of his position, and all of his spare time is devoted to studying and writing. Mr. Dunbar has been more or less lionized since he came to Washington, and is extremely amiable in granting the various demands made upon him. On several occasions he has read selections from his own works, and, which is not always true of authors who give extracts from their own writings, he reads with expression and taste.

The Sick-Leave Habit of Clerks.

The severity of the language of a circular just issued by Secretary Gage about the sick leaves of absence and leave for the usual thirty days each year makes it evident that the Secretary has obtained the impression, or even gained the conviction, that the Treasury employes have abused the opportunities afforded them for getting not only thirty days of liberty each year when well, but thirty days for illness without loss of pay, whether sick or well. Every Administration takes up this subject with the determination at the beginning, to get for the Government, from the employes paid for services, a fair seven hours' work each day. As a matter of fact, it is but six and a half hours that the Government exacts, for out of the time between 9 and 4 o'clock a half hour is allowed for luncheon. Mr. Gage began by putting under surveillance every clerk in his department, and a shout of rage went up when it was found that many of them were in the habit of arriving at 9:30 or later, and that these late-comers "evened things up" by leaving a little earlier in the afternoon than the clerks who came at 9 o'clock precisely. It must be assumed that he has obtained trustworthy evidence that sick leaves were being obtained on false representations, for he has issued an order requiring a report from each head of a bureau of the leaves of absence of each employe to be rendered each month.

Florists Object to Government Flowers.

The florists of Washington are making an earnest effort to secure the passage of a resolution by Congress prohibiting the free distribution by officials of the Government of plants, cut flowers, foliage, etc. There are four conservatories and propagating gardens belonging to the Government in Washington. One is under the direction of the Superintendent of Public Buildings and Grounds, another is at the White House, a third at the Agricultural Department, and a fourth is the Botanic Gardens, near the Capitol, under the direction of the Joint Committee on Library of Congress. It has always been customary, as long as anybody can remember, for the people in charge of the establishments to distribute their surplus flowers among the official families of Washington and to loan plants and similar decorations for dinners, receptions and other entertainments, which, of course, cuts a good deal into the trade of the local florists.

SPORTS

BASKET BALL

The basket ball season closed for the team of the Plainfield Y. M. C. A. last evening, with an exciting game in the home gymnasium. The opposing team was from the St. Thomas Athletic Club, of New York. The Plainfield team finally won by a score of 13 to 10. One remarkable feature was that not a foul was called.

The Plainfield boys were at their best. But for a slight inaccuracy in goal throwing, their game was an excellent one. Smith played an unusually hard game. He was all over the room, but in the first half he rather neglected his opponent. In the second half his playing was really remarkable. Moraller and Long both won much applause by pretty backward throws that scored goals.

The game was rough from the start. Both teams played hard, but the local players had the best of the first half by a score of 6 to 0. In the second half, both sides scored frequently. Toward the last, the game was fiercely contested. Both sides showed a tendency to hug the ball. The Moraller brothers displayed their great powers at dodging. Egan outclassed his opponent and aided the forwards materially.

For a few minutes, the visitors took a sudden brace and threatened to win but they could not hold the pace.

During the intermissions, a game was played between the Students team and the "Big Five." When time was called the score stood 10 to 10. The Students were the first to score in the play off, winning 12 to 10.

The teams in the first game lined up as follows:

Y. M. C. A.		St. T. A. C.
E. Moraller	right forward	White
Long	left forward	Loeffler
Egan	centre	Dedinsky
Smith	right guard	Milsky

Goals from the field, E. Moraller, 3, Long, 1, Egan, 1, Smith, 3, M. Moraller, 1. White, 1, Leoffer, 1, Miller, 2, Geissler, 1. Fouls, 0. Referee, C. R. A. Heywood. Umpires, H. W. Lee, of New York, G. E. Fuller, of Plainfield. Timekeeper, Dr. Baker. Scorer, L. I. Van-Alstyne.

STREET RAILWAY ORDINANCE.

An ordinance locating the tracks of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company on North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue within the Borough of Fanwood, County of Union, and authorizing and empowering the construction and operation and maintenance of the same and granting permission for said Company to use electricity as the propelling power of its cars, and prescribing the terms and conditions upon which such location of the tracks and permission are granted. Whereas, The Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway, a corporation organized under the provisions of an act entitled, "An act to authorize the formation of traction companies for the construction and operation of street railways, or railroads operated as street railways, and to regulate the same," approved March fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, having first filed in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of New Jersey, a description of the routes, together with maps exhibiting the same, did present their petition or application to the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, praying the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood for its consent to the construction, operation and maintenance of a street railway in the Borough of Fanwood, and the right to locate its tracks conformably to the route filed in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of New Jersey, which route in the Borough of Fanwood is upon and along North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, and was set out in the said petition; and

Whereas, Public notice has been duly given of such application and of the intention of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood to consider the same, by publication, also by posting a copy of the said notice in five or more of the most public places in said Borough of Fanwood at least fourteen days prior to the date of the meeting of the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood; and

Whereas, Upon the day fixed by said notice and upon such days as the said hearing was adjourned to, public hearing was given to all persons desiring to be heard in favor of, or opposed to, or in any wise interested in the said application for the location of its tracks, and the said matter having been duly considered by the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, and the said Company having filed with the Clerk of said Borough the consent in writing of the owners or their duly authorized legal representatives of at least one-half in amount of the lineal feet of property on said North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, within the Borough of Fanwood and upon which permission to locate, operate and maintain said street railway is asked.

Now, therefore, be it ordained by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, as follows:

Section 1. That the tracks of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company be, and they are hereby located in the following avenues, in the said Borough of Fanwood, in the County of Union, to wit, as set out in the following description:

Beginning at a point in the centre line of Forrest Avenue where it is intersected by the line of the Township of Fanwood; thence along the centre line of Forrest Avenue southeasterly fifteen hundred and eighty (1580) feet to the centre line of Midway Avenue; thence along the centre line of Midway Avenue easterly twenty-five hundred and ninety-eight (2598) feet to centre line of North Avenue; thence along centre line of North Avenue easterly sixteen hundred and ninety (1690) feet to the line of the Township of Fanwood, conformable to the amended route of the new line of street railway and the map exhibiting the same, filed in the office of the Secretary of State of this State; and said Company is hereby given the right, power and authority to maintain and operate cars upon the said railway by electricity as the motive power. The said Company shall complete the construction of its whole line of railway within the Borough of Fanwood in the manner herein provided, and all its fixtures and appurtenances, and commence the operation of the same and the running of its cars for the transportation of passengers on or before December first, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, or this franchise shall be and become null and void and of no effect, unless the time for the completion of the same shall be extended by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood. If the said Company after the commencement of the operation of its said line of railway by the collection of fares thereon shall fail or neglect to operate the whole or any portion of the line hereby authorized daily and every day for the space of thirty consecutive days, or shall fail to operate the same for a total number of days exceeding thirty in any one year; all the rights, powers, privileges and every one of them of the said Company, its successors and assigns, under and by virtue of this ordinance, shall thereby cease and be determined and in either of such cases the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood expressly reserves the right to sell the said line at auction to the highest bidder who will operate it, or may cause the said railway, or any part or parts thereof, to be removed from the said avenues, and to sell and dispose of the materials thereof at public auction, and after paying all the expenses of such removal and auction sale, and repairs to the said avenues and the cost of restoring the same to its original condition, to pay the balance of such sale to the said company, its successors and assigns.

Section 2. The said Company shall construct, maintain and operate a double track street railway as aforesaid with the cross-overs, switches and sidings shown by the map hereinafter specifically referred to. The rails to be laid by said Company shall be of steel of the girder pattern of a weight not less than seventy pounds to the yard. And the said Company shall so construct and maintain the said railway that the top of the rails shall at all times be flush with the grade of the street or highway. The ties, spikes, and all other materials shall be of the best quality. The railway tracks of the said railway shall be laid as follows: One track on each side of the centre line of said avenues so that the inner rail thereof shall be distant two feet and three inches from said centre line, and the gauge of said tracks shall be four feet, eight and one-half inches. The said Company at its own cost and expense in all streets or avenues through which it shall lay tracks hereunder, shall pave between said tracks and between the rails thereof in a good, substantial and workmanlike manner with a telford or macadam pavement to a depth of four inches and shall maintain the same flush with the rail of said tracks. The railway tracks and macadam or Telford pavement shall be laid and constructed in the best workmanlike manner and to the satisfaction of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood or other committee thereof having charge of the streets.

Section 3. During the construction of the said railway, lighted lanterns shall be kept and maintained by said Company from sunset to sunrise at each and every night, not less than fifty feet and not more than one hundred feet apart along every part of said avenues, where the work of construction shall have been begun and not completed. The work in all other respects shall be thoroughly protected so as to prevent accident. In case any accident shall happen to any person or damage to property is caused, because or by reason of any work connected with such construction of said railway, or afterwards because or by reason of the operation thereof, or through carelessness or negligence of any of the Company's officers, servants, agents or employees, the said Company shall indemnify and save the said Borough of Fanwood and the said Mayor and Council from all costs, loss or damage by reason thereof.

Section 4. The Company shall at all times keep in good condition and repair to the satisfaction of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, (repaving, if necessary) the paving between the tracks, between the rails and one foot six inches outside the same to the depth of four inches.

Section 5. That said Company shall lay its rails to conform to the grade of said North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, at the time of laying of said rails, and in case of any change of the grade or of the surface of said North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, or any part thereof, at any time, then the said Company at its own cost and expense shall immediately on request made in writing by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, so change the location of its tracks and the surface or grade of such part of said avenues as to conform to such change of surface of said avenues or change of grade, or any newly-established grade.

Section 6. That no change, addition, alteration of gauge or the location of the tracks, sidings, switches, cross-overs, poles or overhead structures of said railway company shall be made therein or thereabouts at any time by said railway company after the same has been first erected and approved by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, without official action granting permission for such change, alteration or addition being previously taken by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood.

Section 7. The said Company and its officers, agents, servants or employees, shall not, nor shall any or either of them be allowed to shovel, throw or place any snow, ice, slush or any other material along the side of said track or tracks, in such manner as to obstruct or hinder other public travel thereon or on the said avenues, but when removing the snow, ice, slush, or other material from its said tracks, the said Company and its officers, agents, servants, and employees shall without unnecessary delay and with a sufficient force of men, cause the same to be levelled between the said tracks and the gutter line on each side thereof.

Section 8. No salt shall be used by said Company on any part of its tracks, except on the grades, curves and cross-overs without the consent of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, or the proper Borough officers, nor shall any car be allowed to stand in or to obstruct any cross street, or to stand upon any cross-walk for any purpose whatever, or to stand or remain in any one position for more than five minutes at any one time, except when such car shall be unavoidably obstructed or detained by accident or breakdown, without fault or negligence of said Company, under a penalty of ten dollars to be paid by said Company to the Borough Collector with costs of collection for each and every violation of this section.

Section 9. That where said railway racks shall pass over culverts or gutters, the bottom of which shall be below the grade line of such railroad, iron girders or proper supports of the most approved pattern shall be provided by the Company and such necessary iron bridges or iron drains shall be constructed across the tracks and shall be so constructed as not to hinder or obstruct the flow of surface water underneath the tracks of said railroad.

Section 10. The Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood on behalf of said Borough, reserves the right to dig or excavate in or upon any of the said avenues for the purpose of laying, examining, replacing or repairing any sewer, water, or gas pipes, or for the purpose of making any other public improvements, or for doing any other public work whatsoever, and the said railway company shall have no redress or claim for damages because of any detention or obstruction to travel on the said railway arising therefrom. Provided, that such work shall be done as quickly as possible without causing unnecessary delay in the operation of said railroad; and provided further, that if any such improvement, or repairing, replacing, laying or re-laying or examining can be made or done in any feasible or practical way, without obstructing the operation of said railroad, then and in such case it shall be the duty of the party doing such work to do the same in such manner as last aforesaid.

Section 11. That the said Company shall remove any dirt, gravel or any material or obstruction placed by the said Company or its agents or servants on any of the avenues within three days after the service on an officer or servant of said Company of written notice so to do by the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood or its duly authorized agent. In case the said Company shall fail to remove such material or obstruction and to put the said avenues in as good order as before such material or obstruction was placed thereon by said Company, the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood may order and cause the said material or obstruction to be removed and the said avenues to be put in complete order and repair at the expense of said Company.

Section 12. That all persons driving vehicles upon the railroad tracks of the said Company in any of the said avenues when met or overtaken by a car of the Company shall on being warned by a ringing of a bell or gong or on request of the conductor or motorman of such car, as soon as possible, turn and drive his vehicle entirely off of such track, so as to allow such car to pass; it being understood that the cars of said Company shall have the right of way over the tracks of the Company, (except at crossings where the public shall have the first right of way over and across the road and tracks of said Company.) And the driver of any vehicle for the violation of any of the provisions of this section shall forfeit and pay to the Borough Collector for the use of the Borough a penalty of ten dollars to be recovered before any justice of the peace of the said Borough.

Section 13. The cars to be used on said railway shall be well lighted and properly heated; they shall be kept clean and have proper bells or gongs, which shall be rung or sounded before such car reaches the crossings of any street intersecting any of the said avenues and whenever necessary to give warning of the approach of such car; the said cars shall be run at a speed not greater than ten miles an hour, and each car shall be provided with the necessary fenders of the most approved pattern, and such cars shall be run at an average headway of not longer than fifteen minutes, between the hours of six o'clock A. M. and ten o'clock P. M., and from ten o'clock P. M. to midnight, such cars shall be run as the travel may demand or warrant, but in any case the average headway shall not be longer than one-half hour; all cars on the said railroad shall run the entire length of the line of railroad tracks hereby authorized to be constructed. The Company shall from time to time diminish the headway of its cars as the increase of travel shall demand. All cars placed upon the line of said Company shall be of the most approved pattern; and said Company shall maintain gates upon the sides of the platforms of the cars wherever there shall be a double track, so that the ingress and egress to and from said cars can only be had from the side of the car nearest the curb.

Section 14. That for the purpose of supplying light, heat and power for propelling cars on said railway, permission is hereby given to the said Traction Company, and the right is hereby granted to said Company to erect poles and string the necessary wires thereon upon the following terms and conditions:

The poles to be used for the equipping of said railway for operation by electricity shall be of iron, similar to those used by the Plainfield Street Railway Company for that purpose upon its Netherwood line in the city of Plainfield; said poles shall be at least twenty feet in height above the surface of the ground and shall be set and located opposite each other as near as may be on both sides of said avenues and within the line of said avenues and at the points designated and shown upon a certain map entitled, "Map showing proposed location of tracks or rails of a double track street railway, also showing proposed location of poles for support of overhead construction for trolley wires of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company, in the Borough of Fanwood, County of Union and State of New Jersey," which map is on file with the Borough Clerk and is hereby made a part of this ordinance for the purpose of showing the true location of the tracks hereby authorized to belaid upon the said avenues by said Company and for the purpose of specifically designating and prescribing the several places within the line of said avenues where such poles shall be located and set and the location of said tracks and poles therein shown is hereby approved and adopted by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood.

The said poles shall be set in the ground to a depth of not less than six feet and the hole in which said poles shall be set shall be not less than one foot in diameter and the excavation or space around said poles shall be filled with broken stone and concrete to the surface of the ground and the same shall be thoroughly packed and rammed.

The wires and overhead construction attached to the said poles for the purpose of furnishing power for the propulsion of the cars of said Company, shall be not less than eighteen feet above the grade of said avenues and said overhead construction and wires shall be similar in character and size to the overhead construction now used by the Plainfield Street Railway Company upon its Netherwood line within the City of Plainfield and the manner of stringing all of said wires, shall be similar to that now used by the said Plainfield Street Railway Company upon its Netherwood line within the City of Plainfield, which overhead construction of poles and wires is hereby approved and designated as a pattern or model construction to be observed and followed by the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company in its overhead construction of poles and wires, prescribed in this ordinance. The wires strung upon said poles shall be properly guarded with other wires when required by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood. The poles, when erected, shall be properly painted and shall together with all parts of said overhead construction, be maintained in a safe condition at all times, and shall be kept in thorough repair, and said poles shall be kept well painted.

Section 15. The period or term granted to the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company by virtue of this ordinance for the purposes herein set forth shall be for the term of ninety-nine years commencing July first, 1898, and ending July first, 1997.

Section 16. That for every mile of road owned or operated, or that may hereafter be owned or operated by said Company within the limits of the Borough of Fanwood (whether said road be single or double track) said Company shall pay or cause to be paid to the Collector of Taxes of said Borough, for the use of said Borough, the following sums as license fees; to wit: For the year beginning January 1st, 1899, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the year beginning January first, 1900, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the year beginning January first, 1901, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the year beginning January first, 1902, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the year beginning January first, 1903, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the five years succeeding January first, 1904, three per cent. annually of the gross earnings of said Company, with a minimum payment, however, during said period of five years at the rate of two hundred and fifty dollars a mile per year; and for each and every succeeding year thereafter, five per cent. of the gross earnings of said Company, with a minimum payment, however, at the rate of two hundred and fifty dollars a mile per year. The gross earnings in this section referred to shall be construed to include all earnings of said Company and full proportion of all earnings on full traffic to be calculated according to the proportion between the entire length of the journey and the number of miles travelled within the limits of the Borough of Fanwood, all of said payments to be made each and every year on or before the last day of each year.

That to enable the Borough to ascertain from time to time the gross earnings of the said Company the books of the Company shall be open for inspection by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood or by such other person or persons as the said Mayor and Council for that purpose shall designate at the expense of the said Company. The payments provided for in this section shall be in lieu of all license fees for cars whether provided for in prior ordinances or not.

for Men, Boys and Children, to be sold at 50c on the dollar.

Sale commencing Saturday, April 2d, at 8:30 a. m., and to last for three weeks only.

It is early in the season to sell at a discount, but manufacturers are often pinched for cash even early in the season and are compelled to unload. The cash reputation of our store makes it a ready target, and the financially distressed manufacturers hearing that we were in a position to buy for spot cash, and knowing that we had five stores to supply, asked us to make an offer, which we did, and it was accepted. A great opportunity for money-saving clothing buyers. The very finest Spring and Summer clothing in the world will be sold at retail for less than one-third the price that other stores ask for the same goods.

CONFERENCE ASSIGNS METHODIST CLERGY.

Only One Change in the Churches in Plainfield.

GRACE HAS A NEW PASTOR.

REV. GEORGE W. GARDNER WILL SUCCEED REV. J. H. JOHNSTON.

Rev. G. W. Smith, of Plainfield, Will Continue as Presiding Elder of the Elizabeth District—Rev. C. R. Barnes is Returned to Jersey City—Rev. Mr. Johnston Transferred to Another Conference—The Question of Sabbath Observance Vigorously Discussed—Plea to the Legislature to Stop Secularization of Day.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

East Orange, April 6.—To the great majority of Methodists the Newark Conference yesterday transacted the most important and interesting business, that of appointing the pastors to to various churches for the ensuing year. Only one change was made in the Methodist clergy of Plainfield, and that was expected owing to the decision of Rev. J. H. Johnston to leave Grace church for a pastorate on Staten Is and.

As predicted exclusively in yesterday's Press, Rev. G. W. Smith, of Plainfield, was not transferred as presiding elder of the Elizabeth district. Rev. C. R. Barnes, formerly pastor of the First M. E. church in Plainfield, was returned to the Washington church at Jersey City.

Rev. J. H. Johnston was transferred to the East New York Conference in order to become pastor of the church at Mariner's Harbor.

The appointments for the Elizabeth district are as follows:

Presiding Elder, G. W. Smith; Bound Brook, A. L. Wilson; Cranford, Alfred Evans; Dunellen, E. S. Jamison; Elizabeth, Fulton street, J. Howard; Park, F. Simonds; St. James, J. A. Owen; Flanders and Darkestown, C. E. Walton; Glen Gardner, F. J. Tomlinson; Metuchen, C. W. Demmings; Perth Amboy, W. W. Trumbower; Plainfield, First, W. C. Snodgrass; Grace, George W. Gardiner; Monroe Avenue, W. C. O Donnell; Rahway, First, William M'Cain; Trinity, W. H. Ruth; Roselle, R. W. Elliott; Somerville, J. R. Bryan.

An important part of the day's discussions was in reference to Sabbath observance, which will be of more or less interest to Plainfield inasmuch as the question has become very prominent there.

The report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance was presented by Rev. William R. Kiefer. He deplored the increasing tendency toward Sabbath desecration by bicycle riding, hilarity, baseball, Sunday newspapers and excursions. The committee presented resolutions indorsing the efforts of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the American Sabbath Union, asking members of the church to abstain from reading the Sunday newspapers, from riding in trolley cars, or using bicycles for pleasure, and from transacting unnecessary business on Sunday. The committee thought that there was need of a legislative enactment to stop the increasing secularization of the day.

CIVIL LAW UNFIT TO MAKE A DAY SACRED.

Law Unable to Determine Religious Action of a Man.

DR. LEWIS' LAST ARGUMENT.

ACTUAL CHRISTIANS MUST BE DISTURBED TO CONVICT.

Under the Present Condition of Sunday Traffic the Person to be Disturbed Must Go to the Place Where the Selling is Going on and Witness it as a Part of His Religious Observance to Become a Competent Witness, and Dr. Lewis Does Not Think That It Will Ever Be Done.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—The following testimony represents the second religious issue in the Carbone trial for Sunday selling, namely: "Disturbing the religious observance of Sunday as the Sabbath." It is from the official record of the first trial:

Irving L. Brady, sworn for the plaintiff in rebuttal. Direct examination by Mr. Marsh.

Q. Are you a member of the Bar? A. Yes sir.

Q. Are you connected with any religious body in this city? A. Yes sir.

Q. What? A. The First Baptist church, Third Street mission.

Q. Do you know the defendant, Carbone? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you know where his place of business is on North avenue? A. Yes sir.

Q. Have you observed the manner in which he conducts his business on Sunday? A. Yes sir.

Q. Will you describe it to the jury? A. I have passed there quite frequently on the Sabbath and noticed that the doors were open; the place having the usual signs of being open for business; there were people about the door and inside, mostly young men—and older men; there were glasses on the counter. Mr. Carbone was back by the counter, and it had every appearance that it has on a week day.

Q. Did you observe whether any goods were outside of the store, exposed for sale? A. I did not observe that fact, Mr. Marsh.

Q. Was there any attempt to make these sales that you have spoken of private, by having the curtains down, or anything of that sort? A. Not as far as I could see.

Mr. Marsh: I will ask this question subject to Mr. Hetfield's objection.

Q. What have you to say as to whether the business as carried on as you have testified, within your observation, by Mr. Carbone, was or was not so conducted as not to disturb the religious observance of Sunday as the Sabbath?

Mr. Hetfield: I object.

Mr. Marsh. That is all.

Not cross-examined.

Analyze. Sunday cannot be disturbed. A person or persons must be disturbed if any case is made out under the ordinance. The disturbance must be physical, mental, or spiritual. The person to be disturbed must go to the place where selling is done and witness it by purchasing or tanding by while another purchases. He must do this as a part of his religious observance of Sunday in order to become a competent witness. The above testimony was of no legal value, because it was only the general expression of opinion as to the right or wrong of selling on Sunday; yet we must believe that the city secured the best witnesses it could.

It is evident that the ordinance is so religious that it is impossible to make it operative. Before it can be permanently successful, the city must fix two standards for these religious tests.

1. How religious must a man be on "Saturday?" 2 How and to what extent must religious men be disturbed on Sunday? It must be religious men who are disturbed. An irreligious man cannot be religiously disturbed. Under the second test the city must draw its witnesses from the ranks of religious men. If it does not fix the necessary standards each case will depend on the religious complexion of the jury and of the court. Confessedly, it is a difficult ordinance to enforce. In a word, it will neither hold water nor cider.

"Sabbath observance" as a religious question is brought into disrepute by every effort to determine the quality of religious actions by civil law. Aside from the theological inconsistencies on which the "Puritan theory" of Sunday is based, Sunday laws have been the most powerful influence in promoting Sunday holidayism. The result in Plainfield will follow in the same line. This is 1898.

RECEIVED STOLEN GOODS

THE CHARGE ON WHICH FRANK HAULENBECK WAS ARRESTED.

His Seventeen Year Old Brother-in-Law Confessed to the Theft—Property Was Taken From the Central Railroad.

The police visited the storehouse of Frank Haulenbeck, the junk dealer, yesterday. As a result, the proprietor was placed under arrest and held for a hearing, charged with receiving stolen goods. His brother-in-law, James Fillmore, was arrested on the charge of larceny.

For some time the employes of the Jersey Central Railroad have been missing various articles from the battery wells and supply stations. The strange disappearance of the railroad property led to an investigation on the part of the railroad detectives. For sometime Detective Dougherty has been working up the case. He had his suspicions but it was only yesterday that the necessary evidence was secured.

Frank Haulenbeck lives at 847 North avenue. With him lives his father-in-law, John W. Phillimore, and the latter's son, James, seventeen years old. Yesterday, young Phillimore was suddenly confronted by the police and Detective Dougherty. He was charged with stealing battery copper and zinc from the battery wells bstween Plainfield and Fanwood on several occasions. He broke down and confessed the theft.

A complaint was then made against him by Detective Dougherty and a warrant issued by Justice Moffett. He declared that he had taken the stolen property to Haulenbeck who had allowed him three cents a pound for it. The value of all the stolen copper and zinc was placed at $5.

A warrant was then issued by Justice Moffett for Frank Haulenbeck on the charge of receiving stolen goods. The complaint was made by his father-in law. Haulenbeck appeared before the Justice yesterday afternoon, and was held under $200 bail to appear for a hearing this afternoon. Haulenbeck once served a year in State prison on the same charge.

Phillimore was arrested by Sergeant Kiely and Roundsman Flynn yesterday afternoon. When arraigned before Justice Moffett, he pleaded guilty to the charge and was held under $100 bail to appear as a witness in the case against his brother-in law.

EXTRA!

NO MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT UNTIL MONDAY.

STATE PAPER WILL NOT BE MADE PUBLIC TILL LATER.

The Reason is That Time is Wanted to Allow Americans to Leave Havana.

SPECIALS TO THE DAILY PRESS.

WASHINGTON, APRIL 6, 2:45 O'CLOCK.—IT IS ANNOUNCED THAT THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE WILL NOT BE SENT TO CONGRESS TODAY.

THIS POSTPONEMENT IS SAID TO HAVE BEEN CAUSED FOR THE REASON THAT SUFFICIENT TRANSPORTATION FOR THE AMERICANS AT HAVANA CANNOT BE SECURED TODAY.

Washington, April 6.—The President's message to Congress has been delayed.

The State Department is awaiting the departure of Consul General Lee and the Americans from Cuba.

The Americans cannot get sufficient transportation at present.

The following is a correct forecast of the important provisions of the delayed message.

The message will be firm and vigorous in tone.

It will recommend that the President be empowered to use armed land and Naval force to expell Spain from Cuba.

The qualification "at his discretion," so strongly urged by one element of Congress, will not be included in the message.

It will be left to Congress to say whether authority shall be exercised by the President immediately or at his discretion.

There will be no recommendation for the recognition of the Cuban independence.

The President is malterably opposed to such action at the present time.

The official announcement was brought from the White House to Congress.

Chairman Davis, of the Foreigh affairs committee, stated the lives of the Americans in Havana, would be in danger if message was read today.

He said that they were unable to leave Havana today.

The Senate agreed to wait until Monday for the message.

They will take no action until then.

The Queen of Spain has taken the affair in her own hands and promises a peaceful settlement. For these reasons President McKinley has decided to delay the message.

Havana, April 6.—Consul General Lee was ordered by the State Department at Washington to leave Havana at 1 o'clock this afternoon. He is still on the island.

Washington, April 6.—The ambassadors of Great Britain, France, Germany and Italy yesterday agreed to a joint note offering their services to avert war.

London, April 6.—One of the officials in the highest authority has made a statement that the Brittish government assures the United States of her fullest and most cordial sympaty in the Cuban policy of the United States.

Washington, April 6.—The U. S. troops are being ordered to move south tonight. Secretaries Alger and Long are sending messages direct from the White House.

RESERVES NEWLY UNIFORMED.

The Entire Battalion of the East Equipped for the Mantauk Trip.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Hoboken, April 6.—The entire Battalion of the East, Naval Reserves, was fully equipped with uniforms on board the ship Portsmouth last Monday night, after the general inspection order by Commander Washington Irving, for the purpose. The detail which has been ordered to take the monitor Montauk from League Island to Portland, Me., was inspected first and every man whose uniform was wholly or in part not in good condition for actual service was fitted out with new goods.

When the officers were through with their work every man on the ship had had his kit inspected. There was no drill as had been ordered, the inspection consuming so much time that it was dispensed with.

It was announced that the Montauk was put into drydock at League Island and that it was estimated that one day's work while in drydock would suffice to put the boat in seaworthy condition. The detailed men were told to inspect orders to go to League Island on Thnrsday or Friday.

WAR SPIRIT AT THE 'PLAINS.

Young Men are Talking of Forming a Militia Company.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Scotch Plains, April 5.—The war spirit has reached Scotch Plains. The young men are now busily talking over the question of forming a militia company to take the field in case of war with Spain. E. L. Hand is at the head of the movement. While no steps have been taken toward the regular organization of a company, a number have expressed themselves as willing to go. It is understood that an inquiry will be made of the State authorities to find out if the company will be accepted if organized.

—The monthly business meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held as usual tomorrow at 3:30 o'clock at 129 East Front strert.

—VanEmburgh & Son are fully justified in talking so much about their line of sets for ladies shirt waist for they certainly have a handsome assortment.

SPANISH VIEWS WERE RECEIVED BY HISSES.

An Audience Showed its Feeling in a Vigorous Way.

AT THE FIREMEN'S BENEFIT.

PICTURES OF UNITED STATES BATTLESHIPS RECEIVED WITH APPLAUSE.

The Views Were Shown on Canvas—Councilman William N. Runyon Was Master of Ceremonies, and Added Much to the Pleasure of the Entertainment—Boys Club Made a Great Hit, and Did Also Benjamin LaVere in His Cornet Solos—Committee in Charge Deserve Credit for its Success.

Judging by the expression of feeling at the entertainment given in Washington Hall last evening under the auspices of the Exempt Firemen's Association for the benefit of the disabled firemen of the city, it was plain to be seen that everyone present stands in favor of Cuba and against Spain. During the evening several pictures were shown on a canvass representing Spanish soldiers, ships, etc, and the outbursts of hisses showed conclusively where the audience stood. On the hand pictures of the United States battleships received the loudest applause, as did also pictures of Grant, Lincoln and McKinley. The audience was hardly able to control itself.

Councilman William N. Runyon was master of ceremonies and announced the various numbers on the programme. He also favored the audience with a number of vocal solos. The appearance of the Plainfield Mandolin and Banjo Club was a great success. Benj. J. LaVere rendered two cornet solos, accompanied by his orchestra, and they received a flattering reception.

The projectoscope was manipulated by Thomas Schaffer and William Townley and the greatest satisfaction was given. "Take Back Your Gold" was illustrated on the canvas and sung by Alfred Springer with great effect.

During the entertainment Fred Van-Eps and Mr. Smith, of the Mandolin and Banjo Club gave a banjo duet, accompanied by Bert Harold on the piano.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of T. O. Doane, Joseph Hubbard, William A. Woodruff, Edward Vermeule, D. W. Littell, E. M. Laing, and to them is due great credit for the excellent entertainment provided.

JURY FOR MURDER TRIAL

ALLEGED SLAYERS OF FARMER PITTS TO BE TRIED AT MAY TERM.

An Extra Large Panel Drawn by Sheriff Kirk Yesterday—Judge Benj. A. Vail Presided for the First Time.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, April 6.—Judge Benjamin A. Vail made his first appearance on the bench of the county court yesterday at a special session held for the drawing of the panel of petit jurors for the May term.

Judge Vail was very prompt, and when he came upon the bench the only court officials present were County Detective Keron, Court Interpreter Schulthies and one or two constables.

The trial of George Manshanda and Louis Roesel, the murderers of Farmer James Pitts at Summit last summer, will take place at the May term, and accordingly Judge Vail directed that 54 jurors be selected instead of the ordinary panel of 48 jurors.

Sheriff Kirk drew the jurors, and they were accepted by the court in part as follows:

Plainfield—John T. Odam, Peter W. Mundy, William H. Drayton, Bethule T. Barnes, Lloyd D. Floyd.

Westfield—August Brown, Adolph Ganzel, Joseph A. Fairborn.

Cranford—George W. Westervelt, David Rankin, Jr.

Springfield—Charles F. Langenhan, George W. French.

Clark—Fred Acken, John Stelle.

Fanwood — Louis E. Kennedy, George F. Carter.

New Providence—John R. Burnett, Sr., Leander D. Osborn.

THE MULES RAMMED A TROLLEY CAR HARD.

A Hay Carter Who Declined to Vacate Street Car Tracks.

HE PAID $8 FOR IT IN COURT.

THE DASH BOARD OF THE TROLLEY CAR WAS BROKEN.

Charles McIntee Was the Man Who Guided the Gallant Mules Into the Car—Returning From Newark, Where He Had Delivered Hay, He Was in No Mood to be Trifled With by a Street Car—Claims He Had Not Drunk any Fiery Liquid—One Mule Was Badly Cut—Case Heard in Court

The hay carter opened the battle. He declined to vacate the tracks. The trolley car was not in a position to leave them. Then the hay-carter turned his gallant team of mules at the approaching car and rammed it with the pole. The crash that followed signalized Charles McEntee's first acquaintance with the inside of the Plainfield lock up.

McEntee was in the employ of Ellsworth Johnson, the Dunellen hay-carter. Yesterday morning he drove a big load of hay over to Newark. He returned in the afternoon. It was 8:30 o'clock last evening as McEntee's mules plodded steadily through the snow on East Fifth street bound for home.

McEntee says he did not drink anything at Newark. Neither did he partake at any of the road houses on the return, he says. He cannot explain, however, how he happened to be in the condition he was last evening. His only explanation for the accident was that he did not see the car as he was talking to a boy who had begged a ride from Fanwood.

The trolley car was bound for Netherwood in charge of Motorman John Powers and Conductor Philip McGuire. On East Fifth street the motorman noticed a team approaching on the track. He rang his bell. The team kept steadily on. Again he rang but with no better result. Then he yelled at the driver. The next moment the pole of the hay-rick struck the head light of the car, crashed through it and then demolished the dash-board of the car.

Powers fled within the car for safety.

The hayrick was drawn by a pair of mules. One of them was thrown down and badly cut by the collision. The other escaped. McEntee refused to move his share of the wreck from the tracks. Then Patrolman Higgins arrived on the scene and compelled the haycarter to take his mules and wagon out of the way of the car.

After going a short distance, the hayrick collapsed with a broken kingpin. Higgins took the horses to Coles' stable and the driver to the lockup.

This morning, McEntee was arraigned before City Judge DeMeza on the charge of being drunk and of reckless driving. He pleaded not guilty. The Judge heard the testimony and decided he was guilty. McEntee was given his choice between a fine of $8 and thirty days in the county jail.

TO PROTECT GAME BIRDS.

Commissioners Hunting for Men Who Kill Them Out of Season.

The State Fish and Game Commission has opened a war upon the marketmen who are dealing in quail, partridge and other game birds which are now protected by the game laws of this State.

It is claimed that hundreds of quail are sold in violation of the law every day and that restaurant proprietors and others who purchase the birds are equally guilty with the marketmen.

The open season closed in New York State on Jan. 1, and the law makes it a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of $25 for each bird, for any person to kill or have in his or her possession any bird being killed after that date. The law provides, however, that these birds may be exposed for sale providing they shall have been killed three hundred miles out of the State.

The commissioners claim that many of the birds exposed for sale were killed within the prescribed limit and that some have been killed within the State. It has been ascertained that birds have been killed unlawfully and shipped to points south and west for reshipment to New York in order to dodge the three-hundred mile clause of the law.

Gas Company Elect.

The Plainfield Gas Light Company held the annual meeting yesterday and elected the following directors: Harry G Runkle, A. G. Brunson, William Runkle, F. A. Pope and E. G. Pope.

PLAN OF SPANISH ORIGIN

Madrid Cabinet Wanted Europe to Intervene—Believed Great Britain's Position Will Nullify the Proposal—France Was the Prime Mover in the Suggested Mediation—Communications Are Still Being Exchanged Between Continental Powers

London, April 6.—The movement of the powers of Europe for a joint offer of mediation between the United States and Spain has received a severe, and probably fatal, rebuff in the form of a definite refusal upon the part of the British Government to participate in it.

Many conflicting and erroneous hints regarding this scheme to bring the Hispano-American quarrel under the jurisdiction of the "consort of Europe" have been telegraphed from the different European capitals. From the highest authorities the Associated Press has obtained an outline of the deals of the movement, which has been learned by London diplomats. The project is distinctly of Spanish origin, and was set on foot by two influences, official and personal, the former requesting the good offices of the Chancelleries of Europe to prevent war, while the Queen Regent attempted personaly to influence the sovereigns.

It is understood that the tenor of these communications was to the effect that European interests are threatened by what Spain terms "the pretensions of the United States to the right to interfere in colonial matters."

France, not Austria, was the prime mover in the suggested mediation and by her counsels it was suggested to the British Foreign Office that the powers unite in a note to the United States and Spain, offering to mediate in the disputes between these two countries. Great Britain, however, definitely refused to join in the movement, stating in substance that the Cuban question did not concern her, and while it was not actually announced that she sympathizes with American intervention to end the war in Cuba, such sympathy is a fact.

Communications looking to mediation are still being exchanged between the continental powers; but the latter recognize that Great Britain's refusal to co-operate will rob the movement of much of its weight.

The Emeperor of Austria is the most deeply interested from certain standpoints, but financial interests seem to have actuated France even more than dynastic interest actuated Emperor Francis Joseph. Emperor William of Germany is known to be lukewarm in the matter, but there is reason to believe he has learned that the majority of Germans are unwilling that Germany should oppose the United States.

It is still uncertain whether the continental powers will finally offer mediation. Now that Great Britain has given the matter a cold shoulder the diplomats do not believe the United States would accept such an offer, the combination being as evidently biased in favor of Spain.

The foregone conclusion and chief importance of the movement, in the opinion of a diplomat who is conversant with the situation, is that it will probably have the effect of widening the cleavage between Great Britain and other nations, and of strengthening the growing sympathy and community of interests of the United States and Great Britain.

Spain's present efforts to secure the mediation of the Pope are now supposed to be due to the knowledge that European mediation will probably be a fiasco.

Known in Washington.

Washington, April 6.—The diplomatic corps is fully advised of the telegraphic exchange now going on between the capitals of Europe and is on the qui vive. One of the members of the diplomatic corps expressively stated the diplomatic view of the situation by saying:

"The accord or concert of the great powers is like a concert of musicians, the first requisite being that the instruments are brought into complete harmony. That is what is being done now—the instruments are being tuned to the key preparatory to sounding the first note."

It is known at the embassies and legations that France and Austria are most active in endeavoring to bring about a common basis for concerted action. It is understood also that the exchange has proceeded sufficiently to acquaint the powers with the fact that any steps they may take toward mediation will be accepable to Spain. There is not the same assurances that it will be acceptable to the United States, and, indeed, it is the prevailing feeling at the foreign establishments in Washington—and this feeling has undoubtedly been communicated to the powers in the European concert—that the tendency in the Untes State is against any mediation from foreign sources. This is regarded as making the action of the powers much more difficult. It was said to-day that mediation by the powers would be based on the willingness of both parties to accept it.

A distinction is made in this case from that of the concert of the powers when they intervened to stop the Turko-Russia war, and when Russia, Germany and France combined to compel Japan to relinguish the Liao Tung peninsula as part of her war indemnity from China. In both of those cases the European powers carried their action to the point of a positive demand, backed up with a show of force.

It is said among diplomatic officials that this attitude was due to the character of the combatants, Greece, Turkey, China and Japan, it is said, not having attained that status before the world that the United Staes and Spain occupy. For that reason, it is pointed out, the action of the powers in the present crisis would be purely of a friendly character, carefully designed to avoid wounding the feelings of either party, and expressly based on their willingness to accept this medium of securing continued peace. As already stated, the understanding in diplomatic circles here, based on late advices, is that Spain stands ready to accept this mediation, while the unofficial indications are that the United States will not accept it.

The Associated Press bulletin from London saying that Great Britain had finally declined to enter the concert of the powers, places a new and most important condition on this European movement, and one which may finally defeat it. It has been known here that Great Britain was holding out most strongly against any tender of mediation, on the ground that it would look like outside pressure to force the hand of the United States.

The attitude of Great Britain—and this view has been made known to the State Department—has been that the war in Cuba should cease in the interest of humanity at large. The French Ambassador maintains his usual reserve, but it is known that he looks forward to definite action on the part of the powers almost any moment. The Austrian Minister, Mr. Von Hengelmuller, denies himself to all callers and there is the most rigid secrecy as to his communications with the State Department.

VICTIMS OF THE FLOOD.

Shawneetown's Death List May Not Exceed Thirty—Appeals for Aid.

Shawneetown, Ill., April 6.—Twenty-three known dead, a possibility that the list may reach thirty, 1,500 persons in actual need of the necessaries of life, 700 homeless and damage to the amount of $200,000 is the net result of the flood which swept through Shawneetown late on Sunday afternoon.

Not one of the bodies has been recovered, and it is not likely that any will be until the waters subside, which will be in ten days or a fortnight.

There is no danger of further damage to the town unless more storms should set in, and even then it is difficult to see how matters can be made worse than they now are. The entire town is buried under ten to fifteen feet of water with the exception of the houses on the embankment immediately fronting the Ohio River. All of these have water in the cellars and the most of them are flooded to the second story.

The extent of the flood is best shown by the fact that from Shawneetown inward to Ridgeway, fully 12 miles, and to the southward for an equal distance the country is submerged.

In addition to the pressing necessity for food to sustain life, 700 persons have been driven from their homes with no clothing but what they wore on their backs at the time they were overtaken by the flood.

Mayor Carney has appealed for money and clothing. He says these articles were more needed than food. The Louisville and Nashville Railroad has contributed $500 to the relief fund. Already Carmi, McLeansboro and Mt. Vernon have sent $3,000 worth of provisions. Two boatloads of provisions have been received from Evansville, Ind.

CAPT. SIGSBEE TESTIFIES.

Says a Spanish Mine Blew Up the Maine—Members Think War is Inevitable.

Washington, April 6.—Capt. Sigsbee, in the course of his examination before the House Committee on Foreign Affairs yesterday, stated it to be his opinion that the Maine was blown up by a submarine mine located by the Spanish authorities. As to whether it was fired by the Spanish authorities or not he declined to express an opinion.

He told the committee what he had testified to before the board of inquiry about the buoy to which the Maine was anchored being the most unfrequented buoy in the harbor. The position in which the ship was placed, he said, was such that he could have fired upon both forts at the same time.

Discussing the probabilities of the situation, Capt. Sigsbee said that if the United States were but a little better prepared in some respects regarding which he did not go into details, we could laugh at Spain's efforts and equipment alike. Delay in bringing matters to a crisis, in his opinion, was to the benefit of Spain rather than to this country. Personally he was ready for a contest.

The members of the committee, from the information they have, believe war is inevitable unless Spain makes a square backdown. An intimation is thrown out that a declaration of war will not be made just yet, in any event, because Consul-General Lee has cabled that it will require several days to get the Americans off the island.

Andree May Be Alive.

Victoria, B. C., April 6.—Jack Carr, ex-United States mail carrier, arrived at Departure Bay yesterday from St. Michael by way of Dawson with advices from Andree, who left Davies Island in July, 1897, in a balloon to find the North Pole. The news of the arrival of Carr with advices from Andree was telegraphed from Departure Bay upon the arrival of the steamer on which Carr traveled from St. Michael. No details were given beyond the fact that Carr had such advices, and nothing further is obtainable until the steamer, arrives at Vancouver or Victoria, some time to-day.

To Protect Spaniards Here.

Washington, April 6.—Arrangements are being made for the protection of Spanish subjects in this country and Americans in Spain and her possessions. Minister Woodford has arranged to go to the British Embassy in Madrid if his life should be threatened. It is probable that the Spaniards in the United States will be under the protection of the French Ambassador in Washington and French Concular officers throughout the country. British Consuls at Spanish ports will in all likelihood afford protection and asylum to Americans in Spanish territory.

Spanish Troops Sail This Way.

Madrid, April 6.—Two companies of artillery and two battalions of Chasseurs sailed for the Canaries yesterday. The crew of the French training ship Iphigenie cheered the departing troops, who, with the crowds on the quays, warmly reciprocated, making a Franco-Spanish demonstration.

Results in a case of severe kidney trouble after only four weeks' treatment.

Mr. Fred Latimer has written us as follows:

THE CAPSULOID COMPANY, UTICA, NEW YORK.

GENTLEMEN:—"Twelve years ago I had my first attack of kidney trouble, following a heavy cold. The pain in the back was severe and there was smothering over the kidneys. I rapidly lost in strength, weight, and color. I got over my acute attack, but my kidneys were left weak and tender. Several small attacks since further weakened my kidneys, and about a year ago I had the worst attack of all. I was confined to my room for eight weeks. My doctors attended me constantly, and by their ability pulled me through; but when I got around again I found my kidneys were in the same old state. A friend of mine, a doctor, told me to try Capsuloids. A month ago I commenced taking them. Now everyone of the bad symptoms have disappeared; the pain is all gone, an I scarcely ever feel any smothering. I have gained three pounds, my appetite has improved, I have lost that sallow kidney complexion, and have a good, healthy, strong appearance with lots of color in my face. Best of all, all the kidney symptoms that so worried me have disappeared. It is hard even for me to believe, but it is perfectly true. I feel thankful to the Capsuloid Company." Gratefully yours,

FRED LATIMER.

NEW MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

A Positive Cure for Dyspepsia.

This may read as though we were putting it a little strong because it is generally thought by the majority of people that Dyspepsia in its chronic form is incurable or practically so. But we have long since shown that Dyspepsia is curable, nor is it such a difficult matter as it first appears.

The trouble with Dyspeptics is that they are continually dieting, starving themselves, or going to opposite extremes or else deluging the already over burdened stomach with "bitters," "after dinner pills," etc., which invariably increase the difficulty even if in some cases they do give a slight temporary relief. Such treatment of the stomach simply make matters worse. What the stomach wants is a rest. Now how can the stomach become rested, recuperated and at the same time the body nourished and sustained.

This is the great secret and this is also the secret of the uniform success of Stuart's dyspepsia tablets. This is a comparatively new remedy, but its success and popularity leaves no doubt as to its merits.

The sufferer from dyspepsia according to directions, is to eat an abundance of good, wholesome food and use the tablets before and after each meal, and the result will be that the food will be digested no matter how bad your dyspepsia may be, because as before stated, the tablets will digest the food, even if the stomach is wholly inactive. To illustrate our meaning plainly, if you take 1,800 grains of meat, eggs or ordinary food and place it in a temperature of 98 degrees, and put with it one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, it will digest the meat or eggs almost as perfectly as if the meat was enclosed within the stomach.

The stomach may be ever so weak, yet these tablets will perform the work of digestion and the body and the brain will be properly nourished and at the same time a radical, lasting cure of dyspepsia will be made because the much abused stomach will be given, to some extent, a much needed rest. Your druggist will tell you that of the many remedies advertised to cure dyspepsia, none of them has given so complete and general satisfaction as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and not least in importance in these hard times is the fact that they are also the cheapest and give the most good for the least money.

THE MESSAGE TO-DAY

President Will Advocate Intervention, but Not Independence.

PROMPT ACTION EXPECTED

The United States Should Intervene to Prevent the Atrocities of the Existing Warfare, but Should Stand Absolutely Neutral Between Spain and the Insurgents—Both Congress and the Executive Want the Cuban Republic Established on a Sound Basis.

Washington, April 6.—The President's message will go to Congress to-day, but there wil be no action by that body immediately. The message wil be read and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations in the Senate and that on Foreign Affairs in the House. There may be some attempt at discussion in the House, but it will not be prolonged, and it is doubtful if it will be allowed at all. In the Senate, the message will be referred at once, and it is the intention of the Committee on Foreign Relations to report back a resolution to-morrow. This plan was adopted at the meeting of the Senate Foreign Relations Committe yesterday, and will be carried out.

For Intervention.

At the meeting of the committee Senator Frye told the members that the policy of the President's message was for intervention in Cuba, but not for the recognition of the independence of the Cubans. The President does not think at the present time there is a Cuban government to recognize, but he does believe that the condition of the island is such as to warrant intervention. He is convinced that the Spanish Government on the island has failed and that Spain should be compelled to relinquish a claim of sovereignity, which merely cloaks a condition of barbarism. It was stated before the committee that the President holds that peace must be restored at once and that a formal government is yet to be established, and that its establishment must follow, as it has not preceded the withdrawal of the Spanish from the island.

Furthermore, Senator Frye told the committee that the President would, in firm and vigorous terms, review the explosion of the Maine, and the testimony which has lately been laid before the administration pointing toward a connection of the Spanish with the disaster.

For the Foraker Resolution.

In view of this statement, the Foreign Relations Committee decided to await the reading of the message to Congress and its reference to the committee before the resolution adopted last Saturday shall be reported to the Senate. There was an informal poll taken of the committee as to its course, and the maority were still in favor of reporting to-morrow the Foreign resolution for armed intervention and independence.

The only difference of opinion between the President and Congress is whether or not any other government has been established to take the place of the Spanish Government. This difference of opinion is not as serious as it appears on the surface, since both the executive and legislative have in view the same end—the establishment of a Cuban republic on a sound and permanent basis.

His principle reason for not desiring to do this is said to be his wish to be perfectly consistent and to maintain logical order in the policy of the administration. He has heretofore declined to recognize the indepence of Cuba on the ground that the Cuban insurgents have not yet established an independent civil government. The Cubans have not recently done anything to demonstrate more clearly than heretofore the establishment of their government. The events which have led to the proposition of armed intervention or war have not been developments of strength on the part of the insurgents, but uncontrovertible evidence of weakness, incapacity, barbarity and treachery on the part of Spain.

Therefore, from the President's point of view, if the Cuban republic was not entitled to recognition prior to the destruction of the Maine she is not now entitled to it, and will not be until her government has been established.

The Course Unchanged.

This view of the situation does not detract from the justice of the course of this Government in insisting that Sain shall relinquish her claim to sovereignty over an island which it has been demonstrated she cannot control and maintain the forms of civilized government. In other words, the barbarity and inhumanity of Spain in Cuba, and the destruction of the Maine furnish grounds for this Government to intervene to free Cuba from Spanish misrule, and to go to war to drive the Spaniards from the island, if they do not themselves retire; but do not change the status of the so-called Cuban republic.

The President has now decided, however, to make the destruction of the Maine and other barbarities of the Spanish in Cuba the ground of intervention. His message goes fully into the history of Spanish misrule, uncivilized warfare, starvation of reconcentrados, inability to establish peace on the island, and, as a culmination, the destruction of the Maine, which was either the wanton act of Spanish officials who were the physical representatives of the Spanish dynasty in Cuba, or was the act of miscreants, which could not have been prepetrated if there were an efficient government power even in the city of Havana alone, which is the centre of whatever authority Spain still claims to exercise over the island.

Intervention on these grounds is sustained by the representations which have heretofore been made to Spain by this Government, and is not dependent upon the existence of any other civil government on the island.

It does not include any discussion of whether or not the Cuban insurgents have established an independent form of government, and it would be just as strong if hereafter it should be discovered that such republican government does not exist.

THE PRESIDENT DECLINES.

Refuses the Pope's Offer to Mediate, and Says Cuba Must Be Free.

Rome, April 6.—The Pope received yesterday a telegram from President McKinley, which, while declining the offer of his Holiness to mediate between the United States and Spain, also contained what was virtually a declaration of the President's policy. Mr. McKinley said that he was extremely sensible of the initiative taken by the Pontiff, but that it was impossible for him to overcome the prejudice, even though unjust, which was entertained by a majority of the American people against the Vatican's intervention in political affairs.

The dispatch added that President McKinley was opposed to war now as he had been in the past, and would still do all that was possible to avoid recourse to such a lamentable expedient, which was considered by him as unworthy of a civilized country; but he could not go against the sentiment of the nation, which demands the independence of Cuba and a cessation of the horrors which have been going on for three years in that unhappy island.

It is learned that the Message was telegraphed to his Holiness through Archbishop Ireland.

The Pope's Terms.

Rome, April 6.—It is authoritatively said that the Pope's proposed terms are such as can be accepted by Spain and supported by the United States Minister Woodford, in forwarding them to President McKinley. The Pope's initiative is based wholly on the fact that Spain, when she asked for the good offices of the powers, also asked for the Pope's good offices. The interposition of the Pontiff has thus far been confined to efforts to bring about an armistice between Spain and the insurgents.

The Vatican authorities last evening absolutely refused to furnish any information relative to the dispatch which President McKinley is said to have sent to the Pope on the subject of mediation on the Cuban situation. The Clerical organ, the Observatore Romano, is equally silent.

TO BRING LEE HOME.

Government Vessels on Which All American Officials and Others May Leave Havana.

Washington, April 6.—Members of the House have been informed that vessels have been dispatched to Havana to take off Gen. Lee and our consular officers, as well as all Americans who desire to leave the island.

The State Department has received a dispatch from Consul-General Lee saying that in case war is declared he will not be able to get the American citizens out of Cuba before next Sunday.

A Republican member of the Foreign Affairs Committee says that the delay asked for by Gen. Lee to get the Americans off the island will not entail a delay in the transmission of the President's message to Congress.

To Facilitate Their Departure.

Washington, April 6.—In response to representations received from Gen. Lee, the Treasury Department has telegraphed Dr. Brunner, the quarantine officer at Havana, directing him to permit all Americans who desire to do so to leave Havana without certificates or examination.

On the arrival of the vessel at the Florida coast with Americans from Cuba an examination will be made and the vessel will be held until it is determined that there is no disease on board.

TO MOVE TROOPS SUNDAY.

Army to Be Mobilized at the Chickamauga National Park.

Washington, April 6.—It is announced that the United States troops will move on next Sunday. They will be mobilized at Chickamauga, and the orders given to the colored troops now at Omaha to proceed to Dry Tortugas have been countermanded. These troops, with the others, will go to the National Park. The troops are to move on Sunday, and all are expected to be at Chickamauga by April 15th.

Orders have been sent to Capt. Sampson and Commodore Schley to have their fleets in readiness to sail at a moment's notice.

As soon as the troops are needed the order to move will be given, and the railroads will concentrate within thirty-six hours. Every army post east of the Rocky Mountains will be depleted of its strength, leaving only a corporals guard to watch the property.

SHERMAN IN NEW YORK.

He Says All Depends on How Spain Takes Demands.

New York, April 6.—John Sherman, the Secretary of State, came to this city from Washington last night to represent the directors of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad in meeting to-day. When questioned concerning the Cuban situation he said that the members of President McKinleys Cabinet were anxious.

"Will there be war?" was asked.

"That depends on how Spain is pleased to receive the demands, recommendations and suggestions of President McKinley and Congress," replied Mr. Sherman.

Philadelphia Bank Wrecker Held.

Philadelphia, April 6.—Richard F. Loper, vice-president and general manager of the Guarantors Finance Company, which recently made an assignment, was held in $25,000 bail yesterday to answer at court the charge of conspiracy to defraud the People's Bank. The cashier of that institution, John D. Hopkins, committed suicide on the day of the assignment of the Guarantors' Company, and the following day the People's Bank suspended. Investigations since made led to the arrest of Loper.

Alger Indorses Volunteer Reserve.

Washington, April 6.—Secretary Alger yesterday received the bill providing for the organization of the Volunteer Reserve to the land and naval forces of the United States. He indorsed it as follows: "I very gladly indorse this bill, and believe it will appeal to the patriotism of all American citizens."

FIRST WAR ORDERS

Flying Squadron to Move Against the Spanish Flotilla and Fleet.

TO CAPTURE THE CANARIES

Capt. Sampson's Fleet Will Co-operate, Placing Spaniards Between Two Fires—Blow to be Struck Within Forty-eight Hours—The Coast of Spain Will Then Be Invested and Cuba Invaded.

Washintgon, April 6.—The flying squadron, under command of Commodore Schley, will move on the Canaries within twenty-four or forty-eight hours. This is the programme of the Navy Department. It is both a reply to the dispatch of the torpedo flotilla and fleet of cruisers toward our shores and preliminary to a decisive blow at the sea power of Spain.

This is the first positive war order issued. Monday Commodore Schley, on the flagship Brooklyn, dropped down the Roads to a point opposite Fort Monroe, in obedience to dispatches from the department, and there awaited the receipt of emergency orders. These were sent yesterday, and th commander of the flying squadron now knows that he is to make the first move and will be expected to strike the first blow of the war with Spain. He has announced that he is ready to move at a moment's notice.

It is probable that the squadron will sail within twenty-four or forty-eight hours directly for the Canary Islands, crossing and blocking in its course the path of the torpedo flotilla and of the Spanish cruiser fleet.

The plan of operation, so far as now determined, is as follows: The flying squadron will not await the acutal declaration of war, nor the recognition by Cnogress that a state of war had existed since the blowing up of the Maine, nor even the adoption by the two houses of a resolution authorizing the forcible intervention of this country in the affairs of Cuba.

The department and the Cabinet recognize that war is now a question of hours. It may come this afternoon; it may be deferred until to-morrow morning; it may even be deferred until Friday; but no one in the Navy Department expects that it will be or can be postponed beyond that.

The department and the Administration are now so confident that it must come within that time that they are preparing to strike the first blow and make it decisive.

A part of the plan consists in the co-operation at once of the fleet under Capt. Sampson with the flying Squadron, and as soon as the latter starts for the Canaries, Capt. Sampson will sail for Havana, seal up that harbor with a few vessels, and pass on to meet the two Spanish squadrons. It is feared that this part of the programme may miscarry, as it is thought that the Spaniards will put back to their coasts as soon as they learn of the sailing of the Flying Squadron.

STRIKE WOULD CRIPPLE NAVY.

Possibility That War Ships Will Have a Short Supply of Fuel.

Altoona, Pa., April 6.—The convention of Pennsylvania bituminous coal miners, called to meet the operators and adjust grievances peacebly, opened here yesterday. The miners, however, failed in their object, as the great coal syndicate absolutely refused to send representatives to meet their operatives.

The situation in the Pennsylvania region is gloomy. The strike has already begun at Patton at two of the mines. This is thought by many to be the beginning of the general strike.

The probability of war with Spain adds to the gravity of the strike situation. Several of the great coal companies of the State have extensive contracts to deliver coal for war ships, arsenals and the Atlantic coast navy yards. This supply will be entirely cut off in the event of a strike, and the miners count on this fact as a winning feature. The convention itself is divided on the question of strike.

Ohio's $1,000,000 War Bill.

Columbus, April 6.—The Riley bill, appropriating $1,000,000 to put the military and naval forces of Ohio on a war footing, was passed by the Senate last night. The bill authorizes the immediate issue of $1,000,000 State bonds for equipping the State militia and naval reserve. As it came from the Finance Committee, it provided that no bonds should be issued until war had actually been declared, but that was stricken out by the Senate, so that the funds will be immediately available by the Governor. The bill will no doubt pass the House to-day.

Will Meet Both Maher and Ruhlin.

San Francisco, Cal., April 6.—Jim Jeffries has signed to fight both Peter Maher and Gus Ruhlin and will leave for New York immediately after his bout with Mexican Pete Everett at the Olympic on April 16th. This action thoroughly sidetracks Sharkey and leaves him no one to fight until July at least. The fight between Jeffries and Maher will come off at Syracuse on May 20th under the management of Tom O'Rourke and will be for the championship of the world. Jeffries and Ruhlin are to meet in Cincinnati on June 10. Delaney and Madden will manage the battle.

War Scare Makes Beef Dearer.

Chicago, April 6.—Owing to the demands of the Government for fresh beef the price has gone up $1 a hundred pounds. Cattle are not coming in fast and the retail price of beef is likely to be advanced from one to five cents a pound.

American Consulate Guarded.

London, April 6.—A dispatch from Barcelona says the United States Consulate there is guarded by police, and adds that the United States Consul and Vice-Consul at Cartharena, who are both said to be Spaniards, have resigned.

RUNYON, THE PRETENDER.

The turbid brain of Editor Runyon again precipitates that worthy into a position that makes him out a forty-horse power hypocrite and a flea-like journalist—in fact, a pretender whose ill judged scoffings at others turns the gleam of fallibility and inconsistency upon his own bald brow. In the paper in which his name appears as editor there was printed yesterday, editorially, one of those intellectual bon-bons which are aimed at The Press in a sarcastic tone, seeking to demonstrate to the public the inferior qualities of this paper and the superior learning, originality and independence, which characterizes the conduct of The News. The lay of this editorial was that editorials penned only by Runyon's hands, as suggested by his own circus intellect, appear in the columns over which he assumes a hodgy-podgy supervision. The inference was one conceived in deception, and is an apt reflection of the egotism that prevails in the master-mind (!) of the News.

Probably the News editor's presumption is that readers of local newspapers are in the same intellectual class with him, and that their ability to penetrate the artifices of his editorial gibberish are as dense as the ideas that sway his narrow mind. But it appears there are wise readers, as well as dull ones, of the News. One of the former kind reads the Philadelphia Ledger, and yesterday he read the News and its attack on The Daily Press. Doubtless impressed with the hope that Editor Runyon must, indeed, be a very knowing man, judging by the tenor of the criticism on The Press, the gentleman continued to read to the end of the News editorials. There, at the very end, lo and behold, was "the deadly parallel"—an editorial deliberately clipped from The Ledger of the day previous and printed in the News as one of original observations of Runyon. What a fall in sanctumal respect! There it was—the editorial from The Ledger—word for word, printed in the News via sharp scissors avenue. The observer writes to this paper as follows:

THE DEADLY PARALLEL.

In the News of yesterday there is a criticism of The Press—a charge of the lack of intellectual independence. The News seeks to impress its readers with its originality, and yet in the same editorial column in which it tasks The Press, it prints, without credit, word for word, an article from the editorial page of the Philadelphia Ledger of the day before.

It is well known to exchange editors in newspaper offices that a large number of editorials that appear in the News ostensibly as original are in reality stolen bodily from other papers. Hereafter when Editor Runyon wants to gather in the thunder of his editorial brethren he should ply his shears in the exchanges farther removed from Plainfield than Philadelphia—else he may be detected again.

COLORED MEN WANT RECOGNITION.

A hundred of the colored voters of this city have united to present a solid front to all political parties. While the organization is known as the Republican Southern League, the club does not, its members claim, owe special allegiance to any political party. Its object is to gain recognition for the colored men of Plainfield. Now, with a few exceptions, the colored men of Plainfield are naturally Republicans. So it comes that the club uses the name already mentioned.

Up to last Wednesday evening there were several organizations, most of which were in a torpid state, taking no part in any of the political questions. On Wednesday a meeting was held and it was unanimously decided to unite all the organizations under the title of the Republican League of Plainfield. There are now a hundred members out of the three hundred colored voters in town and the leaders expect to double the membership in a short time.

The avowed purpose of the organization is to compel the recognition of the colored man in local affairs. The members hope that the Republicans will see their united front and recognize them, allowing them some of the city patronage, otherwise they will appeal to the other political parties.

THE HOLLAND SUBMARINE WONDER.

The Holland submarine boat dives like a duck and, what is even more important, comes up again like a duck. Numerous public tests give color to the belief that Inventor Holland has solved the problem of submarine navigation for war purposes.

THE PROBLEM.

There is one problem confronting civilized man greater than issues of war or peace, greater than questions of government, political parties or even the existence of nations. It is a question of the existence of the human race.

What it is the readers of Walter A. Wyckoff's papers, "The Workers," in Scribner's Magazine, will know. The installments describing his experiences in search of work in Chicago are the most tragic, the most intensely suggestive of all. What everyday life is constantly to 50,000 men in Chicago and 80,000 in New York city the reader will perceive from discovering what it was to Walter Wyckoff. Let the millionaire lady who spends $30,000 on flowers for an evening party read the tale; likewise the gentleman whose pleasure yacht costs him on a cruise $1,000 a day; also the richly salaried city clergyman who enjoys every luxury in life and takes his annual rest tour to Europe. Most of all perhaps it is to be commended to those scholarly philosophers who sit at mahogany desks in bookshelf lined libraries and inform the world through tomes and newspapers that the trouble with us today is overproduction, that there is more of food and clothing than people can consume, and that is why so many lack these things. Again, the comfortable man about town, he who steps each morning into his perfumed bath, where the floors are marble and the walls artistically tiled, let him read and ponder the incident of the sober, respectable, intelligent mechanic who missed a job because he had had previously nowhere to wash and comb and brush himself and whose despair uttered itself in the bitter cry, "Great God Almighty, I'd be clean if I could!"

The question of the right distribution of labor and of labor's products must be taken up and settled. It may be that in the future a great national labor bureau will be established. Its employees will know where labor is most wanted and will send to that place some of the workers who cause the fearful glut in the large cities. Its task will also be to distribute oversupplies to places where there is need for the same articles. Of those whom Wyckoff traveled with and studied it is rather surprising to find how few were actual worthless tramps.

If there is one thing clearer than another, it is that on this earth there are work, food and clothing for everybody. The right kind of organization would be able to make a proper distribution of all.

A curious true story illustrates the extent to which Emperor William guards his little majesty from being joked at even across seas and countries. A postal card received from Wales by a business house in Germany had written upon it in transit some stenographic characters. The German that received it hunted around till he found an Englishman who knew stenography and asked for a translation. The stenographic characters condemned the emperor with a large "D," and we are told that the translation was "promptly and joyfully given" by the Englishman.

Thereupon the innocent man in Wales who originally sent the postal was ordered to hunt up the man that condemned the emperor stenographically on pain of having the matter made an international affair if he did not do so. Unfortunately for the imperial German dignity the man in Wales scoffed at the request. William's majesty must be a very fragile and perishable article.

It is now possible to go to and from Plainfield, by trolley and train, in less than one hour, and when the trolley to Bound Brook is completed the trip can be made in about forty minutes, at an expense of 55 cents for the round trip. This is a great boon to both New Brunswick and Plainfield.—New Brunswick Home News.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News, but Just as Interesting.

John G. Cook, the crushed stone dealer at Scotch Plains, is experiencing the mingled sensations of sorrow and regret when he thinks of what might have happened had he remained in the west. Mr. Cook has a brother located in Idaho Territory and Boise City. Twenty-three years ago Mr. Cook was there and took up a government claim. That region was supposed to be full of gold but Mr. Cook did not find it. Then he gave up the claim and came east. He has now just heard from his brother that a tract of land, comprising only a small part of that same claim, has enriched the present owners by $30,000 from the gold ore found there, and that another settler in the same claim dug a hole ten feet deep, struck a vein of rich ore and sold that part for $10,000. Now Mr. Cook is wondering why the gold did not turn up when he was there.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

The attraction at Stillman Music Hall next Monday night will be the well-known farce comedy, "Peck's Bad Boy," as presented by the Atkinson Comedy Company. Although the title is old, so much of the play has been changed that only the frame work remains embellished with all that is new, catchy and pleasing in the way of music, songs and dances. Every member of the entire company is a specialty artist, and they introduce songs, duets and witticisms galore, so that aside from the interest one always feels in the typical American boy, there is much that is most pleasing to the eye and ear.

The general desire of the amusement patrons of Plainfield will be gratified to learn that Manager Maze Edwards has secured the phenomenally successful farce comedy, "My Friend from India," which will be seen at Music Hall next Tuesday night, with that clever comedian, Walter E. Perkins, the original barber, and a coterie of artists of more than average ability. The engagement will be for one night only. There is no doubt about the merriment and and entertainment of it. The fun is fast and furious and should be witnessed by a crowded house judging from the box office sale.

for Men, Boys and Children, to be sold at 50c on the dollar.

Sale commencing Saturday, April 2d, at 8:30 a. m., and to last for three weeks only.

It is early in the season to sell at a discount, but manufacturers are often pinched for cash even early in the season and are compelled to unload. The cash reputation of our store makes it a ready target, and the financially distressed manufacturers hearing that we were in a position to buy for spot cash, and knowing that we had five stores to supply, asked us to make an offer, which we did, and it was accepted. A great opportunity for money-saving clothing buyers. The very finest Spring and Summer clothing in the world will be sold at retail for less than one-third the price that other stores ask for the same goods.

RIBBON AND LACE IN PROFUSION.

Sleeves Are Made of Different Material from the Bodice.

(By special arrangement with the N. Y. Sun.)

Trimmed skirts are here in great profusion among the lately imported models. Rows upon rows of lace insertion encircle the skirts of foulard and taffeta gowns as well as those of transparent materials. In some models the deep circular flounce is almost entirely composed of alternate bands of silk and lace insertion, either black or white. When the lace has a straight edge it is finished with a tiny frill of narrow edging or gathered baby ribbon. This sort of trimming is applied to organdy as well as silk gowns. One elegant imported costume of black taffeta has several rows of black chantilly insertion around the circular flounce; beginning at the upper edge and leaving a wide hem of the silk at the bottom. The bodice and sleeves are also encircled with rows of insertion, of which all the edges are finished with a frill of narrow lace.

A detailed description of the use and varied kinds of tiny ruchings which flourish in dress decoration would fill a volume, and literally miles of this popular trimming adorn our new frocks. It is made of chiffon, tulle, gauze ribbon, and pinked silk, in all colors, varying a little in width, according to the mode of using it, and also of narrow lace edging in both black and white.

True lovers knots of lace insertion, with the material cut out underneath, spread their graceful shape over the front and sides of some of the thin gowns, and twine in and out among yards of ribbon on others. Surely this is a ribbon season, a lace season, and every other kind of season which can be specified by variety in dress trimmings.

Another feature of dress which can be very useful in renovating old gowns is the sleeve of different material from the bodice—not just anything that comes along, however, for the sleeves must be of handsome lace, fine embroidery, chiffon, or jeweled net, or something which is a part of the trimming on the gown. Still another thing you notice in the new gowns is the collar band, which is often without any frills at all; and, again, you see little pointed bars of silk, velvet, or lace like the band itself directly at the back. The very latest whim is to cut the band a little wider, in slightly pointed shape, at either side of the fastening in the back, to give the effect of an extra finish which is so becoming, and add a narrow frill of lace inside.

NEW YORK WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Sorosis Always Stands First in the List, Dating from 1868.

That this is a women's century seems in nothing to be so strongly emphasized as in the women's clubs. They show more clearly than anything else the wide diversity of women's interests, interests which it is felt need the help of organization to bring them to fruition. They cover, too, a startlingly wide range. There are political clubs, suffrage clubs, clubs for women of the stage, and women who write; study clubs of various kinds, clubs for the study of children, art clubs, philanthropic and literary organizations, and almost everything, even to one of the very latest organization of women, the Women's Klondike Expedition Syndicate.

JENNIE JUNE CROLY.

There is some earnest thought or purpose at the foot of all these bodies of women, and there are perhaps only two interests which women might promote that are not generally represented and these are domestic and social interests. There may be reason for this. Women feel that their domestic interests are always present with them and that they can best develop them along their own individual lines of experience, and as a woman's society life goes along hand in hand with all her other interests and the presence of men are necessary, clubs of a domestic nature have recently become more numerous.

In speaking of women's clubs Sorosis is always the first on the list. Sorosis is called the mother of women's clubs, though occasionally a club is heard from which disputes her right to seniority.

Sorosis dates its birthday back to 1868. There were a number of bright women who held occasional meetings in the parlors of the charming sisters, Alice and Phoebe Cary. There were Jennie June (Mrs. Croly), the pioneer newspaper woman; Fanny Fern, Kate Field, Mrs. Charlotte Wilbour and Celia Burleigh. There were twelve women in all who decided to form an organization and became the charter members in that new and strange thing, a woman's club. The Blue-Stocking Club they proposed to call themselves, at first, but thought better of it, and took the now famous name of Sorosis which has since been taken by unnumbered godchildren all over the world.

Mrs. Jennie June Croly has been called as Sorosis as a body is, the mother of women's clubs. Mrs. Croly succeeded Alice Cary to the presidency of Sorosis, and has been an active worker in the organization ever since. At the meeting of the State Federation of Clubs in Brooklyn two years ago she was made honorary president.

Mrs. Croly is also the president and was one of the founders of the New York Woman's Press Club, another prominent woman's organization, which has a large membership of professional and semi-professional women with regular literary and social meetings. As a penwoman Mrs. Croly is well known. She has been writing now for over forty years and her editorial, journalistic, magazine, and other work has been prolific.

INGENIOUS SOUNDING APPARATUS.

A Method by Which a River Bed Was Leveled.

Rapid-test soundings were required in some work on a railway line between Paris and Havre, where the cast-iron viaduct of Bezons was replaced by an arch bridge alongside. The old foundations for six channel piers were removed to the bottom of the river. It was required that the river bed should be carefully leveled. After it had been dredged the bottom was explored by means of a horizontal bar of iron about twenty feet long, which was suspended at each end from a framework uniting two flat boats in catamaran fashion. This beam was lowered close to the bottom and the boats were gradually moved along in the direction transverse to the length of the bar. When the scraper encountered no irregularity, the suspending chains hung vertically, but as soon as either end was deflected by contact with any obstruction an electric curcuit was closed, which caused an alarm to be rung. The boat was stopped, and the obstruction located by means of sounding poles. In this way, small stones, down to a diameter of four inches, were easily located, and the bed of the river was leveled to within that amount of irregularity. This method proved rapid and successful.—Savannah News.

Left Behind.

"I have a good mind to renew my efforts to annoy people who publish cartoons!" exclaimed the ambitious legislator.

"What's the trouble now?" inquired his colleague.

"They're showing partiality. It has been at least two weeks since any of them have promulgated my portrait."—Washington Star.

Berlin. Dem hiesigen Märkischen Museum sind vor dem Abbruch der Schloßkaserne in Spandau, dem früheren Zuchthause und ursprünglichen Schloß des Grafen Lynar, die Thüre der Zelle Gottfried Kinkels, die Dachluke, aus der er entwichen ist, sowie ein Lattenfußboden aus einer dunklen Isolirzelle überwiesen worden. An letzteren ist bemerkenswerth, daß die Sträflinge die Einschnitte der Latten, auf denen sie wegen der Schärfe der Kante nicht liegen konnten, mit der Krume des ihnen verabreichten Brodes ausfüllten, um sich so den schrecklichen Aufenthalt zu erleichtern. — Der Schriftsteller Fritz Brentano dahier ist verhaftet worden. Die Verhaftung soll mit Brentanos Schuldenlast zusammenhängen.

Friedrichshagen. Die wilden Kaninchen haben sich in der königlichen Köpenicker Forst in so erheblichem Maße vermehrt, daß die Eisenbahndirektion Berlin sich zur Vertilgung der Thiere genöthigt sieht. Dieselben haben sich nämlich besonders in dem Bahndamm der Schlesischen Bahn zwischen Köpenick und Friedrichshagen eingenistet und unterwühlen sogar die Schwellen. Der Abschuß der Thiere ist deshalb auf behördlichen Antrag gestattet worden.

Spandau. Man ist hier einer weit verzweigten Falschmünzerbande auf die Spur gekommen. Zwei Mitglieder der Bande, Metallarbeiter der königlichen Geschützgießerei hierselbst Namens Günther und Brennecke wurden unlängst verhaftet. Sie haben die Fabrikation von falschen 5-, 2- und 1-Markstücken, sogar auf ihrer Arbeitsstätte in der königlichen Fabrik selbst betrieben; Handwerkzeug und falsche Geldstücke sind bei ihnen vorgefunden worden.

Michelsen war von Beruf Theologe und übernahm im Jahre 1862 die von seinem Vater, Dr. Konrad Michelsen, der ebenfalls Theologie studirt hatte, gegründete Landwirthschaftsschule, die er zu einem angesehenen und blühenden Institut entwickelte.

Weener. Ein mächtiges Schadenfeuer äscherte in dem Orte Dreehusen eine der umfangreichsten ostfriesischen Oekonomien gänzlich ein. Sämmtliche Wirthschaftsräume wurden ein Raub der Flammen. Mehrere werthvolle Pferde, circa 20 Kühe und zahlreiches Kleinvieh gingen zu Grunde. Von den umfangreichen Vorräthen, dem Mobiliar u. s. w. konnte nichts gerettet werden. Der niedergebrannte Hof gehört zum Addens'schen Fideikommiß.

Provinz Hessen-Nassau.

Kassel. Der Badebesitzer Lenoir in Meran, ein Sohn unserer Stadt, der ihr schon etwa 500,000 Gulden an Stiftungen zugewandt, hat neuerlich hierzu noch weitere Nebenstiftungen für Waisenzwecke in Höhe von nochmals 500,000 Gulden gemacht.

Hanau. Dem Fürsten zu Isenburg und Büdingen ist das Bergwerkseigenthum auf 2,186,000 Quadratmeter in den Gemeindebezirken Helfersdorf, Streitberg, Hettersroth, Neuenschmidten, Hellstein und Leisenwald zur Gewinnung der in dem Felde vorkommenden Braunkohlen vom Oberbergamt Clausthal verliehen worden.

Hohenzollern.

Laiz. Dieser Tage schoß der wiederholt bestrafte Ziegler Henselmann auf den bei ihm pfändenden Gerichtsvollzieher Lutz. Er traf ihn lebensgefährlich in der Bauchgegend. Henselmann stellte sich dem Gerichte.

Provinz Pommern.

Bredow. Der Kreuzer 2. Klasse „Hansa" lief kürzlich auf der Werft des Vulcan glücklich vom Stapel. Den Taufakt vollzog der Bürgermeister Dr. Moencke berg aus Hamburg.

Pampow. Unlängst schlugen die Brüder Rieck von hier in der Stolzenburger Forst Holz. Als sie einen Baum schon fast ungehauen hatten, fiel er plötzlich um und traf mit einem Zweig den jüngeren Rieck so unglücklich, daß er sofort todt war.

Provinz Posen.

Posen. Bei den Wahlen von Gemeindevertretern in dem 17,000 Einwohner zählenden Vororte Jersitz siegten die Deutschen. Nur ein Pole wurde gewählt. Das Kollegium, in dem die Polen früher die Mehrheit hatten, besteht künftig aus 16 deutschen und 4 polnischen Vertretern.

Rojewo. Vier auf kurze Zeit allein in der Wohnung zurückgelassene Kinder eines Arbeiters warfen die Lampe um. Dieselbe explodirte und setzte das Zimmer in Brand. Zwei Kinder verbrannten, die anderen beiden sind derartig schwer verletzt, daß an ihrem Aufkommen gezweifelt wird. Auch die Mutter der Kinder, die hinzukam und das Feuer löschen wollte, trug schwere Brandwunden davon.

Provinz Ostpreußen.

Goldap. Einen recht lohnenden Verdienst hatten im Laufe dieses Winters die Waldarbeiter der Rominter Haide. Die Forstverwaltung ließ nämlich die in großer Menge umherliegenden Fichtenzapfen, weil sie Schlupfwinkel der Nonnenraupen bilden, sammeln und vernichten. Da diese Zapfen ein schätzbares Brennmaterial bilden, so wurden sie auch von der Kiauter Papierfabrik zur Heizung der Dampfmaschinen angekauft und mit 20 Pfennige pro Hektoliter bezahlt.

Lyck. Der Besitzer Johann Joswig aus Soffen, welcher eine vom Gerichtsvollzieher an der Thür angebrachte Pfandmarke abgerissen hatte, wurde wegen Vergehens gegen die öffentliche Ordnung zu einer Woche Gefängniß verurtheilt.

Notice to the Public in General.

The American people shall have no need of the CHINAMAN in the future if every American Laundryman will supply the proper kind of work. Try us and be convinced that we are up-to-date, and that you would rather have AMERICANS by all odds to serve you. Think of the terrible odor that comes from a Chinese Laundry, and yet one half of the people don't know what causes it. Here it is in a Nut Shell. Could you for instance turn out first-class laundry in a room 12x20 where there is three or four living. Think of your laundry in a place of this kind, where they do cooking, smoke their opium and also sleep in same apartment. And still what is more horrible is that all your clothes are sprinkled from the mouth. Think twice before you speak and have an American citizen to do your laundry by all odds.

STREET RAILWAY ORDINANCE.

An ordinance locating the tracks of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company on North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue within the Borough of Fanwood, County of Union, and authorizing and empowering the construction and operation and maintenance of the same and granting permission for said Company to use electricity as the propelling power of its cars, and prescribing the terms and conditions upon which such location of the tracks and permission are granted. Whereas, The Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway, a corporation organized under the provisions of an act entitled, "An act to authorize the formation of traction companies for the construction and operation of street railways, or railroads operated as street railways, and to regulate the same," approved March fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, having first filed in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of New Jersey, a description of the routes, together with maps exhibiting the same, did present their petition or application to the Mayor, and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, praying the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood for its consent to the construction, operation and maintenance of a street railway in the Borough of Fanwood, and the right to locate its tracks conformably to the route filed in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of New Jersey, which route in the Borough of Fanwood is upon and along North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, and was set out in the said petition; and

Whereas, Public notice has been duly given of such application and of the intention of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood to consider the same, by publication, also by posting a copy of the said notice in five or more of the most public places in said Borough of Fanwood at least fourteen days prior to the date of the meeting of the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood; and

Whereas, Upon the day fixed by said notice and upon such days as the said hearing was adjourned to, public hearing was given to all persons desiring to be heard in favor of, or opposed to, or in any wise interested in the said application for the location of its tracks, and the said matter having been duly considered by the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, and the said Company having filed with the Clerk of said Borough the consent in writing of the owners or their duly authorized legal representatives of at least one-half in amount of the lineal feet of property on said North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, within the Borough of Fanwood and upon which permission to locate, operate and maintain said street railway is asked.

Now, therefore, be it ordained by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, as follows:

Section 1. That the tracks of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company be, and they are hereby located in the following avenues, in the said Borough of Fanwood, in the County of Union, to wit, as set out in the following description:

Beginning at a point in the centre line of Forrest Avenue where it is intersected by the line of the Township of Fanwood; thence along the centre line of Forrest Avenue southeasterly fifteen hundred and eighty (1580) feet to the centre line of Midway Avenue; thence along the centre line of Midway Avenue easterly twenty-five hundred and ninety-eight (2598) feet to centre line of North Avenue; thence along centre line of North Avenue easterly sixteen hundred and ninety (1690) feet to the line of the Township of Fanwood, conformable to the amended route of the new line of street railway and the map exhibiting the same, filed in the office of the Secretary of State of this State; and said Company is hereby given the right, power and authority to maintain and operate cars upon the said railway by electricity as the motive power. The said Company shall complete the construction of its whole line of railway within the Borough of Fanwood in the manner herein provided, and all its fixtures and appurtenances, and commence the operation of the same and the running of its cars for the transportation of passengers on or before December first, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, or this franchise shall be become null and void and of no effect, unless the time for the completion of the same shall be extended by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood. If the said Company after the commencement of the operation of its said line of railway by the collection of fares thereon shall fail or neglect to operate the whole or any portion of the line hereby authorized daily and every day for the space of thirty consecutive days, or shall fail to operate the same for a total number of days exceeding thirty in any one year; all the rights, powers, privileges and every one of them of the said Company, its successors and assigns, under and by virtue of this ordinance, shall become by reason and be determined and in either of such cases the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood expressly reserves the right to sell the said line at auction to the highest bidder who will operate it, or may cause the said railway, or any part or parts thereof, to be removed from the said avenues, and to sell and dispose of the materials thereof at public auction, and after paying all the expenses of such removal and auction sale, and repairs to the said avenues and the cost of restoring the same to its original condition, to pay the balance of such sale to the said company, its successors and assigns.

Section 2. The said Company shall construct, maintain and operate a double track street railway as aforesaid with the cross-overs, switches and sidings shown by the map hereinafter specifically referred to. The rails to be laid by said Company shall be of steel of the girder pattern of a weight not less than seventy pounds to the yard. And the said Company shall so construct and maintain the said railway that the top of the rails shall at all times be flush with the grade of the street or highway. The ties, spikes, and all other materials shall be of the best quality. The railway tracks of the said railway shall be laid as follows: One track on each side of the centre line of said avenues so that the inner rail thereof shall be distant two feet and three inches from said centre line, and the gauge of said tracks shall be four feet, eight and one-half inches. The said Company at its own cost and expense in all streets or avenues through which it shall lay tracks hereunder, shall pave between said tracks and between the rails thereof in a good, substantial and workmanlike manner with a telford or macadam pavement to a depth of four inches and shall maintain the same flush with the rail of said tracks. The railway tracks and macadam or Telford pavement shall be laid and constructed in the best workmanlike manner and to the satisfaction of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood or other committee thereof having charge of the streets.

Section 3. During the construction of the said railway, lighted lanterns shall be kept and maintained by said Company from sunset to sunrise at each and every night, not less than fifty feet and not more than one hundred feet apart along every part of said avenues, where the work of construction shall have been begun and not completed. The work in all other respects shall be thoroughly protected so as to prevent accident. In case any accident shall happen to any person or damage to property is caused, because or by reason of any work connected with such construction of said railway, or afterwards because or by reason of the operation thereof, or through carelessness or negligence of any of the Company's officers, servants, agents or employees, the said Company shall indemnify and save the said Borough of Fanwood and the said Mayor and Council from all costs, loss or damage by reason thereof.

Section 4. The Company shall at all times keep in good condition and repair to the satisfaction of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, (repaving, if necessary) the paving between the tracks, between the rails and one foot six inches outside the same to the depth of four inches.

Section 5. That said Company shall lay its rails to conform to the grade of said North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, at the time of laying of said rails, and in case of any change of the grade or of the surface of said North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, or any part thereof, at any time, then the said Company at its own cost and expense shall immediately on request made in writing by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, so change the location of its tracks and the surface or grade of such part of said avenues as to conform to such change of surface of said avenues or change of grade, or any newly-established grade.

Section 6. That no change, addition, alteration of gauge or the location of the tracks, sidings, switches, cross-overs, poles or overhead structures of said railway company shall be made therein or thereabouts at any time by said Company after the same has been first erected and approved by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, without official action granting permission for such change, alteration or addition being previously taken by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood.

Section 7. The said Company and its officers, agents, servants or employees, shall not, nor shall any or either of them be allowed to shovel, throw or place any snow, ice, slush or any other material along the side of said track or tracks, in such manner as to obstruct or hinder other public travel thereon or on the said avenues, but when removing the snow, ice, slush, or other material from its said tracks, the said Company and its officers, agents, servants, and employees shall without unnecessary delay and with a sufficient force of men, cause the same to be levelled between the said tracks and the gutter line on each side thereof.

Section 8. No salt shall be used by said Company on any part of its tracks, except on the grades, curves and cross-overs without the consent of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, or the proper Borough officers, nor shall any car be allowed to stand in or to obstruct any cross street, or to stand upon any cross-walk for any purpose whatever, or to stand or remain in any one position for more than five minutes at any one time, except when such car shall be unavoidably obstructed or detained by accident or breakdown, without fault or negligence of said Company, under a penalty of ten dollars to be paid by said Company to the Borough Collector with costs of collection for each and every violation of this section.

Section 9. That where said railway racks shall pass over culverts or gutters, the bottom of which shall be below the grade line of such railroad, iron girders or proper supports of the most approved pattern shall be provided by the Company and such necessary iron bridges or iron drains shall be constructed across the tracks and shall be so constructed as not to hinder or obstruct the flow of surface water underneath the tracks of said railroad.

Section 10. The Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood on behalf of said Borough, reserves the right to dig or excavate in or upon any of the said avenues for the purpose of laying, examining, replacing or repairing any sewer, water, or gas pipes, or for the purpose of making any other public improvements, or for doing any other public work whatsoever, and the said railway company shall have no redress or claim for damages because of any detention or obstruction to travel on the said railway arising therefrom. Provided, that such work shall be done as quickly as possible without causing unnecessary delay in the operation of said railroad; and provided further, that if any such improvement, or repairing, replacing, laying or re-laying or examining can be made or done in any feasible or practical way, without obstructing the operation of said railroad, then and in such case it shall be the duty of the party doing such work to do the same in such manner as last aforesaid.

Section 11. That the said Company shall remove any dirt, gravel or any material or obstruction placed by the said Company or its agents or servants on any of the avenues within three days after the service on an officer or servant of said Company of written notice so to do by the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood or its duly authorized agent. In case the said Company shall fail to remove such material or obstruction and to put the said avenues in as good order as before such material or obstruction was placed thereon by said Company, the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood may order and cause the said material or obstruction to be removed and the said avenues to be put in complete order and repair at the expense of said Company.

Section 12. That all persons driving vehicles upon the railroad tracks of the said Company in any of the said avenues when met or overtaken by a car of the Company shall on being warned by a ringing of a bell or gong or on request of the conductor or motorman of such car, as soon as possible, turn and drive his vehicle entirely off of such track, so as to allow such car to pass; it being understood that the cars of said Company shall have the right of way over the tracks of the Company, (except at crossings where the public shall have the first right of way over and across the road and tracks of said Company,) and the driver of any vehicle for the violation of any of the provisions of this section shall forfeit and pay to the Borough Collector for the use of the Borough a penalty of ten dollars to be recovered before any justice of the peace of the said Borough.

Section 13. The cars to be used on said railway shall be well lighted and properly heated; they shall be kept clean and have proper bells or gongs, which shall be rung or sounded before such car reaches the crossings of any street intersecting any of the said avenues and whenever necessary to give warning of the approach of such car; the said cars shall be run at a speed not greater than ten miles an hour, and each car shall be provided with the necessary fenders of the most approved pattern, and such cars shall be run at an average headway of not longer than fifteen minutes, between the hours of six o'clock A. M. and ten o'clock P. M., and from ten o'clock P. M. to midnight, such cars shall be run as the travel may demand or warrant, but in any case the average headway shall not be longer than one-half hour; all cars on the said railroad shall run the entire length of the line of railroad tracks hereby authorized to be constructed. The Company shall from time to time diminish the headway of its cars as the increase of travel shall demand. All cars placed upon the line of said Company shall be of the most approved pattern; and said Company shall maintain gates upon the sides of the platforms of the cars wherever there shall be a double track, so that the ingress and egress to and from said cars can only be had from the side of the car nearest the curb.

Section 14. That for the purpose of supplying light, heat and power for propelling cars on said railway, permission is hereby given to the said Traction Company, and the right is hereby granted to said Company to erect poles and string the necessary wires thereon upon the following terms and conditions:

The poles to be used for the equipping of said railway for operation by electricity shall be of iron, similar to those used by the Plainfield Street Railway Company for that purpose upon its Netherwood line in the city of Plainfield; said poles shall be at least twenty feet in height above the surface of the ground and shall be set and located opposite each other as near as may be on both sides of said avenues and within the line of said avenues and at the points designated and shown upon a certain map entitled, "Map showing proposed location of tracks or rails of a double track street railway, also showing proposed location of poles for support of overhead construction for trolley wires of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company, in the Borough of Fanwood, County of Union and State of New Jersey," which map is on file with the Borough Clerk and is hereby made a part of this ordinance for the purpose of showing the true location of the tracks hereby authorized to be laid upon the said avenues by said Company and for the purpose of specifically designating and prescribing the several places within the line of said avenues where such poles shall be located and set and the location of said tracks and poles therein shown is hereby approved and adopted by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood.

The said poles shall be set in the ground to a depth of not less than six feet and the hole in which said poles shall be set shall be not less than one foot in diameter and the excavation or space around said poles shall be filled with broken stone and concrete to the surface of the ground and the same shall be thoroughly packed and rammed.

The wires and overhead construction attached to the said poles for the purpose of furnishing power for the propulsion of the cars of said Company, shall be not less than eighteen feet above the grade of said avenues and said overhead construction and wires shall be similar in character and size to the overhead construction now used by the Plainfield Street Railway Company upon its Netherwood line within the City of Plainfield and the manner of stringing all of said wires, shall be similar to that now used by the said Plainfield Street Railway Company upon its Netherwood line within the City of Plainfield, which overhead construction of poles and wires is hereby approved and designated as a pattern or model construction to be observed and followed by the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company in its overhead construction of poles and wires, prescribed in this ordinance. The wires strung upon said poles shall be properly guarded with other wires when required by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood. The poles, when erected, shall be properly painted and shall together with all parts of said overhead construction, be maintained in a safe condition at all times, and shall be kept in thorough repair, and said poles shall be kept well painted.

Section 15. The period or term granted to the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company by virtue of this ordinance for the purposes herein set forth shall be for the term of ninety-nine years commencing July first, 1898, and ending July first, 1997.

Section 16. That for every mile of road owned or operated, or that may hereafter be owned or operated by said Company within the limits of the Borough of Fanwood (whether said road be single or double track) said Company shall pay or cause to be paid to the Collector of Taxes of said Borough, for the use of said Borough, the following sums as license fees; to wit: For the year beginning January 1st, 1899, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the year beginning January first, 1900, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the year beginning January first, 1901, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the year beginning January first, 1902, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the year beginning January first 1903, at the rate of one hundred dollars per mile; for the five years succeeding January first, 1904, three per cent. annually of the gross earnings of said Company, with a minimum payment, however, during said period of five years at the rate of two hundred and fifty dollars a mile per year; and for each and every succeeding year thereafter, five per cent. of the gross earnings of said Company, with a minimum payment, however, at the rate of two hundred and fifty dollars a mile per year. The gross earnings in this section referred to shall be construed to include all earnings of said Company and full proportion of all earnings on full traffic to be calculated according to the proportion between the entire length of the journey and the number of miles travelled within the limits of the Borough of Fanwood, all of said payments to be made each and every year on or before the last day of each year.

That to enable the Borough to ascertain from time to time the gross earnings of the said Company the books of the Company shall be open for inspection by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood or by such other person or persons as the said Mayor and Council for that purpose shall designate at the expense of the said Company. The payments provided for in this section shall be in lieu of all license fees for cars whether provided for in prior ordinances or not.

That in case the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company or its agents, lessees, successors or assigns, shall fail to make payment of the amounts and at the periods herein provided, then and in that case all rights, powers, privileges, and grants by this ordinance conveyed to the said Railway Company, its agents, lessees, successors or assigns shall cease and determine in sixty days thereafter.

Section 17. That the fares to be charged by said Company for every passenger riding on its railroad in the Borough of Fanwood, shall be as follows:

1. The Company shall sell thirty-three school tickets in one strip for one dollar, said tickets to be void if detached, and to be good only between the hours of eight A. M. and five P. M., on days when the schools in said Fanwood Township are in session, and when presented by a scholar attending a school in said Township going to and from school.

2. For each and every passenger for a continuous ride to or from any point in the Borough of Fanwood on the line of tracks hereby located to or from any point on the lines of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company in the Borough of Fanwood, in the Township of Fanwood, in the City of Plainfield, in the Township of Westfield and in the Township of Cranford, the sum of five cents; children under four years of age over the lines herein set forth and hereinafter mentioned, free; children over four and under ten years of age (other than children going to and from school) not occupying seats required by other passengers, three cents over the lines hereinbefore specified; passengers to or from any point on the lines of said Company in the Borough of Roselle, eight cents; children between four and ten years of age, other than school children going to and from school, four cents; passengers to or from any point on the lines of said Company in the City of Elizabeth, the sum of ten cents; children over four and under ten years of age (other than school children going to and from school) five cents.

Section 18. If the said railway company shall fail to build or construct the whole of said railway as in this ordinance described, with its turnouts, switches, &c., in the manner aforesaid, and put the same in operation for the transportation of passengers within nine months from the first day of March, 1898, or shall thereafter fail or neglect to operate the same aforesaid, and as in this ordinance specified (except for reasons beyond the control of said Company) over the whole of said road as herein described, all the right, powers and privileges and every of them of the said railway company, its successors and assigns and by virtue of this ordinance shall become at the option of Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood null and void and the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood in that event expressly reserves the right to cause the said railway and every part thereto to be removed from the streets, avenues and highways on which the same has been placed within the Borough of Fanwood (first giving notice of at least ten days to said Company to remove the same and all structures connected therewith), and in case the said Company should fail or neglect to comply with the requirements of said notice and put the streets and roads in as good condition as before the said road was constructed, the said Mayor and Council may at a public auction sell so much of said material belonging to the said railway company as may be necessary to pay the costs of removal and the replacing of said road or highway in their former condition.

Section 19. Should the said Company violate this ordinance in any section or provision thereof for which a penalty has not been already prescribed, and specified herein, the said railway company shall be subject to a penalty of ten dollars ($10) for each and every violation, on conviction thereof, to be recovered before any justice of the peace of said Borough. The provisions of this section, however, in no way to effect the rights or claims of any person or persons against said Company.

Section 20. That said Company upon final adoption of this ordinance and before the exercising of any of the rights and privileges granted, shall as a condition precedent file with the Borough Clerk of the Borough of Fanwood a contract to be executed by said Company and duly approved by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood wherein said Company shall covenant and agree with the inhabitants of the Borough of Fanwood, to abide by and perform all the matters and things herein on part of said Company to be observed, kept and performed; that it will at any and all times hereafter fully indemnify and protect the Borough of Fanwood from any and all suits, actions and proceedings that may be brought and maintained, or sought to be brought and maintained by any person or corporation on account of or by reason of the adoption or maintenance by said Company, its successors or assigns of said electric system aforesaid, or the construction or maintenance of said electric system, or anything connected therewith, or any act or omission or commission by said Company, its successors or assigns, or any of its agents or servants, at any time or times, and shall whenever requested by said Borough, fully defend any and every action, suit or proceeding.

Section 21. That this ordinance shall take effect immediately, and said Company shall file its written acceptance thereof in the manner and times required by law and shall fully pay and satisfy bills approved and ordered paid by said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood within ten days after such date of approval for advertisements, publications, notices, printing and other work done in or about or connected with the consideration of the application of said Company for said location of tracks connected with the consideration of the passage of this ordinance or any ordinance or ordinances supplementary therto.

SPORTS' PARADISE.

CANADA'S GREAT AREAS OF VIRGIN FORESTS FILLED WITH GAME.

Streams Full of Trout—Almost a Million Square Miles of Wooded Land Open to the Sportsman—Which Can be Easily Reached.

On every hand one hears the question propounded, "Where can good hunting and fishing still be obtained?" In some instances the idea of time or expense is not taken into consideration, but in the majority of cases it is. Another question is sure also to be asked: "Where can one go to find restful solitude and unlimited sport? Surely not to any places within reasonable distance in the States."

But a very few years ago how readily the answer would have come: "Seek the Adirondacks." To-day one would rather say "Avoid them." Why? Simply because they have become too civilized. So it is that as readily as we formerly said the Adirondacks we now say Canada.

A. P. Low, of the government Geological Survey, one of Canada's greatest explorers, has made some extensive journeys, and has discovered an immense region full of wonderful things. He started about the middle of last June to complete his explorations in the territory east of Hudson Bay. This expedition covers the ground from the head waters of the East Main River through Labrador to the Atlantic coast at the mouth of the Hamilton River. Mr. Low's previous trip was made into Labrador, lasting two years, and he returned in the summer of 1894.

According to the latest explorations, the forest possessions of Canada are as follows, divided into areas:—

First, commencing at the northwest border of the Dominion, is a tract between 9,000 and 10,000 square miles in extent. This approximates Belgium in size, and lies between Alaska and the Arctic coast. The next area comprises about 30,000 square miles, lying west of the Yukon River, also bordered by Alaska on the west. The third area, nearly as large as Scotland, comprises about 27,000 or 28,000 square miles, and is bordered by the Stique, Pelly and Lewes rivers. The next in order is one of the largest areas. This comprises fully 100,000 square miles. It lies between the Pelly and Mackenzie rivers and is twice the size of England. Reaching into this territory for several hundred miles is the northern end of the Rocky Mountains.

The next area is about half the size of the one just mentioned—50,000 square miles. This lies between the Arctic coast and Great Bear Lake. The fifth area is between Great Bear Lake, the Mackenzie River and Great Slave Lake. It is 35,000 square miles in extent and about equals Portugal. Between the Skeena and Peace rivers, on the south, and the Lair and Stique, on the north, is an area of between 80,000 and 82,000 square miles. Thirty-five thousand square miles are comprised in the next area,

POPPED CORN AND PULLED CANDY.

A Real Old-Fashioned Time Enjoyed at the Park Club.

A decidedly enjoyable time was provided for the members of the Park Club at the clubhouse last evening. The house committee called it an "old-fashioned good time."

Corn poppers were provided, together with a store of pop-corn. Steward Jones had a roaring fire in the great open fire-place in the basement, and round it the guests gathered. Soon the room resounded with the sharp crackle and snap of the popping corn. Three poppers were kept busy until an enormous heap of the white corn was provided.

In the steward's cottage, old-fashioned molasses candy was prepared. After the corn was popped, the candy was brought out and young and old took a hand in pulling it. With buttered fingers the old and dignified members forgot to stand sedately around, but worked at the candy as if their life depended on it.

An exciting game of bean bags was started in the parlors during the evening and kept many of the gusts busy for most of the evening. Of course, the pop-corn and candy was eaten, and then Steward Jones had other good things that were served during the latter part of the evening.

BURGLARIZED WHEELMEN'S REST.

Entrance Effected by Knocking Off Boards—Stole $15 Worth.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, April 6.—During last Monday evening someone broke into the "wheelmen's retreat" at the end of the trolley line and stole about $15 worth of tobacco, cigars, etc. Entrance was effected through the rear of the building where several boards were knocked off. The cigar and tobacco case was thoroughly cleaned out and everything in general was upset. The robbery probably occurred during the early hours of the morning, for it was late when the owner, Fred Huff, left his place and went home.

This makes the third time that the place has been broken open, and there is very little prospect that the thieves will be caught. Mr. Huff purchased a bulldog recently and placed him in the building nights. The animal was only there a few nights before someone spirited him away. Mr Huff now thinks that he will hire a man to watch the building and see what can be done toward catching the robbers.

AFRAID TO GO HOME

Mrs. Peal's Son Was Fearful of Punishment for Losing Money.

Last Monday Mrs. Peal, of Watchung avenue, sent her young son, Wm. Peal, to the grocery store for two cakes of soap and two bottles of ammonia. She gave him 25 cents and expected him back in a short time. As the time passed the boy failed to put in an appearance and Mrs. Peal becoming anxious notified Chief Marshal Wilson. The latter kept a sharp lookout for the boy, but was unable to find him until this morning, when Councilman Homan, who keeps a carriage shop on Somerset street, informed the officer that the boy was found asleep in a wagon in the rear of his shop. The officer took charge of the boy and made inquiries as to his whereabouts. Young Peal said when he started on the errand Monday he lost the 25 cents and was afraid to go home, thinking his mother would whip him. Monday night he slept in a vacant barn on Hillside avenue, and last night he spent as stated above.

The lad was poorly clad and suffered from the cold. He was taken home by the officer and the mother was delighted. She forgave the boy for losing the money and welcomed him back home.

INTEREST IN PLAINFIELD.

There is no doubt but that the people of Plainfield are greatly interested in the present crisis. All the morning, crowds surged about the bulletin in front of The Press office and read the latest dispatches as they were posted one after another. The Press again demonstrated its enterprise by being the only paper in the city to keep the people of Plainfield posted with the course of events with frequent bulletins.

IMPRESSIVE GOSPEL LESSON.

Novel and Pleasant Entertainment Given by Junior Endeavorers.

A creditable entertainment that should be repeated was given last evening in the lecture room of Trinity Reformed church, under the auspices of the Junior Christian Endeavor Society. The attendance was not very large, owing to the stormy night, but those present were well repaid for going.

Part first of the progamme was opened with a chorus "Who will follow Jesus," by the Juniors, and was followed with a sweet little prayer by Beulah VanWinekle, and a piano solo by Lucy Coriell. A recitation "What will you give to Jesus," was given by Anna Holder. The next number was a recitation and response, "Heathen Children," Beulah VanWinkle, and others with singing "Voices to us are Calling."

The following number was an autoharp solo by Bessie TenEyck, which preceded a chorus "Send Out the Light," by the Juniors. "Nellie's Lost Prayer," a recitation by Bessie Randall, and another reciation, "Suffer Them to Come," by Lena Bohan, were well given, as was also a recitation and response "Help to Send the Gospel," by Chrissie Mobus and six boys and girls. Another solo on the autoharp was given by Bessie TenEyck, after which the first part was closed with the offering and a prayer by Elsie Tier, and the singing of "Whiter Than Snow," by the Juniors.

Part second was the presentation of a dialogue entitled "The Lamp in a Dark Continent." The room was completely darkened after which Hattie Randall, representing the "Mother Church," and Lida Wyman, the "Martyr Church of Madagascar," entered bearing lighted candles. Annie Randell, Hazel Martin, Clara Martin, Ada VanDoren, Lucy Coriell, Bessie Wilson and Katie Bodine, representing the dark continent, entered the room bearing unlighted candles. Each candle was lighted from the two carried by Hattie Randall and Lida Wyman, as the bearer, told how the Gospel was carried into the dark continent. The illustration was impressive and the lesson taught effective.

Mrs. John Manley presided at the piano and played for the little ones to sing. During an intermission an offering was taken by two young Juniors.

The Faithful Got the Money.

An Irishman who died in the early part of this century, in one of the outlying parishes of London, undertook to test the devotion of his friends and acquaintances by making out a list of 400 of them, who were requested by written invitation to attend his funeral, which was held at 7 o'clock one cold winter morning in the parish church. Only twenty-nine persons appeared. When his will was opened it was found that, having no natural heirs, he ordered his fortune to be divided among the persons who attended his funeral.

Master—Do you understand the meaning of the terms capital and labor?

Small Boy—Yes, sir; I know what it is. If a boy coasts down a hill, that's capital. If another boy pulls the sled up, that's labor.—Boston Traveler.

CURRENCY REFORM BILL.

Leading Features of the Measure Introduced in the House—Reserve Notes to Be Issued.

Washington, April 6.—The bill prepared for the reform of the currency and the protection of the Treasury by the sub-committee of the House Committee was introduced in the House yesterday. The bill was prepared by Messrs. McCleary, of Minnesota, chairman of the sub-committee, Prince, of Illinois, and Mitchel, of New York.

A general statement of the purposes of the committee was printed some days ago, but some changes have since been made in the details of the bill, and a careful summary has been prepared of its leading provision and its effect upon existing national banks. This summary is as follows:

The proposed bill creates a division of issue and redemption in the Treasury, substantially in accord with the provisions of the plan of the Monetary Commission. The amount which the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to set aside for the purpose of this division is all the money in the Treasury in excess of a cash balance of $50,000,000. This would have permitted a reserve on March 31, 1898, of $176,157,327.

The division of issue and redemption is authorized to redeem legal notes in notes, redeem standard silver dollars in gold, but not to redeem silver certificates in gold, and to make other exchange of currency and coin. Notes redeemed in gold shall be canceled to the amount of new bank notes issued.

Provision is made for the conversion of existing legal tender notes into reserve notes, of which the banks assume the current redemption, but which constitute a liability of the government upon the failure of liquidation of a national bank. All features regarding reserve notes are permissive to existing national banks whose charters have not expired.

Banks may pay into the Treasury United States notes to any amount not exceeding 35 per cent. of their unimpaired capital, and receive in exchange a new form of note, known as national reserve notes. The United States notes surrendered are required to be canceled and destroyed as received.

When United States notes cannot be obtained for the purpose of banking under the act, Treasury notes of 1890 may be used, and when these cannot be obtained, the Secretary of the Treasury may waive the requirement and permit the issue of notes upon commercial assets to the same amount as if the reserve notes previously provided for had been issued.

Reserve notes are to be redeemed on demand by the bank to which they are issued, in lawful money over its own counters, or from the 5-per-cent. redemption fund established by existing law. This fund is hereafter required to be equal to 5 per cent. of the amount of reserve notes, as well as currency notes, outstanding, issued by the bank, and to be kept in gold coin. Upon the failure or liquidation of a national bank its reserve notes shall be redeemed in gold coin and canceled and destroyed.

National banks desiring to issue currency notes based upon their commercial assets may receive and issue notes to the amount of the national reserve notes taken by them, not exceeding 35 per cent. of their unimpaired capital.

Currency notes shall be protected by a first lien upon al the assets of the bank and by a guaranty fund of 5 per cent. of their circulation of this character. Assessments to make good the guaranty fund cannot exceed 1 per cent. per year. The guaranty fund is to be paid by the banks in gold. Current redemption of currency notes shall be in lawful money over the counter of the bank, or in gold from the redemption fund in the custody of the United States Treasurer.

Circulation in excess of 69 per cent. of the capital of a national bank, not secured by United States bonds, shall be subjected to a tax of 2 per cent. up to 80 per cent. of the capital, and to a tax of 6 per cent. above 80 per cent. of the capital. Circulation cannot in any case exceed the unimpaired capital of the bank.

No change is made in the status of national banks desiring to continue business by the deposit of bonds as security for circulating notes, except that they are authorized to increase their circulation to the face value of the bonds.

National banks may reduce each year their deposits of United States bonds to secure circulation after the expiration of one year by one-fourth of the amount of the bonds, and after five years no such bond deposits shall be required. The withdrawal of bonds shal not diminish the circulation permitted to remain outstanding against commercial assets. The minimum amount of bonds required upon the passage of the act is the same as under existing law—25 per cent of the capital, but not exceeding $50.000.

All existing national banks are required to accept the provisions of the new law within one year, but it is provided that such acceptance "shall not be construed as changing the term of the existing charter of the bank."

Existing national banks which do not avail themselves of the option of issuing notes upon commercial assets are not required to contribute to the bank note guaranty fund, are not subjected to any tax upon their circulation and are not liable in any manner for the notes of other banks.

New National banks are required to invest 25 per cent. of their capital in reserve notes issued in exchange for legal tender notes, if such notes are available, and banks whose charters expire after the expiration of three years from the passage of the act are required to comply with the same provision.

All banks are required to accept new form of notes, which does not specifically state that the notes are secured by United States bonds.

National banks are required to pay a tax of one-tenth of one per cent. semi-annually upon their capital, surplus and undivided profits.

National banks are permitted to establish branches under regulations by the Secretary of the Treasury.

CRESCENT CHURCH IN DEBT OVER $5,700.

The Report Made at the Annual Meeting Last Night.

ENCOURAGING STATEMENTS MADE BY AUXILIARY SOCIETIES.

The Meeting Held in the Crescent Avenue Church Chapel, With Rev. W. R. Richards Acting as Moderator—I. C. Pierson Resigns as an Elder—A Strong Plea for a Larger Membership in the Sunday-school—$100 Deficiency in That Department—Report of the Deacons—Benevolent Offerings.

The annual meeting of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church was held last night in the lecture room of the church. There was a large attendance and Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards presided. After opening exercises of a devotional character, the minutes of the last meeting were read by Israel C. Pierson.

A letter was read by the moderator, giving the resignation of I. C. Pierson as an elder of the church. The resignation was accepted, with much regret.

The report of the women's societies was read by Dr. Richards, showing the year to have been one of successful work. The Home Missionary Society and Foreign Missionary Society both reported interesting meetings, a generous amount of money given for mission work, and comforts sent to many workers in the field. The Young Ladies' Mission Band and the Sunshine Mission Band presented encouraging reports, as did the Earnest Workers, a boys band. The Junior Endeavor Society were shown to be in a flourishing condition. The McAll Auxiliary also rendered a report. Through all these associations, over $2,100 had been given for worthy objects, during the year. Dr. Ben VanD. Hedges gave the report for the Y. P. S. C. E., and H. B. Newhall for the Sunday-school. The latter made a strong plea for a larger membership in the home department. Over $700 had been given by the Sunday school, during the year, for missions. The general treasury of the school, however, ended the year with over $100 deficiency.

A nominating committee of nine, six of whom were appointed by the moderator and three elected by the meeting, were instructed to nominate members of the congregation to fill vacant offices in the boards of the church, and report at a future meeting. The committee was as follows: Charles Place, J. Kirtland Myers, Leander N. Lovell, Henry G. Squires, Samuel F. Kimball, S. H. Whitney, Dr B. VanD. Hedges, H. B. Munger and W. D. Murray.

Reports of the work at Bethel chapel were given by S. A. Ginna and Rev. Mr. Tilden, showing the chapel to be doing a real spiritual work among the colored population. H. C. Squires reported for Hope chapel. This was a very bright and humorous report, and told in an interesting way of the different lines of work carried on by this young "institutional church." Rev. G. Kennedy Newell's few words on the same subject were deeply earnest, and thankful for the steady, quiet endeavor he had witnessed among his people.

Warren chapel was represented by Leander N. Lovell, who reported a treasury in good condition, a good attendance at the various services, and a variety of lines of work successfully carried on. Rev. J. O. McKelvey had also a few strong words of commendation to say about his church.

The report of the deacons was rendered by S. H. Whitney, and that of the trustees by Charles Place. The latter reported a present indebtedness on the part of the church of over $5,700. I. C. Pierson read the report of the session of the church, showing a steady increase in the membership of the church and chapels. A list of the members who had died during the year was read, and a list of offerings for benevolences, amounting to $18,906.01.

Closing prayer was offered by W. D. Murray, after which the meeting was adjourned until Wednesday night of next week.

A Bicycle Sociable.

A bicycle social will be held this evening at the home of Dr. W. Kempton Browning, at 224 East Fifth street, under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Baptist church. All members of the society and young people of the church and congregation not members are cordially invited to attend.

AT THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN.

Annual Church Meeting Was Held Last Evening.

The annual church and parish meeting of the First Presbyterian church was held last evening in the chapel of the church. The pastor, Rev. C. E. Herring, presided over the church meeting and J. M. Bettman was the secretary. Reports were presented from the Sunday-school, Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies, Christian Endeavor Society, King's Daughters and all other departments of the church. Each one showed a healthy, financial and spiritual condition which was pleasing to all present. During the past year there was expended for benevolent and missionary purposes $1,500 and much good was accomplished thereby.

The parish meeting followed and E M. Cave was the presiding official and H. A. Pope acted as secretary. At this meeting officers were elected as follows: Elders, J. M. Bettman, A. L Cadmus, E. M. Cave; deacons, J. E. Lindsey, A. G. Remsen; trustees, J. E. Haynes, C. E. Bond and T. J. Pruden.

As the reading of the various reports consumed considerable time it was late when the meeting adjourned, but all present seemed to be well pleased with the showing made by the different departments.

GAZELLE'S NOMINATION.

Collector Bird Named for Foreman, Which is Equivalent to Election.

Gazelle Engine Company held a regular meeting last evening and nominated officers for the ensuing term, to be elected at the first meeting in May. In this case the nomination is equivalent to an election. The officers nominated consist of Foreman, L. M. Dunavan; first assistant, Wm Addis; second assistant, D. S. Dunavan; secretary, J. E. Huntington; assistant secretary, W. T. Newman; financial secretary, Frank Putnam; treasurer, L. J. Spicer; representative to the Firemen's Relief Association, J. A. Hubbard and W. T. Newman.

Collector Bird was also nominated for foreman of the company, but he refused to stand for an election. The members, however, would not let him withdraw his name.

HELD IN $200 BAIL.

Frank Hollenbeck Will Have to Answer to the Grand Jury.

The case of the Central Railroad Company against Frank Hollenbeck, charging him with selling iron which was stolen from the company by John Fillmore, was called yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Justice Moffett's court. The defendant was held in $200 bail to appear before the Grand Jury.

The case of Eastman against Fillmore and the case of Eastman against Hollenbeck was called and set down for tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Fillmore was held in $200 bail for his appearance tomorrow morning. The cases of Eastman against Hollenbeck and Fillmore is for stealing iron, boilers, etc., from the former's house on East Front street.

DUER STREET OPENING.

The Thoroughfare Cannot Be Opened by Private Subscription.

In connection with the proposed opening of Duer street from the borough, the action of the Borough Council at the last meeting was not clearly stated. At the meeting Counsel Reed stated that the street could only be opened in one way and that is by having commissioners appointed to assess benefits and damages just the same as is done in other similar cases. The street cannot be opened by subscription as was thought by Mr. Woolston and other Councilmen. As soon as the above fact became known Mr. Woolston had nothing further to say regarding the opening. It is safe to state that the idea of opening the street is not entirely abandoned and the prospects for it are very good.

Father Time Dealt Kindly With Him.

Many Plainfielders will remember the genial John G. Voorhees, who resided on East Front street at what is now number 826. Mr. Voorhees was in town a few days ago, and the many persons with whom he shook hands all congratulated him on how leniently Father Time had dealt with him in the twenty years he has been away from this city. He now resides at No. 2 West Thirty second street, New York. His East Front street property is in the hands of J. B. Coward for sale.

Evils of Intemperance.

"The Evils of All Intemperance" will be the subject of the Christian Endeavor service to be held tomorrow evening at the First Baptist church. It will be a prayer and praise service and the usual Bible study drill, conducted by Miss Shinn, will precede the service.

TRIED TO KILL THE PRESIDENT

A Cuban Fanatic in the White House.

The Crazy Man Arrested With a Smoking Revolver in His Hand—The President is Uninjured.

SPECIALS TO THE DAILY PRESS.

Washington, April 7.—Lascon Raio, a Cuban fanatic, gained access to the library of the White House, this afternoon, and tried to assassinate the President. He shot at the President and was arrested by the guards at the White House with a smoking revolver in his hand. Washington is in a turmoil of excitement. Everybody is excited. The extra editions of the papers agree that McKinley was unharmed.

Washington, April 7.—The delay in making public the President's message, which action was taken at the urgent dispatch of Consul-General Lee asking delay so that all Americans could seek safety from Spanish anger and revenge in case the message should mean war, is acting as a wedge to arrive at an amicable understanding with Spain by further diplomatic relations. The President and his advisers have not given up all hope of getting Spain to agree to terms that will avoid war, and between now and Monday every effort will be made to effect a peaceable settlement of complications, at the same time satisfying the Cuban insurgents.

Washington, April 7.—Senator Gray stated this morning after he had visited the White House that he did not think that either Counsul-General Lee or Minister Woodford would be at their posts at the beginning of next week.

Madrid, April 7.—Minister Woodford presented a fresh note to the Sanish government late yesterday demanding a definite answer in six hours. After the matter had been considered by the Sagasta cabinet it was decided to adhere firmly to the tenor of Spain's previous note. Just before midnight the cabinet issued an official note in which it was stated that after carefully considering the present political situation and every possible view of the details supplied by the minister of foreign affairs, it had decided to maintain the exact attitude previously established, which they believed to be eminently just.

London, April 7.—In a private telegram the Queen Regent of Spain has appealed to Queen Victoria, of England, to use her influence to avert war. She recalls that both are widows, with none to advise, and relies on Queen Victoria's love for peace to help prevent a disastrous war.

Havana, via Key West, April 7—Thomas Brito, a wealthy farmer of Matanzas, has been foully assasinated by the Spanish police.

Brito had sheltered a wounded Cuban officer at his country residence and after carefully nursing him, had made arrangements to bring the

AFTER CONNECTING LINK

BRUNSWICK TRACTION COMPANY AFTER ANOTHER FRANCHISE.

Right of Way Wanted so That a Connection Can be Made With the Line that Will Connect With Plainfield.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Bound Brook, April 7.—The Brunswick Traction Company are ever on the alert for valuable trolley franchises and their last effort in this direction is the application which they filed with the Borough Council Tuesday night.

The new petition is for the right of way through East and Talmadge streets of this town so that they can connect with the proposed line toward Dunellen, with the Somerville line which has already been laid by the New York and Philadelphia Traction Company and cross the river in order to connect with the line to be laid on this side of the river by the New York and Philadelphia Company. The matter will be considered at a meeting to be held Tuesday, April 26th.

The petition was introduced by Fred Weigel, representing the local company, in the name of the New York and Philadelphia Traction Company. The majority of the Borough Council by their previous consideration of trolley matters have shown themselves to be in favor of the local company, and when this petition was presented in the name of their former rival some of the Councilmen were disposed to treat it unfavorably. The matter resulted in a general discussion in which it was explained to the members of the Council that the two companies were practically one. This ended the dissatisfaction in the Council, but nearly an hour was consumed in making the situation clear.

WILL BECOME AN M. E.

Walter B. Rittenhouse to Graduate From Stevens Institute.

Walter B. Rittenhouse, of East Sixth street, has returned from Stevens Institute after completing his four years' course of study at that institution. He passed his final examinations last week and took the last one Tuesday. The last term is given to the graduating class at Stevens to prepare their theses. Rittenhouse has already prepared his and it has been accepted by the faculty. The graduating ceremonies will be held in June, when he will receive the degree of mechanical engineer. That degree, coming from Stevens, is of more value than from any other college on account of the very rigorous course, which is said to be the most complete in the country. Rittenhouse's standing has been very high during the four years.

KANE DIES OF HIS WOUND.

A Sheriff's Posse Searching for Isaac Mitchell, Who Shot Him in Barber's Shop.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Newark, April 7.—Edward Kane, the telegraph lineman, who was shot at Whitehouse, in Hunterdon county, Saturday night, by Isaac Mitchell, a sixteen-year-old colored boy, died yesterday afternoon in St. Michael's Hospital. The fatal quarrel between Kane and Mitchell took place in a barber shop. Mitchell was put out, but returned with his employer, James N. Pidcock, superintendent of the Rockaway Valley Railroad. A general row followed and Mitchell shot Kane in the left hip, the bullet penetrating deep into his body.

The injured man was taken to Newark on Sunday for treatment. At St. Michael's Hospital the surgeons were unable to locate the bullet and it was intended to put him under the X rays on Monday. His condition was so critical, however, that this could not be done, and he grew worse steadily until his death.

Mitchell had not been arrested up to Tuesday night, and yesterday Sheriff Ramsey, of Flemington, organized a posse to search for him.

During the affray in which Kane received his death wound, Pidcock and R. Gilloy, a postal telegraph foreman, got into an altercation, as a result of which Pidcock was arrested Tuesday and put under $200 bail to await trial on a charge of assault and battery.

TURKEY MEAT WAS DEVOURED.

A Seventh-Day Baptist Affair That Satisfied the Inner Man.

A successful Easter supper was given in the parlors of the Seventh-Day Baptist church last evening. The principal dish of the supper was the turkey, or rather turkeys, for there were several of them. A bountiful meal was served during the evening. The attendance was large and the cold weather gave added attractions to the turkey.

D. E. Titsworth and H. M. Maxson ruled over the carving department with a skill that betokened long experience. The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. A. M. Ross, chairman; Mrs. John D. Titsworth, Mrs. Charles Dunham and Mrs. D. E. Titsworth.

The waitresses were the Misses Mabel Maxson, Ernestine Smith, Ida Spicer, Ida Randolph, Mabel Mitchell, Luella Clawson, Anna Wooden, Matie Green, Jessie Utter and Carrie Randolph. Charles Dunham acted as cashier.

Public Library Affairs.

The request of the King's Daughters that the Young Women's Club, recently established by them, be made a distributing centre of books was referred to the library committee with power. The report of the building committee was received, and the committee instructed to proceed with the erection of the addition. The matter of binding back volumes of the Patent Office Gazette at the expense of the Babcock fund was referred to the library committee with power.

Pastor Gibson May Come Back.

The Calvary Baptist church has not given up its old pastor after all. The members decided to give him a chance to return. Mrs. Gibson declares that her husband has not gone away to stay, but will return shortly to resume his pastorate. The business meeting of the church was held Monday evening, when the matter was considered. Rev. P. H. Thomas will continue to preach at the church for several weeks until something more definite is heard from Pastor Gibson.

THE HUNDRED DEVILS, HATERS OF THE DONS.

Sought to Burn Senor Sagasta in in Effigy Last Night.

THE POLICE PREVENTED.

A HUMOROUS SEQUEL TO THE PROPOSED VALOROUS DEED.

Forty Plainfield Young Men Tried to Incinerate a Straw Dummy, But the Police, Thinking it Was McKinley Who Was to be Burned, Interfered Twice and in the End Hailed the Cuban Sympathisers and the Effigy to the Rookery—When Sergeant Kiely Learned His Mistake it Was all Right

By the light of the pale moon some forty valorous young Americans cautiously assembled in front of the North Avenue station last evening. There was blood in their eyes and they called for vengence on the dastardly Spaniards. How bravely they marched along the street with the fire of patriotism burning in their veins! They had planned to burn the Spanish prime minister in effigy! As the dummy, all saturated with oil, was swung into the air, the patriotic aspirations of the young Americans were immediately cut short by the sight of a blue-coateb policeman. Now, that one determined policeman appeared decidedly more formidable than the seventeen millions of Spaniards in Spain. With one demoralizing groan, the crowd disbanded without delay.

The circumstances of the proposed demonstration, its sudden ending and the unexpected sequel, furnished an endless amount of fun to the lookerson.

Tuesday the following letter was received by The Daily Press:

Sir:—On Wednesday a party of the best young men of the town are going to hang Weyler and Sagasta in effigy at the depot at 9:30, evening. Think perhaps you would like to have someone here to obtain facts. Kindly keep from authorities and oblige

Yours resp't,
One of the Hundred Devils.

As a result a Press reporter wandered in the direction of the North Avenue station at the time indicated. There were some twelve chosen spirits who arranged the effigy and the remainder of their followers were recruited during the evening. The remarkable dummy that was destined to play the part of the great Spanish statesman, was made of straw. He wore a suit that reminded one more of a delegate from Trampdom than a Spanish minister. His head was composed of a sheet, on which delightfully artistic features were outlined with crayon. A long clothesline was attached to the place where his neck should have been. To help the spectators in recognizing the identity of the dummy, there was a sign on the front of his coat labeled "Sagasta."

The "Hundred Devils," numbering about forty, marched over the tracks to the open space where the freight-house once stood. The rope was thrown over a branch of one of the little trees that stands close to the track and soon the effigy was dangling in the air.

There were lots of familiar faces in the crowd. They had named the Watchung avenue bridge as the rendezvous. There they had gathered and then marched to the station. Herbert Martin, one of the leaders in the movement to organize a militia company in this city, marshaled the crowd. Frank Smalley kept a watchful eye on them for a time, but did not stay to the end. Courtney Kellar was captain of the guard that took charge of the lifeless prisoner.

Poor "Sagasta" had been soaked with kerosene. As he was hoisted into the air a match was struck. Now it had happened that some of the more uproarious of the "Hundred Devils" could not control their feelings before the match was lit and so gave vent to all sorts of yells. Patrolman Higgins heard them and notified Roundsman Frederickson.

All was ready for the burning. Garfield Pike unfuried the Stars and Stripes which were to wave victoriously over the head of the burning Spaniard. Fred Barker held the Spanish flag that was to perish in the flames while another young man displayed the flag of the Cuba Libre. Then the Roundsman charged gallantly down on the assembled multitude.

The enemies of Spain saw him. The fire of patriotism froze in their veins. They staggered, then rallied and then broke in retreat. The would-be militia men and their friends fled before the advance of the sole representa-

QUEEN ASKS FOR PEACE

She is Said to have Ignored Her Cabinet Advisers.

OFFERS TO CONCEDE ALL.

Negotiations, Conducted by Her Through German and Austrian Ambassadors, Were Designed to Satisfy America Without Exciting Spanish Hostility.

Madrid, Spain, April 7.—It is said here that a satisfactory settlement has been arrived at between the United States and Spain and that a proclamation of the Queen Regent, announcing an immediate amistice in Cuba, will be issued to-day. It is added that some of the Cabinet Ministers may resign; but, if necessary, the Ministry will be changed.

The Austrian Ambassador, Count Dubsky, had an interview with the United States Minister, Gen. Stewart L. Woodford, yesterday. They both seemed much pleased at the situation.

Ministerial Crisis Imminent.

A Ministerial crisis is imminent. It is understood Senor Silvela, the leader of the dissident conservatives, and the conservatives, will, if necessary, accept office on a programme of an immediate armistice, with full authority to the autonomist government to negotiate and conclude an immediate and effectual peace in Cuba.

Queen Regent Sued for Peace.

Madrid, Spain, April 7, via Bayonne, France.—The developments in the situation to-day are confined to the important part the Queen Regent is taking in the crisis.

She has practically taken matters out of the hands of her Ministers, and is dealing direct with the United States Minister, Gen. Stewart L. Woodford, through the German and Austrian Ambassadors, and is working earnestly for peace.

It is known beyond doubt that Spain is now prepared to give all America has asked, although the form of this concession must be gilded to suit Spanish palates and must take into consideration th political difficulties which confront Spain.

SHIPS AT PORTO RICO.

Viscaya and Almirante Oquendo Reach That Port from Havana.

Washington, April 7.—The news that the two big Spanish cruisers Vizcaya and Almirante Oquendo had reached Porto Rico has caused a stir in naval circles. The fact of their arrival shows that their object in stealing out of Havana harbor as they did was correctly surmised by the Naval Board authorities, which wanted the President to send the flying squadron after them at the time.

It was undoubtedly the intention to have the cruisers meet the torpedo flotilla, which started from the Canaries some time ago, and which was expected to have reached Porto Rico to-day. The flotilla, as is already known, was turned back by the storm and is now at the Cape Verde Islands.

The arrival of the warships has already caused a change in the plan of campaign. Orders have been issued to the flying squadron now under Commodore Schley, at Hampton Roads.

The squadron will proceed to St. Thomas, at which place this Government has purchased all the coal in sight. The squadron will then be within a short distance of Porto Rico, upon which place, it is believed, an attack will be made immediately on war being declared. If Porto Rco is taken by this country Spain will be without a base of supplies or a coaling station within 2,800 miles of Cuba.

Spain Falsifies About the Pope.

Rome, April 7.—The Vatican is very displeased at Spain's conduct. It appears that the Pope charged Archbishop Ireland to speak semi-officially to President McKinley in the interest of peace and the Archbishop replied that he had taken the initial step.

The Pope then notified the Spanish Government of his action, and despite this the dispatches from Madrid announced that President McKinley had sought the Pope's mediation.

This untruth has placed the Pope in a false position and damaged Spain's interests.

The Vatican is not now disposed to renew its efforts at mediation.

Spain Makes an Offer.

Washington, D. C., April 7.—Senor Du Bosc, late Charge d'Affaires of Spain, who was in charge during the critical period following the Maine disaster, authorized the following statement:

"The report of the Spanish commission which investigated the Maine disaster has not yet had time to reach Madrid from Havana. Notwithstanding this, the Spanish Government is ready to submit the evidence of both sides to the impartial judgment of the expert opinion of the maritime nations of the world."

Ministerial Crises at Madrid.

Madrid, April 7.—A ministerial crisis is imminent. It is understood Senor Silvela, the leader of the dissident Conservatives, and the Conservatives will, if necessary, accept office on a program of an immediate armistice, with full authority to the autonomist government to negotiate and conclude an immediate and effectual peace in Cuba.

Vatican Hears of Peace.

Rome, Italy, April 7.—It is semi-officially announced here that the Spanish Government has accepted the principle of an armistice with the insurgents, as proposed by the Pope.

Archibald H. Welch Dead.

Morristown, N. J., April 7.—Archibald H. Welch, second vice-president of the New York Life Insurance Company, died last night at his summer residence, No. 27 Franklin street.

He was born in Mansfield, Conn., on June 7, 1829. From 1851 until 1884, he was engaged in the dry goods commission business at Hartford, Conn. In 1882 he was elected a trustee of the New York Life Insurance Company, and in 1884 became second vice-president.

MOBILIZING OF TROOPS

War Preparations Go on the Same As Previously Planned.

TEXAS LEAVES NEW YORK.

Active Preparation for War Continue Notwithstanding the Stay of Proceedings at Washington—Soldiers at the Front Anxious for Hostilities to Begin.

Key West, Fla., April 7.—The news that the President's message had again been delayed in its transmission to Congress had a dampening effect upon the soldiers and sailors stationed here. There was intense excitement here over the prospect of bombarding Havana.

The ships were ready to fight at an hour's notice. All officers and men are being kept on board as much as possible.

The commanding officer of each ship has received the following bulletin from Secretary Long:

"There may not be a Farragut among you, but let his valor and devotion inspire you all."

This was read to all hands and there was great excitement and enthusiasm over it.

Fighting Bags for the Iowa.

The tug Leyden took 400 bags of sand to the Iowa to be used in action for protection around guns and windlasses and over the decks.

Capt. Duvall, aide to the Secretary of War, who arrived on the Mascotte, left at midnight for Dry Tortugas to make an inspection.

Army officers here are highly pleased over the arrival on the Olivette of 750 colored soldiers of the Twenty-fifth Regiment. They say that negroes are the best kind of fighters, and that they would rather have them than white men. This is directly opposite to the views of Key West residents, who turn up their noses at the negro troops.

The Mascottee last night from Havana brought 300 passengers, the largest number she has ever carried to this port. All are Americans leaving the Cuban capital.

TEXAS GOES TO SEA.

She Leaves New York Amid Great Excitement and Much Cheering.

New York, April 7.—The battle ship Texas put to sea yesterday. She is expected to reach Hampton Roads this afternoon. Her pilot is Philip Guinness and her commander Captain John Phillip. She carries 427 men and 38 officers. She went down the harbor under her own steam stripped for action.

The unusual sight of a battle ship in her fighting paint, devoid of all the gilt and gewgaws with which a battle ship in time of peace is commonly surrounded, steaming down the East River caused the utmost excitement among those who saw her pass. As the Texas, after having been towed from her dock to midstream, rounded bow on to the harbor, the two six-pounders mounted on the Cob Dock fired twelve guns. The Texas answered with twelve guns from the rapid-fire guns on her port side and then proceeded down the river.

The workmen and sailors and marines and soldiers in the Navy Yard when the Texas fired her last gun all rushed to the water front and screamed and cheered and cheered again. On the Texas the sailors were gathered on the forward deck. They also cheered themselves hoarse. And then the Texas steamed slowly down the river. Her's was in a manner a triumphal progress. Every steam vessel in her path saluted her with whistles, every sailing vessel dipped her colors. The great ship acknowledged every salute by every boat, no matter how small, and the sailor at the signal halyards was kept constantly busy dipping the flag.

Along the docks on either side of the river the workmen left their work to rush to the pier front and cheer the outgoing battle ship. Never a vessel steamed out of New York harbor with more public manifestation of good will. Those who cheered seemed to feel that when they were cheering the Texas they were cheering a serious instrument of war, and not a pretty white and gold plaything. Few, if any, of those who saw the Texas sail ever saw a battle ship in fighting paint before, and the sight did not fail to make an impression.

THE CINCINNATI'S MISHAP.

The Cruiser Aground at Key West, but Was Floated Uninjured.

Key West, Fla., April 7.—The Cincinnati went aground on entering the harbor yesterday.

She grounded at 6.15 o'clock while she was coming from sea to the Naval Depot wharf for coal. She picked up the middle ground about 100 yards from that wharf. This sand lump has about eighteen feet of water over it.

The tug Leyden immediately ran a hawser to the Cincinnati's stern, while the latter worked her twin screws. Although the tide was then rising, the effort failed to make an impression.

Captain Chster attributes the mishap to a misplaced buoy. A Court of Inquiry will follow, as negligence is somewhere indicated.

The Leyden was reinforced by the tugs Merritt and Triton, and after two hours' work the cruiser was floated. A Board of Survey, with the Cincinnati's divers, examined her keel at once and found no damage. The ship was drawing twenty feet and struck in eighteen feet of water.

New Names for Our New Boats.

Washington, April 7.—The Navy Department has announced names for the new boats as follows:

Revenue cutter Algonquin named Alcomac, light-house tender Mayflower named Suwanee, yacht Sovereign named Scorpion, hospital ship Creole named Solace, gunboat Diogenes named Topeka, torpedo boat bought in England named Manley. The collier Saturn will return its name. The Algonquin and Mayflower will only be known by the new names while operating with the navy.

SPANIARDS INTERVENE

Threats of Volunteers Delay the President's Message.

LEE ASKS FOR MORE TIME.

Cables That the Spanish Volunteers at Havana Threaten to Massacre All Americans as Soon as the President's Recommendations Are Known to Be Hostile to Spain.

Washington, April 7.—Instead of American intervention in the affairs of Cuba, as was confidently expected yesterday, the citizens of the United States were treated to the rather surprising spectacle of Spanish intervention in the affairs of our own government. Consul-General Lee cabled President McKinley that the Volunteers of Havana were armed and threatened the lives of all Americans as soon as he communicated his message to Congress. Gen. Lee said he could not get citizens of the United States off the island before Sunday, and asked that the message be deferred until that time.

With a realization of the disappointment created throughout the country by the announcement yesterday that the President's Cuban message is withheld until Monday, the statement is made deliberatly in these dispatches that it signifies no change in the war policy of the Administration.

President McKinley has given up his last, lingering hope of peace.

The statement was made at the Capitol at 2 o'clock that in all probability there would be no message from the President.

The report stated that an important dispatch had been received from Spain at the White House which had caused a change in the President's plans.

To the White House.

Mr. Dingley was called from the Capitol to the White House and Assistant Secretary Adee, who has charge of the cipher, also hurried to the executive mansion.

The reports circulated at the Capitol were that the Queen Regent had taken the matter into her own hands, and had cabled the President. This could not be confirmed at the White House. The only statement made there was that the President had decided not to send his message to Congress at the hour agreed upon.

It was first said that the message would be delayed until 4 o'clock, and then that it was most probable that no message would be sent in Senate in Executive Session.

Representative Cannon and five Senators left the Capitol with Mr. Dingley for the White House, in answer to a summons from the President. The Senate went into executive session shortly before 2 o'clock. The galleries, which had been filled since 9 o'clock, were emptied. The session behind closed doors only lasted ten minutes, and the galleries were at once filled again.

It was intimated that some information was given to the Senate from the White House which caused the sudden and short executive session. After the session it was stated that there would be no message until Monday.

The Official Explanation.

The explanation sent to Congress by the President was that he had just received a dispatch from Gen. Lee announcing that he could not leave Havana with the Americans as soon as directed. The dispatch further stated that he could not get away for a day or so, and that it would not be safe for him to remain in Havana after the message was sent to Congress.

This at once determined the President to wait, and it is now his intention to hold the message until Monday. It may be possible for Gen. Lee and the Americans to get out of Havana in less time than they now expect. If so the message may go to Congress sooner.

The President announced to his Cabinet that he would not send his message as long as Gen. Lee remained in Havana, and although yesterday a dispatch was sent to him directing him to leve at once, the President still said he would not send the message until he had a cable from Gen. Lee saying that he and the other Americans were safe on the United States vessels and were leaving or had left Havana. He has been informed of the situation there, and that Spain has said she would not be responsible for Americans after the President has sent his message.

Volunteers Threaten.

Senator Davis, the chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, read to the Senate the message from Gen. Lee. The dispatch stated that he had been unable to leave, as there were 2,000 Americans in Cuba to get out. They could not all possibly get away before Sunday. He added the Volunteers are all armed and have declared that they will massacre the Americans if the President sends his message.

These threats will be carried out immediately, so Gen. Lee declares, and therefore he begs the President to wait until Monday before he communicates with Congress. As soon as this message was read in the Senate it was accepted as perfectly right.

The news of the postponement of the message spread like wildfire through the Capitol. The weary crowds who had waited in the corridors and galleries all day and in cramped seats came out of the galleries almost as rapidly as they went in. In less than half an hour the greater part of the crowd had left the Capitol, and the House and Senate were left almost alone to go on with the Sundry Civil and Army bills.

Woodford's Family Leaves Spain.

Madrid, April 7.—The family of United States Minister Woodford went last evening to Biarritz, France. The staff of the United States Legation has left Madrid and probably will remain in Paris for the present.

WHAT THE MESSAGE WAS.

It can be stated on absolute authority that President McKinley's message was to have been in full accord with the Foraker resolution after the second paragraph has been cut out. The President so informed his closest friends. The delay until Monday may cause a modification, and then again there may be no change in it.

The Foraker resolutions as they stand read as follows:

"Be it resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America:

"1. That the people of the island of Cuba are and of right ought to be free and independent.

"2. That the Government of the United States recognizes the Republic of Cuba as the true and lawful government of that island.

"3. That the war Spain is waging against Cuba is so destructive of the commercial and property interests of the United States, and so cruel, barbarous and inhuman in its character, as to make it the duty of the United States to demand, and the Government of the United States hereby does demand, that she at once withdraw her land and naval forces from Cuba and Cuban waters.

"4. That the President of the United States be and he is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to use, if necessary, the entire land and naval forces of the United States to carry these resolutions into effect."

CUBANS APPROACH HAVANA.

Gomez and Garcia's Forces Marching Against the Capital.

Havana, Cuba, via Key West, April 7.—News was received here from a reliable source that General Calixto Garcia, after desultory fighting with General Pando, in the province of Puerto Principe, had evaded Pando and, with 3,000 men, had reached the Jucaro-Moron trocha. Many of his men are cavalry.

It is believed that by this time General Garcia has crossed the trocha in the vicinity of the plantation San Nicolas, and been joined by General Maximo Gomez, and that the combined forces, making fully 4,000 men, are now en route for the provinces of Matanzas and Havana, on the long-threatened raid for which arrangements were made by the mission from General Gomez, sent westward prior to the conference in which the autonomists sought to induce General Garcia and other insurgent leaders to surrender.

ITALY SELLS WAR SHIPS.

United States Gets Three Torpedo Boats and Spain a Cruiser.

London, April 7.—A special dispatch from Rome, published to-day, says contracts were signed during the day for the sale of three torpedo boats to the United States, for the sale of the armored cruiser Giuseppe Garibaldi to Spain, and for the sale of the armored cruiser Varese to the Argentine Republic.

The Flying Squadron Ready.

Washington, D. C., April 7.—The plan of action for the naval forces in event of hostilities is now practically completed as a result of several weeks' constant work on the part of the officers to whom was intrusted this important feature of the war preparations. While these plans are naturally most closely guarded, it may be stated on high authority that one feature of them contemplates a dash by the flying squadron, under Commodore Schley, to the Canary Islands. This proposition is as yet tentative, as all projects subject to unforeseen conditions must be, but it has received most careful consideration by the naval authorities.

Irwin Says Spanish Knew.

Washington, April 7.—The Foreign Affairs Committee of the House of Representatives had Rear-Admiral Irwin, who is an expert in explosives, before them yesterday. He was asked his opinion as to the character of the mine which blew up the Maine, and as to whether it was possible for such a mine to have been located without the knowledge of the Spanish authorities. To the latter inquiry he replied in the negative, giving his reasons for his opinion.

Chaplain Chidwick Promoted.

New York, April 7.—The Rev. John Chidwick, chaplain of the ill-fated battle ship Maine, who is stopping, pending orders from the Navy Department, at the rectory of St. Stephen's Church, in East Twenty-ninth street, was notified by Secretary Long yesterday of his promotion to a lieutenancy in the navy. Father Chidwick at once telegraphed his acceptance of the position, adding that he was ready for duty and hoped for an early assignment.

On to Chickamauga.

Washington, April 7.—Troops moved last night from several Western points toward the rendezvous at Chickamauga. They will form the advance guard and will comprise principally the colored regiments. They are sent to Chickamauga in preference to other troops because they will be the first to enter Cuba. The advance of the main body of regulars upon the rendezvous will not begin until next week.

Spain Rushes an Order.

Washington, April 7.—A telegram received at the Navy Department from the Naval Attache at London announced that the Spanish officials have contracted with Vickers' Sons, Maxim and other European manufacturers for the prompt delivery of 200,000 stand of small arms and the necessary ammunition.

Gov. Dyer is Re-elected.

Providence, R. I., April 7.—As was expected, the Republicans swept the State to-day, and Governor Elisha Dyer was re-elected by a large majority. The Democrats made only feeble opposition. There will be only a handful of Democrats in the Legislature, the returns at a late hour to-night showing that only six have been elected.

Situation in Havana.

Precautions Taken for the Observance for the Holy Days, and No Vehicles Will Run.

Havana, April 7.—The order maintained in the city up to the present is admirable. Consul General Lee says that he has received no instructions to leave Havana. It is reported, however, that some of the Consuls records were sent north by the Mascotte to-day. She is expected back from Key West on Friday. With the Bache, Mangrove and Fern there will be ample accommodation then to take away all who are entitled to go.

The G. Lawton Childs Company had intended to close their business here, but have reconsidered the decision.

Holy Thursday and Good Friday will both be religiously observed in all quarters. No business of any kind will be transacted, and even carriages, cabs and street cars are forbidden on the streets. In the main town no bells will be allowed to ring until Saturday after the singing of the "Gloria in Excelsis Deo." This applies to bells and city clocks. Even ladies must visit the monuments on foot, and it is possible that telegraphic communication will be cut off on account of the holy day.

Bankers with close American connections are packing their papers, collecting all possible debts, arranging for guards for the their steel vaults and sending their families away. Cuban women with husbands, fathers, or brothers in the insurgent ranks are in a state of terror, and are really much to be pitied, since, if any one is marked, it is they, since all history on parallel lines shows no very great consideration from Spanish rioters for the gentler sex.

All American newspapers that arrived on the Mascotte early this morning were seized and taken to the palace. They have not yet been released by the censor. The result is that it is impossible to obtain American newspapers to-day in Havana.

The American colony is in a state of great excitement. The Fern and Bache are lying ready to steam out at a moment's notice whenever Lee gives the word to hundreds of scared naturalized citizens.

Lee, as usual, is cool, calm and easy-going. His well-worn advice is: "Keep cool and say nothing."

He has full confidence that Blanco is strong enough to hold down the disorder and conduct the departure of Americans, if such has to be, with all the possible internatonal courtesy. Politeness is now pushed to the last exquisite notch.

Clara Barton is again here attending to Red Cross duties.

200 Reconcentrados Killed.

Havana, April 7, via Key West.—Over 200 reconcentrados that left Havana to renew their labors in the country, availing themselves of the decree of General Blanco, have been massacred by the Spanish troops near Guines. The fact is absolutely true. The details, which have arrived only a few minutes before the steamer leaves for Key West, are terrible.

CAMDEN LAWYER TRIED.

H. S. Scovel in Trouble Over Shaw Murder Case.

Camden, N. J., April 7.—Ex-Assemblyman Harry S. Scovel was placed on trial yesterday to answer a charge of embracery in connection with the Ell Shaw murder trial. Attorney-General Grey is prosecuting the case, while Scovel is represented by five lawyers, including ex-Judge Putnam F. Hoffman, of Jersey City. Great interest is taken by lawyers in the proceedings, as it is the first embracery case ever tried in New Jersey.

Jailor Edward Entricks gave sensational testimony. He said that Scovel met him in the County Jail and asked about Juror Jacob Schiller. He said Scovel told him to tell Schiller that there was $100 in it for him if he proved all right on the Shaw trial. Witness declared that after the mistrial of the Shaw case Scovel came to him and said:

"You are not going to say anything about that $100 are you? If you do I will be disbarred and you will lose your job."

Jailer Entricks said Scovel promised to take care of him if witness stood by him, and said that he would pay him $10 a month until he secured other employment in case he lost his job.

MILDRED BREWSTER'S PLEA.

Defense of the Slayer of Anna Wheeler Made Known to the Court.

Montpelier, Vt., April 7.—The court room here was crowded yesterday, the beginning of the second day of the trial of Mildred Brewster for the murder of Anna Wheeler. The accused girl, who is dressed in black, showed but little interest in what was going on.

The jury was completed and nearly the whole of the day was taken up with peremptory challenges.

Senior Counsel Lord announced to the Court that the defense would be insanity.

Nearly all the jurymen were anxious to get the latest war news. The Court had no objection, and after all reference to the Brewster case had been cut out papers were supplied.

NEWS GATHERING.

Every bit of news in connection with the gravity of the situation at Washington and elsewhere yesterday was anxiously awaited for, and when received was digested with varying phases by the persons who viewed the affair from different standpoints and influences. We flatter ourselves, then, that The Daily Press was the only newspaper in Plainfield that made an enterprising effort to satisfy the prevailing desire for information that had a bearing on the probable outcome of the complications into which the nation has become involved. Commencing at 10 o'clock in the morning two large bulletin boards in front of the Press office were covered at frequent intervals with important news dispatches from Washington and elsewhere telling of the momentous happenings as rapidly as they were telegraphed over the country The bulletins were appreciated, as shown by the crowds that lingered around the spot. Four hours after The Press had been bulleting its news dispatches its contemporary—but not competitor—summoned enough energy to put out a blackboard with one report from Washington.

A few minutes after 2 o'clock in the afternoon The Daily Press was on the street with two columns of news on the situation up to the time of going to press. An hour later The Press' contemporary—but not competitor—appeared with its first edition containing about one-fifth of the news already made public by this paper.

The Daily Press had made every arrangement for the quick receipt of the President's message, intending to issue an extra edition.

But at 2:45 o'clock it was announced in Washington that the President's message would not be sent in that day. That was the most important event transpiring in Washington yesterday, and in appreciation of that the editorial and mechanical efforts of The Press office were set hard at work and in a half-hour papers were being printed from the press with a statement of the fact, the reason for the action, the concurrence of the Senate at the President's request and the decision to await till next Monday for the State paper, as well as a summary of the message—in all a little over a column. Newsboys were on the street in a jiffy and the papers were bought up rapidly—not for 5, 10 and 15 cents as the News always falsely claims its extras are, but for 2 cents per copy.

What time the News favored its subscribers with the latest and most important news we do not know, inasmuch as we failed to find any newsboys selling News' of that description, but whatever time it was, if at all, it was far behind the Daily Press.

A PERMANENT PAVEMENT.

The agitation of a permanent pavement for the streets in the business center of the city—and especially an experiment on Park avenue from Front street to North avenue—is in the right line of public improvements. Though Park avenue was macadamized in a thorough manner but two years ago, we are informed now by the Street Commissioner that it is practically necessary to go over the work again. A permanent pavement—vitrified brick, asphalt or some of the equivalents—would last for a large number of years, and though it would cost a great deal more to put such a roadbed down than to macadamize the street once, in the end it would be cheaper and far more serviceable. The traffic on this thoroughfare in the business district is the heaviest of any of the streets, and some steps should be taken by those in charge of the streets to build a roadbed that is not constantly getting out of repair.

THE SPANISH TORPEDO FLEET.

Spain's supply of torpedo boats and torpedo boat destroyers is far greater than that of the United States, and the fleet of thirteen recently despatched to Porto Rico is considered very formidable. In the fleet are six torpedo boats and seven torpedo boat destroyers.

The sum total of lynchings in this country has reached proportions that cry to heaven for vengeance. The tragic list reached 115 last year, nearly all in the southern states. Mississippi alone murdered ten negroes in this way—no whites. In some cases the dastardly, cruel killings were merely for giving evidence against the brutes in various sections who call themselves White Caps. In others it was for horse and mule stealing. Again a man was lynched just because he was a negro schoolteacher, another for no particular charge except that the lynchers did not like him. Paris in the insane days of the French revolution was not worse than some of these localities are where such crimes are committed in the American republic. It is not for one moment to be supposed that it is the reputable citizens of the lynching localities who commit or countenance these awful deeds. It is, on the contrary, a lawless element with no respect for human life. An insane fury seems to possess them. Respectable citizens should rise in a mass and put a stop to the lynching crimes before they disgrace and demoralize the United States further. It is a duty owed to civilization.

The rival republics on the west coast of South America are Argentina and Chile. It is hard to say which is more powerful and impossible to say which is more ambitious. Chile possessed herself of a first class armored cruiser, the O'Higgins, which cost nearly $5,000,000. Thereupon Argentina contracted for the building of a similar one, the San Martino, now constructing at Leghorn, Italy. One of these nations will not sell her cruiser to the United States or to Spain unless the other does, and each waits for the other to take first action.

In the furtherance of her hostile designs toward England Russia may appropriate millions of dollars for the enlargement of her navy, but she cannot budge a peg toward the accomplishment of that aim unless British shipbuilders construct the vessels for her. There the British have her blocked square. Peter the Great sought assiduously centuries ago to advance naval construction in his great frozen realm, but his ambitions have never been realized.

The one remaining link that would weld together finally and firmly the north and south in this country would be a war with a foreign nation—Spain, for instance.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

Mayor Fisk of Plainfield appears determined to Christianize or Judaize the inhabitants of his bailiwick. He apparently dosen't care which, but they must all be good, at least one day in the week. Seventh Day Baptists and Hebrews, who religiously observe the Sabbatn on Saturday, are to be allowed to keep their places of business open on Sunday. All others must close, and close up tight. Hereafter no Plainfielder can be a Hebrew or Seventh-Day Baptist for revenue only, expecting to keep open shop seven days in the week. The Plainfield "cops" have been ordered to arrest each man who has his store open on Sundny, unless he can show a certificate that he attended worship of some old kind or other on Sunday.—Somerville Messenger.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News, but Just as Interesting.

An enterprising "up-to-date" reporter in making his "verbatim" report of two meetings on the same evening, one in the interest of the conversion of the Jews, and the other for promoting better sewage, produced the following:

"The chairman, after meeting had been opened with prayer, explained that the conversion of the Jews was one of the greatest works that could engage the attention of our sanitary authorities. Filteration was the most perfect method that could be adopted for purification, but a filter had its limits. There was a popular notion that the sewage contained a vast amount of wealth, but the mud must be taken out of it for the purpose of irrigation, as it otherwise choked the pores of the land, and they were a wandering race spread over the whole face of the habitable globe. They were denied the inimitable blessings of Christianity, which might be counted by thousands of tons per annum allowed to run to waste, when by a judicious admixture of lime and clay the benighted Hebrews who sat in darkness might easily be converted into lime and cement for building purposes, and if thus deodorized, after being first dried and burned in a kiln, this ancient race would once more take its proud position among the nations of the world. Subscriptions were earnestly solicited for the purpose, though he (the speaker) disclaimed any idea of making a profit out of the process; and, in conclusion, he urged increased efforts in the good work, showing that, thus deodorized by a very novel process of evangelization in large tanks constructed for the purpose, the grateful Hebrews might flow over the land without injury to the vegetation, while the expenses of conversion, which was progressing as rapidly as the best friends of Christianity could wish, would be more than repaid by the sale of the phosphate of lime and valuable cement for building purposes."

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

Whoever has read the humorous sketch of boy life written by Geo. W. Peck, Ex-Governor of Wisconsin, will want to see the only and original funny play, "Peck's Bad Boy" at Music Hall next Monday night. It has something in it to amuse the oldest as well as the youngest. A big company of bright singers and dancers have been employed for this company, and it will be the best production of this charming play ever given.

The wit of dialogue, the ingenuity of situations and the clever declinations of character and the utter absence of dullness throughout, makes "My Friend From India," which will be presented at Music Hall, Tuesday night of next week one of the most attractive entertainments of the kind offered to Plainfield playgoers in years. Walter E. Perkins, as the barber, his original role, and a clever supporting company will present this comedy precisely as produced in New York and Boston, together with all the details which distinguished the production in the principal cities.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Dunellen, April 7.—Rev. Mr. Jamison, who has been assigned to the pastorate of the M. E. church, comes from Irvington, where he did a good work. He is a middle-aged man and is a strong preacher. He is considered to be one of the most active members of the Elizabeth district. He will preach for the first next Sunday, and he and his family will move to the borough next week. The parsonage has been thoroughly cleaned and repaired, and now awaits the new pastor and family.

Miss Lillian Staats, who for five years has been the assistant to the Postmaster at Dunellen, has given Postmaster Coriell notice that in a short time she will resign. Miss Staats will devote some of her time to traveling and will be out of the borough for sometime. During her service in the post-office she has never made a mistake in her accounts and has given the very best of satisfaction. Her many friends will be sorrow to learn that she intends resigning her position, but will wish her success and prosperity.

Tomorrow evening a meeting of the Piscataway Township Committee will be held at New Market for the purpose of considering the trolley matter. It is felt confidently that the franchise will be granted to the Brunswick Traction Company.

for Men, Boys and Children, to be sold at 50c on the dollar.

Sale commencing Saturday, April 2d, at 8:30 a. m., and to last for three weeks only.

It is early in the season to sell at a discount, but manufacturers are often pinched for cash even early in the season and are compelled to unload. The cash reputation of our store makes it a ready target, and the financially distressed manufacturers hearing that we were in a position to buy for spot cash, and knowing that we had five stores to supply, asked us to make an offer, which we did, and it was accepted. A great opportunity for money-saving clothing buyers. The very finest Spring and Summer clothing in the world will be sold at retail for less than one-third the price that other stores ask for the same goods.

NEW YORK CLOTHING CO.,

M. WEINBERGER, Manager.

214 West Front St., Next door to Music Hall, Plainfield, N. J.

Carfare paid to all out-of-town buyers. Don't miss this sale. It will pay you to come twenty-five miles from Plainfield. Sale rain or shine.

THE VICAR OF CHRIST

CELEBRATION OF LEO XIII'S ANNIVERSARY AT THE VATICAN.

A Description of the Services by an Eyewitness—Splendid Scene Observed With Pomp at Rome—The Pope Not Wearied by the Effort.

Feb. 13 last witnessed the long expected mass celebrated by the sovereign pontiff, Leo XIII, at the papal altar above the confession or tomb of the Prince of the Apostles, in the Vatican basilica, in presence of over 70,000 persons, including 20,000 pilgrims coming from all parts of Italy to do homage to the vicar of Christ on the double anniversary of his twentieth year of pontificate and his diamond sacerdotal jubilee. Thirty archbishops and bishops of various Italian dioceses presided at the pilgrimage, some 200 Catholic associations and societies, with their respective banners, oriflambs, etc., of every hue and shade, many of them most beautiful, gorgeous in gold embroidery and sacred emblems, lent brilliancy and gayety to the scene as they were grouped near the altar throughout the papal function. Last, but not least, were 300 pilgrims from the diocese of Anagni, which embraces Carpineto, the birthplace of his holiness, who brought offerings and gifts in kind to their august fellow citizens. Amid these Carpinese pilgrims was a peasant of that town, Ludovico Salvagni, 87 years of age, who in bygone days was the habitual attendant in his hunting excursions of the youthful Gioachimo Pecci. To give more solemnity to the function the pope had invited the sacred college—not as a rule present on similar occasions—the diplomatic corps and the Roman patriciate, for all of whom separate tribunes were erected beside the confession of St. Peter, as also for the prince grand master of the sovereign order of Malta with his knights. The archbishops and bishops were bidden to attend in simple mantelleta and rochet, the diplomats in evening dress, with decorations, the cardinals alone wearing cope and miter.

Their eminences, to the number of 19, including the cardinal patriarch of Venice and the cardinal archbishop of Milan, with their respective diocesan pilgrims, preceded the sovereign pontiff as, borne on high in the sedia gestatoria, he entered the basilica from the chapel of the Pieta and was carried to the foot of the papal altar, the famous silver trumpets of the noble guard sending forth their sweetest strains from the summit of the dome over the confession, while the choir of the basilica intoned the "Tu es Petrus," amid the wildest enthusiasm of the immense crowd thronging every inch of the major temple of Christendom.

After vesting at the faldistorium his holiness began the celebration of a low mass, assisted at the altar by the usual dignitaries, the motets "Verbum supernum," "Quam suavis," "Ponem de coelo," being well rendered by the Choir Julia, led by Chapel Master Meluzzi. At the solemn moment of the elevation, above the kneeling throng, re-echoed the melodious notes of the silver trumpets executing the celebrated "Armonia Religiosa," composition of an ex-noble guard, Count Dominic Silveri. Having ended his mass, the pope disrobed at the faldistorium, made his thanksgiving, retired for a moment to partake of some slight refreshment prepared for him, returned to the papal altar, and in a firm voice intoned the "Te Deum," taken up and finished by the choir and the people. At the termination of the prayers the holy father, vested pontificially, tiara on head, mounted the sedia gestatoria and was borne round the altar to the front of the confession, while the cardinals, bishops, diplomatic corps and Roman patriciate, quitting their places, ranged themselves in due order of precedure to either side of the podium, raised for the solemn benediction.

The 180 banners of the Catholic societies dipped deep in homage along the passage of the sovereign pontiff, Leo XIII, who, assisted by Cardinals Macchi and Segna of the order of deacons, intoned the prayers of rite, answered by people and choir, and from the podium imparted in clear, sonorous tones the solemn apostolic benediction, amid the grounding of arms from the kneeling Noble, Swiss and Palatine guards, and the pontifical gendarmes, and the unrestrained emotion of the reverend crowd, who after the lecture of the "Brief of Indulgences" by the cardinal deacons, burst forth in enthusiastic "Evvivas!" not ceasing till the pope had reached the lower end of the basilica. Then, rising to his feet, he once more blessed his devout children as he disappeared from their view, entering the Chapel of the Pieta, whence he was borne to his private apartments in the Vatican palace.

To avoid all occasion of fatigue to his holiness it had been previously decided there were to be neither addresses read nor replies expected, no presentation of pilgrims or kissing of the papal hand and foot. Consequently the holy father at the close of the function, lasting from 8:30 to 11:30 a. m., gave no evidence of undue weariness. Everything passed off satisfactorily.

Two of the most conspicuous and interesting groups present in the basilica were five Chinese in their national costume, four being youths from 12 to 14 years of age, the fifth apparently much older, who, placed close beside the confession, watched the ceremonies with eager interest. There was a considerable number of students of the Roman university and members of the Catholic University club, wearing the particolored berrettas of the respective faculties they follow, which they agitated in the air, shouting "Evvivas!" to the pope as he was borne before them on his passage to the podium for the apostolic benediction.—Brooklyn Eagle.

CATHOLICITY IN NORWAY.

Bishop Falize's Account of the Advancement of the Faith There.

From every quarter of the globe come reports of the progress of Catholicity. Even in the most Protestant lands the church is growing steadily. We learn from the London Tablet that the vicar apostolic of Norway, Bishop Falize, gives an encouraging account of the advancement of the faith in that ancient kingdom. The hospital of the Sisters of St. Joseph at Christiania, formerly a miserable shed, where the good nuns lost their lives in endeavoring to save their patients, has been replaced by the handsomest hospital in all Norway. On Aug. 28 the bishop consecrated the new Church of St. Halvard, modest externally, but extremely beautiful in the interior. At Trondhjem the little Catholic church was in a distant and not very respectable suburb. To the bishop's joy the government agreed to sell him an old railway station in the center of the town, close by the famous ancient cathedral. The little church of Harstad, in the large island of Hindo (Lotoden), has been erected into a new parish, and the former parish of Alten, in Lapland, which had been given up, has been opened once more.

The bishop concludes with the following passage: "How far 'Catholicism is in the air in Norway,' to quote the recent expression of the bigoted Luthersk Ugetidende, a little incident will show. In the large town of Bergen we have nursing sisters, but, owing to want of means, no hospital. Last June I was confirming some converts there. On this occasion a deputation of doctors, all Protestant, came to beg me to erect a hospital. I could only answer that we had a magnificent site, but no money. Then they offered to hire a house at their own expense, where the sisters might install a temporary hospital, but only on condition that it should be called the Catholic hospital, adding, 'We are sure that the name alone will guarantee the success of the establishment.'"

THE POPE AND BORES.

How a French Bishop's Interview With Leo XIII Ended.

The pope's private audiences have been reduced in number. The individuals who have been accorded this honor have been requested by the pontifical chamberlains to co-operate in causing as little fatigue as possible to his holiness. The pope himself good humoredly submits to the prescriptions.

Latterly a French bishop, on his visit ad limina, on receiving notice of his audience, was requested not to protract the same beyond a given number of minutes. On the morning of the reception the domestic prelate warned the bishop that he would give him a signal, when it would be time for him to request the apostolic benediction and take his departure. The bishop was led to the throneroom and the audience commenced.

The minutes quickly passed, and the domestic prelate at length gave the signal for the bishop to retire. His lordship, however, thought he had not yet had a reasonable interview and paid no heed. The prelate, after a few minutes, repeated the signal; but, perceiving that his efforts were unavailing, walked quietly to a side door and in a moment returned at the head of four chamberlains, who had with them two red poles. Fastening these to the sides of the throne, they calmly raised it and carried the pope bodily from the reception room.

The French bishop remained mute with astonishment. Then he rose from his knees and took his departure, not without gesticulating.—London Mail.

MOTHER OF LEO XIII.

Her Best Wish That He Might Live to Be a Pope Fulfilled.

Pope Leo XIII, when talking of the coming twentieth anniversary of his nomination to the pontificate, recently told that once in the presence of his mother and a peasant woman he, then a little child, was straining to reach some object, when he fell to the ground. The country woman picked him up and exclaimed, "May you become a monk."

Joachim Pecci, the present pope, was but an infant at the time, but he showed by signs that the augury filled him with indignation.

"A cardinal, I mean," said the woman, correcting herself.

"You should say a pope," said the child's mother, and thereupon the boy manifested unmistakable joy. Ever afterward the mother's best wish for her son was that he might live to be a pope. And pope he is.—Baltimore Sun.

The New Poor Box.

The robbers of church poor boxes are a cause of apprehension to the clergy of New York. The authorities at the church of the Paulist fathers, at Columbus avenue and Fifty-ninth street, have fortified a shaken faith in the reverence of the thievishly inclined by a highly ingenious device. Where the poor box used to be is now the cap of a heavy metal pipe that leads down into the basement. In the cap is a slot where coins are inserted. Once deposited they rattle down the pipe into a receptacle in the basement safe from the sudden attack of sneak thieves.—New York Sun.

Sisters of Notre Dame of Namur.

The sisters of Notre Dame of Namur were founded in 1804 at Amiens, France, by the venerable Mother Julie Billiart and Rev. Mother St. Joseph (Viscountess de Geziancourt), under the direction of the fathers of the Society of Jesus. The first community in the United States was established at Cincinnati in 1840, and this continues to be the mother house in this country, though there are two other novitiates of the institute in America, one at San Jose, Cal., and the other at Waltham, Mass.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Could you for instance turn out first-class laundry in a room 12x20 where there is three or four living. Think of your laundry in a place of this kind, where they do cooking, smoke their opium and also sleep in same apartment. And stil what is more horrible is that all your clothes are sprinkled from the mouth. Think twice before you speak and have an American citizen to do your laundry by all odds.

STREET RAILWAY ORDINANCE.

An ordinance locating the tracks of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company on North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue within the Borough of Fanwood, County of Union, and authorizing and empowering the construction and operation and maintenance of the same and granting permission for said Company to use electricity as the propelling power of its cars, and prescribing the terms and conditions upon which such location of the tracks and permission are granted. Whereas, The Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway, a corporation organized under the provisions of an act entitled, "An act to authorize the formation of traction companies for the construction and operation of street railways, or railroads operated as street railways, and to regulate the same," approved March fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, having first filed in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of New Jersey, a description of the routes, together with maps exhibiting the same, did present their petition or application to the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, praying the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood for its consent to the construction, operation and maintenance of a street railway in the Borough of Fanwood, and the right to locate its tracks conformably to the route filed in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of New Jersey, which route in the Borough of Fanwood is upon and along North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, and was set out in the said petition; and

Whereas, Public notice has been duly given of such application and of the intention of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood to consider the same, by publication, also by posting a copy of the said notice in five or more of the most public places in said Borough of Fanwood at least fourteen days prior to the date of the meeting of the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood; and

Whereas, Upon the day fixed by said notice and upon such days as the said hearing was adjourned to, public hearing was given to all persons desiring to be heard in favor of, or opposed to, or in any wise interested in the said application for the location of its tracks, and the said matter having been duly considered by the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, and the said Company having filed with the Clerk of said Borough the consent in writing of the owners or their duly authorized legal representatives of at least one-half in amount of the lineal feet of property on said North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, within the Borough of Fanwood and upon which permission to locate, operate and maintain said street railway is asked.

Now, therefore, be it ordained by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, as follows:

Section 1. That the tracks of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company be, and they are hereby located in the following avenues, in the said Borough of Fanwood, in the County of Union, to wit, as set out in the following description:

Beginning at a point in the centre line of Forrest Avenue where it is intersected by the line of the Township of Fanwood; thence along the centre line of Forrest Avenue southeasterly fifteen hundred and eighty (1580) feet to the centre line of Midway Avenue; thence along the centre line of Midway Avenue easterly twenty-five hundred and ninety-eight (2598) feet to centre line of North Avenue; thence along centre line of North Avenue easterly sixteen hundred and ninety (1690) feet to the line of the Township of Fanwood, all of which is to the amended route of the new line of street railway and the map exhibiting the same, filed in the office of the Secretary of State of this State; and said Company is hereby given the right, power and authority to maintain and operate cars upon the said railway by electricity as the motive power. The said Company shall complete the construction of its whole line of railway within the Borough of Fanwood in the manner herein provided, and all its fixtures and appurtenances, and commence the operation of the same and the running of its cars for the transportation of passengers on or before December first, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, or this franchise shall be and become null and void and of no effect, unless the time for the completion of the same shall be extended by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood. If the said Company after the commencement of the operation of its said line of railway by the collection of fares thereon shall fail or neglect to operate the whole or any portion of the line hereby authorized daily and every day for the space of thirty consecutive days, or shall fail to operate the same for a total number of days exceeding thirty in any one year; all the rights, powers, privileges and every one of them of the said Company, its successors and assigns, under and by virtue of this ordinance, shall thereby cease and be determined and in either of such cases the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood expressly reserves the right to sell the said line at auction to the highest bidder who will operate it, or may cause the said railway, or any part or parts thereof, to be removed from the said avenues, and to sell and dispose of the materials thereof at public auction, and after paying all the expenses of such removal and auction sale, and repairs to the said avenues and the cost of restoring the same to its original condition, to pay the balance of such sale to the said company, its successors and assigns.

Section 2. The said Company shall construct, maintain and operate a double track street railway as aforesaid with the cross-overs, switches and sidings shown by the map hereinafter specifically referred to. The rails to be laid by said Company shall be of steel of the girder pattern of a weight not less than seventy pounds to the yard. And the said Company shall so construct and maintain the said railway that the top of the rails shall at all times be flush with the grade of the street or highway. The ties, spikes, and all other materials shall be of the best quality. The railway tracks of the said railway shall be laid as follows: One track on each side of the centre line of said avenues so that the inner rail thereof shall be distant two feet and three inches from said centre line, and the gauge of said tracks shall be four feet, eight and one-half inches. The said Company at its own cost and expense in all streets or avenues through which it shall lay tracks hereunder, shall pave between said tracks and between the rails thereof in a good, substantial and workmanlike manner with a telford or macadam pavement to a depth of four inches and shall maintain the same flush with the rail of said tracks. The railway tracks and macadam or Telford pavement shall be laid and constructed in the best workmanlike manner and to the satisfaction of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood or other committee thereof having charge of the streets.

Section 3. During the construction of the said railway, lighted lanterns shall be kept and maintained by said Company from sunset to sunrise at each and every night, not less than fifty feet and not more than one hundred feet apart along every part of said avenues, where the work of construction shall have been begun and not completed. The work in all other respects shall be thoroughly protected so as to prevent accident. In case any accident shall happen to any person or damage to property is caused, because or by reason of any work connected with such construction of said railway, or afterwards because or by reason of the operation thereof, or through carelessness or negligence of any of the Company's officers, servants, agents or employees, the said Company shall indemnify and save the said Borough of Fanwood and the said Mayor and Council from all costs, loss or damage by reason thereof.

Section 4. The Company shall at all times keep in good condition and repair to the satisfaction of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, (repaving, if necessary) the paving between the tracks, between the rails and one foot six inches outside the same to the depth of four inches.

Section 5. That said Company shall lay its rails to conform to the grade of said North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, at the time of laying of said rails, and in case of any change of the grade or of the surface of said North Avenue, Forrest Avenue and Midway Avenue, or any part thereof, at any time, then the said Company at its own cost and expense shall immediately on request made in writing by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, so change the location of its tracks and the surface or grade of such part of said avenues as to conform to such change of surface of said avenues or change of grade, or any newly-established grade.

Section 6. That no change, addition, alteration of gauge or the location of the tracks, sidings, switches, cross-overs, poles or overhead structures of said railway company shall be made therein or thereabouts at any time by said Company after the same has been first erected and approved by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, without official action granting permission for such change, alteration or addition being previously taken by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood.

Section 7. The said Company and its officers, agents, servants or employees, shall not, nor shall any or either of them be allowed to shovel, throw or place any snow, ice, slush or any other material along the side of said track or tracks, in such manner as to obstruct or hinder other public travel thereon or on the said avenues, but when removing the snow, ice, slush, or other material from its said tracks, the said Company and its officers, agents, servants, and employees shall without unnecessary delay and with a sufficient force of men, cause the same to be levelled between the said tracks and the gutter line on each side thereof.

Section 8. No salt shall be used by said Company on any part of its tracks, except on the grades, curves and crossovers without the consent of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood, or the proper Borough officers, nor shall any car be allowed to stand in or to obstruct any cross street, or to stand upon any cross-walk for any purpose whatever, or to stand or remain in any one position for more than five minutes at any one time, except when such car shall be unavoidably obstructed or detained by accident or breakdown, without fault or negligence of said Company, under a penalty of ten dollars to be paid by said Company to the Borough Collector for each and every violation of this section.

Section 9. That where said railway racks shall pass over culverts or gutters, the bottom of which shall be below the grade line of such railroad, iron girders or proper supports of the most approved pattern shall be provided by the Company and such necessary iron bridges or iron drains shall be constructed across the tracks and shall be so constructed as not to hinder or obstruct the flow of surface water underneath the tracks of said railroad.

Section 10. The Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood on behalf of said Borough, reserves the right to dig or excavate in or upon any of the said avenues for the purpose of laying, examining, replacing or repairing any sewer, water, or gas pipes, or for the purpose of making any other public improvements, or for doing any other public work whatsoever, and the said railway company shall have no redress or claim for damages because of any detention or obstruction to travel on the said railway arising therefrom. Provided, that such work shall be done as quickly as possible without causing unnecessary delay in the operation of said railroad; and provided further, that if any such improvement, or repairing, replacing, laying or re-laying or examining can be made or done in any feasible or practical way, without obstructing the operation of said railroad, then and in such case it shall be the duty of the party doing such work to do the same in such manner as last aforesaid.

Section 11. That the said Company shall remove any dirt, gravel or any material or obstruction placed by the said Company or its agents or servants on any of the avenues within three days after the service on an officer or servant of said Company of written notice so to do by the said Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood or its duly authorized agent. In case the said Company shall fail to remove such material or obstruction and to put the said avenues in as good order as before such material or obstruction placed thereon by said Company, the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood may order and cause the said material or obstruction to be removed and the said avenues to be put in complete order and repair at the expense of said Company.

Section 12. That all persons driving vehicles upon the railroad tracks of the said Company in any of the said avenues when met or overtaken by a car of the Company shall on being warned by a ringing of a bell or gong or on request of the conductor or motorman of such car, as soon as possible, turn and drive his vehicle entirely off of such track, so as to allow such car to pass; it being understood that the cars of said Company shall have the right of way over the tracks of the Company, (except at crossings where the public shall have the first right of way over and across the road and tracks of said Company.) And the driver of any vehicle for the violation of any of the provisions of this section shall forfeit and pay to the Borough Collector for the use of the Borough a penalty of ten dollars to be recovered before any justice of the peace of the said Borough.

Section 13. The cars to be used on said railway shall be well lighted and properly heated; they shall be kept clean and have proper bells or gongs, which shall be rung or sounded before such car reaches the crossings of any street intersecting any of the said avenues and whenever necessary to give warning of the approach of such car; the said cars shall be run at a speed not greater than ten miles an hour, and each car shall be provided with the necessary fenders of the most approved pattern, and such cars shall be run at an average headway of not longer than fifteen minutes, between the hours of six o'clock A. M. and ten o'clock P. M., and from ten o'clock P. M. to midnight, such cars shall be run as the travel may demand or warrant, but in any case the average headway shall not be longer than one-half hour; all cars on the said railroad shall run the entire length of the line of railroad tracks hereby authorized to be constructed. The Company shall from time to time diminish the headway of its cars [redacted] Borough of Fanwood, County of Union and State of New Jersey," which map is on file with the Borough Clerk and is hereby made a part of this ordinance for the purpose of showing the true location of the tracks hereby authorized to belaid upon the said avenues by said Company and for the purpose of specifically designating and prescribing the several places within the line of said avenues where such poles shall be located and set and the location of said tracks and poles therein shown is hereby approved and adopted by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood.

The said poles shall be set in the ground to a depth of not less than six feet and the hole in which said poles shall be set shall be not less than one foot in diameter and the excavation or space around said poles shall be filled with broken stone and concrete to the surface of the ground and the same shall be thoroughly packed and rammed.

The wires and overhead construction attached to the said poles for the purpose of furnishing power for the propulsion of the cars of said Company, shall be not less than eighteen feet above the grade of said avenues and said overhead construction and wires shall be similar in character and size to the overhead construction now used by the Plainfield Street Railway Company upon its Netherwood line within the City of Plainfield and the manner of stringing all of said wires, shall be similar to that now used by the said Plainfield Street Railway Company upon its Netherwood line within the City of Plainfield, which overhead construction of poles and wires is hereby approved and designated as a pattern or model construction to be observed and followed by the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company in its overhead construction of poles and wires, prescribed in this ordinance. The wires strung upon said poles shall be properly guarded with other wires when required by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood. The poles, when erected, shall be properly painted and shall together with all parts of said overhead construction, be maintained in a safe condition at all times, and shall be kept in thorough repair, and said poles shall be kept well painted.

Section 15. The period or term granted to the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company by virtue of this ordinance for the purposes herein set forth shall be for the term of ninety-nine years commencing July first, 1898, and ending July first, 1997.

Section 16. The gross earnings in this section referred to shall be construed to include all earnings of said Company and full proportion of all earnings on full traffic to be calculated according to the proportion between the entire length of the journey and the number of miles travelled within the limits of the Borough of Fanwood, all of said payments to be made each and every year on or before the last day of each year.

That to enable the Borough to ascertain from time to time the gross earnings of the said Company the books of the Company shall be open for inspection by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fanwood or by such other person or persons as the said Mayor and Council for that purpose shall designate at the expense of the said Company. The payments provided for in this section shall be in lieu of all license fees for cars whether provided for in prior ordinances or not.

That in case the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company or its agents, lessees, successors or assigns, shall fail to make payment of the amounts and at the periods herein provided, then and in that case all rights, powers, privileges, and grants by this ordinance conveyed to the said Railway Company, its agents, lessees, successors or assigns shall cease and determine in sixty days thereafter.

There Are Others

Plenty of Them, but so Different.—Local Proof is What Plainfield People Want.

There are a great many of them.

Every paper has its share.

Statements hard to believe, harder to prove.

Statements from far-away places.

What people say in Maine.

Public expression from California.

Oftimes good indorsement there.

But of little service here at home.

The sayings of neighbors, friends and citizens.

Home indorsement counts.

It disarms the skeptic, is beyond dispute.

This is the backing that stands behind every box of Doan's Kidney Pills; here is a case of it:

Mrs. M. A. Hall, of 219 Prescott place, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills without exception are the best medicine I ever used. My kidneys troubled me for several years with dull, aching pain across my back and at times extending to my hips. I was compelled to lie in just one position at night, stooping, lifting or bending foward aggravated the pains. I was also subject to severe headaches and was more or less nervous. A kidney weakness which was very distressing and inconvenient also existed and though I used different remedies that were recommended to me I obtained little if any benefit. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills highly endorsed in our daily papers and procured a box at L. W. Randolph's drug store. It was not long before I felt great relief and I was surprised how quickly the pain in my back disappeared. I am entirely free from it now and my other troubles were benefited greatly. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills a reliable medicine and in my case they accomplised all that is claimed for them."

BISMARCK FAILING.

THE MAN OF IRON BOWED DOWN BY RELENTLESS TIME.

Doughty Warrior Has Lost Interest in the Affairs of State—Characteristics of the Man Who Changed the Geography of Central Europe.

Bismarck is dying. The mighty personality who changed the map of Central Europe will on April 1, probably celebrate his last anniversary. He is losing his temper, his means of locomotion and his memory. He is as helpless as a child. His limbs refuse any longer to bear the weight of the great statesman's enormous body and he has to be wheeled around from one apartment to another at Friedrichsruhe.

Like other remarkable men Bismarck was never a man of very agreeable disposition, and on his eighty second year his nerves which were as rigid as rod-iron, become so fluttered by the least reference to public affairs that no mention even of his own marvellous achievements can be made in his presence. There are only two persons outside the members of his family who can converse with him. These are his physician, Dr. Schweninger, and Editor Hoffman, of the Hamburger Nachrichten, who through all the trying period when Bismarck's pride was sorely humbled, when it was harder to part with that diplomatic world which he had so long moulded by his intellect and by his mighty will than it is now to finally leave it, was the one close and confidential friend of Bismarck. He alone was the man upon whom the Prince leaned in the days of his distress, and it is to Hoffman that he instinctively clings in these days of what may be called his second childhood. When even his dearest friends are upbraided in his periodic fits of despondency no unkind word is addressed to the faithful family Editor.

Of the public and political life of Bismarck little that is new can be written save by some such man as Editor Hoffman. Bismarck is one of the central figures of the century and isolated and uncivilized will be indeed that land where the news of his helpless and stricken condition shall not arouse a sympathetic response on this probably one of the last gatherings of the family around its venerated Chieftain. Of Bismarck it will be written that in an age prolific of great men he was, measured alike by the range of his intellect and the majesty of his achievements probably the greatest personality of his time. He was the product of a single idea—the unification of the thirty nine states of the Germanic Confederation into a federation of which Prussia was to be the predominant partner. This was the dream of his youth and the realization of his old age; and though like others who have accomplished notable things he saw ambitious youth prepared to discount his marvellous life work when that work was done, Bismarck's fame towered so conspicuously that that of the greatest of German monarchs is but as a dwarf to a giant beside it.

Bismarck was about thirty years of age when the people of Germany rose to throw off that condition of servitude in which they stood to a few princely families who like the House of Hesse sold them for money to fight the battles of foreign sovereigns. The German people could have no interest in these wars but they were accustomed to obedience and were loyal and true to the gonfalon of their chiefs. But in 1848 they took a new view of their duties and when the masses moved, the Australian family being more powerful than the Hohenzollerns secured the appointment of the Arch Duke John of Austria as "Administrator of all the Germans."

From Administrator to Emperor was but a step, and this event gave the starting point to. Bismarck's idea though it was tive of the law.

Fred Barker rolled up the Spanish flag and awaited the onslaught. So did W. D. Littell, Jr. The rest disappeared behind anything that came convenient. At the order of the Roundsman, Barker lowered the Spanish minister from his lofty position. Then the officer went after Warden Martin to take charge of the remains. As his back was turned, some of the braver of the band returned. The captain of the guard and his trusty followers laid hold of the dummy and departed with him down the railroad track at double quick. The rest dispersed.

Sagasta's troubles were not yet over. He was hung under the Watchung avenue railroad bridge and the match was about to be applied to his coat-tails when Patrolman Saunders appeared on the scene and captured the dummy.

The effigy was taken to the lockup where Sergeant Kiely and Roundsman Frederickson were waiting. Barker and Littell were asked to step that way. Now there was a misunderstanding on the part of the police. They thought that it was President McKinley that was to be burned in effigy. The Sergeant notified the young men that it was a serious offence. He was stern and the young men began to look grave. They both explained that they had nothing to do with it—just happened around, you know, and wanted to see the fun. The situation had lost its humorous side to the participants when the truth came out.

When the Sergeant understood that the dummy lying on the station house floor was not intended for McKinley but for Sagasta, he bestowed such a kick upon it that it fairly squeaked for mercy. Then the young men fell upon it and nearly wrecked what remained of it. They wanted to burn it again but the Sergeant explained that it could not be allowed, and Sagasta was taken to a cell to languish for the night. This morning the straw that composed him was burned by Warden Martin.

Present War Scare Has Had Its Effect on the Market.

The present war scare has affected the meat market very materially and there has been a raise in the price of meats within the past few days. There has been a raise of $1.50 on a hundred for beef. The dealers pay now 1½ cents wholesale for beef and the retail price is 3 cents. The prospects are that the price will go still higher very soon.

DEPEND ON THE EXEMPTS

BUT TWO ACTIVE MEMBERS ON ALERT'S MEMBERSHIP ROLL.

And in Another Month They Will Be Exempt From Duty—Meeting Tonight to Arrange to Bring in New Members.

The Alert Hose Company finds itself in a peculiar position. At present there are only two members of the company whose term of service has not expired and who are not exempt firemen. They attend the fires of course, but that is only on account of the peculiar situation in which they are placed. The two remaining active members are Sheriff Wm. T. Kirk and F. L. C. Martin, both of whom rarely attend a fire, owing to the fact that they are in Plainfield so little. In another month their term will have expired and the company will then be without an active member.

A meeting of the company is to be held this evening, when the members will discuss what must be done to enlist new men in the company and to prolong the life of Plainfield's crack hose company.

NEW YORK CANAL INVESTIGATION.

Engineer Adams Gives Explanation of His $9,000 000 Estimate.

Albany, N. Y., April 7.—At the examination of Mr. Adams by the Canal Investigating Commission, Counsel Blackman asked: "Did you ever entertain the opinion that the work could be done for $9,000,000, that is, by leaving the walls as they were. On that idea the estimates were curtailed, and it was with that thought that the contracts were let. I was disabused of that opinion as soon as the actual work was commenced by contractors. Excavations showed that the material at the foot of the walls was of such a light nature that it would not support the bank. In the winter of 1897 I perceived that the walls of the canal were in such bad shape that the frost on the banks was going to prove disastrous to them. I was then convinced that the canals could not be improved for $9,000,000."

Mr. Blackman read from Mr. Adams' report of 1896 on the canal improvement as follows:

"Right here it seems but proper to say that while it is believed that this sum, $9,000,000, can be made to suffice for the work of simply deepening the canals to the required depth, it does not follow and it is not true that it will cover all the work now required to put the canals in the best possible shape."

Mr. Adams says that was written by him in December, 1896, and was intended to convey the opinion that the digging out of the canals could be accomplished, but that the physical condition of so many of the structures were such that in order to put the canal in repair more than $9,000,000 was necessary."

Although indicted on three counts for auditing and conniving in the payment of fraudulent claims against the city of Brooklyn for public works, each of which are felonies, Milne was permitted last week by Judge Hurd to put in a plea of guilty to a misdemeanor. The extreme penalty for the latter is one year and the fine was imposed.

Milne nearly broke down as he was led to the pen. He had nothing to say before or after sentence. He is 28 years old and lived with his wife and two children.

GOVERNOR HEARD OF THE TRADING STAMPS.

An Important Hearing at Trenton Yesterday Afternoon.

BOTH SIDES HAD THEIR SAY

LARGE DELEGATION OF MERCHANTS URGE GOVERNOR TO SIGN.

Lawyer Edwards Argued That the Trading Stamp Companies Were Doing a Legitimate Business—They Gave Full Value for Stamps and the Opponents Were Shopkeepers Who Lacked Business Enterprise—The Charge Made That Stamp Companies Were Under No Obligation to Redeem Coupons Issued.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, April 8.—The friends and enemies of the trading stamps both had an inning before the Governor yesterday afternoon when a hearing was given on the bill to abolish the stamps, on the ground that they were a lottery.

The entire afternoon was taken up with arguments on the merits and demerits of the bill. On the noon trains delegations of business men from most of the cities and towns in the State, probably 200 strong, arrived, and told the Governor why he should append his signature to the Anti-Trading Stamp bill. The trading stamp companies were represented by a number of New Jersey and New York lawyers, including Mr. Edwards, of New York; G. D. W. Vroom, of Trenton, the counsel of P. Lorillard & Sons, tobacco manufacturers, and others, while the interests of the merchants who united in urging the Governor to sign the bill, were looked after by Lawyers F. S. Katzenbach and H. C. Valentine, of Trenton.

Mr. Edwards read an elaborate and carefully prepared speech, making points against the bill. He argued that the trading stamp companies were doing a legitimate business, and that much capital had been invested. He declared the companies give full value for the stamps given out, and said the opponents of the scheme were a clique of small shopkeepers who lacked business enterprise and who had lobbied this bill through. He criticised the Legislature for passing such an act, and declared that it was clearly unconstitutional, and, therefore, should not be signed.

Counsellor F. S. Katzenbach, replying to Mr. Edwards, read the contract which the trading stamp companies obliged business men to sign before giving them the stamps, and showed that about the only thing stamp companies agreed to do with the merchants was to take their money weekly. He contended that there was absolutely no contractual relation between the possessor of the stamp and the stamp company, and, therefore, it was optional with the stamp companies whether or not they ever redeemed the stamps when the book was filled up. He told of the closing of the stamp companies' stores since the passage of the bill, and their repudiation of the stamps, and discussed the constitutionality of the bill.

Counsel for P. Lorillard & Sons declared that if the bill became a law the Lorillards could no longer give tickets with each package of tobacco, calling for a free pipe, and he further contended that if this prize scheme was stopped, the Lorillards could not compete with other big manufacturers of tobacco.

Mr. Vroom also attacked the constitutionality of the measure. Two or three score of the business men from different parts of the State, who had in the past given out the stamps, declared to the Governor that the merchants were a unit for the bill. They declared that the trading-stamp scheme was merely a clever trick by which those in it received 5 per cent of the merchants' profits, without performing any labor.

Senator Francis also spoke for the bill.

The Governor gave no intimation of his intention regarding the measure.

Pictures of Special Interest.

There is no subject that has such an absorbing interest for the people of the country at the present day as the relations between America and Spain and incidentally the Cuban question. Winfield Scott Post Officially Promulgate His Candidacy in a Letter Reviewing His Record in the Order.

Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., of this city never had a more conscientious and earnest worker than William Smith, who has held most all of the important offices in the Post, and many other important offices in the Department of New Jersey, and his fellow comrades recognizing his especial fitness have decided to present his name before the thirty first annual encampment, to be held at Long Branch in June, for Department Commander. The Post is about to issue a circular letter to be sent to the comrades throughout the State. The letter states that at the Post Encampment held March 22d, the delegates to the Department Encampment were instructed to present the name of Mr. Smith for Commander and to use every honorable effort for his election.

Comrade Smith was formerly a member of Co. F, Second N. J. Calvary. He has filled the position of Officer of the Day of the local post for several years; has served as its Commander two terms, and for the past two years has filled the position of Chief Staff to the Department Commander. He is a soldier in every sense of the word, and has the best interests of the comrades at heart. He has given liberally of his time and money in building up the order and is considered as a rightful candidate to the chief position in the State.

IN BATTALION DRILL.

HIGH SCHOOL AND LEAL'S CADETS COMBINE THEIR FORCES.

Divided Into Four Companies Under the Command of Captain Geo. F. Edwards—Evolutions Gone Through With Credit.

The Plainfield High School Cadets and the Leal School Cadets held a joint-drill in the Crescent Rink yesterday afternoon. The cadets were divided into four companies which were arranged to form a battalion. The afternoon was spent in battalion drill under the command of Captain George F. Edwards, who acted as major. His staff consisted of First Lieutenant A. W. Lederer as adjutant and Sergeant DeForest as sergeant-major.

The right company was composed of High School cadets under the command of Captain Henry W. Brower. The right centre company was from the same corps and was commanded by Second Lieutenant William A. DeLong, Jr. The left centre company was made up of the Leal School cadets under the charge of First Lieutenant Orville T. Waring. The left company was also of the Leal School cadets, commanded by Captain Henry Leal.

It was the first attempt at battalion drill and so the cadets found it rather difficult at first. The evolutions were rapidly learned, however, and the different companies took their positions without confusion. The drill will be continued next Thursday afternoon at the same place. It will be private. As Captain Edwards is in charge of both companies, the arrangement put into effect for the first time yesterday will probably be continued most of the spring so that the cadets can appear at any celebration this year as a battalion.

CHILDREN AND MATCHES TO BLAME.

Started a Fire in Damp Hay Which Burned Very Slow.

Last evening a fire alarm was sent in from Box 35, corner of Fifth street and Arlington avenue, by J. D. Spicer, who noticed that there was a fire in a barn in the rear of the house on Madison avenue, occupied by John Naegle. The fire was caused through the carelessness of some small children living in the vicinity. In the afternoon they were in the haymow of the barn playing with matches. They set fire to some hay, which was rather damp, and it did not burn freely. When the 5 o'clock alarm was blown the children started to go home. One of them suggested that they go back and see if the fire was out, but the majority felt certain that it was and they went home. About 7:30 a bright light was noticed and it was then discovered that the fire had been burning for some time.

The department arrived quickly but but it was only necessary to use one extinguisher to put the fire out. The damage was very slight.

A WILD HATER OF THE DONS CAUSES TERROR.

"Down With the Spaniards" Heard at Mt. Bethel.

MAN WHOM NO ONE KNOWS.

SAID TO LIVE IN BARNS AND THE WOODS AT NIGHT.

The Crazy Man Chases and Threatens Men Whom He Believes to be Spaniards—He Wears a Grand Army Button, and Carries a Strong Cane With Which He Strikes Trees in His Spiteful Moods—Frequently Runs Across Farm Fields—No One Seems Able to Subdue His Wild Flights.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Mt. Bethel, April 8.—The influence of the present war talk has reached Mt. Bethel and as a consequence the residents in this quiet little village have been nearly frightened out of their wits.

A few days ago an aged Grand Army man made his appearance in the village and attracted the attention of the residents by running through the streets and yelling fiercely "Down with the Spaniards!" He carried a large cane with a sharp point. He frequently attacked a tree with his cane, at the same time uttering some blood curdling sentence. People were chased as the man imagined everyone was a Spaniard. His manner was of the wildest sort and his dress was poor.

The man is a perfect stranger, as no one seems to know who he is or where he came from. He ran up and down the streets and across lots, all the time yelling and doing all sorts of queer things.

Several times attempts were made to capture the man, but when anyone approached him he would carry on to such an extent that the people were terror stricken and afraid to touch him. The man seemed determined to fight Spaniards and said he was going to free Cuba if it cost him his life.

Judging from all accounts he will not be molested, for no one has as yet mustered up sufficient courage to stop the wild man in his strange flights. At night he hides away in the woods and swamps and no one has as yet learned his haunts. If the man continues to annoy the residents of the village assistance will be secured and an attempt made to place the stranger where he will do no harm.

AT WASHINGTON.

The President's Determination Still to Send His Message to Congress on Monday.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Washington, April 8.—Pending the actual culmination of the diplomatic developments now rapidly approaching a head, the administration is steadfastly and consistently avoiding all possible outward evidence of the crisis.

The Cuban message will be placed before Congress next Monday, unless some radical and unexpected event should happen to change the firmly fixed intention of the President; and, in the meantime, the departure of American citizens from Cuba will continue, and Minister Woodford will arrange his affairs so as to leave at a moment's notice.

At the White House today, except for frequent conferences, there was no sign of a crisis. Despite the grave situation at this time, all arrangements are going ahead for the Easter egg rolling on the White House grounds, with the Marine Band as an adjunct to the festivities.

Steamship Olivette Will Take Away Last of Refugees and Perhaps Lee.

Key West, April 8.—9 a. m.—A message was received here late last night from Consul-General Lee asking that the Plant line steamship discharge her passengers here and return at once to Havana to get more American passengers. The Mascotte brought seventy-four passengers from Havana, and only a part of them were refugees.

Beyond the daily drills nothing is doing on the warships in the harbor. Every man and every vessel is ready and waiting for action. Every steamship which arrives from the north brings additional stores for the Government.

CHANCE TO BRING A GREAT INDUSTRY HERE

All That is Needed is The Gift of a Plot of Ground.

WOULD EMPLOY 400 MEN.

THEY WOULD BE SKILLED MACHINISTS, PAID FROM $3 TO $5 A DAY.

The Industry is Now Located in a Western State and is Desirous of Removing to a Point Near New York—They Manufacture an Article Which is Sold at a Big Price, and Their Factory is Constantly Rushed—Board of Trade Will be Asked to Help to Bring the Industry to Plainfield.

The business men of Plainfield, as well as all others interested in the progress of the city, now have the opportunity to greatly increase the industrial movement that will make this city one of the leading manufacturing centres of the suburban territory, and it remains to be seen whether or not they will take advantage of the offer.

In an interview with a Press reporter this morning Charles H. Hand, the extensive real estate dealer, stated that after considerable negotiations he had received a proposition from a large industrial plant to remove to Plainfield, providing the citizens would offer them an inducement in the gift of a plot of ground 400x800 feet, necessary for the building of the plant they will put up.

The company is now located in a western State, but is extremely desirous of removing their operations to a point near New York, and in looking over the field for favorable situations they see none that offer better advantages in a general way than Plainfield. The company is capitalized at $300,000, and manufacture an article that would employ skilled machinists at the rate of from $3 to $5 per day. The factory which it is proposed to build in this section would give employment to 400 men, who, with their families, would mean an increase of 1,000 population in the city.

They manufacture an article that sells for from $1,000 to $15,000, and are running their factory at full force all the time to keep up with the orders. Further explicit details it is not thought advisable to make public just at this time.

Mr. Hand called on Secretary Runyon, of the Board of Trade, this morning, and requested that a meeting of the organization be called to consider the matter next week. Mr. Hand's plan is to have the board take steps to induce the factory to come here, and to circulate a subscription paper among the merchants and others who would be benefited by the industrial acquisition, asking for gifts of money sufficient to purchase the property on which the factory can be built. It is calculated that $1,500 will be enough. The land can be bought within the city limits that is particularly well adapted for the purpose for which it is wanted.

EASTER SERVICES.

The Programme to be Rendered at the First Baptist Church Sunday.

The Easter services at the First Baptist church Sunday morning will as usual include a musical programme of appropriate anthems, which will be rendered by the church choir. The quartette composed of Miss Harris, Mrs. Ward, Mr. Smith and Mr. Holmes will be assisted by the regular chorus. Mr. Howard Case will preside at the organ and will be assisted by Prof. Conde, violinist.

In the afternoon at 3 o'clock the usual Easter anniversary of the Sunday schools connected with the church will take place at which a more or less elaborate programme of music will be rendered by the choir and orchestra, accompanied by organ and piano. Easter carols will be sung by the schools, and Miss Addie Parker Jackson will recite "The Lord's Garden on Easter Day" with instumental accompaniment.

Will be Transferred.

Irving I. Ross, of Westfield, representing the New York and New Jersey Telephone Co., who has been in Plainfield for sometime past securing new subscribers for the company, is about to be transferred to Long Branch for the summer. While Mr. Ross has been in this city he has made a good many friends and has been very successful in his work of the above-named company.

FROM LAWS TO FIRE HOSE

ASSEMBLYMAN MURRAY WILL BE FOREMAN OF ALERT COMPANY.

Unanimously Chosen for the Position—Council Must Act to Fill Company Membership Rolls With Active Men.

The Alert Hose Company is powerless at present. While it only has two active members at present, it cannot enlist any more recruits until the Common Council has given it permission. According to a past ruling by the Council, it must give its sanction to any addition to the fire department. Meanwhile the exempt members of the Alert company are continuing to look after the organization.

Last night the company held a meeting and nominated officers. It is not every company that can have an Assemblyman for a foreman so Assemblyman Roger F. Murray was unanimously named for that position. The other nominations were as follows: First assistant foreman, Townsend Rushmore; second assistant foreman, F. L. C. Martin; secretary and treasurer, C. C. Burnett; representative to relief association, C. H. Dunham and H. M. Demarest; inquiry committee, W. S. Lowry, C. H. Dunham and J. L. Moore. The election of officers will be held on the first Monday in May.

HUNGRY AND WANTED MA

TEARFUL YOUNGSTER FOUND ON PARK AVENUE THIS MORNING.

Said That His Papa Worked in the Works and While His Mother Had Gone Marketing He Decided to Take a Stroll.

FOUND—A small boy answering to the name of Albert Jackson Moore. Wears a broad brimmed hat and blue sweather. Owner can obtain same by applying at Armstrong's pharmacy, corner of North and Park avenues.

The small boy in question, a lad of four summers, was found wandering about Park avenue this noon by the newsboys. He seemed bewildered and finally began to cry. He was such a tiny thing that the boys tried to quiet him and 'find out where he belonged. Two young ladies passing took the little lad into Armstrong's pharmacy and there tried to learn who his parents were. The youngster explained that his father was "Papa" Moore and that he worked in the works. His mother had gone down town and he had run away, he dolefully admitted.

He wanted to go home, he sobbed. He was hungry and he wanted his "mamma." After consulting a directory and repeatedly questioning the child, it was decided to send the youngster to Albert Moore, machinist, 612 East Third street, in the hope that he might be the father.

A small boy was hired to take the child and learn if he belonged there. If he did not, the boy was to be returned to the pharmacy. So if any Plainfield household is minus a small boy this afternoon, he can be found by applying to Mr. Armstrong.

Frank Hollenbeck Arraigned on Charge of Receiving Stolen Goods.

Frank Hollenbeck, of Netherwood, who was arrested recently on a charge of receiving stolen property from the residence of David Eastman, which was taken by John Fillmore, his brother-in-law, was arraigned in Justice Moffett's court this morning. He waived examination and was held in $500 bail for his appearance at the next term of the Court of Oyer and Terminer. John Fillmore, who was charged with stealing iron, etc., from Mr. Eastman's residence, was committed to the county jail to await trial. Lawyer Edward Nugent, of Elizabeth, is counsel for Mr. Hollenbeck, and he appeared this morning with his client. Mr. Hollenbeck furnished his own bail.

Victims of Circumstances.

Fred Barker says that he was not one of the principals in the attempt to burn the effigy of Sagasta Wednesday night. He says that he was attracted to the spot by the crowd of other young men, but when the guilty ones disappeared at the sight of the police he remained because he had no reason to run inasmuch as he was not concerned in the affair anymore than eyewitness. When he was catechised by the police it was, he says, because he was a victim of circumstances. Webster Littell also vehemendy disclaims any connection with "The Hundred Devils," he, too, being a mere eyewitness and victim of circumstances.

ARRANGING FOR THE HORSE RACE MEETS.

A Meeting Held in New Brunswick Last Evening.

PURSES TO BE OFFERED.

PLAINFIELD ENTHUSIASTS HAVE ALREADY SUBSCRIBED $1,500.

Three Counties Represented Last Night, but Owing to the Absence of Hunterdon County Representatives Several Details Could Not be Decided On—Somerset Men Have Not Yet Raised the Required Sum of $1,000, but Expect to Get It—Five Regular Events in Trotting to be Arranged for Soon.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, April 8. — The horsemen of Middlesex, Union, Somerset and Hunterdon counties are now prepared to effect a permant organization to conduct a series of racemeets in the four counties. Last night the promoters of the organization met at this city to complete arrangements. Owing to the absence of the delegation from Hunterdon county, the regular steps to organize the association were deferred until the next meeting.

The meeting was held in the parlors of the Mansion House shortly after 8 o'clock. It was called to order by Former Judge W. A. Coddington, of Plainfield, who is the chairman of the temporary organization. Owing to the absence of Robert A. Fairburn, of Westfield, the secretary, James Parsons, of this city, was appointed secretary pro tem.

After the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting and the stating of the object of the meeting by the chairman, the committees from the various counties made their report. The Plainfield contingent had a guarantee fund of $1,500 ready. The Middlesex county delegation had secured a similar fund of over $1,000. The Somerset county men reported that they had not been able to raise $1,000 as yet, but that there was little doubt but that it could be secured shortly. For some unexplained reason, the Hunterdon county delegation did not put in an appearance, so nothing could be learned of the success or failure of the movement in that section.

The chairman appointed a committee, composed of Fred Williams and H. E. Rider, of Plainfield; Austin Moore, of Somerville, and A. B. Monahan, of New Brunswick, to formulate plans for the race meets and select the classes for the races. Then the ones interested took a recess while the committee retired to a back room to prepare their report.

The committee advised that a two days' meet be held at one track in each county at some date in the early summer. They will probably be held during June. They recommended that there be five regular events and one special event each day. They reported the following classes: 2:19, trotting and pacing; 2:20, trotting; 2:30, trotting and pacing; 2:40, trotting; 3:00, free for all. The purses and prizes were to be awarded to each race by the general association. As Hunterdon was not present it was decided to postpone the fixing of the amounts for the purses until the next meeting. The recommendations of the committee were adopted.

The date for the next meeting was set for Wednesday, when the interested one will gather at Somerville. It was voted to extend an invitation to the horse-owners of Monmouth county to attend that meeting and join the association if they wished to. It was thought that Monmouth was near enough to be in the circuit. There are a number of enthusiastic lovers of the sport in that county who would take an active interest in the races.

There was a discussion regarding the management of the different meets and it was the general opinion that they would be much more successful if managed by the members from the county in which the meet was held. It was then decided that the members of the association from the county in which the meet was to be held should have charge instead of a committee from the general association to look out after all of them. Each county will manage its own race meet and guarantee its expenses and losses.

A large delegation was present from Plainfield at the meeting. They drove over and some arrived after the meeting had started. Among them were H. E. Rider, Fred Williams, Sheriff William T. Kirk, Former Judge William A. Coddington, Robert A. Fairburn, C. V. D. Corle, Charles H. Lyman, City Judge George W. De-Meza, J. W. Van Sickle, Thomas Brantingham, Charles C. Brower, John Osborne, William E. Brock, Harry S. Potter, and Newton B. Smalley.

SPANIARDS MUST GO!

Unless Troops are Withdrawn From Cuba War Becomes Inevitable.

POWERS APPEAL IN VAIN.

Eastertide Greetings Exchanged Between the Ambassadors of Five European Powers and President McKinley—The President Tells His Callers the Situation Has Become Insufferable.

Washington, D. C., April 8.—There should be no misunderstanding of the situation and the purpose here. Both are as firm and unyielding as adamant, and President and Congress are of one mind regarding them. Spain must abandon Cuba, and at once, peaceably if she will, by force of Americans arms if it must be so.

A multitude of telegrams are coming to the White House and to Congress asking if there is hope of peace and indicating a belief that the withholding of the President's message has opened a way to avoid conflict. Such an idea, if it still remains, has absolutely no foundation—less at this moment by far than it had at any previous time.

The question now is not peace or war, for there is no longer any need for inquiry about the attitude of this nation. Spain faces a demand from this country to evacuate Cuba or fight, and no diplomatic interchanges on anything except this one proposition are now contemplated.

The President remains firm in his determination to forcibly intervene in Cuba if necessary to put an end to hostilities and to secure tranquility and a more stable government on the island. Information from a high source clearly indicates that a naval demonstration against Havana has been considered and is almost certain to be made within the next few days unless Spain yields, and if this demonstration results in war the President is ready to accept the issue.

Washington, April 8.—President McKinley received the Ambassadors of five European powers at the Executive Mansion yesterday. The Ambassadors remained with him for nearly an hour.

Those present at the conference were Sir Julian Pauncefote, Ambassador of Great Britain; M. Cambon, Ambassador of France; Baron von Holleben, Ambassador of Germany; Baron Hengelmueller, Ambassador of Austria; Mr. De Wollant, Charge d'Affaires of Russia, and Count Vinci, the Charge d'Affaires of the Italian Embassy.

The Ambassadors addressed the President as follows:

"The undersigned representatives of Germany, Austria-Hungary, France, Great Britain, Italy and Russia, duly authorized in that behalf, address in the name of their respective Governments a pressing appeal to the feelings of humanity and moderation of the President and of the American people in their existing differences with Spain. They earnestly hope that further negotiations will lead to an agreement which, while securing the maintenance of peace, will afford all necessary guarantees for the re-establishment of order in Cuba.

"The Powers do not doubt that the humanitarian and purely disinterested character of this representation will be fully recognized and appreciated by the American nation."

The President replied:

"The Government of the United States recognizes the good will which has prompted the friendly communication of the representatives of Germany, Austria-Hungary, France, Great Britain, Italy and Russia, as set forth in the address of your Excellencies, and shares the hope therein expressed that the outcome of the situation in Cuba may be the maintenance of peace between the United States and Spain by affording the necessary guarantees for the re-establishment of order in the island, so terminating the chronic condition of disturbance there which so deeply injures the interests and menaces the tranquility of the American nation by the character and consequences of the struggle thus kept up at our doors, besides shocking its sentiment of humanity.

"The Government of the United States appreciates the humanitarian and disinterested character of the communication now made on behalf of the Powers named, and for its part is confident that equal appreciation will be shown for its own earnest and unselfish, endeavors to fulfil a duty to humanity by ending a situation the indefinite prolongation of which has become insufferable."

It is understood here that the address of the Powers was submitted to the President merely for its moral effect upon Spain and upon the governments of the world generally. It was not as an offer of mediation, but simply an appeal for peace on the general ground of humanity.

One of the foreign representatives who called on the President said emphatically that the visit did not justify any statement that the European concert meant to maintain peace.

They were not acting in behalf of the concert, he said. Their presence at the White House was merely the result of Eastertide feeling of good will throughout the world. The European rulers believed that this was the proper season for using every endeavor to prevent war between nations, and instructions were sent to their representatives in Washington.

Similar instructions were sent to the European representatives in Madrid and a note of the same tenor as that handed President McKinley was laid before the Queen Regent.

Rush Order for Cable.

Derby, Conn., April 8.—The Kerite Cable Works are running night and day to supply the Government. The order is for fifty miles of single conductor submarine cable, and fifteen miles of No. 7 conductor submarine cable. It is a rush order, and the shop will have to run day and night.

THE FEELING IN CONGRESS.

Members of Both Houses Take Delay With Good Grace.

Washington, April 8.—Congress is more contentedly waiting the action of the President this time than on any of the previous occasions of delay. No reasonable man is finding any fault because of the postponement of the message until Monday, and much less is heard than formerly in criticism of the President's course. This is primarily due to the reason assigned for this delay, the desire to get Americans out of Cuba before trouble begins. No hothead is so eager for immediate vengeance as to desire to take the risk of slaughtering a few hundred Americans in Cuba, and since there is no way of disproving that this is the real purpose of the delay, nothing can be done but to wait patiently.

Sentiment here is rapidly formulating and this breathing spell will prove of inestimable value. The leaders are now bending every energy to hold the Republican party, administration and Congress together on this question, and with prospects of success.

It is reported here that Consul-General Lee will be in Washington on Sunday, and will appear before the Senate committee.

The Senate decided not to meet again until Monday after adjourning.

Mr. Morgan (Dem. Ala.) made a Cuban speech, saying that he was for a declaration of war, and thought there was ample justification for such a measure. Mr. Morgan and Secretary Alger had recommended the improvement of Mobile harbor as a war necessity.

Mr. Allison (Rep., Iowa) read a telegram from the Secretary regarding this matter, in which General Alger said that he thought it would be well to deepen the harbor at Mobile after the present crisis had passed, but that he was in favor of doing anything now to deepen the channel, which would allow warships to enter, as it would make one more place to defend.

Mr. White (Dem., Cal.) said it was evident that our harbors were not properly defended by fortifications in this emergency, "into which we are so madly rushed."

QUESADA SPEAKS FOR CUBA.

He Tells the House Committee of the Republic's Affairs.

Washington, April 8.—The House Committee on Foreign Affairs had Senor Quesada, of the Cuban Junta, before them for an hour yesterday. He was questioned as to the condition of the Cuban Government, its extent and facilities.

Mr. Quesada was asked as to the government of the Republic of Cuba, which the United States is asked to recognize, and members say he gave a full and satisfactory statement. He described the territory in possession of the insurgents, the government in Puerto Principe and Santiago provinces. In the former province, he said, there were 250,000 people who acknowledge allegiance to the republican government. Four hundred thousand dollars, he said, had been collected in taxes. The capital of the republic, he said, had been twice dislodged, but it was in working order. He explained the functions of the government.

If the United States should intervene without recognizing the independence of the republic, he said, it would be a virtual declaration of war against the insurgents as well as the Spanish.

Maine Wreck No Use to Spain.

Washington, April 8.—Captain Sigsbee, the late commander of the Maine, on reading the telegram stating that Spain claimed possession of the Maine wreck, because the United States flag had been hauled down, said:

"I do not believe that it is so. The wreck is of no value. Spain ought to be glad to have it removed. The big guns at the bottom of the harbor have had their breech locks removed, and, consequently, are of no value.

"For Spain to make such a demand now would be false diplomacy and very obnoxious to the United States."

Ensign Powelson, who is attached to the Fern, while aboard the wreck yesterday was peremptorily ordered away by the Spanish gunboat Legazp's commander. Mr. Powelson at first demurred, but afterward left the wreck and returned to the Fern.

How it Will Be Done.

Washington, April 8.—It is said upon high authority that President McKinley and his advisers have planned a military and naval intervention to make Spain comply with the demands of this country.

As soon as Congress adopts a resolution of intervention an American fleet is to be sent to Havana, the flying squadron to Porto Rico and 50,000 or 60,000 troops to Cuba to invest Havana.

The firing of a shot will then start war, but, with the strategic points thus commanded, the President hopes it will not be fired. It is thought Spain will appreciate the situation and open negotiations which will lead to the independence of Cuba.

Mrs. McKinley Gives a Luncheon.

Washington, D. C., April 8.—A luncheon was given yesterday by Mrs. McKinley in honor of the party of ladies who have been her guests for some time past. One hundred guests were entertained, and for them the East room was made one mass of ferns and palms.

There must be a cause!

There must be a reason for our unique position in New Jersey. With countless competitors in the field, you would expect that the business of one or two of them would nearly approach in size the business of the largest, but the truth is that ours is many times larger than any other single one.

One of the causes is that we sell Pianos that we know are the seven best, in their different grades, that America produces—CHICKERINGS, GABLERS, HARDMANS, VOSES, STERLINGS, STANDARDS and HUNTINGTONS. These names are a cause unto themselves.

Notice to the Public in General.

The American people shall have no need of the CHINAMAN in the future if every American Laundryman will supply the proper kind of work. Try us and be convinced that we are up-to-date, and that you would rather have AMERICANS by all odds to serve you. Think of the [illegible] odor that comes from a Chinese Laundry, and yet one half of the people don't know what causes it. Here it is in a Nut Shell. Could you for instance turn out first-class laundry in a room 12x20 where there is three or four living. Think of your laundry in a place of this kind, where they do cooking, smoke their opium and also sleep in same apartment. And still what is more horrible is that all your clothes are sprinkled from the mouth. Think twice before you speak and have an American citizen to do your laundry by all odds.

A BANK PRESIDENT MURDERED.

Went to Dispossess a Tenant and Was Instantly Killed.

Lancaster, Pa., April 8.—David B. Landis, president of the Conestoga National Bank, and one of the leading citizens of this city, was shot and killed yesterday by Ralph W. Wireback.

The tragedy resulted from an effort of Landis to dispossess Wireback, who rented a house from Landis last year with the privilege of renewing the lease if the house was not sold.

Proceedings were begun to dispossess him, but he had prepared himself by sending his family away and nailing up the doors and windows, and otherwise barricading the entrance.

Two constables attempted to eject him, but Wireback took refuge in the garret. He asked for a conference, and requested that the constables send for Landis. His request was complied with. Mr. Landis came over to the house, and accompanied by the two constables, started up stairs to see Wireback. He had not ascended more than two or three steps of the garret stairs when a report was heard, and Landis fell back into Constable Graef's arms, the whole top of his head having been blown off.

NEW YORK'S CANAL SCANDAL.

Mr. Adams Defends the Large Preliminary Engineering Expenses.

Albany, April 8.—The examination of State Engineer Adams by the canal investigating commission was continued yesterday. Mr. Adams testified that the preliminary expenses for engineering up to December 1, 1897, were $272,082. He considered that expense necessary. Counsel Blackmar then read from the 1876 report of former State Engineer Van Buren on the survey of the canals made under his supervision. The report stated that the survey was very complete, and that the records of it were filed in the State Engineer's office for future reference. This survey cost $14,988.

Mr. Adams said the records of that survey were valueless for the canal improvement. He next stated that it took two years to make the Van Buren survey, and added: "We should have been derelict in our duty if we had taken as much time to make the survey. Of necessity the survey was made in winter, which added greatly to the expense."

An adjournment was taken until Monday next. The appointment of Lyman E. Cooley of Chicago as advisory engineer was announced.

Strikers to Return to Work.

Lewiston, Me., April 8.—All but twenty of the strikers at the Androscoggin cotton mills have agreed to return to work, and the strike, which has prevailed for eleven weeks, is at an end. Those who refused to go to work will find employment elsewhere. Most of the machinery at the mills was in operation to-day and the plant will be running in full on Monday next. No promises have been made to the strikers, the reduction which caused the trouble last January still remaining in effect.

NEW MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

A Positive Cure for Dyspepsia.

This may read as though we were putting it a little strong because it is generally thought by the majority of people that Dyspepsia in its chronic form is incurable or practically so. But we have long since shown that Dyspepsia is curable, nor is it such a difficult matter as it first appears.

The trouble with Dyspeptics is that they are continually dieting, starving themselves, or going to opposite extremes or else deluging the already over burdened stomach with "bitters," "after dinner pills," etc., which invariably increase the difficulty even if in some cases they do give a slight temporary relief. Such treatment of the stomach simply make matters worse. What the stomach wants is a rest. Now how can the stomach become rested, recuperated and at the same time the body nourished and sustained.

This is the great secret and this is also the secret of the uniform success of Stuart's dyspepsia tablets. This is a comparatively new remedy, but its success and popularity leaves no doubt as to its merits.

The tablets will digest the food any way, regardless of condition of stomach.

The sufferer from dyspepsia according to directions, is to eat an abundance of good, wholesome food and use the tablets before and after each meal, and the result will be that the food will be digested no matter how bad your dyspepsia may be, because as before stated, the tablets will digest the food, even if the stomach is wholly inactive. To illustrate our meaning plainly, if you take 1,800 grains of meat, eggs or ordinary food and place it in a temperature of 98 degrees, and put with it one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, it will digest the meat or eggs almost as perfectly as if the meat was enclosed within the stomach.

The stomach may be ever so weak, yet these tablets will perform the work of digestion and the body and the brain will be properly nourished and at the same time a radical, lasting cure of dyspepsia will be made because the much abused stomach will be given, to some extent, a much needed rest. Your druggist will tell you that of the many remedies advertised to cure dyspepsia, none of them has given so complete and general satisfaction as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and not least in importance in these hard times is the fact that they are also the cheapest and give the most good for the least money.

A little book on cause and cure of stomach trouble sent free by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. 4 4 6-8

TERRORS OF HAVANA.

Pacified Cubans Flee in Alarm To the Woods.

AMERICANS GETTING OUT.

The Reconcentrados are Veritably Between the Devil and the Deep Sea—Spanish Soldiers Promise Riot and Massacre as Soon as Hostilities Begin.

Havana, via Key West, April 8.—1 P. M.—Although the city is in a terrible state of excitement no actual trouble has occurred up to this time. Great as the panic is among the Americans, who are well aware of the danger to which they will be exposed when the long restrained hatred of the Spanish Volunteers is allowed to burst into acts of violence and revenge, the terror is still greater among the Cuban families, who realize that they will be more than ever at the mercy of those fiends when hostilities are declared.

For this reason all who are in a position to flee to the United States are getting ready to leave by the first steamships, and many are trying to take to the woods, where they believe they would be much safer. But knowing this, the authorities have issued orders to prevent all families from moving into the interior. Reports of massacres are constantly reaching the city.

It may be safely said that while all the Cubans are anxious for American intervention to become a fact, and for American warships to come to take possession of the Cuban seaports, the defenseless families would willingly go to the United States, not because they are afraid to see the cities bombarded, but because of the certainty that outrages of all kinds are in store for them at the hands of the Spanish rabble.

A report just made public here that three American fleets will simultaneously attack Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands has added to the rage of the Spanish, and they swear that they will take revenge upon whoever may come within their reach who is not a loyal Spaniard.

General Blanco ostensibly makes every effort to maintain order, but it is an open secret that as soon as war is declared the city of Havana will be practically turned over to the Volunteers.

The ranks of this armed body have increased by several thousand men within the last few days. All Spaniards between the ages of nineteen and fifty have been ordered to join the existing regiments. General Blanco's idea at first was to compel all able-bodied Cubans also to enlist, but on second thought he abandoned his plan, for fear that when war broke out the Cubans might use the arms given to them in fighting Spain.

Passports to the number of 386 were issued to departing Americans within twenty-four hours. The wharves are piled with baggage and the streets are being patrolled by cavalry.

Of the reconcentrados who were liberated on Tuesday four were found murdered on the outskirts of Santa Clara.

Lee Coming Saturday.

Washington, April 8.—Consul-General Lee will leave Havana on Saturday, as a result of explicit instructions from the State Department, and acording to a reply from him, saying that he would sail on the day named.

Assistant Secretary Day, after a conference with the President, said Lee would leave Cuba by Saturday, and that the Americans on the island were being gotton off rapidly. By Saturday he believed the situation would permit General Lee to vacate his post safely and return to the United States.

AMERICANS TO LEAVE.

Clara Barton Cables That General Lee Has Advised All to Get Out of Havana by To-Morrow.

New York, April 8.—Stephen Barton, of the Central Cuban Relief Committee, received a cablegram from Miss Clara Barton from Havana, which read as follows:

"Lee advises all Americans to leave by special steamer Friday."

Relative to the cable, Mr. Barton said: "As far as Miss Barton's safety and that of the other members of the Red Cross is concerned, let me say that if they have only the Spanish soldiers to deal with, they are as safe as though they were in New York. Between General Blanco and Miss Barton the most cordial relations exist, and the emblem of the Red Cross would be the surest protection to be had. Many Spaniards are members of the Red Cross, and it is honored and respected by them."

Alms May Be Confiscated.

Havana, via Key West, Fla., April 8.—The proposition to seize food supplies sent from the United States to consuls for the Cuban reconcentrados has been seriously discussed by Blanco's army commissary officer and local customs authorities. Havana's collector urged immediate appropriation, but Senor Montoro, Secretary of Finance in the new Cabinet, withheld his approval, preferring, he said, to await the beginning of hostilities before taking any action.

Yousouf and Roeber Matched.

New York, April 8.—The recent wrestling match talk took definite action yesterday, when Yousouf, "the terrible Turk," and Ernest Roeber, the American Graeco-Roman champion, were again matched to meet on the mat.

The conditions were the same as in the former match, but it was stipulated that the floor should be covered with a twenty-four-foot mat and that ropes surround the mat.

The date for the match is to be either April 30 or May 7, at the discretion of Martin Julian, manager for Roeber. Should the Turk suffer defeat before the dates mentioned, the match is to be declared off.

Britain Is With Us.

London, April 8.—On the highest authority it can be announced that the British Government has assured the United States that the latter has its fullest and most cordial sympathy in its Cuban policy.

TERRIBLE NEWS.

(By Direct Wire From the News Sanctum.)

News Editorial Desk, April 8.—Upon asbestos sheets, seventeen feet square, Editor Runyon this morning spent several hours in the compilation of rip-roaring, red-hot editorial about The Daily Press. At times seething sheets of flame leaped and roared above his head as the throbbing issues of the editorial fairly burned holes in the asbestos sheets. Several assistants were kept busy at dictionaries and books of synonyms and antonyms in the vain endeavor to keep pace with the flood of mental anguish and vituperation that took form in glaring lines upon the asbestos sheets with red and blue ink, but the horde of assistants were unable to follow the thoughts of the editor fast enough to suit him, and at one moment it was thought that the enraged writer would be consumed by the burning ideas that permeated his mind. However, two printers devils, with fire extinguishers, inundated the aggressive editor's topknot and narrowly prevented his consumption by the fire fiend. The confidential advice of the News staff, other than the high muck-a muck himself, to their brethern of The Daily Press, is to flee the country. The editorial is a sockdolager for The Press.

DEMOCRATIC QUIBBLING.

Former Congressman Dunn has it in his mind to defeat Frederick C. Marsh as Mayor of Elizabeth if such a thing is possible. Dunn is counting a good deal on charges that he is making against Marsh to accomplish that end. The principal one is that while in the Legislature four years ago Marsh voted for the coal combine. Two years ago, however, Dunn supported Marsh for Mayor against John Rankin in a vigorous manner. Inasmuch as the wary political mind of the former Congressman must have known of Marsh's record as fully then as he does now, the inevitable conclusion is that he is simply taking the present method of retaliating on the latter for some differences that have arisen within the last two years. The Democratic leaders say Dunn's quarrel with Mr. Marsh is of a personal character, and they want to know why Dunn did not fire off his heavy artillery at Marsh two years ago, when the latter ran for Mayor. Then the ex-Congressman made speeches for the ticket, although the coal combine occurred four years previously.

A DEMOCRAT STAYS IN.

Republicans are generally too busy just now viewing proceedings at Washington to bother with the picayune matters at the New Jersey capital in a political way, but it will doubtless be somewhat surprising, as well as interesting, to the faithful followers of the G. O. P. banner to know that Governor Voorhees has so far forgotten his Republican allegiance as to appoint a Democrat to a good office. The lucky Democrat is James T. Morgan, of Elizabeth, who is continued in the office of secretary of the Bureau of Labor Statistics for another year. The Governor says the reappointment was made solely as a reward for the intelligent and untiring efforts of Mr. Morgan is a prominent member of several labor organizations, and once ran on the Labor ticket against the Governor when he was a candidate for the Assembly.

DESERVES PROSPERITY.

The New Brunswick Fredonian made its debut in The Daily Press office yesterday as an eight page paper—an increase of four pages. Several columns of advertising evidently made the increase necessary—a sure indication that the paper is appreciated by astute business men. Under its present editorial and business management The Fredonian deserves all the prosperity that it attains, as it is really a meritorious paper.

THE INDIANA AT TARGET PRACTICE.

The battleship Indiana is a busy ship these days. Her crew are drilled in warlike maneuvers, and target practice with the big guns when the ship is at full speed is a daily occurrence. Her four mammoth 13-inch guns are ready for business at a moment's notice.

Cuban patriot generals have shed their blood like water in the war with Spain. First Maceo gave his life, the greatest of them all. Next fell Aranguren, he who had given the stern order that Ruiz the briber should be shot. General Vidal Ducasi is the latest one to die for free Cuba. Each time a prominent Cuban leader has been slain Spain has rejoiced because the chance of victory for the insurgents seemed that much less. Each time Spain has been disappointed, for a new leader has sprung up to take the place of the lost one, and the cause of Cuba libre goes marching on.

The saying that the most important events in a person's life generally take place within a month before or after the anniversary of his birthday is recalled by the double celebration of Leo XIII's birthday and of his coronation as pope. He was born March 2, 88 years ago, and received the papal crown March 3, 20 years ago. The festive ceremonies pertaining to both occasions were lumped this year and observed on his holiness' birthday.

Cornell university students have won intercollegiate debates three times out of five in the past five years. Cornell has therefore proved herself to possess the ablest speakers of any educational institution in the east. Let the Cornell students now try western colleges and universities.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

With the organization of the new Board of Freeholders in May there probably will be no opposition to the present efficient director, William J. Logan. Mr. Logan is a painstaking official and the county affairs have been economically administered while he has wielded the gavel. The other officers may also remain, as they have held the positions for some years and a feeling exists that their intimate acquaintance with all details of affairs in their respective departments is of great value to the county at large.—Bound Brook State Center.

William Dandy Daly has heard the chirp of Somerset County Democrats for James J. Bergen to lead the Governorship fight; and the Hoboken statesman is guessing. Bergen is anything but a repudiationist and has a respectable following in the mountain counties. His break for the nomination, however, is sending a shiver down the backs of the State committeemen, who practically had promised their kind offices to Daly.—New York Press.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News, but Just as Interesting.

Silas D. Drake is a pushing man, indeed, as the following letter under date of April 6th from Lincoln will testify:

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—It was 366 days ago since Lincoln was founded. Today I mail you the first letter from Lincoln to Plainfield. We have six mails a day. Doing the right thing, in the right way, at the right time, and keeping everlastingly at it brings success.

Yours truly,
Silas D. Drake.

W. H. Bradley, the attentive and hustling manager of the Postal Telegraph Company, has been a veritable jewel to the local newspaper men for the last few days. A large amount of the late and important telegraphic news which has been received on the happenings at Washington and elsewhere in connection with the affairs between this country and Spain, has been received over the Postal's wires. Mr. Bradley has done his share of work at the receiving end to "rush" all dispatches, and through his efforts to a great degree The Daily Press has been enabled to furnish its readers with the splendid service that has marked its presentation of the latest information from "the seat of war."

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

"Peck's Bad Boy" will be presented at Music Hall next Monday night by the Atkinson Comedy Company, and a number of surprises are promised. The piece has been entirely remodeled for this season, and many of the old features have disappeared altogether, and new songs, dances and witticisms have taken their place. The new version is thereby brightened up immensely and well worth seeing.

Is there anything so funny, so hilarious, so full of laughter as DuSouchet's "My Friend from India?" It is a winner from start to finish. It has accomplished its object, and that object is to make merriment. This highly successful comedy, headed by Walter E. Perkins, the original barber, (title roll) will be seen at the Music Hall next Tuesday night, for the people of the present want to laugh and "My Friend from India" is funny from the ground up. Its vitality, action and humor have delighted large audiences everywhere.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Dunellen, April 8.—Wednesday afternoon last a very pecular robbery took place at Carman's meat market. Mr. Carman had gone to Plainfield to deposit $100 in the bank and had left his boy at the market. The boy went out for a moment when a stranger entered the market and appropriated the contents of the cash drawer, amounting to $2. After the stranger had made the haul he walked deliberately out of the market and down the street. The boy soon returned and learned what had happened. He noticed the stranger and gave chase, at the same time calling for assistance. Everyone on the street thought the boy was fooling and made no attempt to stop the stranger. The thief entered the cellar at Mr. Starker's house and remained there until dark, when he made his escape. No one seemed to know who he was and he was not caught.

The marriage of Miss S. Louise Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Gray, of Washington avenue, and William L. Terry, of Church street, will take place Wednesday evening, April 20th, at 7 o'clock in the Presbyterian church. A reception will follow at the home of the bride at 7:30.

The death of Mrs. Elizabeth Starker, aged fifty seven years, occurred at her home Wednesday evening. Death was due to apoplexy. Two daughters and a son survives her. The funeral services will be held this evening at 7 o'clock. Interment will be at Milford, this State.

A new safe has been placed in the postoffice and the old one, which was broken open some time ago, has been sent back to the makers for repairs.

Scotch Plains, April 8.—George Rockwell died yesterday morning after a lingering illness. He has been stopping at the home of his father-in-law, William Archibald. He was married twice. He leaves a widow with one child and several grown up children by the first wife.

The township Committee met last evening but did not take up the trolley matter as was expected. Only routine business was transacted. There seems to be something that is blocking the progress of the trolley matter, and it is now held by many that the franchise will be granted when the committee get good and ready to give it. There is evidently no hurry about it, as the stage line between certain points appears to satisfy the committee.

A number of local sports traveled to a point near Passaic river to attend a cocking main last night. There was disappointment, however, for the affair did not come off. A long journey and no sport was the result.

Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., will hold an important meeting this evening.

Miss Eva Runyon, a former teacher in the Prospect school, and Charles Fowler, an employe in the C. & C. Electric Company at Garwood, were married yesterday afternoon, at the residence of the brides parents, in Washington, N. J. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Fowler will return and reside in Westfield.

THE SUNDAY LESSON.

INTERNATIONAL SERIES, WITH COMMENTARY BY DR. STEARNS.

Golden Text.—He was bruised for our iniquities.—Isa. liii, 5.

Easter Text.—Now is Christ risen from the dead.—Cor. xv, 20. April 10, 1898.

First Step.—To understand this lesson aright we must have some conception of the expectations that filled the minds of the apostles. All of them thought that Jesus had come to this world to establish a kingdom like that of David. Jerusalem was to be its capital, and all the enemies of the Jews were to be put under their feet. Not unnaturally, the apostles also thought that, since they were the nearest friends of Jesus, they were to fill important positions in this earthly kingdom. More than once they had quarreled about their relative position, each one thinking that he deserved a higher place than any of the others. Once, indeed, two of them, James and John, got their mother to intercede for them, asking that they might have places, one on the right and the other on the left of Jesus. Not one of them had as yet any idea of the true nature of the kingdom which Jesus came to establish on this earth. All ths must be borne in mind, or else we shall fail to understand the lesson entirely.

This being the frame of mind in which they were when Jesus began to talk of his being rejected and put to death by the Jews, and they realizing that if this were the case all their hopes would be blasted, they were annoyed. Peter, who was the most impetuous of them all thought it was time for him to strike in and bring his Master to some better realization of what he was saying. So he said (taking Jesus aside to impress the better on him what he was about to say), "Be it far from thee, Lord; this shall not be unto thee." This was in reality a rebuke of the Master by one of his disciples who had no right to any such assurance. It was as much as saying to Jesus that he was mistaken and ought not to talk in any such way. Of this assurance Jesus made short work, and administered to Peter such a rebuke that he never forgot. "Get thee behind me, Satan" (Satan means adversary), he said. For in reality Peter was no friend of Christ's when he tried to prevent him from fulfilling his mission of suffering on the cross.

Second Step.—Having made this clear to the class, go on to show why the Master went on to talk about the conditions of discipleship. He wanted them to realize that their expectations of ease and honor, as the result of discipleship, were all wrong. If any of them was to be a follower of his, he must be ready to follow him through much shame and suffering. There was a cross to be borne, before there was any crown to be worn. If they sought their ease and comfort in this world, they must bear in mind that they would lose their crown in the world to come.

The man cheats for the sake of a few dollars. The boy goes off in bad company for the sake of an evening of what he calls pleasure. The politician acts in a dishonorable way for the sake of a few years of office. But Jesus says that even if a man, by sin, could get a Klondike, or the government of the whole world, it would be no real profit to him, if by this he lost his soul. And this is true, for the soul lives for all eternity. To bargain a few years of time for an eternity is the height of folly. Is not this so?

And when a man has lost his soul, how shall he redeem it again? What shall he give in exchange for it? Lost is lost, and in the world to come there is no possible retracing of one's steps. The rich man of the parable may regret ever so much his past life, but it does him no good.

Let the teacher press these solemn truths, which Jesus taught, on the class with all his power. The lesson, of course, is that we should at once take up the cross of the Master and bear it. Only in this way can we be his disciples. But if we do this, then, when he comes with his angels to judgment, he will reward us with that crown of righteousness of which the apostle Paul speaks, which God has in keeping for all who love him. Do you wish this crown? Then take up the cross.

Third Step.—But what was true of the disciples is in proportion true of all who would be disciples of the Son of God. This is a sinful world in which we live, and our hearts are sinful as well. On this account it is hard to do right, for not only does it go against our own natural inclination, but against the example of the world as well. For angels it is not hard to do right, for they are holy. But it is not so with us. With us inclination and conscience often clash, and there is where the "cross" comes in. It is like rowing against the current. Every scholar will understand this, for it forms a part of his daily experience. This is why Jesus said that if any man would follow him, that is, his example, he would have to deny his own sinful self and take up his cross in order to do it. Yes, to be a Christian we must deny our sinful desires and crucify them, as it were. Temptations are all around us, to which we are inclined to yield. The child feels that he would like to disobey his mother, and the boy is tempted to tell what is not true, and the man feels prompted to deal falsely for the sake of gain. But if we are to be true Christians all these tendencies must be resisted, and we must be willing to deny ourselves. Then it not infrequently happens that we have to take up the cross that comes to us from the ridicule of those who do not believe as we do. Many a Sunday-school scholar is laughed at for being a Christian, and this he feels to be a real cross, and so it is. To all, however, Jesus says the same thing. If we are not willing to bear the cross for his sake we are not worthy to be his disciples.

Fourth Step.—But Jesus impresses this truth further on men's hearts by verse 26 which is a kind of spiritual mathematics. He gives us a sum in "profit and loss." If you do not consent to deny your sinful appetites and desires, what will it profit you, even though you gain the whole world, if you lose your own soul? Mark how strongly Jesus puts this. "The whole world," he says. Now most of our acts of disobedience are for the sake of very small pleasures.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Lesson For the Week Beginning April 10. Comment by Rev. W. J. Yates, A. M. Topic, Easter Thanksgiving and Reasons For It.

SCRIPTURE READING.—I Pet. i, 3, 4.

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to His abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead."

Easter is the gladdest festival of all the Christian year. No event in all the world's history is as marvelous as that which it commemorates. That men should die was the common experience and expectation. That any one should revive after death was unlooked for. It was believed that one or two specially favored of God had mysteriously passed out of life without dying—how, no one could explain. During the lifetime of Jesus He had recovered the sick from their diseases. It was also stated that He had in the presence of a few restored the daughter of Jairus to life a short time after her death. He had raised the son of a widow in Nain to life. At Bethany He had in the presence of many called Lazarus back to life after he had been dead three days. All these events were startling, were significant; but just what they signified no one could state certainly. Surely they had no general application.

With the resurrection of Jesus it is much different. If He could raise the dead, He truly must be master of life and needed not to lay down His life by reason of any weakness in Himself or power of death over Him. He said: "No man taketh it from me. I have power to lay it down and I have power to take it again."

His rising from the dead "declared Him to be the Son of God, with power according to the spirit of holiness." It broke the power of death which hitherto had been universal. It awakened men to a new hope. It opened wider prospect for every one. It did not promise an escape from the power of death so that any one might hope to live endlessly in the present bodily condition and with earthly surroundings and occupations, but it opened an existence beyond death in new bodily possessions and with an environment adapted to the pure spirit's needs and capacities, an inheritance incorruptible and unpolluted by weakness and sin, one that should not fade with the passing of years, that should never be taken away by death. This glorious possession was revealed by the resurrection of Jesus as the possible attainment of every one who would come to God the Father through Jesus Christ.

The Easter glory is the adequate consummation of the wonderful life of the Master. It is the only appropriate conclusion of the life which brought reconciliation between God and man. The more it is studied in all its bearings the more does it grow in beauty and power. The more fully we yield ourselves to the influence of its inspiration the more does its mystic power possess our lives, pervade all our activities, transform our natures and bring us to the reality of a rising in His likeness.

"We shall be like Him." "He that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as He is pure."

Bishop J. W. Joyce.

Two years this general superintendent has spent in the work of supervision of our missions in the orient. Japan, Korea and China have been visited, and the various conferences have been twice presided over by him. He has become acquainted with the missionaries in their homes and the people in their daily life. He has been able to give time to understanding the perplexing problems and peculiarities of each mission as no other bishop has had opportunity. This intimate knowledge of the situation in those lands will be of special value to the church at the present time. The eyes of all the world are now turned to the far east. Startling events have already occurred there and the coming months are likely to bring others not less important. We confidently expect that all these rapid changes will be of advantage to the cause of Christianity. The church needs to be alert and ready to enter the doors of opportunity as they open before her in those regions.

Worship.

All words and representations must from the nature of the case fail to adequately express the full and real devotion of the Christian heart. Music has its place, painting and sculpture and architecture are all handmaids of religion. They can be no more. When they attempt to be mistress, they prostitute its service. "God is a spirit, and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth."

Holy Week.

More than ever before this period of time is coming to be observed by all branches of the Christian church with special services appropriate to the solemn occasion. Surely this is wise, to follow the course of our Saviour's last week on earth with sympathetic love.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

TOPIC.—Conquering the fear of death.—John viii, 51-54; Phil. i, 21-26. (An Easter song service suggested.)

Death is a universal enemy of mankind. It holds sway in every land and clime. It has struck terror to millions of human hearts. What glorious news to humanity that death has been conquered and the grave need no longer be feared! This is the message of Easter. When Christ arose, He overcame death not merely for Himself, but for all who are His. The humblest disciple of Christ in the world can say: "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin." But Christ cleanses us from sin, and thereby removes the sting from death. The pardoned Christian no longer has any fear of death.

1. The testimony of Christ proves that the fear of death has been conquered for the Christian. John viii, 51, reads, "Verily, verily, I say unto you if a man keep My saying he shall never see death." Christ is not speaking of spiritual death, but physical death. He does not mean one who obeys Him will never pass through the grave, but that what is called death to the Christian is not death. The Christian never dies. Obedience to Christ leads to immortal life. Death is only a change from temporal to eternal life and therefore need not be feared. This is Christ's testimony, and it is true. If we keep His word, if we obey His commandments, we need never have any fear of death. Are we obeying His commandments? This is our part in conquering the fear of death. Christ has done His part. Are we doing ours?

2. The experience of the Apostle Paul corroborates the testimony of Christ that death has been conquered (Phil. i, 20-26). With what cheerful courage Paul here speaks of death! He is a prisoner at Rome. His future is yet undecided. Whether it will be life or death he does not know, but in either case he declares he will magnify Christ in his body. "Christ," he says, "shall be magnified by my body, whether it be by life or by death. To live is Christ, to die is gain." No fear of death in such language as that. Instead of fearing death he looked upon it as a personal gain, for then he would be with Christ, and when, later on, he did know that the end was before him he calmly wrote to Timothy, "I am now ready to be offered up, and the time of my departure is at hand." The experience of Paul is the experience of all Christians when they come to the dying hour. Death may seem to us to have still a sting in it, but when we come to die God will give us dying grace. "Expiring saints have often said that their last beds have been the best they ever slept upon. Many have inquired, 'Can this be death?' To die has been so different from what they expected it to be, so lightsome, so joyous." "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me."

Bible Readings.—Ps. iii, 5-8; xxiii, 1-3; xxvii, 1; cxviii, 6; Isa. xxv, 8; Ezek. xxxvii, 12; Hos. xiii, 14; John v, 24; xi, 20-27; Acts vii, 54-60; Rom. viii, 24, 25; I Cor. xv, 54-58; I Tim. iv, 7, 8; Rev. ii, 10.

Need of the Bible.

What the Bible has been and is can be understood only when we consider man in the totality of his moral and spiritual needs. He has needed the Bible, he needs it yet and he forever will need it. The Bible means man's psychologic demand for certainty, that he is a moral imbecile unless he can be confident that something is right, that there is something which is worthy of the name of authority. If the higher criticism should put the Bible out of court, so that we not only cease to kiss it, but to regard it as a moral guide, we must find something which will take its place. If we admit that science is to become the source of moral authority in the future, it will be realized as such only if it becomes in some degree taboo and insists that some things are worthy of being done and others not worthy. It must say this or it cannot have any moral sanction or any spiritual power.—Christian Register.

Good Courage.

Every Christian worker needs to have the secret of good courage. Courage is no more necessary to the soldier that fights his country's battles than to the soldier of Christ who wages warfare against the evil of the world. The need of it is constant and urgent. To lose it is to lose power to overcome. Without it Joshua would have been but poorly equipped for the great task thrust upon him after the death of Moses. No doubt he was dismayed when he saw what was expected of him. He was to lead Israel into the promised land. They had been rescued from slavery in Egypt, brought to the borders of Canaan and were ready to enter upon the inheritance promised to Abraham and his seed.—Independent.

Equal the Pharisee.

Do you give tithes of all you possess? If not, does your righteousness in this matter even equal the righteousness of an average Pharisee whom you scorn?—Christian Standard.

Learn of Christ.

Go to dark Gethsemane,
Ye that feel the tempter's power;
Your Redeemer's conflict see,
Watch with Him one bitter hour.
Turn not from His griefs away.
Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.

Follow to the judgment hall,
View the Lord of life arraigned.
Oh, the wormwood and the gall!
Oh, the pangs His soul sustained!
Shun not suffering, shame or loss.
Learn of Him to bear the cross.

Calvary's mournful mountains climb.
There, adoring at His feet,
Mark the miracle of time,
God's own sacrifice complete.
"It is finished!" hear Him cry.
Learn of Jesus Christ to die.

SPAIN STANDS FIRM.

The Queen Regent Will Not Offer an Armistice, but Will Adhere to Previous Decisions.

Madrid, April 8.—The intimation given out yesterday to the effect that the an armistice in Cuba and that the indications were that the Spanish Government would make important concessions looking to the establishment of peace on a basis of practical Cuban independence, is erroneous.

A semi-official note issued after a Cabinet meeting of the Ministers says:

"The Cabinet considered every aspect of the situation, on the information of the Foreign and Colonial Ministers, and especially in the light of the reports of the Ministers of War and Marine.

"The outcome of the deliberations was the adhesion of the Government to all its previous decisions without modifications, and resolutions to that effect were adopted."

It is reported that the Queen Regent has again appealed to Queen Victoria direct, asking the latter to exert her influence to avert war, and, it is added, "touchingly recalled that both Victoria and herself are widows, and thus deprived of advisers."

WOODFORD ISSUES A CARD.

Tells the Dons He Feels Perfectly Safe In Their Midst.

Madrid, April 8.—United States Minister Woodford has issued the following statement to the Spanish press:

"The Madrid news papers of this morning are filled with statements concerning the American Minister which are so inaccurate that he asks the courtesy of the press to correct them. He does this in the interests of friendship and peace."

"The proprieties of his diplomatic position forbid his making any statement with regard to his diplomatic action with the Spanish Government. But last September the Spanish Foreign Office received written permission to publish the text of any official correspondence which he should have at any time with the Spanish Government, and this permission is effective to-day. The Spanish Government is at complete liberty to publish every word he has ever addressed to the Foreign Office, by letter, memorandum or statement.

"The American Minister has received nothing but courtesy from the people of Madrid. He has never had the slightest apprehension as to his own personal safety or that of his family. He is working for peace; and, despite all rumors to the contrary he still hopes peace will be kept between Spain and the United States, and that peace will soon be re-established in Cuba, based upon absolute justice, with protection for the great American interests in that island and the maintenance of the honor of Spain."

The Crisis in Madrid.

Madrid, Spain, April 8.—Spain's laconic Minister for War, General Correa, has at last broken his silence. In an interview, the General says:

"War is the better of two evils. It is better to fight foreigners than to fight Spaniards rising in indignation if their honor and rights are trampled under foot."

The guards around the United States Legation are trebled.

General Woodford was at his desk at an early hour, and many Americans called to ask about the arrangements made for their protection.

The General said he would remain here until directed to apply for his passports, or until they are handed to him. He added that when he leaves the British flag will be hoisted over the United States Legation.

The Philippine Islands Revolt.

Vancouver, B. C., April 8.—From the latest papers received from Hong Kong it is learned that there have been exciting times recently in the Philippines, Spanish troops being surprised and massacred.

The revolt in the island of Luzon is assuming as serious proportions as that of 1896-'97. Attacks were made upon the Spanish quarter at Subigandapalit, the rebels capturing and carrying off large quantities of ammunition. All the northern provinces are affected. The natives refuse to pay taxes. Many of the rich natives and half castes are closing their business place and preparing to leave the islands.

Cruiser from Rothschild?

Madrid, Spain, April 8.—The Paris correspondent of the Pais telegraphs that he had an interview with Baron Rothschild, who is alleged to have informed him that he was purchasing a cruiser to present to Spain, that country having "his warmest love and sympathy."

The Pais furnished its readers with further startling information last night. It was to the effect that a mob had broken loose in Washington, that the Spanish Legation had been attacked, that the Spanish Minister escaped by jumping through a window and that the arms of Spain were torn down.

Papal Mediation Impossible.

London, April 8.—The Rome correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says:

"Archbishop Ireland has cabled the Pope that mediation is almost impossible in consequence of the resistance of public opinion. His Holiness is much grieved by this check to his good intentions.

"The Cuban insurgents, it is said, have cabled the European committee that they will not agree to an armistice or disarmament unless Cuban independence is proclaimed."

Would Starve in About Two Weeks.

Havana, April 8, via Key West.—The leading Havana importers of food stuffs and local wholesalers in provisions were yesterday called to the palace by Blanco's Commissary-General, and questioned as to the amount of supplies on hand.

It was estimated that in the event of a blockade supplies cannot last over two weeks.

New York, April 8.—It is announced that the New York, Susquehanna and Western Railroad, which was recently absorbed by J. Pierpont Morgan on behalf of the Erie Railroad, would run its trains into the Erie Railroad depot, Jersey City, on and after June 1. The trains are now being run into the Pennsylvania Railroad depot.

AROUND THE BASES.

Manager Mumford, of the Crescent baseball team, has started the sale of season tickets. He is meeting with excellent success and hopes to sell two hundred tickets before the season begins.

The Young Orientals are now in the field looking for challenges from base ball teams composed of boys under fifteen years of age. The team is now organized and are practicing every day. J. Callahan is the captain and will receive all challenges.

In speaking of Arthur Lederer as the only Plainfield boy to remain on the Crescent team this season, The Press unintentionally overlooked John Cooney, the Crescent's crack third baseman. Cooney has been with the team since the start and has done such excellent work that Manager Mumford was very glad to keep him on the team this year. Cooney is remarkably popular with the audience.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

The athletic contest at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium came to an end last evening when the three concluding events were run off. They were the rope climb, the fence vault, and the running high jump. There were fifteen events in all, all of them handicap. The high men last night were as follows: Fence vault, Marcley, 6 feet 6½ inches. Rope climb, Hardingham, 5 1-5 seconds. Running high jump, F. O. Bristol, Long and Hardingham tied at 4 feet 10 inches. The final total in the entire contests came the first gold medal to F. Marclay with 1,147 points. Walter L. Long won the second silver medal with 1,134 points. The third bronze medal went to F. O. Bristol with 1,103 points.

GOLF.

The weather thus far has not been just the kind that golf enthusiasts like, and although the old grounds on Plainfield avenue have been open for two weeks not many of the players have frequented the place. Last Saturday only a few members were out to play and they did not stay very long. No doubt the members are waiting for the completion of the new grounds before they try their hand again.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Benjamin M. Day and family, of Rockview avenue, who have been spending the winter at Haddon Hall, Atlantic City, have leased a cottage at the corner of Grant avenue and Third street, Asbury Park, where they will take possession Saturday.

REPORT ON HANNA DELAYED.

The Ohio Senate Committee Disgruntled by the Action of One of Its Members.

Columbus, O., April 8.—It is not likely that the report of the Senate Bribery Investigation Committee which, it is said, accuses Mr. Hanna of the employment of questionable means in securing his election will report this week. The ranks of the committee have been torn somewhat by the premature announcement of the committee's report.

Senator Finck, a member of the committee declares that Senator Burke has exceeded his authority in making the general tenor of the report public, adding that if he ever signs the document it must be in modified form. The three Democratic members of the committee have decided to meet and modify the report if possible so that it will suit Senator Finck.

MARGARET MATHER DEAD.

Charleston, April 8.—Margaret Mather, the actress, died at the Hotel Ruffner, in this city, yesterday at 5 o'clock. She arrived in town with her company yesterday to fill an engagement at Burlew's Opera House, and appeared in the best of health. Miss Mather died from convulsions, caused by acute Bright's disease.

Life Sentence for Double Murder.

New Haven, April 8.—Edward A. Duff, who shot and killed his wife and mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary McCarthy, here two months ago, yesterday pleaded guilty to the charge of murder in the second degree. He was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Duff is about forty-five. His plea was insanity, but by agreement with State Attorney Williams he withdrew it and pleaded guilty. The State in turn mitigated the charge from murder in the first to the second degree.

Endowed School Independent of Town.

New Haven, April 8.—In the suit against the trustees of the Morgan School at Clinton, Conn., Judge G. W. Wheeler in the Superior Court here ruled that the citizens of the town could not be parties to the suit. This is an important ruling in favor of the trustees, who have held that the town had no control of the school, and have been supported in that view by the heirs of Charles Morgan of New York City, who endowed the institution.

WRECKED THE MAINE

The Maine Maker Tells What He Knows.

EXPLOSION WAS PLANNED.

J. P. Gibbins, of London, Who Furnished the Mines to the Spaniards, Gives Proof of Their Treachery and Says Two Men Were Concerned.

New York, April 8.—The World this morning publishes a letter from J. P. Gibbins, of London, a part of which is as follows:

The only submarine mines which have been supplied to the Spanish Government since 1886-87 were manufactured under my own patents.

I then supplied them with fifty-six ground mines, twenty-five buoyant mines, each with a charge of 500 pounds of guncotton, and fifteen electro-contact mines, exploded either on contact or by observation from shore, each containing a charge of 100 pounds of guncotton.

The mines sent to Havana would still retain full effectiveness. They will last under water for an indefinite period.

In 1896-97 the Spanish Government ordered a fresh supply of my patent mines. Whether they went to Havana or no is immaterial.

One of the mines supplied in 1886 is still fully capable of causing the destruction of the Maine.

In fact, I am convinced, from all the surrounding circumstances, that no other agency could have caused it.

In direct contradiction of the assertions of the secretary of the Spanish Legation at Washington and of General Weyler that there are no submarine mines in Havana Harbor, I absolutely affirm that I shipped the above mines for Havana and Ferrol on a Spanish ship, the property of the Spanish Government, and officered by Spanish naval officers, with two captains, at the West India dock, London.

My mines are in electrical connection with the shore, and it is quite impossible that they could be exploded except by design.

I am convinced also that the explosion of the mine which destroyed the Maine was the work of one of two men, for these reasons:

First—A vessel swinging either anchored or moored, upon striking the circuit closer case would merely drop a shutter on the keyboard on shore, warning the officer in charge that she was in contact with the mine.

Second—Before the officer is in a position to fire the mine he must obtain one of two keys. One generally is kept by the commandant, the other by the officer in charge of the firing station. He then must unlock the glass door over which the shutter has fallen and insert a red danger plug in the insulated switch.

Third—He must insert a plug in the switch of the firing battery earth plate.

Fourth—The firing key is arranged with a locking armature of ebonite, which must be unlocked before the danger point is arrived at.

Fifth—The firing key hammer must be pressed on to the contact anvil to complete the circuit that explodes the detonator, by which the mine in turn is exploded.

I have not the slightest hesitation in saying that the Maine was deliberately destroyed with a 500-pound ground mine as invented and supplied by me.

The only practical way of discovering the mine that sunk the Maine is by undermining the cable from the shore to the junction box and from thence underrunning each individual cable to the mine, until one was found without a mine attached.

I am satisfied that the explosion was caused by a ground mine—not by a buoyant mine—for Havana harbor is too shallow to admit of the use of the latter.

I am prepared to satisfy by demonstration any jury of reasonable men that this is the true explanation of the destruction of the Maine.

After the Gerry Society.

Albany, April 8.—Attorney General Hancock will make an application in the coming week to the Supreme Court for a writ of mandamus to compel the Children's Society of New York City to submit to inspection by the State Board of Charities.

This society, when a demand was made for an annual report as to its operations and an effort put forth to submit it to inspection by the State Board of Charities, refused to comply with the demands on the grounds that it was not within the jurisdiction of the State Board.

Died at Fiance's Feet.

Newark, N. J., April 8.—Charles Bauer, of 178 Livingston street, killed himself almost at the feet of his sweetheart, Mary Holzhauer, because she told him if he didn't stop drinking she would never marry him. He thought he loved the liquor better than her and life, so he pulled a revolver from a pocket, shot himself in the head and died where he fell.

BASKET BALL GROWS TO BE VERY POPULAR,

Both Sexes Now Enjoy the Aggressive Exercise it Affords.

Y. M. C. A. TEAM'S RECORD.

SUFFERED ONLY EIGHT DEFEATS DURING THE WHOLE SEASON.

Twenty-Two Games Were Played Against the Best Teams in the Suburban District—The Third Season Ends With a Good Cash Balance—Same Players Retained Throughout the Winter, All of Whom Did Splendid Work in Everything Except Goal Throwing—Expected Improvement Next Year.

By far the most successful season for basket ball in Plainfield has just come to a close. The game has risen from the favorite of a chosen few to be extremely popular with all. The crowds that have frequented the visitors gallery at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium whenever a game was played have told better than words of the rise the game has had in popular favor. During the past winter it has been the favorite public indoor sport and carried away the honors from bowling that has heretofore attracted the most general interest.

Aside from the fact that so many of both sexes have learned the game and played it during the winter, the success of the sport in Plainfield during the past season has been largely due to the great showing that the basket ball team of the Plainfield Y. M. C. A. has made. This is the third season since the Association has attempted to support any regular team. The first year's team was new at the game. Last season a poor opening rather marred the entire season.

This year the Plainfield team has pushed itself to the front and remained there to the end with a record that the team can well be proud of. The season has not been without its defeats. That would hardly be expected, as the team met some of the strongest teams in the metropolitan district. Twenty two games were played in all, of which fourteen were victories. Only two of the eight defeats were in the Plainfield gymnasium. Those two defeats were administered by worthy adversaries, the second team from the Twenty-third street branch of the New York Y. M. C. A. and the "Rubber Five" of the Greenpoint Y. M. C. A. Among the teams that the Plainfielders out played were those from the St. Thomas Athletic Club, the Elizabeth Athletic Club, the Bedford branch of the Brooklyn Y. M. C. A., the Newark Y. M. C. A., the Institutes of Newark, the German branch of the New York Y. M. C. A., and Newark Academy.

In no case was the Plainfield team very badly defeated. The worst drubbing it received was at the Twenty-third Street Branch, New York, where the Plainfielders were defeated by a score of 35 to 11. Plainfield's greatest score was rolled up against the Newark Y. M. C. A. in this city. It was 27 to 9. Several games were played in which the victory was won by one point.

The team was under the management of C. E. A. Heywood, the physical director. Walter L. Long captained the team. While there were many minor changes in the lineup on different occasions, the same players represented the association throughout the year. Eric Moraller and Walter L. Long have made themselves very valuable as forwards. Berry Egan proved to be an ideal centre. Max Moraller and George Proctor Smith completed the team as guards. They played hard and well.

While the individual playing was almost invariably good and deserving of commendation, it was by their excellent team play that the Plainfield boys won their victories. They had the passing down to a fine point and were noted for their excellence in that line. In goal throwing, there was something lacking. Many of the final results might have been the other way had the Plainfield boys shown more accuracy in throwing for goals. With the expected improvement in that line that another year may bring the Plainfield team will be close to the top of the heap.

Altogether, the management of the team has much to be thankful for. While the team itself has won distinction and honor, the financial side has been a signal success. Under the charge of George E. Fuller, the team has paid all of its own expenses and laid up a fund of nearly $50.

UNITY AND REVERENCE NEAR TO THE CROSS

Good Friday Services Evidence Church Harmony.

NO DENOMINATIONAL LINES.

MOST SOLEMN AND IMPRESSIVE SERVICE OF CHURCH YEAR.

Grace P. E. Church Filled With Earnest Christians to Hear Ministerial Words From the Cross—Clergymen in Black Coats and the Dark Decorations of the Pulpit Made a Profound Scene—Dean Rodman Welcomed the Congregation—Eloquent Words on the Subject—Service Closed With Silent Prayer.

The most solemn and impressive service of the church year was held last night in the Grace P. E. church. The union Good Friday service loses nothing of its beauty, its attractiveness, or its significance as an evidence of the spirit of Christian unity which prevails in Plainfield, by its repetition year after year. The very large attendance, which crowded the church to the doors, showed the desire of the people of the city to draw near to the cross of Christ, and worship there. The crowd was a very reverent one, and when the vested choir, bearing the black-draped cross, entered the church, followed by the train of black-coated clergymen, not a sound could be heard except the opening strains of the processional hymn, "There is a Green Hill Far Away." Into the chancel, where, also, all the decorations were black, filed the train, and joined with the great congregation in the hymn, "Oh, Come and Mourn With Me, Awhile." Prayers were offered by Rev. Dr. Erskine M. Rodman, and the lesson read by Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards, after which all united in the responsive reading.

After the singing of "Sweet the Moments, Rich in Blessing," Dr. Rodman welcomed the congregation, entreating them, at the same time, to shut the world entirely out of their thoughts and hearts, and stand, in imagination, before the cross on Calvary, and in spirit and in truth worship the One who hung there.

The first word from the cross, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do," was spoken by Rev. D. J. Yerkes. He spoke eloquently of that great love which could pray for its enemies, the soldiers who crucified Him, Pilate, who delivered Him to them, and the chief priests who sought His death. That great love, said he, Christ carried with Him to heaven, and has for the world today.

"Verily I say unto thee, today shalt thou be with Me in Paradise," was the text of Rev. W. C. Snodgrass' remarks. He emphasized especially the readiness of Christ to answer the prayer of the penitent thief, and therefore, of any penitent, His quickness to give him the blessed assurance of forgiveness, and the wonderful power which can make a sinner fit for association with the saints above.

After the singing of "Lord, When We Bend Before Thy Throne," Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards rose to speak upon the words "Behold thy Son, behold thy mother." Very tenderly he told of Christ's affection for John, and His leaving to him the most precious legacy he had to give, His mother. Peter he went on to say, was afterwards asked three times if he loved Jesus, and when he answered in the affirmative, was told to feed Christ's sheep. We, also, he finished by saying, if we say we love Him, are given someone to care for, someone to feed, and if our love is true, we shall accept it as gladly as John did.

That most mysterious, almost incomprehensible, word from the cross, "My God, my God, why has thou forsaken me?" was gravely and reverently spoken of by Rev. Floyd Appleton. Sin, said he, caused alienation from God, and Jesus came to undo the work of sin, and conquer sin and its penalty, death. He suffered every possible human woe, and touched the bottom of human dispair. In his own soul he learned the uttermost of separation from God. Impossible for us to understand, it is yet true that Jesus felt himself rejected by the God he had perfectly served. That was the culmination of his sacrifice, by which he ransomed fallen humanity and satisfied eternal justice.

"I thirst," the brief word which was Christ's only expression of physical suffering, was the text assigned to Rev. Charles Lyman Goodrich. He spoke of the intolerable thirst which accompanies crucifixion, and the blessedness of the knowledge that when men suffer on earth they may

OF GREAT USE TO KEAN.

HE MAY INCREASE HIS EFFORTS FOR A COUNTY TROLLEY FRANCHISE.

There May be Competition for the Franchise, but Kean Wants to Make His Present Street Railway a Valuable One

Elizabeth, April 9.—The Union County Board of Freeholders will hold a special meeting next Thursday to take up the subject of a trolley franchise for Westfield avenue. It is expected by that time the county engineer will have ready the necessary map of the territory to be traversed, so that the Board of Freeholders can take steps to advertise for bids for the franchise.

It is rumored that if a higher bid be made than John Kean offered, he is prepared to bid as much as anybody for the privilege. The franchise, it is said, is really of more value to Mr Kean than it would be to any other person, as it will enable him to connect the Elizabeth and Plainfield trolley line with his Elizabeth street railway line, which is now opererated by horse power. It will be transformed into a paying trolley road by Mr. Kean, it is said, if he obtains the other franchise. It would then be a formidable rival to the Consolidated Traction Compauy for the traffic between Elizabeth and Elizabethport. The run between the two places is now made by the traction company's cars in fourteen minutes, while it can be made on the other line in eleven minutes.

Mr. White's New Stores.

The two stores which were purchased by Edward White last winter, to be added to his present establishment on West Front street, are now almost ready for occupancy. The interiors have been almost rebuilt and the front has been made to resemble the front of the rest of White's stores. He will take possession of the new stores and place his stock there next week.

A Complete Surprise.

A few at the friends of David Clark, of 719 South avenue, tendered him a very pleasant surprise at his home Tuesday evening. The affair was arranged by Mr. Clark's sister and a few of her friends. The music was furnished by Messrs. Frazee and Sorenson.

ON THE WAY TO KLONDIKE

A PLAINFIELDER WRITES OF HARDSHIPS HE HAS ENCOUNTERED.

Peter Anderson, Who Forsook Painting to Hunt for Gold, Says the Change Has Given Him a Hard Time.

An interesting letter was received a few days ago from Peter Anderson, formerly in the employ of Woolston & Buckle, of North avenue, who is now in the Klondike region. Mr. Anderson left Plainfield Feb. 10th, and it was March 23d when the letter was written from the summit of White Pass.

He tells in an interesting way of his trip and advises all persons who think of going to buy their clothes and provisions at Seattle, as they can be secured for a cheaper price. The weather on the trip was very good. He says that he landed in Skagway Feb. 27th, and from that day until the time of writing he passed through many hardships, The first fourteen days on the trail the weather was warm and the sun was out much of the time. There was much rain and the trail was in a bad condition. A number of times the party were impeded and the animals broke through the ice. Finally the summit was reached and a very deep snow was found.

Mr. Anderson says that he was charged duty on his provisions and hardware about 40 per cent. of its value. On tobacco costing $1.50 a duty of $1.95 was charged. On a quantity of other material costing $11.14 a duty of $6.75 was imposed. Mr. Anderson also says that unless a man has plenty of money he had better stay away from the Klondike. He has paid as high as 25 cents for a 5 cent loaf of bread. He says he hopes to be back in Plainfield in a year and a half and sends best wishes to his friends.

Underground Conduits.

The work of laying the underground conduits for the telephone wires will soon start. A carload of material for the sub ways arrived here Thursday night, and more will follow. The telephone company will start as soon as the arrival of the warm weather is assured, and will place a large force of men at work so to complete the laying of the conduits as soon as possible.

BURIAL CASKET WAS UNEARTHED BY DOGS.

Shocking State of Affairs Said to Be in a Local Cemetery.

SANITARY LAWS BROKEN.

COMPLAINT MADE AGAINTST SEXTON KENNEDY BY HEALTH OFFICIALS.

Neighbors Claim That the Coffins Are Placed Just Below the Surface of the Ground—The Health Inspector Investigated the Case—Claims to Have Found a Number of Cases in Which the Caskets Were Not Placed at the Prescribed Depth Under Ground—Kennedy Arrested and Held for Trial.

A horrible discovery has been made by the health authorities. Some of the coffins in the Methodist cemetery on Plainfield avenue were placed in shallow graves with only a thin covering of earth over them instead of being placed the prescribed distance from the surface. The people living in that vicinity are up in arms. They tell of how dogs have entered the cemetery and scratched away the dirt, leaving a corner of the casket exposed. Now the city has taken the matter in hand and will prosecute those who are to blame.

There is a State law that directs that the bodies of all grown persons shall be placed under six feet of earth. Children shall be interred in three feet six inches of earth at least. The local Board of Health ordinance complies with the State law.

Next to Evergreen cemetery is the Methodist cemetery, with the city plot close by. Potter's field, that section is sometimes called. Here, too, the county provides for the burial of such as come under its jurisdiction. Here the nameless colored child, found dead in Cedar brook, was placed by the county. The residents of that neighborhood have been complaining They directed their efforts to the Health Board. Inspector Addis was directed to make an examination last Wednesday. He did so accompanied by a witness.

Together they examined the graves Addis says that the coffin of the county's charge was only twenty-five inches below the surface. They dug down and found another child's coffin only eleven inches down. Caskets of grown people were found, they claim, only two or three feet below the surface.

Peter Cuff, the old colored man who generally figures as grave digger, said that he had not dug a grave there for some time. Isaac W. Kennedy, the sexton of the First M. E. church, was the man, he said. The neighbors confirmed this statement. They told how they had driven dogs out of the cemetery and filled up the holes they had scratched in the soft earth which exposed the wooden casket. It was horrible, they said.

One man claimed that he had tried to persuade Kennedy to dig the graves deeper and that he had been told that it was none of his business.

Yesterday afternoon Inspector Addis appeared before City Judge De Meza and swore out a warrant for Kennedy. Patrolman McCue served the warrant and Kennedy was arraigned before the Judge late in the afternoon. His trial was set down for this morning. This morning, at the request of Former Assemblyman W. R. Codington, counsel for Kennedy, the case was adjourned for a week.

EASTER FESTIVITIES.

Two Large Church Weddings and College Dramatics in View.

Two large church weddings will be prominent features in the galeties of Easter week. The marriage of Miss Alice Coard to Harry Johnson will take place Tuesday evening in the Park Avenue Baptist church, with all the attendant Easter decorations, and the marriage of Miss Bertha Clark to Samuel Porter Williams, of Hartford, Conn., will occur Wednesday evening in the Crescent Presbyterian church, which will be abloom with Easter flowers. Home receptions will follow these weddings.

Monday evening the Senior Dramatic Club, of Amherst College, will give the farce, "All the Comforts of Home," at the Casino.

Tuesday Miss Howell, of Rockview avenue, will give a tea. a dinner will be given in honor of Miss Bertha Clark and there will be a dance in the Park Clubhouse. On the other days there will be teas and luncheons in honor of visiting friends, and Saturday evening the pupils of Dr. Warde's Military Academy will render the "Merchant of Venice" in Music Hall.

—Rev. D J. Yerkes will speak at the Wilson Memorial chapel Sunday evening.

DRAKE AND STRONG HAD A WORDY TUSSEL.

Fighting To Bring Trolley Over Two Different Routes.

SARCASM FREELY DEALT IN.

A BIG HEARING BEFORE PISCATAWAY TOWNSHIP OFFICIALS.

Mayor Drake Wants the Trolley to Go Through Lincoln and He Made a Great Oratorial Effort to Convince the Committee That That is the Only Good Route to be Had—Aspersions Cast on the Standing of the Signers of the Two Petitions Were Presented—Committee Did Not Decide.

New Market, April 9.—The Piscataway Township Committee met yesterday afternoon at Nelson's Hotel for the purpose of giving the interested people an opportunity of discussing the relative merits of two routes for the trolley from New Market through to Bound Brook. The first route is what is known as the old stage route and by measurement is about eighteen hundred feet shorter than route number two, which is by the way of Harris lane through Lincoln to Bound Brook.

There were about one hundred people present. Mayor Drake, from Lincoln, presenting five petitions from property owners along route number two, was present and had for his opponent, Counsel Strong, of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, who resides at New Brunswick. Mr. Strong presented a petition signed by twenty-five persons who favored the old stage route.

The debate between Mayor Drake and Lawyer Strong was a lively one. The Mayor showed that while the first route was considerably shorter, the road was not as wide as the road for route number two. The representative for route number one was inclined to speak disparingly of the signers for route number two, saying that they were all young people, and some of them working in Lincoln for $4 or $5 a week.

On the other hand Mayor Drake made sarcastic replies regarding the calibre of the signers for route No. 1, by saying that some of them lived out of the county, and that before he finished he would clip their wings in true Lincoln style. The five petitions bore the names of 120 persons, the majority of whom are property owners along route No. 2.

After a long and heated discusion the committee decided to adjourn for one week when one of the two routes will be chosen.

Funeral of A. L. Way.

The funeral of the late Albert L. Way was held yesterday afternoon from Holy Cross church. Rev. T. L. Murphy, the rector, officiated. The choir was present and rendered "Peace, Perfect Peace," "Now the Laborer's Task is O'er," and "Hark, Hark my Soul." The floral tributes completely covered the casket and were, indeed, very beautiful. The church was largely filled with friends and acquaintances of the departed. Those who served as bearers were Col. Sterling, Horsely Barker, Wm. A. Westphal, Andrew Guyer, Prof. Smith and Mr. Kenney. Interment was in the family plot at Philadelphia.

The Visit of a Traveler.

Rev. Stephen L. Baldwin, D. D., who was for twenty years a resident of China, but has recently lived in this country, has just returned from an eight months trip to China, Japan and Corea, where he had special opportunities of studying those people, and studying eastern questions. He will give his experience in the First M. E. church tomorrow at the Sunday-school Easter service 3 p. m. and will also speak at 7.30 p. m. He is a lucid and interesting speaker.

A Patriotic Demonstration.

What promises to be a patriotic demonstration by the people of Plainfield will be held in Music Hall Thursday evening under the auspices of the Plainfield Camera Club. The entertainment will consist of a series of views of Cuba and her war and of the naval forces of the United States and Spain.

To Help the Cubans.

The class in the Sunday school at the First Presbyterian church taught by Miss Louise Snediker will give a sale and entertainment at the home of Miss Snediker, on Greve street, Thursday afternoon and evening. It will be for the benefit of the reconcentrados in Cuba.

—Herbert Martin, the leader of "The Hundred Devils," who tried to burn Sagasta in effigy, says that he did not run when the police put in an appearance.

PREPARING FOR VOLUNTEERS.

The War Department Deciding on Each State's Quota—Many Naval Orders.

Washington, April 9.—The War Department is now at work apportioning to each State its quoto of volunteers to respond at once to the Presidents' call if it has to be issued. This is made necessary by the defeat of the Hull bill for placing the regular army upon a war footing. In case the worst should come, the President's call will be issued on the same day that war is declared. The call upon each Governor will be for a definite supply—that is, so many regiments of infantry, so many batteries of artillery, etc.

Miss Barton Will Probably Leave Cuba.

New York, April 9.—In reply to the cablegram received from Miss Clara Barton from Havana by Stephen Barton, of the Central Cuban Relief Committee, the following message was sent: "Follow General Lee's advice. He is in best position to know. Ordinarily Red Cross should be safe refuge. Take no chances."

In speaking of the probable course that will be pursued by Miss Barton and her corps of assistants, Mr. Barton said:

"I cannot feel that the Red Cross workers are in any immediate or future danger of molestation or violence. I do not even know that they would quit the island should an outbreak occur. In any event, the work of relief will practically continue, uninterrupted, for, if the ports should be blocked, it will not hamper our work materially, as an entrance to the island would in some way be effected, even if the harbors should be closed for any length of time."

Contributions to the relief fund are coming in daily from all parts of the country.

"Of course," said Mr. Barton, "we will not send our relief ship to Cuba while the present state of uncertainty exists, nor are we yet prepared to do so. But we are going right ahead receiving and storing the supplies, and when the ship does weigh anchor she will carry a heavy cargo of America's substantial message of sympathy to the starving Cubans."

Dr. Swallow Will Run for Office.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 9.—Rev. Dr. S. O. Swallow, of Harrisburg, has accepted the independent nomination for Governor upon the platform "Thou shalt not steal.' The nomination was tendered to him at Harrisburg on March 30th, by a delegation of citizens from Philadelphia. Charles Richardson, who has been active as chairman of the delegation that invited Dr. Swallow to be a candidate, stated that $100,000 would be necessary for campaign expenses, and he offered to be one of the twenty men to subscribe that sum.

Dr. Swallow was the Prohibition candidate for State Treasurer in November last, polling 119,000 votes in a total of 734,148. It is probable that the Prohibition State Convention, which meets at Harrisburg May 19th, will name Dr. Swallow for Governor.

McKane's Day of Freedom Near.

Sing Sing, N. Y., April 9.—John Y. McKane's term of imprisonment expires on April 30th. His friends seem to have abandoned all hope of securing his pardon before the expiration of his term, which would alone give him back his citizenship.

McKane for the past two weeks, has been overseering the work of refitting Warren Sage's office in hardwood. He has said that if he was not old and broken down in health he would like to head a company and go out and fight for his country. McKane is averse to his friends making any demonstration when he is released. He expects to go to his old home in Gravesend.

Damrosch to Drop the Baton.

New York, April 9.—Lovers of music are discussing the withdrawal of Mr. Walter Damrosch from all his present professional associations, including the Damrosch-Ellis Opera Company, and the leadership of the Oratorio and Symphony societies, to which he succeeded upon the death of his father, eleven years ago. It is now announced that he will take this step before the opening of the next operatic season. The fact is that Mr. Damrosch is desirous, as are all broadly educated musicians, of accomplishing success in the field of musical composition, and to this work in future he will devote practically all his time.

Court Frees Mrs. Witthaus.

New York, April 9.—The prolonged fight for a divorce which has been conducted by Mrs. Dr. Bly Witthaus, wife of Dr. Rudolph Witthaus, professor of toxicology and chemistry in the University of Vermont and the University of New York, has come to an end. Judge Gaynor has granted her a decree on the report of the referee, William P. Fiero. Justice Gaynor granted alimony in the amount of $2,640, which is to be secured by two life insurance policieis, and $1,000 in cash. There is also a counsel fee of $250.

Train Held for Troops.

Jersey City, April 9.—Orders were issued at the Pennsylvania Railroad Station that two special trains must be held ready Monday afternoon to transport New Jersey troops, to the seacoast. The trains will be at the disposal of Colonel Smith and his men, who expect to move Tuesday.

The Jersey City Board of Trade has arranged to organize a regiment of volunteers on the outbreak of hostilities. The regiment is to be fitted out at the Board's expense.

$100,000 Gift to Princeton.

Trenton, N. J., April 9.—Princeton University has accepted the gift of $100,000 made two weeks ago by Henry Stafford, formerly Clerk in Chancery. This gift will complete the quadrangle upon the campus. Three buildings have been erected around the quad, one of which is Blair Hall. The Little Dormitory—for it will bear Mr. Little's name—will be similar in design and built of the same stone as Blair Hall.

Middletown, N. Y., April 9.—John Burkhart, of Port Jervis, keeper of the Laurel Grove Cemetery, built a gallows in his house and then called in police officers to see how he intended to end his life in a fortnight. His wife caused his arrest, and he will be taken to the State Hospital here.

WEDNESDAY'S DELAY.

Why Message was Put Over From Wednesday to Monday.

LEE NOTIFIED TOO LATE.

Lee Would Not Assume Responsibility for the Lives of Americans in Cuba in Case the Message Was Sent in Last Wednesday.

Washington, April 9.—Ever since the President postponed the transmission of his message till Monday, after the emphatic declaration that it was to go in on Wednesday, the great topic of inquiry has been, What did Consul-General Lee telegraph?

Last Thursday morning members of the Foreign Committee of both houses called on the President and urged that he cable Consul-General Lee and the other Consuls in Cuba to prepare themselves and all the Americans for immediate departure from Cuba.

The President agreed to act on this suggested and the order was prepared. The assumption was that the order was sent. Every one who knew of the matter understood that it had been. It seems, however, that President McKinley failed to sign this order till Tuesday, the day before his message was to go to Congress.

This would have given the Consul-General only twenty-four hours in which to prepare for his and other American' departure. He said he would require until April 10, as many Americans did not live in Havana and would have to be communicated with.

Lee was then told that the President could not delay and the message would go in the next day. He was then asked by wire whether or no he would take the responsibility for the safety of all the Americans if the message went in. He promptly answered that he would not assume any such responsibility.

This was the cablegram shown to the members of the House and Senate who were called to the White House Wednesday afternoon. They were also verbally informed that the message contained a scathing arraignment of the Spanish in conection with the Maine disaster, and that as a reason for this arraignment the reports of certain Americans in Cuba would be quoted. The President expressed fear that this part of the message would infuriate the Spanish in Havana and might cause them to assassinate the persons quoted in the message.

"Gentlemen," said President McKinley, "I am ready to send in the message, but I would rather lose my right arm than cause the death of one American by the publishing of my message to Congress."

The Congressional Committee declared under the circumstances it would perhaps be judicious to withhold the message from the public until after the persons quoted in the message have left Havana.

PLANS TO ATTACK HAVANA.

With 50,000 Men in Cuba and a Flotilla at Sea.

Washington, April 9.—Both the navy and the army are preparing for conflict. The main plan of operations for both has been decided upon and, of course, has for its central feature an assault upon Havana by land and water. An army officer of high rank, who is engaged in these strategic plans, said to-day that an army of 50,000 men, or as many of that number as necessary, could be marched into Havana, he believed, in five days' time after landing on Cuban soil. Said he:

"We could leave Key West say at 6 o'clock in the evening and next day at noon take up the line of march to Havana. Once begun there would be no break in the line until we entered the city, for our fellows would cut a hole through the Spaniards in no time. I am confident that with the fleet bombarding he city from the sea, and the army moving on it from the land side there would be no great difficulty in being in possession of the city in five days' time. We are going to move quickly and decisively so as to save our men from yellow fever. It takes about thirty days to become inoculated with the fever. Our information is that the Spanish soldiers are worn out, in poor health, badly equipped, and not paid.

"You cannot make good fighters of men under such conditions. The best fighters we will have to meet are those Spaniards now in Cuba who will join the army to prevent invasion. These men are enthusiastic, in good health and able to stand the strain. Their lack of training will be their only weakness."

The De Lome Letter.

Washington, April 9.—Deputy Treasurer Guerra of the Cuban Republic testified before the committee of the House with reference to the De Lome letter yesterday. The deputy treasurer was asked if he knew the story of the publication of the De Lome letter, and, without names, he told the first authentic story of how it was abstracted by a clerk in the Post-office at Havana who was in sympathy with the Cuban cause and sent back to New York. There its importance was at once realized and it was given out for publication, the action being justified because it showed conclusively what the Cubans had always contended, that Spain was double-dealing.

Senor Guerra also appeared before the Committee on Foreign Relations and told the same story as he did to the House Committee.

George Gould Will Give His All.

Kansas City, Mo., April 9.—"My yacht Atlanta and everything I have will be at the disposal of the Government in case of war," said George Gould at the Union depot. He was en route from Omaha and stopped off here between trains. "And what can the Government expect from the moneyed men of New York in the event of war?" he was asked.

"Whatever help and as much of it as it needs," replied Mr. Gould.

Great Britain has ordered 2,000 troops to join the force regularly stationed at Kingston, Jamaica.

The Secretary of War says State troops will be first called upon in case of war.

POWERS DIDN'T MEAN ANYTHING.

Having Delivered the Note Their Efforts Are at an End.

Washington, D. C., April 9.—Inquiry at the foreign embassies and legations made it plain that the action of the great powers in presenting a joint note to President McKinley urging peace constituted all that these powers will do. There is no present purpose to take further action, or to follow up this guarded and diplomatic utterance with any suggestion of mediation or intervention. It was stated by influential members of the diplomatic corps that the joint note contained nothing between the lines which indicated a further purpose. This was the view taken by the administration, and is fully borne out by the attitude of the foreign representatives, who are in close touch with their foreign offices. It is important at the present juncture in that it practically eliminates the influence of the powers at Washington beyond a sentimental expression toward peace. There is no doubt, however, that these foreign influences will be strongly urged at Madrid towards securing further concessions, though the foreign representatives here begin to doubt seriously whether Spain is in a position to concede any more. One of the best informed diplomats tersely summed up the situation today thus:

"Spain has placed her back against the wall, determined to yield no more. Even the heroic efforts of the Queen Regent toward peace, by granting extreme concession, seem to be overruled and the radical element is in control."

THE CONTROL OF CUBA.

What Shall Be Done With the Island When It Is Freed.

Washington, April 9.—There is an open expression of opinion that should the United States occupy Havana it will not turn the island over to a lot of irresponsible people at once. A prominent Senator, who has been for peace, said that it now means war, but he said:

"We do not intend to have this war simply to make a present to an alleged republic, and I for one am determined that Congress shall have some say as to whether Cuba shall become a sovereign State or a part of the United States.

"For this reason, there will be no declaration of the independence of the Cuban republic, and the fate of Cuba will not be decided before the war is declared."

In other words, Congress, since the Cuban Junta has shown its hand, is showing a decided inclination toward annexation and declaring that if we must go to war over the island, the United States might as well benefit by it. When the President's message goes to Congress, it will be referred to the committees, and when these report, there will be a discussion over the resolution.

The friends of the recognition of the independence of the republic are still confident of being able to adopt the Foraker resolution, but a compromise is suggested that instead of the clause for recognition of independence, a clause for recognition of belligerency be inserted.

JUNTA LOOKS FOR DELAY.

Counsel Rubens Declares There Is a Plan on Foot to Keep Congress Waiting.

New York, April 9.—There is an absence to-day of that joyous feeling, brought on by the prospect that Cuba would be free in a few days, recently characteristic of the Cuban sympathizers who gather daily at the Junta on Stone street.

An intimation was received from one of the Junta officials at Washington that the Administration will receive a communication from the Spanish Government on Sunday or Monday which will make it necessary for the President to delay his message.

The intimation was to the effect that the Spanish Cabinet will inform President McKinley that they will yield a few minor points of little significance in themselves, but of sufficient force to cause the delay which the Spanish Government is fighting for.

Consul Rubens, of the Junta, said that it was more than probable that the Spanish Government will agree to some sort of an armistice in Cuba.

"This information will be conveyed to the Washington Administration about Sunday or Monday," said Mr. Rubens, "and that will make it necessary for the President to withhold his message until the Cortes in Spain can set upon the plan of the armistice.

"The Cortes will not meet until the latter part of the month, and if they are as slow of action as they always are it may require several months' time for them to agree on a plan of action."

Purchasing Provisions.

Chicago, April 9.—The Government is buying supplies for the navy on a large scale. Within two days it has bought 1,000,000 pounds of canned meats from Armour & Co., and had them shipped immediately to the navy yards at Brooklyn and Portsmouth. It has also closed one of the largest contracts ever made in lard oil, 2,000 barrels being bought from Swift & Co. for the Navy Department.

An Insurgent Defeat Reported.

Havana, April 9.—The Spanish forces in the Cartagena Mountains, province of Santa Clara, have according to an announcement at the palace, defeated a force of insurgents, inflicting numerous loss upon the latter. The Spaniards lost five men killed, and had one officers and four soldiers wounded.

Killed by Blows in the Ring.

Columbus, O., April 9.—George Stout, of Cincinnati, who was knocked out by Oscar Gardner, the Omaha Kid, after twelve rounds of hard fighting, died yesterday at Mount Carmel Hospital. A blood clot on the brain was the immediate cause of death. Gardner, together with his manager, Sullivan, and Stout's manager, Mike Connelly, and the referee and seconds in the fight, have been arrested.

Cuban Steamer Service Stops.

New York, April 9.—The Ward line steamers plying between this port and Havana have been stopped, as have also the Southern Pacific Company's boats from New Orleans.

DUN'S WEEKLY REVIEW.

The Best Report So Far as Failures Are Concerned in Five Years.

New York, April 9.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade issued today says: When everybody is asking whether it is to be war or peace, the state of business is not easy to judge. Prophecy is not the function of a business journal, and there are times when even the most careful study of facts gives no clear indication of the future. It is not possible to judge how far buying for distribution or buying for consumers may be affected for a time by chances of war. Every consumer may imagine that he is going to wear fewer clothes and use fewer tools and eat less food than in a state of peace. But it is likely that he may not. Since nobody can judge just how wise bankers may be in an emergency, there is some uncertainty, but thus far scarcely any stoppage whatever of manufacturing concerns appears, nor any indications that the producing force is likely to be diminished, nor is any such symptom to be seen in business reports.

Evidence of existing conditions is not confusing nor unfavorable. So far banking conservatism has not caused failures, which continue smaller than for many years as in March, nor has it caused stoppage of any manufacturing concerns, nor lessened the volume of business reported by railroads in tonnage, or clearings at principal points.

Disasters in trade shown this week by separate branches of business for the month of March, and also the first quarter of 1898, make the best report that has been possible for five years. It is interesting to note that nearly all branches of business show surprising improvement. Meanwhile banks are extremely cautious, and commercial loans are but 10 per cent. of their aggregate. The belief that quick expansion in all branches would follow greater liberty and patriotism by the banks is not wholly unfounded, and the heavy receipts of gold from Europe counts for little, compared with the greater or less liberality in loans by banks. Disturbance does not yet appear, however, and failures for the week have been 232 in the United States against 252 last year, and 32 in Canada against 36 last year.

FOR WAR REVENUE.

Beer, Tobacco, Bank Checks, Deeds and Patent Medicines Affected.

Washington, D. C., April 9.—The members of the Ways and Means Committee of the House are busily engaged with the Treasury officials in the work preliminary to the drafting of a war revenue measure to be introduced in Congress immediately upon the opening of hostilities with Spain. An increase in the internal revenue tax on beer from $1 to $2 a barrel, and a large increase in the tax on manufactured tobacco, including cigars and cigaretts, has been practically agreed upon.

Internal Revenue Commissioner Scott has notified Internal revenue collectors to advise all brewers when purchasing beer stamps that the stamps now in use will not be available for the passage of an act increasing the rate of taxation.

An increase of from two cents to three cents on letter postage and a tax on gas and electric light has also been suggested to the department, but these items have not yet been considered. The increase of one cent an ounce on letter postage probably would augment the receipts by $30,000,000 a year.

A bill providing for a temporary loan of $100,000,000 and a permanent loan of from $300,000,000 to $500,000,000 at 3 per cent., payable in coin, has been prepared by the Ways and Means Committee and will be immediately introduced in case of war.

Woodford to Be Recalled at Once.

Washington, April 9.—War between the United States and Spain has been declared, so far as the executive branch of this government can proclaim the fact.

At the Cabinet meeting yesterday it was decided that Minister Woodford should be ordered to return home at once and that Consul General Lee should receive final orders to the same effect. Woodford has ceased to be the means of diplomatic communication at Madrid between the countries. He is expected to take his departure not later than Monday. All that remains is for Congress, acting upon the recommendation of President McKinley for armed intervention, is to exercise its constitutional right of putting the army and navy of the United States in motion gaainst the enemy.

Our Relief Agents Mobbed.

New Orleans, April 9.—A telegram from Port Eads states that the steamer Utstein, which sailed from here recently for Matanzas with 600 tons of provisions contributed by the citizens of Kansas City for the starving reconcentrados, is coming up the river and will be at her wharf to-night.

The cargo was landed on last Monday under the greatest difficulty, owing to the hostility of the Spaniards. The Utstein brings back Messrs. Curtis and Richardson, of Kansas City, who sailed on the steamer to attend to the distribution of the cargo.

On their way to the vessel they were followed from their hotel by a mob, who hissed, cursed and spat upon them.

Precedent for the Senate.

Washington, April 9.—The movement to consider the whole Cuban question in executive session of Congress is gaining ground. The Senators who have looked up the precedents find the only parallel case to this one to be that when war was declared against Great Britain, in 1812, the declaration was considered in secret session.

Landslide Kills Thirty-one.

Seattle, April 9.—The steamer Alki arrived from Alaska ports, with news that a landslide had occurred on Chilkoot Trail, in which thirty-one men are known to have been killed and many injured.

England's Share of China's Soil.

Pekin, April 9.—It is known that the extension of British territory at Kau-Lung, opposite Hong Kong, will follow as soon as the French have occupied the new coaling station granted them at Kwang-Chau-Wan.

SPAIN'S LAST TRUMP?

Blanco Said to have an Armistice In His Possession.

THE QUEEN DESIRES PEACE

Hopes thus to Avert the Impending Disaster and Gain Time—Previous Successes in the Line Evidently Give Good Cause for Hope of Further Delay.

Madrid, April 8, via Biarritz, France, April 9.—It is generally believed that the Queen Regent has determined, in spite of the opposition of the Cabinet, to issue a decree of armistice between Spain and the Cuban insurgents.

It is even stated among well-informed persons that the text of the decree has been cabled to Capt.-Gen. Blanco for proclamation by him.

It is still hoped that the Queen Regent some time before it is too late, may issue the decree that is now regarded as the only possible means of averting an almost immediate conflict. Nobody in the Cabinet is determined enough in the interests of peace to take this step.

El Pais publishes a report that the Spanish Embassy at Washington was being guarded. This is undoubtedly an incentive to the mob to attack the American offices here.

El Pais also publishes a dispatch from Paris saying that the Rothschilds have decided to present warships to Spain.

The crowds in the streets are perfectly quiet, but no one knows what may happen if anything occurs to excite them.

SPAIN IS DETERMINED.

A Cabinet Minister Says to Compromise Is Useless.

Madrid, Spain, April 9.—A much calmer feeling prevails here reflecting the newspaper utterances and various versions of the Cabinet meeting.

A Cabinet Minister, in an interview on the present situation, is quoted as saying:

"All the Ministers have sunk their individual opinions and are working unanimously in the interests of the country. It is entirely useless to attempt to arrange a compromise in the face of the attitude of America, which decided to seek a rupture at any cost. The Spanish Government would weaken itself by concessions antagonistic to public sentiment."

"Neither the government nor the country desire war, but the government must save Spain's honor. If President McKinley succeeds in withstanding Congress, it will certainly be an indication favorable to peace. If he does not succeed, it will be because he has lost control of the situation, in which case the Spanish concessions are absolutely useless."

The statement published in London that General Woodford is to leave Madrid on Sunday is untrue. General Woodford reiterated his statement that he would not leave until directed to apply for his passports, or until they are handed to him. The Minister added that he had no intimation of his government fixing a date for his leaving Madrid, and it might be taken as a fact that no date would be fixed upon until after President McKinley's message had been sent to Congress, as to leave the Spanish capital before that would prejudge the whole case.

The Imparcial thinks the delay in the presentation of President McKinley's message to Congress is a good sign. It adds:

"But nobody is under any illusions respecting the American policy. If peaceful prospects predominate, they do so for reasons beyond Yankee control."

The Imparcial also says it considers the action of the powers in offering their good offices as being favorable to Spain.

SPANISH WAR FLEET SAILS.

It Will Join Torpedo Flotilla at Cape Verde and Then Head for Our Coast.

Washington, April 9.—Senor Polo y Bernabe, the Spanish Minister, has received a cablegram from Madrid confirming the report that the Spanish flotilla has sailed from Cadiz for the Canaries.

The Minister's cablegram states that there are three battleships and twelve cruisers in this last flotilla.

They are to proceed direct to the Canaries, thence to the Cape Verde Islands to effect a junction with the fleet of torpedo boats and torpedo-goat destroyers.

From thence they may sail direct for either Puerto Rico or the Atlantic coast of the United States.

Spanish Bombast.

Madrid, April 9.—Gen. Correa, the Spanish Minister for War, in an interview says:

"Spain must not be alarmed, when war is declared, if a Spanish warship is sunk. What we must at all costs avoid is a Spanish warship striking her colors to the American flag. She should rather explode her magazine. I wish to God Spain had not a warship from Cuba to the peninsula. We could then say to America: 'We are here! Meet us when you please!'"

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The following is a censored dispatch from Madrid: The European powers and the Vatican continue, each in a different way, to exert the greatest pressure upon the Queen and the Ministry to force concessions to the United States.

Representative Lorrimer, of Illinois, says Gen. Lee told Capt. Sigsbee that when the Maine was blown up the electric lights in Havana were extinguished, showing electrical connection with the destruction of the battleship. Gen. Lee will tell what he knows to Congress.

United States Consul Hyatt and thirty other Americans from Santiago, Cuba, arrived yesterday at the Island of Jamaica on a steamer sent for them by Consul Deat. The refugees report everything quiet in South Cuba yet, but say the suppressed excitement is intense.

The Deputy Treasurer of Cuba told the Foreign Affairs Committee of the House that his republic has issued but $122,000 of the $10,000,000 bonds authorized.

"Probably no single drug is employed in nervous diseases with effects so markedly beneficial as those of cod-liver oil."

These are the words of an eminent medical teacher.

Another says: "The hypophosphites are generally acknowledged as valuable nerve tonics."

Both these remedies are combined in Scott's Emulsion. Therefore, take it for nervousness, neuralgia, sciatica, insomnia and brain exhaustion.

THE MESSAGE MONDAY

Spain's Complete Surrender Only Can Delay It.

AN ARMISTICE WOULD NOT.

Congress Will Have the Opportunity of Declaring War at Its Monday's Session—Nothing Will Deter the President from Making His Recommendations at That Time.

Washington, April 9.—It is regarded as not within the province of human agencies to postpone the presentation of the President's message to Congress beyond Monday's session. There has been no change in the official stand taken for Cuban independence, notwithstanding all reports and rumors to the contrary. Congress will be asked on Monday to recognize Cuban independence and to authorize armed intervention forthwith to drive Spain out of the island.

Nothing received at the White House up to this time has suggested that she would go without being driven. There is a half expectation that she may declare an armistice at the last moment. If she does it will not change President McKinley's course.

It can be said by authority that no change has been made in the message. Nor has the Senate changed in its attitude to the question. The Foraker resolution, with the second paragraph stricken out, represents at once the Senate's position, and by the President's own statement agrees with the tone of his message. The Executive and legislative branches of the Government understand each other fully.

The second paragraph recognized the existing republic of Cuba. That is put off till another day. Independence is fully recognized.

The Cuban cause will not suffer under it. The island will be freed, and, free, will choose such a government as it thinks best. If the present one suits it, it will choose that, and harmony will be preserved.

Another thing is settled, Spain's eleventh-hour repentence will not avail. If she declares an armistice on Monday the President will advise Congress of the new turn of affairs, in a special message if need be, or in a postcript to the one now lying ready, but it is not to enter as an element into the case as now made up.

There will be no going back. The administration is committed to a course from which no retreat is possible, except on the part of Spain. No one in administration circles believes that she will retreat.

THE PLAN OF ATTACK.

A Member of the Strategy Board Consulted and Movements of Ships Discussed.

Washingon, April 9.—Although yesterday was Good Friday, the usual Cabinet meeting assembled at 11 o'clock, with every member present. The imminence of war made this meeting of great importance, for the heads of the War and Navy Departments were required to report upon the final arrangements for the possible early outbreak of hostilities.

Commande Barker, Secretary Long's naval aide, and a member of the Board of Naval Strategy, was called into conference with the Cabinet, and it is supposed that final instructions to the various fleets of the United States Navy were considered and decided upon.

LEE'S HOME-COMING.

To Leave Havana With Last Company of Americans Today.

Tampa, Fla., April 9.—The program for the departure of General Lee from Havana has been announced as follows:

The Olivette will enter Havana harbor this morning, and General Lee will at once notify all Americans that this will be their last chance to leave the island under the American flag. After all are on board the steamer, including the United States consuls from the various Cuban ports, General Lee will pull down the American flag from the consulate, will turn over the archives to the British Consul, Mr. Gollin, and will go aboard the Olivette, which will at once sail for Key West.

It is possible that one of the gunboats or cruisers at Key West will accompany the Olivette to Havana, to protect the Americans as the last of them leave the city. The Olivette will reach Key West to-night or Sunday night, if the United States consuls cannot reach Havana before Sunday.

Judge Day Confirms.

Washingotn, D. C., April 9.—Assistant Secretary Day announces that all the citizens of the United States now in Cuba who desire to leave will positively be out of that island to-day. He added that it could also be reiterated that Consul-General Lee would leave.

SIGNIFICANCE OF EASTER.

For ages the delight of all Christian Nations has been to symbolize Easter Day with a shining sun, pretty flowers, joyous carols, uplifting sermons and tranquility of mind—a glorious realization of the noble sentiment "Peace on earth and good will to all men." And we are promised all these attributes but one—the last—tomorrow. Yet that threatens to mar the festal day in a manner to make the quotation, which has been the worthy song of Nations from time immemorial, an anomanoly instead of an exemplification of the zeal that moves and moderates the earthly affairs of men in the spirit in which the thought was uttered into exalted words. War—unsympathizing and remorseless, accompanied with woes and sufferings impossible of truthful forecast—is pushing hard upon the very moment when the symbolical services of peace and good will are filling the land with what may mean, if two nations resort to force of arms to settle differences, a benediction of mockery for the celebration of one of the grandest incidents of a Christian people. The festal day set aside for the celebration of the rising of Christ the Lord in exultation of the things that are beautiful and triumphant, and signally touching of the things in store in eternal life, comes this year at a moment that should have pacifying effect upon the tendencies that are making between two Nations to isolate themselves from the precepts meant by the celebration by indulging in discordant cries leading to the most horrible and detestable of all things—the spilling of human blood. In this time of strife, Easter falls with particular significance to lead to a fulfillment of "Peace on earth and good will to all men."

OUR COLORED FRONT PIECE.

The Daily Press goes into the hands of its readers today with a handsome colored design as the front piece of the supplement containing matter appropriate to Easter Day. The colored plate was designed and furnished by the Metropolitan Plate Company, which deserves great credit for the apt subject and the excellent artistic work shown in the illustration.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

Surrogate Spencer was presented with a Winchester repeating rifle a few days ago by his friend, S. B. Joseph, of North Plainfield. Mr. Spencer is a sportsman and a first-rate shot. He is a member of the Pamunkey Gun Club, an organization of northern gentlemen who own a hunting preserve in Virginia of several thousand acres, and each year Mr. Spencer spends a few weeks there in the spring and fall, returning home laden down with duck, wild turkey and geese.—Bound Brook State Centre.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News, but Just as Interesting.

The following article was copied from an old scrap-book by the mother of James Davis, book-keeper for Boice, Runyon & Co.: "Be it recorded, that posterity may know, that on June 9, 1816, in the morning it snowed, and that it has frozen for three nights ice a quarter of an inch thick, and the leaves are falling off the trees as they do in the fall. I was then living in the town of Niskayuna, at Alexander's Bridge (since the building of the canal called the Aqueduct), and on the afternoon of the ninth day of June, 1816, I went four miles to the city of Schenectady in a sleigh.

If there is one thing more ludicrous and flippant to the members of The Press staff than another it is the conceited idea that some people, who have a fancied grievance against the paper, possess that the proper manner to retaliate and humiliate The Press men is to threaten to go to the News office and have that paper "roast" us, as they express it. Scarcely a day passes but what some indignant person offers what they think is a crushing rebuke to The Press men by this silly threat. If any one will stop to reason for a moment they will realize how foolish such browbeating is, inasmuch as whatever the News might say at their suggestion would be the merest bagatelle compared to what its own editor sometimes gives willing complaint to—and we are so used to that, that we take it as a daily part of our lives.

THE COLT RAPID FIRE GUNS.

Each of the six-millimetre, rapid fire, automatic guns which have been sent to the navy yards of late is calculated to be equal in destructive potentiality to a regiment of infantry. The guns, which are made by the Colt company, are of recent invention. The government began to buy them about two years ago, and already it has fifty or more of them ready for use. They may be used either at sea or on land. Mounts for both purposes accompany each gun. The guns are about three feet long and about eight inches in diameter. The bore is only .236 of an inch.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

The Atkinson Comedy Company will present that famous piece of American humor, "Peck's Bad Boy," at Music Hall Monday night. The bad boy is always a welcome visitor. This night he will be especially so for the reason that he has surrounded himself with a large assortment of novel and entertaining ideas in the way of songs, dances and witticisms. There is always a fund of hearty laughter in their adventures.

"My Friend From India" will endeavor further laurels when the company will be presented at Music Hall next Tuesday night, which will be a red letter event in the annals of theatricals here. This comedy is bright and witty, fascinating in the extreme.

UNITY AND REVERENCE.

take comfort in the thought that the Lord Christ knows how it feels. He presented an unanswerable argument against the Christian Science theory that suffering is a delusion, by calling to mind that Christ's suffering was very real to him, and against the ideas of those who will employ no physician and use no medicine, by saying that Christ asked and accepted relief. He closed with a reference to the fact that Christ thristed upon the cross in order that when we hunger and thrist after righteousness we may be filled.

"Jesu, Son of Mary, Hear," sang choir and people, then Rev. C. E. Herring came forward to speak upon the words "It is Finished." This is not a word of defeat, he said; it is a note of victory. The task of redemption is done. Apparent defeat does not always mean ultimate defeat. Easter is coming. As God fulfilled His promises to the Messiah, so He will fulfil all His promises to you and me.

The last speaker was Rev. G. Kennedy Newell. His text was the dying words of the Saviour, "Father, Into Thy Hands I Commend my Spirit." Through all His suffering, said Mr. Newell, Christ found a way back to God; He saw His Father. Jesus knew what was beyond and it was to His Father that His soul took its conscious flight.

While the choir sang an anthem an offering for the Children's Home was received. Then "Just as I Am" was sung, after which all knelt in silent prayer. The closing prayer was offered by Rev. W. C. Snodgrass, and the benediction pronounced by Rev. E. M. Rodman; then came the recessional, the black-veiled cross leading choir and clergy, singing "Oh, For a Closer Walk With God." As the vestry closed on the last singer the congregation knelt once more in silent prayer, remaining till the last amen stole out upon the stillness, then rising to go out into the moonlight, into the world they had almost forgotten, in going back to live in that first Good Friday, so many centuries ago.

Will Spain Fight.

This question is engaging public attention just now, but it is not of as much interest to you as the question whether it is nice to let your child go on complaining of headaches without learning if the trouble is not due to some disorder of the eyes, as a large percentage of such headaches are. An experienced optician will settle this question for you, therefore you should take your child to Collier's at once.

Artificial Ice Plant.

The Hygeia Ice Company expect to give out the contracts next week for the construction of the new plant to be erected on Berckman street. The company will begin the sale of ice next Tuesday morning. It will be artificial ice, secured from South Bethlehem, Pa., until the plant here is completed, which will require about two months

NEW YORK FASHIONS.

A dainty frock for a little girl is of pale blue woolen crepon. This is made baby fashion and attached to a yoke of cream guipure over pale blue satin. The girdle and rosette are of blue taffeta, while the shirred sleeves are of the crepon.

Care should be taken with the girl just blossoming into maiden-hood, about fourteen or fifteen, to make the best of her awkwardness, and at this age she requires very careful dressing. If she be fairly slim, and a brunette let her wear a dress of blue or red serge, with simple braid trimming or for that matter, no trimming at all. The blue serge frock is also very stylish trimmed with white cloth. The simplest hat for a young girl is the flat model, trimmed with flowers and ribbon.

Tucks Very Popular.

Tucks are in quite as great favor as they have been for several seasons past; therefore no woman need hesitate about tucking her waists and gowns for the summer if she fancies this easy and effective style of trimming. There are very many women who employ a portion of the quiet home hours of the Lenten season in making up the simple dresses they will need during the vacation season to come, leaving the few handsome gowns they intend to have for the tailor's or dressmaker's designing later on. Tucks are used at present, but they will increase and multiply all over the summer gown, being laid up and down, horizontally, in arching lines, in serpentine curves on sleeves of thin fabric, and in broad, medium, and finest lingerie widths on yokes, guimpes, panels, and blouses. White organdy skirts will show alternate rows of tucking and flouncing from belt to hem. Other models will be tucked around the hips only, and blouse vests and skirts will be arranged in rows of alternate tiny frills, lines of tucking, and bands of insertion in French embroidery.

The Flounce Much Worn.

The circular flounce—probably because it is an entire change from familiar styles of seasons past—has become quite popular on gowns designed both for house and street wear. It is the exception on tailor dresses, however, and even on other costumes there is a very noticeable defect in the adjustment of the flounce. No matter how perfectly it is cut and applied to the upper half of the skirt, after being worn a few times it sags in places, particularly if the goods composing the gown are lightly woven, like serge, wool armure, or etamine. Graceful as it looks on some of the elegant unworn French gowns, it is not a style that is likely to last, for the dressmakers prefer to make other styles, and when they are personally requested to follow the flounce model, the patron ordering the circular effect almost invariably regrets it.

A Pretty Collarette.

A smart and pretty collarette is always a great boon to girls who have only a limited sum to expend on dress, as by its aid a plain bodice may be smartened up for evening or dinner wear. A dainty model is of cream silk muslin, but it is equally suitable for thin silk in any light shade; it is tucked perpendicularly to within 2½ inches of the edge of front and back, and the entire length of shoulders; the untucked edge forms a frill edged with a tiny ruche of chiffon about one inch wide. Straps of jewelled guipure are placed down the centre and each side the front; the collar-band is arranged in folds, and the stand-up collar is edged with a chiffon ruche; the epaulettes are slightly full, and are also edged with a ruche.

Striped Gingham Shirt Waist.

Silk shirts made of taffeta are much worn at this season and are made in the same way as the cotton ones, only in some cases a litttle more elaborate The heavier materials in wash goods will be in demand long before the organdies and fine lawns make their appearance. Therefore waists of galetea, madras and pique are often worn under jackets long before the real warm weather arrives.

A stylish shirt waist of striped gingham which is made quite plain, has a white linen box pleat down the center, and white linen collar and cuffs are also worn. The most popular skirt to wear with these waists are of black serge or taffeta, though during the summer the pique and linen skirts will be very much worn.

There is no worship where there is no joy.

The Latest in Coiffures.

The newest mode for dressing the hair, but which unfortunately, is becoming to few women, is high up on the head. To do this it is necessary to first wave the hair all round, and then divide off a portion for the front. Comb the remaining hair well up on the crown and tie there securely. Take the front piece of hair and comb it back to the crown, arranging it rather high to accord with the present fashion, then roll the ends round the fingers to form a small pad and pin to the crown. Divide the back hair in two pieces, take one portion and coil it round to form the high loop, as in Fig. 3; twist the ends neatly round the loop. The second piece of hair is to be made into a rather smaller loop, and pinned somewhat flat on the left side of the head, as shown by Fig. 3, then with the ends of this piece of hair, make a nice French curl, by lightly twisting the ends round the fingers, and pin it down to the right side, as Fig. 4 shows. When completed, two tortoise shell daggers should be arranged rather on top of the head, and a comb at the base of the dressing.

A Bit of Home Life.

"He is getting worse than ever!" exclaimed my mother, who sat in the dining-room darning socks. "How ever that boy does manage to make such holes in his socks I cannot think."

My scientific father (reading paper on spectroscopy): "All our observations go to show that the present is a time of abnormal activity in the sun's lower limb, producing immense holes, rents, and fissures in the outer envelope."

"Well, I never!" said my mother. "Does it say that? How they can ever know such things by staring through a spyglass is more than I can fancy; but I have noticed the same thing every mending night. There! the clock is striking twelve!"

My brother Tommy, from upstairs, who is supposed to be asleep: "Never mind, mother; it's never too late to mend!"

To Make Children Attend School.

The club-women of Chicago are turning their attention to the enforcement of the compulsory school law. The law, as at present existing in Illinois, provides that all children between seven and fourteen years of age shall be compelled to attend school for at least sixteen weeks in every school year, provided that "such children are not receiving education somewhere else, or are not physically incapacitated." It is this qualification which has proved a sufficiently large loophole for a good many children to escape through. What the club-women mean to do is to study the efficacy of the law and how large a percentage of truants it admits the existence on and upon these data they will shape their future action. In their efforts they have the co-operation of the officials of the compulsory department.

"Who would kill me?"

"The enemy, of course."

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Auerbach. Die 13jährige Tochter des hiesigen Gärtners Henkel ist im Sommer vorigen Jahres verschwunden, was zu den ungeheuerlichsten Gerüchten Anlaß gab und den Vater in den Verdacht brachte, er habe seine Tochter bei Seite geschafft. Dieser Tage wurde das Mädchen bei Griesheim von Gendarmen mit Zigeunern vagabundirend aufgegriffen und nach Darmstadt gebracht. Ihre Identität ist von der Staatsanwaltschaft festgestellt.

Gießen. Das Schwurgericht verurtheilte den Tagelöhner Conrad aus Romrod bei Schotten wegen Mordes zum Tode. Er hatte seinen Arbeitgeber, der beim Bäcker für Brod gutgesagt, dann aber die Bürgschaft zurückgezogen hatte, im Walde erschlagen.

Bayern.

München. Der hiesige „Generalanzeiger" hat die Linotype-Setzmaschine eingeführt und arbeitet bereits mit vier Maschinen dieser Gattung. — Im Pistolenduell fiel hier der Student Fritz Ollendorff, der Sohn eines Bankiers in Berlin. Sein Gegner war ein ebenfalls hier studirender Sohn des kaiserlichen Rathes Rebinzek in Wien. Die Duellanten waren die intimsten Freunde gewesen. Sie entzweiten sich während des Karnevals auf einer Redoute wegen einer Modistin aus Leipzig. Rebinzek hat sich der Polizei gestellt.

Augsburg. Gegen den Bauern Anton Kopfmüller von Unterwittelsbach ist Untersuchung wegen Mordverfuchs eingeleitet worden, den er vor zehn Jahren an einem Förster jener Gegend, welcher ihn beim Wildern ertappte, begangen haben soll.

Deggendorf. Der Bau des hiesigen Winterhafens ist in vollem Gange. Der ohnehin schon sehr solide, 2 Meter 60 Centimeter hohe und an der Sohle 10 Meter breite Schutzdamm wird auf 5 Meter erhöht, so daß er vollständige Sicherheit gegen Gefahren durch Eisgang bietet. Der Hafen wird über 400 Meter lang und 60 Meter breit, erhält somit eine Fläche von 24,000 Quadratmetern.

Hof. Kürzlich wurde in das hiesige Untersuchungsgefängniß der Maurer Hellwig aus Froschgrün eingeliefert. Er hatte zur Nachtzeit auf der Lokalbahn Hof-Naila und zwar auf der Bahnbrücke über die Selbitz einen Zug zum Entgleisen zu bringen versucht, indem er Steine, Baumwurzeln und dergleichen auf die Schienen legte. Seine Fußspur wurde verfolgt und er dadurch ermittelt; er ist geständig.

Nürnberg. Die Zahl der Kaminkehrerbezirke wird jetzt hier von 14 auf 17 erhöht. Es bleibt dann noch immer für den einzelnen Kaminkehrermeister ein Einkommen von fast 5000 Mark.

Passau. Der Einjährig-Freiwillige Meiße im königlich 16. Infanterie-Regiment hier machte, als er eine ihm zudiktirte 14tägige Arreststrafe antreten sollte, den Versuch, sich zu vergiften. Er wurde in das Militärlazareth verbracht und befindet sich außer Lebensgefahr.

Prien. Wie man hört, soll im heurigen Sommer auf dem Chiemsee eine Motorschifffahrt eröffnet werden.

Weiden. Das königliche Landgericht verurtheilte den 15jährigen Dienstbuben Johann Popp von Leutzenhof, der den großen Brand in Pappenberg verursachte und sich verschiedener anderer Verbrechen schuldig machte, zu zehn Jahren Gefängniß.

Würzburg. In Unterfranken sind die protestantischen Schuldienstexspektanten, die im Herbst 1897 vom Seminar abgingen, bereits alle verwendet und herrscht ein solcher Mangel an jüngeren protestantischen Lehrkräften, daß alte und kranke Lehrer kaum mehr Aushilfe bekommen können.

Aus der Rheinpfalz.

Landau. Eine zum „Hotel zum Geist" gehörige Scheune, welche niedergerissen werden sollte, stürzte ein, wobei neun Mann unter den Trümmern begraben wurden. Nach zweistündiger Arbeit gelang es, sämmtliche Verunglückte zu bergen, von denen drei schwere, die übrigen leichte Verletzungen erlitten hatten.

Landstuhl. Dem irdischen Richter entzogen hat sich Eugen Gundall von Queidersbach, der den Johann Straßer erschoß und den Ad. König schwer verletzte, indem er sich im hiesigen Amtsgerichtsgefängnisse erhängte.

Ludwigshafen. In den Mansarden des Bankgebäudes der Pfälzischen Bank wurde neulich Abends ein Fremder ertappt, als er sich hinter einem Aktenschrank verstecken wollte Bei seiner Verhaftung machte er allerlei widersprechende Angaben und spielte schließlich den Betrunkenen. In seinem Besitz wurden nicht weniger als sechs Portemonnaies und viele Schlüssel gefunden.

Württemberg.

Stuttgart. Ein Verein für weibliche Angestellte ist letzter Tage unter dem Vorsitz von Frau Oberbürgermeister v. Rümelin hier gegründet worden. Der Verein bezweckt hauptsächlich 1. Pflege des Rechtsschutzes, 2. Gründung eines selbstständigen Arbeitsnachweises, vorbehaltlich späterer Vereinigung mit dem städtischen Arbeitsamt, 3. Unterstützung von Vereinsmitgliedern im Falle von Arbeitslosigkeit oder in Krankheitsfällen, die länger als 13 Wochen dauern. An den Sitzungen sind auch Vorträge allgemein bildenden Inhaltes, Kunstgenüsse u. s. w. vorgesehen.

Eßlingen. Die neu eröffnete Filderbahn soll von Denhausen hierher fortgesetzt werden. An der Spitze des gewählten Komites steht Oberbürgermeister Fr. Mühlberger dahier. Es sind drei Haltestationen geplant.

Heilbronn. Der Verlag der „Heilbronner Zeitung" läßt jährlich zum Karneval den weitbekannten „Fidelen Neckaresel, ein Narrenblatt aus Neckarbronn," erscheinen. Die diesjährige Nummer enthält eine humoristisch abgefaßte „99. Sitzung des Gemeindegerichts Gutbronn am 22. Februar 999 n. Chr." Durch diesen Artikel fühlte sich der Herr Oberbürgermeister Hegelmaier beleidigt und hat Strafantrag gestellt. Hier schüttelt man den Kopf zu dieser Klageerhebung und ist gespannt auf den Ausgang des Prozesses „Hegelmaier contra Neckaresel." Dieser Herr sollte doch für Fastnachtsstreiche Verständniß besitzen!

Ludwigsburg. Von Berlin aus ist von einem unbekannten Spender der hiesigen Stadt eine Stiftung von 10,000 Mark zugeflossen mit der Bestimmung, die Summe zur Verschönerung der Stadt und zur Erhaltung ihres Charakters als Sommerresidenz zu verwenden.

Notice to the Public in General.

The American people shall have no need of the CHINAMAN in the future if every American Laundryman will supply the proper kind of work. Try us and be convinced that we are up-to-date, and that you would rather have AMERICANS by all odds to serve you. Think of the terrible odor that comes from a Chinese Laundry, and yet one half of the people don't know what causes it. Here it is in a Nut Shell. Could you for instance turn out first-class laundry in a room 12x20 where there is three or four living. Think of your laundry in a place of this kind, where they do cooking, smoke their opium and also sleep in same apartment. And stil what is more horrible is that all your clothes are sprinkled from the mouth. Think twice before you speak and have an American citizen to do your laundry by all odds.

COURT CEREMONY.

CHANGES IN WASHINGTON SOCIETY INAUGURATED BY MRS. M'KINLEY.

At the White House Receptions Refreshment Served Only to those Receiving-Viands at the Afternoon Functions of Women of the Cabinet More Simple.

It has been said with truth that no reigning queen has more social power than has the wife of our President. Indeed, no woman of royal authority has as many social responsibilities. Just as it would be were she the Queen-Empress, an invitation from Mrs. McKinley takes precedence of all other offers of hospitality which might be extended by an American woman. No excuse other than illness or mourning can be offered as an appropriate excuse for regretting an invitation despatched by her order. An invitation to the White House is always a sufficient excuse for breaking a previous engagement elsewhere.

Mrs. McKinley will not return official calls. She or her husband may enter private houses as may any other citizens if they wish, but such visits can never be regarded as returns for calls. Social ethics, however, demand that the President and his wife be entertained at dinner one night during each social season by all of the members of the Cabinet in turn, beginning with the Secretary of State, who is our premier, and ending with the Secretary of Agriculture. The President, however, will never enter a foreign embassy or legation, and the same rule will be observed by his wife. A foreign embassy or legation, technically speaking, is foreign soil, just as is a foreign war ship in our harbors.

A number of radical changes have been made in the social calendar. For several administrations Thursdays have been reserved as Executive days, so to speak, when alternating receptions and dinners were held between the beginning of the year and the first day of Lent. Most of these functions, will take place on Wednesdays instead.

A great deal is said each year concerning the cost of official hospitality here at court. It has often been argued that Presidents cannot afford to put aside anything to speak of out of their annual salaries, because of the great personal expense attached to official entertainment. The cost of one season's hospitality at the White House is variously estimated by good authorities at from five to twelve thousand dollars a year. The official receptions at the White House cost very little. Viands are served to the receiving parties alone. The music is furnished gratis by the government Marine Band, and the flowers—taken from the White House conservatories—are also government property. The cost of one state dinner is estimated at from five hundred to one thousand dollars.

Of late years the refreshments offered at afternoon receptions of women of the Cabinet and of other higher circles have been of the simplest description—usually consisting of tea, cakes and bonbons. The cost for one afternoon is comparatively small—ten dollars being sufficient to cover it in most instances. Formerly very elaborate collations were spread at the homes of officials during these functions. In the first Cleveland administration, for instance, terrapin and champagne punch were features of the Whitney receptions, but such lavish display—luckily for the entertainers—is now considered to be bad form. —New York Herald.

Friday a Lucky Day.

An American girl should regard Friday as lucky, since nearly all the most notably successful events in American history took place on that day of the week. Columbus sailed on his voyage of discovery on Friday, and discovered America on that day, ten weeks later. St. Augustine, the oldest town in this country, was founded on Friday. The Mayflower arrived in Providence on Friday, and on Friday the Pilgrims signed the August compact—the forerunner of the Constitution. Other prominent events taking place on Friday were the birth of Washington, the seizure of Bunker Hill, the surrender of Saratoga, the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown, the motion made in Congress that the United States were free and independent. In the South the Judges are abolishing Friday as hangman's day and appointing executions to take place on other days of the week.

Our Language a Poser.

An American girl who recently studied in Germany tells of a German girl who was studying English, and who used to write letters in English to her parents. One day the German girl handed a letter to her, saying: "Here is the letter which I have written to my mother. I want you to read it over and see if it is properly written." The letter was all right, excepting the closing phrase, which read as follows: "God pickle and keep you." An investigation proved that the young German woman in looking for a synonyme for "preserve" had come across "pickle."

A Mitigating Circumstance.

"You plead guilty?" said the court. "Is there any reason why I should not give you the full penalty?"

HIS FRIENDS DIDN'T TELL HIM.

A Pleasant Birthday Surprise Tendered to George Taylor.

A pleasant event of last evening was the complete surprise tendered to George Taylor, of Coddinton avenue, by his friends and neighbors. It was in honor of the completion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his birthday and the gathering of friends was an agreeable reminder of the happy event. Games was the feature of the evening. The host was congratulated by all and wishes for many happy returns of the event were extended to him. Mrs. Taylor also shared the pleasures of the event with her husband and a thoroughly enjoyable time resulted.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ross and daughter, Helen Ross, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Waldron, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Huff, Mr. and Mrs. Corra Ryno and daughter, Emma Hazel Ryno, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John H. A SENSIBLE SHOE STORE.

M. C. VanArsdale Now Starts on His Second Year.

A year has now elapsed since M. C. VanArsdale established his Sensible Shoe Store on East Front street. The year has been a successful one to that enterprising merchant and to those who have become his patrons. His determination to give all the best of treatment has been carried out to the letter. Mr. VanArsdale is not going to let his business drag now. He will start the second year with renewed vigor.

He has now laid in a stock in spring and summer lines of a greater variety than ever before. He doesn't cater to any class in particular. There are shoes at his store for everybody, high grade goods all, and made by the best manufactures. There is one thing remarkable about the prices. They are decidedly reasonable. Mr. VanArsdale is a believer in frequent sales and small profits. The low prices and the remarkable variety of boots, shoes and slippers are of the kind seldom found in a city of the size of Plainfield.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., MONDAY, APRIL 11, 1898. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

ARMED INTERVENTION, PRESIDENT URGES.

THE MESSAGE SENT TO CONGRESS JUST AFTER NOON TODAY.

Washington, April 11.—The President's message was sent to Congress shortly after noon. It follows in substance:

President McKinley calls attention in the message to the differences between the United States and Spain and the great commerce relations between Cuba and the United States.

He says that since the Revolution began February 18, 1895, the commerce between the United States and Cuba has been ruined, and he calls attention to the damage by fire and sword in the unequal struggle between Cuba and Spain.

He speaks of Cuba as once being a prosperous country and being at present reduced to comparative want.

He cites that the mills in Cuba have been ruined and people by the tens of thousands have reached a state of destitution. Trade has suffered and capital invested by Americans in Cuba is largely lost.

He says that the luxurious commerce between the United States and Spain has been greatly reduced and the product of the soil diminished.

The President says that since April 10th, 1896, the evil suffered through war in Cuba has become enormous, that his predecessor attempted to effect a settlement of peace between Spain and Cuba on a basis of self government.

He said that it failed through the refusal of the Spanish government to consider any form of mediation.

He said that it was a policy of devastation and concentration, inaugurated by the Captain General October 21st, 1896, in the province of Pindar del Rio, and then through the space of the island to which the power of the Spanish arms were able to reach, by occupation or by military operations.

The raising and movement of provisions of all kinds was prohibited, fields laid wasted, dwellings unroofed and fired, and mills destroyed.

The peasantry, including those dwelling in the interior, were driven into the garrison places occupied by the Spanish troops.

In fact, everything to desolate the land and render it unfit for human habitation or support was commanded by one or the other of the contending parties, and executed by all the powers at their disposal.

He said when his administration came into power a year ago, the reconcentrados of the four western and central counties—Santa Clara, Matanzas and Pindar del Rio, about 300,000 in all, were herded within the walls of forts and deprived of the means of support and rendered destitute.

In March, 1897, from official Spanish sources, the mortality among the reconcentrados was reported to be more than 50 per cent of the total number from disease and starvation.

No practical relief was accorded to the destitute. No remedy was given to the suffering. The unfortunates were most women, children, and aged and helpless men, unable to help themselves and slowly starving.

Although Spain was in charge of these places, they did nothing to relieve the suffering of the people.

He called attention to his message of December last in which he showed that it was not a civilized warfare but one of extermination. The only peace was that of the wilderness or the grave.

To check the hopeless sacrifice of life by internecine conflict beyond their borders is justifiable to rational grounds. It involves, however, hostile constraint upon both parties to the contest as well as to enforce a truce as to guide the eventual settlement.

The grounds for such interventions may be summarized as follows:

First, in the cause of humanity and to put an end to the barbarity, starvation and horrible misery now existing there, and which the party to the conflict are either unable to or unwillingly to stop or mitigate.

Secondly, we owe it to our citizens in Cuba to afford them protection and indemity for life and property which no government there can or will afford, and to that end to terminate the conditions that deprive them of legal protection.

Third, right to intervene may be justified by the very serious injury to commerce trade and business of our people and by the wanton destruction of property and devastation of the island and which is of the most importance.

The present condition of affairs in Cuba is a constant menace to our peace and entails upon this Government at enormous expense.

These elements of danger and disorder which have been pointed out have been strikingly illustrated by a tragic event which has deeply and justly moved the American people. That was the destruction of the battleship Maine in Havana Harbor during the night of February 15th.

The President cites the report of the Court of Inquiry regarding the cause of the explosion, by saying that the findings of the Court were that the ship was blown up from outside by a sub marine mine, and that it was impossible to fix the responsibility which will have to be settled later.

He says that the condition is such that the Spanish government connot assure safety and security to vessels of the United States navy in the harbor of Havana while on a mission of peace.

He says that in the official correspondence between the State Department and Minister Woodruff in Madrid on the 26th ult., there came the statement that the Spanish Minister of Foreign Affairs had assured him that Spain would do everything possible to her highest honor and justice to inquire about the Maine.

He refers to the correspondence of 31st in which Spain offers to submit to arbitration, the question of the loss of the Maine.

He says that Spain would agree to any impartial verdict in the matter. The President says that he did not reply to this.

He asks Congress to authorize him to use the military and naval forces of the United States as may be necessary for these purposes. He recommends that the distribution of supplies in Cuba be continued.

The President asks Congress to to authorize and impower him ta take measures to secure a full and final termination of hostilities between the government of Spain and the people of Cuba, and to secure the establishment of a suitable government, capable of maintaining order and preserving its international obligations, securing peace and tranquility and the security of a citizen as well as our own.

Regarding it, he says: "If this measure attains a successful result, then our aspirations as a Christian, peace-loving people will be realized. If it fails, it will only be another justification of our contemplated action."

He says "The issue is now with Congress. It is a solemn responsibility. I have exhausted every effort to relieve the intolerable condition of affairs which is at our very doors. I am prepared to execute every obligation imposed upon me by the Constitution and the law. And I await your action."

The Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs, to which the message was referred, began immediate discussion of the same. A resolution declaring for the withdrawal of the Spanish troops from Cuba, and authorizing the President to use Army and Navy to enforce it, will be reported tomorrow.

Senator Butler introduced a resolution authorizing Cuba's republic, demanding Spain's withdrawal of her troops from Cuba, and giving President authority to enforce it.

The message was reported in both Houses without debate and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Mrs. Wallace V. Miller and daughter, of North avenue, are spending a short time at Long Branch.

GYPSIES ARE IN CAMP.

MANY TOWNSMEN GATHERED TO WATCH THEM YESTERDAY.

A Correspondent Writes A Complaint Against Their Presence and Practices —Says One Man Drove Horse Cruelly.

No truer sign that summer is nearly upon us is afforded than the camp of gypsies that was established at Avon park Saturday, and which was visited by a throng of Plainfielders all day yesterday. The swarthy nomads, with prattling mischevious youngsters, flashy dressed women, barking dogs, slick, scheming men, browsing horses and canvassed wagons, all proved sightly to the people who have been ice and snow bound from such things for several months.

While farmers from the surrounding country visited the camp and talked horse and listened to the suave efforts of the women to dispose of their handiwork of beads and reeds, the urban citizen was content to look on interestedly, sometimes almost awed and puzzled by the happy abandon of these people for a settled abode.

The presence of the gypsies and the sightseers, as well as the practices of both, did not meet with the approval of everybody, however, as the following communication received by The Press this morning shows:

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—I desire to complain of a gang of hoodlums who infest Park avenue at the corner of Rahway road Sunday afternoons and race horses. Today I twice passed this corner and found a mob of about 200 half-grown men and boys, who were watching some rowdies racing horses.

These men were driving up and down at full speed, taking up the entire road, driving foot passengers and wheelmen into the gutters and covering them with dust. I myself was obliged to dismount twice in order to get out of the way. It was not a single instance of racing, but a regular set of races on a public road continuing all the afternoon, or at least for some hours. One of the worst offenders was a North Plainfield butcher, who, in my presence, drove his horse till he fell, with blood running from his nose.

The whole thing is a nuisance and should be suppressed. The roads are meant to be used by all and not to be monopolized by anyone. If this warning is not sufficient to abolish this nuisance, some other course will be tried.

A great part of the trouble comes from the gang of vagrants who call themselves gypsies and who are encamped at the corner of Rahway road and Park avenue. I do not know who owns the land, but it seems to me very wrong that they should be allowed there. There is always a lot of loafers hanging around the camp, which makes the locality unfit for decent people. X.

TROUBLE AT WASHINGTON HALL.

The Fireman Wanted to Thrash the Professor.

Prof. Eugene O'Reilly and Owen Holmes, the big fireman at Washington Hall, had a little dispute Friday. Holmes says that O'Reilly was trying to damage his reputation and so he intended to damage the Professor's face. That made trouble right away. Holmes was placed in a cell in the rookery to meditate on the sin he wanted to commit.

Saturday City Judge DeMeza heard the story and suspended sentence on Holmes.

The Storm Was a Furious One for Sometime and Drove Pleasure Seekers to Places of Shelter—James E. Kimball Saw the Bolt Strike the Church and He Was Half Stunned by the Shock—Roof and Rafter Was Shivered by the Lightning's Attack—Lightning Darted From Pole to Tree

What an Easter Day yesterday was. The morning was delightful. Perfect spring weather with clear skies and balmy air tempted everybody into the open air. The afternoon seemed just as pleasant, but here and there a patch of clouds covered the fathomless blue. The wiser ones saw the portends of a storm and remained close to shelter.

It was 4 o'clock in the afternoon before the long array of threatening clouds in the far west mustered together and advanced toward the city. They were dark ugly clouds that stretched away to the north and south as far as the eye could see. They rolled and tossed as they advanced upon the sun until its bright rays were hidden. Then the pleasure seekers began to realize with the disappearance of the sun that a storm would soon be upon them.

What a scurrying there was for shelter. Where the roads before had been crowded, they were now deserted. Those who remained were earnestly seeking some place of safety before the storm should break The great dark clouds came in an unbroken line, dark and frowning at the edge and fading away to a wild copper colored tint in the west.

There was something in the air that seemed to presage a terrific outburst of the elements. People felt it and increased their efforts to reach shelter. Or if they had already reached it, they watched the approaching storm with anxious gaze. The horses felt the approaching deluge and responded gallantly to the word of the drivers to hurry home.

The storm began easily but soon increased in fury. The rain fell in torrents while the lightning zig-zaged across the horizon. The roll of the thunder was frequent. The streets, dry and dusty a few moments before, became raging torrents during the down-pour.

It was at 5 o'clock that the city was startled by one dazzling flash of unusual brilliancy and a crash of thunder that seemed to shake the very foundations of the city. The lightning shot downwards and the bolt struck the spire of the Park Avenue Baptist church, shivering a portion of the woodwork of the spire and sending a shower of slate down on the pavement below.

James E. Kimball, who lives on the opposite corner, saw the bolt strike the church. He was half stunned by the shock. As soon as he recovered, he hurried out to see if fire was to follow the lightning. There was no sign of any, however.

The lightning struck the front of the steeple on the Park avenue side, just on the panel in which a row of windows are located. A false rafter that forms part of the side at that part was shivered into a thousand pieces, while the slate was torn off for some distance. There was no damage below the bell except the burning out of the electric lights in the vestibule. It is impossible to estimate the exact amount of the damage done.

The flagpole on the residence of the Hon. Joseph W. Yates, of East Seventh street, was struck during the storm. The lightning ran down the pole for a distance and then jumped to an apple tree close by and followed that down almost to the ground. Then the bolt left the tree and split up into several smaller bolts which entered the ground making holes in the earth like those made by shot.

Morris Dumont, who lives almost opposite Mr. Yates' house, was standing by the window when the flash came. He was almost thrown to the floor and was affected with violent nausea which lasted for some time. Miss Marion Dumont, in the same room, felt the shock in her arm which became numb. She did not recover from its effects until evening.

The barn of John Koch, near Washingtonville, was struck by lightning during the storm of yesterday afternoon. A quarter of the roof was torn off by the bolt.

OLD VETS AVENGING.

DECLARE SPAIN SHOULD BE DRIVEN FROM THE CONTINENT.

The Spirit of '61 Again Evidenced by the Second Brigade Survivors — A Number of Plainfielders Were Present.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, April 11.—About fifty veterans were present Saturday at the eleventh annual reunion of the Second New Jersey Brigade of New Jersey Volunteers in the late Civil War. The reunion was characterized by the adoption of strong resolutions on the Cuban question. The resolutions were introduced by General J. F. Rusling, of this city. In the preamble Spain was charged with cruelty and mistreatment of Cubans, and the blowing up of the Maine was stated to be "through the guilty complicity and criminal negligence of the Spanish authorities."

It was resolved "That freedom, humanity, civilization and Christianity alike demand that Spain should now be expelled from Cuba, and that the last remnants of the Spanish empire be speedily driven from the shores of our otherwise free America.

"Resolved, We confide in the fidelity, the patriotism and the courage of the President and Congress of the United States and urge them to take prompt and decisive steps to secure the great and humane end, peaceably if they can, but with the army and navy if they must."

The resolutions were adopted unanimously. These officers were elected: President, Colonel Daniel Lodor, Trenton; secretary, Captain U. B. Titus, Titusville; treasurer, James J. Clugston, Trenton; chaplain, E. Clark Cline, Phillipsburg, together with about twenty vice-presidents.

H. O. NEUMAN'S FATHER DEAD.

Passed Away Yesterday Morning at His Son's Home in Jersey City.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Jersey City, April 11.—Hiram C Newman, one of Jersey City's most substantial and worthy citizens, father of H. O. Newman, of Plainfield, died at the home of his son, Hiram, 97 Teur's avenue, yesterday morning, after an illness of three months. Mr. Newman was eighty-five years of age and up to the time of his sickness was engaged in the insurance business in this city. He leaves five sons. The funeral will be held from his late home tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. The interment will be made at Falls Church, Va.

At the close of the war Mr. Newman was one of the prominent dealers in dry goods in New York, where he had a large business on Cortlandt street. Later on he went south, where he lived for some time, but finally returned to the north, where he has resided ever since.

He was a devout Presbyterian and was a faithful Christian worker in that denomination as well as other religious societies.

He leaves five sons.

PRIZE CHORISTERS.

Singers Rewarded for Good Work at Grace Church's Easter Festival.

The prize choristers of Grace church for March were Kendall Mason, Harris Egan, Walter Hockridge, Raymond Cohen, Charles Bryan, Roland Chandor, Douglass Murphy, Augustus Feiring and the Misses S. Ball, E. VanDeventer and C. Woodword.

The prizes were given at the Easter festival of the Sunday-school, at which time Miss Eleanor VanDeventer received the Grace church cross.

Luncheon for a Bridal Party.

Miss May Shreve, of Grove street, gave a delightful luncheon Saturday in honor of Miss Bertha Clark and the bridemaids who will assist at her marriage to Samuel Porter Williams, of Hartford, Conn., Easter Wednesday. An interesting feature of the luncheon was the announcement of the engagement of one of the bridemaids, Miss Marion Williams, of Hartford, Conn., to Frank Lysle, of Rochester, N. Y. Miss Williams is a sister of Samuel Porter Williams, and Mr. Lysle will be one of the ushers at the wedding Easter Wednesday.

College Dramatics.

The Amherst Seniors had an enthusiastic audience at the Hotel Lakewood, in Lakewood, on Saturday night. They have been very fortunate in selecting for their tour Gillette's popular and most amusing comedy, "All the Comforts of Home," which they present tonight at the Casino in this city.

Still Looking For "Cack."

"Cack" Carter is still at large. The investigation of the trouble at Mrs. Peterson's on West Third street, in which "Cack" figured so prominently, was to have come up in the City Court Saturday morning. "Cack" wasn't around, however, so the whole matter was laid over until he is captured.

IN SANCTIFIED SPIRIT EASTER WAS JOYOUSLY OBSERVED WITH FLOWERS, CAROLS AND SERMONS

ELABORATE PROGRAMMES RENDERED TO CELEBRATE THE DAY THAT THE SAVIOUR ROSE.

Beautiful Floral Decorations Bounded Pulpits From Which Eloquent Words Appropriate to the Day Were Uttered—Children Took a Prominent Part in the Programmes.

CRESCENT AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Music played a prominent part in the celebration of Easter at the Crescent Avenue church yesterday. Beside the regular quartette choir, composed of Mrs. Emily Banta Brooke, Miss Annie P. Hardenbergh, G. Morgan Stricklett and Charles L. Lewis, a volunteer chorus choir of twelve voices assisted in the rendition of the special Easter music. Frank J. Smith was the organist. Four selections were given at the morning service and four at the evening service. They were magnificently rendered. Appropriate sermons were preached by the pastor, Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards, morning and evening. His morning text was "Alleluia for the Lord God Omnipotent Reigneth."

The Sunday-school held special Easter service in the afternoon at which special music was given. The floral decorations were unusally elaborate. A large cross of Easter lillies was suspended over the pulpit while lillies, palms, hyderangeas and other potted plants were grouped about the base of the pulpit and platform.

PARK AVENUE BABTIST CHURCH.

Special music, Easter sermons and well chosen decorations distinguished the morning and evening services at the Park Avenue Baptist church yesterday. A large chorus choir led the singing, and rendered two appropriate selections at each service. Those of the morning were "The Lord Is Risen," by George M. Garrett, and "Easter Morning," by D. E. Davis, musical director of the church; those of the evening, "Awake, Thou That Sleepest," by Albert J. Holden, and "Christ Is Risen from the Dead," by J. Varley Roberts. The subjects of the two sermons preached by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Richardson, were "Everything Conquered," and Easter Morn in the Garden." The platform of the church was very prettily decorated with lilies, azalias, and other potted plants, under the direction of the Christian Endeavor flower committee. The Sunday-school held no special exercises.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

Easter Sunday was observed in the First M. E. church with appropriate services in the morning and afternoon. At the morning service, the pastor, Rev. Dr. W. C. Snodgrass, preached a sermon appropriate to the day. The choir sang several Easter anthems. There was a solo by Miss Maude Mosher. The Sunday-school held an Easter missionary service in the afternoon in the church. Rev. Dr. S. L. Baldwin, a returned missionary from China, made an address. There were recitations by members of the intermediate and primary departments. There were the usual floral decorations about the front of the church. Easter and cala lillies were banked about the pulpit with other potted plants.

MONROE AVENUE M. E. CHURCH.

The Easter service at the Monroe Avenue M. E. church was held in the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. At the morning service four members were received into the church by letter. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed. The afternoon service was given by the Sunday-school. The superintendent, Walter M. McGee, was in charge. Edward Beekman read the Scripture selection. James McGee led in prayer. There was a reading by Miss Etta Randolph. The address was made by the pastor, Rev. W. C. O'Donnell, and was of an appropriate character. Augustus Rose sang "Calvary." The church was prettily decorated for the day with Easter lillies, palms and the like which were banked about the platform.

GRACE P. E. CHURCH.

The Eastertide was received at Grace P. E. church yesterday with beautiful music and a magnificent display of flowers. The church presented a very beautiful appearance with the perfect bower of Easter lilies, palms and other potted plants that surrounded the altar and chancel. The arrangement was most artistic. Services were held at 7, 8 and 10:30 o'clock in the morning. In the evening a children's festival was held. The choirmaster had prepared a number of special Easter anthems under the direction of Mrs. W. A. Freeman, the organist, which were given. Rev. E. M. Rodman made an address at the evening service. The Kyrie Eleison and Gloria Tibi used in the morning service were composed by Mrs. Lewis E. Howard, of LaGrande avenue.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The Easter programme at this church was very pretty and attracted large congregations at each service. The decorations, which were arranged by the members of the Advance Circle, King's Daughters, were the prettiest of recent years. Numberless lilies, choice roses and greens were artistically arranged about the pulpit, platform and organ, while the presence of two white doves over the platform added not a little to the general attractiveness.

The morning service was devoted to Easter carols rendered by the choir and members of the Sunday-school. The scholars occupied seats in the gallery. The music was in charge of William E. MacClymont, and was pleasing to all. An appropriate discourse was delivered by the pastor, Rev. C. E. Herring, who held the closest attention of all.

The programme as published in The Press last Saturday was presented in the evening entire. There were vocal solos by Miss Kathryn Glen, Miss Charlotte Messersmith and Wm. Holmes. Miss Glen also sang a very pretty solo at the morning service.

GRACE M. E. CHURCH.

Attractive services were held at Grace M. E. church yesterday. In the morning the choir rendered three appropriate anthems, and the new pastor, Rev. G. W. Gardiner, preached for the first time.

The platform was prettily decorated with choice flowers and lillies arranged by Andrew Wilson. After the services nearly everyone remained to become acquainted with the new pastor whom they found to be exceedingly pleasant.

The afternoon service was devoted to the members of the Sunday-school under the direction of Superintendent John Valiant and Mrs. A. A. Taft. After the opening exercises the following programme was presented: Recitation, "Welcome," Laura Dean; dialogue, "Easter Torches," Addie Carney, Carrie Pangborn, Grace Gaddis, Nellie Valiant, Mabel Stevens and Belle DeMott; recitation, "God's Helpers at Easter," four girls from the primary department; song and recitation, "Hope of Israel," Mabel Stevens and Carrie Pangborn; song, "Lilly Bells Ring," members of the intermediate grade; recitation, "Easter Thoughts," primary department; recitation, "The Butterfly," Grace Gaddis; dialogue, "The Sermon of the Bells," Ira Pangborn, John Carney, Charles Powell and David Fairchild; "Easter Cantata," primary department. The exercises closed with an interesting address by the pastor.

In the evening the pastor preached another appropriate sermon and the choir rendered four Easter anthems in an excellent manner. Miss Grace Carroll presided at the organ.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

Easter was pleasantly observed at the Congregational church. The decorations were very tasteful, consisting chiefly of Easter and calla lilies and palms, which were massed across the whole front of the platform.

Several appropriate selections were rendered by a quartette choir, consisting of Miss Margaret E. Meredith, Miss Julia Belknap, Morris C. VanArsdale and B. T. Barnes, and the pastor of the church, Rev. Charles Lyman Goodrich, preached a strong and eloquent sermon on "The Must-Be of the Resurrection."

The special exercises of the Sunday-school were held in the afternoon. Several carols were sung by the school, two of them including duets by the Misses Emma and Agnes LaBoyteaux. The quartette choir of the school, consisting of Miss M. G. Morse, Miss Julia Belknap, Morris C. VanArsdale and Stacy B. Raynolds, sang two selections. Beautiful carols were sung by the primary department, including a solo by Master Clarence Steiner. A recitation, "Easter Morning," was given by Miss Anna Morrison. There were also two other recitations: "Easter Gifts," by the Misses Hattie Messersmith, Edith Whittier, Agnes LaBoyteaux, Edna Conde, Emily Winant and Edith Robinson; and "Eastertide," by Anna Morrison, Ethel Weseman, Emily Winant, Marion Winant and Marion Dwight.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

One of the prettiest Easter services was held at the First Baptist church.

AMERICA'S POSITION.

President M'Kinley's Message Read in Congress.

A FIRM POLICY ADVOCATED.

It is Expected in Washington That Congress Will Do Its Work Quickly—The The Maine Disaster Will No Doubt Figure Prominently in the Resolutions.

Washington, April 11.—Spain's latest move to secure time, and delay action by the Government has failed. The President communicated with Congress by message to-day, and that body, it is expected, will act upon his recommendations in short order, and cause armed intervention in Cuba. There is practically no change in the tenor of the President's message as read to-day from the forecast published in these dispatches last Wednesday. Whether, in view of Mr. McKinley's own declaration, that the most enthusiastic friends of Cuba would be satisfied with the suggestions, it meets the expectations of the country remains to be seen, and final judgment will wait largely upon future developments.

What is Expected of Congress.

Washington, April 11.—There was a general feeling among Congressmen this morning that intervention resolutions, pure and simple, will be adopted without prolonged debate. House leaders are saying that if they can bring it about the entire matter will be forced to a vote before adjournment this evening, and at the ouside they believe discussion will be brought to a close in that branch of Congress not later than Tuesday evening.

Idle threats of a small minority of Senators to obstruct the resolutions in the Senate continue to be heard, but small attention is paid to them. It is only in theory that a handful of Senators can prevent prompt action in the Senate when it is desired by an overwhelming majority.

If a vote is not reached in the Senate by Tuesday or Wednesday, there will be general surprise. Untoward events of a warlike character may greatly expedite action within the limits named. Any act of war by Spain would be met by instant response from Congress.

There is now very good reason to believe that the Maine explosion will figure prominently in the resolutions which Congress may adopt. Indeed it is within the range of possibilities that the Maine disaster may yet form the basis of an open declaration of war, which would greatly simplify matters.

General Lee is expected to appear before the House Commitee on Foreign Relations on Tuesday. He is reputed to be in possession of definite information fixing the responsibility for the destruction of the Maine upon trusted Spanish officials. If the reports are true as to his knowledge of the tragedy his testimony may have startling influence upon Congressional action.

A Busy Sunday.

Washington, April 11.—The State, War and Navy Departments were closed to outsiders Sunday. Correspondents were not allowed access to the building, and news of movements of naval and army forces was carefully suppressed.

Most of the heads of departments of the War and Navy were at their desks pushing work on the plans already under way. They are ready for quick action as soon as the word comes from Congress.

Assistant Secretary Roosevelt, Commander Crowninshield, Commander Clover and Captain Barker, of the Naval War Board, held a brief conference in the Bureau of Navigation. Their plans for the bombardment of Havana are completed and the war vessels of the Navy all have their instructions.

The Mobilization Idea Abandoned.

Washington, April 11.—On the developments of the next twenty-four hours will depend the movements of the army for the next few days. The troops will remain in their present stations pending the outcome of the situation,the Twenty-fifth Infantry alone excepted, that regiment being still under orders to proceed to Chickamauga Park.

It was decided at the War Department yesterday that no movements of troops should be ordered until the situation should be such as to make it necessary to hurry them to points where they would be of immediate acservice. This entails a temporary abandonment of the plan to assemble a large military force at Chickamauga Park for drills and subsequent distribution to threatened points.

Present perfect state of preparedness of the regular troops to leave their stations will admit of their rapid concentration whenever orders shall be given, and Secretary Alger feels that it will in reality be an economy of time to allow them to remain at their posts under waiting orders. A definitely serious turn in the situation will be immediately followed by the expected orders to the points agreed upon in the plans of the department.

This plan will obviate the expense and delay occasioned by the making and breaking of temporary camps in the South, the establishment and leasing of which would consume two or three days. The concentration camps at Chickamauga, Fort McPherson and Washington, D. C., will be established immediately upon the opening of hostilities.

Forty Spaniards Flee the Country.

Burlington, Vt., April 11.—Fifteen Spaniards, employed as stone cutters at Montpelier, have left that city, accompanied by twenty-five of their countrymen from Barre. They claim that should war with Spain be declared they would be mobbed, and are taking no chances. They go to Mexico.

FLYING SQUADRON READY.

Every Ship in Commodore Schley's Fleet Now Fully Prepared to Fight at Command.

Old Point Comfort, Va., April 11.—Commodore Schley notified the Navy Department this morning that he is ready. He awaits now the word to move, although it is known that the order depends entirely on the developments in Washington, which may be such as to hold the flying squadron in Hampton Roads until it can be joined by the cruisers San Francisco and New Orleans.

Nothing remains to be done in the way of preparation on any of the ships. The bunkers are crammed full of coal, the magazines are filled with ammunition, and the storerooms with provisions.

One of the final preparations among the officers of the squadron before leaving peaceful waters was observed this afternoon upon the wharves and in the express offices at the fort. Shore clothes, cabin and wardroom bric-a-brac and personal belongings, including everything not needed in action, had been packed in trunks, chests and gripsacks, which were taken ashore in the ships' boats and awaited the evening boats and trains to be conveyed to home addresses. The officers, like the ships of the squadron, are now cleared for action.

OVERDUE CRUISERS SIGHTED.

Avoided the Usual Course That They Might Escape a Possible Attack

New York, April 11.—News of the overdue United States cruisers New Orleans and San Francisco was brought to this port to-day by the North German Lloyd steamer Aller, from Mediterranean ports.

The spot indicated is southeast of the Banks and considerably south of the usual course of ships from the English Channel. Should they continue at the speed indicated the cruisers cannot reach New York before Wednesday.

Some of the officers of the Aller thought it likely that the warships kept out of the regular steamship line from Channel ports as a precaution against pursuit by more powerful and speedy Spanish ships, in case war had broken out within a few days after they left England.

Relief for Cuban Refugees.

Washington, April 11.—First Assistant Postmaster General Heath has received a letter from Mrs. Florence V. Spain, of Ocala, Fla., respecting the condition of the Cuban refugees in the extreme lower portion of our Southern peninsula.

Mrs. Swain is the active head of the Methodist Home Mission Society in Florida. She asks that a portion of the appropriation for the succor of the reconcentrados of Cuba and the appropriation which it is expected Congress will make in the same direction shall be set aside for the relief of refugees now in Florida and daily arriving from Cuba.

We Buy an Italian Steamer.

Buenos Ayres, Argentina, via Galveston, Tex., April 11.—The United States Government has purchased the iron steamer Nord America from La Veloce Navigacion Italiano for $500,000.

The Nord America has just arrived at La Plata from Genoa. She is known as the fastest steamer now in service between Europe and Argentina.

From the correspondent in Rio Janeiro, Brazil, it is learned that the Spanish residents of San Paulo have organized a battalion of 500 men to go to Cuba in the event of war between the United States and Spain.

Army Must Be Ready.

Washington, April 11.—Orders have been wired to all the regiments east of the Rocky Mountains to hold themselves in readiness to move on Tuesday. This order does no include the troops in the Department of the East, as they are to be left under the directions of Geenral Merritt.

General Graham, commander of the Department of the Gulf, is to direct the movements of the coast defense forces, while General Miles will have charge of all the plans for the army of occupation.

Defenses Connected by Wire.

New York, April 11.—An elaborate system of intercommunication between all the fortifications in New York harbor is practically completed. The system of fire control will permit the fire of all detached batteries to be directed by the orders of a single commanding officer if necessary, thus increasing the efficiency of the fortifications by concerted action and economy of time and ammunition.

Simliar systems are nearly completed along the entire Atlantic and Gulf coast and at San Francisco.

We Have Enough Ships.

London, April 11.—Commander Brownson, of the United States Navy, who arrived here several weeks ago to purchase war vessels and munitions of war for his Govenment, sailed for New York on the steamer St. Paul.

Commander Brownson refused to be interviewed when asked if he thought the United States Government expected to buy any more ships or war supplies in Europe.

Tecumseh Starts for Key West.

Brooklyn, April 11.—Fully four thousand men worked in the Navy Yard Sunday. The work of preparing ships for sea was carried on more energetically than on any previous Sunday in the yard's history.

The Tecumseh, which started yesterday for Key West, but had to return on account of an accident, sailed this morning at 5 o'clock.

Gen. Woodford's Grip Packed.

Madrid, via Biarritz, France, April 11.—Minister Woodford is now thoroughly convinced that diplomacy is at an end and last night had completed all preparations to leave Madrid today.

A POSER FOR BLANCO.

Blanco Asks With Whom to Negotiate An Armistice.

Havana, April 11.—Captain-General Blanco has received instructions from Madrid to proclaim the edict granting an armistice. He has asked Madrid authorities with whom he shall carry on negotiations. When a reply is received from Premier Sagasta he will publish the edict.

NO ARMISTICE FOR CUBANS.

Senor Quesada Said the Envoy to Propose It Would Be Shot.

Washington, April 11.—Senor Quesada, the diplomatic representative of the Cuban insurgents in this city, said with reference to Spain's latest move:

"It is useless for us to reiterate again for the thousandth time that we will not accept an armistice and give up the advantages we naturally possess in the rainy season. We understand perfectly that Spain seeks only delay. We will have nothing but independence. As a matter of fact, an armistice is a suspension of hostilities, to be arranged by the opposing generals. General Blanco and General Gomez would have to agree to an armistice. Does any one think General Gomez would agree to suspend hostilites just as we are about to win the great boon for which our people have fought and struggled so long? Besides, who is to take the proposition for an armistice to General Gomez?

"The constitution of the Cuban republic and the civil law absolutely forbid the geenral-in-chief, under penalty of death, to entertain or receive any offer from the Spanish lines, unless it has for its basis the absolute independence of Cuba. Who is to carry the offer? The fate of Ruiz is a warning of the fate which would await such an envoy."

QUEEN MAY GO TO AUSTRIA.

Preparations to Receive Her if Forced to Leave Spain.

London, April 11.—The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says:

"How seriously the situation is understood here to be is shown by the fact that Court circles already believe that Queen Regent Christina may soon return to her native land.

"Suitable preparations are already making at the palace of her brother, Archduke Lugen."

Rioting in Madrid's Streets.

Madrid, April 11.—A revolutionary movement is threatened. El Liberal says that effective military measures were taken last evening in this city, in view of possible disturbances; that the garrison officers slept at the barracks and that the Government offices were protected with additional guards.

The Pope's Message.

Rome, April 11.—From a high Vatican authority the following has been obtained as the concluding paragraph of a telegram sent by Pope Leo XIII. on April 3 to Queen Regent Christina of Spain:

"I pray Your Majesty to suspend hostilities in Cuba and to make every sacrifice compatible with the honor and dignity of the nation to prevent a bloody war, useless and disastrous for Spain. "LEO, P. P."

The Pope has been working to bring about a peaceful settlement of the Cuban question ever since the middle of January, and in the last few weeks has occupied himself with this question to the exclusion of all others.

Spain's Troubles in the Philippines.

London, April 11.—So far from being suppressed, the rebellion in the Philippine Islands, Spain's possessions in the Pacific, seems to have gained renewed and most dangerous vigor.

According to a special cable dispatch from Hong Kong, Zebu, one of the islands and an important business centre of the hemp and sugar trade, has been captured by the rebels. Foreigners are reported to be safe, but the insurrectionists killed the Governor and other Spanish officials. Trouble in other parts of the islands is reported to be imminent.

NEW YORK HAS REACHED THE LIMIT.

It Has Incurred All the Debt Allowed by the Constitution.

New York, April 11.—Mayor Van Wyck has issued an order putting a stop to all public improvements to be paid for by bond issues, contracts for which have not already been let. The order, which was sent to all heads of departments and Commissioners, reads as follows:

I desire to call attention to the opinion recently rendered by the Corporation Counsel, holding that contract indebtedness is to be included in determining whether the city of New York has reached or exceeded the constitutional limitation against the incurring of indebtedness by cities.

The Controller is now preparing statements upon which a determination of this question can be made, and until such determination is definitely reached and announced all city officers must refrain from entering into contracts or incurring obligations in any form to be met by bonds, or the proceeds of bonds authorized or issued, or to be hereafter authorized and issued.

Directions have been sent to heads of departments to send in a list of all contracts now in progress of performance.

One of the things that many people are always "going to get" is a Piano. Somehow, while they recognize the need of having one, they keep waiting, like Micawber, for something to turn up. Meanwhile they are depriving themselves of the source of great enjoyment.

For these procrastinators we have a little book, entitled "How To Buy a Piano;" it gives pointers on Piano buying, and incidentally explains our easy payment system, and the reason of our immense popularity as Piano sellers. We will mail it free to any address.

TROLLEY MONOPLOY ENDED.

Any One May Now Manufacture or Use Trolley Patents.

New York, April 11.—In the United States Circuit Court of Appeals Judges Wallace and Shipman have handed down a decision declaring the broad Van De Poele overhead trolley patents invalid. These are the patents on which a monoply by two of the largest electric companes in the country was based.

Thus the control of the trolley business is broken, and the use of a trailing, freely mounted trolley arm pressed up against an overhead conductor is no longer vested in two companies. It is expected that this will prove of immense importance to the surface railroad interests of the country.

The Van De Poele patents have been in litigation ever since the second week following their issue. The principal patent was issued to the administrator of Van De Poele and became the property of the Thomson-Houston Electric Company, and was the main weapon of the attack of the General Electric Company against the Westinghouse Company.

This ends all monopoly in trolley patents, which the General Electric Company has rated as worth $8,000,000. They have been carried at this price in the General Electric assets for some time.

Trolley patents are now public property. Any one can manufacture or use them. Henceforth, it is expected, the contest among companies will be one of the survival of the fittest.

MISS WILLARD'S BODY CREMATED.

Done in Accordance with Her Wish, Though Secrecy Was Maintained.

Chicago, Ill., April 11.—Miss Frances E. Willard's body was cremated in Graceland Cemetery, it is stated, in accordance with her repeatedly expressed wish, and the ashes taken to Rose Hill Cemetery, where services were held. The ashes were then interred in the Willard family lot at Rose Hill.

Through the efforts of the few of Miss Willard's friends who knew of the contemplated incineration, secrecy was maintained as to the plans, and when the body was removed from the receiving vault in Rose Hill Cemetery less than a dozen persons were aware of it, and even the attendants at Graceland were in ignorance. This secrecy was observed, it was said at the Woman's Temple, to prevent the presence of a curious crowd at Graceland during the cremation.

After the cremation, the ashes were placed in an urn, said to be one of Miss Willard's collection of ceramics, and were taken away by Mss Gordon.

HEALTH CATECHISM.

To be Committed to Memory by all Dyspeptics, Invalids, Consumptives.

What is the first cause of nine-tenths of all disease?

Imperfect digestion of food.

Why does imperfect digestion cause disease of other organs?

Because blood, nerves, muscles, bone and flesh are derived from the food we eat and digest. If digestion is perfect the blood is pure, nerves and muscles strong, flesh firm. If the digestion is poor the blood is supplied from half-digested, fermenting food, irritating every nerve and organ. The result is, sooner, or later, organic disease, because every organ, being poorly nourished, the weakest gives way first, and we have liver trouble, kidney complaint, heart disease or consumption.

Is not dieting the usual and best treatment to cure indigestion?

No, because the dyspeptic has been starved long enough; what is needed is abundant nourishment, not the lack of it. The stomach and blood demand nutriment, not bran crackers.

What is the best method of cure?

Plenty of wholesome food well digested.

But how can a weak stomach digest plenty of wholesome food?

By taking with the food after each meal certain harmless remedies which are known to digest food and thus nourish the blood and rest the weak stomach.

What are these harmless remedies?

The most valuable are vegetable ferments, pure pepsin, Golden Seal and fruit salts. All of these are now combined in the form of pleasant tasting tablets sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Are these tablets superior to the various liquid preparations so called dyspepsia cures?

Most decidedly because all liquid medicines become stale with age and lose whatever good qualities they may have had originally, while the tablet retains its properties indefinitely. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be carried in the pockets, always at hand ready for use when traveling or at daily occupation. They cost but 50 cents and should be kept in every family. They keep the digestion perfect and save doctor's bills by warding off disease.

Are Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets adapted to all forms of dyspepsia.

Yes, because in all cases the trouble results from indigested, fermenting food. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cause the food to be digested before it has time to ferment

If you wish to know more about them ask your druggist for a package and try them. 4 11 13 15.

SPAIN WOULD GUY US.

Offers a Five Days Armistice if America Would Withdraw.

CUBANS SPURN THE IDEA.

In Deference to the Suggestion of the Powers and of the Pope Alleged Concessions Are Made, with the Expectation of Great Moral Effect.

Washington, April 11.—A cablegram was received from Minister Woodford late Saturday night transmitting the Queen Regent's proclamation. The full text will not be made public until the same is transmitted to Congress this afternoon in conjunction with the President's message.

From London, however, comes this dispatch:

At the last moment—when face to face with a crisis that means booming guns and clashing cutlasses—Spain makes audacious demands upon the United States.

These demands—formal and official—are three in number:

First—The United States to immediately cease giving moral and material support to the insurgents.

Second—The American squadron in the vicinity of Cuba to be withdrawn.

Third—The American squadron near the Philippine Islands to be withdrawn.

The Queen-Regent and the Cabinet unite in making these demands. If they are granted quickly, an armstice will be proclaimed—a five-day armistice, which will mean nothing to the Spaniards in Cuba, unless it be to give the butchers from Monday until Friday to sharpen up their machetes.

Captain-General Blanco has been advised of the Cabinet's decision, and is under new instructions as to the course to pursue should it be granted.

An official dispatch from Madrid—none other are permitted to get on the wire—says that if the United States decline to accept the conditions imposed by Spain, the powers will openly lend their support to Spain.

It is believed in Madrid that the presentation of President McKinley's message to Congress will be again postponed.

El Correo (official) says in a special edition:

"While America asked for an armistice, Spain refused; but to the voice of Europe and the Pope, even Spain, without dishonor, may accept the arrangement proposed in the interests of peace."

The correspondent in Madrid of a news agency here says that if the insurgents shall not have laid down their arms by the end of five days the war will be resumed, and Spain will receive the moral support of the powers.

SPAIN STATES HER TERMS.

Note from Polo Contains a Practical Ultimatum.

Washington, April 11.—Through its Minister, Senor Polo y Bernabe, the Spanish Government yesterday delivered a practical ultimatum to the United States Government, accompanying it with formal notification of the armistice to the Cubans. The points of the ultimatum are that Cuba must not have independence, but only autonomy as liberal as that of Canada, and that the Maine incident must be submitted to experts designated by the maritime powers.

The response of the United States Government will be prompt and firm. At a special Cabinet meeting last night the President read additions to his message made necessary by the new note from Spain, and they were approved.

Senor Polo's note says that the armistice has been granted without conditions, in which particular it does not agree with the information given out in Madrid. It expresses the opinion that much error is abroad in America, and emphasizes the expressions of condolences and sympathy by his Government over the disaster to the Maine.

Senor Polo delivered the note in person, and it was his first call at the State Department in ten days. The note is as follows:

"The Spanish Minister in Washington, deeply impressed by the numerous errors which seem to have obtained credit in public opinion in America in regard to the Cuban question, considers it his duty to call again the attention of the Secretary of State of the United States to the following points:

"First, Her Majesty, the Queen Regent of Spain, desirous of ending the troubles which are desolating Cuba, has commanded a supension of hostilies. General Blanco has been ordered to proclaim to-day an armistice, without conditions. He will determine later the duration and details of this armistice, so as to carry out the generous intentions of Her Majesty and the wishes of the friends of peace.

"Second, Her Majesty's Government has granted to the island of Cuba institutions as liberal as those enjoyed by Canada under the British flag. The Cuban Chambers will meet on May 4. It will be their duty and privilege to put into practice and develop these institutions. In addiion to this, Cuba is represented in the Parliament at Madrid.

"Third, public opinion in this country appears to ignore the fact that the loss of the Maine was immediately followed by official and reiterated expressions of condolence from Her Majesty the Queen, from her Government, from her Charge d'Affaires in Washington and from the authorities in Havana—all of which tended to affirm the horror which this disaster has caused to arise in Spanish hearts, as also the sympathy felt for the United States Government and navy and for the American nation.

"The Spanish Minister feels confident that he can count upon the courtesy and sense of justice of the United States Government to enlighten public opinion upon this subject.

"Fourth, as to the cause of this lamentable disaster, it resolves itself into a question of fact, which can only be settled by material proofs. The Spanish Minister reiterates the assurance that his Government is ready to submit the question to experts designated by the maritime powers, whose conclusions are in advance accepted."

LEE IN WASHINGRON.

Would Like to Command the Advance Army of Invasion.

BLANCO WOULDN'T SEE HIM

Upon Arriving at Key west General Lee Boarded the Flagship New York and Saw Captain Sampson—He Then Hurriedly Departed for the North.

Washington, April 11.—Consul-General Lee arrived at about noon from Key West, and was met at the train by Assistant Secretary of State Day, and the two were driven directly to the Executive Mansion, where they were closeted with the President for a long time. Members of the Cabinet dropped in during the interview, and were told by General Lee the true condition of affairs in Cuba.

LEAVING CUBA

Blanco's Insult and Lee's Toast: "Until We Return."

Key West, April 11.—The circumstances of Consul-General Lee's coming to Key West were almost sensational.

Instead of coming directly here from Havana, the Fern stopped at the man-of-war anchorage, and ran alongside of the flagship New York.

General Lee boarded the flagship and had a long consultation with Captain Sampson and the commanders of the various ships.

There is no doubt that he gave them certain information with reference to the defenses of Havana, and also about the Maine, which it was deemed wise should be made known now without waiting for General Lee to get to New York.

General Lee went on board the Fern at noon Saturday after having been offered a gratuitous insult by General Blanco and Dr. Congosto.

General Lee visited the Palace with British Consul Gollan, expecting to see Captain-General Blanco and offer and receive the usual courtesies.

General Blanco sent a curt refusal and said he had no wish to see General Lee again.

Dr. Congosto brought the message, delivered it verbatim, and without adding a word of regret or explanation, bowed, indicating that the interview was ended, turned on his heel and walked away.

At this time the streets were filled with excited crowds and it was feared an outbreak was imminent so General Lee went on the Fern alone and stayed till she sailed.

A correspondent on board the Fern says: Soldiers on gray Cabanas walls and sailors on the quays hissed, jeered and "whistled" the little ship out of Havana Harbor, and Spaniards everywhere were happy.

The scene was really pathetic. Half a dozen 500-pound shells would have powdered the cheesy walls of the old fortifications and the water front and the yelling, screeching, insulting crowd that filled them.

On the Fern as guests of General Lee were Vice-Consul Springer and entire force of consular clerks with principal newspaper representatives.

As the little ship swung away from the strong breeze which lashed the filthy harbor water into white foam about the twisted mass that was he Maine every officer, man and guest on the Fern looked that way and in silence a toast was drunk.

The sceen was strong. Lee with his soldier's glance burdened into recollection and prophesy looked at the Maine with a whole history in his face.

Once under way and nearing the quays the hissing of crowds began.

The men on board were mad all the way through, but no one answered. As Havana was really moving past General Lee broke into a smile. He said to a member of the party whose ancestors have been ministers: "As your father and grandfather used to sing let us sing now "This is the day we long have sought and mourned because we found it not.'"

Finally as old Morro's picturesque mass was left well astern General Lee proposed "Until we return."

He hopes to command the advance division of our troops that are landed in Cuba, and he would have them in Havana before inexperienced generals could land them on the coast.

CUBAN REFUGES IN NEW YORK.

Ward Liner Arrives from Havana with Large Passenger List.

New York, April 11.—With her cabins crowded with Cuban refugees, the Ward Line steamer Orizaba reached her dock Sunday.

awaiting her on the pier at the foot

There were more than 100 Cubans of Wall street.

The Orizaba sailed from Havana on April 6. Mr. Passo, the Havana agent of the line, who came on with her, said:

"There was great excitement in the city when we were preparing to sail, but there was no disturbance, although we feared it somewhat.

"All of the passengers on the Orizaba are Cuban refugees, many of them from the interior of the island, who had journeyed for many days in order to secure transportation to the United States.

"The Seneca will soon leave Havana with the remaining Americans, and when she sails it will be the last trip of the Ward liners until the excitement is ended."

As the Orizaba's passengers came down her gangplank and were greeted by the waiting ones on the pier it was easy to see the joy on their faces.

LIQUOR AT PUMPTOWN?

Though that famous locality bearing the poetic name of "Pumptown" is essentially a suburb of Plainfield, the question of whether or not it shall be provided with a bar dispensing alcoholic drinks has become one of the political issues in New Brunswick, since both towns are in the bailiwick of Middlesex and amenable to the power of the officials of that county. A year ago a man by the name of Smith was refused a liquor license for the wheelmen's rest at that point, but this year Mrs. Madge Vail—a Plainfield woman—is the proprietress of the hostelry and is also applying for a liquor license. The New Brunswick Times seems to be under the impression that Mrs. Vail may get the license, and thus jogs Judge Strong's memory:

The same reasons which were potent last year against a saloon there still exist. Judge Strong has frequently declared that he would not favor granting licenses for new saloons in that section. It remains to be seen if the protests of the people will be heeded by Judge Strong and if he will live up to the position he has expressed himself as taking. There should be no saloon at Pumptown.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

Many taxpayers of the city of Plainfield and also of the borough of North Plainfield, are wondering whether they are now living in the 20th century instead of winding up the 19th, as regards municipal improvements. One old mossback was reeling off a tale of woe the other day and wound up: "I wonder what old Dan Marshall and Uncle John Simpson would say if they could come back and see the bicycle cops passing through our streets.—Bound Brook State Centre.

With the election of Elston M. French as assessor for Republican North Plainfield the Democracy of the entire county may feel justly proud. Mr. French is a consistent Democrat and he has always taken an active interest in county politics. He has been a member of the Democratic county executive committee and is well known throughout Somerset county. He is a son of P. M. French, the miller, of Plainfield, who resides just over the line in this county. P. M. French is a large taxpayer in both Somerset and Union counties. The new assessor is a bachelor. He is also a very busy man, looking after two large real estate and insurance offices, besides assisting his father in the milling business.—Bound Brook State Centre.

Churches and barrooms, alike, in Plainfield, are fluttered by a Sunday closing movement. The Mayor is aiming to stop Sunday drunkenness and is succeeding better than the authorities in Passaic. The Mayor raided a number of "cider joints" and then sat as magistrate and fined the proprietors. The particular curse of Plainfield seems to be the undue consumption of hard cider. This may strike Passaic county drinkers as an evidence that the dark ages are not at an end in Plainfield yet.

The Plainfield case is an interesting parallel of ours in that the Sunday closing has been extended to all classes of trade with the result that the question of religion has arisen. There is a strong congregation of Seventh-Day Baptists in the town. Many of the members claimed and secured the privilege of observing their own Sabbath and doing business on Sunday.—Passaic News.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

That imp of good natured, harmless deviltry, "Peck's Bad Boy," will appear at Music Hall, tonight, together with his pa, his ma, his chum, and last, but by no means the least, his girl. During his stay here, he will bother his pa, make love to his girl, get his chum into scrapes, make the policeman's life a burden to him, and play tricks upon the German groceryman, until that gentleman becomes frantic. All lovers of fun should see him, and all people who have a fit of the blues should see him too, for with his able assistants that boy can knock any blues higher than the figurative kite. The bad boy is under the charge of A. M. Heath, this gentleman being his sole guardian, so appointed by Boy's original boss, Mr. George W. Peck, Governor of Wisconsin. If you want to have a good time go and see "Peck's Bad Boy;" but if you like melodrama and poetic agony, stay away, the Boy won't suit you at all. He lives for laughing purposes only, and he fills his sphere with unbounded success.

A piece over which you laugh heartily, but about which you do not have to reproach your self afterward for laughing, as it is the case with much nonsense, in the common mirth provoking plays. You look back with renewed pleasure at "My Friend From India," which will be seen at the Music Hall, tomorrow night, and find reason for your laughter, as the memory of some particular clever saying, or some unusually amusing situation presents itself. It is written for no other purpose than to amuse, and accomplishes its purpose admirably. The plot is sufficient to bring in the characters, mix them all up and straighten them out again, while affording all the possible opportunity of amusing situations, and funny misunderstandings.

FIRING A SIX POUNDER.

Six pounder rapid fire guns are conspicuous because of their numbers in the secondary batteries of Uncle Sam's warships. The Indiana, Iowa, Oregon and Massachusetts each carries twenty and the Kentucky and Kearsarge will each have sixteen.

Presbyterial Society to Meet.

The Woman's Presbyterial Society of the Elizabeth district will hold its annual meeting tomorrow in the Presbyterian church, Dunellen. Sessions will be held morning and afternoon, and a dinner will be served at noon by the women of the church. Addresses will be made by Mrs. Ewing, of India; Robert Speer, of New York, and Mrs. Gillipsie, of Elizabeth.

A Chance to Protest Publicly.

The large number of property owners who believe that the findings of the commissioners appointed under the provisions of the Martin Act to adjust taxes, are unjust, will have an opportunity to have their say and contribute to the general protest to be made against their enforcement, by attending the meeting to be held in the Board of Trade rooms Wednesday night.

New Drug Store Opening.

The new pharmacy of John Powers, at the corner of Somerset street and Craig place, will be opened Wednesday of this week. Mr. Powers has purchased the latest thing in fixtures and his store will present a handsome appearance, besides being stocked with the best of goods.

Commencing tonight, Tom Graham, the Scotch street preacher and singer, will speak and sing at the City Mission, 129 East Front street, every night this week. All are invited to hear him. There will be good music and testimonies.

Edward White.

A Neat Traveling Suit.

It is well to possess one garment suitable for shopping or traveling, made of rough woolen goods or serge. A sensible model is made of rough brown tweed. The five gore skirt measures about four yards at the hem, and is finished with three rows of narrow black braid.

The blouse jacket is arranged with a back and front, the front fastening over double breasted, the edge being scalloped and machine stitched and fastening with three large buttons. The neck is finished with a shaped collar, which is of the material lined with silk and interlined canvas.

Coat sleeve made over a fitted lining is also finished with machine stitching at the wrist. This blouse coat is intended to be worn over a shirt waist.

In Rose Pink and White.

Bodices different from the skirt are most convenient for dinners, concerts and theatre parties, especially for young people. Some of the dressiest waists shown are of crepe de chine, with shirred sleeves and a guimpe neck of white silk or velvet. Other waists have a bolero of velvet, and the majority of them have groups of fine tucks, composing the entire decoration.

A handsome model is of rose pink crepe de chine, trimmed with embroidery and cream lace and having a plastron and revers of white silk. The tight fitting sleeves have a small puff at the top. Revers of crepe de chine are edged with narrow black velvet, velvet also trimming the blouse and wrists of the sleeves.

The dainty hat of fine rose pink straw has a soft crown of white silk and is ornamented on the left side with black plumes and flowers.

Brides Now Wear Jewels.

It is noticeable at many of the smart weddings of the season that the bride no longer denies herself the wearing of any jewels. It used to be a sort of unwritten but carefully adhered-to law that a maiden on her wedding day should have no ornaments save those of her blooming youth and the typical flowers of her state. This, however, has been gradually changed, and brides appear more and more often with superb gems. It was literally a yard of pearls that a bride wore on her neck not long ago when she became a wife. A bit of sentiment about this comparatively new jewel-wearing of brides is that only the ornaments that are given by the immediate family or the groom shall be thus honored.

A Severe Law.

The Argentine Republic has imposed a tax upon celibates of either sex. These are the first two clauses of the new law: "On and after January 1st, 1898, every male from the age of twenty to eighty shall pay a tax until he marries, and shall pay it once in every month." Clause 2: "Young celibates of either sex who shall, without legitimate motive, reject the addresses of him or her (ladies may propose in Argentine) who may aspire to her or his hand, and who continue contumaciously unmarried, shall pay the sum of 500 piastres for the benefit of the young person, man or woman, who has been so refused."

Satin Much Used.

Satin, as having greater lustre than silk, is chosen for the under dress of the organdie and gauze dresses now being made for the summer. It is claimed, too, that satin will be the most suitable material for the sheath skirt. Taffeta is too light in weight and too bouffante. The satin marveilleuse once so fashionable makes the most durable of all skirts, whether for an outer or an under dress.

Lavender Perfume for Smelling Salts.

Six drams of oil of lavender aug., five drops of oil of cloves aug., ten drops of oil of rose geranium, ten drops of attar of roses, one dram and a half of essence of ambergris, two drams of essence of bergamotte, one dram and a half of essence of musk. Mix and shake well before dropping on the salts.

Heard at a Party.

"I suppose you acquired a good deal of useful information while you were on a farm last summer."

"Yes. I noticed that while black hens layed white eggs it never happens that white hens lay black eggs."—New York World.

EASTER NOVELTIES.

Some of the Designs Which Were Seen in Shop Windows.

In these days of skilled confectioners the Easter eggs, natural and artificial, have become, some of them, veritable works of art, while all exhibit the skill and ingenuity of their manufacturers in the grotesqueness, beauty or costliness of their designs. Nor will the outside of the Easter egg alone, however quaint or beautiful it may be, absorb the attention of the recipient;

but eager fingers will at once seek to solve the mystery—what woman or child is there who does not delight in mystery of the kind of the breed of the chicken the egg will hatch. And the chickens! Well, you may expect to find anything from a bed room set to an Easter bonnet in your egg this year; for watches, rings, brooches, clocks, studs, pins, gloves, sweetmeats, handkerchiefs, books, photos, and live birds are the names of but a few of the many delightful surprises which will await the egg openers.

Eggs in which presents are to be placed are made of papier-mache shells, and are usually covered with hand-painted satin. Of course where the giver is an artist, the value of the gift will be enhanced greatly if the painting is done by the same hand that sends the gift. Travelers sometimes bring in ostrich eggs to be painted and filled; and, at least, one egg of the extinct great auk has passed through the hands of the confectioner. This egg would be a gift fit for a king, empty or filled, for the rarity of the great auk's eggs makes them of very great value. But the record-breaker, in point of size and probably in costliness, was an egg made in London and sent to a South African millionaire's bride. The shell of this giant egg was composed entirely of chocolate, and was nine feet long and eighteen feet in circumference at the widest part. It required seven men to carry it. A ton of superfine confectionery, an expensive and extensive wedding trousseau and numerous wedding gifts were all packed within the egg. The bill for the sweetmeats alone was $2,500, and the whole was insured for many thousands of dollars, before being shipped for Africa.

But the quaintest and funniest of all are the Easter egg likenesses. These are made from hen's eggs. The contents are first blown out and the shells weighted or balanced with fine shot, in such a way that they will always stand on end. An artist now takes the eggs and judges from their shapes what "character" to give each one. Then, with brush and paint, he proceeds to transform the eggs into ludicrous caricatures of, it may be, Mr. Gladstone, Grover Cleveland, Cecil Rhodes, McKinley or other notable characters. Now the funny thing is the behavior of these egg-men. Knock Grover Cleveland down; and, with his usual obstinacy, up he bobs ready for another hit. Push Gladstone over; and the Grand Old Fellow jumps up so quickly and frowns so fiercely, that one is quite sure he must have seen a Turk. Even McKinley cannot be downed; and the dude swaggers about furiously, and the clown rolls and tumbles around in a way to make the heart glad and the lips laugh.

THE TURK AND THE IRISHMAN.

Paddy Didn't Wait for Ceremony or Prayers.

Among the Turks employed on the line of the first Turkish railway was an old man who had a son who was a soldier in one of the regiments in the garrison at Rustchuk, whom he had not seen for a good many months. Each day the regular through train arrived and left, but the old Turk never got the chance to run up to Rustchuk to see his son, for the train just came and went at the very moment when he was engaged at his midday prayer.

"Why don't you get leave, and go to see him?" said the practical Irishman.

How can I?" replied the old man. "Doesn't the train come in and go away while I am at prayers? Allah wills it that I should not see him."

And so the time continued to pass, the old man telling Flynn how his heart was weary to see his son. It happened one day that, as the train drew up at the station, the old man was engaged at his devotions on his prayer carpet close to the line. An empty truck with the door run back had stopped just opposite where he was on his knees and his forehead to the ground, and the Irishman came along. Seized by a sudden inspiration, he caught up the old Turk, prayer carpet and all, and landed him in the truck just as the train moved off. Two days after the old man came back by the down train, his face beaming with pleasure.

"Ah, my friend," he said, as he saw Flynn standing on the platform, "only for you I should never have seen my son. It must have been Allah who put it into your heart to throw me into the train. May he reward you for it."—Harper's Round Table.

Notice to the Public in General.

The American people shall have no need of the CHINAMAN in the future if every American Laundryman will supply the proper kind of work. Try us and be convinced that we are up-to date, and that you would rather have AMERICANS by all odds to serve you. Think of the terrible odor that comes from a Chinese Laundry, and yet one half of the people don't know what causes it. Here it is in a Nut Shell. Could you for instance turn out first-class laundry in a room 12x20 where there is three or four living. Think of your laundry in a place of this kind, where they do cooking, smoke their opium and also sleep in same apartment. And stil what is more horrible is that all your clothes are sprinkled from the mouth. Think twice before you speak and have an American citizen to do your laundry by all odds.

NEW YORK LETTER.

The rumor that Mrs. Henry Sloane, tired of vegetable parties and other like diversions, was going to give society a tubbing in real water, is only the exposition of another fad of the millionaires. Just now our fancy runs to bathrooms, and the more gorgeous and elaborate this one apartment in a house can be made, the more are we satisfied.

There is quite a rivalry in these apartments, and the Vanderbilts, Sloanes, Whitneys and the others are at present waging a fierce bathroom war.

William C. Whitney has ordered a $15,000 bathroom for his new house, and he has to have besides a swimming pool and I hear a Russo-Turkish establishment complete with attendants.

In fact, it is the Russian bath which is the fashionable craze just at present, and it is in this form that the parties are to take place.

Every one who is having a large house built is having it fitted up with the complete apparatus for such establishments and others are instantly having them added to their houses.

Mrs. Ogden Mills, who has already a bar and bartender at her mansion, will add the Turkish bath and swimming pool arrangement very shortly, before she sails for Europe.

It is in these private bath drawing-rooms where the teas and dances will be given. The fixtures are of silver and the basin of the pool marble and onyx.

Prize Sermons.

One of the most interesting events in journalism is Rev. Dr. Hepworth's return from his mission to the Orient. He has within little more than six months traveled nearly nine thousand miles and made important investigations, all of which has been done under great exposure and self-denial. One of the best results of this tour is the tribute he pays to the American missionaries as faithful and earnest and also successful laborers. This testimony from so careful and so capable an observer is of the highest value. During his return voyage Hepworth had time to write a number of sermons for the Herald, the first of which appeared last Sunday. During his absence the Herald published sermons sent in to compete for the prize, but the number that thus appeared is very small compared with the competitors. It is said that more than a thousand were received.

Rev. Richard G. Woodbridge, of the Congregational Church of Middleboro, Mass., was awarded the prize for a sermon upon the power of gentleness. The prize is $1,000, and as it is to be devoted to charity the question arises, What better charity can there be than a clergyman's family? Yes, charity begins at home, and the Herald must expect the winner to render this precept practical.

Public Library Attendance.

The number of readers for the last reported month at the Astor Library was 11,255, and the number of books called for was 33,367. Any one can call for a book, and if he need any assistance in making an investigation the librarian will do all in his power. The liberty allowed the public is so great that it affords opportunity for theft, and for this reason all who are detected are arrested and if possible punished. No one is allowed to take any package out of the library, a watchman being stationed near the door, and by the same rule no one is allowed to carry any package inside. The watchman takes it, giving a check, and thus no visitor has any excuse for bringing out what might be a book, but the latter is often concealed under an overcoat. The librarian can easily see the turn of public sentiment by the book demand. There was for instance a rush for works on Alaska as soon as the gold fever broke out, and then the Cuban troubles brought a crowd of readers on that subject, many in both cases being members of the press. Genealogy and heraldry are now very popular, and there are many reading up on these subjects. Occasionally one of the working classes wishes to consult some volume on mechanics, and then there is the usual circle of light literature amateurs, who devour fiction as hungry people devour food in a restaurant. The Astor is now preparing for the consolidation by sending some of the books to the Lenox.

The Astor-Lenox-Tilden Library will have the services of Miss Adelaine Hasse, who has won a reputation in the specialty of public documents. She began in the Los Angeles library, and was thence appointed to the Washington bureau of public documents, where diligence and accuracy were such marked characteristics that she will be called to the grand consolidated library as soon as it is in operation.

Hurst Buys Dana's Curios.

Yellow Journal Hearst is displaying much taste in ceramics, and was one of the most active bidders at the Dana sale. His purchases were limited to choice articles, and the very first was a plate that cost him $800. He then continued to knock down rarities, and in this manner the gems pass from one editor to another. Dana's collection of ceramics displayed such taste that it attracted a large attendance, and the proceeds of the sale are more than $115,000—a large sum for such fancies, but when a man is under the power of taste there is no limit except the extent of his purse. One of the vases brought $4,000 and another $5,000. Dana was not the only editor that loved ceramics. William C. Prime, former of the Journal of Commerce, had the same taste and published a book on the subject. "Ceramics"" is rather a modern term, and Dana in the first edition of Appleton's Cyclopedia, of which he was the chief editor, only mentions it once in an article on "Pottery." The latter, however, has a rather vulgar sound, and hence "ceramics" has become fashionable. CYRUS THORP.

THE EASTER FESTIVITIES

The church decorations were very elaborate and were arranged by Miss Ella Serrell and Miss Margaret Harold. The flowers, consisting of Easter lilies, roses and greens, were from the conservatories of C. W. McCutchen and L. W. Serrell.

The music was under the direction of C. W McCutchen, and Howard Case presided at the organ. In the afternoon Mrs. B. T. Barnes presided at the piano and P. Ludwig Conde played the violin.

The musical programme in the morning consisted of anthems by the regular choir, with Miss Harris, soprano; Mrs. Ward, contralto; G. W. Smith, tenor; William Holmes, basso, as a quartette.

In the afternoon the Sunday-school scholars from the First Baptist church, Mt. Olive Baptist church and East Third Street Mission joined in the service and rendered carols. The instrumental selections by P. Ludwig Conde, Mrs. Barnes and Howard Case on the violin, piano and organ were features. A pleasing number on the programme was the selection, "God's Garden on Easter Day," by Miss Addie Parker Jackson.

The primary department took part in the exercises by singing a pretty carol. An interesting portion of the programme were the annual reports given of the various schools. The report of the home school was ready for the last time by Charles Smith. The total receipts during the year were $2,389.94 and expenditures $2,133 75, leaving a balance of $256.19.

The next report was presented by M. C. Dobbins, superintendent of the Mt. Olive school. This report shows an enrollment of 208 scholars and 14 teachers, with an average attendance of 105 scholars and 11 teachers.

The last report was for the East Third Street mission by the superintendent, L. W. Randolph. This report showed an enrollment of 143 in the school and the receipts to be $117.69, leaving a balance of $56 80.

Another number on the programme was a recitation by Miss Mary Cole, of the Mt. Olive church. There was also a selection by a quartette from the choir and pretty solos by Miss Harris and Mrs. Ward.

ALL SOULS CHURCH.

All Souls church celebrated the most interesting Easter festival which has ever come to this parish. The platform about the pulpit was converted into a bower of palms, Easter lilies, pots of azalias and marguerites. The choir sang "He is Risen," in a spirited manner. After the responsive reading, prayer and Scripture lesson, seven young people presented themselves before the pastor for confirmation. All but one had been baptized as infants and all were consecrated anew to the religious life. The names of the young people are Mary Byrd Wells, Stephen Haff, Henry Claflin Wells, Laura Elizabeth Osgood, Grace Littlefield Osgood, Elmer Chapin Walker and Dorthea Wells.

After they had been welcomed to the fellowship of the church the choir sang, 'Day of wonder, day of gladness." The choir was augmented for the occasion by Mr. Augustus Rose, baritone, who sang gloriously during the collection of the offertory. Mr. Rose is recently from Sydney, Australia, and brings to America a wonderful voice. The pastor preached a hopeful sermon on "Immortality" from Titus 1:2.

In the Sunday-school after Easter carols and a brief address by the pastor, Rev. A. C. Nickerson, each child was given a potted plant and with it an Easter lesson by Mrs. Joseph O. Osgood. Altogether it was a gala day for All Souls parish. The decorations owed their good taste to Miss Carrie Haviland.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH.

In striking contrast to the sombre Lenten aspect was the appearance of the interior of St. Mary's church yesterday in honor of the resurrection of the Saviour. The high altar was tastefully decorated with a profusion of Easter and calla lilies, palms and cut flowers, while inside the sanctuary were also palms and lilies. A brilliantly lighted crystal cross shone forth from the altar, and above all were the words in jets of gas: "He is Risen; Alleluia."

As usual, four services were held, the high mass taking place at 10:30, at which the assistant pastor, Father McCormick, was the celebrant, and the pastor, Father Smyth, preached a sermon suitable to the day. During his remarks he referred to the war-cloud hanging over our country, and hoped it might soon be dispelled; that as Christ appeared to His apostles and said to them "Peace be to you," he urged his hearers to pray for peace, with the hope that the impending crisis might be averted.

The singing at this mass was very fine, the regular choir being augmented by a full chorus, and also by orchestral accompaniment.

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH.

There was a large attendance at the morning service and all seemed to thoroughly enjoy their new beautiful church home, the flowers, the singing and the excellent discourse of Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph.D., the pastor, from the text. "If a man die, shall he live again." In addition to the excellent quartette choir of the church, E. C. Martin, of Putnam avenue, assisted very materially in making the Easter music the success it was. Mr. Martin sang a duet with Miss Krymer, and a solo, "The Resurrection," during the offertory, both of which were particularly enjoyable.

A. L. Titsworth, the organist, is delighted with the recently-built pipe organ and the music he brought out of it with his playing was a delight to all. He is also to be congratulated upon the proficiency of the singing of the choir of the church, of which he is instructor.

The display of flowers, though not large, was all that could be wished for, and the ladies who spent many hours to produce the beautiful effect realized, are deserving of much credit. They were Mrs. E. H. Bird, Mrs. W. A. Woodruff, of the Ladies' Christian Work Society, assisted by two members of the Endeavor Society of the church, the Misses Bessie Martin and Maude VanDyke.

At the evening service, which was in charge of the Sunday-school, the church was again filled with an appreciative audience, and in addition to the excellent singing by a large chorus choir, the primary department of the school rendered the following programme greatly to their credit and that of their superintendent, Mrs. J. M. Tier.

Recitation, "Bring Lilies for Easter Day," Luella Day; "The Sermon of the Bells," Edmund Templen, Frank Miner, Chrissie Mobus Arthur Williams; "Little Daffodils," Delia Duffor, Mildred Caleen, Laura Bodine, Flossie Yaeger, Emily Templen, Hermina Leithauser, (song, "Blue Bells and Lilly Bells;") recitation, "Earth's Awakening," Pansy Luckey; "Fairy Bells," Elsie Tier; Easter carol, Ira Vail, Eddie Taylor, Georgie Dobbs, Raymond Martin, Willie Luckey, Elmer Bohan; "How They Know," Ida May Tier, Bessie Randall; "Easter Keys," Myra Dunavan, Lizzie Hapenny, Etta Trembly, Rose Hook, Mabel Scribner, Hazel VanSyckle, Edith Caleen, song. "Lilly Bells Ring;" "Angels of the Resurrection," Sadie Hyler, Lulu Vail, Anna Bodine, Gussie Kreitling, Mary Neal, Lena Bohan, Elsie Dunavan, Minnie Nischwitz. Miss Kreitling accompanied the little folks singing on the parlor organ.

At this service a duet was sung by E. C. Martin and Miss Krymer which was greatly enjoyed, as was also a solo by Mr. Martin. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Schenck, made a short address of congratulation to the school for their proficiency and thanked all who had in any way helped to make the exercises of the day so successful. Assistant Superintendent Fred E. Smith also spoke words of encouragement to the school and those present. Altogether, Easter was a happy day for the people of Trinity Reformed church.

CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER.

The Easter festival of the Sunday-school of the Church of the Redeemer was held yesterday afterooon. The services consisted of prayers and the singing of carols and the awarding of prizes. A handsome Bible and Bible dictionary being the prize offered to the young men's Bible class. It was awarded to George H. Dupee he having the highest average in his class. A prize was also offered to the scholar who could best recite the catechism and as the following four were all perfect each received a handsome book: The Misses Edna Moore, Dora Waring, Mai Faber and George H. Dupee. After the awarding of prizes Easter eggs (filled with candy) were distributed to the children. A collection was taken up amounting to $50 and that with the collection of the morning church services made a total of $800 for the day, all of which was for the building fund.

HOLY CROSS CHURCH.

Special Easter services were held in the Holy Cross P. E. church yesterday morning and afternoon. The pastor, Rev. T. Logan Murphy, preached an Easter sermon in the morning. The organist, George Hosking, had a very elaborate musical programme prepared for the services which was well rendered by the trained choirister choir. The children's services were held in the afternoon. The chancel was handsomely decorated with Easter lillies. The other floral decorations were very beautiful.

A SUNDAY WEDDING.

Miss Margie McComas Becomes the Wife of William McBeth.

Yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs Martin L. McComas, 223 Prescott place, took place the marriage of their daughter, Miss Maggie McComas, to William McBeth. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends by Rev. G. Kennedy Newell, pastor of Hope chapel.

The best man was Robert McBeth, brother of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. McComas, parents of the bride, also stood up with the party. A wedding supper followed congratulations, and Mr. and Mrs. McBeth left on the 5:32 train for Telodo, O., the former home of the groom. On their return they will reside in this city, where the groom is employed as a machinist. Many useful and handsome gifts were received from relatives and friends, and the newly-wedded couple started on life's journey together with all the signs for prosperity and happiness.

ACCIDENTS ON THE ROAD.

A Colored Cyclist Fell and a Horse Choked so That He Was Thrown.

Park avenue looked like a second Coney Island cycle path yesterday afternoon. Vehicles, wheelmen and pedestrians were out bound to or from Plainfield. The destination of some was the gypsy encampment at Avon Park but the army of cyclist was largely made up of those out for a spin on the county road with no particular object aside from an afternoon ride. Many of the fast horses from Plainfield and vicinity were out and lively brushes were the order of the afternoon until the shower came up.

Caesar Taylor, a colored man in the employ of Boice, Bunyon & Co., of this city, was out on his Eldridge racer during the afternoon. He had a little spurt with Richard Higgins. They passed the gypsy encampment at full speed. The street was crowded with vehicles and wheelmen. In trying to avoid them Taylor fell and cut his face badly. He was badly bruised.

The black trotter belonging to N. B. Smalley, of Somerset street, met with an accident yesterday afternoon while its owner was speeding it along Park avenue. Smalley was going at full speed and attempted to pull up to avoid the crowd around the gypsy encampment. The horse suddenly lost all control of itself and plunged heavily on the roadway, bleeding at the nostrils. It was badly cut on the side and shoulders. It is supposed that the animal was partially strangled by the throat latch and burst a blood vessel.

He Imposes on Clergymen.

Sergeant Kiely has been notified by the police department of the District of Columbia to look out for an impostor who is traveling about this part of the country. He usually applies to clergymen, chiefly Presbyterian ones, representing himself to be the relative of a clergyman in a distant city. He claims to be an electrician out of work. He is about twenty-eight years old, short and stout build, brown hair, short moustache, short feet, very high instep, rolls his eyes while talking.

Classis Open to Public.

They meet at 10 o'clock in the morning and 2 o'clock in the afternoon. A dinner will be served in the lecture room of the church by the ladies of the Christian Work Society.

SABBATH IS FOR THE GOOD OF HUMANITY.

An Observer of Sunday Writes His Side of the Question.

IS A PROMINENT BAPTIST.

LEMUEL W. SERRELL TAKES ISSUES WITH DR. LEWIS.

He Admits That the Courts Cannot Make a Man Religious, But Says That Inasmuch as the Present City Ordinance was Framed for the Seventh-Day Baptists' Benefit it is Not Consistent for Them to be Finding Fault With the Very Provision Designed to Help Them—Sabbath Should be Observed.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—As the observance of rest day has two sides, and our Seventh-day friends have frequently presented their side, an opposite view may be considered.

As our government is constituted, a man's religion or his personal conscience cannot be considered by the courts, neither can religious law take the place of civil law. Formerly Rome arrogated control of marriages. This is now regarded as under the civil laws in almost all civilized countries. The Mormons exalted religious law above civil law in support of polygamy and failed. In like manner every contention based simply on religion or conscience must fail; and while the religion of Jesus Christ is precious to me, I cannot shut my eyes to the fact that persecution, Mormonism, inquisition, martyrdom and sad and numberless iniquities have been perpetrated in the name of religion.

The United States Supreme Court laid down the true and reasonable rule that no account was to be taken by the law of a man's religion or his conscience in relation to the observance of Sunday, that the States had a right to enact laws concerning hours of labor; and our friends appear to know they have no standing under the laws of the land, hence they are always crying out religious persecution or for the religious observance of a Sabbath.

So far as making a man good or religious by law, the effort has been and always will be an utter failure. Mahomet and Rome have tried it and failed. Our land should never try it, but our laws can say whether shops should be open or closed on certain days, and they should be enforced exactly for the same reason as the laws against polygamy or gambling, viz: for the public good.

I know nothing of the merits of the recent case of Carbone, but the city ordinance of 1883 appears all right in the first part of the section that requires the closing of places of business on Sunday, but the latter part, made solely out of consideration to those who observe Saturday, probably should not have said anything about religion; however, is it either consistent or reasonable for these very persons to back up a violation of the law by finding fault with a provision that was put in for their own benefit, and which, if carried out, would work no hardship to them?

The Sabbath was intended to be a blessed rest day for the good of humanity. Let it be so observed. The majority of Christendom observes the first day in recognition of the resurrection of Jesus Christ who came to make all things new and to bring life and immortality to light. We need not quarrel with those who observe Saturday for the antiquated reason assigned to Israel of old, that Jehovah rested on the seventh day. Very few will be so foolish as to contend now that God is resting, and so they, too, must rest on the seventh day instead of the first. The letter kills, but the spirit makes alive.

SAYS HE HAD OLEOMARGARINE.

Grocer H. A. Weber is Being Prosecuted by State Dairy Commissioner.

George W. McGuire, State dairy commissioner, has begun proceedings in Justice Nash's court against Herman A. Weber, who keeps a grocery on Liberty street. McGuire claims that Weber, February 15th, the date of the visit of the dairy inspector to his store, had oleomargarine in his store in a tub not specially marked, which is against the State law. He has therefore begun suit for $100, the amount of the fine for such an offense. The summons was served this morning by Constable Moffett and is returnable April 16th.

NOW FOR A NEW TROPHY

PARK CLUB WON FIRST MATCH IN NEW SERIES OF WHIST GAMES.

Opponents Were the Roseville Players, Who Played a Hard Game and Did Not Give Up Till the End of the Contest.

The Park Club won its first match for the new trophy of the New Jersey Whist Association last evening, by defeating the team from the Roseville Club. While the Parks were in the lead from the start, their opponents played a hard game and never gave up hope until the finish.

The game was played in the Park's clubhouse on Washington avenue. The regular team composed of Messrs. Downs, Hurd, Hegeman and Hoffman, represented the Roseville Club. The famous Park Club four was on hand. As usual, it was composed of Messrs. McCutchen, Townsend, Rogers and Howell. Senator C. A. Reed acted as referee of the match.

The Parks started in with a careful game and gained a decided lead in the first round. The score stood 6 to 1 in their favor. The visitors braced up in the second round and the Parks only won out by one point, the score being 6 to 5. In the last round both teams stubbornly contested every point. The Parks won it 4 to 2, making a total score in their favor of of 16 to 8.

EPISCOPALIANS ELECT.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETINGS HELD LAST EVENING.

Grace Church Collected and Expended Over $13,000—Talk of Changing Time of Election—Election in Three Churches

The annual Parish meeting of Grace P. E. church was held last evening. Rev. Dr. Rodman, rector of the church, called the meeting to order and G. S. Clay was appointed secretary. The treasurer's report was presented and showed the total receipts during the year to be $13,232 and the expenditures $13,029, leaving a balance on hand of $203. This report is considered to be one of the best presented in some time.

The election of various church officers resulted as follows: Wardens, D. C. Ivins, Thomas Minford; vestrymen, C. C. Howard, G. S. Coe, N. P. Rogers, L. G. Timpson, E. H. Booth, W. T. Gough and M. S. Ackerman: delegates to Diocean convention, J. B. Dumont, G. S. Clay, R. H. Depew; alternates, L. G. Timpson, M. S. Ackerman, G. M. Randall.

The subject of changing the time of holding the Parish meeting from Easter to January was introduced and discussed at some length. The general opinion seemed to be that the change would be preferable, and it stated that in five dioceses in New York the change had been made. Owing to the fact that there was not a certified copy of the law giving the power for such a change in the hands of the members, the matter was laid over until another meeting. The change will undoubted be made at an early date. The reason given for the change is that it would seem to be more appropriate to hold the meeting at the beginning of the year than three months later.

SCOTCH PREACHER'S REVIVAL.

Evangelism of an Interesting Kind at the City Mission.

The first of the Graham revival meetings was held last night and the Scotch evangelist spoke to an audience that nearly filled the City Mission, taking as his subject "And there was no room in the inn."

His preaching abounded with personal experience and narratives of men whom he had met in his travels. Tonight he speaks at the same place and extra seating capacity will be prepared so that all may be comfortably seated.

Cut His Head on the Curb.

Fred Perrine, son of Henry Perrine, of Park place, fell last Saturday evening and cut his head open by striking a curb stone. Mr. Perrine was chasing after some boys, with whom he was fooling, and he tripped over a piece of wire causing him to fall. He was picked up unconscious and taken to G. H. VanNest's butcher shop, on Richmond street, where he is employed. Later he was taken home and Dr. Clawson was called to sew up the cut. Today Perrine is doing very well.

Chief Grant to Recuperate His Health.

Mayor Fisk has very generously granted Chief George W. Grant a vacation of ten days. Plainfield's chief guardian of the peace deserves the time off, and he will no doubt be better fitted for duty when he returns, as recent illness has materially injured his health. In his absence Sergeant Kiely will be acting chief and Roundsman Frederickson will be acting-sergeant.

LEHIGH OFFICIAL WILL RESIDE HERE.

Charles H. Lee to Become a Resident of Plainfield.

WILL MOVE MAY FIRST.

HAS LEASED F. A. HERRING'S EAST NINTH STREET HOME.

Was Especially Anxious About the School Facilities, and When Convinced That They Were Good He Decided to Take Up His Residence in Plainfield—Some People Think That it Presages the Transfers of the Lehigh Valley General Officers From Philadelphia to Either Newark or New York in a Short Time.

Already the home of many men high in the business world, Plainfield is to be further honored by the residence of an official of one of the biggest railway systems in the country—Charles H. Lee, of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company.

For several years Mr. Lee has resided in Philadelphia where the main offices of the Lehigh system are located, but sometime ago he decided to make a change and remove his family into one of the suburban towns contigious to New York. He had frequently heard of Plainfield as a beautiful city of homes, and, in fact, knew something of its general character by reason of the residence of men here with whom he came into business contact, and from whom he gleaned further information about its advantages. It was natural that he should look more favorably upon the Eldorado of the east than any other place in the metropolitan section.

A short time ago the editor of The Press received a letter from one of the officials of the Lehigh system asking for information considering the city as a residental place, and especially of the educational institutions, who wrote at the suggestion of Mr. Lee. The latter has two beautiful, charming daughters and he was anxious that they should have the best of school instruction.

The enquiry was answered fully, and it is evident that a confirmation in Mr. Lee's mind as to the excellency of the schools was the only thing wanting to induce him to move to this city. The announcement is now made public that Mr. Lee has leased F. O. Herring's beautiful residence on East Ninth street for a term of years, and will take possession the first of May. The deal was made through the agency of E. C. Mulford & Son, of North avenue

The removal of Mr. Lee to Plainfield has an important business aspect to it, however, that is of great interest in this section. It will be remembered that sometime ago there was a report that the Lehigh Valley officials were seriously contemplating the removal of their general offices from Philadelphia to either New York or Newark. By some it is believed that Mr. Lee's removal to this city, which is closely connected with either one of the two big cities, precedes the removal of the Lehigh offices from the Quaker city.

Just how true such an assumption is will be determined in the future.

Effects of a Dog Bite.

Samuel W. Baxter, of 1442 South aveue, is seriously ill at his home. Several months ago he was bitten by a dog and the effects of the bite are now being felt. Just how the injury will result is difficult to tell at present, but is hoped that it will not be serious. Members of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., are now sitting up with him each night, and every effort to effect a recovery through medical skill is being made.

Back to His Old Pastorate.

Rev. George Angleman, of Junction, who formerly resided in this city, was returned to the M. E. church at the above place by the conference. He was transferred from the Kansas district, of which he was a member, to the Elizabeth district. He and his wife will return to Junction this week.

Two Trotters Perish in a Fire.

A large barn on the farm of John Stearns, in Union township, was destroyed by fire Sunday evening, with its contents. Two valuable trotting horses perished in the flames. A quantity of hay and grain and a lot of farming implements were consumed.

Good Work of Y. M. C. A.

Four young men have during the past two days taken positions in Plainfield found through the instrumentality of the Y. M. C. A. A fifth man was directed to a position that he secured for a week that may result in permanent work.

—Minerva Temple, Rathbone Sisters, will meet this evening and receive two propositions.

DEBATE, DELAY.

NOTHING DEFINITE IN CONGRESS YET.

Several Resolutions Introduced But Not Acted On—Foreign Relation Committee Aggressive.

SPECIALS TO THE DAILY PRESS.

Washington, April 12.—Although there are all sorts of rumors current in legislative circles here regarding the policy of the present administration, the general belief seems that the course proposed by the administration means plenty of debate and delay.

Washington, April 12.—The President's message of yesterday is being generally discussed by the Senators today. Senator Allen introduced a resolution this morning declaring war against Spain. Senator Pasco also introduced one authorizing the President to extend aid to the destitute Americans who were driven from Cuba. Senator Mason delivered a lengthy speech in favor of the recognition of the Cuban republic.

There was a deadlock in the House committee on foreign affairs this morning over the strength of the resolutions to be introduced.

The Republican majority held a caucus this morning but could not agree. A meeting of the committee was called for this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The committee has now suddenly reassembled and there is a rumor that an agreement has been reached on a resolution recommending intervention by the President and the recognition of the independence of the Cuban Republic.

The Senate committee on foreign affairs is deliberating regarding the degree of activity with which to inspire their resolutions. There is not a member for any course short of an immediate armed intervention, while the majority are reported to favor an outright declaration of war.

The Senate committe is said to be awaiting the arrival of Consul General Lee before making its report.

In the Senate today three warlike resolutions were introduced. Senator Lindsay, Democrat, of Kentucky, offered one to the effect that the U. S. army and navy co-operate with Gen. Gomez and his army and that the independence of the Cuban Government be recognized. The resolution was laid on the table.

Senator Wilson, Republican, of Washington, introduced a resolution recognizing the independence of Cuba and authorizing the establishment of a Republican independent form of government there. The President is empowered to take the army and navy to carry out the resolution if necessary.

Senator Allen's resolution was the most important. It acknowledges that war exists between the United States and Spain. It recognizes the independence of Cuba. The President is instructed to take steps to put an end to the conflict in Cuba. This resolution was laid on the table.

When Consul General Lee arrives in Washington at 3 o'clock or soon after, he will go immediately before the President and the committee of foreign affairs of both houses. There is great interest in what he will have to say.

FLAMES LICKED UP THE SPANISH EFFIGY.

Butcher Weyler's Straw Image Incinerated Last Night.

A GREAT RUMPUS WAS MADE

TIN HORNS AND DRUMS ADDED TO THE CENERAL DIN.

Young Patriots Marched the Streets, Parading the Effigy of the Spaniard Amid Cat Calls and Sneers—"Down With the Spaniards" Was the Slogan of the Young Men—The Effigy Burned in a Vacant Lot at Somerset Street and Greenbrook Road—The Police Made No Attempt at All to Stop the Burning.

The attempts of a number of patriotic young men of the city and borough to burn in effigy Gen. Weyler, was accomplished last evening in the borough. About one week ago a similar attempt was made in this city without success, because the police broke the affair up through a misunderstanding.

The young men were not discouraged, however, and last evening some fifty of them gathered together with the straw dummy. They were well provided with tin horns and drums. During the fore part of the evening they gave vent to their feelings in a parade through the principal streets of the borough. The sound of the horns and drums attracted the attention of a number of young men who were led to join in the festivities. The dead march was played and cries of "Burn the Spaniards!" were often heard from the crowd of men and boys.

When the parade passed through Somerset street cheers were given on all sides and there was much excitement. The dummy was carried by two young men in the crowd and every glance at the stuffed image called forth jeers and sneers. When the crowd reached the corner of Somerset street and Craig place they turned about and marched to the corner of Greenbrook road and Somerset street, where they burned the effigy in a vacant lot.

While the dummy was being consumed the sounds from the horns and drums could be heard a great distance, while the yells and cat calls added much to the general out burst of enthusiasm. The police in the borough made no attempt to stop the demonstration and the young men were allowed to carry out their programme unmolested.

ICE WAR DECLARED.

Competition Among Local Dealers Puts the Price Down.

A state of war now exists among the local ice dealers. Monday last the Plainfield Ice and Cold Storage Company made a cut in price of 10 cents per 100 pounds, which brought the ice to families down to 30 cents per 100 pounds.

Today, McDonough Brothers, of 222 Madison avenue, not only meets the cut but puts the price at 25 cents per 100 to families who use small quantities and 20 cents per 100 to families using 400 pounds or more a week.

Two years ago when McDonough Brothers first began to sell ice in Plainfield the price was 50 cents per 100. It was then thought ice could not be sold any cheaper without a loss, several having tried it and failed or sold out to the combine. Mc Donough Brothers placed the price at 35 cents per 100, and since then a healthful competition has been maintained, which accounts for the present low price.

A Song Service.

Next Friday evening the Christian Endeavor Society of the Park Avenue Baptist church will hold a "Fanny Crosby song service," which will be in charge of H. J. Martin. Thomas Cuming and others will sing solos. Each person attending will announce their favorite hymn and tell how it has helped them.

Horse Killed Stepping on Live Wire.

A valuable pacing mare belonging to Isaac Lambert was killed by an electric shock from a live wire in Westfield Sunday evening. A severe storm which passed over the town broke the wire, and in falling the end struck the animal, killing it instantly.

Off for the Klondike.

S. C. Flower, Samuel Clouston and Edward Leonard, of this city, started yesterday for the Klondike. The party went by the way of the Lehigh Valley Railroad to Buffalo. They have not yet made up their minds as to where they will locate in the Klondike region or just what they will do.

Dr. Matthewson, of this city, is in Somerville today on business.

URGING LODGE INTEREST

PRIZES OFFERED TO INCREASE ROYAL ARCANUM MEMBERSHIP.

Regent Bromfield Anxious to See the Council Grow and He Offered Three Valuable Premiums for the Best Work.

The members of Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, enjoyed their final entertainment for the present season last evening and it was a great success. Dr. W. Kempton Browning and Wm. Augustus Brett were received into membership, after which Orator Baker announced that Regent Bromfield would award three prizes. First, for the member securing the largest number of applications for membership during the year of 1898, a gramaphone and records, value $30; second, for the member securing the next largest number, a very handsome gold-mounted Waterman Ideal fountain-pen, value $5; third prize to be decided upon later, for the person securing the next largest number of applications.

The balance of the evening was then given up to the "Black Diamonds," in charge of Edward Martin. The colored men entertained the members of the Council with singing, piano selections, clog dancing, etc. They captured the audience by storm. After this part of the entertainment the committee in charge served refreshments and the affair closed at a late hour. Every member voted that the entertainment was the best ever given.

BOOKS FOR MUSIC LOVERS

A NEW DEPAPTMENT COMPLETED IN THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Over 100 Books of Interest to Musician, Which are in the Circulating Department—To be Grouped Together.

During the past year the Public Library has been building up its department of music, and its collection now numbers over 100 volumns of the best books on this subject. Nearly all of these are in the circulating department They include books relating to the history of the subject, lives of musicians, the more recent as well as the "old masters," books in the voice, musical instruments, various forms of musical composition on the oratorio, cantata, symphony, opera etc., other books relating to the theory of music, harmony, counterpoint, etc., as well as lighter books of musical essays and criticism A few song collections with music and musical stories are also of the number. The beginners in music, as well as the more advanced student will find books of interest and value. For one week only, beginning tomorrow, all the books on this subject will be grouped by themselves for convenience of inspection by those interested. The books will not be withheld from circulation during that time, and consequently those coming early in the week will have a better opportunity of examining the collection. All these books are listed in the card catalogue, both under the authors names and under the subjects of which they treat, and on these cards is a critical estimate of each book made by the well known authority in musical matter, H. E. Okrehbiel, who is the musical editor of the N. Y. Tribune. By consulting these cards the reader will be greatly aided in determining what books are best to read on any division of the subject.

COLLEGE COMEDY FOR PLAINFIELD SOCIETY.

Amherst Students Made a Great Hit Last Night.

ACTED ON CASINO STAGE.

PLAINFIELD YOUNG MAN IMPERSONATED A WINSOME GIRL.

"All the Comforts of Home" Presented in a Jolly Manner, and Witnessed by a Large Audience of Cultured People—First of the Post Lenten Society Events—Fred Goddard in a Feminine Role Was pleasing to His Many Friends, Who Applauded His Histrionic Efforts—Story of the Comedy.

It was a sympathetic audience that assembled in the Casino of the Union County Country Club last evening prepared to do justice to "All the Comforts of Home" as presented by the Amherst College Seniors. The guests came prepared to overlook any little mistakes, but they found none to overlook. The presentation was particularly well given and placed an exceptionally high standard of college dramatics that other students will have difficulty in equaling.

The Casino was nearly filled with a fashionable audience. It was the first of the series of society events in Plainfield during Easter week. After the long quietness of Lent, society blossomed forth in honor of the Amherst Seniors and gave them a hearty reception.

The play, "All the Comforts of Home," one of William Gillette's strongest comedies, seemed just fitted to the capabilities of the college boys. Brimming over with humor from the start, the scenes were filled with action, working up to a climax that effectually brought down the house at the close of every act.

The story is that of an extremely jealous husband, Mr. Pettibone, who suddenly hurried his young wife and daughter away to Europe to escape an imaginary lover of his wife's. Alfred, a nephew, is left in charge of the house and, to raise funds, he rents out the apartments with "all the comforts of home." Although engaged to his cousin, Alfred falls in love with the daughter of one of his lodgers. All sorts of wierd predicaments result from complications among the lodgers. The uncle and his family finally return unexpectedly to add to the general confusion until, at last, all turns out right and everybody is happy.

Harold Walker, who took the part of the nephew, had a difficult part but played it with an ease that carried him through the most trying places with credit. The young men, who took the part of the feminine members of the cast, cleverly represented the various characters. Fred W. Goddard, of this city, as the bewitching young daughter of Mr. Bender, one of the lodgers, delighted his friends. The love scene in which she, or rather he, and "Alfred" figured, brought forth a grand burst of applause. Goddard really did excellently.

At a distance it was difficult to believe that the handsomely gowned actresses were really rollicking college boys, but when they spoke however, the illusion vanished.

Altogether, the play was a success. The college boys kept the audience in roars of laughter by their really clever acting and their good interpretation of a very funny comedy.

During the intervals between the acts, piano selections were rendered by Richard Menzel, of this city.

SECRET PRAYER.

Fred H. Andrews Gave Trinity Endeavorers Helpful Suggestions.

The members and friends of the Christian Endeavor Society of Trinity Reformed church, at the regular meeting last evening, enjoyed a talk by Fred H. Andrews, of this city. The subject of the meeting was "Secret Prayer," and Mr. Andrews gave many helpful suggestions along the line of the subject. He urged each person to spend more time in secret prayer and to devote a certain amount of time each day in private prayer with God. Mr. Andrews gave several apt illustrations during his talk, all of which proved very helpful. Following the talk, the members consumed the balance of the hour by giving testimonies and offering prayers.

To Give a Big Reception.

Last Saturday evening the reception committee of the Plainfield Catholic Club met and made partial arrangements for an elaborate reception to be given at the clubhouse Wednesday evening, April 20th, to the honorary members of the club.

SPANISH BRUTALITY

Consul Reports Accompany the Message to Congress.

LEE'S AUTONOMY OPINIONS

Misery, Nakedness, Starvation and Death Reported from Every Province of the Island—All Civilization Disgraced by the Record.

Washington, April 12.—The consular correspondence on Cuba accompanied the President's message. It was prepared in response to a resolution of inquiry adopted by both the House and Senate, and was ready for transmission to Congress just before the blowing up of the Maine. It covers the communications of Consul-General Lee at Havana, Consul McGarr at Cienfuegos, Consul Brice at Matanzas, Consul Hyatt at Santiago de Cuba, and Consul Barker at Sagua La Grande.

The communications made about 60,000 words. They deal largely with the distress and suffering which exists in all the districts, but General Lee reports quite fully upon the decrees of the Government with regard to autonomy and other political phases of the situation. In preparing the correspondence for transmission to Congress, considerable portions of the important communications, and especially those marked confidential, are omitted. The resolutions to which they are the response in each instance asked only for such correspondence as it was not deemed incompatible with the public interest to make public.

General Lee's correspondence runs over the period from November 17, 1897, to April, 1898. Much of the correspondence is of a confidential nature, and of some of the important communications excerpts only are given. The period of the correspondence after the blowing up of the Maine contains no reference to that event, such communications probably being deemed irrelevant to the purpose of the resolutions calling for the consular correspondence in the possession of the Government as to the situation of affairs in Cuba.

Mr. Brice, Consul at Matanzas, gives a number of facts illustrating the suffering in the province. He says there are in Matanzas province alone 90,000 people who are in actual starving condition and require food, clothing and medicines. Continuing, he says:

"In addition to the above are thousands of families of the better classes and formerly well-to-do, who to-day are living on one meal a day and that very scant. They have sold or pawned furniture, jewelry, clothing, etc., to eke out an existence until all is gone or nearly so. Too proud to beg, they suffer in silence, and many die of starvation. The daughter of a former Governor of this province was seen begging (incognito) on the streets of this city. Many of these people call on me privately at my residence asking and praying for God's sake to be remembered when this relief comes from the United States. One has to be here, know and mingle with these people, to fully realize the terrible destitution and misery existing in Cuba. It is to be hoped that this relief from the United Setates will come quickly, for hundreds are dying daily of starvation. Conditions are dreadful and no relief is afforded by the Spanish authorities."

Mr. Brice mentions several instances of distress, among others the following: "In a family of seventeen, living in an old lime-kiln, all were found dead except three, and they barely alive." He says again that General Blanco's order allowing recontrados to return and cultivate the crops is inoperative and of no avail. Writing on the 17th of January, he says:

"The people are shut up in the cities and towns like rats, to starve. We have fifteen or eighteen families of American reconcentrados who own property in the country, and were they allowed to go to their homes could make a good living. All these have begged and pleaded with the authorities under Blanco's order to go, and were in every case refused.

On the 15th of January Mr. Barker, consul at Santa Clara, says:

In this consular district a reign of terror and anarchy prevails, which the authorities, if so disposed, are utterly powerless to control or in any measure subdue. Aside from the suffering and desperation caused by the unparalleled destitution, I regard the situation as rapidly assuming a critical stage. As stated heertofore, in no way have the authorities departed from the policy pursued by the late, but not lamanted, General Weyler. Spanish troops, as well as the guerillas, under the cruel chiefs Carreraz, Clavarrietta, and Lazo continue to despoil the country and drench it with the blood of non-combatants. Although the "bando" of the Captain-General provides that laborers may return to estates, it restricts their operations to those having a garrison. Last week a number belonging to the "Santa Ana" estate, located within a league of Saqua, and owned by Mr. George Thorndike, of Newport, R. I., were driven off after retuning, and refused permit as a protection by the military commander, Mayor Lemo, one of the trusted officers under the Weyler regime.

In the communication of the 20th of March, Mr. Barker says:

The distress is simply heartrending. Whole families, without clothing to hide nakedness, are sleeping on the bare ground, without bedding of any kind, without food, save to such as we have been able to reach with provisions sent by our own noble people; and the most distressing feature is that fully 50 per cent. are ill, without medical attention or medicine.

Mr. Hyatt, Consul at Santiaga, gives a thrilling picture of the conditions on the island. "It is," he says, "beyond the power of my pen to describe the situation in eastern Cuba. Squalidity, starvation, sickness, and death meet one in all places. Beggars throng our doors and stop upon the streets. The dead in large numbers remain over from day to day in the cemeteries unburied." In his communication of the 25th of January, Mr. Hyatt continues the presentation of this sad feature of existence in Cuba at the present time, saying:

The military situation is completely overshadowed in importance by starving, struggling masses, whose cry is "Bread or I perish." This consulate is besieged to an extent that blocks the entrance and greatly retards business. They have heard that the people of the United States are giving funds for their relief, and have not the patience to wait. I could name three Americans here who contribute monthly over $200 towards feeding the poor, but it is as nothing compared to the people's necessities. Men, women, and children, homeless and almost naked, roam the streets by day, begging of everyone they meet, or at every door they pass, and sleeping at night anywhere they can find a place to lie down. If the present death rate should continue, there would not be a soul left in the city at the end of five years. For the masses it is speedy help or sure death.

BLANCO AND HIS ARMISTICE.

An Ex-parte Affair for Purposes of Moral Effect.

Washington, April 12.—The State Department has received Captain-General's proclamation ordering a cessation of hostilities in Cuba. It was cabled to the Spanish Minister here and by him delivered to the department. The proclamation is as follows:

"His Majesty's Government, yielding to the reiterated wish expressed by His Holiness the Pope, has been pleased to decree a suspension of hostilities with the object of preparing and facilitating the restoration of peace on this island, in virtue whereof I believe it convenient to order:

"Article 1. From the day following the receipt in each locality of the present proclamation hostilities are ordered to be suspended in all the territory of the island of Cuba.

"The details for the execution of the above article will be the object of special instructions that will be communicated to the several commanders-in-chief of the army corps for easy and prompt execution according to the situation and circumstances of the case.

"BLANCO."

Havana, April 12.—Captain-General Blanco has appointed Senors Amblard, Rabel, Dolz, Giberga and Segundo Alvarez to go to the field to propose an armistice.

The commissioners are not overjoyed being somewhat doubtful as to what their reception will be. No one here believes that General Gomez will listen to them. He may shoot or hang them.

MISS BARTON AT TAMPA.

Will Remain Until Definite Action is Taken—Nurses Offer Their Services.

New York, April 12.—Miss Clara Barton telegraphed from Key West on the eve of her departure for Tampa. She will make her headquarters at the Tampa Bay Hotel until some definite action has been taken by the Government. A number of the Red Cross workers returned to Key West with her, but no advice of the arrival of Dr. J. B. Hubbell, general field agent of the Red Cross in Cuba, or of C. H. Cottrell and John McDowell, who were engaged in the relief work, has been received and it is thought they have remained in Cuba to continue the distribution of the supplies.

From the Associate Society of the Red Cross in Philadelphia a letter was received by Stephen Barton, offering the services of thirty-six trained nurses for hospital work, if they should be needed.

Contributions to the relief fund continue to pour in from all parts of the country in the shape of provisions and clothing, as well as actual cash. The first mail received at the Cuban Relief Committee's rooms this morning showed an aggregate donation of about $3,500.

From Fort Dodge, Iowa, 23,000 pounds of provisions and a large quantity of clothing have been sent, the Business League at Chicago has shipped two carloads of supplies, and from Syracuse comes a notice of an entertainment given there at the Wieting Opera House that will net approximately $1,500.

LEE'S TRIUMPHAL PROGRESS.

Enormous Crowds Greeted Him on His Way North.

Jacksonville, April 12.—General Lee received an ovation on his arrival at Tampa. An enormous crowd met him at the station and cheered him. Hundreds pressed forward to shake hands with him and others shouted for a speech.

To this General Lee shook his head, but appeared visibly affected by the warm greetings extended. He refused to be interviewed, saying that anything he might say now would be distorted and might produce harm.

From a member of his party it was learned that he had important information for the Government, not only as to the Maine explosion, but also as to important matters in Cuba. As to war prospects, General Lee would say nothing.

General Lee left Tampa on the Plant system by the fast special going north through Live Oak and Waycross to Savannah. A reception that was planned here will have to be given up.

At Waycross, Ga., thousands of persons gathered, and the old soldier was greeted by an enthusiastic crowd. Savannah turned out in force, and General Lee's stay there of twenty minutes was full of enthusiasm.

THE MAINE DISASTER.

A Denial of the Alleged Purchase of Mines by Spain.

Madrid, April 12.—The Minister of Marine, Admiral Bermejo, characterizes as absurd the story told in London by Joseph P. Gibbons, the English electrical engineer, as to the sale of submarine mines to Spain. The Minister says that during the last eighteen months the Spanish Government has not contracted with any English firm to lay mines in Havana harbor. He asserts that the torpedoes sent to Cuba have not yet been laid in the waters of that island.

New Strike at Fitchburg, Mass.

Fitchburg, Mass., April 12.—Most of the employees of the Parkhill Gingham Mills here are on strike because of a reduction in wages. A cut down of from 5 to 8 per cent. went into effect at Parkhill Mills. More than 1,000 hands are out.

OFFICIAL SCANDAL IN BROOKLYN.

The Violent Death of a Grand Juror to Be Judiciously Investigated.

Brooklyn, April 12.—When H. D. Ohlsen of the March Grand Jury in Brooklyn, which brought in indictments against eight ex-officials and a present Commissioner of Police for the Greater City, was found dead from the effect of bullet wounds, there were ugly rumors that attempts had been made to bribe him, and that he had been murdered.

A Coroner's jury said it was suicide, and so his body was laid away and it was believed that he had resisted the bribers for conscience sake, and then, sore pressed financially, had gone to meet unknown ills rather than face those he knew.

But the murder story is out again, and there are those who believe that his life was ended by another man's hand, because he could not do that which it is alleged he promised to do—to save from indictment some of the officials of Brooklyn.

It was stated yesterday by the foreman of the March Grand Jury, Thomas Edwards, and two others of the same body that a corruption fund of $20,000 had been raised by certain politicians, and that they (the three Grand Jurors) had been approached and received offers of certain parts of this fund by a person who made the remark that Ohlsen was already "fixed."

It is alleged that the $20,000 to be used in bribing the members of the jury was placed in an official's hands, so that he could conduct the negotiations which it was hoped would prevent the indictment of the two big politicians particularly.

Late last night Mr. Edwards said that he had just learned the names of the politicians who had put up the money and conspired to bribe the grand jurors. He and Schott, another member of the Grand Jury, were closeted most of the evening in consultation.

"I have their names now," said Mr. Edwards. "I will not give them out without the consent of the District-Attorney, who may wish to take some radical action, which the publication of the names might forestall. Brooklyn will indeed be surprised. In guessing the names of these conspirators you can hardly guess too high.

"The surprise of the indictments and this subsequent bribery story are not in it with the revelations to come. I shall give the names to the District-Attorney to-day."

The District-Attorney of Kings started yesterday to investigate the facts furnished by Edwards.

PACIFIC EXPRESS CO'S. LOSSES.

Rumored That from $100,000 to $200,000 of the Company's Cash Is Missing.

Omaha, Neb., April 12.—Recent sensational stories about the affairs of the Pacific Express Company were followed by the announcement that J. M. Morseman, president of the company, had resigned. Later there were reports that a large deficit exists in the accounts of the company, but Mr. Morseman's name is not connected with the alleged shortage.

It is common report that an enormous deficit exists. The amount is placed at from $100,000 to $200,000. The interested parties absolutely refuse to talk, saying that the story will soon be public propery. No individual is charged at present with this deficit.

It is charged in some quarters that the Pacific Express Company's headquarers here has been used for a clearing house for several corporations interested in influencing legislation. Large corruption funds have been handled at Lincoln from some source in the last few years. The present complications started over a matter of $10,000 said to have been divided among members of the Legislature.

Spain Gets Ready.

Washington, April 12.—When the Navy Department received word today that a Spanish fleet, convoying transports with six regiments of soldiers, had passed the Canary Islands, bound southward, there were impatient mutterings and complaining from the officials.

Naval officers want permission to prevent the junction of the Spanish fleets, an object which now seems apparent. It is believed a movement will be made by a portion of the Spanish forces against our Northern coasts as a feint to weaken our fleet in Southern waters and permit the Spaniards to concentrate under the guns of the San Juan fortification in Porto Rico.

Navy strategists are of the opinion that it will be a grave mistake to permit such a consummation of Spanish war plans.

All the navy wants now to prevent this is the word of command.

Julia Arthur Married.

Boston, April 12.—Julia Arthur, the actress has been secretly married to a multi-millionaire. She is now Mrs. Benjamin P. Cheney, wife of one of the richest men in Boston. Miss Arthur, whose illness caused the sudden termination of her dramatic season when she fainted upon the stage of the Hollis Street Theatre on the second night of her engagement there, is now in her convalescence. She is strong enough to be taken out for a drive, and there is no doubt about her complete recovery. A surprise in connection with the actress comes in the announcement that she has become the bride of Benjamin P. Cheney, the well-known millionaire, who was the backer of her first starring venture. The marriage has been a complete secet to all save the most intimate friends of the couple. New York, it is said, was the place of the ceremony, which was performed some time ago. Miss Arthur's last success was in Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett's play, "A Lady of Quality."

Woman of 85 Gave Her Fortune Away.

Hillsdale, N. J., April 12.—Mrs. Robert Boyd, 85 years old, living here, is alleged to be insane upon religious matters. Her hobby is missionary work. It is alleged that during the past two years she has, unknown to her husband, given to missionary funds $1,600 in gold, the life savings of her husband and his brother. It is said that Mrs. Boyd and her husband may have to be taken care of by charity hereafter.

Natural Iron Extracted from Fresh Bullocks' Blood

This iron is exactly the same as the iron in your blood. It is Nature's Iron, or perfectly natural and so contains no acid. Therefore it never blackens the teeth, nor causes constipation nor indigestion, and so can be taken indefinitely by either children or adults, no matter how weak their stomachs. All other Iron medicines that you have ever taken contained acids. This is the only natural Iron medicine wholly free from acid ever discovered, and the only one endorsed by the medical profession as absolutely non-irritating. This natural Iron or Hæmoglobin is put up in little soft pointed gelatine covers, and is known as

Red Blood Forming Capsuloids

CAPSULOIDS, therefore, being composed of natural Iron, enrich and increase the blood supply in a manner and to an extent never equalled by any other Iron or blood medicine. Through this rich and plentiful blood, which always comes speedily, chronic diseases due to weak and impoverished blood are cured, color brought to the face, lost flesh restored, weak nerves and sleeplessness disappear, appetite increases, the various organs grow strong, and general health, strength and vitality return.

To secure a FREE sample box of this new and wonderful form of Iron, you must cut this out and take it, Wednesday, April 13th, or Thursday, April 14th, to L. W. RANDOLPH, Plainfield, N. J.

DR. BRIGGS WITHDRAWS

A Hot Debate in Presbytery Over the Union Professor.

ACCEPTANCE WAS GRANTED

The Doctor Was Tried for Heresy Five Years Ago and Was Suspended—Will Enter the Episcopal Church as a Minister.

New York, April 12.—Dr. Briggs has formally retired from the Presbyterian Church, and the announcement was made yesterday at the meeting of the New York Presbytery. His decision came in the form of a letter. It read:

"No 120 West 93d st., New York,
"March 28, 1898.

"Moderator, Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of New York:

"Dear Brethren—After long and careful reflection I have decided to sever my connection with the Presbytery of New York, and more especially with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. I withhold the reasons for this decision in the interests of peace and quietness. I may simply say that I have remained under your jurisdiction as long as I could do so with a good conscience. I desire to act in all charity toward all my brethren, and, so far as possible, relieve them from responsibility for my action. Therefore, I do now withdraw from the jurisdiction of the Presbytery of New York, and I hold myself free to unite with that part of the Holy Catholic Church into which God in His Grace calls me. Very respectfully,
"C. A. BRIGGS."

A number of the members of the Presbytery objected to permitting Dr. Briggs to withdraw in that manner, and there was a spirited debate over a proposition to refer the matter to the General Assembly. It was found, however, that the Book of Procedure provides that the name of any minister must be at once stricken from the roll upon his announcing his withdrawal unless charges against him be actually pending. In the case of Dr. Briggs charges had been made and the trial had been held, and up to yesterday his status was that of a suspended minister. It was held, therefore, that his name must be stricken from the roll at once. The matter will be reported to the General Assembly. Dr. Briggs recently announced his candidacy for holy orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church.

The motion to accept the resignation was made by the Rev. Dr. Alexander. The motion was carried, but the details of the debate were not made public.

LAVIGNE'S HARD FIGHT.

Many Sports Thought Daly Outpointed Him—No Decision Rendered.

Philadelphia, April 12.—Kid Lavigne, the lightweight champion of America, and Jack Daly of Wilmington mixed it up in fierce style for six rounds here last night. The men met in the Arena Athletic Club in this city. According to the rule prevailing in this club, no decision was given, but the house was pretty equally divided as to the merits of the men. In fact, had the question been put to a vote it is probable that the crowd have decided in Daly's favor.

Lavigne pursued his old rushing tactics, but he did not seem to possess that tireless energy which he showed a year ago, and many who witnessed his battle of last night were of the opinion that he had gone back. Daly met his attacks with rare skill, and in the first and fourth rounds practically fought him to the floor. In the first round the "Kid" partly slipped and partly fell from the effects of a right over the heart. In the fourth round he was helped to his knees by a straight right in the wind.

It takes a bigger man than Lavigne to fight Daly down in six rounds, and he still was strong at the finish. A fight to a finish between these two men would be a great pugilistic treat. They were strong at the close of the sixth round and seemingly fit to go any distance.

The Arena Club was crowded to the doors, and in the throng were sporting men from New York, Boston, Baltimore, Pittsburg and other cities. There was practically no betting on the result, as it was known there would be no decision.

GEN. WOODFORD'S MOVEMENTS.

Reported Last Night That He Left Madrid Under Police Protection.

New York, April 12.—A Madrid dispatch last night said that United States Minister, General Stewart L. Woodford, left that city to-day, and was accompanied to the frontier by an escort of gendarmes.

At Washington it was given out that Secretary Sherman said he thought it quite likely that Minister Wodford would leave Madrid yesterday before the receipt there of the President's message.

He had received no word from the Minister and his leaving was a matter to his own discretion, but he (Sherman) thought the Minister would take his departure yesterday.

Foraker's Opinion of the Message.

Washington, April 12.—It was predicted that the President favored the adoption by Congress of the Foraker Cuban resolutions with section two eliminated. In view of this, one of the most significant utterances on the subject of the message was that of Senator Foraker, Republican, from the President's own State, and a member of the Committee on Foreign Relations. He said: "I have no patience with the message, and you can say so." He refused to go into details.

Conspiracy in China's Palace.

London, April 12.—A dispatch from the Daily News from Shanghai says:

"The existence of a formidable conspiracy in the imperial palace at Pekin has been discovered, and the lives of some of the highest persons in the empire are in danger. Progressive Manchus are indignant at the virtual sale of China to Russia by the Emperor's Chinese advisers."

There are three conditions:

When more flesh is needed;
When there is weakness of the throat or lungs.
There is one cure: that is Scott's Emulsion.
It contains the best cod-liver oil emulsified, or digested, and combined with the hypophosphites and glycerine. It promises more prompt relief and more lasting benefit in these cases than can be obtained from the use of any other remedy.

DOLGE OF DOLGEVILLE ASSIGNS.

Noted Manufacturer Could Not Borrow Money Owing to War Scare.

Dolgeville, N. Y., April 12.—Justice Hiscock yesterday appointed Nicholas Kernan of Utica assignee and A. M. Mills of Little Falls receiver for Alfred Dolge & Son, manufacturers, of Dolgeville. The proceedings were brought by Rudolph Dolge of New York. The liabilities are said to be $1,250,000.

In the Herkimer County Clerk's office to-day mortgages aggregating $312,000 against the plant were filed.

The failure of the firm of Alfred Dolge & Son, the well-known manufacturers of felt and piano supplies, was a great surprise to the people of this village. The firm's factory is here, and, besides, they conducted a large retail business in New York city. The assets and liabilities are not given, but a conservative estimate places the former at about $500,000.

Alfred Dolge was the founder of Dolgeville, having established his business here twenty-five years ago. The growth of the village has been largely due to the manufacturing interests controlled by him. The large felt factory was closed for inventory this evening, and it is said other factories in which Mr. Dolge has an interest will also be affected by the failure.

Alfred Dolge made a statement in which he says that he was forced to make an assignment on account of the war scare and the difficulty of procuring money to carry on his business. He says he hopes the creditors may realize from the property all that is due to them.

LONDON PRESS OPINIONS.

Sober Tone of Message Lauded, but Little Hope Entertained that It Will Avert War.

London, April 12.—The Standard, commenting editorially upon the President's message to Congress, says:

"The undisguised disappointment of the jingoes at the subdued and cautious tone of the message cannot fail to cheer the friend of peace. Assuming an obligation to send the message at all, one could hardly have been drafted on lines less calculated to cause superfluous offense. It is a pity, however, looking to the attitude of Spain, that President McKinley could not have further postponed the message".

The Times says:

"The message is not couched in harsh language, though it leads up to a policy, which involves harsh judgment, although one justified by the sentiment of the civilized world on the treatment of Cuba."

After expressing a fear that Spain's offer of an armistice comes too late, the Times comments upon the "grave responsibility which President McKinley throws upon Congress." It thinks that if debate could be suspended for a week there might be a chance of peace; and it expresses regret that President McKinley "surrendered his initiative," adding: "He was fully entitled to keep the question in his own hands and thus to have gained time—an indispensable condition of peace."

GOMEZ TO M'KINLEY.

The Commander of the Insurgents, Anticipating Events, Said Armistice Would Be Declined.

Washington, April 12.—General Gomez, the grand old man of the Cubans, and a statesman withal, wrote a letter to Consul Barker, United States representative at Santiago de Cuba, which is as follows:

"One year ago we received a proposal from Spain to agree to an armistice. We refused then, as we must refuse now. The rainy season will soon be at hand, and Spain's troops would like an armistice until it is over.

"We shall throw away no advantage. On the other hand, I am anxious that hostilities shall cease, but it must be for all time. If Spain agrees to evacuate Cuba, taking her flag with her, I am willing to agree to an armistice to last until October 1, when loyal Cubans shall come into their own.

"Please tell President McKinley this for me; tell him, too, that I am writing this at the direction of the Cuban Provisional Government, with which they may treat directly should they so desire. MAXIMO GOMEZ."

MOBBED CONSUL HYATT'S HOUSE.

Just Before He Left Santiago the Flag Was Insulted.

Kingston, Jamaica, April 12.—It has become known that a few nights before Mr. Pulaski F. Hyatt, the United States Consul at Santiago de Cuba, left that port, under instructions for Port Antonio, Jamaica, a mob of Spaniards made a demonstration before the Consulate and threw tomatoes, eggs and stones at the Stars and Stripes floating over the Consulate.

The crowd which took part in this demonstration had just left a theatre where a performance had taken place for the purpose of raising funds to increase the strength of the Spanish Navy. The Spaniards surrounded the Consulate, shouting "Death to Americans," "Long live Spain," etc., and in so doing pelted the flag as already described. The mob was eventually dispersed by the police.

AFTER THE ASSESSORS.

In charging grand juries lately two Supreme judges in this State have admonished the jurors that assessors who have failed to assess property as its true value should be indicted. This is rather an interesting decision on the part of the judicial minds, but the wonder is why it is taken at this late day. From time immemorial it has been the custom of assessors to overlook the real value of property held for taxable purposes, and that practice has become to almost recognized as part of the official's duty, even though the exacting law may really mean different. Justice Dixon informed the grand jury of Bergen county that one assesor in that bailiwick had already openly confessed that in his district he had put the assessable value of property only at fifty per cent of its actual rating, and that he should be indicted on the strength of the confession. If that advise is followed not only in Bergen but as well by all other grand juries in New Jersey, the courts would be busy the year around trying recreant assessors.

UNITED STATES CAVALRY DRILL.

It is enough to make all the world, even a parson, long to be a United States army trooper to read in Harper's Magazine the article by Frederic Remington on "The Essentials at Fort Adobe." Remington has been on a sketching visit to the cavalrymen of the southwestern plains, out where the sun is hot and the dust thick. There is a sound of ringing saber, of trooper's bugle call, of clattering hoofs and whirling steeds, there are a flash, a vision of blue and steel and stars and stripes and the reader suddenly shakes himself together, rubs his eyes and recalls that after all he is not watching the evolutions of United States cavalrymen at Fort Adobe. He is only reading a paper about them, a paper written with such consummate skill that it sets the nerves tingling and the blood dancing to the rhythm of martial music.

Mr. Remington finds that our cavalry drill has greatly changed since the old days when weary men and jaded beasts jogged on in straight lines, grim and dusty, and knew little else. The so called Cossack drill has wrought the transformation. Some of the gymnastic feats now performed by cavalrymen seem more like the exploits of the rough riders in Buffalo Bill's show than the work of ordinary troopers. The men are trained athletes. The artist saw them jump upon the backs of their horses off the ground from behind, saw them in truth jump entirely over their horses. Again the soldier would whirl dizzily over and under his horse's body so rapidly his movements could hardly be followed. Sometimes the animal would lie flat upon its back with its feet sticking up in the air, while its master would sit upon the under part of its body.

ENGLAND IN EAST AFRICA.

England is getting on in east Africa. Since a year ago she has completed two strokes of policy that will give her decided advantage for years to come.

The first was the treaty with King Menelek II of Abyssinia, who gave the Italians such a thrashing three years ago. Menelek's various titles are emperor, negus and king of kings of Ethiopia. He ratified the treaty May 14, and Queen Victoria signed it July 28, 1897. By its provisions the road from Zeyla, the port of Abyssinia, into the interior is to remain open and free to the caravans of both nations forever. Goods designed for the use of the Ethiopian state are to be let through Zeyla free of duty. The most important clause of the treaty is, however, that in future Menelek will, so far as he is able, prevent arms and ammunition from passing through his kingdom for the Mahdists. If he keeps that end of the bargain, it will be a great help to the British and Egyptian expedition up the Nile.

The second step of British progress in this part of Africa is a most important one. It is nothing less than the closing of a contract for damming the Nile and constructing a reservoir of water alongside the cataracts by which it will be possible at all seasons of the year for steamers to go up and down the Nile by a system of locks. Two dams are to be built across the Nile, one at Assouan, the other at Assiut, to be completed in five years. These will be available for irrigation and will add 55,000 acres to the cultivable area along the upper Nile.

TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYER MAYFLOWER.

Protected by four inches of armor on her sides, armed with rapid fire guns and fitted with torpedo tubes, the pleasure yacht of the New York millionaire, the late Ogden Goelet, will soon be in active service as a torpedo boat destroyer. She will prove a valuable addition to the navy.

The farreaching authority of the United States supreme court has been shown in the decision of the Nebraska freight rate case. The Nebraska legislature fixed certain rates for which the railroads should carry freight through the state. The railroads took the case into the courts. It was fought back and forth till at length it brought up in the United States supreme court. That court rendered a notable decision. It was that the legislature of a state has the right to fix by law freight carrying prices in that state. The railroads have, however, the undoubted right to take the case to court for decision as to whether the rate fixed is an equitable one. The court of final resort is the supreme court of the United States. In the Nebraska suit the United States supreme court decided that the rate fixed by the Nebraska legislature was a violation of the United States constitution in that it was so low it took property without due process of law.

The thing that has about the queerest look on the face of it in recent Cuban history is the fact that while the United States was feeding starving subjects of Spain in the desolated island the Spaniards in Havana held a great feast at which $30,000 in gold was raised to help build a warship to fight the United States.

In Cuba it is certain that 200,000 noncombatants have already starved to death, while 70,000 Spanish soldiers have lost their lives trying to put down the revolution. How much longer shall this continue?

In June China will open her inland waterways to steamers of all nations. This is a great concession for the Chinese to make, even though it was forced on them.

"If only the worthy people were saved, heaven would be empty," says Moody.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

That sort of resurrection of bodies as reported at Plainfield may be appropriate around Eastertide, but it is neither conductive to the public health nor in line with the eternal fitness of things in the case of a modern cemetery.—Freeholder in New York Press.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

The best of all farce comedies, "My Friend from India," will be seen at Music Hall tonight. The New York Herald in describing this comedy says that the farce is clean; it has all the vivacity, the quick changes of position, the timely exits and entrances, and the snap and "go" of the French farces which have been so successful, and yet it has none of the undercurrent of suggestive wickedness which even careful adaptation cannot always disguise. It is an exceedingly clever piece of work throughout, and given as it is by a thoroughly competent company there need be no surprise at the manner in which this remarkable comedy is presented.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News, but Just as Interesting.

Randolph Smalley, a resident of North Plainfield, was born at Smalleytown, March 12th, 1808, and except for a partial loss of eye sight is hale and hearty. He has been a life-long Democrat and in former years was a trapper of wild pigeons, having visited Ohio, Indianna, Illinois, Wisconsin and West Virginia, for the game bird that is almost extinct in the United States today.

* * * * *

During the storm of Sunday afternoon there was a strange caller at the flat of Edward Brokaw, in the Babcock building. While the storm was at its height Mrs. Brokaw saw something land on the window sill. The window was opened and a pigeon discovered. The bird made no objection when it was taken indoors. It was found to be completely soaked with water. It proved to be a carrier pigeon, with a ring for messages attached to its foot. Under the wing was stamped the name of H. J. Maynard, Newark, N. J. The bird was cared for during the night and freed yesterday morning.

* * * * *

A rather singular co-incident regarding two newcomers to Plainfield is of interest. Dr. W. Kempton Browning, of East Fifth street, and Dr. Buchanan, of 43 Duer street, are both comparatively new residents in the city and borough. Both pursued courses of study at Peddie Institute and were graduated. Dr. Browning is the son of Congressman Browning, of Camden, while Dr. Buchanan is the son of Former Congressman Buchanan, of Trenton. Each doctor prepared for their profession with little thought of one another and strangely both located in Plainfield. They are both warm friends and enjoy each other's company.

POLITICAL PRISONS.

IRISH PATRIOT TELLS OF TORTURE IN THE BRITISH JAILS.

Thirteen Awful Years—His Sufferings in the Cells of Chatham and Portland—Terrible Abuses Crowded Upon Political Offenders by the Guards Over Them

"Cruelties, such as are almost past belief are practiced on Irish political convicts in English prisons," declared John Daly, recently n Chicago. "I am heartily glad that the other poor fellows, who, like myself, were sentenced for life, are to be set at liberty next June, when they will have served fifteen years of their time."

John Daly, recently in Chicago. "I man, who, in spite of having passed nearly thirteen years of his life within the penel cells of Chatham and Portland prisons, scarcely looks the 53 years to which he lays claim. From his boyhood he has been connected with the various movements to free his native land from British dominion, and was first arrested on a charge of being connected with the Fenian conspiracy in 1866, when he was but 20 years of age. The remainder of his story can best be told in his own words:—

JOHN DALY.

I was spotted by the police, and, as Chief of Police Farindale afterward confessed during what he believed to be a fatal illness, they determined to put me out of the way for life by one of the foulest conspiracies ever hatched. Through a series of false pretenses I was induced to take charge of a package, with the contents of which I was kept in ignorance. This was given to me by a man, whose name I have never recalled, in Liverpool. Whether he was a tool of the police or a victim of circumstances I am still unable to determine, but he gave that package to me, with instructions to take it to the railway station at Birkenhead, across the river. I did so and was immediately pounced upon by the police. After being kept in jail at Birmingham for three months I was brought to trial at Warwick, Staffordshire, on a charge of treason-felony. The government accused me of being a dynamitard, but I solemnly aver that I do not know to this minute, of my own knowledge, whether that package contained explosives or not. James Francis Egan, in whose house I had stayed during my residence in Birmingham, was also arrested and tried with me. For the simple reason that I had lived in his house—they could prove nothing worse against him—he was given twenty years penal servitude. The entire trial was a mockery of Justice, I was unable to prove myself innocent, and hence was found guilty. The fiction of law, that a man is presumed to be innocent until proved guilty, was reversed in my case, and I was held to be guilty until I could prove my innocence.

On being convicted I was taken to Chatham prison, where I remained for seven years.

To give you an idea of the tortures we suffered, I need only tell you that the governors of the prisons all took a fiendish delight in seeing to it that every "screw," or prison guard, who had any thing to do with us was an Orangeman. During the entire twelve and a half years, unlike ordinary prisoners, I was never given a hammock or any other kind of bed. I had to sleep on the bare boards. I was not put into an ordinary cell, but into a 'solitary,' where there was no sound to be heard, no heat of any kind in the coldest weather, and where even the poor privilege of looking out of the window was denied; for the light was admitted through roughened glass. The filthy obscenity of the guards' language toward me and my fellow political prisoners was something too gross to repeat. Their constant object was to goad us to madness, so that we would lose control of ourselves, and strike a guard, which would entail a horrible flogging with the cat-o'-nine-tails, and a diet of bread and water in solitary confinement for days and weeks.

Bread and water! No man who has not experienced it can understand the awful horror of that punishment. It is worse than a flogging, for the physical pain of that subsides in forty-eight hours. But a pint of water and eight ounces of bread in twenty-four hours will just barely sustain life, while it leaves the stomach gnawing, gnawing, with constantly increasing anguish, until you are almost driven mad. For being caught with an inch of lead pencil I have been condemned to that hell on earth for thirteen days. For being discovered wit ha scrap of newspaper in his cell, Featherstone was tortured in that way for three mortal weeks.

But that was not the most fiendish thing they did to us. During the first four years we were awakened, and our cells searched, every hour of the night. It was that which drove Flanagan and Featherstone out of their minds. Think of it! Wakened every hour of the night for four long years. Even the Malay pirates never devised a torture more exquisitely hideous, and yet the English Home Secretary repeatedly declared that we were dealt with like the ordinary prisoners. That was a lie—a deliberate and cruel lie. The excuse for our treatment was that convicts in Australia had been released by an expedition on board the American schooner Catalpa, and that it was necessary to guard against any attempt at escape.

No man was allowed to speak a word or communicate with a fellow convict under the terrible penalty of three days on bread and water. During the first year we were only allowed to write and receive one letter; the second year two, the third year three, and after that four. But when letter time was approaching our Orange guards used to do their best to provoke us so that, by committing some breach of discipline, we might be deprived of the privilege of writing or receiving a communication to or from the outside world.

Three times I was approached by emissaries of the government and offered my liberty on condition that I would appear before the royal commission and give perjured evidence against Parnell. The first to come to me was Somes, the rascally lawyer hired by the London Times, and the second was the traitor, Richard Piggot, who was never guilty of but one decent act in his life, and that killed him. He shot himself. The third was Littlechild, the head detective of Scotland Yard. But I turned a deaf ear to them all, and told them I would sooner rot in a British jail or die insane than purchase my liberty at such a shameful price.

Finding that persuasion was useless, they tried to poison me. The jail physician gave me an almost fatal dose of belladonna. There was a government inquiry into this attempt at murder, and it was reported to have been an "accident," but medical men, with one accord, have assured me that belladonna was the last thing in the world that should have been given to a man in my enfeebled condition. A significant fact is that neither the physician who prescribed the dose, nor the druggist who prepared it, was dismissed from his position. I am still demanding a fuller investigation into that matter, but have almost despaired of getting what I seek.

While I was imprisoned, in 1893, my fellow townsmen in Limerick did me the honor to elect me to Parliament, but the House of Commons voted against me, and I was disqualified on the ground of my conviction. In the following year they elected me high sheriff, but the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland set that election aside on the same ground and appointed another man. Last November I was nominated for mayor of Limerick, but the crown law adviser ruled that I lacked fifteen days of a legal residence, so, of course, I could not run. However, I expect to be elected to the next Parliament, or, if a vacancy occurs in Limerick before the present Parliament is dissolved, I expect to be elected to fill it.

Mrs. Danbury's Patriotism.

"Of course we want war!" exclaimed Mrs. Danbury. "The idea of letting such an outrage go unpunished! I don't care whether the Spaniards did it or not. They deserve to be whipped, anyway. If they hadn't oppressed those poor Cubans our boat wouldn't have been ordered to go down there, and the terrible thing probably would not have happened.

"I just wish I were a man! I can tell you I would show some of these cowards how to act at such a time as this.

"Bravo! Bravo!" exclaimed her husband. "Spoken like a regular little patriot! Your sentiments are mine exactly. I'm glad you take such a noble view of it, for now I shall not have to hesitate any longer. There is something I have wanted to tell you for two days, but I have hesitated for fear it might distress you. I am going to join a military company so as to be ready to go to the front at the first call to serve my country. I am so glad you"—

"John!" exclaimed Mrs. Danbury, "are you crazy? Do you mean to say that you would go away to war and leave me here alone? You will join no military company. You will stay right here, no matter what happens! This country has never done anything for you! Let others do its fighting if it gets into trouble. Here, take a cup of tea. It'll be good for your head!"

No Difference.

Mr. Spouter—"The different ways in which really sincere piety manifests itself are indeed remarkable. For instance, some people believe in fasting, while others, just as devout, attend church suppers."

Mr. Beenthere—"What's the difference?"

THE NEW PURITANISM.

Rev. Dr. Gordon Drops a Bomb in the Camps of Orthodoxy.

Rev. George A. Gordon, D. D., pastor of the Old South Congregational Church, Boston, in an address at Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, on "The Theological Problem of To-Day," judged from the standpoint of Congregational requirements, was heretical, and from the standpoint of Universalism was thoroughly orthodox. For some untold reason this utterance of Dr. Gordon's has passed unchallenged. The extract from Dr. Gordon's address reads as follows:

DR. GORDON.

"The affirmation that God has a Christian purpose toward our entire humanity involves an extension of the field of redemption so enormous as to make obsolete, at a single stroke, the whole theological map of the traditional view. And what seems worse, while all clear-seeing men are aware that this does not necessarily imply universal salvation, it is true that it looks that way. If God shall succeed, universal salvation will be the final result. This sounds perilous to good morals and seems to cut the nerve of all strenuous endeavor! Oh, my brothers, when will Christian thinkers fear atheism more than universalism; when will they see that the deepest immorality lies in distrust of the righteous will of God; when will they awake to the fact that only those who believe in a God for humanity and eternally for humanity can resist unto blood? Any scheme that puts God with an inclusive and everlasting purpose of redemption behind mankind looks like universalism, but let us remember that any other scheme is, in our time, a royal road to atheism. When we assert as we do so easily the brotherhood of man, let us be sure that the universe, according to our view, is not against it; let us be sure that there is in God a universal fatherhood upon which to found it."

The Lady and the Bird.

A million bobolinks killed last year! Four million other birds slaughtered in the same year—and for what? That their torn and distorted bodies might be flaunted in the headgear of American woman-kind!

These are no guess-work figures, but the officia report of the Audubon Society of Massachusetts. And what does it mean? It means five million voices stilled in Nature's avian choir. Five million flashes of cheeriness and gladness taken from human life; and millions of other young lives doomed to starvation or prey in order that the plumaged corpse of the murdered mother bird may be rent by a milliner and jammed in hideous shapelessness in milady's hat!

Ah! milady, is there no efficacy in these desolating figures? Is there no mercy in your heart, no concience in your make-up, no sentiment in your soul? Can you enjoy the finest opera when you think that the killing of the birds with which you and your sisters are crowning your beauty is gradually silencing the grand oratorio of the forest and the fields?

A birdless country! A voiceless forest! What a desolation it would be! And yet that is just what this country is coming to if the song birds of our land are to be killed off at the rate of five millions a year in order to gratify feminine vanity and keep women "in style."

What a grewsome, hideous, conscienceless "style" it is that murders melody and silences the lark that sings from Heaven's gate!—New York Mail-Express.

A Lake That Never Gives up Its Dead.

A very interesting and very sad thing about Lake Superior is that it never gives up its dead. Whoever encounters disaster—happily infrequent in the tourist season—and goes down in the angry, beautiful waters, never comes up again. From those earliest days, when the daring French voyageurs, in their trim birth bark canoes, skirted the picturesque shores of this noble but relentless lake, down to this present moment, those who have met their deaths in mid-Superior still lie at the stone-paved bottom. It may be that, so very cold is the water, some of their bodies may have been preserved through the centuries. Sometimes, not far from the shore, the bodies of people who have been wrecked from fishing smacks or from pleasure boats overtaken by a cruel squall have been recovered, but only after the most heroic efforts with drag net or by the diver.—St. Nicholas.

Notice to the Public in General.

The American people shall have no need of the CHINAMAN in the future if every American Laundryman will supply the proper kind of work. Try us and be convinced that we are up-to date, and that you would rather have AMERICANS by all odds to serve you. Think of the terrible odor that comes from a Chinese Laundry, and yet one half of the people don't know what causes it. Here it is in a Nut Shell. Could you for instance turn out first-class laundry in a room 12x20 where there is three or four living. Think of your laundry in a place of this kind, where they do cooking, smoke their opium and also sleep in same apartment. And stil what is more horrible is that all your clothes are sprinkled from the mouth. Think twice before you speak and have an American citizen to do your laundry by all odds.

Noticed This Before.

You Probably Have and May Have Spoken About It.

The reader of this newspaper, if he takes the time and trouble to look carefully through its columns, will probably find half a dozen statements attached to the foot of reading notices about medicinal preparations. Note this fact. In each and every case, as far as Plainfield is concerned; as far as the reader's knowledge of the party is concerned; he might just as well live in the moon. Make another note of this. The only remedy on the market which gives testimony at home, local proof in every town and city in the Union, to back up its claims, is Doan's Kidney Pills. They all try it, but they cannot do it. Why they are unable to do it can safely be left with the reader to draw his own conclusions. Here is Plainfield proof for Plainfield readers:

Mr. Charles Giese, Cigar Manufacturer, of 25 Elm Place, says: 'I have been subject to attacks of kidney complaint for the last 2 or 3 years. Most of the pain was in my back and hips and I could not stoop or straighen up without feeling sharp, shooting twinges. When I sat for any length of time I grew stiff and sore and was compelled to get up and move about. Last spring I grew so bad I had to do something for it. I had read a great deal about Doan's Kidney Pills being such a good medicine for kidney troubles so I got a box of them at L. W. Randolph's drug store. I used them according to directions and after 2 or 3 days I felt better. I continued their use until the pain disappeared and I am only too glad to be able to testify to the fact that Doan's Kidney Pills are a splendid remedy."

Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers, price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

MESSAGE REFERRED

Senate Has a Little Tilt, but Reed Settles the House.

PROMPT REPORT EXPECTED

No Doubt an Effort Will Be Made in Both Houses to Recognize the Cuban Republic, Exceeding to That Extent the President's Purposes.

Washington, April 12.—After the chaplain's prayer the Senate went into regular session yesterday at noon.

The reading of last Thursday's journal was dispensed with, and Mr. Quay presented resolutions of the Oxford Club of Philadelphia and a petition from Tioga County, Pennsylvania, favoring the employment of the land and naval forces of the United States in the immediate expulsion of the Spanish forces from Cuba, and securing the independence of Cuba.

Mr. Pruden, the President's assistant secretary, appeared at the bar of the Senate at 12.05 o'clock with the President's message, which, on being delivered, was immediately laid before the Senate.

Complete stillness prevailed in the chamber as the reading of the message went on. There was not a sound heard except the voice of the reading clerk. Senators on both sides and the crowds in the galleries listened to it with strained attention.

The reading occupied nearly fifty minutes. When it was ended Senator Davis, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, moved that the message be referred to that committee and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Stewart of Nevada objected to the reference without some discussion of the message. The blowing up of the Maine he held to be an act of war on the part of Spain, and a war against Spain on that account, he said, would be a war with which no other nation would have anything to do.

"If," said he, "we enter on this war without having the insurgents as our allies, we will have a great war on our hands. The rainy season and the yellow fever would make it impossible for our soldiers to fight.

"But a war to set the Cubans free will be hailed with approval and joy like that with which the war against Turkey to liberate Greece was hailed. I hope that there will be no intervention without the recognition of independence."

Mr. Mason said that he was satisfied with the suggestion, but wished to give notice that he would desire about seven minutes to-day or to-morrow to bring some precedents to the attention of the committee.

Mr. Butler confessed his disapointment at the message, and said that the people would be disapointed with it. The message, he said, did not mean the independence of Cuba. If it meant anything it was that the President asked Congress to authorize him to make the Cubans stop fighting Spain for their liberty—to authorize him to stop the war.

"The war," Mr. Butler declared, cannot be stopped until the Spanish flag disappears from Cuba."

He gave notice of a resolution which he proposed to offer, to the effect that the destruction of the Maine and the murdering of 266 sailors in Havana harbor by the Spanish Government is an act of war on the part of Spain against the United States.

In the House.

At the close of the reading of the message in the House, which was listened to with but slight demonstration, Speaker Reed anticipated all debate by crisply announcing:

"Ordered printed and referred to Committee of Foreign Affairs."

Message in Committee.

Washington, April 12.—Immediately after the adjournment of the Senate the Foreign Relations Committee went into session behind closed doors and took up the President's message. The committee members declined to give any opinion as to when they would make their report or as to the nature of it. It was the expectation among other Senators, however, that it might come to-day, though the complications deu to the granting of an armistice, it was thought, might defer it for a day or even two days.

WANTS MORE TIME.

He Thinks Resolution Should Not Direct Him to Take Action Before April 15.

Washington, April 12.—While the President in his message does not advise delay, in his interviews with members yesterday and last night he suggested that a short time be given for further diplomatic negotiations. The President knows that a resolution will be adopted by Congress, but his efforts are now being made to so form that resolution that while it declares for intervention, it will allow him a few days for negotiations with Spain before he takes action.

The President is of the opinion that the crisis has been reached and that events will soon decide whether there shall be war or peace. He has suggested to the leaders in Congress that if they adopt a resolution declaring for intervention they put in the resolution that no action be taken until the 15th, unless the President decides otherwise. The administration thinks this will give plenty of time to test Spain's proposition.

Post Office Clerks Will Keep Their Places.

Washington, April 12.—In answer to numerous inquiries from postmasters all over the country as to how they are to act with carriers and clerks and other Government officers who want to enlist or go with the militia in case of war, the Postmaster-General is about to issue a general order to cover all such cases.

A few days ago the Postmaster-General gave a ruling that all clerks in the Post Office Department here who desired to enlist in case of hostilities could do so, and go to the front and not lose their places. When they left their places would be filled temporarily, but when they came back they could resume their old positions without having to stand another civil service examination. Of course, while away, their salaries would cease.

AROUND THE BASES.

The Crescents will open the season on the Crescent Oval with the famous Seventh Regiment team from New York. Of that team, the Evening Journal says: "The Seventh Regiment baseball team will commence outdoor practice at Jasper Field next week. The soldiers will meet Tuesday and Thursday afternoons. Manager 'Ponce' Wilson is enthusiastic over the prospects of the team. He has thirty candidates, including such veterans as Ferguson, Allen, Dollard (Patsy), Disoway, Mack, Cary, Norton, Wenige and Rooney. In addition to the historic game with the West Point Cadets, scheduled this year for May 28th, games have been arranged with the Englewood Field Club, the Jaspers and several other prominent teams. In all probability a game will be scheduled with Columbia. The cranks of the regiment are organizing a band of 'rooters' to accompany the team wherever it goes."

CYCLING COMMENT.

The bicycle season is now in full swing. The trade in the local stores is lively and everybody who has a wheel or can borrow one has been out on the road ere this. Thursday evening the Epworth League of the First M. E. church will resume their bicycle runs that proved such a popular feature of the social life of the League last year. The run will start from the church Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. After a spin out Park avenue the young people will gather at the home of one of their number for a social hour.

Dr. Buchanan, of 43 Duer street, expects to purchase a wheel in a short time.

Jerry Barnes, of Sherman avenue, has purchased a Keating bicycle.

GOLF.

The trustees of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club will hold a meeting next Friday evening. Those expecting to join should make application before then, as another month may elapse before the trustees meet again.

Pleaded Non Vult.

Three of the alleged offenders of the Sabbath observance law came up before City Judge DeMeza this morning for trial. All three entered a plea of non vult through their counsel, Councilman Walter L. Hetfield. The plea was accepted. The Judge deferred the sentence for ten days.

The three men were Joseph Riggi, who keeps a little store at 401 Plainfield avenue, Vito Ferero, of 224 West Front street, and Fortunio Margentino, of 128 Park avenue.

Promised a Big Audience.

The sale of tickets for the performance of "The Merchant of Venice," to be given by the students of the New Jersey Military Academy at Music Hall Saturday night, is progressing rapidly, and those who want good seats should exchange their admission tickets for reserved seat checks early.

Writ of Attachment.

A writ of attachment has been issued in the Circuit Court of Somerset county in the case of Alexander Elliott against Harry DeCosta Richards for $1,100. The suit is over several promissory notes given in payment for a stone crusher near Scotch Plains which Richards is now conducting.

New Factory at Lincoln.

CLASSIS OF NEWARK.

Reformed Churchmen Meeting in This City Today.

The annual session of the Newark Classis of the Reformed Church is being held today in Trinity church this city. The first session was held at 10 o'clock this morning. The church presented a very tasteful appearance, with carefully-arranged floral decorations, chiefly of green and white. As the morning session was one merely for business, the attendance was principally of delegates from the churches of the Classis. Rev. Dr. Lee, of the First Reformed church of Newark, presided, and A. J. Hegeman, of Belleville, acted as clerk. The report of Rev. Mr. Allen, of Newark, the last president of the classis, was full of interesting and encourrging information concerning the condition of the churches in the association.

A number of communications were received. One of interest to Plainfielders was a notice of the resignation of Rev. Dr. James F. Riggs from his professorship in the theological seminary at New Brunswick.

A series of questions relating to church affairs were asked the representatives of each church, the answers showing the churches of the Classis to be earnestly and successfully fulfilling their mission.

Routine business occupied the remaining time until the noon recess, when a hot dinner was served to the delegates in the lecture room of the church by the women of the Christian Work Society.

This afternoon's session began at 2 o'clock and will be of more general interest.

EASTER SERVICES.

A Few Church Accounts That Didn't Appear Yesterday.

Among the Easter services which it was necessary to omit from The Press yesterday on account of other important news, were the following:

DECIPLES OF CHRIST.

The Easter service at the Church of the Deciples of Christ was held Sunday evening and consisted of songs and recitations by scholars of the Sunday-school. The committee in charge was composed of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Hand, Miss Moore, Mrs. Woolley, Miss VanMiddlesworth and Mrs. VanMiddlesworth. The church was prettily decorated. The pastor, Rev. Mr. McKane, made an address in the morning and evening.

GERMAN REFORMED CHURCH.

No special Easter services were held at this church, but the church was appropriately decorated for the occasion. In the morning the Lord's supper was observed

ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH.

At this church a special programme for Easter was presented under the direction of Father Miller and Organist Bailey. The children of the Sunday-school and choir of the church rendered some pretty musical selections. The directions of the church were greatly admired.

Holy Cross Church.

The annual parish meeting of the Church of the Holy Cross was held in the church last night at 8 o'clock. The following officers were elected: Wardens, John H. Carman, M. D., and Horsley Barker; vestrymen, Robert S. Miller, Arthur T. Gallup, William A. Westphal, Thomas E. Warman and John D. James; delegates to the Diocesan convention, Horsley Barker, Clarence L. Murphy and Boardman Wright; alternates, William Tyler, Howard Turrill and Andrew Guyer.

In City Court

John Sloan and James Aeton were arraigned before City Judge DeMeza yesterday on the charge of fighting on West Front street. They were arrested last Sunday by Roundsman Frederickson. Sloan was fined $3 and Aeton $5.

DEBATE DELAYED.

Richmond, April 12—Consul General Lee arrived here this morning. There was a great public demonstration given him. He was met by General Tyler and his staff of the National Guard.

A delegation of thousands of wildly enthusiastic Virginians met him. He was forced to speak.

He said: "This is no time for talk, the time for action has arrived. What are you yelling for? Do you want to fight?

Ten thousand voices rent the air with one tumultous "yes."

The General continued: "This is the day I long have sought and mourned beause I found it not. It makes me happy when I came to you to render an account of my stewardship to see that you all with one accord so enthusiasticly commend it.

Jersey Troops in Readiness.

Elizabeth, April 12.—Gov. Voorhees said this morning that he did not expect that the Jersey troops would be called out for three weeks yet, and that the report that the mess houses at the Sea Girt Camp grounds would be used as barracks was absurd, since the time troops were needed the weather would be warm enough for the soldiers to live in tents.

NEW YORK LETTER.

Special Correspondence.

H. Walter Webb, the lucky third vice president of the New York Central road is the latest victim to overwork. Why did he overwork? He was greatly envied. He had a "soft snap," which a million men would have grasped eagerly and held on to till the last trump. His salary was large, his time practically his own, his pleasures many. It is astonishing how many men break down nowadays, and from no assignable cause. In the old days we in the country used to work twenty-eight hours out of twenty-four, so to speak and live to be a hundred, but now we labor eight hours a day and break down at fifty, or earlier.

The luckiest men in New York are the Webbs—General Alexander S., president of the College of the City of New York; Dr. William Seward, husband of Lila Osgood Vanderbilt, president of the Wagner Palace Car Company; vice-president of the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western Railway under Jack Astor; owner of Shelburne Farms, Vt.; member of the Vermont Legislature, with United States Senatorial prospects; owner of Ne-ha-sa-ne Park in the Adirondacks, a preserve of 1,000,000 acres; proprietor of private observation, engines and private cars; and H. Walter, who started in life on an eighth and quarter commission in Wall Street, was banged into the vice-presidency of the Wagner Palace Car Company by brother Seward; made the acquaintance of Cornelius Vanderbilt, the next natural step, and became assistant to Chauncey M. Depew, president of the N. Y. C. and H. R. R. Co.; owns magnificent estates in the Adirondacks with brother Seward; is vice-president of the Dunkirk, Allegheny Valley and Pittsburg Railroad; third vice-president of the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg Railroad; president of the Troy Union Railroad, and heaven knows what else.

Even the father of the present-day Webbs, General James Watson Webb, was a considerable man of affairs and a journalist of note. He it was who made the New York World possible by handing down to posterity the Courier and Enquirer. I doubt if we should forgive him this offense. President Zachary Taylor appointed him Minister to Austria, and Lincoln sent him as Minister to Turkey and Brazil. So constant luck has attended the Webbs from the earliest times to the present day, that I wouldn't mind being Webb-footed myself.

Preachers in the Market.

Three New York preachers have been known to take flyers in the security, grain and cotton markets from time to time. Others have been suspected. In the Street are several ex-preachers, some members of the Stock Exchange, some of the Consolidated.

Henry Ward Beecher was not above taking a chance now and then in Wall Street. He made a good deal of money out of his books, and invested it all in the market. I don't know whose tip he took, but it is a shrewd guess that "Deacon" White had something to do with it. George I. Seney may have "put the old man on." At any rate, every cent was lost, and Beecher quit the game.

I heard Beecher tell the story on himself. The money earned by his books—"Eyes and Ears," "Norwood," "A Summer Parish" and "Earlier Scenes"—amounted to about $10,000 net. Being a trifle hard up at the time he attempted to increase his fortune by a sudden stroke, instead of investing it at 7 per cent. Some went into gold mines, the rest in margins. "If a man has a good business and invests in stocks," he said, "or is tempted to put his money in a gold mine, he is greedy. I know it—I have tried it a little. All I wanted to make was 25 per cent."

An Old Advertiser's Advice.

In New York a few days ago the resident partner in that city of the Wanamaker firm delivered an address before the Merchants' Association on "Advertising as a Busines Force." The speaker based his remarks on a long experience in extensive and successful newspaper advertising. He began by saying that a retail business may be divided into three parts: the goods to be sold, the persons employed to sell them and the advertising. While the three were considered of equal importance the advertising was called "the dynamic power of the business," setting it in motion and increasing its volume. One point brought out is that the relative importance of advertising is not taken seriously enough, that is, not regarded as one of the essentials. The speaker would no more think of running a business without advertising than of owning machinery without a motive power.

Money, it was admitted, can be wasted in advertising. The advertiser may underrate its value and, indeed, give but slight study to its principles, and be soon discouraged. "The most successful advertising I have ever known," said this expert, "is that which has been exploited on a very large scale. The man who has had the courage to advertise to a certain extent and spend $20,000, should have had the courage to spend another $5,000 and vitalize all the rest." In these cases there is a lack of the needful faith and persistence. Advertising was presented as a necessity of the retail business, its pulse, movement and circulation. The newspaper column is the merchants' rostrum. In using it to address the public his statements must be veritable. Advertisements must be well expressed, and the illustrations of a good grade. It has been the Wanamaker policy to advertise in a terse, direct style, though freely as to space, and to use a typography which newspaper readers soon recognize as distinctive.

Fashionable Wedding in Park Avenue Baptist Church.

COARD-JOHNSON NUPTIALS.

CELEBRATED WITH GREAT BEAUTY LAST EVENING.

The Bride Was Miss Alice Dupuy Coard and the Groom Harry Frapsie Johnson—An Easter Wedding in all its Elaborate Details—Magnificent Floral Decorations in the Church—Bridal Party Attired in Beautiful Gowns—How the Ceremony Was Performed—Reception Given at the Home of the Bride's Parents—The Gifts.

As one of the principal events of the week of joy and brightness that follows the solemn Lenten season, the marriage of Miss Alice Dupuy Coard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John James Kirby Coard, of East Ninth street, and Harry Frapsie Johnson, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Johnson, of LaGrande avenue, took place last evening in the Park Avenue Baptist church. It was a beautiful Easter wedding, well worthy of the time. A host of friends, made during the long residence of the young couple in this city, gathered in the church with many others from other cities to witness the nuptial ceremony. It was a glad occasion, the Easter season, the bright skies and balmy air of spring all uniting in the celebration of it.

The wedding was one of the most beautiful and elaborate of the year. It was held in the Park Avenue Baptist church, where both of the young people attend service. As appropriate to Easter, the magnificent floral decorations at the church were entirely of green and white. The central platform was one mass of Easter lilies and other white flowers surrounded by palms. The organ loft was similarly decorated. On the front of the lower platform was an altar, covered with white satin, over which hung a floral bell of the prevailing colors. On either side were ranged the lilies and palms in profusion. In other parts of the church the decorations were artistically arranged. The general effect was very beautiful.

The ceremony began at 8 o'clock. While the organist, Miss Jessie Utter, rendered several selections the guests that thronged the church were escorted to their seats by the ushers. Soon every seat was filled and many were left standing. Then the six ushers marched to the front of the church while the grand strains of the Tannhauser march were heard. The ushers were Harry Williams, Henry A. Patton, William R. Coriell, a cousin of the groom, George F. Coard, brother of the bride, Joseph Sawyer, Jr., of New York, and Ernest Franke, of Breslau.

As the ushers reached the open space in front of the platform the six bridesmaids entered from the doors in either side of the platform and marched past them and up the aisle. They were all attired in gowns of white mousseline de soie over green silk and carried bouquets of pink roses and mignonette. They were Miss Grace Spencer, of Passaic; Miss Nettie Hills and Miss Grace Hills, of Plainville, Conn.; Miss Mabel Voorhees, of Elizabeth, and Miss Maud Middleditch and Miss Ethel Holmes of Plainfield.

Followed by the ushers they went to the doorway in the rear of the church. There they were met by the maid-of-honor, Miss Mabel Coard, sister of the bride, and the bride herself on the arm of her father.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white ivory satin trimmed with pearl garniture and real lace.

Her bridal veil was caught up with a sunburst of diamonds. She carried a boquet of lilies of-the-valley and orchids. The maid of honor wore a gown of pink silk and white mousseline de soie. She carried pink roses.

Then the bridal party passed down the aisle to the centre of the church. The groom and best man, Herbert G. Johnson, his brother, made their entrance with the officiating clergyman, Rev. John Wilbur Richardson, through the side door and awaited them at the altar.

With the appearance of the bride, the music had changed to the Lohengrin wedding march. The bridesmaids and ushers formed a semi circle in front of the altar. Then came the beautiful and impressive ceremony. The bride was given away by her father. After the couple knelt at the altar and received the blessing of the clergyman, the Mendelssohn wedding march pealed forth.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson led the bridal party up the aisle, followed by the MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

RESULT OF VOTING IN SEVERAL JERSEY CITIES YESTERDAY.

Elizabeth and Rahway Went Republican and New Brunswick Democratic—Newark Will Have a Democratic Mayor

Elections were held yesterday in Newark, Jersey City, Paterson, New Brunswick, Orange, Trenton, Elizabeth, Hoboken, Bayonne and other New Jersey towns.

As a result of yesterday's voting James M. Seymour, Democrat, stays in Newark's Mayorality chair, and Joseph M. Byrne, Democrat, is the successor of William Stainsby, Republican, in the Board of Works.

Mayor John C. Rankin, Republican, of Elizabeth, will surrender his office to Dr. W. A. M. Mack, Republican, who defeated Fred C. Marsh.

Harry Stetson succeeds John Gill, Republican, as Mayor of Orange.

In Jersey City the election of Col. Robert G. Smith, a Davis Democrat, to the Board of Works was a foregone conclusion.

The most notable fight in Paterson was in the Eighth Ward, where the Democratic leaders recaptured the stronghold taken from them four years ago by Alderman Matthew Maguire, a Socialist.

Rahway Republicans carried everything. The Council will stand: Eight Republicans to three Democrats.

In New Brunswick the Democratic City ticket was elected. This leaves the political complexion of the Common Council as at present.

DELEGATES AT DUNELLEN.

A NUMBER OF PLAINFIELD WOMEN TOOK AN ACTIVE PART.

Nearly All the Old Officers Were Re-elected, Which Include a Number From Plainfield—Addresses Delivered on Foreign Missionary Work—Delegates Appointed to Attend Conferences of Women's Societies—The Convention of the Presbyterial Society Will be Held in Plainfield Next Year.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, April 13.—The twenty-seventh annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Presbyterial Society of the Elizabeth Presbytery was held yesterday in the Presbyterian church. There were 128 delegates present from all parts of the district. Mrs. J. T. Kerr, of Elizabeth, president of the society, presided over the sessions. Miss E. M. Colton, of Elizabeth, was the secretary.

The delegates were welcomed by A. I. Martine, pastor of the church. One of the important features ot the morning session, which began at 10 o'clock, was the report of the treasurer, Mrs. E. P. Tenney, of Roselle. It showed that $4,950.08 had been received and expended during the year for missions. The report of the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Wilson W. Smith, of Plainfield, was very encouraging, as were also the reports of Miss L. B. Allen, young people's secretary, and Miss J. J. Smith, secretary of literature. The closing hour of the morning session was devoted to an address by Mrs. John Gillespie, of Elizabeth, who gave a talk on missions in foreign fields. From 1:30 to 2:15 p. m. a conference for young people was held. At the morning service a duet was effectively rendered by Mrs. Anna Abbott and Mrs. O. B. Chandler. Mrs. Wilson Fredericks presided at the organ. In the afternoon Mrs. O. B. Chandler sang a pretty solo.

The features of the afternoon sessions were the addresses by Mrs. J. C. R Ewing, and Robert E. Speer, of Elizabeth. Both were along the line of foreign missions, and each speaker held the closest attention of the large audience present.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, Mrs. J. T. Kerr, Elizabeth; vice-presidents, Mrs. C H. Langdon, Elizabeth; Mrs. J. A. Liggett, Rahway; Mrs. J. G. Mason, Metuchen; Mrs. S. E. Lewis, Rahway; Mrs. S. J. Rowland, Clinton; Mrs S. Milliken, Plainfield; Mrs. F. H. Pierson, Elizabeth; Mrs. V. O. Burtis, Westfield; Mrs. William Scribner, Plainfield; Mrs. J. Gillipsie, Elizabeth, Mrs. E. B. Cobb, Elizabeth; coresponding secretary, Mrs. Wilson W. Smith, Plainfield; recording secretary, Miss E. M. Colton, Elizabeth; young people's secretary, Miss L. B. Allen, Elizabeth; assistant secretary, Miss Emily Tracy, Plainfield; secretary of literature, Miss Jessie J. Smith, Elizabeth; treasurer, Mrs. E. P. Tenney, Roselle; assistant treasurer, Mrs. W. P. Stevenson, Roselle.

Mrs. Smith was appointed a delegate to attend the conference of women's societies to be held at Trenton, while Mrs. Carr and Mrs. Tenney were appointed delegates to attend a similar conference to be held at Princeton.

The committee on resolutions, in closing, thanked all those who took part on the programme and all who helped to make the meeting a success. The meeting closed about 4:30 in the afternoon.

The Plainfield Presbyterian churches were well represented by their best workers, who were successful in securing the society to decide upon meeting in the Crescent Avenue church, Plainfield, in April, 1899.

CONGRESS MEANS WAR.

Majority Resolutions Reported This Afternoon.

DEMANDS THAT SPAIN WITHDRAW FROM CUBA AND AUTHORIZE PRESIDENT TO INTERVENE WITH ARMED FORCE.

SPECIALS TO THE DAILY PRESS.

Washington, April 13.—This morning Secretary Long, of the Navy Department, issued sealed orders to Commander Schley, of the Flying Squadron, commanding him to sail south at 2 o'clock. To what point it is impossible to learn. This action created excitement in legislative circles, as it was taken to mean that war was inevitable and that the Flying Squadron was going into active service.

Another very important happening this morning was the decision of the Naval Auxiliary Board to purchase the American liners St. Paul and St. Louis.

It is officially announced that the flying squadron has gone to sea to practice for 48 hours. Sigsbee will captain the St. Paul and Goodrich the St. Louis.

The Senate committee on Foreign relations made its report to the Senate this afternoon. The report declares that the battle ship Maine was willfully destroyed by the Spanish.

The report denounces it as the duplicity, perfidy and cruelty of the Spanish character.

The resolution, introduced by the committee, is as follows;

"Whereas, the abhorent condition of affairs, which has existed in Cuba for over three years has shocked the people of the United States and has been a disgrace to Christian civilization and culminting in the destruction of the battles ship Maine and the loss of 266 officers and crew while on a friendly visit in the harbor of Havana, has been set forth by the President of the United States in his message of April 11th.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled:

First, That the people of the island of Cuba are and of a right ought to be free and independent.

Second, that it is the duty of the United States to demand and the government of the United States does demand that the government of Spain at once relinquish its authority and government in the island of Cuba and withdraw its land and naval forces from Cuba and Cuban waters.

Third, That the President of the United States be and is hereby directed and empowered to use the entire land and naval forces of the United States, and to call Large Increase in Membership and Finances—Rev. J. T. Duryea Chosen as Delegate to the General Synod Which Will Meet at Asbury Park—Rev. Cornelius Schenck Named for Member of the Board Which Examines Applicants For the Ministry—Detailed Reports From Each Society in the Classis Were Read.

The spring meeting of the Newark Classis of Dutch Reformed churches, was held in this city yesterday in the Trinity Reformed church.

The morning service was taken up with routine business, including the reports of several of the standing committees of the classis. The session was presided over by Rev. T. J. Lee, D. D., pastor of the First Reformed church, of Newark.

The afternoon session began at 2 o'clock with a praise service, conducted by Rev. Donald Sage Mackay, D. D., pastor of the North Reformed church, of Newark. The singing was led by a large choir of ladies of Trinity Reformed church. Addresses of a devotional nature were delivered by pastors of the classis.

At 2:30 o'clock the business session was resumed with Rev. Dr. Lee in the chair. A detailed report from each church in the classis was then presented, the pastors reading them. The churches presenting reports were the Belleville church, Irvington church, New York Avenue church, of Newark; Franklin church, North church, of Newark; West Newark church, Clinton Avenue church, of Newark; Linden church, Christ church, of Newark; Orange church, Trinity Reformed and German Reformed churches, of this city, and the Montclair church. The reports were all referred to the standing committee on the state of religion.

A discussion took place upon the question of how to dispose of the names of church members who have ceased to attend church and have failed to ak for letters of dismissal. It was the prevailing opinion that some means should be devised to enable the churches to get rid of such names. The matter was referred to a committee consisting of Rev. Joseph T. Duryea, of Orange, and Rev. Mr. Janeeen.

The report of the standing committee on the State of Religion showed that the denomination has reached this year its high-water mark in membership and in finances. The report showed a total of 2,440 families and 4 088 communicants upon the membership rolls of the churches. The classis has sixteen Sunday-schools with a total of 5,006 pupils.

Rev. Joseph T. Duryea was nominated for delegate to the General Synod which will meet at Asbury Park. Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph. D., was named for member of the general board of superintendents, whose duty it is to examine candidates for the ministry.

FIRST BAPTIST AFFAIRS.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING WAS HELD LAST EVENING.

The Society Has Collected and Expended Over $6,000 for Church Expenses During the Past Year—New Trustees Elected.

The annual parish meeting of the First Baptist church was held last evening in the lecture room of the church and was well attended. L. V. F. Randolph was selected as chairman of the meeting, and O. B. Leonard, stated clerk, filled his regular position. The first business was the presentation of the report of Alex. Gilbert, treasurer. This report shows the total receipts during the year to be $6,174.83, and the expenditures $6,050 89, leaving a balance on hand of $123.99. Of the above amount $3 915 was expended for salaries. The amount collected from pew rents was $4 104.56.

The present financial condition of the church shows that the assests are $1.589.14 and the liabilities $7,389.69, making the liabilities over the assests to be $5,854.89. On the side of liabilities is a note of $6.000 which is termed a floating debt caused by additions to the church some time ago.

The estimated expenses for the coming year are counted as $6,123.99, which is $108 in excess of the amount counted upon as receipts.

The next thing on the programme was the election of trustees. The resignation of Martin I. Cooley, trustee, who has another year to serve, was received and accepted, leaving in all four trustees to be chosen, the terms of J. D. Runyon, S. St. J. McCutchen and E. J. Waring having expired. The election resulted in the selection of J. D. Runyon, T. S. Armstrong, S. St. John McCutchen and O B. Leonard. This concluded the business of the evening and the meeting adjourned.

DUNELLEN HAS A SAY ABOUT SEWER BEDS.

State Board of Health Receives a Complaint.

INVESTIGATION TO BE MADE.

PROMINENT CITIZENS PRESENTED A BIG PETITION.

Urged That Sewer Beds Were a Nuisance and Spread Ill Health Through the Community by the Variety of Ill Smells Which They Emit—State Officials Will Make Personal Inspection to Decide Whether Action Should be Taken to Compel the City to Quit Dumping its Refuse on the Sewer Farm.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, April 13.—After two years of agitation concerning the alleged nuisance which the city of Plainfield established at their very noses, the indignant residents of Dunellen appeared before the State Board of Health yesterday and made complaint against the sewage disposal beds near Clinton avenue. The complaint came in the form of a petition containing over a hundred names of people living in Dunellen and the western end of Plainfield, who state that the maintenance of the sewer beds is a constant menace to the health of the community and have become to be such a nusisance that they ask the State health officials to interfere and suppress the city from dumping its offal at their very doors.

The petition was presented by Rev. A. L. Todd, Adam Dealaman, William Craig and John Peters, who urged that immediate action be taken in the matter.

President Brackett and Secretary Mitchell, of the Board, were appointed a committee to confer with the people of Dunellen and inspect the territory in the vicinity of the sewer beds. They will start the investigation in a few days.

There is not much doubt but what the health officials will find the whole population of Dunellen, as well as a good portion of the Fourth ward in this city, up in arms over the presence of the sewage beds in their neighborhood. Ever since their establishment property owners nearby have declared that the value of their property has been deteriorated, and that the smells that arise from the beds are a source of ill health. As a result of these complaints, the city is a defendant in an action for $10,000 damages which Mrs. Sarah Milliken, who lives near the sewage beds, claims she suffered by reason of the smells and presence of the beds near her home. She conducted a boarding house, and she claims that the sewer farm drove away all of her boarders. The case will be heard at the next term of the Supreme Court in Union county.

WIFE RAN THE HOUSE.

The Novel Defence Heard in Justice Nash's Court.

The trouble between Charles Drake and his wife, Mrs. Lizzie Drake, was settled some time ago Then they attempted to go to housekeeping once again. Mrs. Drake's parents had the possession of the household goods of the Drake establishment and refused to give them up. Then Mrs. Drake brought suit in Justice Nash's court against her father, John Waldron, for $200, the alleged value of the goods. The defence put up by the defendant was rather remarkable. He claimed that his wife was the business man of the household and ran the house, her husband paying board. A non suit was granted for the reason that the plaintiff was under age.

CUBA IN THE SENATE

Senator Mason Speaks for a Declaration of War.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED

Mr. Lindsay Wants to Co-operate With Gomez—Senator Allen Says That a State of War Already Exists—Mason Makes a War Speech.

Washington, April 13.—In the Senate yesterday afternoon Mr. Lindsay (Ky.) offered the following joint resolution and asked that it be laid on the table:

First. That the contemplated military operations against the Spanish armies on the island of Cuba should be carried on in concert with the military forces under the command of Gen. Maximo Gomez; such concert to be secured through arrangements between this Government and the Cuban revolutionary authorities recognized by said Gomez, and that any offer looking to such arrangements that may be made by those authorities, should be favorably considered, provided it shall concede to the commanding officer of the United States the right to control and direct all military operations.

Second. That all such military operations should be carried on to the end that the independence of the Cuban people may be secured.

Allen's Resolution.

Senator Allen introduced a resolution in the Senate declaring that a state of war already exists between Spain and the United States.

Mr. Allen's resolution reads as follows:

"That a state of war exists between the United States of America and the kingdom of Spain, and that the political existence and national independence of the republic of Cuba now, and for some time maintained by forec of arms, is hereby recognized. That the President is empowered and directed to act at once; take such effectual steps as may be necessary to secure an immediate termination of hostilities in Cuba and an independent and stable government by the people thereof, and, to enable him to carry out the purpose of this resolution, he is hereby empowered and directed to use the land and naval forces of the United States." The resolution went over under the rules.

Wilson's Resolution.

Mr. Wilson (Wash.) introduced the following joint resolution:

"Whereas, The conditions which for three years past have prevailed and are now prevailing in the island of Cuba have become intolerable to the people of the United States; therefore, be it.

"Resolved, That the President of the United States is empowered and directed to take at once such steps as may be necessary to put an end to hostilities in the island of Cuba, and to secure to the inhabitants of that island a stable and independent republican form of government, and the President of the United States is empowered and directed to use, if necessary, the land and naval forces of the United States to make this joint resolution effective."

At Mr. Wilson's request, the resolution was referred to the Foreign Relations Committee.

Senator Pettus, of Alabama, forestalled Senator Mason by getting possession of the floor first. He made an argument on the subject of the powers of the President and of Congress in declaring war.

Mason for War.

Senator Mason had his speech before him in printed slips and read it, emphasazing his declarations with numerous gestures. He said he would not have offered any remarks at present had the Foreign Relations Committee been ready to report. He believed that the country demanded prompt action. He contended for intervention with recognition of the Cuban Republic, and said he was supported by the record of Henry Clay and precedents set by Congress. Senator Mason quoted from the acts of Congress in relation to various South American governments. He opened his speech as follows:

"As before announced to you, in language which could not be misunderstood, I am for war, and have been since the hour our flag was lowered in Havana harbor and the lives of our citizens taken by the government of Spain. But I am and have been for this declaration of war only as a means of securing an honorable peace.

"I have no desire to destroy the Spanish nation, but her flag must be dishonored by surrendering her sovereignity over Cuban territory as an atonement for lowering our flag, sinking our ship and murdering our men. While I am for war, I realize that I have but one poor vote in the war-making power of this Government, and I stand ready in this hour to uphold the hands of the executive and take the best I can get. I have been indulging in a hope that seemed almost a certainty—that the Executive would recommend intervention and independence to the Cuban republic. Intervention by force of arms, as recommended by the President, is war. To declare for intervention without declaring directly, openly for war, seems to lack frankness and savors too much of Spanish diplomacy. If we can have armed intervention without recognizing the independence of Cuba, and can have nothing else, I must accept the will of the majority, reserving to myself the right to respectfully protest, and also reserving the right to fight for the independence of the brave men, women and children in the island of Cuba.

Precedent for Recognition.

Mr. Mason then went into the history of what had been done by this country in the past regarding recognition and continued:

"Are we to be governed by precedent, Mr. President? Here is the struggling island of Cuba, and it does not seem possible that any one now can doubt after the testimony of our colleabue, the Senator from Vermont, as to the high character of the native Cubans in revolt against Spain. Is it possible that after the evidence has been before us in public documents for more than a year we have to go through the horrible struggle of proving to some of the gentlemen the existence of the truth of that government as we did in proving to you the horrible situation of the reconcentrados? Is the doubting Thomas still among us, and will he insist for further proof as to the genuine civil government in Cuba?

OBJECTIONS IN THE HOUSE.

Appeal to Leader Baily to Allow Consideration of Battalion Bill.

Washington, April 13.—Immediately after the reading of the journal yesterday the Speaker recognized Mr. Hillborn (Rep., Cal.) to call up, on behalf of the Naval Committee, the Senate bill for the organization of a naval battalion in the District of Columbia. Mr. Bailey indicated his purpose to object unless an amendment were offered to organize this battalion under existing law. Mr. Dingley appealed to Mr. Bailey to allow the consideration of the bill.

"Does not the gentleman from Texas think," said he, "that in the present situation we should be considering bills of this character?"

"I suggest the bill be withheld until we see what the report of the Committee on Foreign Affairs is to be, so that we can determine exactly what the condition in the country is," replied Mr. Bailey. "If the fear he entertains has no more foundation than the report that the President's message last Wednesday might have created a riot in Havana, the gentleman need not be exercised. The President's message might have created a riot in Cuba, but it would not have been among the Spanish in Havana. It would have been among the insurgents in the interior." (Laughter and applause on the Democratic side.)

"I rise to a parliamentary inquiry," shouted Mr. Terry (Dem., Ark.). "What need have we for an army and navy anyway?" (Laughter.)

Mr. Ridgeley (Pop., Kan.), then objected.

Mr. Adams (Rep., Pa.), acting chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee, then asked unanimous consent for the committee to sit during the sessions of the House. The request was granted.

Mr. Lacey (Rep., Iowa) asked consideration for a bill to extend the scope of the duties of the Fish Commission to wild and game brids.

"In these warlike times," observed Mr. McMillin (Dem., Tenn.), "I think we should not waste our time on bills relating to birds. I object." (Laughter.)

TROOPS WITH THE SHIPS.

Necessity of a Strong Force of Soldiers if Havana Should Be Occupied.

Key West, Fla., April 13.—Great interest is felt here in the preparations made by the Government officials to land troops in Cuba, should such a step become necessary. An officer of high rank, with the fleet, when questioned on the subject, said he was not aware of any such arrangements having been made, but he presumed the necessary steps in that direction had been taken.

He added that the fleet itself could not transport a sufficient number of men to make an efficient landing party. Therefore, transports must be provided, as it would be necessary to disembark a strong force of troops in Cuba, failing which, the first few shots fired would be likely to be the signal for rioting in the City of Havana and elsewhere, notably in the provinces of Matanzas and Pinar del Rio, in which case many innocent lives would be sacrificed.

A Spaniard of position said to an Englishman just before the latter left Havana on Saturday last: "So soon as the certainty of war is known here, there will surely be such a demonstratijon as Havana has never known before. I dread to think of the consequences to life and property. Many of the Volunteers are mere lads of twelve or fourteen years of age. They have never handled rifles until recently, and they have no idea how to handle them properly. These boys, even if they wanted to do so, could not keep their rifles out of the hands of the rebels. The Government cannot furnish protection, and we shall be fortunate if we are able to save our own skins."

BALLOON FOR WAR PURPOSES.

Test Will Be Made To-Morrow at Fort Wadsworth.

New York, April 13.—It is understood that the Government has fixed to-morrow as the day when the official test of the war balloon will be tried, at Fort Wadsworth. If the weather is unfavorable for the trial, however, it will be postponed.

The balloon, with its equipments, weighs 40,000 pounds. It is made of silk and is forty feet in diameter. It requires 14,000 cubic feet of gas to inflate it. Three officers and the aeronaut will enter the wicker basket, with lights and flags for signalling, and the balloon will then be slowly let out by means of a reel until it has reached a height of 1,800 feet. A telephone is attached to the big air ship. When the balloon is at its full height it is possible for the men to see, with the aid of their glasses, a distance of fifty miles. By means of the telephone the forts in the harbor can be communicated with and informed of the approach of an enemy, much in advance.

Democratic Wave Sweeps New Jersey.

Newark, N. J., April 13.—The Democrats carried almost everything in sight at the election in this city yesterday. Mayor James L. Seymour was elected by a majority which is in excess of 3,000. Joseph M. Byrne, the Democratic candidate for Member of the Board of Street and Water Commissioners, carries the city by more than 1,000. The Democrats captured several wards from the Republicans and increased their majority in the Board of Aldermen, and obtain control of the Board of Education.

Don Carlos Speaks.

London, April 13.—According to a special dispatch from Venice, Don Carlos, the pretender to the Spanish throne, has declared his intention to "hold aloof from hostile manifestations so long as the Spanish Government upholds the honor of the nation," otherwise he will "take the steps he deems necessary to support the dignity of the country."

CUBAN WAR MUST STOP

Committees Agree to Report for Armed Intervention.

WILL SUSTAIN PRESIDENT

For Intervention but Not Recognition of the Present Cuban Republic—President Given Entire Authority to Use the Forces at His Command.

Washington, April 13.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has practically agreed to report all the Foraker resolutions except the second, together with a strong preamble reciting the Maine disaster as a cause for deep resentment on the part of this Government. Unless the commitee changes its decision the following, in addition to the preamble, are the resolutions which will be reported by the committee:

"First. That the people of the island of Cuba are, and of right ought to be free and independent.

"Second. That the war Spain is waging against Cuba is so destructive of the commercial and property interests of the United States and so cruel, barbarous and inhuman in its character as to make it the duty of the United States to demand, and the Government of the United States does hereby demand that she at once withdraw her land and naval forces from Cuba and Cuban waters.

"Third. That the President of the United States be and he hereby is, authorized, empowered and directed to use, if necessary, the entire land and naval forces of the United States to carry these resolutions into effect."

It can be stated that as soon as the resolution is passed the President will be ready to act.

His plan is to carry food to the sufferers; but to do so in vessels of our navy, accompanied by soldiers, and have this relief distributed by the armed forces of the United States. In other words, he is going to take possession of the island of Cuba to restore peace and stop hostilities.

It is stated also that the President's plan is to do this at once, as soon as he gets authority from Congress. He intends to act just as soon as he can make the necessary arrangements. If Spain objects to this, and puts obstructions in the way, or interferes, she will be the aggressor, and the President fill then send the full naval and army force to the island.

The House Committee was in session until a late hour last night, and will meet again to-day. The Democrats of that commitee insist on a minority report embodying the following points: First, armed intervention second, independence; third, an appropriation of $1,000,000 for the destitute and suffering reconcentrados.

It may be that an agreement can be reached before the House meets, but this is not certain. Those Republicans in the House heretofore known as the irreconcilables, and who favored the immediate recognition of the Republic of Cuba, decided last night to vote for the Senate resolutions. Further, these Representatives will oppose a resolution, if presented, to recognize the Cuban Republic.

This action by the two committees is regarded as most hostile. It is hard to see now how war can be averted. Certainly the action of the committees is most warlike.

Should the House pass the resolution first, as it doubtless will do, the same resolution can be substituted for the Senate resolution in the Senate. Nothing can be said definitely now as to the length of time which will be consumed in the two houses debating the resolution.

Unless the curb is put on in the House the chances are that debate will run along for several days, perhaps until Friday or Saturday. In the Senate, however, quick action is contemplated. Only two Senators, Caffery of Louisiana and White of California, are known to have long speeches.

The Cuban question has been debated so fully in the Senate that it is doubtful if it will be gone into further when the Senate committee reports to-day.

Mr. Cannon, Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, said yesteday afternoon: "I regard war as inevitable. The United States will intevene and intevention means war."

Representatives Grosvenor, Dingley and other leaders, it is aserted, have agreed to the resolution.

WILL SUSTAIN THE PRESIDENT.

President's Efforts to End Cuban War Will Have Congressional Support.

Washington, April 13.—The indications are to-day that Congress will sustain the President. It will accept his words: "The war must stop," as a call to arms. It will join him in insisting that "Spain must go," and go at once.

There is no doubt that at first reading there was general disapointment at the message. The postponement last Wednesday until Monday, and the reasons given at that time, led Congress and the American people to believe that it was a strong denunciation of the brutality of the Spanish treatment of he reconcenrados, and a calm, yet severe and firm, arraignment of the treachery that blew up the Maine. Instead the President presented a dispassionate, restrained history of the case, covering 5,000 words. Added to these thousands of words, however, were several hundred appealing to the whole American people and pointing out the duty and the way.

"The long trial has proved that the object for which Spain has waged the war cannot be attained."

"The only hope of relief and repose from a condition which can no longer be endured is the enforced pacification of Cuba.

"The issue is now with Congress."

And Congress is alive to its duty, appreciating to the full its sense of responsibility. It is believed that the whole Committee on Foreign Relations with the exception of Senator Frye will rally 'round McKinley's cry: "The war must stop." Frye thinks that war will surely come, but he wants it postponed until some time later.

There is but one difference between the President and Congress. The Presi

Are added to your veins by taking one of Dr. Campbell's Red Blood Forming Capsuloids with each meal three times daily. This is the only natural iron medicine known. It is the natural iron extracted from fresh bullocks' blood.

We do no miracles; all we do is to cure people and give them two ounces of new blood daily when they take Dr. Campbell's Red Blood Forming Capsuloids. By enriching the blood they restore its natural iron or Hæmoglobin to it; it cures all the chronic blood diseases, among which may be mentioned anæmia, or paleness; chlorosis, or green sickness; palpitation, rickets, scrofula, consumption or tuberculosis, indigestion, amennorhœa, pains in the head or back, and all monthly irregularities. Physicians will tell you that this is the only medicine in the world that can do this, and if they are up-to-date they prescribe them in all such cases.

LEE IN WASHINGTON

Gives Testimony Before the Foreign Relations Committee.

OPPOSED TO RECOGNITION

The Consul General's Story of the Situation in Cuba and of His Experiences Creates a Profound Impression—Havana Can Easily Be Taken.

Washington, April 13.—General Fitzhugh Lee's appearance before the Committee on Foreign Relations yesterday afternoon had a good effect on the committee, and the relation of his personal experiences and observations in Havana united the committee in favor of prompt intervention—of a mandatory nature.

He told the committee, in graphic style, the story of his career in Havana during the last few years and in his description of the destruction of the Maine, while it contained nothing outside of the official report, he gave his impression of the disaster, and the report and gossip of Havana, which the Court of Inquiry could not regard as admissible testimony.

General Lee brought out one very important feature in his statement before the committee, and that was the instability of the present Cuban Republic.

He is not in favor of recognizing the independence of the existing Cuban Government, but he believes if the United States intervene by force and drive the Spaniards from the island a satisfactory government can be established and maintained. On this point General Lee was very emphatic, and his statements made a profound impression upon the members of the committee.

In view of his advice on the subject of independence, the committee will not provide for the recognition of the Cuban Republic in its report to be submitted to-day.

General Lee did not throw any additional light upon the Maine disaster, although some of the circumstances he related created a strong sentiment in favor of immediate action.

He talked freely with the committee in regard to the conditions in Cuba, and especially with reference to the destruction of the Maine. He said that in his opinion there was no room to doubt that the destruction of the vessel was due to Spanish agencies.

"Do you mean the Spanish authorities in Cuba?" he was asked by a member of the committee.

"I mean the Spanish officials," he replied, "but not General Blanco. I think some of the officials were cognizant of the plans to destroy the vessel, but I do not believe that the Captain-General was.""

General Lee informed the committee of the weakness of the Spanish defense in Cuba, and intimated that Havana would fall an easy prey to an attack from the American fleet. He said that the entrance to Havana Harbor, off Morro Castle, is mined with torpedoes, which can be fired from either shore, but beyond the entrance to the harbor the defenses are weak.

He said he is anxious to return to Havana not as Consul-general, but as an officer in the United States army. The patriotic utterances caused considerable enthusiasm among the members of this usually dignified group of Senators, and the committee unanimously agreed that General Lee should be given a commission as major-general and ordered to duty in Cuba in the event of war.

General Lee was asked if there was any foundation for the report that he had stated that a diver discovered a mine under the United States ship Montgomery when the later vessel was sent to Havana to relieve the Fern.

He denied having made any such statement, but informed the committee how easy it was to hear all kinds of sensational reports in Havana during the last six weeks.

LEE AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

In Conference with President and Cabinet Members—Cheered by Thousands.

Washington, April 13.—General Fitzhugh Lee arived here yesterday afternoon at a quarter of three o'clock and was given a great ovation as he stepped from the train at the Pennsylvania Railroad depot.

Thousands of patriotic citizens stood around the railway station and cheered our Consul-General just from Havana, and hundreds of people followed the State Department carriage in which he was driven to the department, one hundred or more bicyclists accompanying him.

Word had gone to the department that Lee was due to arrive, and the corridors in front of the Secretary's door were jammed with people. As General Lee stepped from the elevator in front of the Secretarys' door the crowd gave three rousing cheers which rang through the building. General Lee bowed his recognition to the and was immediately ushered into the Secretary's room.

The officials of the War, Navy and State Departments deserted their desks to join in honoring Lee.

The enthusiasm throughout the building was tremendous, and the cheers drew a large throng to the corridors.

General Lee remained in the building only a few minutes, quietly departing, accompanied by Secretary Sherman, for the White House.

An unusual scene was presented in front of the White House as the Sherman carriage dashed up the drive and under the broad porch of the Executive Mansion. Around the door were gathered about 150 men, women and boys, who cheered the Consul-General vigorously as he alighted.

Shortly after Secretary Sherman and Gen. Lee arrived at the White House Assistant Secretary Day arrived, and afterward two or three members of the Cabinet. All were shown into the Presidents' room, where a long conference was held.

Last night the city turned out in thousands, when a serenade was given General Lee at his hotel, and stood for hours in the street waiting for a glimpse of him.

The night demonstration was almost as quick and unpremeditated as that which had greeted General Lee at the station and State Department. The United States Marine Band had been secured from the barracks, and the Seventy-first Regiment Band, under the leadership of Prof. Fanciulli, formerly conductor of the Marine Band, came over from New York on an afternoon train.

The crowd assembled without calling, and by 8 o'clock was 5,000 strong in the streets about the Shoreham Hotel, where General Lee was quartered. Before the close it was twice that size.

It was after 9 o'clock before he appeared on one of the small corner balconies, accompanied by a committee of the Union Veterans' Legion and the Confederate Veterans' Association, which were jointly in charge of the affair.

The crowd yelled itself hoarse, calling for Lee by name, and demanding a speech. The speech was brief, and so much broken by applause that the crowd caught probably little more than its general drift.

The speaking and music was followed by a very brief reception, to which a few score gained admittance in the rooms of Representative Connell of Pennsylvania, from whose balcony General Lee had made his address.

TORPEDO BOAT CATCHER.

New Yarrow Craft Arrives on Deck of Minnewaska from London.

New York, April 13.—The New torpedo boat catcher, which the United States has bought from the Yarrows, of England, reached this port yesterday from England. She came on board the American Transport liner Minnewaska.

The boat was placed on the main deck forward of the Minnewaska and was braced there. Her steering gear is all that is needed to place her in active service, and this will probably be adjusted as soon as she is taken off the steamer, so that a trial of her may be made in American waters.

The vessel is 61 feet long, with 9 feet of beam. She draws 2 feet of water forward and 3 feet aft. The boat, which has not yet been named, is represented as among the fastest torpedo boat catchers in the world, a speed of 30 knots an hour being claimed for her. It is also claimed that she can submerge herself so that the water washes her decks. She is designed to be used also as a dispatch boat.

Warship Near Completion.

Washington, April 13.—Commodore Hichborn has issued a statement showing the precentage of completion of the various boats now building for the Navy. The battleships Kearsarge and Kentucky are completed to the extent of 57 per cent., the Illinois 75 per cent., the Alabama 46 per cent., and the Wisconsin 35 1-2 per cent. The gunboat Princeton is 95 per cent. completed and the submarine torpedo boat Plunger 70 per cent. The torpedo boat Rowan is completed to the extent of 94 per cent., the Davis 78 per cent., the Morris 87 per cent., the Mackenzie 92 per cent., the McKee 80 per cent., the Dahlgren 45 per cent., the Faragut 60 per cent., the Fox 73 per cent., the Craven 38 per cent. and the Sringham 15 per cent.

Spanish Fleets Forming.

Washington, April 13.—Advices received by the Navy Department indicate that Spain is organizing as rapidly as possible two powerful fleets, which will, it is supposed, be opposed to the two fleets that this country has assembled at Key West and at Hampton Roads. One of her fleets is forming at Puerto Grande, St. Vincent, Cape de Verde Islands, and the other is forming at Cadiz, Spain.

Naval experts think that the fleet at Cadiz is intended for the defense of the Spanish coast from any attatck by the flying squadron, while the fleet that is assembling at the Cape de Verde Islands is intended for retaliatory attacks upon our coasts.

National Bank's Offer.

Washington, April 13.—Secretary Gage has received the following letter from Edward E. Poor, president of the National Park Bank of New York:

"In the event of the Government requiring funds for use in the present crisis the facilities and resources of this bank are hereby offered for that purpose; and should Congress authorize an issue of bonds for popular investment we desire to offer the services of this bank, with its 5,000 correspondents in all parts of of the country, for the distribution of the bonds to the people, without commission or charge of any kind."

Berlin's Impression of the Message.

London, April 13.—According to a special dispatch from Berlin, the impression created at the German capital by President McKinley's message to Congress was not very favorable. Its tone, the dispatch continues, is considered dilatory and as not promising peace. The politicians, it appears, express the opinion that if the President really had peaceable intentions he would have acknowledged Spain's concession of an armistice.

$50'000,000 Lost by War Scare.

New York, April 13.—Conservative estimates are that the war scare and the uncertainty as to what is to be done has already cost the business community of this city upwards of $50,000,000. And the end is not yet. The greatest depression from suspense thus far noticeable is in the dry goods trade. Many of the shipping and export firms are in a bad way as a direct result of the war scare.

Spain Losing Ground.

London, April 13.—Special dispatches from Madrid say that advices received from the Philippine Islands report that the rebellion there is increasing, and that ten thousand rebels are now under arms. Trouble is feared at Manila.

Senor Polo's Anxiety Over.

Washington, April 13.—The Spanish Minister believes that the war crisis has been averted, for the present at least, and no further thought is being given at the Spanish Legation to the necessity for departure.

Switzerland Bars American Fruit.

Berne, Switzerland, April 13.—The Government has prohibited the importation of American fresh fruits. This action was taken owing to the alleged presence of the San Jose scale in the fruit imported recently.

HAIR-SPLITTING.

Lawyer John S. Voorhees, prosecutor of Middlesex county, is a hair-splitter of the technicalities of a public official's duty. In the Middlesex County Court yesterday Mr. Voorhees portrayed the dual role of citizen and official in wonderfully frank form. As the prosecutor of the county he opposed the granting of a license to a hotel keeper on the knowledge he possessed, as a private citizen, that cock fights were frequently held at the petitioner's place. As a plain everyday lawyer and ordinary citizen he knew that the charge was a truthful one, but as an exacting and honorable official, with whom must rest a large degree of responsibility to suppress such criminal practices, he inferred that he knew nothing of them and therefore was prevented from action. We must conclude, then, that to be elected prosecutor of Middlesex county a man must have two sets of brains—one to use privately and the other as an official guide.

AN INDUSTRIAL OPPORTUNITY.

The call for the Board of Trade meeting which Charles H. Hand, the boomer, urged as one of the means to secure the removal of the western factory employing 400 hands, and having $300,000 capital invested, to to this city, has not yet materialized. There is surely some life in the Board of Trade, since a meeting is to be held tonight to discuss the findings of the Martin Act Commissioners, and there ought to be enough get-up-and-get-there to the organization to make a quick and strong effort to induce the subscription of the $1,500 necessary to bring the industry here. A few factories like that mentioned by Mr. Hand would be a great thing for the business end of Plainfield. The Board of Trade ought to take hold of the matter in aggressive form.

POOR POLITICAL FATE.

To have twice suffered defeat as the Democratic Mayoralty candidate in Elizabeth is a severe blow to the political aspirations of Frederick Marsh. In the campaign which preceded the election yesterday, Mr. Marsh was considered to have a good chance of victory, but when the votes were counted the efforts of his Republican opponents, combined with the chicanery in his own party on the part of John Dunn, laid him low in defeat. As a legal luminary, however, Mr. Marsh will continue to shine in Jersey.

HIGH ART IN THE KITCHEN.

Although we begin with rather a flippant and frivolous heading that is no sign we are not entirely in sympathy with the idea of a nice woman reformer who wants to make things pretty in the kitchen. We sympathize with her especially in that she proposes to reduce the amount of work there rather than increase it.

Miss Louise Booth-Hendricksen, a lecturer on the "Artistic in Household Utensils," contends for the use of bright and handsome cooking things instead of heavy and rusty and burned and greasy old iron pots, pans and kettles. She would have half or two-thirds of all our food cooked directly in the dishes in which it is to be served on the table. The idea is a very taking and aesthetic as well as economic one. Miss Hendricksen says there are so many pretty and artistic cooking vessels made in pottery and enameled ironware, and moreover they are so cheap that any housewife can afford them.

Beautiful dishes and other earthenware utensils are now made so hard baked that any amount of heating will not hurt them, and food can be cooked in them and carried directly to the table. The beautiful blue canton ware the lady declares to be especially adapted for this purpose. There is also a kind of ware made of lava, which under any circumstances could never get so hot as it was when it was formed in the earth. Speed the day of brightness and prettiness and high art in the American kitchen!

WAR CONFERENCE AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

State conferences at the White House are not unusual occurrences, but there are times when they are of more than ordinary importance. When the President confers with a trio from the fighting branch of his large family the situation is exceptionally interesting.

LYNCHING EPIDEMIC.

In The Review of Reviews Rev. Dr. Edward Leigh Pell calls attention to the appalling fact that in the past 17 years nearly 2,500 persons have been murdered by mobs in the United States. In Virginia and one or two other states the lynching epidemic is not quite so virulent as it was, owing to the cultivation of a more civilized and humane sentiment, but the annual sum total of these murders is as great as ever. Lynchings are today the foulest blot on American civilization.

Dr. Pell suggests that intelligent and thoughtful citizens take the evil in hand and destroy it. Legislation is an effective means to this end. Then—

1. Executive officials should be chosen with regard for their personal courage. It is not enough to know how the candidate stands on the law. The question is whether he can be depended upon to stand by the law. 2. The intelligent citizens of the south should individually undertake to awaken in their neighbors a higher regard for law. 3. The papers of the two sections should exchange texts, and the northern press should preach against negro crime and the southern press should preach against lawlessness and race prejudice. The good that has been already accomplished by the few papers that have made this exchange ought to encourage the rest to follow their example. 4. Southern newspapers should omit from their news columns the suggestive details of lynchings as well as the inflammatory details of assaults. 5. The higher education of negroes should be pushed with a view to supplying the demand for capable teachers of righteousness for the race. 6. The south should take the worthy young negro by the hand as earnestly as the mob has taken the unworthy negro by the neck and encourage him in all high endeavor, that the race may not be without salt to save it.

The condition of a nation that has not the pluck to defend itself is pitifully illustrated in the case of China. The powers of Europe will not allow any one among their number to make a loan to China for fear that one should get the start in the partition of the country which is almost certain to come. If any one of the European countries wishes to make with China a contract for building a railway or constructing any other public work, here again some other power objects. Germany objects even to permitting a syndicate from the United States to build a railway through Shangtung, although the Chinese government is believed to earnestly wish such a railway. Germany protests against anybody but Germans constructing the road, because she claims Shangtung for her own. Great Britain demurs against Germany's pretensions in this matter, and if either Germany or England undertook to make the railroad Russia would give them warning that it should not be done. Russia claims the right to officer and discipline the Chinese army exclusively, and her request takes the form of a demand. Among them all the Chinese government is badgered out of its life.

Since the veracious tale of the adventures of Don Quixote and Sancho Panza, likewise Spanish, there has been nothing penned to equal it except the letter Weyler wrote to Queen Christina on his return to Spain after his recall from Cuba. Equally high flown and splendiferous are the style of the narrative of Don Quixote and the style of the letter in which Weyler demanded that the queen should at once call on President McKinley to make apology to the insulted honor of Spain.

Clara Barton, the Red Cross commissioner, can be depended on to tell the truth. Clara Barton has been visiting interior towns in Cuba distributing American supplies to the reconcentrados and she says, "Words cannot describe the misery I have seen."

A curious fact it is that the Madison county poorhouse now stands at the head of old Alder gulch, in Montana, where $100,000,000 in gold have been dug from the ground since 1862.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News, but Just as Interesting.

Chester Denton made a discovery Sunday afternoon in the garret of his home on Prospect avenue. It was an unpleasant discovery. It made things very lively for a time. Denton is a young lad who attends the High School. He went into the garret to find something. He found a nest of "yellow jackets" in full sway. The yellow jackets were indignant at being disturbed on a Sunday afternoon. They showed their feelings by a series of indignant buzzes. Then they fell upon the young invader. Denton fled from the scene but the wasps were with him. They remained long enough to cover his face and eye lids with their stings. Then Denton's face began to swell until it reached hugh proportions. He could not see out of either eye and had to be led about by his relatives. The stings were very painful.

A special feature with this organization is a number of high-class specialties between the acts. Matinees Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The heartiest kind of laughter was heard in Music Hall last night. The occasion for it was the production of that roaring comedy, "My Friend From India." The comedy bristles with bright dialogue and funny situations, growing out of the introduction of a bohemian tonsorial artist into the household of a Kansas City pork packer, who has come to New York to get into society, as the climax to one of the escapades of the pork packer's son. As the theosophical barber, Walter E. Perkins, who created the role in the original production, was the victim of his own good nature and pliability in a way that was very ludicrous. The supporting company was good.
